GAME AT A GLANCE

• Millersville has played one of the toughest early-season slates of any team in the country, and that schedule only gets tougher on Saturday when 3-0 Jefferson visits Pucillo Gymnasium. Through three games, Millersville has beaten a Virginia Union team that beat No. 11 West Liberty on Tuesday night, Charleston, which started the season with a 50-point win against Mansfield, and a 3-0 Wilmington team that also has a win over Division I Delaware. Jefferson has averaged 84.0 points per game in its perfect start, but it has been more impressive on the defensive end, holding teams to 64.7 points per game, 38.3% shooting from the field and 27.5% from three. All three of Jefferson's wins have come by 11 or more points.

• Millersville's two losses have been heartbreakers. The Marauders held second-half leads in both games but could not close. In the final 3:30 against Charleston, the Marauders shot 1 of 8 from the field, and in the final four minutes of regulation against Wilmington, the Marauders went 1 for 5 with two turnovers. With a five-point lead in the second overtime, Millersville recorded five consecutive turnovers in the final 2:43. Over the last two seasons, Millersville is now 0-4 in overtime games and 3-14 in games decided by single digits. It is a statistical outlier considering that Millersville went 31-9 in games decided by single digits from 2021-24.

• Jefferson played each of its first three games at home and visits Pucillo Gymnasium for just the fifth time ever. Millersville is 2-10 all-time against Jefferson, but 2-2 inside Pucillo and has won two of the last three at home. Millersville scored a 54-48 win in 2007-08 and earned a 71-67 win in 2023-24. Millersville reached the NCAA Tournament in both of those seasons. Since 2018-19, Millersville is 77-19 (.802) at home. Jefferson was 7-8 on the road last season and 7-4 on the road when it went 23-9 and reached the NCAA Tournament in

MORE MARAUDER NOTES

2023-24. Last season's match-up at Jefferson was a barnburner. Jefferson shot 61.2% from the field and made 15 3-pointers while Millersville shot 52.2% and got seven 3-pointers from Aidan Gair. Farouk Kaba scored 18 points off the bench for Jefferson, and Sean Fullerton scored 11 on 3 of 4 shooting from three.

- Going back to last season, Day Waters has scored 20-plus points in seven consecutive games. He matched a career-high with 29 points against Charleston, and he is now the PSAC's scoring leader with 24.7 points per game, shooting 51.9% from three. Among players with at least 10 3-pointer attempts, only East Stroudsburg's Ethan Millirons is shooting a higher percentage. Saraj Ali scored 24 points in 32 minutes at Wilmington, and at 21 points per game, he and Waters make Millersville one of two teams in the PSAC with two players averaging 20-plus points per game.

- Offense has not been a problem for the Marauders. Among teams with at least two games played, they rank fifth in the PSAC in scoring, fifth in field goal percentage, third in 3-point shooting and first in free throw percentage. The Marauders have been outstanding at the line, sinking 85.5% of its attempts. Saraj Ali had made 18 in a row before a miss at Wilmington, and he's connected on 23 of 27, tied for the most attempts in the PSAC. Aamir Hurst is perfect in 11 attempts, and Waters is 14 of 16 (.875).

- E.J. Matthews-Spratley and Saraj Ali topped 1,000 career points last season, and now Waters and Hurst are closing in on that milestone. Waters enters the weekend with 937 points and Hurst has 859. Ali is four points away from his 500th as a Marauder and sits at 1,095 points, recently passing Daron Pressley (2000-04) for 40th on Millersville's all-time list. Matthews-Spratley, in his first season at Millersville, tops the group with 1,159 points.

HEAD COACH

CASEY STITZEL

9th season at MU

Widener '05

@CoachStitzel

Casey Stitzel, the 2022 PSAC East Coach of the Year, took over the Millersville men's basketball program in 2016, and in eight seasons, he has returned Millersville to the top of the PSAC East.

Since his arrival, Stitzel has led the Marauders to seven-straight PSAC Tournament appearances, two PSAC East titles, a PSAC Championship game appearance in 2022 and two NCAA Tournament berths, including the program's first since 2008.

From 2019-2025, 16 of Stitzel's players earned All-PSAC East recognition. The four honorees in 2022 tied a program record. That same season, Caden Najdawi became the second Marauder to win the PSAC East Defensive Athlete of the Year award. In 2025, Drew Stover was named the PSAC East Athlete of the Year.

Stitzel's impact was immediate as he generated a five-win improvement from the previous season in year one and reached the PSAC Tournament for the first time in three years in his second season. Those seasons included back-to-back wins over nationally-ranked Shippensburg. In year three, Millersville won 16 games and hosted a PSAC Tournament game for the first time since 2015 despite having more minutes played by freshmen than any other team in the PSAC. That season, Jaden Faulkner became the first Marauder freshman in 15 years to be named All-PSAC East.

Not only did he improve the Marauders on the court, he also did so in the classroom. In his first semester on the job, the program posted its best GPA in more than a decade. Among his academic standouts was James Sullivan, who was twice named CoSIDA Academic All-District 2 and earned a prestigious PSAC Top 10 Award.

Stitzel has recruited and developed 10 1,000-point scorers in eight seasons. Stitzel holds deep ties to Millersville University. His father, Glenn Stitzel, was a 1,000-point scorer on the hardwood and star on the baseball diamond from 1965-68, earning induction into the hall of fame in 2002.
