GAME AT A GLANCE

• Regular season games don't get any bigger than this. Millersville and West Chester, two longtime rivals, meet in Pucillo Gymnasium Wednesday night with major postseason implications on the line. Both teams can clinch a share of the PSAC East with a win. There are four teams within a game of first place and while West Chester, Shepherd and East Stroudsburg have two games remaining, Wednesday is Millersville's final regular season game. A win over West Chester and a West Chester win over East Stroudsburg Saturday would give Millersville the No. 1 seed in the PSAC Tournament. West Chester controls its own fate. Closing the season with two wins would give it sole possession of the PSAC East title. Wednesday is also Senior Day for Saraj Ali, Malcolm Dread, Aamir Hurst, E.J. Matthews-Spratley and Day Waters. That group has logged 304 career starts, four have scored over 1,000 career points. Ali ranks 21st in Millersville history with 1,412 points. Hurst has scored 1,134 points and with 135 career steals, he is four away from cracking the career top 10. Waters ranks 22nd all-time at Millersville with 1,389 points and is eighth, tied with James Sullivan '22, with 189 career 3-pointers. Matthews-Spratley, in his first season at Millersville, has 1,406 career points.

• It is fitting that a game with so much on the line is played between Millersville and West Chester. Since the rivalry began in the 1903-04 season, the teams have played 214 times with both teams winning 107 games each. Since the start of PSAC divisional play in 1983-84, the series is dead-even at 41-41. Millersville has had its share of success in recent years, winning nine of 12 since the 2019-20 season and five of the last six match-ups. Millersville has won six in a row inside Pucillo Gymnasium with West Chester's last win coming in 2018-19. Since 1983-84, Millersville is 27-12 at home against West Chester. The teams' first meeting of the season on Feb. 2 was a thriller that resulted in an 82-75 win for the Marauders. Millersville scored 49 first-half points with 10 3-pointers and led by 15 at the break, but West Chester rallied and trailing 76-75 with fewer than 10 seconds remaining, missed a fastbreak layup. Carnell Henderson led Millersville with 16 points.

- Henderson's season numbers might not jump off the stat sheet, but since entering the starting lineup on Feb. 2, Millersville is 6-1, holding opponents to 64.3 points per game on 40% shooting. In those seven games, Henderson has a team-leading 12 steals and ranks third on the team with 14 assists.
- It's been defense that has sparked Millersville's late-season surge. The Marauders have held six consecutive opponents to fewer than 70 points—the longest such run since the 2012-13 team, led by PSAC East Defensive Athlete of the Year Elijah Obade, did it 15 games in a row from Dec. 5-Feb. 2. The Marauders have jumped to the top of the PSAC in field goal percentage defense (.421) and rank second in scoring defense (71.4). Since the PSAC began compiling season stats in 2000-01, no Millersville team has led the conference in field goal percentage defense. Millersville has shot a higher field goal percentage than its opponent in 23 of 27 games, going 18-5. With that kind of defensive effort, the magic number for Millersville has been 80 points. Millersville is 9-0 against the PSAC and has won 11 consecutive games when scoring 80 or more points.
- On Monday, Cesar Tchilombo became the fourth different Marauder named the PSAC East Defensive Athlete of the Week this season, joining Hurst, Henderson and Dante Weise. Tchilombo, who now ranks fourth in the PSAC in blocked shots and seventh in rebounding, averaged 9.5 rebounds, 3.5 blocks and 1.5 steals in Millersville's two road wins.
- Waters, ranking third in the PSAC in scoring at 19.5 points per game, has 13 20-point games—the most by a Marauder in the regular season since Reggie Bates in 2007-08.

HEAD COACH

CASEY STITZEL

9th season at MU
 Widener '05
 @CoachStitzel

Casey Stitzel, the 2022 PSAC East Coach of the Year, took over the Millersville men's basketball program in 2016, and in eight seasons, he has returned Millersville to the top of the PSAC East.

Since his arrival, Stitzel has led the Marauders to seven-straight PSAC Tournament appearances, two PSAC East titles, a PSAC Championship game appearance in 2022 and two NCAA Tournament berths, including the program's first since 2008.

From 2019-2025, 16 of Stitzel's players earned All-PSAC East recognition. The four honorees in 2022 tied a program record. That same season, Caden Najdawi became the second Marauder to win the PSAC East Defensive Athlete of the Year award. In 2025, Drew Stover was named the PSAC East Athlete of the Year.

Stitzel's impact was immediate as he generated a five-win improvement from the previous season in year one and reached the PSAC Tournament for the first time in three years in his second season. Those seasons included back-to-back wins over nationally-ranked Shippensburg. In year three, Millersville won 16 games and hosted a PSAC Tournament game for the first time since 2015 despite having more minutes played by freshmen than any other team in the PSAC. That season, Jaden Faulkner became the first Marauder freshman in 15 years to be named All-PSAC East.

Not only did he improve the Marauders on the court, he also did so in the classroom. In his first semester on the job, the program posted its best GPA in more than a decade. Among his academic standouts was James Sullivan, who was twice named CoSIDA Academic All-District 2 and earned a prestigious PSAC Top 10 Award.

Stitzel has recruited and developed 10 1,000-point scorers in eight seasons. Stitzel holds deep ties to Millersville University. His father, Glenn Stitzel, was a 1,000-point scorer on the hardwood and star on the baseball diamond from 1965-68, earning induction into the hall of fame in 2002.
