MARAUDER PRIDE

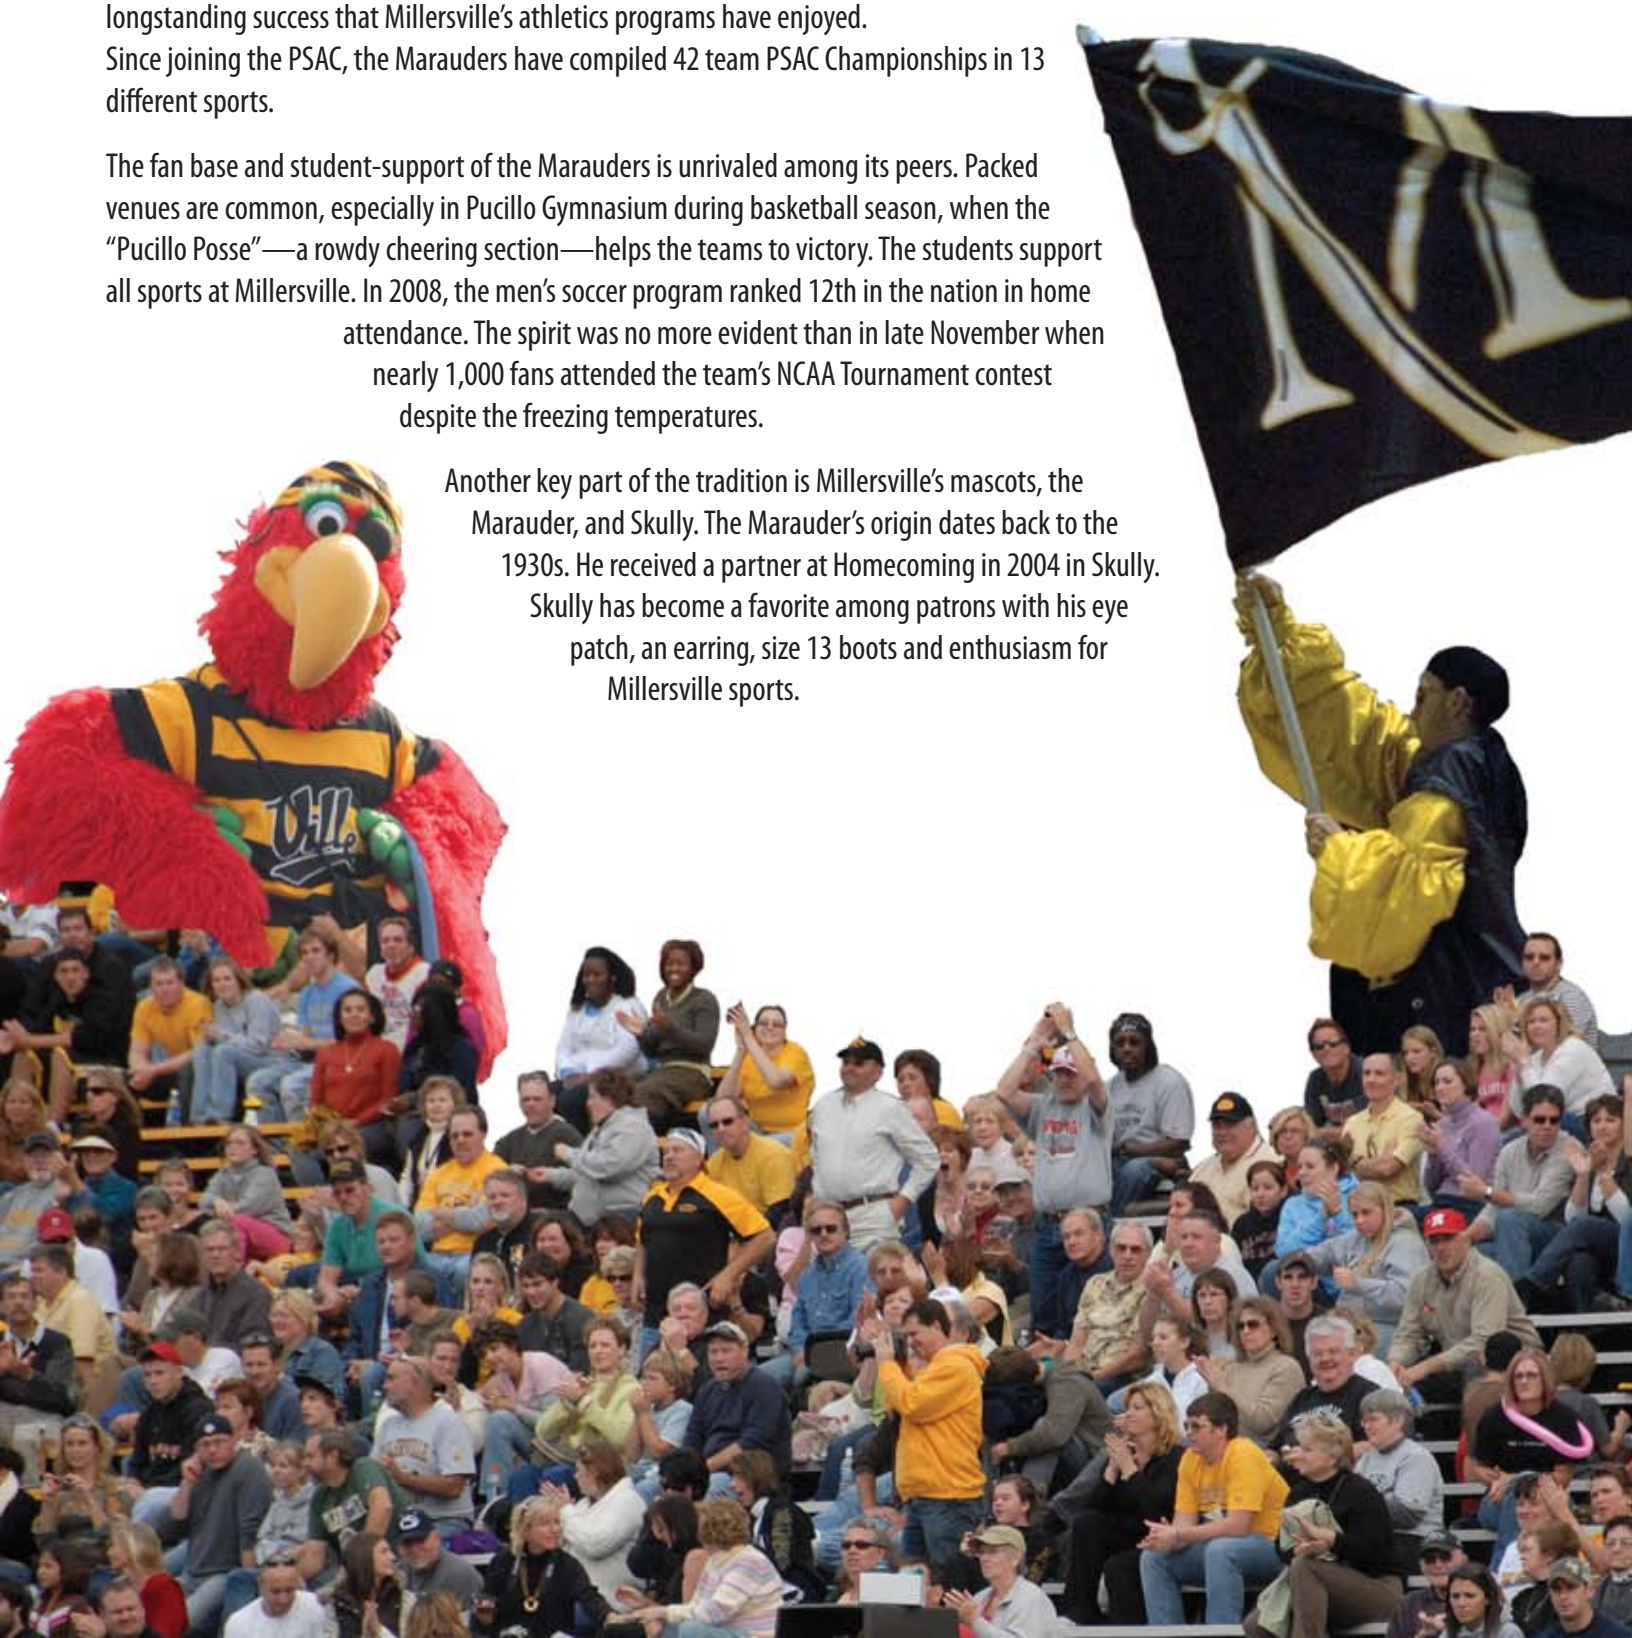

MILLERSVILLE

Millersville University was founded in 1855—then known as Lancaster Normal School. In 1889, Millersville started playing intercollegiate athletics, beginning a tradition of excellence and pride that is entering its 121st year.

Since the first baseball team took the field, the athletics department has grown into 22 teams competing at the NCAA Division I and II levels. Few universities can match the longstanding success that Millersville's athletics programs have enjoyed.
Since joining the PSAC, the Marauders have compiled 42 team PSAC Championships in 13 different sports.

The fan base and student-support of the Marauders is unrivaled among its peers. Packed venues are common, especially in Pucillo Gymnasium during basketball season, when the "Pucillo Posse"—a rowdy cheering section—helps the teams to victory. The students support all sports at Millersville. In 2008, the men's soccer program ranked 12th in the nation in home attendance. The spirit was no more evident than in late November when nearly 1,000 fans attended the team's NCAA Tournament contest despite the freezing temperatures.

Another key part of the tradition is Millersville's mascots, the Marauder, and Skully. The Marauder's origin dates back to the 1930s. He received a partner at Homecoming in 2004 in Skully. Skully has become a favorite among patrons with his eye patch, an earring, size 13 boots and enthusiasm for Millersville sports.

PEG KAUFFMAN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

A 1987 graduate of Millersville University, Peg Kauffman returned to her alma mater as the director of athletics in 2007 after serving as Millersville's interim director of women's athletics and 13 years as the head women's basketball coach at Lebanon Valley.

During her brief stint as director of athletics, Kauffman has overseen the department's move to Jefferson Hall (the university's first all-athletics building), renovations to the Millersville University Softball Field and the addition of women's golf as an intercollegiate athletic program.

In her first 12 seasons at LVC, she guided the Dutchmen to a 183-117 record. Her squads qualified for the Commonwealth Conference playoffs six times and competed in the Eastern College Athletic Conference South Region Championships on five occasions. She was also honored as the Commonwealth Conference and Women's Basketball Coaches Association Mid-Atlantic Coach of the Year after the 2001-02 season after her squad finished with a program-record 23 wins, including 13-1 in conference play to earn the program's first Commonwealth Conference regular-season title.

Kauffman served as the assistant director of athletics at Lebanon Valley since 2001. During her tenure in that position, she assisted in the coordination of NCAA compliance for LVC's 21 athletic teams. She also was the senior women's administrator. She also served on numerous committees within the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Corporation.

In addition to being an All-American guard and three-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) All-Star, Kauffman spent the 1992-93 campaign as an assistant coach with the Marauders.

During her playing career, she scored 1,398 points and dished out 408 assists – numbers which still rank among the career leaders at Millersville – while leading the Marauders to two PSAC Division II championships.

She is a member of both the Millersville University and Lancaster Catholic Athletic Halls of Fame, where she was a four-year starter, notched over 1,300 points and was named the school's Female Athlete of the Year.

In addition to receiving a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from Millersville, Kauffman also earned a master's degree in education in 1992.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Anthony Grant was named associate director of athletics in July of 2008. He serves as Millersville's academic coordinator.

Grant comes to Millersville from the University of Iowa where he worked as the athletic student services academic coordinator since 2006. He also served as an athletics department intern in 2004-05 and a teaching assistant in the department of health and sports studies from 2003-05.

Grant also worked as the athletic facility supervisor at St. Joseph's University while earning a master's degree in sport and recreation administration from Temple in 2003. He completed his bachelor's degree in English from Penn State in 2000.

Grant received a Ph.D. in athletics administration from Iowa and in October of 2008.

Grant and his wife Lisa are the parents of two daughters, Gianna and Jadyn.

STEVE ROACH

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Roach was named associate director of athletics in July of 2008 after serving as the interim associate director of athletics at Millersville since September of 2007. His main responsibility at Millersville is compliance coordinator.

Prior to coming to Millersville, Roach served as the assistant to the athletics director and compliance coordinator at Slippery Rock University.

In that capacity he organized and implemented all aspects of NCAA compliance and education program. He also oversaw all documentation for NCAA rules compliance.

He was the graduate assistant to the athletics director at Slippery Rock and was the athletics office intern at North Allegheny High School. Roach also served as the assistant middle school baseball coach for North Allegheny School District.

He has his bachelor's degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania and a master's degree in sports management from Slippery Rock University.

Roach married the former Molly Muir in 2009.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

HANK FIJALKOWSKI, ATC
ATHLETIC TRAINER

Hank is in his 25th year at Millersville University. He received his B.S. degree in physical education at West Virginia University and his Master's from Kansas State University. He earned NATA certification as an athletic trainer in 1981 and is a Corrective Exercise Specialist through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

KATIE FOX, ATC
ATHLETIC TRAINER

Katie is in her fourth year at Millersville. She received her B.S. in Health Science/Athletic Training from the Lock Haven University and her Master's degree from California University of Pennsylvania in Athletic Training. She earned her NATA certification in 2005 and is certified as a Performance Enchancement Specialist through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

ABOUT ATHLETIC TRAINING
The athletic training staff primarily focuses on the prevention, assessment, management, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries. The staff also helps prepare the athlete for practices and competitions.

Millersville has two fully functional athletic training rooms which include some of the most up-to-date equipment. A staff of physicians, certified athletic trainers, certified graduate assistants, and a number of athletic training students provide medical coverage for over 400 athletes participating in 21 intercollegiate sports at Millersville University.

Millersville also offers a unique dual degree education program in athletic training and biology. Students can major in athletic training through West Chester University and biology at Millersville. Students take their classes on the Millersville campus and taking advantage of the latest in education technology, interact through live video transmissions with the athletic training classes at West Chester.

Students receive a bachelor's degree in biology/pre-athletic training from Millersville and another bachelor's degree in athletic training from West Chester at the same time. Hands-on clinical experience comes from working with the Marauder athletic teams and local high schools.

FACILITIES
Millersville athletic training has training rooms at Biemesderfer Stadium and inside Pucillo Gymnasium. Student-athletes also have access to a rehabilitation room in Pucillo Gymnasium.

WEB SITE
Information about Millersville's 22 intercollegiate varsity sports can be found at www.millersvilleathletics.com. The site contains schedules and results, news, stats, rosters and records for all teams as well as links to athletic training, scholarships, faculty liaisons, Millersville University Athletic Hall of Fame and other necessary information for the media and student-athletes. Sports information also provides live stats for all home games and webcasts events on the Marauder Sports Broadcasting Network (MSBN).

MEDIA CREDENTIALS
Photo and media credentials can be obtained by contacting the sports information office one week prior to the event. Seating is limited and will be used for only the working press.

INTERVIEWS
All interviews with Millersville coaches and student-athletes must be made through the sports information office. Telephone arrangements will be made for an agreed upon time. Coaches and student-athletes will also be available following games. Following the standard "cooling-off" period, the athletes and media will be taken to a designated area to conduct the interviews.

PRESS BOX
Pertinent information such as stats, rosters, game notes and media guides will be made available to the media in the press box, press row or a designated media room. Final game box scores and play-by-plays (for basketball and football) will be distributed at the conclusion of the event. Updated statistics will also be distributed throughout the event. Following the athletic event, full box scores and cumulative season stats will be available on www.millersvilleathletics.com.

ETHAN HULSEY
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Millersville University named Ethan Hulsey as director of athletic communications, effective June 9, 2008.

Entering his third year at Millersville, Hulsey has founded and designed millersvilleathletics.com and established the online audio streaming project Marauder Sports Broadcasting Network (MSBN). He serves as the primary media contact for Millersville's 22 intercollegiate teams.

Hulsey arrived at Millersville with three years of sports information experience at the NCAA Division II level, having served as the assistant sports information director at Mercyhurst College during the 2007-08 school year and as the graduate assistant at Shippensburg University from 2005-07.

He earned his bachelor's degree in communications in 2005 from West Liberty State College in West Liberty, W.Va., and then received a master's degree in organizational development and leadership from Shippensburg University in 2007.

At Mercyhurst, Hulsey served as the primary media contact for nine of the school's Division II athletic teams, including men's basketball, wrestling and baseball and worked closely with the Division I men's and women's ice hockey programs. While at the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference affiliated Shippensburg, he was the media contact for six sports and assisted in the hosting of the NCAA Division II Field Hockey Championship.

Prior to his stint at Shippensburg, Hulsey worked as a media relations intern with the Washington Wild Things of the Frontier League and with the Ohio Valley Greyhounds of the now-defunct National Indoor Football League. He was also the sports editor of West Liberty's student newspaper and the play-by-play commentator for West Liberty basketball and football games.

EMILY SIMERAL
ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Emily Simeral is entering her second year as a graduate assistant in the athletic communications office at Millersville. She is working toward her master's of education degree in sports management.

Simeral graduated from The University of Pittsburgh in 2009 with bachelor's degrees in communications and Italian. At Pitt, she spent a year as an intern in the athletic media relations department where she assisted in web site management, press releases, and production of media guides and game day programs. In the spring of 2010, Simeral worked as an intern in the sports information department at Franklin & Marshall College, and was the primary contact for softball, tennis, and track and field.

JONATHAN HOWER
ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Jonathan Hower is entering his first season as a graduate assistant in the athletic communications office at Millersville. He is currently working toward a master's of education degree in sports management.

Hower received his bachelor's of science in digital communications with a minor in business from Lebanon Valley College in 2008. Following graduation, he worked with the sports information department at Gettysburg College specializing in game management. While at Gettysburg, he worked the NCAA Division II and III Women's Lacrosse Championship.

STUDENT-ATHLETE SERVICES

Millersville University is committed to enhancing the student-athlete experience by providing comprehensive academic support, as well as high quality championship athletic participation opportunities.

Through the implementation of the department's academic monitoring and intervention procedures, the facilitation of CHAMPS/Life Skills programming, and effective collaboration with other academic departments on campus, we strive to provide Millersville student-athletes with the necessary tools to prepare them for life after college.

STRUCTURED STUDY

• Structured Study provides student-athletes with a framework for developing sound study habits with the goal of becoming independent learners. All first year and returning student athletes with a cumulative grade-point-average below a 2.5 will be required to participate in the Structured Study Program for a minimum of four hours per week. Students will plan their study program with the assistance of their head coach and/or the Associate Athletic Director for Academics.

LAPTOP LOAN PROGRAM

• Laptop computers are available for team use during travel. Student-athletes may use the laptops for class assignments.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS

• CHAMPS/Life Skills is a NCAA program created in 1991 to support student-athlete development initiatives and to enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience within the context of higher education.

SAAC

• SAAC is made up of student-athletes who provide insight on the student-athlete experience. The SAAC also offers input on the rules, regulations and policies that affect student-athletes' lives on member institution campuses. The Millersville SAAC also proudly participates in the Division II national SAAC's initiative to raise funds for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

JEFFERSON HALL

Jefferson Hall, located on 164 West Cottage Avenue in Millersville, became the home to Millersville Athletics in 2008. It houses the offices of every coach and administrator in the department and includes computer labs and study rooms for student-athletes as well as a meeting rooms for teams and a large gathering area with couches and a big screen TV.

FACILITIES

PUCILLO GYMNASIUM

Pucillo Gymnasium is the home to the Marauder men's and women's basketball teams, the wrestling team and the volleyball team. It was first completed in 1970 and dedicated in 1971 for a cost of $2 million dollars. It also underwent renovations during the summer of 2008.

The two-level seating area can hold up to 3,000. In addition to the main basketball court, there are two practice courts and three practice volleyball courts. Pucillo is also home to classrooms, a training room, rehabilitation center and the wrestling program's practice facility. The wrestling room includes several mats, free weights and exercise machines for training.

The gymnasium is named in honor of Dr. John A. Pucillo, who served with distinction as coach, athletic director, and administrator at Millersville from 1925 to 1957. The trophy cases in the main lobby were donated by the friends and family of Elwood F. Finley III, a Millersville graduate who died at age 24. As a student, Mr. Finley was a member of the football and men's track teams and served as manager for the men's basketball squad.

CARPENTER-TROUT STRENGTH CENTER

The Carpenter-Trout Strength Center opened in 2006 and is available for all Millersville intercollegiate athletes. The facility features a full complement of dumbbells, four dual bench-squat racks, four power clean platforms, five mobile benches, several types of Cybex strength machines and five cardiovascular machines. The facility allows for up to 50 athletes to work out simultaneously.

AWARDS

2009 NCAA East Regional
Coach of the Year

Todd Roberts enters his third season at the helm of the Millersville wrestling program in 2010-11. Quickly, Roberts has helped the program produce five national qualifiers and it has consistently performed as one of the top academic wrestling programs as well.

Despite dealing with hardship and injuries to his team, Roberts helped Shane Smith and Jarrett Hostetter qualify for the NCAA Championships in 2010, and Hostetter was the PSAC runner-up at 157 pounds. It was a continuation of success from his first year on the job.

In 2009-10, Roberts produced one of the most successful seasons in recent years. Three Marauders qualified for the NCAA Championships and five finished in the top two at the NCAA East Regional. The team finished second at the regional and also posted a 9-8 dual record, marking the first time in four seasons the team had finished above .500. Shane Smith and Jeremy Brooks also became the first Marauder teammates since 1998 to win 30 matches in a season. Roberts' efforts were recognized by his peers when he was voted the NCAA East Region Coach of the Year.

In both seasons, Roberts has had at least one wrestler named NWCA All-Academic, and the team was one of just 10 programs in the sport to earn a NCAA Public Recognition Award. The award is given annually to teams scoring in the top 10 percent in each sport with their Academic Progress Rate (APR).

Prior to his appointment as head coach in August of 2008, Roberts served as an assistant for at Millersville for four seasons.

The York, Pa., native, joined the Millersville staff in September of 2004 under Neil Barnes. As an assistant, Roberts helped the Marauders improve its status in the PSAC and in the NCAA Division I East Region.

In 2008, under Roberts' guidance, Jarrett Hostetter captured the NCAA Division I East Region Championship at 157 pounds, qualifying for the NCAA Championships for a third-straight year. He was also named PSAC Wrestler of the Week once and carried a 20-match winning streak into nationals. Seven wrestlers finished sixth or better at the PSAC Championships as well.

With Roberts on staff, the team has excelled off the mat as well. In 2005, Curtis Yeager and Mark Knock were both named to the NWCA Division I All-Academic Team.

Roberts took on additional coaching responsibilities during Barnes' medical leave. He coordinated the "Shorty" Hitchcock Memorial Tournament, started a youth wrestling clinic and an annual picnic for families and alumni.

Roberts' coaching career began while he was in college at East Stroudsburg, coaching the women's wrestling team. He also coached at Dallastown High School and at East Stroudsburg with the men's program.

After beginning his wrestling career at East Stroudsburg, Roberts transferred to York, where he finished his career and received his bachelor's degree in engineering management in 1999.

COACHING

Millersville University 2008-Present
Assistant Coach

Steve Borja is entering his third season with the Marauder wrestling staff as the assistant coach. He made an immediate impact on the program.

With his help, three Millersville wrestlers qualified for the NCAA Championships and five wrestlers finished in the top two at the NCAA East Regional in 2008-09, and in 2009-10, two more Marauders reached the NCAA Championships.

During his first season, Jeremy Brooks and Shane Smith became the first teammates to win 30 matches in a season since 1998. Millersville also tallied its first winning record since 2005.

Borja joined the Millersville staff prior to the 2008-09 season after finishing off a stellar collegiate career at Virginia Tech. He has experienced success at every level of competition. At Garden Spot High School he was a silver medalist at 171 lbs. in the 2001 PIAA AAA State Tournament. Borja followed that impressive showing up with a gold medal in the same weight class at the 2002 PIAA State Tournament. The gold medal performance came in a senior year that saw Borja go undefeated with a 37-0 record. He finished with a career record of 114-22 at Garden Spot.

From there, Borja went on to wrestle at Division I Virginia Tech. While in Blacksburg, he compiled a record of 86-46 for the Hokies, highlighted by a runner-up finish at 184 lbs. in the 2005 ACC Tournament and a third place finish at 184 lbs. in the 2007 ACC Tournament.

In 2007-08, Borja handled the head coaching duties for Blacksburg Middle School while serving as an assistant for the Blacksburg High School wrestling team. Borja also served as the head coach of the Blacksburg Wrestling Club.

A Bowmansville, Pa., native, Borja earned his degree from Virginia Tech in the spring of 2008 with a degree in human nutrition, food, and exercise.

Coach Todd Roberts enters his third year guiding the Millersville wrestling team in 2010-11. He guides a young group that will try to improve upon last year's 4-13-1 dual mark. Only 10 wrestlers on the 22 man team have collegiate experience and 11 of the wrestlers are either freshmen or redshirt freshmen.

Key returning wrestlers for the Marauders this season are 141-pound Mike Greck, 165-pound Josh Marquard, 174-pound Shane Smith and 184-pound Jason Foor.

"Our veterans like Greck, Smith and Foor will be called on to deliver bonus points for the team," said Roberts. "Wrestlers like (Steve) Hess, Marquard, (Zac Wawrzyniak-) Bush and (Chase) Godfrey gained valuable experience last season. These wrestlers have worked hard in the off-season and made big strides in improving their technique."

The Marauders will be tested throughout the season, as Roberts has scheduled teams such as Northwestern, Pitt, Ohio, Columbia and Lock Haven to see how his team stacks up against top competition.

"We have put together a schedule that will challenge our team and prepare them for the NCAA Championships in Philadelphia," said Roberts.

Smitm, a two-time national qualifier--is the only member of the team with national championship experience. He is expected to return for the third time in as many years, and Greck has all the skill needed. He just needs to stay healthy for a full season.

The stiff competition should help the young team mature quickly and prepare them for qualifying at the NCAA East Regional.

Millersville pieced together a line-up at 125 pounds last year and the wrestlers combined for a 6-34 record. The answer to production at that weight might be found in freshman Alex Abramat of Westminster, Md., who looks to make an immediate impact.

He is slated as the starter after transferring from Rutgers. With no other 125 pounders on the roster, it is ultra-important that Abramat stays healthy throughout the season. Abramat rewrote the record books at his Cypress Bay High School in Florida, posting an oustanding 137-16 record and winning three regional titles.

133

Millersville also struggled to find a 133 pounder in 2009-10, but a pair of newcomers will battle for the spot this year. Freshman Dan Calzarette from Simsbury, Conn., is the tentative starter at this weight,but will have to earn his spot by fighting off Mark Massimini, a freshman from Forest Hill, Md. Calzarette was 40-7 as a senior, and Massimini was an all-county selection.

While there is open competition in some weight classes, the 141 slot is set in stone. Greck, a senior from Nazareth and PSAC Scholar-Athlete for all three years of his career, will be this team's captain and leader.

He is the only four-year member of the squad and has proven to be a talented wrestler, posting an overall record of 37-29. Greck has also spent time at 149 but is more comfortable at 141. Roberts said Greck's weight has stabilized and he will wrestle this season mostly at this weight but did leave the door open for Greck to move around in the lineup. He was off to an outstanding start last year, winning 14 of 21 matches before an injury sidelined him for the season.

Aaron Trimpey, a sophomore from Glen Rock, will push Greck in practice all season and is a fine option should the coaches call on him. He posted a 71-24 record during his high school career.

There is a logjam at the 149-pound weight class as four wrestlers are listed as competitors. The spot will likely be filled by Hess, a sophomore from West Chester. Hess filled in for injured senior Jarrett Hostetter at 157 pounds last year, finishing with a 3-13 record.

Competing with Hess for this spot will be Wawrzyniak-Bush, who will provide depth and make Hess earn his spot. Wawrzyniak-Bush is versatile and can provide depth all across the lineup as he did last year when he wrestled at 149, 157 and 165 and posted a 6-7 record overall.

Redshirt freshmen Kyle Toth and Zach Pincus are also in the mix but face an uphill battle to crack the lineup.

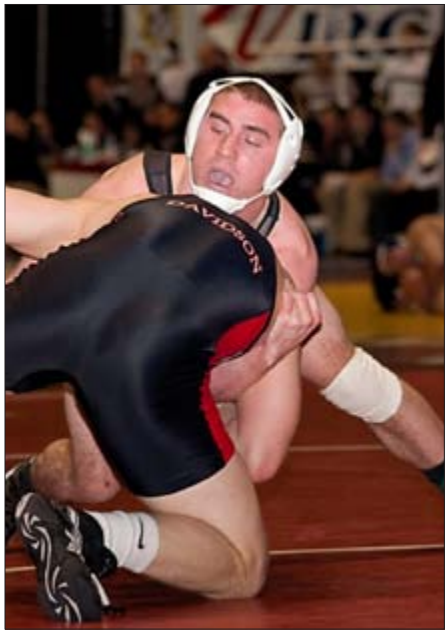

157

For four years, Jarrett Hostetter held down the 157-pound weight class, won more than 100 matches and qualified for nationals three times. But Hostetter graduated, and attempting to fill his shoes is Dakota Kuh. The redshirt freshman from Boiling Springs gained valuable experience last season as he wrestled unattached in several tournaments. He boasts an impressive high school resume. At Boiling Springs, Kuhn was a two-time regional champion, posted a record of 139-31 and was named All-Mid-Penn four years in a row.

165

Sophomore Josh Marquard wrestled wherever the team needed him last year, giving Roberts flexibility in his lineup. With former 30-match winner Jeremy Brooks holding the 165-pound slot, Marquard wrestled up as many as three weight classes last year, filling in at 197 and 184 after the team suffered multiple injuries throughout the course of the season. Despite being bumped around the lineup, Marquard dispalyed a great deal of toughness and finished the season with a respectable 8-17 record. Backing up Marquard is junior newcomer Brandon Vernalli and freshman Stephen Madosky.

174

This is another weight class with an unquestioned starter. Smith, a redshirt junior, was an NCAA Championships qualifier and NCAA East Regional champion each of the last two seasons. Including his unattached victories, Smith boasts a career record of 71-32 and has won 55 matches in the last two years. Also, Smith is one of the top pinners in the nation. He has 42 in his career and ranked 11th in Division I a year ago.

Backing up Smith will be no small task, but that job will fall to Tyler Hoover, a freshman from Dallastown.

Two-year starter Jason Foor returns for his redshirt junior season and his third season in the weight class. He has posted a 21-47 record in his career for the Marauders. He battled through a leg injury last season and did not have an opportunity to compete in the NCAA East Regional. He is healthy for the start of the season, though, and will need to stay that way as he is the lone wrestler at the weight class.

197

Brent Barr joined the team late last season and wrestled five matches at 184. He added weight and will bump up to 197 this season. Backing up Barr are two more true freshmen: Daniel Cox and Ryan Nielsen. Cox won 79 matches and qualified for the state championships as a senior at Methacton.

285

Chase Godfrey came right off the football field and onto the wrestling mat a year ago. The team's lone heavyweight, Godfrey was thrown into the fire and gained valuable experience. As an offensive lineman for the football team, Godfrey will miss most of the preseason workouts and will be pushed by newcomers Bradley Ladd and Marvin Gaskill.

Ladd, a Dallastown graduate, arrives at Millersville after a year at Harrisburg Area Community College. He was a standout in high school, placing fourth at the PIAA Championships in 2007.

Like Godfrey, Gaskill is a two-sport athlete and redshirted during the 2010 football season while practicing at defensive tackle. Gaskill posted a 76-25 record on the mat at Waynesboro High School. He was named All-Mid-Penn First Team and Public Opinion First Team three years in a row.

BATTLE FOR THE RUPP CUP

The Battle of the Rupp Cup is an annual battle between Millersville and Franklin & Marshall. The rivalry has been alive since 1993-94 with Millersville holding a 16-3 all-time lead in the series.

The Rupp Cup was named in honor of the late Theodore Rupp, who was an influential figure in both the Millersville and Franklin & Marshall wrestling programs.

Rupp, who passed away eight days before the 2009-10 dual, graduated from Franklin & Marshall in 1935 and served as a teacher in the public schools of Lancaster, at Franklin & Marshall Academy, Solebury School and Shady Side Academy before serving in the Navy during World War II. Following his return, he was hired to teach French and Spanish at Millersville. He started the wrestling program that same year and was the program's head coach for 11 years.

Rupp is still the winningest coach in Millersville history. During his tenure, his team's posted a 71-18-2 record and won two PSAC championships. He also coached at Franklin & Marshall from 1936-43, winning four-straight National Preparatory School Team Championships and guiding 14 individuals to national titles.

He was inducted in the inaugural class to the Millersville University Athletic Hall of Fame and was named to the Franklin & Marshall College Sports Hall of Fame in 1990. He is also a member of the Pennsylvania Wrestling Coaches Hall of Fame and Pennsylvania State Athletic Conferecne Wrestling Coaches Hall of Fame in 1983.

"SHORTY" HITCHCOCK MEMORIAL CLASSIC

Floyd "Shorty" Hitchcock was head wrestling coach at Millersville University for 18 seasons (1984-2002) and finished his MU coaching career with a record of 180-113-4. He died of cancer in February 2002 and the "Shorty" Hitchcock Memorial Classic was founded shortly thereafter in his honor.

In 2002, the Wyalusing, Pa. native was presented with the Lifetime to Service Award by the Pennsylvania Chapter of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Hitchcock was inducted into the Bloomsburg University Hall of Fame in 1982 in honor of his accomplishments as a collegiate wrestler. He won the NCAA Division I and II titles as a 177-pounder during his senior year, captured three PSAC titles and had a dual meet record of 84-7-2. He graduated from Bloomsburg in 1974.
