New-Look Lady Bears Seeking Similar Results in 2016-17

The 2016-17 edition of the Missouri State Lady Bears will look very different than that of the past several seasons. Seniors Kenzie Williams, Tyonna Snow and Hillary Chvatal, the faces of the program for the last four years, have moved on to graduation after helping the Lady Bears to a Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2016.

But don't be misled by who isn't on the roster. This year's version of the Lady Bears still boast plenty of talent, as well as the intangibles that come from being a championship team.

"They understand what a championship team looks like, how they need to practice, how they need to act," said fourth-year head coach Kellie Harper. "They understand what it needs to be. They do carry themselves a little different because they have a championship."

The Lady Bears return eight players from that championship team, including seven with at least 58 games' worth of experience, and are picked to place third in the Missouri Valley Conference this season, a result that would make three consecutive top-three MVC finishes after going 27-9 in the league over the last two seasons.

Added Harper about her optimism heading into the year: "I'm really looking forward to coaching this team and seeing what we can make happen."

The Backcourt

Liza Fruendt (Batavia, Ill.) is MSU's leading returner in terms of scoring, averaging 11.0 points per game last season as one of nine players in MSU history to score in double figures as both a freshman and sophomore. No stranger to taking big shots, the junior twice sent games to overtime last season with 3-pointers in the final seconds, and has 100 treys in her career. She was also an all-tournament selection last year during Missouri State's run through the MVC meet.

Senior Lexi Hughes (Kansas City, Kan.) joins Fruendt to make a potent one-two offensive punch in the backcourt. Hughes led the Valley in 3-point accuracy as a freshman, and enters her senior season ranked 13th in MSU history with 120 career makes from long range and a chance at becoming a 1,000-point scorer for her career.

Danielle Gitzen (Victoria, Minn.) started 19 games at point guard last season as a true freshman, gaining valuable experience while showing flashes of her potential that included an eight-rebound game against UNI and a 14-point scoring effort in the MVC Tournament semifinal against Drake.

Junior Lee Ann Polowy (Jefferson City, Mo.) is another outside shooting threat who has improved each season as a Lady Bear. Polowy has 27 3-pointers in 48 games, connecting on multiple treys six times in her career.

MSU welcomes a pair of versalite newcomers at the guard position as well.

Alexa Willard (Lebanon, Mo.) is the most accurate free throw shooter in Missouri high school history, making 89.2 percent of her career free throws, including a state-record streak of 42 in a row. Her 6-foot-2 frame and strong skill set helped her score more than 2,400 points and grab nearly 1,000 rebounds in her Stoutland High career.

Brice Calip (Sapulpa, Okla.) is an athletic guard who can fill the stat sheet in a variety of ways. A finalist for Oklahoma Player of the Year as a senior, she averaged 16.4 points, 9.2 rebounds, 4.2 steals, 4.1 assists and 1.6 blocks per game that season.

The Frontcourt

Missouri State features an experienced group of post players with a combined 285 games played and 72 starts among the four returners.

Seniors Onye Osemenam (Brooklyn Park, Minn.) and Rachel Swartz (Stanwood, Wash.) have each played at least 90 games in the Maroon and White.

Osemenam is a solid post defender with good size and strength who enters her senior year ranked among the top 20 Lady Bears in terms of career blocked shots, averaging more than two per 40 minutes of action.

Swartz averaged more than 10 rebounds per 40 minutes as a junior, and always provides hustle and intensity while on the floor. Her offensive game has improved each season at Missouri State.

Aubrey Buckley (Springfield, Mo.) is an exceptional interior defender who has started 41 consecutive games for the Lady Bears when healthy. The junior missed the final 22 games of last season with an injury, but returns at full strength in 2016-17.

Like Buckley, Audrey Holt (Columbia, Mo.) is another solid post defender whose basketball IQ and hustle prove invaluable to the Lady Bears. She joined the starting lineup for the second half of her sophomore campaign, averaging nearly five rebounds per game as a starter.

Freshman Shameka Ealy (Russellville, Ark.) is a versatile small forward who has the ability to knock down the outside shot or score in the paint. She nearly averaged a triple-double with 22 points, 11 rebounds and nine blocks per game as a senior in high school, and looks to make an early impact in her Lady Bear career.

Emily Gartner (Hiawatha, Kan.) is a skilled center with good hands and a soft touch around the basket. She became Hiawatha High's leading career scorer and rebounder during her junior season, and her basketball IQ and paint presence helped her average 21.7 points, 13 rebounds and 7.0 blocks per game as a senior.

Liza Fruendt

The Schedule

The Lady Bears once again face a difficult schedule in 2016-17, and that's by design with the high hopes of this year's club.

"Once again, we will be challenging our team with a rigorous non-conference schedule," said Harper. "Our goals are to be competitive and win, while at the same time we hope to utilize the months of November and December to prepare us for our Valley games."

The Lady Bears will play as many as 10 games against seven teams that participated in a postseason tournament in 2015-16, including six contests during the league season and up to four during a non-conference schedule that includes five schools from Power Five football conferences.

MSU opens the 2016-17 campaign with five games away from home, visiting Memphis (Nov. 11), Kansas (Nov. 13) and Northwestern (Nov. 16) before heading north to the Great Alaska Shootout to face Southern Cal and either Alaska Anchorage or Portland on Nov. 22 and 23.

The home opener is slated for Nov. 28 against Little Rock at JQH Arena, and the Lady Bears also welcome Arkansas (Dec. 11), North Texas (Dec. 17) and Middle Tennessee (Dec. 19) to The Q before the MVC season. Additional non-conference road games include trips to Missouri (Dec. 2) and Oral Roberts (Dec. 7).

The Lady Bears open league play on Dec. 30 against UNI, and play five of their first seven league contests at JQH Arena.

The Missouri Valley Conference Women's Basketball Championship will take place at the iWireless Center in Moline, Ill., March 9-12.

The Valley

The Lady Bears are picked to finish third in the league after claiming their 10th MVC Tournament title and a second-place regular-season finish in 2015-16.

The league returns exactly half of its 50 starters from last season, with four seniors and a junior comprising the preseason all-conference team. The following team summaries are in order of predicted finish in the preseason MVC poll.

Drake is the near-unaminous pick to win the regular season, with preseason MVC Player of the Year Lizzy Wendell and all-MVC point guard Caitlin Ingle leading the charge. Last season's MVC Freshman and Sixth Player of the Year Sara Rhine adds to a potent Bulldog attack that scored nearly 80 points per game in 2015-16.

UNI picked up four first-place votes despite the loss of four senior starters. Madison Weekly will lead the Panthers after averaging 17.7 points and knocking down 92 3-pointers at a .414 clip in an all-conference junior campaign.

Southern Illinois is expected to repeat its fourth-place finish from a season ago, with all-MVC guard Rishonda Napier looking to build on her 15.5 scoring average, while returning starters Kim Nebo and Kylie Giebelhausen will look to fill the void left by all-conference departures Cartaesha Macklin and Dyana Pierre.

Wichita State returns all five starters and looks to improve from an uncharateristic eighth-place finish a year ago. Rangie Bessard, the 2016 MVC Newcomer of the Year, is a preseason all-Valley pick after scoring 15.5 points and grabbing 7.8 rebounds per contest a season ago.

Indiana State is picked sixth after finishing in the same spot in 2015-16. The Sycamores lost three starters, but bring back Ashley Taia (9.0 points, 33% 3FG) and Rhagen Smith (6.5 points, 5.1 rebounds) to a team that historically plays tough defense for head coach Joey Wells.

Bradley is one of three league schools with new coaches this season, as Andrea Gorski returns to her alma mater after spending the last three seasons on SIU's staff. Though the Braves do not have a returning double-figure scorer, they will lean on several experienced veterans.

Illinois State brings back two of the league's top freshmen from a season ago in Katrina Beck and Viria Livingston, who combined to average 11.4 points and 8.0 rebounds last year. Head coach Barb Smith will welcome six freshmen to the Redbirds this season.

Evansville's Sara Dickey is on pace to become the school's all-time leading scorer early in the season, and will be joined by returning starters Sasha Robinson and Kerri Gasper to lead interim head coach Matt Ruffing's squad.

Loyola will have a new look up and down the roster this year as Kate Achter takes over the head coaching duties and inherits just three players from last season's club.

The 2016-17 Missouri State Women's Basketball Guide is intended to serve as a primary source of information for media members, sports information directors and fans who follow the Missouri State Lady Bears. Material in this publication is based on information available as of Nov. 1, 2016.

The office of Missouri State Athletics Communications is located on the upper level of Hammons Student Center (Suite 300), at the corner of Bear Boulevard and John Q. Hammons Parkway. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Assistant Director (women's basketball SID) Ben Adamson can be reached at (417) 836-4584, or via e-mail at benadamson@missouristate.edu.

Media Credentials

Credentials are available to personnel from accredited media outlets by writing Missouri State University Athletics Communications, 901 South National Avenue, Springfield, MO 65987, via e-mail, or by telephone. All requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance, and credentials will be available 90 minutes before game time at the media entrance on the north side of JQH Arena.

The media room is located immediately inside the north entrance, and media seating is courtside on the north side of the playing floor, with overflow seating located in the northwest corner of the lower level just above section J. All media seating is reserved on an individual game basis.

Parking

Game day parking for members of the media is available on the south side (east bound lane) of Harrison Street to the north of JQH Arena and Hammons Student Center.

All parking needs should be coordinated with Athletics Communications at least 48 hours in advance. Parking is limited, allowed with a permit only and is available on a first-come, first-served basis on game days.

Media Services

Services for home Missouri State women's basketball games include game notes, a game program, a halftime box and a complete NCAA box-score with play-by-play after each contest.

Game notes are generally distributed via e-mail no later than two days prior to each game, schedule permitting. To be added to the e-mail distribution list, contact women's basketball SID Ben Adamson.

Refreshments and Coca Cola products are available before each game in the media room on the lower level of JQH Arena.

Telephones/Wireless Access

Phones are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the media room under the north concourse of the arena. Wireless internet access is available in JQH Arena through the University's guest network and can be obtained from the Athletics Communications office. A limited number of ethernet lines are also available.

The JQH Arena press row phone number is (417) 836-8145.

Photographers

Photographers wishing to shoot game action at JQH Arena should make arrangements with Athletics Communications at least 24 hours in advance. Space is assigned at each end of the court behind the baseline and to the right of each basket.

Postgame Interviews

Postgame media conferences with head coach Kellie Harper and select Missouri State players will be held in the Marty Eddlemon Interview Room immediately adjacent to the media room on the arena level of the corridor under the north grandstand. Visiting team personnel will be afforded the opportunity to meet with the media first -- following a 10-minute cooling off period -- immediately after the conclusion of each contest.

Radio Broadcasts

Radio stations wishing to broadcast from JQH Arena should make request through the Athletics Communications office. One courtesy line (POTS or ISDN) is available at no charge to the visiting institution. Additional carriers may arrange for the use of a phone line for $100 per event.

Weekly Availability

Players and coaches interviews are made available to the media prior to at least one practice each week during the season, schedule permitting.

All media requests for interviews with Missouri State women's basketball players and coaches should be directed to the Athletics Communications office at least 48 hours in advance.

Players and coaches will not be available for interviews on game days except during the formal post-game media conference in the Marty Eddlemon Interview Room.

JQH ARENA INFORMATION

JQH Arena, Missouri State's $67 million on-campus basketball facility, opened to rave reviews in November 2008, giving the Lady Bears the premier home venue in the Missouri Valley Conference. Below is a brief summary of the arena's features, services and policies:

Admission
All patrons must have a valid ticket to gain entry to JQH Arena, with the exception of children under the age of two who are accompanied by an adult. All patrons are required to use either the Grand Entrance (SE corner) or Northwest or Southwest Entrances of JQH Arena for means of ingress. Exits are available on the SE, SW, NW, and NE corners of the facility. The resale of any tickets for events staged at JQH Arena is not permitted on campus. Arena management reserves the right to refuse entry to anyone and revoke ticket privileges. Re-entry privileges are not guaranteed.

BearWear Team Store
Operated by the MSU Bookstore, the official team store of the Bears and Lady Bears is located on the Price Cutter Concourse, just inside the Grand Entrance. Hours of operation are posted at the entrance.

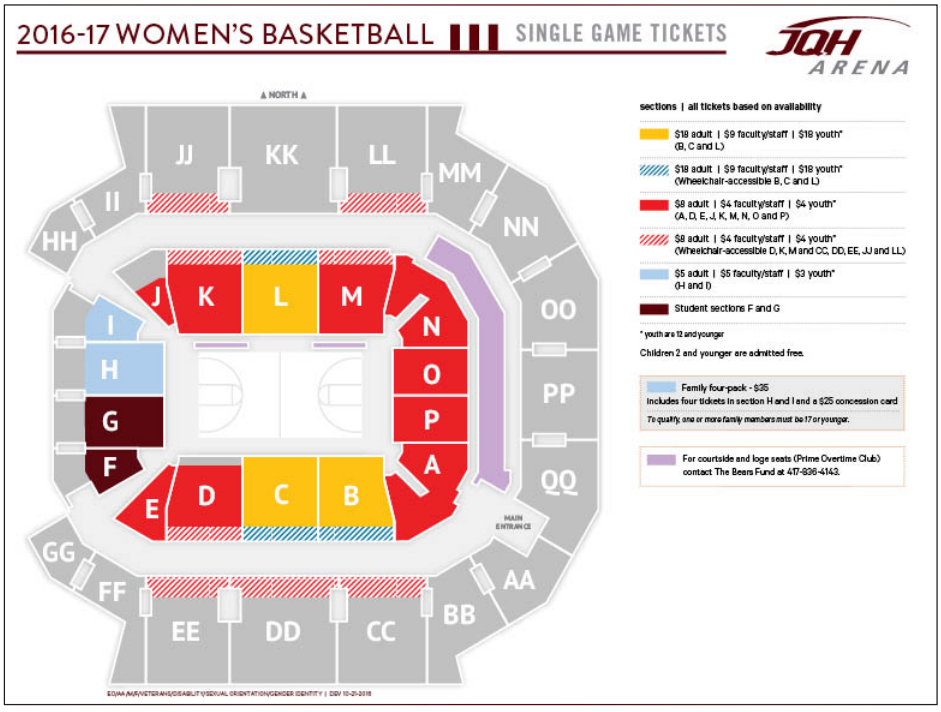

Disabled Services
In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, parking for disabled persons is available in all lots adjacent to JQH Arena. Disabled seating accommodations are available on the north and south upper- and lower-bowl sections. Patrons should contact the ticket office at (417) 836-7678 to request special accommodations at least 72 hours before the event.

Emergencies/First Aid
Limited first aid services are available at the Guest Services Center near the Grand Entrance.

Restricted Items
Items not permitted in JQH Arena at any time include weapons, outside food and beverage, animals (with the exception of certified service animals), artificial noise makers and unapproved signs or banners.

Tickets
Single-game tickets to all 13 Lady Bear home games are available at the Old Missouri Bank Tickey Window at the JQH Arena Box Office, located in the Grand Entrance of the facility, as well as online at MissouriStateTix.com and via phone at (417) 836-7678 or (888) 476-7849 (toll free). The JQH Arena Box Office maintains regular hours of 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday. On game days the box office opens at 10 a.m. for evening events and 8:30 a.m. for afternoon contests.

Parking
Parking on University lots is typically available free of charge for most events, with the exception of designated Bears Fund donor lots. Certain parking lots and/or spaces may be reserved and parking regulations must be observed. Illegally parked vehicles will be subject to ticketing and/or towing.

▶▶The Missouri State Lady Bears have been one of the nation's most-successful women's basketball programs over the last quarter century, racking up 22 Missouri Valley Conference titles, eighteen 20+ win seasons, and 14 NCAA Tournament berths, including three Sweet 16 appearances and trips to the Final Four in 1992 (above) and 2001.

▶▶The 2011 Missouri State Softball team brought home its first MVC Tournament championship in five years last spring, claiming the title with four victories on its home field at Killian Stadium. The Bears have now won more conference tournament games (68) than any other Valley club, while their six tourney titles equals Creighton for the most championships in the 30-year history of the event.

▶▶All-America quarterback DeAndre Smith guided the Bears to back-to-back NCAA FCS playoff berths in 1989 and 1990.

▶▶Under the guidance of 21st-year head coach Melissa Stokes, the Missouri State volleyball team has continued a tradition of excellence that has made the Bears one of the winningest programs in all of Division I. The Bears have appeared in eight of the last 13 NCAA Tournaments, claiming MVC Tournament titles in 2005 and 2008 (above).

▶▶Under the guidance of head coach Dave Collins, the Missouri State Women's Swimming and Diving team won its 12th overall and eighth consecutive Missouri Valley Conference championship in 2015.

▶▶The 2003 Baseball Bears shocked Nebraska and Ohio State in NCAA regional play to advance to the College World Series for the first time as a Division I program. Led by the program's all-time winningest coach, Keith Guttin, and future Major Leaguers Shaun Marcum and Brad Ziegler, the Bears captured the MVC regular-season crown and finished the campaign with a 40-26 overall record. Over their 53-year history, the Bears have won 25 regular-season adn league tournament titles and have advanced to NCAA postseason play a total of 15 times, including the 2015 season when they set a school record with 49 victories and won their second Division I regional.

National Championships

Eight Missouri State teams have been crowned national champions at all levels of competition during the first 107 years of intercollegiate athletics at MSU. The 2009-10 men's basketball team became the most recent to claim a postseason national title, winning the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). MSU national championship teams include:

- 2010 Men's Basketball CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT)
- 2005 Women's Basketball National Invitational Tournament (WNIT)
- 1979 Women's Field Hockey AIAW Division II
- 1974 Softball AIAW Division I
- 1974 Men's Cross Country NCAA Division II
- 1963 Men's Golf NCAA Division II
- 1953 Men's Basketball NAIA National Tournament
- 1952 Men's Basketball NAIA National Tournament

MSU Athletics Highlights

- Missouri State freshman Artur Osvath represented the Bears at the 2016 NCAA Division I Men's Swimming and Diving Championships, becoming the first freshman in program history to qualify for the national championship. He qualified to compete in the 200 breaststroke with a school-record time of 1:55.04 seconds at the MAC Championship and finished 17th overall at the NCAA meet.
- Lady Bears head coach Kellie Harper became the 11th Division I women's basketball coach to take three different schools to the NCAA Tournament after leading MSU to its 14th appearance in the Big Dance. MSU went 24-10 overall and captured its 10th MVC Tournament title.
- Senior setter Kinsey Batten and sophomore outside hitter Lily Johnson each earned honorable mention honors from the American Volleyball Coaches Association in 2015 after helping MSU to its eighth NCAA Tournament berth under head coach Melissa Stokes.

MISSOURI STATE

TRADITION

The 2016-17 season will be the 48th year Missouri State has fielded a varsity women's basketball squad. In that span the Lady Bears have compiled a track record of success unparalleled in the Missouri Valley Conference.

Team Success

- 14 NCAA Tournament appearances
- 3 Sweet Sixteen appearances
- 1992 and 2001 Final Four appearances
- 2005 WNIT champions
- 12 regular-season Missouri Valley Conference championships and 10 postseason conference tournament titles
- All-time winningest program in MVC history with 814 victories

MISSOURI STATE

HEAD COACH

One of only 11 coaches to lead three schools to the NCAA Tournament, Kellie Harper enters her fourth season at Missouri State in 2016-17 after guiding the Lady Bears to a Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title in her third year at the helm.

Harper owns a 12-year head coaching record of 223-171, including four NCAA Tournament appearances and five WNIT berths in that span. Her teams have historically played their best in the postseason, as she holds a collective 28-17 record in conference tournaments, NCAA Tournaments, and WNIT games. In fact, in 21 seasons as a Division I head coach, assistant coach and player, Harper has made 17 postseason appearances with a combined 471-224 (.678) record, 12 NCAA Tournament appearances and five WNIT bids.

Harper took Missouri State back to the NCAA Tournament after a decade absence in 2016, guiding her third MSU squad to an MVC Tournament title and 24-10 overall record. The Lady Bears became the first No. 3 seed in the 30-year history of the conference tournament to claim the title, defeating Indiana State, Drake and UNI on the way to the school's 14th NCAA Tournament bid. MSU earned a No. 13 seed in the Big Dance and fell at fourth-seeded Texas A&M in the first round, 74-65, to conclude a memorable campaign.

Harper spent four seasons as head coach at North Carolina State before coming to Springfield, directing the Wolfpack to three postseason appearances during her four-year stint at the helm, including the 2010 NCAA Tournament. NC State joined Tobacco Road rivals Duke and North Carolina as the only Atlantic Coast Conference teams to score wins over the league's other 11 teams during that span, and earned six top-25 victories in four seasons.

Prior to her stint in Raleigh, Harper piloted Western Carolina to a 97-65 record and four postseason berths in five seasons, including a 70-31 mark her final three seasons in Cullowhee. The Catamounts captured the first two Southern Conference (SoCon) Tournament titles in school history during her tenure.

She earned 2007 SoCon Coach of the Year honors and placed her squads in the WBCA Academic Top 25 on three occasions, including a fifth-place finish in 2007-08.

The former Kellie Jolly played on three national championship clubs at Tennessee for the legendary Pat Summitt and earned honorable mention all-America honors as a senior in 1999.

As a junior, she guided the Lady Vols to a 39-0 record and national championship, averaging 7.6 points and 3.8 assists for the season and scoring a career-high 20 points in the national title game against Louisiana Tech. She went 4-of-5 from beyond the arc in that contest and was named to the 1998 All-Final Four Team.

MISSOURI STATE

JQH ARENA

With a $30 million gift from Missouri State alumnus and Springfield, Mo.-based hotel developer John Q Hammons, the long-time dream of a new home for the Missouri State Bears and Lady Bears and an iconic tribute to MSU intercollegiate athletics has become a reality.

JQH Arena features a seating capacity of 11,000 - including 50 courtside seats - the Grand Entrance, 24 suites, PRIME Overtime Club and other amenities, including the recently-completed Jim D. Morris Basketball Complex which houses brand new state-of-the-art locker rooms, offices, video and meeting rooms and athletic training facilities for both MSU basketball programs.

JQH Arena has already had a profound impact on the Bears' and Lady Bears' recruiting efforts, putting the MSU basketball facilities on par with the top Division I schools in the country. The arena is a premier basketball facility that will continue to give Missouri State an overwhelming home-court advantage, making the Bears' and Lady Bears' games the place to be in Springfield.

JQH ARENA

PRIME Overtime Club
The 4,500-square-foot club, located at the east end of the arena, has an elevated view of the court and access to private loge seating from the club itself. Flat-screen televisions surround the room to provide optimal sound and instant-replay coverage, making PRIME Overtime the place to be for pre-game activities and the post-game radio shows. Other features include the sale of refreshments and food, as well as space for a pre-game buffet meal.

Suites and Loge Seating
Just 18 rows above the floor with seating for 16 spectators, each of JQH's 24 private suites have been reserved. Loge seating, sometimes called a super suite, is located at the east end of JQH Arena, just below the Prime Overtime Club. These seats provide optimal vantage points for concerts and afford all the amenities of a suite without the walls. Padded leather chairs and a buffet countertop are all part of the loge experience.

Courtside Seats
Located along the main arena's north sideline, JQH's 50 courtside seats put the spectator right in the middle of the action on the court.

MSU Hall of Fame and Legacy of Competition
Located on the Price Cutter Concourse, the Missouri State University Athletics Hall of Fame and Legacy of Competition honors teams and student-athletes whose contributions to MSU have helped distinguish the University's athletics program as one of the best in the nation.

Grand Entrance
On the southeast corner of the arena near the corner of John Q. Hammons Parkway and Monroe Street, the Grand Entrance to JQH is the site of an enlarged ticket office, guest services office, and the BearWear Team Store.

BearWear Team Store

FACILITIES

Turner Family Practice Court

Just before construction began in December of 2006 on JQH Arena, the Missouri State men's and women's basketball programs received a head start on their facility upgrades with the completion of a new practice area in the east gym of Hammons Student Center, the Turner Family Practice Court.

Turner Court has long been on the wish list of the MSU coaching staffs to ease the tight practice schedule for the two basketball teams and MSU volleyball in the main arena of HSC. The east gym underwent extensive renovations, including the installation of new lighting, wall covering and side goals, as well as the addition of the hardwood floor that was in use in HSC's main arena from 1985 until February of 2006.

Jim D. Morris Basketball Complex

In March 2012, Missouri State University announced plans for the Jim D. Morris Basketball Complex. Thanks to a major gift from Springfield philanthropist and long-time Missouri State supporter Jim D. Morris, work began over the summer on the basketball locker rooms and team facilities in JQH Arena.

Completed in December 2013, the two-level complex, located on the south side of the arena floor, includes locker rooms for both the Bears and Lady Bears basketball teams; coaches' offices; an athletic training facility; an academic study area; a state-of-the-art team video room; and other support areas.

Gifts to the complex were included in MSU's Our Promise Campaign. In 2007, an initial major gift was given by the McQueary family designated for the basketball complex project.

MISSOURI STATE

FACILITIES

JQH Arena has been the home of the Missouri State Bears basketball teams since its official opening in November 2008. The world-class arena seats more than 11,000 and has a state-of-the-art video scoreboard. Hotel developer John Q. Hammons made JQH Arena possible with a donation of $30 million.

John Q. Hammons Student Center is the home of the MSU volleyball and swimming teams, which has a main arena capacity of 4,646 permanent reserved seats.

Jim D. Morris Basketball Complex opened in December 2013 thanks to a major gift from Springfield philanthropist Jim D. Morris. The complex, located on the south side of JQH Arena, features locker rooms for both MSU basketball squads, coaches' offices, an athletic training facility and state-of-the-art team video and meeting rooms.

Plaster Strength Center is one of the largest of its kind in the Missouri Valley Conference. The MSU strength and conditioning staff supervise the free weight-based facility.

Plaster Stadium is the home of Missouri State football. The 17,500-seat facility includes a 4,000-seat precast concrete east grandstand and a new FieldTurf playing surface thanks to the passage of MSU's B.E.A.R. Fee, which will provide $1.4 million annually toward four separate athletics facility upgrades in the coming years. A game day meeting room for the Bears and a visitor's locker room are also features of the new Plaster Stadium.

Bears Golf Facilities include many of the area's premier courses, including Hickory Hills Country Club, Highland Springs Country Club, Millwood Golf and Racquet Club, Rivercut Golf Course (pictured above), Twin Oaks Country Club and Branson Creek Golf Club.

Hammons Field is located just blocks from the Missouri State campus. The 8,000 seat, natural grass stadium includes 28 luxury suites, five party decks, six food and beverage outlets, a souvenir shop and a club lounge. Financed by MSU alumnus John Q. Hammons, the facility is home to the Missouri State Bears and the Double-A Springfield Cardinals.

Killian Softball Stadium opened in March 2009 as the new home to the Missouri State softball team. Operated by the Springfield-Greene County Park Board, the East Springfield venue offers seating for up to 1,200 spectators and served as host of the 2011 MVC Softball Championship.

Cooper Tennis Complex will serve as the home to Missouri State women's tennis. The facility, operated by the Springfield-Greene County Park Board, features 12 indoor courts, 16 lighted outdoor courts and an outdoor Mediacom Stadium court that seats 2,500. It also includes meeting and locker rooms, a concession stand, pro shop and fitness facility.

Betty & Bobby Allison North Stadium serves as the new home of Missouri State field hockey after opening in the fall of 2014. Located at the corner of Holland Avenue and Harrison Street on the former site of the Missouri State Softball Field, the facility features a seating capacity of 250.

Betty & Bobby Allison South Stadium opened in the fall of 2014 as the new home of Missouri State track and field and men's and women's soccer. Made possible by the passage of MSU's B.E.A.R. Fee, the facility features a synthetic track and permanent concrete grandstand with seating for up to 1,000. MSU hosted the MVC Men's Soccer Championship at Allison South in November 2016.

SPORTS MEDICINE

Athletic Medical and Rehabilitation Services

The Missouri State Athletic Medical and Rehabilitation Services staff has more than 100 years combined experience in athletic training. Included are director Jim Penkalski; assistant director Shannon Derricks; and athletic trainers Suzie Atkinson, Tyler Landgraf, Steve Sawchak and Katie Schulte, as well as rehabilitation specialist and performance enhancement coordinator Mitch Hauschildt. All are certified by the National Athletic Trainers' Association and licensed by the Missouri State Board of Healing Arts. Five intern athletic trainers join the full-time staff, along with a host of athletic training students who work with student-athletes under the supervision of staff members.

Another essential asset to MSU student-athletes is the involvement of physicians and medical personnel from the community and Missouri State's Taylor Health and Wellness Center. Head team physician Landon Hough, as well as team physicians Shawn Freeman, Royce Moore, Richard Seagrave, Victor Wilson and Rodney Witt and dietician Natalie Allen, attend to the medical needs of over 400 Missouri State student-athletes.

Strength and Conditioning

Physical development of more than 400 student-athletes to increase athletic performance, decrease the chance or severity of injury and enhance sport-specific athletics development are the goals of Missouri State Strength and Conditioning.

Director of strength and conditioning Jeremiah Frey, along with assistant director Christina Rasnake and assistant strength coaches Brice Cox and Adam Lang, supervise the 7,200-square-foot Plaster Strength Center that is utilized by all 17 sports.

Frey and his staff guide the student-athletes through programs designed to improve individual skills and overall team performance. The programs integrate all phases of development, including free weights, multi-joint exercises, plyometrics, conditioning, flexibility, speed and nutrition.

The strength and conditioning staff works with coaches and Athletic Medical and Rehabilitation Services to develop programs suited for each sport and its student-athletes. Areas of concern in each participant are identified and a strength program is put in place to address all items with the ultimate goal of improving competitive performance.

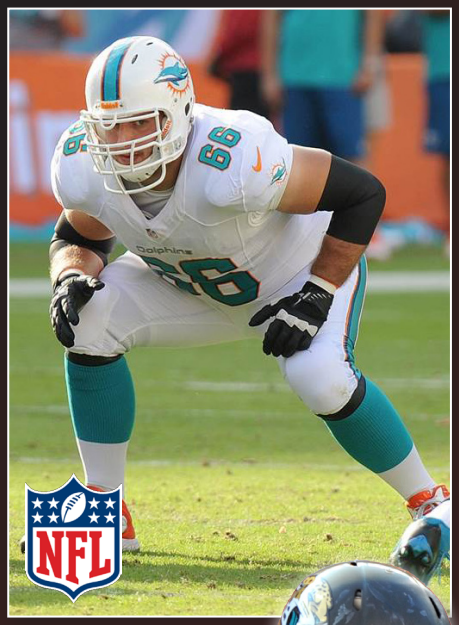

MISSOURI STATE

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Missouri State is covered by a wide variety of media in Springfield and the surrounding area. Missouri State athletes are routinely featured on all four local television networks, as well as on the pages of local publications the Springfield News-Leader and 417 Magazine.

Now in its fourth decade broadcasting Missouri State Athletics, Springfield-based Meyer Communications will once again carry the Bears and Lady Bears on its radio airwaves in 2016-17. All MSU football and men's and women's basketball games, home and away, will be carried live on Meyer's network of stations. Flagship station, KTXR (101.3 FM), serves as the primary home for MSU athletics, with "The Jock" 98.7 FM, and KBFL 99.9 FM/1060 AM also providing platforms for the Bears and Lady Bears in the event of programming conflicts. Meyer also broadcasts select Bears' baseball and softball contests, as well as MSU coaches' shows for football and men's and women's basketball. Most MSU games carried by Meyer can also be heard online at www.RadioSpringfield.com.

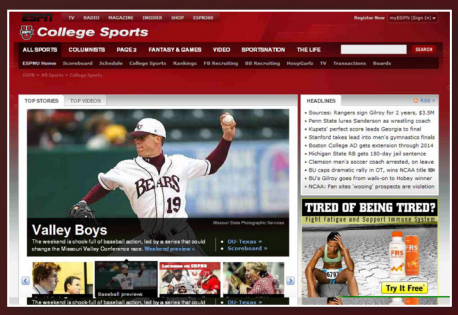

Bears on the Web

Missouri State University, in conjunction with SIDEARM Sports, launched a new partnership in August, unveiling a reconstructed MissouriStateBears.com, the official MSU Athletics web site.

The revamped MissouriStateBears.com will provide MSU fans with improved features and overall customer service. The new-and-improved site uses the latest technology to provide fans with a seamless, robust experience unique to Missouri State University.

MissouriStateBears.com provides up-to-date information on all 17 MSU varsity athletic programs, including game and season cumulative statistics, rosters and in-depth biographical information on MSU student-athletes.

Lady Bears on ESPN3

In 2015, ESPN and the Missouri Valley Conference announced a 10-year extension to their current media rights agreement that will provide increased coverage of conference events across ESPN platforms through the 2023-24 academic year. Fans can keep tabs on the Bears and Lady Bears through The Valley on ESPN3. As part of the deal, ESPN, the MVC and its 10 member institutions will work jointly to develop in-house production capabilities at each campus that will provide significant national coverage for multiple sports on ESPN3. As a result, ESPN3 will showcase a minimum of 820 events a year in the final six years of the agreement.

Bears on Twitter and Facebook

Missouri State fans can follow the Bears on Facebook (missouristbears & LadyBears) and Twitter (@ missouristbears, @MSULadyBears) to keep up with all things Maroon and White.

Collegiate Licensing Company

In May 2009, Missouri State University reached an agreement with Collegiate Licensing Company to manage the University's trademark licensing program.

A division of IMG Worldwide, CLC is the oldest and largest collegiate licensing agency in the U.S., providing full-service capabilities in brand protection, management and development.

Missouri State Sports Properties

Missouri State University Athletics, in conjunction with Learfield Sports, has developed Missouri State Sports Properties as its exclusive corporate sponsorship sales unit. This dedicated unit is designed to support MSU Athletics' initiative to enhance the service provided to local and regional businesses and further promote the Bears' brand affinity to the corporate community.

In addition to its core business of nearly 100 collegiate multimedia rights properties which consist of institutional, conference and facility level partnerships, Learfield Sports is involved with collegiate ticketing and concessions, and titles the prestigious Learfield Sports Directors' Cup that annually awards top-performing athletic programs. Its multimedia rights encompass numerous content distribution platforms to deliver the passion of college athletics to fans globally.

WELCOME HOME

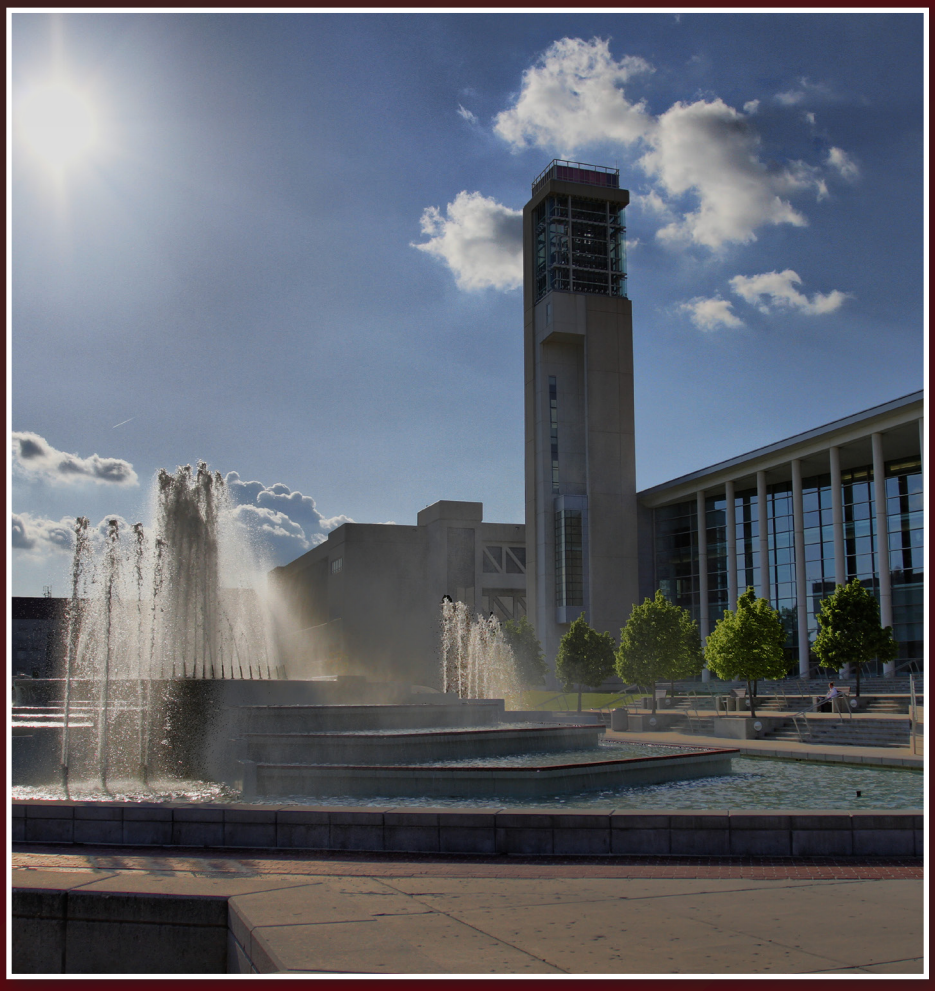

MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

Missouri State University is a public, comprehensive metropolitan system with a statewide mission in public affairs, whose purpose is to develop educated persons. The University's identity is distinguished by its public affairs mission, which entails a campus-wide commitment to foster expertise and responsibility in ethical leadership, cultural competence and community engagement.

The academic experience is grounded in a general education curriculum which draws heavily from the liberal arts and sciences. This foundation provides the basis for mastery of disciplinary and professional studies. It also provides essential forums in which students develop the capacity to make well-informed, independent critical judgments about the cultures, values and institutions in society.

The Missouri State University campuses are structured to address the special needs of the urban and rural populations they serve. Missouri State University-Springfield is a selective admissions, graduate level teaching and research institution. Missouri State University-West Plains is a separately accredited open admissions campus primarily serving seven counties in south central Missouri. Missouri State University-Mountain Grove serves Missouri's fruit industry through operation of the State Fruit Experiment Station. Missouri State Outreach provides anytime, anyplace learning opportunities through telecourses, Internet-based instruction, iTunes U and through its interactive video network.

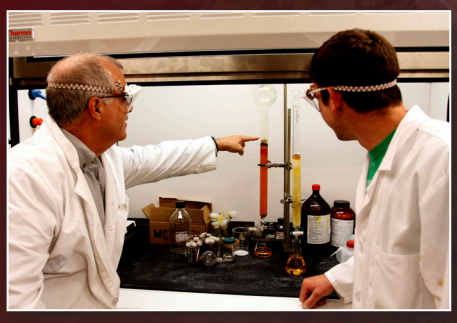

Campus Overview

MSU's Springfield campus includes 38 educational and general buildings and 20 auxiliary enterprise facilities.

Academics

Classes take place in many buildings on the Springfield campus. A few highlights:

- Craig Hall – Home of the College of Arts and Letters, Coger Theatre
- Ellis Hall – Home of the Music Department and a 250-seat recital hall
- Glass Hall – Home of the College of Business Administration
- Hill Hall – Home of the College of Education
- Karls Hall – Home of the William H. Darr School of Agriculture
- McDonald Hall and Arena – Home of the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department
- Professional Building – Home of the College of Health and Human Services
- Siceluff Hall – Home of the English Department and the Modern and Classical Languages Department
- Strong Hall – Home of the College of Humanities and Public Affairs
- Temple Hall – Home of the College of Natural and Applied Sciences

Libraries

The Missouri State University Library System is composed of four libraries: the Duane G. Meyer Library, the Music Library and the Greenwood Laboratory School Library (all in Springfield), and the Paul G. Evens Library of Fruit Science (Mountain Grove). The Meyer Library offers more than two million books and printed materials. The library contains more than 944,000 state and federal government documents and is the only United Nations document depository in the state.

Downtown Presence

The Springfield campus has several buildings located in the city's historic downtown. They include the Kenneth E. Meyer Alumni Center, the Park Central Office Building, the Jim D. Morris Center for Continuing Education and the Great Southern Building. The University also leases the Levy/Wolf Building on Park Central Square for some offices and outreach programs.

IDEA Commons

The Innovation, Design, Entrepreneurship and Art Commons is a geographic area in downtown Springfield that includes several Missouri State facilities: Brick City (an Art and Design department building) and the Roy Blunt Jordan Valley Innovation Center (a scientific research center). The IDEA Commons is an urban research park that will also include privately owned residential, retail and entertainment facilities. It creates an environment that generates creativity, innovation and entrepreneurship for the benefit of the Springfield region.

Did you know...

- Missouri State University is one of the 13 four-year, public supported institutions of higher education in Missouri.
- Located in the state's third largest city, Missouri State is within a 500-mile radius of nearly 50 percent of the U.S. population.
- In addition to the main campus in Springfield, the Missouri State system is comprised of a two-year branch campus in West Plains, a research campus in Mountain Grove and an extended campus that coordinates telecommunication-based delivery of distance education among and by the three campuses.
- Over 85 percent of the freshmen entering in Fall 2016 were in the top half of their high school classes; the group of first-time MSU students brought an average high school GPA of 3.64 and a composite ACT score of 24.0 to campus.

MISSOURI STATE

STUDENT LIFE

Missouri State Campus

The Missouri State campus is located on 225 acres in the heart of Springfield. The campus is compact - students easily walk from one class to the next in just a few minutes. MSU students experience college life at its best, with more than 250 student organizations from which to choose.

Where students are from...

In Fall 2016, a record 24,116 students enrolled on MSU's Springfield campus and a total of 26,000 enrolled in classes in the Missouri State University system. Each of Missouri's 115 counties were represented on campus and students from 47 other states, as well as 89 foreign countries, were enrolled at MSU.

2016 Freshmen Class - Springfield Campus

Total first-time freshmen enrollment: 3,126.

- Over 60 percent finished high school with GPA of 3.50 or higher, and 44.1 percent finished with a 3.75 or greater.
- Average ACT composite: 24.0

Residence Halls

More than 4,000 students live in 10 University residence halls and apartment complexes. Missouri State's nationally recognized residence halls are among the finest in the country.

Taylor Health and Wellness Center

Located on campus adjacent to Plaster Student Union, Taylor Health and Wellness Center consists of a full-time professional staff of board-certified physicians, RNs, LPNs, registered pharmacists and lab and X-ray technicians. All students are eligible for care at the Center.

Juanita K. Hammons Hall for the Performing Arts

This 2,200-seat, multipurpose performance facility brings to campus touring Broadway musical productions, entertainment performances and an emerging concert artist's recital series. It is the home of the Springfield Symphony Orchestra.

Missouri State Bookstore

Serving Missouri State University since 1905, the Missouri State Bookstore provides a full line of textbooks, official apparel, academic supplies, convenience items, study aids and a complete line of computer hardware and software, available at academic prices.

Robert W. Plaster Student Union

The PSU is the hub of the campus community. It has a post office, bank, convenience store, movie theater, bowling alley, study areas and many dining options. PSU is home to many student groups and University organizations.

Foster Recreation Center

One of the newest additions to the Missouri State campus, Foster Recreation Center opened in 2012. The state-of-the-art, LEED-certified facility offers students, faculty and staff great resources for living healthy lives, including a recreational pool, spa and sauna, indoor jogging track, basketball courts, fitness center with cardiovascular equipment and free weights, rock-climbing and bouldering walls and a free-standing boulder outside for climbing.

MAKE YOUR MISSOURI STATEMENT™

MISSOURI STATE

ACADEMICS

The University offers more than 185 academic options and nearly 50 graduate programs, as well as select certificate and doctorate degrees. Many of these programs are the state's strongest and largest of their kind.

Participate in Public Affairs

Missouri State is proud of its mission in public affairs. The components of the public affairs mission are ethical leadership, cultural competence and community engagement.

Through this mission, students develop understanding of issues that affect the local community, the world at large and the environment. The courses they take challenge them to become informed and active citizens. On top of that, opportunities for volunteering and service-learning put students in real-world situations.

Missouri State holds a Public Affairs Week and Public Affairs Conference each year to further express the components of the mission. Speakers address topics such as citizenship, democracy, diversity, the economy and sustainability.

▶▶Lacey Boshe (above) became the sixth Academic All-American in MSU women's basketball history in 2012 and was the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year that season. Boshe completed degrees in Cell and Molecular Biology and Spanish with a 4.0 GPA.

Honors College

The Honors College provides a program of enhanced, advanced study and recognition for students of unusually strong academic achievement and motivation. The College exists to provide these students with intellectual opportunities beyond those generally found in traditional programs, including smaller and enriched classes and the option to pursue their own research and creative interests.

The Competitive Edge

Missouri State students gain a competitive edge through the state's largest internship program. Students have the opportunities to experience cutting-edge research and interact with nationally recognized faculty and private-industry partners, paving the way for graduates to succeed at top graduate and professional schools across the nation.

Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Academic Achievement Center

The academic and developmental well-being of the modern student-athlete is a vital facet of the overall educational experience, brought into focus by the Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Academic Achievement Center. Established in 1996, the center assists more than 400 student-athletes. Staff members work to advocate and promote the fundamental principle of life-long learning by creating a culture that encourages and fosters accountability, responsibility and preparation, which leads to the graduation of student-athletes.

This is accomplished through the following program initiatives:

Accountability:
- ▸Individualized Course Registration
- ▸Time Management Workshops
- ▸Monitor NCAA Degree Progress

Responsibility:
- ▸Objective-Based Study Hall
- ▸Course Scheduling
- ▸Community Service Programming

Preparation:
- ▸Individual and Group Tutoring
- ▸Career Development Workshops
- ▸Life-Skills Programs

Missouri State is one of only 81 institutions - and the only school in Missouri - to be honored by The Princeton Review in its book, Colleges with a Conscience: 81 Great Schools with Outstanding Community Involvement.

MISSOURI STATE

SPIRIT

Spirit Groups

The Missouri State Pride Bands, Cheer Squad and Sugar Bears Dance Team provide key elements to the total game-day package. The Missouri State Band program is comprised of 18 different bands, including the 300-member Pride Marching Band, which performs at each Missouri State home football game.

Bear Mascot

The Bear has been a part of Missouri State athletics since a joint committee of MSU students and faculty members chose it as mascot during the 1906-07 school year. The committee also picked maroon and white as the official school colors.

SPRINGFIELD

Missouri State University calls Springfield home. The hub of the Ozarks and the third-largest city in the state of Missouri, Springfield is known across the region as "The Queen City of the Ozarks." The Springfield Metropolitan Statistical Area is one of the country's fastest growing and most scenic regions, covering five counties in southwest Missouri with a total population of 436,712.

What to do in Springfield

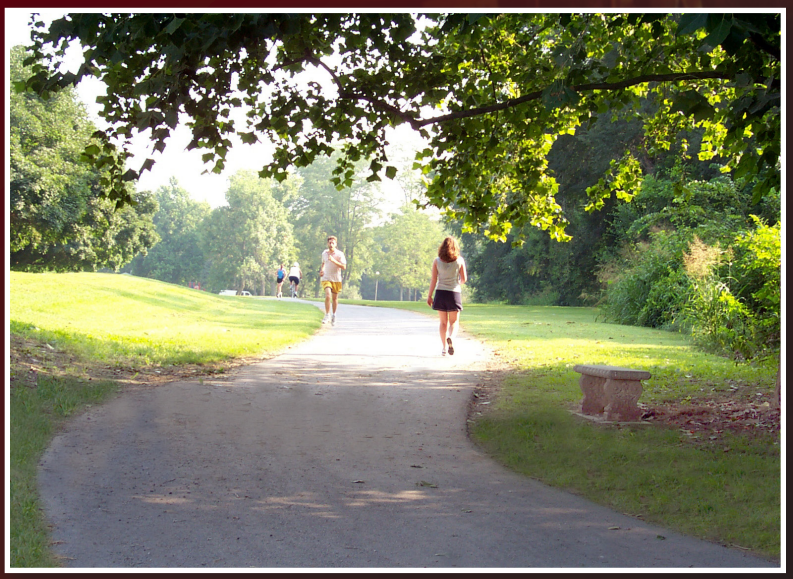

Here is a sample of the great things going on in Springfield. Almost everything in town is within 20 minutes of the Missouri State campus.

- Movie theaters (including a multiplex and an independent cinema both in walking distance from campus)
- Hammons Field (home of the Missouri State Bears and the Springfield Cardinals, Double-A affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals)
- Missouri Sports Hall of Fame
- Battlefield Mall
- Bass Pro Shops Outdoor World (one of Missouri's largest tourist attractions)
- Dickerson Park Zoo
- Mediacom Ice Park
- Springfield Symphony Orchestra
- Springfield Ballet
- Springfield Art Museum
- Springfield Regional Opera
- Springfield Conservation Nature Center
- Wilson's Creek National Battlefield

Springfield has a strong commitment to the arts. First Friday Art Walk is held downtown every month. Venues display photography, pottery, painting, blown glass and more. The annual Artsfest is held on historic Walnut Street, just a short walk from campus.

The beautiful Ozarks can be experienced in so many ways. Springfield has many parks, each with a different personality. There's a Japanese stroll garden, bike trails, a dog park and more.

One of only 11 coaches to lead three schools to the NCAA Tournament, Kellie Harper enters her fourth season at Missouri State in 2016-17 after guiding the Lady Bears to a Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title in her third year at the helm.

Harper owns a 12-year head coaching record of 223-171, including four NCAA Tournament appearances and five WNIT berths in that span. Her teams have historically played their best in the postseason, as she holds a collective 28-17 record in conference tournaments, NCAA Tournaments, and WNIT games. In fact, in 21 seasons as a Division I head coach, assistant coach and player, Harper has made 17 postseason appearances with a combined 471-224 (.678) record, 12 NCAA Tournament appearances and five WNIT bids.

Harper took Missouri State back to the NCAA Tournament after a decade absence in 2016, guiding her third MSU squad to an MVC Tournament title and 24-10 overall record. The Lady Bears became the first No. 3 seed in the 30-year history of the conference tournament to claim the title, dispatching Indiana State, Drake and UNI on the way to the school's 14th NCAA Tournament bid. MSU earned a No. 13 seed in the Big Dance and fell at fourth-seeded Texas A&M in the first round, 74-65, to conclude a memorable campaign.

The 2015-16 season was a banner year for individual awards as well, with MSU's decorated senior class of Hillary Chvatal, Tyonna Snow and Kenzie Williams leading the way as they combined for six MVC Player of the Week awards. Snow became the third player in league history to be named Jackie Stiles Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year in the same season, and was also the MVC Tournament MVP while setting school records for steals in a season and career and finishing ninth in MSU history in career scoring. Williams repeated as a first-team all-MVC selection and concluded her distinguished career ranked seventh on MSU's all-time scoring chart. Williams also became the third Lady Bear to earn MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team honors three times, while sophomore Liza Fruendt made the league's academic second team. MSU also saw attendance jump to an average of 3,400 fans per game to rank 32nd nationally nationally and lead the MVC for the 24th time in 27 seasons.

Year two at Missouri State saw Harper's Lady Bears go through a remarkable mid-season turnaround after opening the year with a difficult schedule and numerous injuries, as MSU finished 18-15 overall and earned a spot in the WNIT after an 0-6 start. Missouri State debuted a 100 percent healthy roster for the first time all season on Jan. 16, and posted a 14-5 record when fully intact. The Lady Bears enjoyed a 10-game winning streak that ended in the MVC Tournament title game, and went 13-5 in league play for a third-place finish. Kenzie Williams was honored as the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and a first-team all-league pick, while fellow guards Tyonna Snow and Liza Fruendt also earned all-conference recognition.

Harper's first season in charge of the Lady Bears featured numerous highlights, including an 11-4 stretch from Dec. 15-Feb. 7 during which Missouri State toppled in-state rival Missouri 67-53 at JQH Arena. Sophomore guards Kenzie Williams and Tyonna Snow earned all-conference recognition, while Snow ranked fifth nationally with 3.0 steals per game and freshman Lexi Hughes led the MVC in 3-point accuracy at 46.6 percent. MSU also enjoyed a 14 percent increase in home attendance over the 2012-13 season to lead the league and rank 37th nationally with an average of 2,976 fans per game.

Harper became just the third coach in North Carolina State history in 2009 and directed the Wolfpack to three postseason appearances during her four-year stint at the helm, including the 2010 NCAA Tournament. NC State joined Tobacco Road rivals Duke and North Carolina as the only Atlantic Coast Conference teams to score wins over the league's other 11 teams during that span, and earned six top-25 victories in four seasons.

Prior to her stint in Raleigh, Harper piloted Western Carolina to a 97-65 record and four postseason berths in five seasons, including a 70-31 mark her final three seasons in Cullowhee. The Catamounts captured the first two Southern Conference (SoCon) Tournament titles in school history while seven student-athletes captured all-conference honors during her tenure.

She earned 2007 SoCon Coach of the Year honors and placed her squads in the WBCA Academic Top 25 on three occasions, including a fifth-place finish in 2007-08.

Before her first head coaching job, Harper spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Chattanooga, helping the Mocs to three consecutive Southern Conference championships, three NCAA appearances and a combined 78-15 record under head coach Wes Moore. She tutored four all-conference guards while at Chattanooga, including the 2004 league player of the year. Prior to her time in Chattanooga, Harper spent two seasons at Auburn, the first as an administrative assistant before being promoted to assistant coach under Joe Ciampi for the 2000-01 campaign. She was part of the Auburn staff that squared off with the Lady Bears in the first round of the 2000 NCAA Tournament in State College, Pa.

The former Kellie Jolly played on three national championship clubs at Tennessee for the legendary Pat Summitt and earned honorable mention all-America honors as a senior in 1999.

As a junior, she guided the Lady Vols to a 39-0 record and national championship, averaging 7.6 points and 3.8 assists for the season and scoring a career-high 20 points in the national title game against Louisiana Tech. She went 4-of-5 from beyond the arc in that contest and was named to the 1998 All-Final Four Team.

"As a player at the University of Tennessee, Kellie showed great leadership, poise and dedication," said Summitt. "She knows the game of basketball. She is an excellent teacher, and her passion for the game is infectious. She will bring all this to Missouri State. I wish Kellie and the staff she assembles all the very best as they take responsibility for the Missouri State Lady Bears basketball program."

Harper set an NCAA championship game record with 11 assists and dished out 20 helpers in two games for All-Final Four honors in 1997 after returning from injury midway through her sophomore season. That year, the National Strength and Conditioning Association named her its Strength and Conditioning Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

For her Tennessee career, Harper scored 894 points and had 450 assists, leaving UT on the school's career top 10 lists for assists, assist average, 3-point attempts and 3-point percentage. She was drafted by the Cleveland Rockers in the fourth round of the 1999 WNBA draft and earned her degree in mathematics that same year. She was a three-time Academic All-SEC recipient as well.

The Harper Family: Kellie, Jon and Jackson

She played for her father at White County High School in Sparta, Tenn., and was a five-time All-American during her AAU playing career. She was inducted into the Lady Vols Hall of Fame in 2009 and White County High Hall of Fame in 2012.

"I am very excited Kellie Harper has joined the Lady Bears family," said Missouri State President Clifton M. Smart III. "She has shown she is an outstanding coach and recruiter who also wants to be deeply involved in our community. I am expecting great things from this program in the years ahead as we work to reclaim our rightful position in the Missouri Valley Conference."

Harper, 39, is married to Jon Harper, who has served on her coaching staff at Western Carolina, NC State, and now at Missouri State. The couple's first child, Jackson, was born in November 2013.

Jon Harper embarks on his fourth season at Missouri State and 16th coaching alongside his wife and head coach Kellie in 2016-17. Assisting in all aspects of the program, Harper has mentored players who have earned a total of eight all-Missouri Valley Conference selections, including two-time first-team pick Kenzie Williams and 2016 MVC Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year Tyonna Snow.

The Lady Bears have improved their win total each season with Harper on staff, culminating in a 24-10 record, MVC Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament berth in 2016.

While at North Carolina State from 2009-13, Harper tutored four different players to a combination of all-Atlantic Coast Conference, all-ACC Freshman, all-tournament honors and a league Freshman of the Year award. Harper helped a team that was predicted to finish ninth in the ACC to a fifth-place finish and NCAA Tournament berth in 2010, as well as a pair of WNIT appearances his final two seasons.

Prior to NC State, Harper spent five years as an assistant coach at Western Carolina with Kellie, and before that three seasons at Chattanooga, before heading to WCU with Kellie for the 2004-05 campaign.

During his time at Western Carolina, Harper worked with the backcourt players and helped produce five all-conference selections and the Southern Conference's Defensive Player of the Year in 2008. The Catamounts advanced to the postseason four of his five years on staff, including a pair of NCAA Tournament berths.

Harper got the coaching bug while serving as a manager at Auburn for three seasons from 1996-99, and he worked his way up to numerous administrative responsibilities with the team.

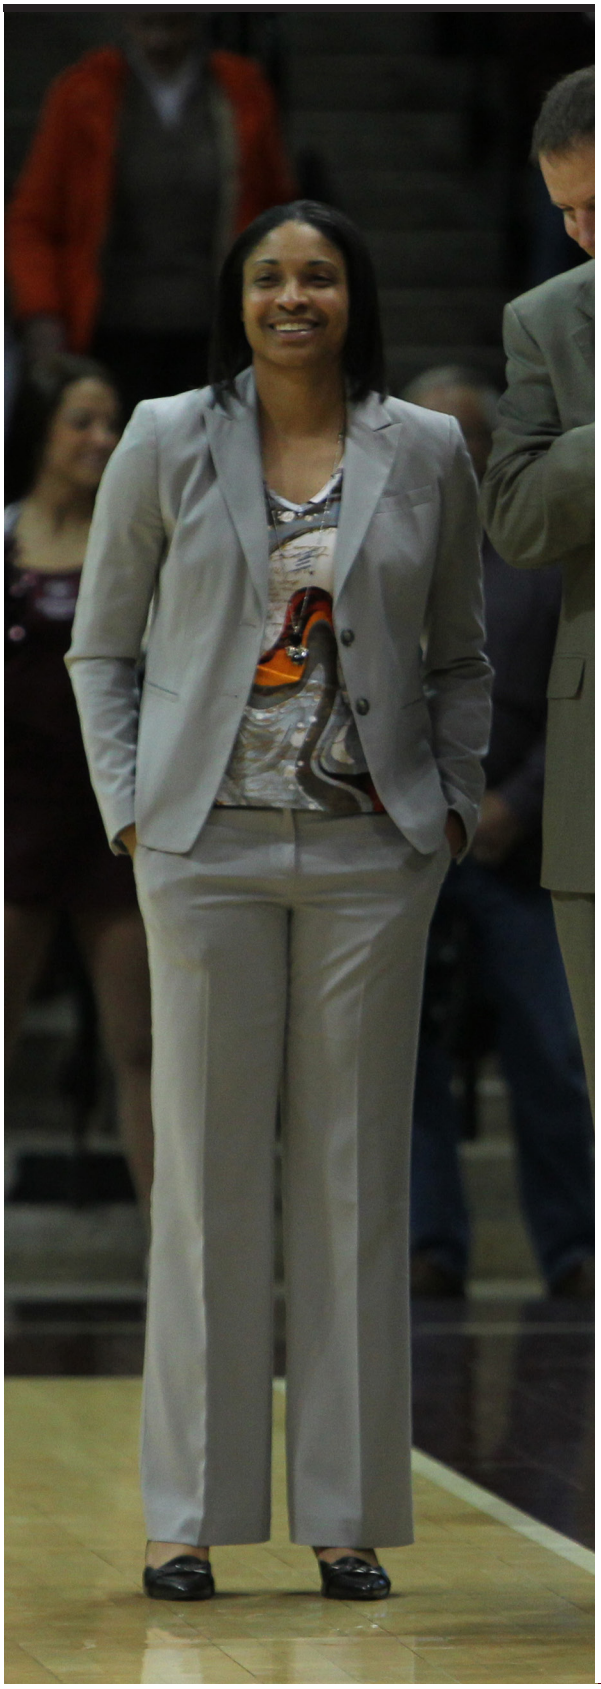

While he was with Auburn, the Lady Tigers compiled a 58-29 record that included the 1997 SEC Tournament Championship and a pair of NCAA Tournament berths in 1997 and 1999.

Harper joined the Auburn team as manager starting in 1996-97 and worked up to head manager in 1998-99. That season Harper was charged with increasing responsibilities that included overseeing the men's team that scrimmaged the Lady Tigers. He eventually served an internship with the coaching staff.

Harper earned his bachelor's degree in health promotion/sports management in March 1999 and in May of that year married the former Kellie Jolly. After receiving his degree, Harper taught physical education and was an assistant football coach at Lee-Scott Academy in Auburn. He then moved into private business before joining the basketball coaching ranks on the Chattanooga staff.

The Harpers welcomed their first child, son Jackson, in November 2013.

Jennifer Sullivan begins her fourth season at Missouri State in 2016-17. She serves as recruiting coordinator on Harper's staff, playing a significant role in the Lady Bears landing stellar recruiting classes in each of her first three seasons.

MSU's inaugural signing class under Harper in November 2013 included a trio of all-state players from Missouri and another from Illinois that went on to play in a combined 114 games during their freshman seasons, with Liza Fruendt earning MVC all-freshman accolades and Aubrey Buckley becoming the sixth true freshman to start at least 30 games at MSU.

Missouri State's subsequent recruiting classes have reinforced the school's strong presence in the Midwest, with players from Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Illinois and Minnesota signing National Letters of Intent.

Sullivan spent the 2012-13 season as Associate Head Coach for Garry Brodhead at the University of Louisiana in Lafayette, serving as the team's recruiting coordinator while handling guard development and scheduling.

Prior to her stint with the Ragin' Cajuns, Sullivan was an assistant at Arkansas State in her hometown of Jonesboro for three seasons. Sullivan served as ASU's recruiting coordinator in addition to duties with summer camps, academic monitoring and opponent scouting.

Sullivan's strong southern ties date to her playing days at Memphis from 2001-05, where she was a three-year starter and helped the Tigers to the second round of the WNIT in 2004. She finished her Memphis career with 800 points, 310 rebounds and 99 steals, graduating in 2005 with a Communications degree after being named team MVP her senior season.

Sullivan remained in Memphis upon graduation as an assistant for the Rhodes College women, and followed that by spending the 2007-08 season on the Memphis sideline before joining Brodhead at McNeese State for the 2008-09 campaign.

The all-time leading scorer in Division I women's basketball, Jackie Stiles is now in her fourth season as an assistant coach for her alma mater.

Stiles, who entered college coaching in 2012 as an assistant to former Lady Bear Charity (Shira) Elliott at Loyola Marymount, is the most decorated student-athlete in the history of Missouri State athletics.

As a senior, Stiles was named to the 2001 Kodak All-America First Team, the Associated Press All-America First Team and was named Women's Basketball News Service Player of the Year after finishing her collegiate career with 3,393 points, a record that still stands. Her 1,062 points that season remained the only 1,000-point season in Division I women's basketball history until 2014, and still stands as the record. She also holds the No. 4 single game total with 56 in a March 2000 contest against Evansville.

She was also named the Honda Awards program Player of the Year and was the recipient of the coveted Honda Awards Broderick Cup, as well as the Wade Trophy as a senior.

A four-time Missouri Valley Conference first-team selection, Stiles earned MVC Player of the Year honors as a sophomore, junior and senior, and the award for the league's most outstanding player now bears her name.

Stiles led the Lady Bears to the 2001 NCAA Final Four before becoming the first Missouri State player ever to be drafted by a WNBA franchise. The Portland Fire's first-round (No. 4) draft pick, Stiles received 32 out of 60 possible votes from sportswriters and sportscasters in being named the league's Rookie of the Year in 2001. A WNBA All-Star that season, she played for the Los Angeles Sparks in 2002 as well as professionally in Australia before retiring in 2006.

Stiles joined the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in June 2016, and also has memberships in the Missouri State, MVC, Springfield Area, Missouri Sports, and National High School halls of fame.

Since 2007, Stiles has owned and operated her own business, J. Stiles Total Training, which includes a variety of ventures including elite basketball training camps and clinics, personal training, motivational speaking appearances and sports broadcasting.

Matt Bolger joined the Missouri State staff as Director of Operations prior to the 2016-17 season. Among his duties as director of operations, Bolger oversees Missouri State's film exchange and equipment operations, coordinates team travel arrangements and operates Lady Bear basketball camps.

"I believe that Matt Bolger is a terrific fit with our staff and program," head coach Kellie Harper said at the time of his hiring. "First and foremost, he is a wonderful person. In addition, Matt was a very successful coach at the high school level and will be able to bring many of those winning attributes to our program. My staff and I are looking forward to working with Matt."

Bolger comes to Missouri State after spending the last two seasons as head girls basketball coach at Regina High in Iowa City, Iowa, guiding his team to a 46-5 record over that time. He earned three separate Coach of the Year honors in 2016 after leading Regina to a 25-1 record and state semifinal appearance.

Prior to his time in Iowa City, Bolger served three seasons as an assistant coach at Mount Mercy University in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he was the lead recruiter and mentored one All-American while coaching the team's post players.

Bolger made two additional high school coaching stops before joining the college ranks at Mount Mercy, beginning with a three-year stint as head girls coach at Bishop DuBourg High in St. Louis from 2008-11, where he engineered a turnaround that saw the team win 45 games in his three seasons after just 10 victories the previous three years.

His coaching career began with four seasons as the head girls coach at Iowa Valley High in his hometown of Marengo, Iowa, where the team went from a 1-21 record in 2005 to a 19-3 mark in 2008, and won the school's first conference and district title in 22 years with a 19-5 record in 2007.

Bolger graduated from Drake University in 2003 as a double major in elementary education and radio-television, and earned his Master of Arts in education and innovation from Webster in 2012. He and his wife Holly, have two daughters, Averie and Harper, and one son, Bennett.

Clif SMART

President
Ninth Year at Missouri State

Clifton M. "Clif" Smart III begins his sixth year as the leader of Missouri State University in 2016. He was named interim president on June 27, 2011, and served in that role until he was named the 11th president of Missouri State University on Oct. 16, 2012, after a nationwide search. He served as the University's general counsel from December 2007 until being named interim president.

Under Smart's leadership, Missouri State has made significant progress in a number of areas, including setting enrollment records for the Springfield campus and Missouri State System; adding additional academic programs, including the Doctor of Nursing Practice, the Doctor of Nurse Anesthesia, Master of Occupational Therapy, Master of Fine Arts, and Bachelor of General Studies; increased the number of online course offerings and the number of remote sites; expanded and improved partnerships with two-year institutions as well as four-year universities; completed the Our Promise campaign which raised $167 million, $42 million more than the original goal of $125 million; and completed or renovated a number of facilities, including: Foster Family Recreation Center, new campus entrance, McQueary Family Health Sciences Hall, Plaster Center for Free Enterprise and Business Development with The eFactory, Jim D. Morris Basketball Complex, the Davis-Harrington Welcome Center, the O'Reilly Clinical Health Sciences Center, and a series of recreation and athletic facilities (Plaster Stadium; Betty and Bobby Allison Recreation Fields; Allison North and South Stadiums).

Smart joined The Strong Law Firm in 1992. He was a shareholder in the firm from 1995-2007 and vice president since 1998. In his 15 years with the firm, his practice consisted primarily of representing individuals and entities in catastrophic injury, medical malpractice and commercial cases.

Smart currently serves on the NCAA Division I Board of Directors and was recently elected president of the Council on Public Higher Education in Missouri.

Smart and his wife, Gail, have two sons: Murray, who along with his wife, Amy, both graduated in 2012 from Southwest Baptist University and live in Rogers, Ark., with their daughters, Addy and Emery, and son, Parker; and Jim, a recent graduate of Knox College in Illinois.

Kyle MOATS

Director of Athletics
Eighth Year at Missouri State

Missouri State University's search for its new director of athletics concluded May 28, 2009, with the introduction of Kyle Moats as the University's 10th A.D. Moats came to the University after serving as associate athletics director for national marketing at the University of Louisville since 2005.

During Moats' tenure at MSU, he has hired seven head coaches, while leading the charge for facility upgrades totaling nearly $22 million, including the Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Academic Achievement Center project, the Jim D. Morris Basketball Complex and new or renovated home facilities for 12 of MSU's 17 sports. During the 2013-14 academic year, he helped spearhead the passage of the Bear Experience and Recreation (B.E.A.R.) Fee, which now generates $1.4 million annually toward the enhancement of four separate athletics facilities, including Robert W. Plaster Stadium, a new sand volleyball facility, as well as the Betty & Bobby Allison North (field hockey) and South (soccer, track and field) Stadiums currently used by MSU's intercollegiate and recreational programs. This past February, Moats was appointed to serve on the NCAA Division I Football Championship Committee, which administers playoff selections, seedings and the overall structure of the FCS.

In addition to being able to implement several facets of Missouri State's long-range athletics facilty improvement plan through the B.E.A.R. Fee, Moats' played a pivotal role on the task force that paved the way for the reinstatement of women's tennis as a varsity sport in September 2013. As a result of the task force's careful evaluation and recommendation, President Clif Smart announced the return of women's tennis for the 2014-15 academic year, making it the 11th women's sport and the 17th varsity program to operate under the MSU Athletics umbrella. Missouri State's decision to revive the program after an eight-year hiatus will ensure the University's long-term compliance with Federal Title IX regulations.

In a busy first year on the job, Moats wasted little time in laying groundwork for the future of Missouri State Athletics. From day one he emphasized the importance of fostering a strategic vision in the current landscape of intercollegiate athletics by involving all corners of the campus community in developing a long-range plan for the MSU Athletics. Moats played a key role in Missouri State's partnership with Nelligan Sports Marketing (now Learfield Sports), announced in February 2010. Additionally, Moats was instrumental in MSU's negotiations for a new multi-year television contract with KY3, Inc.

Year two for Moats in Springfield saw Missouri State finish second in the 2010-11 MVC All-Sports Trophy standings — its best finish in five years. Conference titles by men's basketball, women's swimming and softball, as well as postseason tournament berths for both MSU basketball programs highighted the Bears' year.

In 2011-12, Moats' third year at the helm, Missouri State enjoyed its finest campaign in nearly a decade, capturing the Missouri Valley Conference All-Sports Trophy for just the fourth time. The Bears won Valley titles in women's swimming and diving, women's indoor track and field, women's basketball and women's golf that year along with a co-championship in men's soccer. Additionally, four MSU teams advanced to postseason play, including NCAA Tournament appearances for the Bears' volleyball, women's golf and baseball programs.

Moats' efforts helped make the Jim D. Morris Basketball Complex a reality during the 2012-13 academic year. The $3.7 million construction project, completed in December 2013, features state-of-the art locker rooms, training facilities, offices and meeting space in JQH Arena. Additionally, all MSU athletic programs have met the NCAA's APR requirements in each of the last four years, while a record 177 student-athletes posted grade-point averages of 3.25 or better in 2013-14.

Prior to his arrival in Springfield, Moats spent four years as associate athletics director for national marketing at Louisville. In that capacity, he coordinated the Cardinals' efforts in national awareness, marketing, branding and group ticket sales. He also worked closely with Nelligan, which manages the exclusive marketing rights for Cardinal Athletics. Moats oversaw the Louisville band and spirit squads as the liaison with student government and student spirit groups.

Prior to joining the Louisville staff, Moats served as senior associate athletic director for two years at Marquette University, where he oversaw the Golden Eagles' Blue and Gold Fund, media relations, ticket operations, special events, licensing, radio, television, marketing and promotions and sponsorships with NSM. He also worked 14 years in the University of Kentucky athletics department, including his last three there as associate athletics director for marketing (2000-02).

A native of Dixon, Ill., Moats is a 1988 graduate of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville with a bachelor's degree in physical education. Moats was a three-year letterwinner in golf and a student assistant basketball coach for the Cougars from 1985-88. He earned a master's degree in sports management from the University of Kentucky in 2001.

Moats and his wife, Leeann, have a son, Kirk, and a daughter, Lauren.

Casey HUNT

Senior Associate Director of Athletics
Senior Woman Administrator
14th Year at Missouri State

Casey Hunt enters her eighth full year as associate director of athletics and her 14th year overall at Missouri State.

Hunt oversees the operations of several of the institution's 17 men's and women's sports programs. In addition, she has oversight of the Bears' athletic training and strength and conditioning programs and serves as the primary personnel administrator for intercollegiate athletics and sport administrator for MSU's baseball, women's basketball, track and field, cross country, men's soccer, field hockey and volleyball programs.

Hunt joined the MSU staff in March 2003 as assistant director of athletics for compliance, a post in which she served until succeeding Darlene Bailey as associate athletics director in September of 2006.

A native of Nanticoke, Pa., Hunt came to Springfield from Coastal Carolina University, where she had been assistant athletics director for compliance since 1998. At Coastal Carolina, Hunt's responsibilities included overseeing budgets for some of the school's 17 sports, working in game operations, supervising the hosting of conference championships and directing summer sports camps. She was honored as the Big South Compliance Director of the Year in 2000.

Hunt graduated from St. Bonaventure University in 1994 and earned a master's degree from the University of Connecticut in 1996. She served one year as an intern in the Syracuse University athletics compliance office and two years in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference compliance section.

A four-year starter in women's basketball at St. Bonaventure, Hunt was inducted into the school's athletics hall of fame in February 2007. Additionally, she was inducted into the Luzerne County (Pa.) Sports Hall of Fame in August 2010.

Hunt and her husband, Clint, were married in August 2012, and reside in Springfield.

Hutter has been a faculty member for Missouri State's William H. Darr School of Agriculture since completing his Ph.D. in agriculture education from the University of Minnesota in 1991. He has been recognized by MSU on several occasions with excellence in teaching and service awards and has served on numerous committees during his tenure at MSU, including a stint as chair of the University's Professional Education Committee.

Hutter graduated from Missouri State with a bachelor's degree in agriculture education in 1984, then earned a master's degree in education from the University of Missouri in 1987.

A native of nearby Miller, Mo., Hutter and his wife, Leslie, reside in Republic with their two sets of twins, Tate and Hayes, and Gibbs and Tess.

Melissa GOODMAN

Assistant Director of Athletics for Business Administration

First Year at Missouri State

Missouri State alum Melissa Goodman was named assistant director of athletics for business administration in October 2016, making the move from the University's Office of Financial Services to oversee the department's business operations.

In her new role, Goodman will oversee the development and management of the annual budget and the supervision of daily business operations.

Goodman has been a part of the MSU family for the past seven years, most recently as a financial aid counselor. In that capacity, she worked with departmental operational budgets and systems, including management of over $4.6 million in athletics scholarships. She also brings proficiency in Banner, Argos and the scholarship management system to MSU Athletics and the 17 intercollegiate programs it oversees.

Goodman is a 2007 graduate of MSU, graduating with magna cum laude and dean's list honors as an anthropology major. She is a member of the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, Missouri Association of Student Financial Aid Personnel, Midwest Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators and Ozark Area Key Financial Aid Personnel.

A native of Warrensburg, Mo., she and her son, Jackson, live in Springfield.

Shamika KENTISH

Assistant Director of Athletics for Compliance

Second Year at Missouri State

Shamika Kentish begins her second year at Missouri State after assuming the role of the Bears' chief compliance officer last summer.

The Seton Hall product spent the previous two years as director of compliance at Chowan University in Murfreesboro, N.C. At Chowan, Kentish helped monitor initial and continuing eligibility and recruiting practices for 16 NCAA sports and was the Athletics liaison for admissions, financial aid and the registrar. Prior to her time at Chowan, she served as a volunteer at Norfolk State, working with the Compliance Assistant software and book scholarship program.

Kentish also brought previous experience with the Norfolk (Va.) Christian schools and her alma mater, Seton Hall, where she served as a compliance intern. Kentish competed in track and field for four years at Seton Hall, earning her degree in sports management in 2010. The four-time Big East Academic All-Star went on to receive her MBA from the University of Phoenix in 2012.

Rick KINDHART

Assistant Director of Athletics for Communications

Ninth Year at Missouri State

MSU alumnus Rick Kindhart is in his ninth year directing the athletics communications efforts and his eighth as assistant A.D. In addition to overseeing the day-to-day operations of the department, he is the primary contact for MSU men's basketball.

During his tenure at MSU, Kindhart has served on the NCAA Self-Study Committee, University Marketing Council and is part of the Greater Springfield Public Relations Advisory Committee. During his 25 years in the sports information profession, he has earned a number of national writing and publication awards, including a CoSIDA second in the nation award in 2012 for the Missouri State men's basketball game programs and a third in nation honor for the same MSU publication in 2010. His 2015 MSU Football Media Guide also placed third in the nation. He has worked on the media relations teams for several national and regional events, including the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball St. Louis Regional, 2006 Final Four and 1995 Freestyle Wrestling World Championships in Atlanta.

A 1991 honors graduate of MSU, Kindhart joined the MSU staff in July 2008 after serving as assistant executive director for communications for the Missouri State High School Activities Association (MSHSAA) for a total of 11 years. He received his master's degree in 1993 from Southeast Missouri State, where he was assistant SID from 1991-93. From 1993-96, he was sports information director at Delta State University in Cleveland, Miss.

He and his wife, Christy, have two children, Matt and Shelby.

Intercollegiate Athletics Mission Statement

Approved by the Board of Governors October 1995, revised November 1999, December 2001, October 2003

Missouri State University (MSU) is committed to an intercollegiate athletics program which complements the mission of the University and operates in accordance with the principles and regulations of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. As a member of various athletics conferences, MSU is committed to academic and athletics excellence, sound fiscal management practices, enhancement of the physical and educational welfare of student-athletes, equal opportunity, character development, principles of amateurism, as well as the fundamental values of sportsmanship, civility, and the common virtue of good citizenship.

The Bears Fund

The Bears Fund is the annual fund-raising program for Missouri State intercollegiate athletics that was established in 1981 in conjunction with the move of MSU athletics to NCAA Division I status. Over the course of the past 34 years, its impact on Missouri State Athletics has grown substantially. The fund's name stands for "Building Excellence in Athletics through Recruiting and Scholarships," and it plays a vital role of supporting the 400+ student-athletes at Missouri State University.

The Bears Fund is comprised of over 1,000 private contributors that support the endeavors of the student-athletes at Missouri State University by giving them the opportunity to exceed both on and off the playing surface.

The fund is administered by the Missouri State University Foundation with additional input from coaching and administrative staff members in intercollegiate athletics. There are nine different membership levels with the Bears Fund. The opportunity to participate and receive benefits starts at $50 each year. Various benefits include premium seating opportunities, game program recognition, Bears Fund exclusive emails, and parking and postseason ticket considerations.

To see how current Bears Fund members are making the collegiate experience possible for the student-athletes at Missouri State, visit MissouriStateBears.com, or contact The Bears Fund at 417-836-4143 or via email at AthleticsDevelopment@MissouriState.edu.

Kerry DICKERSON

Senior Director of Athletic Development

First Year at Missouri State

Missouri State University welcomed Kerry Dickerson as its new senior director of athletics development in September 2016. In that capacity, he oversees the day-to-day operations of the BearsFund as well as the development of scholarship, capital and major gifts for MSU Athletics.

Dickerson spent the last five years as assistant athletic director for development at the University of Northern Iowa, where he oversaw the Panther Scholarship Fund. He also assisted UNI Athletics with its overall fundraising efforts, helping grow the University's philanthropic efforts every year during his tenure.

Lady Bears Get Back to Big Dance

Missouri State Wins 10th MVC Tournament Title, Advances to 14th NCAA Tournament

Basketball success is often defined by the month of March. And the Missouri State Lady Bears were synonymous with March success in the 1990s and early 2000s, going to the NCAA Tournament 13 times from 1991-2006 before a decade-long drought. That dry spell came to an end in 2016, as a determined group of seniors and strong supporting cast boosted their play to another level late in the season to lead the Lady Bears to a Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championship and the school's 14th NCAA Tournament berth.

Challenging Non-Con

All but one of Missouri State's 12 non-conference opponents played in a post-season tournament the prior season, giving the team plenty of opportunities to earn quality wins and test itself against top competition.

The Lady Bears opened the season on Nov. 13 by hosting NCAA-bound Missouri, as 4,878 fans witnessed a 71-55 Tiger win. The Lady Bears led 49-44 early in the fourth period before the Tigers closed on a 27-6 run.

MSU's first win of the season was the 200th of head coach Kellie Harper's career, as the Lady Bears used a balanced offensive effort to dispatch NAIA national champion MidAmerica Nazarene, 88-61.

The Lady Bears made it two in a row on Nov. 19 when Liza Fruendt scored 25 points off the bench and Kenzie Williams buried five 3-pointers in a 91-78 victory at Ole Miss.

Missouri State hosted an Oklahoma State team that eventually earned a No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament four days later, falling to the Cowgirls by a 74-55 final thanks to a 35-point, 14-rebound effort from Big 12 Player of the Year Brittney Martin.

The Lady Bears ventured to Florida over the Thanksgiving holiday to play in the Gulf Coast Showcase, beginning with a Nov. 27 date against 13th-ranked Stanford. The Cardinal buried 15 treys in the game to hand MSU an 82-65 defeat.

The next day, the Lady Bears got double-doubles from Hillary Chvatal and Tyonna Snow, but a controversial block/charge call in the final minute helped Maine to a 69-65 victory that dropped MSU's record to 2-4.

Missouri State rebounded the following morning with a 77-45 blowout of traditional Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference power Marist, holding the Red Foxes to 26.2 percent shooting.

The Lady Bears opened December with their second SEC road win of the year, using 18 points from Williams, 17 from Snow and a superb defensive effort by Aubrey Buckley for a 69-54 victory at Arkansas.

Snow had 25 points, 10 rebounds and four steals in a 87-63 home win over Eastern Kentucky on Dec. 5, and Williams followed suit with a double-double of her own a week later against Oral Roberts, scoring 25 points and pulling down a career-high 12 boards in a 72-64 win at JQH as the Lady Bears moved to 6-4 on the year.

MSU faced its most difficult road challenge of the year on Dec. 17 at Middle Tennessee, as an Education Day crowd of more than 11,000 people coupled with an injury-shortened bench led to a 70-54 loss. The Lady Bears and Blue Raiders eventually reunited in March at the College Station Regional.

Missouri State closed the non-conference schedule on Dec. 20 by picking up an impressive 64-58 win at Little Rock. Buckley scored a career-high 12 points in what was her last game of the year due to injury.

Slow Start to League Play

The Lady Bears opened MVC play on New Year's Day with a 73-51 win at Illinois State behind 16 points, 10 rebounds, seven assists and five steals from Snow, and used a solid defensive effort two days later to pick up a 59-51 victory at Indiana State.

The second weekend of league play was not as kind, however, as Drake and UNI, the two clubs picked to finish just behind MSU in the preseason poll, invaded JQH with a pair of victories to drop the Lady Bears to 2-2 on the year.

Tyonna Snow

Missouri State and Drake were tied at 42 at the half on Jan. 8, but the Bulldogs scored first in the third quarter and never trailed in the second half, making seven consecutive field goals late in the contest to salt away the 82-75 win.

The Lady Bears fell behind UNI by 15 points early on Jan. 10 and twice cut the gap to a single point in the final 90 seconds, but the Panthers sealed a 65-60 win at the foul line to send MSU to 9-7 overall and .500 in the league.

Lady Bears on a Roll

Missouri State tipped off a 17-game stretch in which it would lose only twice on Jan. 15 at Bradley, using a stifling defense to shut down the Braves in a 55-44 win.

The Lady Bears took a wild 73-62 win later that weekend at Loyola, jumping ahead by 25 points in the first half before holding off an LUC rally in the second half. Chvatal scored a career-high 17 points and grabbed 11 rebounds as part of an MVC Player of the Week performance.

MSU bolted to an early lead and led by double digits for most of the contest in a 77-70 win over Evansville on Jan. 22, and topped SIU for its fourth consecutive win two days later as the senior class combined to score 61 points while fending off a late Saluki run in the 82-77 victory.

The Lady Bears finished the month of January, and the first half of the conference schedule, with a 77-57 win at Wichita State, their first road victory against the Shockers in more than a decade. MSU led by five at the break and pulled away in the second half, growing the gap to as many as 23 points in the fourth quarter.

February began with Liza Fruendt hitting the first of what would become a pair of dramatic 3-pointers on back-to-back Fridays to help the Lady Bears to a 78-75 win at UNI. Fruendt buried a triple from the right wing with 21.4 seconds left to send the game to overtime at the McLeod Center, and Snow scored all 10 of MSU's points in the extra frame and 24 total in the game, all after halftime, to help MSU to its 10th consecutive MVC road win.

Drake halted Missouri State's various winning streaks on Feb. 7 in a battle between the two clubs tied for first place, handing the Lady Bears a 95-72 loss thanks to 59 percent shooting from the field.

Fruendt and Snow struck again in a 91-81 overtime victory against Loyola on Feb. 12 at JQH Arena, with Fruendt's 3-pointer with four ticks left in regulation sending the game to OT, and Snow scoring an arena-record 41 points in one of the greatest individual performances in school history. The senior added 12 rebounds and seven steals, while setting school records with a 21-for-29 showing at the foul line.

Missouri State continued the dramatics during a Valentine's Day matinee with Bradley, rallying from a 14-point deficit with eight minutes remaining for a 59-56 win. Williams earned MSU the lead with two free throws at the 2:07 mark, and Danielle Gitzen's foul shots with 19.2 seconds left made it 57-56 before Fruendt hit two more free throws and BU's last-second heave bounced off the rim.

Missouri State's final loss of the regular-season came Feb. 19 at Southern Illinois in 69-61 fashion. The Lady Bears led by a point with 3:32 remaining before the Salukis closed the game on a 13-4 run.

The Lady Bears held Evansville to 12 first-half points in a 66-47 win in Evansville on Feb. 21, the first of several superb defensive efforts over what turned into a seven-game winning streak.

MSU shot 57.8 percent and Snow grabbed seven steals in a 74-45 victory over Wichita State on Feb. 27, and the Lady Bears' shutdown defense limited Indiana State to 25 percent shooting during a 75-41 blowout on March 3.

Missouri State put together a repeat performance two days later to close the MVC season with a 70-41 Senior Day victory over Illinois State, completing the regular season with a 21-9 overall record and 14-4 MVC mark to tie for second in the final standings.

MVC Tournament to Remember

The Lady Bears claimed the 10th MVC Tournament title in school history, becoming the first No. 3 seed ever to do so.

MSU began the event with a 70-45 victory over Indiana State, holding a fifth consecutive opponent below 50 points for the program's longest streak since 1974.

A showdown with second-seeded Drake followed, and defense was once again the story has the Lady Bears held the high-scoring Bulldogs to 19 points below their season average in a 65-61 win. The lead changed hands six times over the final seven minutes, the final time on a pair of Audrey Holt free throws with 17 seconds left for a 63-61 lead. Gitzen sealed the game with two more foul shots with three ticks on the clock to finish with a career-high 14 points.

The Lady Bears had little drama in the March 13 championship game against UNI, trailing for just 55 seconds in a 71-58 victory. Snow had 17 points and 15 rebounds, and Fruendt scored 16 off the bench. MSU led 35-22 shortly before half, and the Panthers cut the lead to four points twice in the third quarter before an 11-0 run put the Lady Bears ahead 55-40 with 9:14 left in the game. MSU led by double figures for the remainder of the contest, and the seniors combined for 17 of the team's 20 points in the fourth period.

Return to NCAAs

After a decade absence, Missouri State's name was revealed in the NCAA bracket as a No. 13 seed, with a first-round date with fourth-seeded Texas A&M set in College Station.

The Lady Bears trailed the Aggies by two points at halftime before the home team connected on 13 of 18 shots in the third quarter to separate themselves with a 54-37 lead entering the final period.

MSU shot 59 percent in the final period and scored 28 points, closing the book on a great season with a 74-65 loss.

Lengthy Awards List

Snow earned both the MVC Jackie Stiles Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year awards, becoming the third MVC player overall and first since 1993 to accomplish that feat. She also earned MVC all-Defensive Team for a third consecutive season, and followed that up with an MVC Tournament MVP performance.

Williams was a first-team all-MVC pick for a second straight year, and became the third Lady Bear to earn MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team honors three years in a row.

Fruendt landed spots on the MVC all-tournament team and Scholar-Athlete Second Team.

Snow (3), Williams (2) and Chvatal (1) combined for six MVC Player of the Week awards throughout the season.

Statistical Superlatives, Records

Missouri State's senior class left a significant imprint on the school's record book. Williams (7th - 1,645) and Snow (9th - 1,611) both ended their career among MSU's top 10 in career scoring.

Snow set school records for steals in a career (352) and season (109), ending her career second among active NCAA players in total steals and third with a 2.93 per game average.

Snow's 2015-16 scoring total of 570 points ranked 12th in MSU history, while she shot 241 free throws to rank third in attempts, and made 168 of those for the No. 5 spot. She added 39 blocks as a senior for the seventh-best total in school history. She finished her career ranked second in free throw attempts (763), third in free throw makes (495), eighth in field goal attempts (1,318), seventh in blocked shots (72), 16th in rebounds (622) and 18th in assists (265).

Williams finished her illustrious career ranked ninth in steals (212), sixth in 3-point makes (184), fifth in 3-point attempts (517), 13th in 3-point accuracy (.356), 10th in free throw makes (345), 10th in free throw attempts (444), 14th in blocked shots (52), 15th in assists (320), and 21st in rebounds (566). She and Snow are two of the three players in MSU history with 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 steals, 200 assists and 50 blocks in their careers.

Chvatal concluded her playing days as one of 10 players in school history with at least 500 points, 500 rebounds and 50 blocks, ranking 12th in school history with 59 career blocked shots and 14th with 629 rebounds.

Head Coach Kellie Harper became the 11th Division I coach to lead three schools to the NCAA Tournament, and just the to do so after also participating in the tournament as a player.

Game 1

Missouri 71
Missouri State 55

November 13, 2015 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD -- Missouri State was unable to sustain a five-point fourth-quarter lead Friday as the Lady Bears went cold offensively in the final period in a 71-55 loss to Missouri in the season opener for both clubs at JQH Arena.

In front of a crowd of 4,878, the eighth-largest in JQH Arena history and most since February 2011, MSU led 49-44 on a Tyonna Snow layup with 9:22 remaining in the game, but made only one field goal after that point as the Tigers closed on a 27-6 scoring run while shooting 7-of-11 overall and 11-of-16 from the foul line in the final period.

The Lady Bears also got off to a slow start offensively to begin the game, and trailed 13-5 early in the second quarter before gaining a one-point halftime lead. Liza Fruendt buried a 3-pointer with 6:30 left and Lee Ann Polowy added another exactly two minutes later for a 15-15 tie. The Tigers regained a 21-15 lead before Lexi Hughes connected from long range and Riley Rose scored twice in the final minute to give MSU its first lead of the game at 22-21.

MU began the second half on a 9-2 run to lead 30-24, but the Lady Bears fired right back, as Kenzie Williams buried a 3-pointer for a 33-32 lead with 6:35 left, and Fruendt followed with another 35 seconds later before hitting a jumper 33 seconds after that for a 38-34 advantage.

The lead changed hands four more times by the end of the quarter, with Williams knocking down a trey for a 47-44 advantage at the end of the period.

After Snow's basket for a 49-44 lead, MU's Sophie Cunningham scored seven straight points for the Tigers for a 55-50 lead with 5:49 to go. Fruendt hit two free throws with 3:14 left to pull MSU to 55-52, but the Tigers connected on a 3-pointer 33 seconds later and hit 11 foul shots in the final 2:15 to widen the final margin.

Fruendt led MSU with 13 points, and Snow finished with team-highs of five rebounds, four assists and five steals. Cunningham and Jordan Frericks each had double-doubles for Tigers, who owned a 53-27 rebounding margin.

The Lady Bears shot 31.1 percent overall compared to 44.4 percent for MU. Missouri State forced 24 turnovers, including 14 steals, while only committing 14 miscues.

Game 2

Missouri State 88
MidAmerica Nazarene 61

November 17, 2015 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD -- Missouri State overcame a slow start Tuesday evening for an 88-61 win over visiting MidAmerica Nazarene at JQH Arena, improving to 1-1 on the season and earning Kellie Harper her 200th career victory as a head coach.

MSU seniors Kenzie Williams (14), Tyonna Snow (14) and Hillary Chvatal (12) led the way offensively, as Williams buried four 3-pointers and Chvatal added two more. Snow grabbed seven rebounds and six steals, surpassing 250 for her career, while sharing the team assist lead with Williams and Danielle Gitzen at four apiece. All 13 Lady Bears scored and grabbed a rebound in the contest.

The Pioneers got off to a fast start offensively, making four of their first five shots for a 10-7 lead 3:35 into the game, and turning steals into layups on consecutive possessions for an 18-9 advantage with 1:11 left in the first quarter.

Chvatal hit 3-pointers on either side of the quarter break to pull MSU within 18-15 with 9:51 left before half, and the Lady Bears went on to shoot 12-for-18 in the second quarter while pouring in 32 points for a 44-32 halftime lead.

Williams knocked down the first of three second-quarter 3-pointers to give MSU the lead for good, and Chvatal followed with a transition layup off Snow's steal to cap a 13-0 run at 22-18 with 7:21 on the clock. Liza Fruendt scored buckets 26 seconds apart for a double-digit lead at 38-28, and Riley Rose finished off the half with a steal and layup.

Missouri State twice led by 13 points early in the third quarter before MNU cut the advantage to single digits at 47-39. Grace Vander Weide and Lexi Hughes drained 3-pointers for a 53-39 advantage with 3:58 to go, and MSU's lead twice grew to 16 points before ending the quarter at 59-45.

MNU stayed within striking distance early in the final period until Snow scored four times during a 13-0 run that took just 2:33 of game time and put the Lady Bears ahead 77-51 with 4:53 to play. MSU led by at least 21 points for the remainder of the game.

The Lady Bears scored 26 points off turnovers and owned a 28-10 margin, leading to 21 more field goal attempts than the Pioneers. MSU shot .442 (34-77) overall compared to .411 (23-56) for the visitors, and knocked down 11 of 29 tries from beyond the arc. Missouri State finished with 20 assists and 15 steals.

Game 3

Missouri State 91
Ole Miss 78

November 19, 2015 • Oxford, Miss.
Tad Smith Coliseum

OXFORD, Miss. -- Missouri State (2-1) had runs of 10-0 or better in the first and third quarters and led by as many as 29 points Thursday evening in a 91-78 victory over an Ole Miss (1-2) team picked to finish in the top half of the Southeastern Conference this season.

Sophomore Liza Fruendt finished with career highs of 25 points and seven rebounds, Kenzie Williams knocked down five 3-pointers and scored 22, and Hillary Chvatal notched her fifth career double-double with 12 points and 11 boards. Riley Rose dished out eight assists, the most for an MSU player since February 2014, and the most by a freshman since Casey Garrison in 2009.

The game opened at a break-neck pace, as Williams hit a pair of early 3-pointers to pass Garrison for 10th in school history, the second of which began a 10-0 run that put the Lady Bears ahead 21-10 with 4:16 left in the first quarter.

MSU made its first 10 free throws of the game and went 12-for-14 from the line in the opening period, while Fruendt added 13 of her 17 first-half points to five the Lady Bears a 32-24 advantage.

Ole Miss turned a steal into a score to pull within one possession at 33-30 with 7:40 left in the first half, but back-to-back treys from Lexi Hughes and Williams made it 39-30 just 37 seconds later, and MSU's lead stayed between eight and 11 points to the 51-41 halftime margin.

The Lady Bears separated themselves in the third quarter, making 56 percent of their shots and holding Ole Miss to 4-for-21 as their lead grew to as many as 25 points. Chvatal and Williams book-ended a 10-0 run with 3-pointers to put MSU ahead 63-45 with 5:14 to play, and a Fruendt trey made it a 20-point game with 4:47 on the clock at 66-46. Two Danielle Gitzen free throws pushed the lead to 75-50 before Ole Miss scored to end the period.

MSU's lead increased to as many as 29 points at 89-60 with 5:17 left in the contest, and it took a late 13-0 run by the Rebels to make the final score appear closer than the game was played.

Missouri State shot 46.2 percent (30-65) and made 13 treys in 34 attempts. Ole Miss finished 29-of-92 (.315) overall, and the Lady Bears owned a 54-49 rebounding margin.

Game 4

Oklahoma State 74
Missouri State 55

November 23, 2015 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD -- Oklahoma State closed each quarter on scoring runs of five points or better Monday night for a 74-55 victory over the Missouri State Lady Bears at JQH Arena.

Tyonna Snow led the Lady Bears (2-2) with 14 points and four steals, and Aubrey Buckley added 10 points for her second career game in double figures. Oklahoma State (4-0) All-American Brittney Martin had 35 points and 14 boards, and Roddricka Patton set an arena record with 15 assists for the Cowgirls.

The Cowgirls made four of their first five shots to lead 8-2 and never trailed in the game. MSU pulled to 12-10 on a Lexi Hughes 3-pointer with 3:12 left in the first quarter, but OSU scored the final five points for a 17-10 lead.

Snow scored six points in 50 seconds to open the second period before Danielle Gitzen's free throw made it a one-possession game at 22-19 with 7:25 left until halftime. MSU then went nearly four minutes without scoring, but stayed within striking distance as Aubrey Buckley converted a bucket and the free throw for a 29-26 deficit with 1:43 to play. Oklahoma State finished strong, however, going into intermission on a 7-0 run for a 36-26 lead.

The Lady Bears opened the second half on an 8-0 run after consecutive Snow baskets, and trailed 38-36 after two Snow free throws with 7:29 to play before the Cowgirls broke the game open with a 17-3 run to lead 55-39 after three quarters.

Missouri State got as close as 62-51 with 4:55 to play in the game, but back-to-back Martin jumpers pushed OSU's lead back to 15.

Oklahoma State finished 30-for-66 (.455) overall and owned a 52-30 rebounding edge. MSU shot 29.5 percent overall, but made 16 free throws in 21 tries, with Snow hitting six to pass Tahnee Balerio for ninth in school history with 337 career makes.

Game 5

#13 Stanford 82
Missouri State 65

November 27, 2015 • Estero, Fla.
Germain Arena

ESTERO, Fla. – Led by a season-high 26 points by Lili Thompson, No. 13 Stanford used a sharp-shooting attack to post an 82-65 opening-round victory over Missouri State Friday afternoon at the Gulf Coast Showcase at Germain Arena.

The Cardinal out-scored the Lady Bears 25-3 over a five-minute stretch midway through the first half to take control of a see-saw battle, thanks in large part to a perimeter shooting display that would ultimately see them match an MSU opponent single-game record for 3-point makes by going 15-of-33 (.455) from beyond the arc.

Thompson, who added a game-high six assists as well, connected on 5-of-11 attempts from 3-point range and 10-of-21 overall shots from the floor to help the Cardinal hold off the Lady Bears (2-3). MSU battled back from a 23-point second-period deficit, as a Hillary Chvatal trey and a Tyonna Snow layup in the opening minutes of the third period pulled the Lady Bears to within 11 points.

But the Cardinal answered with an emphatic 9-0 run on three consecutive 3-pointers to squash MSU's hopes of a comeback. The Lady Bears would close the gap 12 points late in the third on a Liza Fruendt triple, but got no closer than 13 over the final 10 minutes.

Stanford limited the Lady Bears to 6-of-23 (.261) shooting from beyond the arc and 26-of-73 (.356) from the floor overall, while hitting 30-of-65 (.462) shots of their own. The Cardinal's 15 successful 3-point tries matched two previous performances by Lady Bear opponents, including a Jan. 8, 2009 effort by Creighton and a Nov. 29, 2009 display by Eastern Michigan.

Snow led four double-figure scorers for MSU, totaling 13 points, while Chvatal finished with 12 points and a team-best six boards. Kenzie Williams heated up after a slow start, scoring 10 of her 12 points in the second half while recording three assists and two steals. Fruendt also reached double-digits, tallying 10 points and three rebounds for MSU.

Game 6

Maine 69
Missouri State 65

November 28, 2015 • Estero, Fla.
Germain Arena

ESTERO, Fla. – Missouri State rallied from a 12-point second-half deficit, but Maine's clutch shooting in the closing minutes delivered a 69-65 victory for the Black Bears in the consolation bracket of the Gulf Coast Showcase Saturday at Germain Arena.

Trailing 47-35 midway through the third period, the Lady Bears (2-4) rode the combined offensive spark from Tyonna Snow and Liza Fruendt to fight their way back into the contest. Snow, who tallied a season-high 25 points on the day, scored the first nine MSU points of the second half, before Fruendt heated up to connect on three consecutive 3-point field goal attempts down the stretch to help pull the Lady Bears to within one point by the end of the period.

After Hillary Chvatal free throws with 8:56 to play handed MSU its first lead since late in the first period, the two clubs engaged in a back-and-forth battle until Sophie Weckstrom's 3-pointer with 4:59 left gave the Black Bears a 57-55 advantage that they would not relinquish. Sigi Koizar extended the Maine lead to 62-55 with her fifth triple of the game, but Snow led the MSU fight once again, scoring eight straight points to close the gap to 64-63 with under a minute to play. The senior guard then corralled a rebound following a Weckstrom miss, and drove the length of the court toward a potential go-ahead score with under 30 seconds to play.

But as a Maine defender attempted to impede her path, Snow was whistled for a questionable offensive foul, then received a technical foul in the wake of the momentum-swinging call.

The Black Bears (4-3) drained 5-of-6 free throw attempts to seal the outcome, including four straight from Koizar, who finished with a game-high 30 points on a 5-of-8 effort from 3-point range and 10-of-16 shooting overall. As a team, Maine converted 9-of-30 (.300) tries from long range.

Snow, who scored 21 of her 25 points in the second half, went 10-of-15 from the floor and matched a career high with 11 rebounds. Fruendt combined with Snow to score 22 of MSU's 23 third-period points, and added 14 points on 4-of-9 shooting from beyond the arc. Chvatal posted a double-double with 11 points and 10 boards to help stage the Missouri State comeback.

MSU enjoyed a substantial advantage on the glass, finishing with a 43-23 edge in total rebounds, but the Black Bears helped offset the discrepancy with an 18-to-8 assist-to-turnover margin. In addition to Koizar's big day, Wood totaled 14 points, while Weckstrom chipped in 12 points and a game-high five assists.

Game 7

Missouri State 77
Marist 45

November 29, 2015 • Estero, Fla.
Germain Arena

ESTERO, Fla. – Using a balanced offensive attack and a shutdown defense that limited Marist to 26 percent shooting, Missouri State never trailed in a 77-45 victory over the Red Foxes on the final day of play at the Gulf Coast Showcase Sunday at Germain Arena.

Led by Liza Fruendt's team-high 13 points, MSU's reserves outscored the Marist bench by a 39-7 margin, as all 11 Lady Bears who saw action dented the scoring column and played at least 13 minutes in the 32-point win, which represented the largest margin of victory for MSU during Kellie Harper's 71-game tenure as head coach.

In addition to Fruendt's key effort, Hillary Chvatal matched a season high with 12 points to go along with a team-best nine rebounds. Lady Bear freshman Danielle Gitzen scored a career-high nine points on 4-of-6 shooting, and fellow rookie Riley Rose equaled her personal high with eight points while handing our four assists.

Sparked by 22 first-half points from its bench, Missouri State connected on 13 of its first 23 (.565) field goal attempts to build a 22-point first-half lead. The Lady Bear defense played a key role in establishing the early advantage, limiting the Red Foxes to just four field goals in their first 20 tries from the floor while forcing eight first-half turnovers. Three of those giveaways came on Marist's first three offensive possessions of the game, as MSU's stingy defense set the tone for the day.

MSU stayed on the attack at the onset of the second period, scoring the first nine points to extend its advantage to 29-10 with just over seven minutes to play in the half. Kenzie Williams opened the scoring with a successful jumper, before Rachel Swartz scored off a Williams offensive board, and Gitzen converted a pair of short jumpers in the paint. Marist would get no closer than 16 points the rest of the way, as back-to-back 3-pointers by Lexi Hughes and Fruendt in the closing minutes of the half pushed the margin to 41-19.

Despite converting just 3-of-14 field goal attempts in the third period, the Lady Bears were able to continue building their lead thanks to a standout defensive effort. MSU kept the Red Foxes off the scoreboard for five minutes and held them without a field goal for more than eight minutes after Allie Clement's jumper just 20 seconds into the period. The Lady Bears forced six turnovers while Marist went 0-of-9 from the field during the 12-0 scoring run that ultimately made it a 55-26 game with just over two minutes to play in the third

MSU put the game on ice early in the fourth period, scoring 15 of the first 22 points and holding the Red Foxes to 11 points in the final quarter. In all, the Lady Bear defense allowed a season-low .262 (16-of-61) shooting from the field, including a 6-of-32 (.188) showing from 3-point range.

Thanks in large part to their 13 steals, the Lady Bears enjoyed a 21-2 advantage in fast break points. MSU also dominated the paint, finishing with a 38-18 scoring edge in that department, while converting 20 Marist turnovers into a 29-2 advantage in points off turnovers.

Game 8

Missouri State 69
Arkansas 54

December 2, 2015 • Fayetteville, Ark.
Bud Walton Arena

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. -- Missouri State out-scored Arkansas by 15 points in the fourth quarter to pull away with a 69-54 decision and its second road victory over a Southeastern Conference opponent this season Wednesday evening at Bud Walton Arena.

Lexi Hughes sparked the 26-11 outburst with 11 fourth-period points, while Tyonna Snow scored six of her game-high 18 points in the final stanza to help lead MSU to its first win over the Razorbacks in Fayetteville since 1997.

Held to 12-of-47 (.255) shooting from the field over the first three periods, the Lady Bears erupted on the offensive end over the game's final 10 minutes, connecting on 9-of-17 (.529) shots. Hughes hit on 4-of-6 attempts, including a pair of clutch 3-pointers down the stretch, while the MSU defense held the Razorbacks to a 5-of-16 (.313) showing in the period and just .344 (21-of-64) shooting for the night. Key to that result was a strong post defensive effort that helped hold SEC scoring leader Jessica Jackson to a season-low four points on 1-of-9 shooting.

Tied at 43 entering the final period, the Lady Bears started their late run with a Kenzie Williams 3-pointer off a Rachel Swartz offensive rebound on MSU's opening possession of the quarter. Hughes then drained a jumper at the 8:12 mark to stretch the margin to 48-43, before Alecia Cooley and Malica Monk brought the Razorbacks (2-5) to within one point on back-to-back layups.

Snow answered the UA charge with a critical trey of her own with 6:48 to play, setting off an 8-0 Lady Bear run that would include a Williams basket in transition and the first of Hughes' two threes in the period that pushed the MSU lead to nine points. The junior guard came through again at the 3:40 mark, completing a drive to the basket to extend the margin to double digits for the first time. Onye Osemenam's layup moments later made it a 12-point game, before Hughes threw home a 3-point dagger to extend the cushion to 64-51 with 1:55 to go.

Williams scored five of the Lady Bears' first 10 points in the fourth to finish with 17 points on the night, surpassing Melissa Busby for the ninth spot on MSU's career 3-point field goal chart (137) by hitting 3-of-4 attempts from beyond the arc. Snow added nine boards, three assists, three steals — surpassing Casey Garrison for the No. 4 position on MSU's career list — and a block to her big offensive night that resulted in MSU's first win at Bud Walton Arena since a 12-point victory over a 20th-ranked UA squad on Dec. 7, 1997.

Game 9

Missouri State 87
Eastern Kentucky 63

December 5, 2015 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD -- Led by 25 points and 10 rebounds from senior Tyonna Snow, the Missouri State Lady Bears (5-4) used a balanced offensive attack Saturday evening to earn an 87-63 victory over Eastern Kentucky (4-2) at JQH Arena.

Snow shot 10-for-15 overall while adding four steals, three blocks and two assists, while all 11 Lady Bears who saw playing time scored, with five players tallying at least eight points in MSU's third consecutive victory.

Missouri State erased a 6-0 deficit to open the game and did not trail for the final 36-plus minutes, taking the lead for good on one of three Lexi Hughes 3-pointers with 3:12 to play in the first quarter during a 10-0 run that resulted in a 21-15 advantage on a pair of Kenzie Williams free throws with 1:48 to go.

The Lady Bears extended their run to 20-5 after Liza Fruendt's trey made it 31-20 with 7:43 left before the half, and the Colonels got no closer than eight points before intermission as Williams buried a 3-pointers with 32 seconds left for the 43-31 halftime margin.

Fruendt scored five minutes into the second half for a 52-38 lead before Eastern Kentucky rattled off a 6-0 run to close to 52-44 with 3:28 to play. Onye Osemenam countered with four straight points for the Lady Bears, and MSU led by at least nine points for the remainder of the contest.

Snow needed only 1:42 of game time to rattle off 10 quick points for a 73-53 lead, and Williams followed with her 139th career long ball to tie for seventh in school history and give MSU a 76-56 advantage.

MSU's lead got to as many as 25 points as the Lady Bears finished the game 31-of-69 (.449) from the field. EKU shot 41 percent overall and 3-for-17 from beyond the arc. Missouri State owned a 47-35 rebounding margin, scored 44 points in the paint, scored 22 points off 19 offensive rebounds, and dished out 18 assists compared to 12 turnovers.

Game 10

Missouri State 72
Oral Roberts 64

December 12, 2015 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State's Kenzie Williams notched her second career double-double with 21 points and a career-high 12 rebounds, and the Lady Bears held off a frantic Oral Roberts comeback try after leading by 27 points midway through the third quarter to earn a 72-64 victory over the Golden Eagles Saturday evening at JQH Arena.

The Lady Bears (6-4) used five separate scoring runs of 7-0 or better to pick up their fourth consecutive victory, while ORU fell to 2-7 in the midst of its challenging early-season schedule.

MSU opened the game on a 10-0 run before ORU finally scored after more than six minutes elapsed, but the Lady Bears suffered through a 1-for-13 shooting spell as the visitors went 9-0 on the way to a 12-10 MSU lead after one quarter as the teams combined to shoot 23.5 percent.

The Lady Bears blitzed the Golden Eagles to begin the second period with Liza Fruendt scoring 11 points before the media timeout during an 18-2 run for a 30-12 advantage. Williams added a 3-pointer with 2:07 left to give MSU a pair of double-digit scorers in the frame as the Lady Bears went into intermission ahead 37-22.

ORU scored first after the break before the Lady Bears answered with a 9-0 run over the next 70 seconds, including a pair of steals and layups from Tyonna Snow for a 46-24 advantage at the 8:14 mark. MSU opened up a 56-29 lead with 5:37 left after another 7-0 run, and remained ahead by at least 20 points until early in the fourth quarter.

The visitors scored to cut the margin to 62-44 shortly after the final period began, and the Lady Bears went nearly seven minutes without scoring while the Golden Eagles rattled off a 13-0 run to close to 64-57 with 2:50 to play.

Williams got MSU back on the board with a pair of free throws with 2:25 left for 66-57, and added four more points over the next two minutes for a 70-61 lead with 24 seconds to play.

The Lady Bears shot 20-for-26 from the foul line, gaining 11 points on the visitors at the charity stripe. MSU shot 24-for-64 overall compared to 23-for-62 for ORU, and the Golden Eagles hit nine 3-pointers.

MSU owned a 47-36 rebounding edge, with Hillary Chvatal (8), Aubrey Buckley (8) and Snow (7) nearing double figures. Snow and Fruendt scored 15 apiece, Williams added four assists and two blocks while making all eight free throws, and Snow grabbed four steals.

Game 11

Middle Tennessee 70
Missouri State 54

December 17, 2015 • Murfreesboro, Tenn.
Murphy Center

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – Missouri State took a one-point lead into the fourth quarter Thursday afternoon, but went cold from the floor as Middle Tennessee used a 10-0 run to break the game open for a 70-54 victory.

An Education Day crowd of 11,411 witnessed the contest at the Murphy Center, the third-largest crowd to ever attend a Lady Bear game and most for a non-Final Four game.

After trailing 28-23 at halftime, the Lady Bears (6-5) made their first six shots of the third quarter to cut the lead to 38-36 on a Lexi Hughes 3-pointer, and two Tyonna Snow free throws evened the score at 38-38 with 3:18 to play. Hughes canned another trey for a 10-0 run and Kenzie Williams hit two free throws for a 44-40 advantage before Hillary Chvatal's layup beat the third quarter buzzer for a 46-45 advantage.

The Blue Raiders (5-4) score five points in the first 55 seconds of the fourth to go ahead 50-46, and a Liza Fruendt 3-pointer made it 50-49 with 8:25 to play. Middle Tennessee countered with a 6-0 run to match its largest lead, and Snow's and-one with 4:02 remaining pulled MSU to 56-52, but also proved to be the Lady Bears' last field goal of the game. MT fired off a 10-0 run from there and shot 10-for-16 in the fourth quarter.

The short-handed Lady Bears led by as many as eight points in the first half on a Kenzie Williams 3-pointer for 18-10 with 7:41 left in the second quarter, but the Blue Raiders ripped off a 15-0 run in response to lead 25-18 before Hughes scored MSU's final five points of the period for a 28-23 halftime deficit.

Missouri State shot 17-for-50 in the game compared to 28-for-70 for the Blue Raiders, as the home team forced 19 turnovers and grabbed 20 offensive rebounds. MT held a 46-34 rebounding margin.

Snow paced the Lady Bears with 17 points, seven rebounds and five assists while moving to fourth in MSU and 10th in Missouri Valley Conference history in career free throw attempts. Hughes added 11, while Chvatal had eight points and nine boards.

Middle Tennessee's Brea Edwards score 29 points to lead the Blue Raiders.

Little Rock 58

December 20, 2015 • Little Rock, Ark.
Jack Stephens Center

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. – Missouri State finished its rugged non-conference schedule with a win Sunday afternoon, topping Little Rock by a 64-58 margin at the Jack Stephens Center.

The Lady Bears (7-5) led for less than five minutes during the game and shot 36 percent against Little Rock's (2-6) stiff defense, but out-scored the Trojans 17-6 over the final 5:30 and hit 17 of 20 shots at the foul line. Aubrey Buckley scored a career-high 12 points, while Liza Fruendt chipped in 17 and Kenzie Williams added 15.

Missouri State trailed much of the second half, falling behind 47-40 early in the final quarter before pulling within a possession on four occasions until Tyonna Snow's layup knotted the game at 54-all with 3:32 to play.

Williams then weaved a pass through traffic to hit Buckley for a layup and 56-54 lead on MSU's next possession, and the Lady Bears never relinquished the lead, getting a spinning layup from Snow with 1:18 left to make it 58-55 before Williams, Snow and Fruendt each went 2-for-2 at the line in the final 43.4 seconds.

The Lady Bears fell behind 9-4 within the first three minutes of the game before holding the Trojans to 14 points over the final 17:01 of the first period.

Missouri State's offense took slightly longer to click than the defense, however, as Little Rock led 21-12 with 6:10 left before halftime while MSU made only four of its first 22 shots. The Lady Bears found their rhythm during an 8-0 run that included two Fruendt free throws, two Williams baskets and a Rachel Swartz layup for a 21-20 deficit with 2:47 to play.

Little Rock broke its five-minute scoreless drought to stop MSU's run before Williams buried to foul shots with 3.9 seconds on the clock for the Lady Bears' first lead of the contest at 24-23.

The score was tied three times early in the second half before the Trojans created some separation with a 5-0 run to lead 38-33 at the 3:42 mark, and the home team extended the margin to 44-37 after three quarters.

Missouri State finished with a 38-31 rebounding edge and dished out 13 assists compared to 10 turnovers. Snow and Onye Osemenam grabbed six caroms each, Snow and Williams had five assists apiece, and Snow led all players with three steals. Little Rock finished the game 22-for-49 from the floor, but made only four of its final 15 attempts.

Game 13

Missouri State 73
Illinois State 51

January 1, 2016 • Normal, Ill.
Redbird Arena

NORMAL, Ill. – Missouri State shot a season-high 55.6 percent, led by seniors Kenzie Williams and Tyonna Snow combining for 39 points on 15-for-22 shooting, for a 73-51 victory over Illinois State Friday afternoon in the Missouri Valley Conference opener for both schools at Redbird Arena.

Williams scored a season-high 23 points, connecting on 9-of-12 shots overall and 5-of-7 from 3-point range, while Snow had 16 points and 10 rebounds for her third double-double of the season, adding a career-high seven assists along with five steals and two blocks.

All 11 players scored for the Lady Bears (8-5, 1-0), who held ISU (2-10, 0-1) to 35.6 percent shooting.

The Lady Bears used three big scoring runs to open a comfortable halftime lead after trailing 8-6 six minutes into the contest. Snow kicked off the first with a driving layup followed by 3-pointers from Lexi Hughes and Williams and another bucket by Grace Vander Weide for a 16-8 advantage with 1:33 to play in the first

Illinois State needed only 55 seconds for a 7-0 run on either side of the quarter break to pull to 16-15, but Snow's layup finished off a 7-0 MSU run at 28-17 with 3:37 left before half, and the senior added five more points during an 11-0 spurt to build a 39-21 advantage before the Redbirds scored in the waning seconds for a 39-23 margin at the break.

ISU sliced nine points off Missouri State's lead less than four minutes into the second half, closing to 43-36 with 6:15 remaining. The Lady Bears scored the next five points to lead again by double-digits before taking a 53-43 advantage into the final period.

Williams buried her fifth trey of the game to put the Lady Bears ahead 58-43 with 8:40 left in the game, and MSU led by at least 12 points for the rest of the contest.

Missouri State owned a 35-30 rebounding margin, blocked a season-high seven shots and swiped 13 steals to help force 19 ISU turnovers. Williams added five rebounds and three steals, while Liza Fruendt scored nine points and Hughes had eight.

Game 14

Missouri State 59
Indiana State 51

January 3, 2016 • Terre Haute, Ind.
Hulman Center

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. -- Missouri State improved to 2-0 in Missouri Valley Conference play Sunday afternoon, matching the league's top scoring defense stop-for-stop in a 59-51 victory over Indiana State at the Hulman Center.

MSU moved to 9-5 with its third straight road victory, holding the Sycamores (5-8, 1-1) to 31.3 percent shooting overall and 5-for-25 from the 3-point line.

The Lady Bears used an 8-0 run capped by a Kenzie Williams 3-pointer to lead 11-4 with 6:34 left in the first quarter, and pushed the margin to double figures at 16-6 on a Hillary Chvatal free throw with 1:44 to play.

Missouri State went 6:30 without a field goal until Tyonna Snow scored at the 7:58 mark of the second, and Lexi Hughes followed with her 100th career trey for a 23-12 lead with 7:17 to play.

MSU did not score again until Snow hit with 2.9 seconds before half, but still took a 25-16 lead into intermission as the defense held ISU to 23.3 percent shooting and forced nine turnovers.

Liza Fruendt's 3-pointer and an offensive rebound and score by Chvatal gave the Lady Bears a 30-16 advantage to begin the second half, and two Hughes free throws opened up MSU's largest lead yet at 34-18 with 6:45 to play, but the Lady Bears made only three free throws for the remainder of the third quarter as the Sycamores closed to 37-29 with an 11-3 run.

Missouri State went nearly 11 minutes without a field goal until Williams knocked down a 3-pointer with 7:22 left in response to a desperation trey by ISU that pulled the Sycamores to 38-34 just 18 seconds earlier.

ISU again closed to four points at 41-37, but Hughes had the answer with triples for leads of 44-37 and 50-39 before hitting a layup with 3:03 left to play for a 52-39 advantage.

Snow hit a pair of free throws 26 seconds later for 54-39, but ISU had one more charge left with an 8-0 run to close to 54-47 with 1:20 remaining. Snow then converted two steals into four points in the final 51 seconds to seal the win.

Snow led all players with 20 points while adding nine rebounds, three assists and four steals to move to 11th in MVC history in that category. Hughes scored nine of her season-high 14 points in the fourth quarter, and Chvatal had nine points and 14 rebounds.

MSU shot 8-for-17 from beyond the arc and owned a 19-4 advantage in free throws.

Game 15

Drake 82
Missouri State 75

January 8, 2016 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD – The visiting Drake Bulldogs handed Missouri State its first Missouri Valley Conference loss of the season Friday evening by an 82-75 final at JQH Arena in a battle of the league's top two teams in the preseason poll.

MSU fell to 9-6 overall while Drake moved to 9-5, and both teams are 2-1 in league play.

The Lady Bears fell behind 10-2 early but clawed back to within a point at 19-18 on Audrey Holt's jumper, and again at 22-21 when Liza Fruendt buried a 3-pointer with 2:09 left in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs countered with an 8-0 run to go ahead 30-21 before Kenzie Williams buried a trey with 5:41 left in the first half for MSU's first lead of the game at 33-32, and Hillary Chvatal hit a baseline jumper on the next possession to cap a 35-32 run.

Four ties and four lead changes followed to a 42-42 deadlock at halftime, but Drake scored first in the second half and never relinquished its lead.

The Bulldogs pushed the margin to 54-47 midway through the third quarter, and made it an eight-point game at 57-49 with 2:17 on the clock before Tyonna Snow scored the last five points of a 7-0 MSU run that cut the gap to 57-56 with 11.3 seconds left in the period.

Drake beat the third-quarter buzzer with a 3-pointer before Snow converted her second 3-point play of the half with 7:34 remaining for a 64-61 deficit. Danielle Gitzen scored to make it a one-possession game again at 66-63, but Drake made its next seven field goals, including an 8-0 run to lead 79-67, as the Lady Bears could get no closer.

Snow scored 18 of her game-high 24 points in the second half, including a 14-for-15 showing at the foul line that ranks as the seventh-best single-game free throw total in MSU history. Snow also moved to fifth in career makes at Missouri State.

Williams finished with 17 points, passing Karen Rapier for 13th place on MSU's career scoring list, and Chvatal added 11 to go with eight rebounds, which made her the 22nd Lady Bear with 500 career boards.

Drake won the rebounding battle, 43-33, and shot 48.5 percent in the game and 56.7 percent in the second half while knocking down 12 of 26 attempts from long range.

The Lady Bears made 22 of 27 free throws, including their final 18 of the game, but only shot 38.1 percent from the field after a 7-for-28 second half.

Missouri State blocked 10 Bulldog shots in the game, the most since January 2011, with Chvatal and Onye Osemenam each stuffing a career-high three shots.

Game 16

UNI 65
Missouri State 60

January 10, 2016 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State trailed Northern Iowa by as many as 15 points Sunday afternoon and fought back to within one point on two occasions late in the game before falling by a 65-60 final at JQH Arena. The Panthers made all six of their free throw tries in the final minute in a battle of two of the top three teams in the Missouri Valley Conference preseason poll.

The Lady Bears (9-7, 2-2) made their first two shots of the game for a 4-0 lead, but led for only 75 seconds as a 1-for-11 shooting slump followed and let the Panthers (8-7, 3-1) go ahead 12-6 with 4:17 left in the first quarter.

UNI added a 12-0 run to lead 25-10 early in the second period before nine quick points from Liza Fruendt pulled the Lady Bears to 27-19 with 3:51 left before the half. The Panthers responded 22 seconds later and carried the double-digit lead into halftime at 33-22.

Tyonna Snow scored four points in a 7-0 run that pulled MSU to 35-29 early in the second half, but UNI countered with one of several critical 3-pointers and had the lead back in double figures at 40-29 midway through the third period.

Fruendt followed with five straight points and Audrey Holt added a layup for a 42-38 deficit with 1:15 to play, and UNI opened the final quarter on a 5-0 run to lead 49-40.

Hillary Chvatal capped a 6-0 MSU run for 51-48 with 6:13 on the clock, but UNI's Madison Weekly hit back-to-back treys in the next minute to push the advantage back to nine points.

The Lady Bears had one final rally, closing to 59-58 on Fruendt's triple with 1:23 to play and getting a bucket from Snow to pull to 61-60 with 35.6 seconds left. Weekly answered each basket by hitting two free throws on the other end, and MSU missed two shots on the ensuing possession before UNI sank two more foul shots with 16.6 seconds left to seal the game.

Fruendt led Missouri State with 17 points and was joined in double figures by Chvatal (11) and Snow (10). MSU owned a 45-25 advantage on the glass as Holt and Danielle Gitzen grabbed career highs of 11 and eight rebounds, respectively, in their first career starts.

The Panthers committed just eight turnovers and shot 41.5 percent overall and 8-for-24 from long range, while the Lady Bears finished 25-for-68 (.368) overall and made only two treys in 16 tries.

Game 17

Missouri State 55
Bradley 44

January 15, 2016 • Peoria, Ill.
Renaissance Coliseum

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State became the 35th Division I women's basketball program to achieve 800 all-time wins on Friday with a 55-44 Missouri Valley Conference victory against Bradley inside Renaissance Coliseum.

The Lady Bears (10-7, 3-2) posted their best defensive effort of the season in terms of points allowed while improving to 6-1 in true road games. Bradley dropped to 4-11 and 0-4 in league contests.

For the second straight game, Missouri State owned a significant rebounding edge, winning 48-34 on the glass and turning 17 offensive boards into 13 second-chance points to help overcome 36.7 percent shooting.

The Lady Bears rebounded seven of their first eight missed shots, including a putback from Hillary Chvatal to begin a 6-0 run for a 14-5 lead with 3:15 left in the first quarter.

MSU suffered through a shooting slump over the next several minutes as the Braves battled back to tie the score twice in the second quarter, but Tyonna Snow had the response each time as BU never claimed the lead.

After Bradley's basket for a 19-all tie with 5:53 left, Snow and Kenzie Williams combined for a 9-0 run to close the half for a 28-19 MSU advantage at the break.

BU's scoring drought extended more than seven minutes until the home team scored 82 seconds into the second half to make it 28-21, while the Lady Bears went nearly five minutes without a bucket until Chvatal scored with 7:15 left for 30-21.

Williams knocked down a jumper a minute later for MSU's first double-digit lead at 32-21, and Liza Fruendt scored for a 39-25 advantage with 3:21 left in the third before the Braves whittled the margin back to 40-31 by the end of the period.

Lee Ann Polowy hit a 3-pointer from the left corner to open the fourth quarter, and a 6-0 run capped by Chvatal's layup made it 49-33 with 5:13 remaining.

The Braves made one last charge, using a 7-0 run to close within single digits at 50-42 with 3:16 to play, but did not score again until 12 seconds remained as the Lady Bears were able to clamp down defensively in the final few minutes.

Snow finished with 15 points to lead all scorers, adding eight rebounds and three assists. Chvatal had 11 points and nine boards, and Williams scored 12 points.

Missouri State limited the Braves to 32.7 percent shooting overall and 2-for-16 from beyond the arc.

Game 18

Missouri State 73
Loyola 62

January 17, 2016 • Chicago, Ill.
Gentile Arena

CHICAGO, Ill. -- Missouri State jumped out to a 25-point first-half lead Sunday afternoon and held off the league-leading Loyola Ramblers for a 73-62 victory at Gentile Arena.

Loyola (8-8, 4-1 Missouri Valley Conference) cut MSU's sizeable lead to five points midway through the third period and remained within single digits for much of the second half, but a career-high 17 points and 11 rebounds from Hillary Chvatal helped the Lady Bears (11-7, 4-2) improve to 7-1 on the road this season.

Kenzie Williams added 15 points and Tyonna Snow scored 13 to go with six rebounds and four steals. Snow became the 23rd MSU player with 500 career rebounds in the contest, as well as joining the MVC's top 10 in terms of career steals.

Missouri State scored the game's first nine points and held the Ramblers without a score for nearly five minutes to begin the contest. Williams then buried a 3-pointer to pass Cindy Henderson for 12th on MSU's career scoring list and give the Lady Bears a 12-1 lead, and Chvatal knocked down a trey with 50 seconds left in the first period to make it 21-8.

Chvatal added her third 3-pointer of the game early in the second to make it 26-8, and Williams pushed the opening run of the second quarter to 13-1 with six points in 30 seconds for a 34-9 advantage at the 5:44 mark. Liza Fruendt followed with three foul shots for 37-12 with 3:03 left before the Ramblers closed the half on an 11-2 run to pull to 39-23.

The Ramblers got off to a 7-for-8 shooting start in the second half and quickly closed the gap to five points at 45-40 with 5:40 remaining in the third quarter.

Snow settled things down for the Lady Bears with three free throws and an assist to Chvatal before Fruendt hit a jumper with 3:08 to play to end a 7-0 run with the Lady Bears ahead 52-40.

MSU carried the double-digit lead into the fourth quarter and led 61-47 when Lexi Hughes hit a trey 10 seconds into the final period before the Ramblers began to chip away.

Loyola shot nine free throws over the next six minutes, making six, to close to 67-60 with 3:48 on the clock before the MSU defense clamped down, allowing only one LUC basket the rest of the way while forcing five turnovers in the final three-plus minutes.

Missouri State shot 41.5 percent from the floor and 23-of-29 at the foul line while holding a 39-30 rebounding edge. LUC shot 36.7 percent and made 21 foul shots in 30 tries.

Game 19

Missouri State 77
Evansville 70

January 22, 2016 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State dished out a season-high 20 assists and led by at least 10 points for all but three of the game's final 30 minutes Friday for a 77-70 victory over Evansville at JQH Arena.

The Lady Bears (12-7, 5-2 Missouri Valley Conference) got career-high assist totals from Danielle Gitzen (6) and Liza Fruendt (4), while Gitzen also matched a season-best with nine points and seniors Tyonna Snow and Kenzie Williams scored 17 points apiece. Evansville fell to 2-15 and 1-5 in MVC games.

Despite a slow shooting start, the Lady Bears still led 10-7 late in the first quarter when Lexi Hughes hit back-to-back 3-pointers at 2:07 and 1:16 before hitting a layup with 19 seconds left for a 20-10 lead after the first period.

The long balls continued early in the second frame when Hillary Chvatal, Grace Vander Weide and Williams all connected to make it 29-12 with 7:47 to play. The Lady Bears remained ahead by double digits for the remainder of the half, with Evansville knocking down its fifth trey with 31 seconds left for the 38-28 score.

UE's Sara Dickey scored twice in the first 63 seconds of the third quarter to pull the Aces within 40-33, and the Lady Bears countered with a 10-0 run to match their largest lead at 50-33 on a Williams basket with 5:48 on the clock.

Chvatal scored for a 52-35 advantage on MSU's next possession, but the Lady Bears came up empty on eight of their next nine trips down the floor before Snow bounced a jumper home with three seconds left to make it 57-46 after three quarters.

Missouri State began the fourth period on an 8-2 run to once again equal its largest lead, this time at 65-48 after a Williams jumper with 6:38 to play. Williams then converted a steal into a three-point play for 72-52 and 3:39 on the clock, and the Purple Aces made their final six field goals to cut into the final margin.

The Lady Bears shot 44.3 percent overall, led by Snow's 8-for-11 effort, and seven players hit a 3-pointer. Snow added three assists and three steals, and Audrey Holt grabbed a team-high eight rebounds. MSU held a 41-37 margin on the glass.

Game 20

Missouri State 82
Southern Illinois 77

January 24, 2016 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State seniors Hillary Chvatal, Tyonna Snow and Kenzie Williams combined to score 61 points Sunday evening to lead the Lady Bears (13-7, 6-2 Missouri Valley Conference) to a 82-77 victory over Southern Illinois (11-8, 4-3) at JQH Arena.

Williams tallied a season-high 25 points on 11-for-20 shooting, Chvatal had 16, and Snow finished with 20 points, five rebounds, five assists, five steals and no turnovers. Snow jumped two spots on the MVC career steals list in the game as well and now ranks eighth with 301 career thefts.

Both clubs shot an identical 19-for-36 from the floor in the first half, with the Lady Bears getting off to a blistering start, scoring on their first eight trips down the floor for a 19-12 lead midway through the first quarter.

MSU led 26-25 after one period, and briefly fell behind early in the second before ripping off a 10-0 run to lead 39-29 at the 5:28 mark. Williams hit a jumper for 43-33 with 4:24 left when SIU scored nine quick points to pull within a point two minutes later. Liza Fruendt buried a trey for a 48-42 score and the Salukis countered with their own for the 48-45 halftime margin.

The first offensive slump for either club came after the Salukis pulled to within two points early in the third quarter, as the visitors went nearly five minutes without scoring while the Lady Bears went on a 9-0 run capped by a Fruendt triple for a 61-50 advantage with 4:24 on the clock.

Lexi Hughes connected from long range with 2:32 remaining for a 64-52 advantage, the first of three separate 12-point leads for MSU on the way to a 68-56 score after three quarters.

After Williams scored to make it 70-59 with 9:23 to play, the Lady Bears missed nine of their next 10 shots as SIU pulled to 73-72 on a Rishonda Napier trey with 3:41 to go. Snow answered with a layup for 75-72 but missed the foul shot on the and-one opportunity, and MSU went just 4-for-10 at the foul line from that point to keep SIU within striking distance.

Snow's 300th career steal led to a free throw and 77-72 lead with 1:57 left, and Williams hit a pair of driving layups in the final 50 seconds on either side of a Southern Illinois triple to keep the advantage at 81-77 with 21.6 ticks left. Snow then nabbed her fifth steal of the game to seal it for MSU.

MSU finished 31-for-67 (.463) overall and 8-for-20 from 3-point range, while SIU made half of its 64 field goals. The Lady Bears forced 17 turnovers and committed just nine of their own, and trailed the MVC's top rebounding by only one board, 34-33, while grabbing 16 offensive caroms.

Game 21

Missouri State 77
Wichita State 57

January 30, 2016 • Wichita, Kan.
Koch Arena

WICHITA, Kan. – Missouri State completed the first half of the Missouri Valley Conference schedule Saturday afternoon with a 77-57 triumph over Wichita State at Koch Arena. The Lady Bears (14-7, 7-2 MVC) took over the league lead by half a game with the victory, winning their fifth straight game overall and sixth consecutive on the road.

MSU never trailed in the contest after Hillary Chvatal and Kenzie Williams knocked down 3-pointers for a 6-0 advantage, and led 15-4 on a Liza Fruendt trey with 3:39 left in the first period.

The Shockers closed within two points on two occasions, with Lexi Hughes answering the second time with a conventional 3-point play for a 25-20 lead. MSU pushed the gap back to seven points three times in the second quarter and took a 36-31 lead into the break.

Seniors scored all 23 points in the third quarter, beginning with a Williams 3-pointer for 39-31 at the 9:08 mark. Snow then moved into 15th on MSU's career scoring list with a layup for 43-33 with 7:43 left, and Williams assisted a trio of Chvatal baskets that led to a 51-37 advantage. Snow's spinning layup with 1:59 left pushed the lead to 59-42, and the Lady Bears led by at least 12 points for the remainder of the game.

Missouri State led by as many as 23 points in the fourth quarter and shot 50 percent in the second half and 45 percent for the game. The Lady Bears also owned a 35-27 rebounding advantage, including 21-10 in the second half, and dished out 17 assists on 27 made baskets.

Williams led four double-figure scorers with 16 points, including 4-of-7 shooting from long range. She moved up to 11th place on MSU's career scoring list, added four rebounds to become the 24th Lady Bear with 500 in a career, and handed out a season-high six assists.

Snow finished with 15 points and a career-high 12 boards for her fourth double-double of the season, and added four steals to move to third in MSU and seventh in MVC history in career thefts.

Chvatal added 13 points on 5-of-6 shooting, Fruendt scored 11, and Hughes tallied seven to become the 60th Lady Bear with 500 in a career.

Game 22

Missouri State 78
UNI 75 (ot)

February 5, 2016 • Cedar Falls, Iowa
McLeod Center

CEDAR FALLS, Iowa – Liza Fruendt hit a game-tying 3-pointer with 21.4 seconds left in regulation, and Tyonna Snow scored all 10 of Missouri State's points in overtime as the Lady Bears earned a 78-75 victory Friday evening at UNI.

MSU's 10th consecutive Missouri Valley Conference road victory kept the Lady Bears (15-7, 8-2 MVC) in a tie for first in the league standings, while co-leader UNI fell to 12-9 and 7-3 in league contests.

The Lady Bears fell behind by double digits after a quarter but took a 27-26 lead into halftime after shooting 8-for-13 in the second period, capped by a Kenzie Williams trey with 37 seconds left to close a streak of six consecutive made field goals.

After a scoreless first half, Tyonna Snow erupted for 24 points after intermission, beginning with the first four out of the break for a 31-26 lead. UNI retook the lead for 22 seconds before Williams answered with a trey, and Fruendt and Hillary Chvatal combined for 11 points in under two minutes for a 49-42 advantage.

Fruendt added two more treys to lead 57-50 with 8:02 left in the game before the Panthers countered with a 9-0 run for a 59-57 advantage with 4:29 to play. The Lady Bears tied the score twice and regained the lead at 63-61 on a Snow layup with 2:35 to play.

The Panthers scored the next five points and stayed ahead 66-65 after Snow scored again with 1:14 left. The Lady Bears came up empty on a possession with 24 seconds left, UNI hit two free throws, and Fruendt tied the score at 68 before MSU got one final stop.

Snow kicked off overtime with a 3-point play 17 seconds in, and added two free throws with 3:14 to go for a 73-68 lead. UNI closed within a possession before Snow made two more free throws and then turned a steal into a layup with 1:04 to play for a 77-70 lead. The Panthers made it interesting with a 3-pointer, steal and bucket to pull to 77-75 with 13 seconds remaining, Snow hit a foul shot with 10.2 seconds left, and UNI missed a trey in the final seconds to give MSU the win.

Fruendt added 16 points on 4-of-5 shooting from long range, and Williams scored 16 to pass Lisa Davies for 10th place on MSU's career scoring list.

Snow added nine rebounds and five steals, jumping to sixth in MVC history in that category, and Fruendt grabbed a career-high seven rebounds.

MSU shot 45.9 percent overall compared to 43.9 percent for UNI, and hit nine treys in 21 tries while limiting the Panthers to 5-for-17 from beyond the arc. The Lady Bears also owned a 39-28 rebounding edge.

Game 23

Drake 95
Missouri State 72

February 7, 2016 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center

DES MOINES, Iowa – Drake used a 21-2 run in the second quarter and 59 percent shooting in the game to claim a 95-72 victory over the Missouri State Lady Bears Sunday afternoon at the Knapp Center in a match-up between the two clubs tied for the Missouri Valley Conference lead.

MSU (15-8, 8-3) had win streaks of six games overall, seven straight road games, and 10 consecutive MVC road games snapped, while Drake improved to 16-6 and 9-2 in league contests.

Missouri State never led as the Bulldogs made five of their first six shots on the way to a 13-4 lead. The Lady Bears cut the gap to three points on three occasions before a 13-0 Drake run made it 40-24 with 3:38 to play. Only two Liza Fruendt free throws broke up what ended up a 21-2 spurt that helped the home team lead 51-33 at the break after hitting seven 3-pointers in the second period.

The Lady Bears closed within striking distance at 60-45 when Fruendt hit a trey with 5:42 remaining in the third period, but Drake quickly countered to build its largest lead of the contest at 70-46.

Tyonna Snow hit back-to-back layups early in the fourth quarter to pull MSU to 73-58, and a Lee Ann Polowy triple made it 80-66 with 4:42 to play, but Drake scored the next six points to squelch MSU's comeback attempt.

Snow scored 21 points to move to 13th on MSU's career scoring list, adding six boards and four assists. Hillary Chvatal finished with 12 points and eight boards, Fruendt added 10 to surpass 500 for her career, and Swartz (9) and Polowy (6) registered season high scoring totals. Kenzie Williams also moved past Kelly Mago for ninth in school history in career scoring.

Drake's .589 field goal percentage was the highest for an MSU opponent this year, and the Bulldogs connected on 10 of 19 shots from long range. The Lady Bears shot 35.6 percent and lost the rebounding battle, 40-34.

Game 24

Missouri State 91
Loyola 81 (ot)

February 12, 2016 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State's Tyonna Snow scored a career-high 41 points, and Liza Fruendt buried a last-second 3-pointer to send the game to overtime as the Lady Bears (16-8, 9-3 Missouri Valley Conference) claimed a 91-81 victory over visiting Loyola (12-11, 8-4) Friday at JQH Arena.

Snow joined Jackie Stiles, Melody Howard and Tara Mitchem as the only players in MSU history to score 40 points in a game with her JQH Arena record total, while only Stiles has exceeded her 41-point output. Stiles recorded MSU's last 40-point effort with 41 points in the 2001 Sweet 16 victory over Duke.

Snow also broke her own school records with a 21-for-29 showing at the free throw line, both representing NCAA single-game highs this season, while adding career highs for rebounds (12) and blocks (4) to go with seven steals. Additionally, her 21 free throws rank second in MVC history for a single game, and her 29 attempts tied the league mark while falling two shy of the NCAA single-game record.

After shooting just 19 percent in the first half and trailing 29-24 at intermission, the Lady Bears whittled Loyola's lead down to one possession on four occasions before Kenzie Williams buried a long 3-pointer for a 39-38 lead with 3:02 to play in the third quarter. Snow's steal and layup made it 42-38, and she added a traditional 3-point play with 36 seconds left for a 47-41 advantage.

Williams added to her 20-point total with two free throws with 9:19 left to give MSU a 49-43 lead and make her the ninth player in school history with 1,500 career points. The Ramblers countered with an 8-0 run to go up 53-51, and MSU came back to tie four times before Fruendt's trey from the right wing with 4.0 ticks on the clock sent the game to overtime at 70-all.

Snow scored the first four points of overtime and Hillary Chvatal added a layup for an opening 6-0 run in the first 60 seconds, and the Lady Bears led by at least four points for the remainder of the game. Fruendt's fifth triple of the game made it 81-74 with 2:40 to play, and MSU went 10-for-12 from the line down the stretch to close out the win. Snow tallied 10 points in the extra period and 30 after halftime, while Fruendt finished with 19.

Missouri State shot just 35.6 percent overall but went 33-for-45 at the charity stripe, won 41-37 on the boards and turned 27 Loyola turnovers into 30 points. The Ramblers shot 48 percent but took 23 fewer shots to go with a 29-for-36 effort at the stripe.

Game 25

Missouri State 59
Bradley 56

February 14, 2016 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD -- Missouri State earned its largest come-from-behind victory in six years on Sunday, rallying from a 15-point halftime deficit and 14-point fourth-quarter margin to defeat Bradley 59-56 at JQH Arena.

The Lady Bears (17-8, 10-3 Missouri Valley Conference) completed their largest comeback since rallying from 18 points down against Drake on Feb. 7, 2010, and regained a share of first place in the league standings thanks to a Drake loss to Indiana State. Bradley fell to 7-17 and 3-10 in league games.

Missouri State trimmed 10 points off Bradley's halftime lead midway through the third quarter after Kenzie Williams hit a layup for 34-29 with 3:58 to play.

The Braves quickly regained a double-figure advantage before Lexi Hughes beat the third-quarter buzzer with a trey to make it 44-36, but Bradley scored the first six points of the final period to lead 50-36 with 8:20 remaining.

MSU began it's furious rally with a Tyonna Snow 3-pointer that started a 9-0 run for a 50-45 deficit on a Hughes jumper with 5:59 to play. Bradley pushed its lead back to nine points before Snow kicked off a 10-0 MSU run that resulted in a 55-54 lead on two Williams free throws with 2:07 remaining.

Bradley countered with two free throws 17 seconds later, and the Lady Bears came up empty on their next two possessions before Audrey Holt's rebound with 28 seconds left gave MSU one final chance.

The Braves fouled Danielle Gitzen with 19.2 ticks on the clock and the freshman calmly sank the two foul shots for a 57-56 advantage. Bradley then missed two shots for the win, Snow grabbed the second rebound, and Liza Fruendt hit two foul shots with 5.4 seconds left for 59-56 before Bradley's long distance three at the buzzer bounced off the rim.

BU jumped out to a 16-2 lead as MSU shot 1-for-11 and committed four turnovers in the first eight minutes. Bradley led by double digits for all but 68 seconds on the way to a 33-18 halftime lead, shooting 53.6 percent compared to a .226 figure for the Lady Bears.

Missouri State connected on its final eight free throws of the game, all in the final 2:39, and 15-of-18 overall, while owning a 20-14 turnover advantage to help neutralize a .317 shooting percentage. Bradley shot 45.1 percent, but was just 3-for-12 with five turnovers in the fourth quarter.

Snow scored a game-high 22 points, passing Christiana Shorter for the No. 12 spot in career scoring at MSU, and stuffed a career-high five shots, the most for a Lady Bear since 2011. Hughes added 10 points, Hillary Chvatal grabbed eight rebounds, and Williams dished out five assists.

Game 26

Southern Illinois 69
Missouri State 61

February 19, 2016 • Carbondale, Ill.
SIU Arena

CARBONDALE, Ill. -- Missouri State nearly completed its second consecutive miraculous comeback Friday evening, but Southern Illinois closed the game on a 13-4 run to earn a 69-61 win over the Lady Bears at SIU Arena.

The loss leaves MSU (17-9, 10-4 Missouri Valley Conference) in a three-way for second in the loss column with four games to play, while SIU improved to 16-9 and 9-4 in league play. The defeat also ended Missouri State's streaks of 17 consecutive wins against Illinois schools and nine straight victories in the state of Illinois.

The first half included five ties and 10 lead changes and resulted in a 28-all score at the break after the Salukis overcame a 24-16 deficit early in the second quarter.

The Salukis got off to a hot start in the second half, making four of their first shots to lead 37-30 with 6:42 left in the third quarter. The Lady Bears got no closer than four points for the remainder of the period, as SIU shot 10-for-16 compared the 4-for-16 for MSU, finishing with a conventional 3-point play with 4.0 seconds left to lead 51-43.

SIU scored 19 seconds into the fourth period to push its lead to 10 points, and Liza Fruendt scored twice in a 5-0 run to pull MSU back to 53-48 with 6:57 left.

Southern Illinois countered with a 3-pointer to lead 56-48 before Tyonna Snow scored seven points during a 9-0 run that put the score back in MSU's favor at 57-56 with 3:32 remaining.

The Lady Bears were poised to finish off another double-digit comeback victory at that point, but the Salukis drained their next four field goals to grab a 65-59 lead with 1:32 to play, and were able to hold on despite missing six free throws in the final 37 seconds.

Snow and Fruendt led MSU with 14 points each and Kenzie Williams added 13. Snow had six steals and passed Lisa Davies for the No. 11 spot on Missouri State's career scoring list. Williams had four steals to join MSU's career top 10 as the Lady Bears matched a season high with 15 thefts and scored 30 points off 22 SIU turnovers.

Rishonda Napier (23) and Kylie Giebelhausen (18) led an SIU offense that shot 48.1 percent compared to 35.4 percent for the Lady Bears. The Salukis also held a 39-36 edge on the glass.

Game 27

Missouri State 66
Evansville 47

February 21, 2016 • Evansville, Ind.
Ford Center

EVANSVILLE, Ind. -- The Missouri State Lady Bears earned their 10th road victory of the season Sunday afternoon, matching the 1990-91 squad for the second-best total in program history with a 66-47 triumph over Evansville at the Ford Center.

Missouri State (18-9, 11-4 Missouri Valley Conference) held the Purple Aces (2-23, 1-13) without a field for more than five minutes to begin the game, but still trailed 7-5 until the defense held the home team without scoring for over 10 minutes while the offense rattled off a 14-0 run to lead 19-7 on a Liza Fruendt 3-pointer with 5:06 left before half.

The Lady Bears then went through a four-plus minute drought before scoring the final four points of the half to lead 23-12 as UE shot 4-for-26 overall.

MSU scored four quick layups in the second half to lead 31-15 and force an Evansville timeout with 6:02 to play in the third, and kept the lead in double figures to a 43-29 score after three quarters.

Kenzie Williams scored twice in the first two minutes of the fourth quarter, matching MSU's largest lead at 16 points each time, before UE used a 6-0 run to make it 49-39 with 4:46 to play. Lexi Hughes hit a trey 11 seconds later to spark a 7-0 run, and the Lady Bears led by at least 15 points until the final buzzer.

Missouri State finished the game with a .414 shooting percentage while limiting Evansville to 28.1 percent, completing the season's second-best defensive effort in terms of both points allowed and field goal percentage in Kellie Harper's 50th win as MSU head coach.

Hughes finished with a season-high 15 points - 10 in the fourth quarter - and was joined by Williams and Tyonna Snow in double figures with 11 apiece. Snow passed Kelly Mago for 10th in MSU history with 1,487 career points, while Williams became the 10th player at MSU with 500 career points, 500 rebounds and 50 blocks.

The Lady Bears held a 49-37 rebounding edge, led by Williams with eight, while freshman Danielle Gitzen matched a career high with six assists.

Game 28

Missouri State 74
Wichita State 45

February 27, 2016 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD -- Missouri State shot 62.5 percent in the second half and a season-high 57.8 percent in the game Saturday afternoon for a 74-45 victory and season sweep of Wichita State at JQH Arena.

The Lady Bears (19-9, 12-4 Missouri Valley Conference) outscored the Shockers (7-20, 4-12) by a 46-22 margin over the game's final 17 minutes, picking off a season-high 16 steals and turning 20 WSU turnovers in 28 points in the contest.

The Shockers made their first three shots of the game before Tyonna Snow nabbed one of her seven steals and scored to give MSU the lead for good at 9-8 with 2:33 to play in the first quarter.

Missouri State's three seniors combined for an 11-0 run in the second quarter to help the Lady Bears to a 28-17 halftime advantage before the Shockers opened the second half on a 6-0 run to close to 28-23.

It was all Missouri State after that, as the Lady Bears closed the third quarter on a 22-5 run, shooting 8-for-13 in the period and turning six steals into 13 points. MSU kept the lead at 19 or better for the rest of the game, leading by as many as 30 points.

MSU finished the game 26-for-45 overall and 20-for-29 from inside the arc while holding the Shockers to 17-for-50 shooting. The Lady Bears owned a 33-25 rebounding edge and dished out 15 assists.

Kenzie Williams led all scorers with 18 points, passing Roshonda Reed for eighth in school history in career scoring with a first-quarter trey, and hit two free throws to join the career top 10 in that category as well. She added a steal to become the third Lady Bear with at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 assists, 200 steals and 50 blocks in a career, joining Snow and Casey Garrison on that list.

Snow, meanwhile, scored 16 points to become the 10th MSU player to eclipse the 1,500 mark, adding a career-high seven assists without a turnover.

Senior Hillary Chvatal led MSU with nine rebounds, and Lexi Hughes connected on all three of her 3-point attempts.

Game 29

Missouri State 75
Indiana State 41

March 3, 2016 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD -- Missouri State's defense had its best showing of the season Thursday evening at JQH Arena, holding Indiana State to 25 percent shooting in a 75-41 victory. The Lady Bears (20-9, 13-4 Missouri Valley Conference) remain in a second-place tie with Drake in the league standings, while ISU fell to 13-15 overall and 9-8 in MVC games.

Indiana State's point total and shooting percentage were season lows for an MSU opponent, while the 34-point margin of victory was the team's largest since a 41-point win at Wichita State in 2005.

The Lady Bears never trailed in the contest, and closed the first half on a 35-9 run from an 8-7 score midway through the first quarter. MSU held the Sycamores to four points over a 13-minute stretch spanning the first and second quarters, limiting ISU to 6-for-31 shooting before the break.

Missouri State led by as many as 37 points in the third quarter, finishing the game with 26 points off 24 ISU turnovers.

Tyonna Snow led a group of four double-figure scorers with 17 points, followed by Liza Fruendt (13), Kenzie Williams (12) and Lexi Hughes (11). Lee Ann Polowy added a trio of 3-pointers to match her career high with nine points.

Fruendt added a career-high 10 rebounds for her first career double-double, and Hillary Chvatal added five boards to surpass the 600-mark for her career.

Snow and Williams had four steals each for the Lady Bears, giving Snow 96 on the year for the No. 4 season total in school history. Hughes added a season-high five assists.

Game 30

Missouri State 70
Illinois State 41

March 5, 2016 • Springfield, Mo.
JQH Arena

SPRINGFIELD -- Missouri State owned a plus-28 rebounding advantage and out-scored Illinois State 33-4 during an 18-minute stretch midway through the game Saturday afternoon for a 70-41 victory over the Redbirds on Senior Day at JQH Arena.

The Lady Bears improved to 21-9 overall and 14-4 in Missouri Valley Conference play, tying Drake for second in the league standings. MSU will take the No. 3 seed into the MVC Tournament in Moline, Ill., opening with an 8:30 p.m. Friday, March 11 contest against sixth-seeded Indiana State.

Senior Kenzie Williams paced the Lady Bears with 19 points and seven rebounds, while classmate Tyonna Snow added 17 points, seven boards, three blocks and four steals, passing Kari Koch for MSU's career record with 343 thefts as well as becoming the third player in school history to gather 100 steals in a season.

The Lady Bears led Illinois State (8-21, 6-12) by a slim 23-22 margin with 6:01 left before halftime when MSU turned up the defensive pressure, closing out the first half on a 14-2 run, winning the third quarter by a 16-2 margin, and capping off a 33-4 run on a Lee Ann Polowy trey with 9:17 left in the game for a 56-26 lead.

Missouri State led by as many as 34 points in the final period and shot 40.6 percent in the game compared to 30.4 percent for ISU.

Eight Lady Bears finished with at least four rebounds, as the team pulled down 20 offensive boards in the contest.

ISU's point total matched the lowest for a Lady Bear opponent this season, and MSU has held four consecutive opponents under 50 points for the first time in the Division I era (since 1982-83).

MVC Tournament - Quarterfinal Round
March 11, 2016 • Moline, Ill.
iWireless Center

MOLINE, Ill. -- Missouri State's Kenzie Williams, Liza Fruendt and Tyonna Snow combined for 51 points, and the Lady Bears held their fifth straight opponent under 50 points in a 70-45 victory over Indiana State in the quarterfinal round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament at iWireless Center.

The third-seeded Lady Bears (22-9) move on to play No. 2 Drake (22-8) in the semifinal round at 4 p.m. Saturday. Top-seeded UNI and No. 4 Southern Illinois also advanced.

The Sycamores (13-17) knocked down two 3-pointers in the game's first two minutes for a 6-0 lead, and MSU spent much of the first period on the wrong side of the scoreboard before taking a late 11-10 lead.

The Lady Bears went on to lead for all but 56 seconds over the final 30 minutes, building a double-digit lead after Fruendt scored eight consecutive points to make it 31-21 with 24.7 ticks left in the first half.

MSU held a 39-33 lead with 13 minutes left before closing strong, ripping off a 14-0 run for a 53-33 advantage on a Williams 3-pointer with 8:48 to play. The Lady Bears kept the gap above 18 points the rest of the way and led by as many as 26 in the final period.

Williams led all scorers with 19 points while Fruendt and MVC Player of the Year Tyonna Snow added 16 apiece. Snow had seven rebounds and four steals, and Hillary Chvatal led MSU with eight boards.

Missouri State shot 24-for-54 (.444) overall and limited the Sycamores to 17-for-56 (.304). MSU owned a 39-36 rebounding edge, and committed just four of its 11 turnovers after the first quarter.

MVC Tournament - Semifinal Round
March 12, 2016 ▪ Moline, Ill.
iWireless Center

MOLINE, Ill. -- Missouri State scored the final five points of the game, all from the foul line, to top Drake by a 65-61 score Saturday afternoon in the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament semifinal round at iWireless Center.

Audrey Holt hit the go-ahead foul shots with 17 seconds remaining, and freshman Danielle Gitzen grabbed a huge rebound and sealed the game at the line with the final two of her career-high 14 points with three ticks left to secure a spot in the title game for the 15th time in school history. The Lady Bears (23-9) will take on top-seeded UNI (22-9) at 2 p.m. Sunday in search of its 10th championship and the league's automatic NCAA Tournament bid.

Missouri State opened the game on a 9-0 run and trailed for just 21 seconds in the first half on the way to a 32-31 advantage entering the locker room after Drake (22-9) beat the horn with a long 3-pointer to end the period.

The Bulldogs made it a 7-0 run by scoring the first four points after intermission for a 35-32 lead, and the Lady Bears made only one of their first 15 shots in the third quarter before Gitzen drained a triple with 38 seconds left for a 44-all tie.

Liza Fruendt knocked down a trey with 7:15 remaining for MSU's first lead since halftime at 50-48, beginning a see-saw final few minutes that saw six lead changes and five ties before the final buzzer.

Fruendt added another triple for 54-51, and Drake countered with a 6-0 run to lead 57-54 before Gitzen hit a pair of foul shots to put MSU ahead 60-59 with 1:55 to play. The Bulldogs led back 10 seconds later, and Onye Osemenam banked home a free throw with 1:15 left for a 61-61 tie.

Missouri State followed with stops on Drake's final three possessions, capping another exceptional defensive performance by holding the MVC's top offensive team to 19 points under its average and 34.5 percent shooting on a .470 season average.

Tyonna Snow led MSU with 19 points and a career-high 13 rebounds for her fifth double-double of the year, while Gitzen shot 2-of-2 from the floor and 9-for-10 at the line. Fruendt added with 11 points.

Kenzie Williams dished out five assists, and the Lady Bears committed only seven turnovers compared to 16 for DU, ending the game with a 16-0 advantage in points off turnovers. Drake held a 47-43 rebounding lead, though MSU grabbed 19 offensive boards to help overcome 30.6 percent shooting. MSU also went 15-for-18 at foul line, all coming in the second half.

MVC Tournament - Championship
March 13, 2016 ▪ Moline, Ill.
iWireless Center

MOLINE, Ill. -- Missouri State captured its 10th Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championship and earned a bid to its 14th NCAA Tournament Sunday afternoon with a 71-58 victory over top-seeded UNI at the iWireless Center.

The Lady Bears (24-9) trailed for only 55 seconds in their seventh straight win, as Tyonna Snow finished with 17 points and a career-high 15 rebounds to earn tournament MVP honors, and Liza Fruendt scored 16 off the bench for an all-tournament spot. UNI fell to 22-10 after its 10-game winning streak ended.

The Lady Bears jumped ahead 8-2 in the first four minutes before surrendering a 7-0 run that resulted in the only deficit for MSU in the game. Hillary Chvatal hit two free throws with 2:23 left in the first quarter to get back a lead that Missouri State would not relinquish.

Fruendt scored eight early points in the second period, including a layup for a 27-18 lead with 5:47 left. Lexi Hughes buried one of her three triples 25 seconds later for a 30-20 advantage, and Kenzie Williams converted a 3-point play for a 35-22 lead with 2:51 before half as the Lady Bears shot 8-for-11 in the second quarter.

UNI closed the first half on a 6-0 run and closed to 35-30 early in the third quarter as MSU failed to score for nearly six minutes. The Panthers twice cut the gap to four points before the Lady Bears rattled off an 11-0 run to lead 55-40 on a Williams trey with 9:14 to play in the game.

Missouri State led by double figures for the remainder of the contest, and the seniors combined for 17 of the team's 20 points in the fourth period.

The Lady Bears shot 49 percent in the game compared to a .386 figure for UNI that included a 3-for-19 showing from beyond the arc. MSU held a 29-11 advantage in bench points and 40-22 margin on the glass.

Missouri State 65

NCAA - First Round
March 18, 2016 ▪ College Station, Texas
Reed Arena

COLLEGE STATION, Texas -- Missouri State's 14th NCAA Tournament appearance ended in the first round Saturday afternoon with a 74-65 setback to fourth-seeded and 18th-ranked Texas A&M inside Reed Arena.

The 13th-seeded Lady Bears (24-10) trailed the Aggies (22-9) by two points at halftime before the home team connected on 13 of 18 shots in the third quarter separate themselves with a 54-37 lead entering the final period.

Missouri State led for more than four minutes in the first half despite shooting 25 percent from the floor, and led 22-21 with under three minutes to play thanks in large part to forcing 17 A&M turnovers.

Texas A&M scored with 23 seconds before intermission to take the lead for good at 25-23, and pushed the margin to double figures at 38-28 with 5:50 left in the third quarter. Liza Fruendt knocked down her 100th career 3-pointer 38 seconds later, but the Aggies closed the period on a 14-4 run after making their final five shots.

The resilient Lady Bears shot 59 percent in the fourth quarter, fighting until the final seconds when Lexi Hughes buried a long 3-pointer to get the final margin to single digits.

MSU's three seniors accounted for 48 points in their final outing, with Tyonna Snow leading the way with 22 while nabbing two steals to set the Missouri State single-season record at 109. Kenzie Williams scored 18 - including 13 in the fourth quarter - while hauling in a team-high eight rebounds.

The Aggies shot 29-of-63 (.460) in the game compared to 24-for-71 (.338) for the Lady Bears, and owned a 55-35 rebounding edge thanks in large part to Anriel Howard's NCAA Tournament-record 27 boards.

Missouri State swiped 14 steals and forced 24 turnovers while committing only 12 of its own.

For MSU's seniors, Williams finishes her career ranked seventh in school history with 1,645 points. Snow owns both the career (352) and season (109) steals records while finishing ninth in scoring with 1,611 points. Chvatal ends her career ranked 14th in rebounding 629 boards and 12th with 59 blocked shots.

1992 FINAL FOUR TEAM

1991-92 Missouri State Lady Bears

Season Record: 31-3
Highlights: Missouri Valley Conference Regular-Season and Tournament Champions, NCAA Midwest Regional Champions, #4 final ranking by USA Today
Head Coach: Cheryl Burnett
Assistant Coaches: Marla Douglass, Jim Middleton, Lynnette Robinson
Co-Captains: Amy Nelson, Karen Rapier

To the nation, the 1991-92 Lady Bears were simply known as the "Cinderella" team of the 1992 NCAA Tournament. They were the team of which no one had heard that was knocking off better-known ballclubs with startling ease.

Ranked 10th in the nation and having won its last 17 games, Missouri State appeared to be a lock for one of the 16 first round byes in the NCAA Tournament, but the NCAA Women's basketball committee said otherwise, making the Lady Bears the eighth seed in the Midwest Regional and giving Missouri State a first-round home game against Kansas. The attractive regional matchup drew 7,652 to Hammons Student Center, and the crowd was deafening at times as it spurred the Lady Bears to a 75-59 victory.

The mission for recognition continued in Boulder, Colo., and the Midwest Regional. Missouri State methodically dispatched UCLA 83-57 and Mississippi 94-71 to become the lowest seed ever to advance to the Women's Final Four.

In one of the most memorable games in the history of Lady Bear Basketball, it was on to Iowa to face the top seed and seventh-ranked Hawkeyes. The game was a classic, a battle between two defensive-minded teams who refused to let the other team operate its offense. And, while MSU had not been tested with very many close games in the regular season, the Lady Bears showed their mettle in the clutch against Iowa, stunning the host Hawkeyes, 61-60, in overtime in the Lady Bears' first win over a top-10 ranked team.

Western Kentucky had gotten to the Final Four by knocking off defending national champ and second-ranked Tennessee in the Mideast regional semifinals and eighth-ranked Maryland in the championship.

Missouri State jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead when Tina Robbins hit a driving layup, was fouled and made the free throw. The Lady Bears built an early 8-2 advantage. But then Western Kentucky turned up its defensive pressure and disrupted Missouri State in a manner similar to the way the Lady Bears disrupted opponents in 31 MSU victories. The Lady Toppers held MSU to four points over a 10-minute span that saw WKU go from six points down to 11 points up at 23-12.

The Lady Bears were fortunate to be trailing by just eight, 33-25, at intermission. MSU had made 18 first-half turnovers and made good on just 8-of-13 from the free throw line.

Western Kentucky scored the first four points to open the second half and the Lady Bears found themselves playing catch-up the rest of the way. MSU fell behind by as much as 19 points before battling back within six at 56-50 with 7:36 to go. With WKU's top four players out of the game due to fouls, it looked like MSU had a chance, but Lady Topper guard Kim Pehlke scored four straight points to boost the lead back to 10 and MSU got no closer than seven. The final score: Western Kentucky 84, Missouri State 72. Robbins led the Lady Bears with a career-best 22 points while Tonya Baucom added 17. Pehlke finished with 30 points, an MSU opponent season high, including 22 in the second half.

The 1991-92 season was truly an unbelievable ride for the Lady Bears and their many loyal fans, who were swept up by a little March Madness that spilled into April. Around 3,000 fans turned out for an April 9 parade honoring the Lady Bears, the state's first Final Four team. It was a season to remember, and one that gave the Lady Bears even loftier goals to shoot for in the years to come.

2000-01 Missouri State Lady Bears

Season Record: 29-6
Highlights: Missouri Valley Conference Regular-Season Co-Champions and Tournament Champions, NCAA West Regional Champions, #4 final ranking by USA Today
Head Coach: Cheryl Burnett
Assistant Coaches: Scott Norris, Karen Rapier, Lynette Robinson
Co-Captains: Melody Campbell, Jackie Stiles

Sparked by the leadership and offensive firepower provided by NCAA all-time scoring leader and AP Player of the Year Jackie Stiles, the 2000-01 Missouri State Lady Bears rode a late-season hot streak all the way to the school's second NCAA Division I Final Four appearance.

Mildly put, the 2000-01 campaign was marked by significant personal and team accomplishments. Stiles shone like no other player in NCAA Division I as she shattered career scoring records for all three NCAA divisions, captivated the hearts of fans everywhere and drew a tremendous amount of media attention from local, regional and national outlets. That attention vaulted the Lady Bears into the national spotlight as they danced their way into the NCAA Tournament and the Final Four.

The Lady Bears earned their 10th NCAA Tournament appearance in the previous 11 years and were seeded fifth in the West Regional. Missouri State rolled over 12th-seeded Toledo 89-71 behind 40 points by Tara Mitchem in NCAA First Round action in Piscataway, N.J., then knocked off fourth-seeded Rutgers 60-53 to send the Lady Bears to their first Sweet Sixteen appearance since 1993. The West Regional in Spokane, Wash., featured Missouri State, No. 1 seed Duke, sixth-seeded Washington, and No. 2 seed Oklahoma.

Missouri State overwhelmed Duke 81-71 in the semifinals as the Lady Bears scored 45 second half points to come back for the victory after trailing 42-36 at halftime. MSU was led by Stiles with 41 points, the fourth-highest point total in tournament history. The Lady Bears outrebounded the Blue Devils 41-33. Meanwhile, Washington cruised past Oklahoma as the Huskies and Lady Bears became the lowest seeds ever to play each other in a regional final.

The Lady Bears claimed the NCAA West Regional Championship and their first Final Four berth since 1992 with a 104-87 win over the Huskies. Stiles poured in 32 points and Tara Mitchem added 23 to lead the offensive attack. The Lady Bears sprinted out to a quick start with terrific defense and pinpoint passing, led at the half 51-33, and maintained their lead throughout the second half for the win.

After having traversed the country from east to west, the Lady Bears found themselves three hours from Springfield at the Final Four in St. Louis as part of a field that included defending national champion Connecticut, Notre Dame and Purdue, which MSU would face in the semifinal game at Scottrade Center.

Missouri State gave the Boilermakers all they could handle until fatigue and an overpowering rebounding onslaught by Purdue took its toll in the end. The Lady Bears and Boilermakers played things close through the first 14 minutes before Purdue managed to make a run. Leading 29-23 with 6:46 to go in the opening half, Purdue closed out the first 20 minutes with an 18-7 run to take a 47-30 lead at the break.

The Lady Bears closed the gap to 11 points five times in the second half but could get no closer as Purdue continued its assault on the boards, outrebounding Missouri State 47-29. When the final buzzer sounded the score read: Purdue 81, Missouri State 64. Purdue eventually lost to the Notre Dame Flighting Irish in the national championship game.

NCAA Mideast Regional First Round
March 13, 1991 ▸ Springfield, Mo.
Hammons Student Center

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — In its first-ever NCAA appearance, Missouri State used an oppressive defense to wear down Tennessee Tech and advance to a second-round match-up against top-seeded Tennessee. MSU trailed just once at 4-2 and used a 14-5 run to close the first half up 47-34 as Melody Howard canned a three-pointer as time expired. Three Lady Bears reached double figures in the first half, with Howard making 6-of-7 from the field, including 3-of-3 from behind the three-point arc, for 15 points. MSU maintained its double-digit lead throughout the second half, with Tech never getting closer than 10 points. Howard had a then-career-high 28 points on 10-of-12 shooting to lead five Lady Bears in double digits in MSU's 11th consecutive victory.

NCAA Mideast Regional Second Round
March 16, 1991 ▸ Knoxville, Tenn.
Thompson-Boling Arena

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Tennessee's powerful inside game was too much for the Lady Bears, as the eventual national champion Lady Vols parlayed a 45-33 advantage on the boards into a hard-fought win. MSU got off to a quick start as two Secelia Winkfield baskets put the Lady Bears up 4-0, and an 11-2 run pushed their lead to 19-9. But UT's inside game took over and MSU went 10 minutes without scoring a point. Tennessee took the lead for good at 21-19 with 0:18 left in the half, went up 28-19 early in the second period and never looked back. MSU got no closer than six points the rest of the way. UT's Daedra Charles turned in a game for the ages, tallying a game-high 25 points to go along with 22 boards, which represented the third-highest single-game rebounding total in NCAA Tournament history.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — A solid second half by Missouri State broke open a tight game as the eighth-seeded Lady Bears beat Kansas before a then-Midwest Regional record crowd of 7,652. MSU led by as many as six points in the first period, but needed a buzzer-beater by Secelia Winkfield to lead 31-30 at halftime. MSU used a 13-0 run to open up a 44-32 lead early in the second half. Kansas closed to within 53-50 with 6:45 to go, but Karen Rapier tallied four straight points and MSU used a 22-9 burst to win going away. The Lady Bears shot .650 (13-of-20) from the field and .850 (17-of-20) from the line in the second half.

NCAA Midwest Regional Second Round
March 22, 1992 ▸ Iowa City, Iowa
Carver-Hawkeye Arena

IOWA CITY, Iowa — In a classic defensive battle, Missouri State picked up the biggest victory in the program's history with a 61-60 overtime decision at Iowa, the regional's top seed. The Lady Bears shot 61.1 percent (11-of-18) in the first half to build a 31-25 halftime edge, and MSU stretched its lead to 47-36 with 10:05 left in the game. After the Hawkeyes used a 19-6 run to take the lead at 55-52 with 0:33 left to play, Melody Howard nailed a three-pointer at the 0:22 mark to force overtime. MSU trailed for most of the extra period before Secelia Winkfield corralled a loose ball and banked in the game-winner with 1.5 seconds left on the clock. The victory marked MSU's first win over a team ranked in the Top 10.

BOULDER, Colo. — The Lady Bears jumped out to a quick 8-0 lead and UCLA never got closer than four points, as MSU took a 37-22 halftime lead and never looked back in downing the regional's No. 5 seed. Missouri State's defense gave UCLA fits, as the Bruins connected on just 1-of-14 three-point attempts and 33.8 percent overall from the field. Melody Howard scored 12 of her game-high 18 points in the first half and MSU maintained a double-digit lead throughout the second period. Seven Lady Bears scored at least eight points, with five finishing in double figures. The undersized Lady Bears outrebounded the Bruins 49-34.

BOULDER, Colo. — Missouri State rallied from early deficits to score a decisive win over second-seeded Ole Miss and become the lowest regional seed ever to advance to the Final Four. After falling behind 10-2 and 19-11, the Lady Bears battled back and led 46-36 at the break thanks to a half-ending 17-6 run. The Rebels pulled back to within nine at 57-48 with 14:18 left in the game, but MSU scored the next nine points and breezed to the regional crown. Karen Rapier and Charity Shira paced the MSU offense with 16 points apiece, and regional MVP Tina Robbins had 14 points, as six Lady Bears reached double digits.

LOS ANGELES — Missouri State's second-half rally fell short as the Lady Bears' 21-game win streak and dream season came to an end in the national semifinals. MSU got out to an 8-2 lead before WKU turned up the defensive pressure. The Lady Toppers took a 33-25 edge into the break before pushing their lead to as many as 18 points in the second half. The Lady Bears pulled to within 56-50 with 7:36 to go, but WKU's Kim Pehlke scored four of her game-high 30 points to give the Lady Toppers some breathing room, and the Lady Bears would get no closer than seven the rest of the way. Tina Robbins had a career high 22 points to lead MSU.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — Before an NCAA Tournament first-round record crowd of 9,004, Missouri State made 11 of its first 12 shots to build a big lead, then withstood a late Oklahoma State charge to post the win. Using 69.2 percent (18-of-26) shooting in the first half, the Lady Bears jumped to leads of 8-0, 21-5 and 41-17 and took a 47-23 advantage into the locker room at halftime. The Cowgirls, who trailed by as many as 29 points, whittled MSU's lead to 13 at 75-62 with 6:11 remaining but could get no closer. Tonya Baucom poured in a career-high 32 points, Melody Howard added 28 and MSU held OSU's all-Big Eight center Lisa McGill to nine points.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — The Lady Bears used a strong second half and clutch free throw shooting down the stretch to upset Maryland, the Midwest Region's No. 2 seed. After a see-saw first half, the teams were tied 40-all at the break. MSU never trailed after halftime and built leads of six, eight and 11 points, but the Terrapins came back to tie in each instance, the last at 82-82 with 0:51 to play. The Lady Bears regained the lead on Tonya Baucom's putback with 0:32 to go and, after a Maryland miss, Melody Howard sealed the win with two free throws with 0:06 left. Tina Robbins had a career-high 26 points and Howard added 24. MSU forced 28 turnovers to offset Maryland's .681 (32-of-47) shooting, a Missouri State opponent record.

NACOGDOCHES, Texas — Missouri State's bid for a return trip to the Final Four came up short against Louisiana Tech in the Midwest Regional semifinal, as the taller and more physical Lady Techsters scored an impressive win. After falling behind 12-4 to start the game, the Lady Bears battled back to within two at 22-20 with 6:10 left in the period, but Tech went on a 10-4 run to lead 32-24 at the break. The Lady Techsters opened the second half with a 10-1 burst and never looked back in holding MSU to season lows in points, field goals made and shooting percentage.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — The Lady Bears overcame a slow start to down the Northern Illinois Huskies before a crowd of 8,974, the second-largest NCAA first-round crowd ever, behind MSU's 9,004 figure from 1993. After jumping out to a 6-0 lead, the Lady Bears were outscored 12-1 and trailed 12-7 at the midway point of the first period. But MSU used a 21-8 run to lead 28-20 at the halftime break and shot .607 (17-of-28) in the second period to claim the win. Melody Howard paced the Lady Bears with 23 points, while LaTonya Davis and Charitee Longstreth added 18 apiece as MSU won its 15th straight game.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Missouri State fell just short in its bid to upset Virginia, the 10th-ranked team in the nation. The first half was as close as its could be, with Virginia's five-point lead with 14:09 to go marking the biggest advantage either squad could muster in the opening period. MSU got three-point baskets from Melody Howard and Tina Robbins late in the half to lead 31-30 at the break. The Lady Bears were up 38-34 with 16:53 remaining, but a six-minute scoring drought put MSU in an eight-point hole, and the Lady Bears never recovered despite several chances late in the game. Howard scored 23 points and Robbins had 19 to lead Missouri State, which was 9-of-32 (.281) from the field in the second half.

BOULDER, Colo. — LaTanya Davis had 15 points and 13 rebounds and scored the game-winning basket as Missouri State won its NCAA first-round game for the fifth straight season. After trailing by as many as seven points in the first half, MSU battled back to score the last four points of the period for a 22-22 tie at the break. The Lady Bears held a slim lead for most of the second half, and after Utah tied the game on a three-point play with 1:29 left, Davis scored on a short baseline jumper with nine seconds left on the clock. The Lady Bears also got a double-figure scoring night from Lisa Davies, who tallied 13 points on 6-of-7 shooting from the field.

BOULDER, Colo. — Colorado's inside game was too much for Missouri State to handle as the Buffaloes, the Midwest Regional's top seed and the nation's second-ranked team, put together a dominating performance. After Lisa Davies put MSU up 2-0, Colorado used runs of 9-2, 11-0 and 15-2 to put the game out of reach by halftime, when the Buffs led 37-11. MSU's 37 points, .204 (11-of-54) field goal shooting and 11 field goals were all Lady Bear lows under coach Cheryl Burnett.

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Missouri State closed the season with a disappointing loss to Texas in the NCAA Tournament. Texas shot just 41 percent from the field and 52 percent from the free throw line, but hit 9-of-15 (.600) three-pointers, including 7-of-8 by guard Danielle Viglione. The Lady Bears withstood an 18-0 Texas run in the first half to trail by just eight at the break. But UT went on a 16-point second-half run, as the Lady Bears went nine minutes without scoring. Roshonda Reed posted a double-double for MSU, while Jessie McVay tallied a team-high 20 points to go along with eight boards.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. — Missouri State gave the 16th-ranked Auburn Tigers all they could handle in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament before falling 78-74. MSU led for most of the first half before succumbing to Auburn's superior size and strength late in the contest. The Tigers cashed in at the foul line, knocking down 26-of-27 (.963) free throws. Lori Nero was a perfect 11-of-11 from the charity stripe to lead Auburn with 23 points. Jackie Stiles led all scorers with 30 points, and Carly Deer tallied 18 points on 7-of-14 shooting to go along with nine rebounds and seven assists.

NCAA Final Four National Semifinal
March 30, 2001 ▸ St. Louis, Mo.
Scottrade Center

ST. LOUIS — After traversing the country from east to west, Missouri State found itself just three hours from Springfield at the NCAA Final Four, which featured defending national champion Connecticut, Notre Dame and Purdue, the Lady Bears' opponent in the semifinal game at Scottrade Center. MSU gave the ninth-ranked Boilermakers all they could handle until fatigue and an overpowering rebounding effort by Purdue took its toll. The two teams traded blows early in the contest until Purdue closed the first half with an 18-7 run to take a 47-30 lead into the locker room. The Boilers shot 54 percent from the floor and outrebounded MSU 22-12 in the first stanza while holding Jackie Stiles, the tourney's scoring leader, to just seven points. The Lady Bears closed the gap to 11 points five times in the second half but could get no closer as Purdue finished with a 47-29 advantage on the boards and closed out a 17-point victory to advance to the national championship game for the second time in its history.

LUBBOCK, Texas — Making their 11th NCAA Tournament appearance, the Lady Bears kept the heat on the second-seeded Texas Tech Red Raiders until late in the contest, but ultimately fell by a 67-59 score. MSU slowed down an explosive Texas Tech offense in the first half, using its 2-3 matchup zone to fluster the Red Raiders into shooting 0-for-8 from beyond the arc. The Lady Bears fought back from a double-digit deficit in the second stanza, but could not find the answer for Tech's Plenette Pierson, who finished with game-highs of of 25 points and 13 rebounds. Kari Koch totaled 19 points and seven steals, while Jenni Lingor added 16 points to pace the Lady Bears' attack.

#11 Purdue 73
Missouri State 52

NCAA Cleveland Regional First Round
March 19, 2006 ▸ West Lafayette, Ind.
Mackey Arena

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Despite a valiant first-half effort that included a 10-point lead, the Lady Bears came up on the short end of a 73-52 loss to 11th-ranked Purdue in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Kari Koch's steal and layup at the 9:19 mark of the first half gave MSU a 22-12 lead, but Purdue responded with a 14-3 run to close the half with a 32-27 advantage. The Lady Bears struggled to generate any offense in the second half, shooting just 28.6 percent from the floor. Purdue had four players finish in double figures, including Aya Traore, who turned in a game-high 20 points and 11 boards.

#18 Texas A&M 74
Missouri State 65

NCAA Dallas Regional First Round
March 19, 2016 ▸ College Station, Texas
Reed Arena

COLLEGE STATION, Texas — Missouri State trailed fourth-seeded Texas A&M by two points at halftime before the home team connected on 13 of 18 shots in the third quarter to separate themselves on the way to a 74-65 win. Missouri State led for more than four minutes in the first half despite shooting 25 percent from the floor, forcing 17 Aggie turnovers before the break and 24 in the game. MSU shot 59 percent in the fourth period to cut the final margin to single digits, and Tyonna Snow led the scoring with 22 points while setting Missouri State's single season record with 109 steals. Texas A&M's Anriel Howard set an NCAA Tournament record with 27 rebounds.

Note: The three-point field goal was used experimentally in the Gateway in 1986-87 and was adopted for all NCAA women's games in 1987-88. Minimums for ranking season percentages are four field goals and 1.5 free throws per game. Average leaders must have played at least 75 percent of that season's games.

Highlights: NCAA Division I all-time leading scorer, 2001 AP Player of the Year, 2001 Wade Trophy recipient, 2001 Honda Awards Program Broderick Cup recipient, three-time All-American, two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American. three-time MVC Player of the Year, four-time All-MVC pick, USA Basketball World University Games and Select Team member, MSU Hall of Fame inductee, Missouri Sports Hall of Fame inductee, MVC Hall of Fame inductee, MVC All-Centennial Team selection, Springfield Area Sports Hall of Fame inductee, 2001 WNBA Rookie of the Year

The NCAA's all-time leading scorer, Jackie Stiles (#10) is the most decorated athlete in the history of Missouri State athletics. As a senior, Stiles was named to the 2001 Kodak All-America First Team, the Associated Press All-America First Team and was named Women's Basketball News Service Player of the Year. Stiles, who ended her collegiate career with 3,393 points, was also named the Honda Awards program Player of the Year and was the recipient of the coveted Honda Awards Broderick Cup, as well as the Wade Trophy as a senior. A four-time Missouri Valley Conference first team selection, Stiles earned MVC Player of the Year honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. Stiles, who broke the women's NCAA all-time scoring record while helping lead Missouri State to the 2001 NCAA Final Four, became the first Missouri State player ever to be drafted by a WNBA franchise. The Portland Fire's first-round (No. 4) draft pick, Stiles received 32 out of 60 possible votes from sportswriters and sportscasters in being named the league's Rookie of the Year in 2001.

Marshfield, Mo. (Marshfield High)

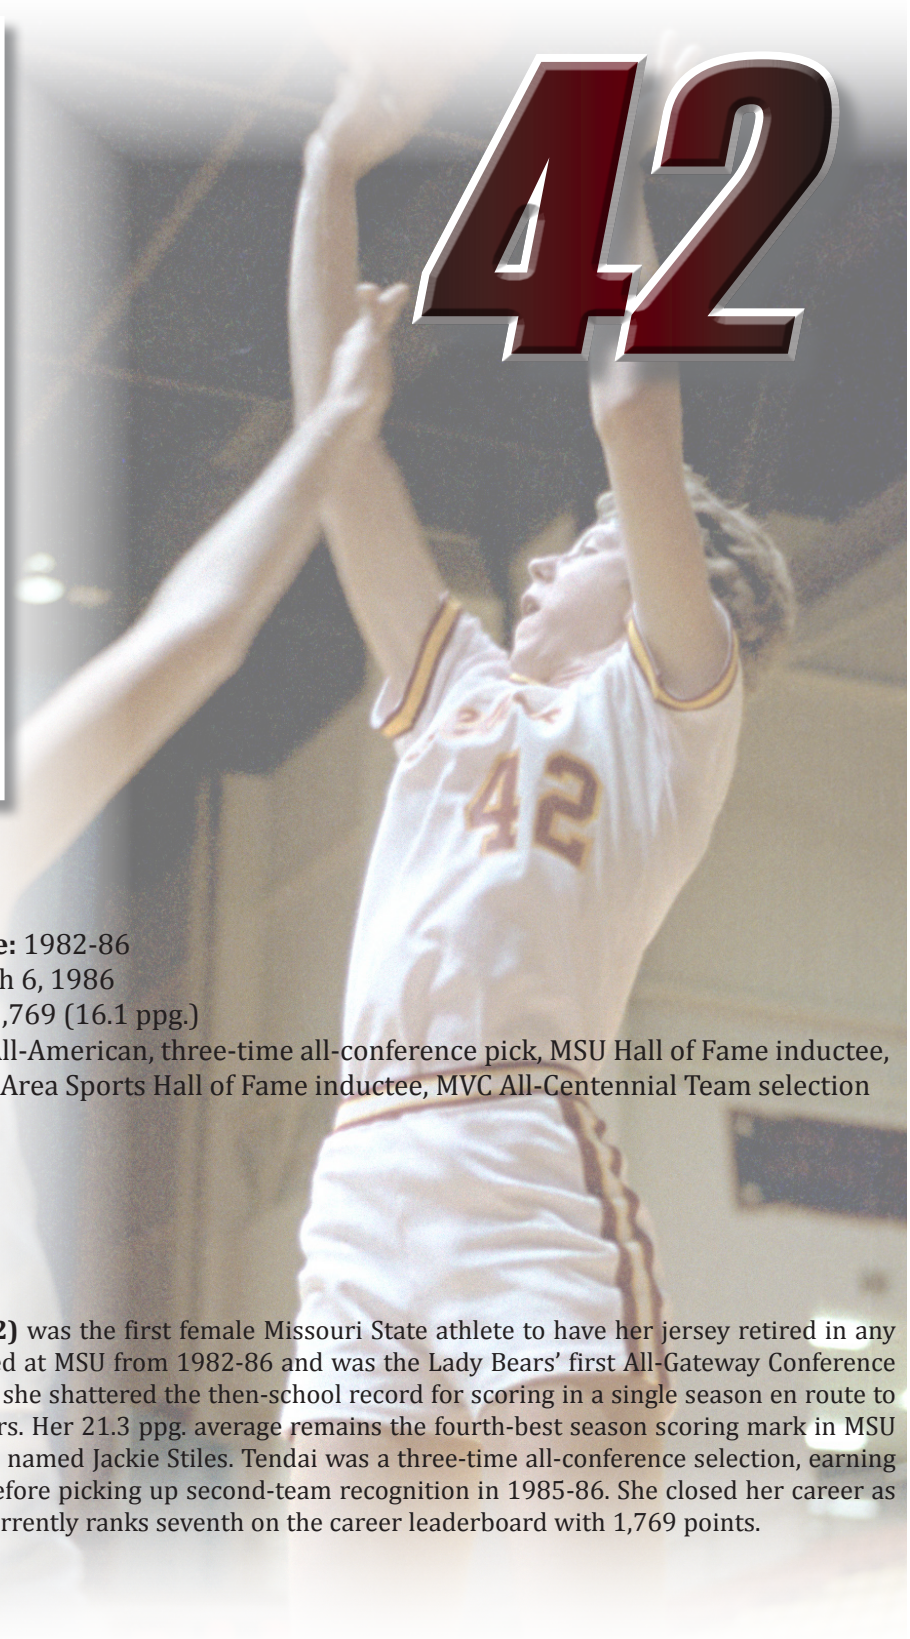

Years at Missouri State: 1990-94
Number Retired: February 25, 1996
Career Points (Avg.): 1,944 (15.3 ppg.)
Highlights: Two-time All-American, two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, three-time all-conference pick, 1994 MVC Player of the Year, USA Basketball World University Games selection, MVC All-Centennial Team honoree, MSU Hall of Fame inductee, MVC Hall of Fame inductee, Missouri Sports Hall of Fame inductee, Springfield Area Sports Hall of Fame inductee

One of the top three-point shooters in Missouri State and Missouri Valley Conference history, Melody Howard (#35) was a first team all-conference pick as a sophomore in 1991-92 and an All-MVC first teamer her last two years at Missouri State, collecting league MVP honors as a senior in 1993-94. The Marshfield, Mo., native led the Lady Bears to a 104-23 record over her four-year career, including the school's first Final Four appearance in 1992. Howard was a two-time WBCA All-America honorable mention and three-time CoSIDA Academic All-America choice. She connected on 258 treys during her MSU career--good for ninth all-time in the Valley--and ranks fourth in career points scored at MSU with 1,944. Howard was selected by the Colorado Xplosion in the 1996 American Basketball League draft, becoming the first Missouri State female athlete to be drafted by a professional organization.

6-0 - Forward/Center
Springfield, Mo. (Glendale High)

Years at Missouri State: 1982-86
Number Retired: March 6, 1986
Career Points (Avg.): 1,769 (16.1 ppg.)
Highlights: Two-time All-American, three-time all-conference pick, MSU Hall of Fame inductee, Springfield Area Sports Hall of Fame inductee, MVC All-Centennial Team selection

Springfield native Jeanette Tendai (#42) was the first female Missouri State athlete to have her jersey retired in any sport. The Glendale High product played at MSU from 1982-86 and was the Lady Bears' first All-Gateway Conference pick as a sophomore in 1983-84, when she shattered the then-school record for scoring in a single season en route to earning honorable mention All-America honors. Her 21.3 ppg. average remains the fourth-best season scoring mark in MSU history, and the highest for any Lady Bear not named Jackie Stiles. Tendai was a three-time all-conference selection, earning first-team honors in 1983-84 and 1984-85, before picking up second-team recognition in 1985-86. She closed her career as Missouri State's all-time scoring leader and currently ranks seventh on the career leaderboard with 1,769 points.

Head Coach

Number Retired: February 3, 2013
Highlights: Missouri State's all-time winningest women's basketball coach, Cheryl Burnett guided the Lady Bears to a 319-136 (.711) record in 15 seasons. From 1987-2002, Burnett's teams played in 10 NCAA Tournaments and two Final Fours while winning nine MVC regular-season and six conference tournament championships. Missouri State ranked in the top 10 of Division I attendance in each of her final 11 seasons and led the country during the 1992-93 campaign. Burnett was recognized as the MVC's all-time greatest coach during the league's centennial celebration in 2006-07, and mentored eight All-Americans, six Academic All-Americans, five league MVPs and 26 first-team all-MVC selections during her tenure.

MVC ALL-CENTENNIAL TEAM

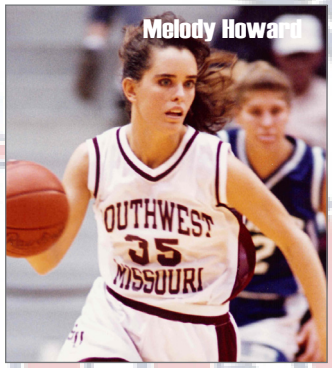

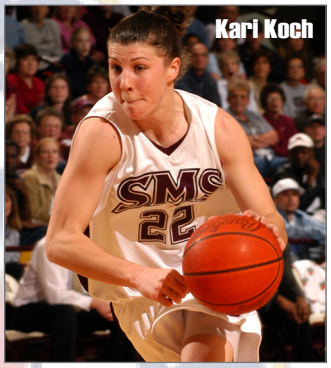

In 2006-07, the Missouri Valley Conference celebrated a century of excellence as the nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference. As a part of the Centennial Celebration, The Valley named all-centennial teams for each of its sponsored sports, including women's basketball. A total of nine former Lady Bears were honored on the MVC Women's Basketball All-Centennial Team, while Jackie Stiles was named the league's all-time greatest player, and former Missouri State head coach Cheryl Burnett was recognized as the MVC's all-time greatest coach. The squad was determined through an on-line fan vote, in-arena ballots and a centennial committee. Over 3,500 votes were cast for women's basketball while all 10 schools had at least one representative on the team.

MSU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The Missouri State University Athletics Hall of Fame was established in 1975 by athletics director Aldo Sebben and the Women's Athletics Hall of Fame was founded in 1981 by women's athletics director Dr. Mary Jo Wynn. The first 23 years of the men's hall saw 179 people enshrined, while 70 went into the first 18 induction classes of the women's hall. The two shrines merged and had their first joint induction in 1999. The combined Hall is now housed on the Price Cutter Concourse in JQH Arena as part of the Legacy of Competition exhibit. The 2015 induction class brought the total membership of the combined Hall of Fame to 365 former athletes, coaches and administrators. The 2016-17 induction will be held Jan. 21, 2017.

MVC Tournament

The Missouri Valley Conference Women's Basketball Championship is in its second season at the iWireless Center in Moline, Ill. The 10-team format begins with two games on Thursday, March 9, continues with four quarterfinal games on Friday, March 10, two semifinal games on Saturday, March 11, and it concludes with the championship on Sunday, March 12. The 2017 NCAA Tournament selection show will air on ESPN on Monday, March 13.

The Missouri State Lady Bears have won eight Missouri Valley Conference tournament titles, including the inaugural championship over Southern Illinois, 54-53, in Hammons Student Center in 1993. Missouri State has made appearances in 13 of the 24 MVC finals.

Missouri State has laid claim to four of the last 14 conference championships. In 2006, the Lady Bears won four games in four days on their home court to capture the title and the MVC's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

In 1993, eight teams qualified for the league tourney and games were played at the highest seed's home courts. In 1994, first round games were at the higher seeds, but the semifinals and finals went to a single site. In 1995, the eight-team tournament went to a predetermined single site, where it has remained.

In 2006, the MVC tourney included all 10 teams for the first time in conference history. League administrators recommended to expand the field from eight to 10 during the MVC's annual spring meeting in 2005.

Since 2008, the tournament has been held at a neutral site, and moved to the Quad Cities in 2016 after eight years at The Family Arena in St. Charles, Mo. Since opening its doors in May of 1993, the state-of-the-art iWireless Center has continually been recognized as an outstanding venue for sporting events, concerts or family shows, welcoming over 500,000 guests each year. The arena has a seating capacity of just over 9,000 for sporting events, and has extensive experience in hosting college basketball games, NHL and NBA exhibition contests, minor league hockey and arena football games.

NCAA Tournament

Tournament Field: The field for the 2017 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament will consist of 64 teams, with 32 of the participants gaining automatic bids and 32 schools receiving at-large berths to the single-elimination event. The Missouri Valley Conference is one of the 32 leagues whose champions receive automatic berths into the NCAA Tournament. The 32 conferences with automatic qualification status:

America East	Big Ten	Mid-American	Southeastern
American Athletic	Big 12	Mid-Eastern	Southland
Atlantic Coast	Big West	Missouri Valley	Southern
Atlantic Sun	Colonial Athletic	Mountain West	Southwestern
Atlantic 10	Conference USA	Northeast	Summit League
Big East	Horizon League	Ohio Valley	Sun Belt
Big Sky	Ivy League	Pacific-12	West Coast
Big South	Metro Atlantic	Patriot	Western Athletic

First and Second Rounds: The 64 teams in the tournament field will play at 16 campus sites determined by the top 16 seeds as chosen during the bracket selection process. The NCAA returned to this process in 2015 after using predetermined sites for the sub-regionals from 2003-2014.

Regionals: Four regional championships of four teams each will start with the semifinals March 24-25, and the finals are slated for March 26-27. The four regional hosts and sites are:

Bridgeport Regional: Webster Bank Arena, Bridgeport, Conn.

Lexington Regional: Rupp Arena, Lexington, Ky.

Oklahoma City Regional: Chesapeake Energy Arena, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Stockton Regional: Stockton Center, Stockton, Calif.

Missouri State in the NCAA: Missouri State has made 14 trips to the NCAA Tournament in the last 26 seasons. The Lady Bears won the Midwest Regional on their storybook run to the Women's Final Four in 1992, returned to the Sweet 16 in 1993 and reached the Final Four again in 2001.

Missouri State's first NCAA Tournament in 1991

2017 Final Four: American Airlines Center (below) will host the 2017 NCAA Women's Final Four, with the national semifinals on Friday, March 31, and the championship game on Sunday, April 2.

Future Championships: Dallas will host the 2017 Women's Final Four, with future sites including Columbus, Ohio (2018), Tampa, Fla. (2019), and New Orleans, La. (2020).

Postseason WNIT

Tournament Field: The 64-team Women's National Invitation Tournament field consists of 32 automatic berths and 32 at-large selections. An automatic bid is offered to each conference to the team that finished highest during the regular season and did not advance to the NCAA Tournament.

The 32 at-large berths are filled by the top remaining teams available, as decided by several factors. All Division I teams – with overall records of .500 or better (including conference tournament play) – are considered for the at-large berths.

Host Selection: The host site is selected by the WNIT committee based on several factors such as fan base, host bids, facility availability, tournament seed, travel constraints, etc.

Tournament Dates: The field will be announced Monday evening, March 13, 2017. The first round will kick off Wednesday, March 15, with the event culminating on Saturday, April 1 with the championship game.

Missouri State in the WNIT: Missouri State has appeared in the WNIT on six occasions, posting an 10-5 record. The Lady Bears exited in the first round in 2002, before sweeping the field in 2005 to claim the program's first national tournament title. In 2010, the Lady Bears returned to the postseason for the first time in four years with a pair of victories in the WNIT, went 1-1 in 2011 and advanced to the third round again in 2012 before losing to eventual champion Oklahoma State in MSU's first-ever road game in the event. MSU made its sixth appearance in 2015, losing to Tulsa in the first round

The Missouri Valley Conference, the nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference, continues to be a leader in college athletics and is one of the nation's most progressive conferences, celebrating its 110th season in 2016-17. League members have worked together to focus on common goals and objectives, placing a high value on league harmony, while continuing to invest in athletic programs to compete at the highest level.

The Valley brand remains very strong, both regionally and nationally, and the great athletic tradition of The Valley remains a compelling force in recruiting student-athletes and in marketing all the MVC programs.

Men's basketball continues to be the engine that drives Valley athletic programs. In 2016, UNI and Wichita State represented the Conference in the NCAA Tournament, and the teams combined for three victories. Recent success in resurrecting the challenge series with the Mountain West Conference, and the increased opportunities for MVC teams to participate in ESPN's early-season multi-team events and in other elite tournaments, have added strong opponents and more national television exposure to the non-conference scheduling mix.

The State Farm MVC Men's Basketball Championship – affectionately known as Arch Madness - continues to be a spectacular showcase for the league, and the MVC has extended the tournament agreement with the Scottrade Center that will keep Arch Madness in St. Louis through at least 2018. During the 2011 MVC Championship, the league surpassed 1 million in total attendance for the event, now in its 27th year in the Gateway City. The tournament, in 2016, celebrated its 40th anniversary overall.

While the success of men's basketball has received the greatest attention, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the Conference.

In women's basketball in 2016, four Valley teams reached post-season play. MVC Tournament champ Missouri State represented the league in the NCAA Tournament, and the Lady Bears were joined by Drake (WNIT), UNI (WNIT) and Southern Illinois (WBI) in post-season play. The Panthers reached the third round of the WNIT. Meanwhile, the Conference remains committed to keeping the tournament at a neutral site. The women's tournament, tagged "Hoops in the Heartland," will compete in the iWireless Center in Moline, Ill., for the second time in 2017 as part of a multi-year agreement to conduct the league's post-season tournament at a neutral site in the Quad Cities.

In baseball, regular-season and MVC Tournament Champion Dallas Baptist represented the league in the NCAA Tournament and was one win away from reaching the Super Regional, falling to No. 5 overall seed Texas Tech in the regional finals. Four league teams won 30+ games led by the Patriots' league-best 44 victories. A total of 17 players were taken in the 2016 Major League Baseball draft.

For the third time in league history, four Valley volleyball teams were selected as part of the field of 64 to play for the 2015 NCAA national title. MVC regular-season and tournament champion Wichita State was joined by at-large selections Missouri State, UNI and Southern Illinois in the 2015 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship. Four conference teams were also a part of the 2010 and 2007 NCAA Volleyball Championship fields.

In track & field, league student-athletes continue to be dominant nationally in the sport, as the MVC has now produced 18 national champions in the sport in the past 10 years. Notably, 20 student-athletes from MVC schools qualified for the 2016 NCAA Outdoor Championship in Eugene, Ore., and all 20 earned All-America recognition. The Valley placed five athletes on the First Team, four on the Second Team and eleven as Honorable Mention. The list was highlighted by DeAnna Price of Southern Illinois who claimed first-place in the Women's Hammer Throw for the second-consecutive year.

Meanwhile, the success of The Valley television package is one of the great stories in the league. The MVC Television Network has blossomed into a revenue-generating vehicle and The Valley's most visible marketing tool. Also, The Valley continues to be proactive in upgrading the production and marketing of both institutionally-produced and Conference-produced events.

The summer of 2015 yielded two major announces on the TV front, as ESPN and the Missouri Valley Conference announced a 10-year extension to their current media rights agreement that will provide increased coverage of Conference events across ESPN platforms through 2023-24. As part of the deal – which continues a business relationship that began in 1986 – ESPN, the Missouri Valley Conference and its 10 member institutions will work jointly to develop in-house production capabilities at each campus that will provide significant national coverage for multiple sports on ESPN3 and hands-on educational opportunities for students. As a result, ESPN3 will showcase a minimum of 820 events a year (a minimum of 70 men's basketball) in the final six years of the agreement on the league's co-branded network (The Valley on ESPN3).

Additionally, CBS Sports and the MVC are in the midst of a multi-year agreement to televise Valley basketball games on the CBS Television Network and CBS Sports Network. The deal, which begins this season and continues through 2019-20, is through a sublicense agreement with ESPN. CBS Sports has televised the men's basketball tournament final since 2006.

In 2010, The Valley took a major step toward ensuring current revenues in television media and tournament sponsorship sales would be guaranteed in future years when it announced a 10-year partnership with Learfield Sports. The Jefferson City, Missouri-based company has the exclusive sales and marketing rights to MVC assets that include championships and television advertising. In June 2016, the MVC and Learfield Sports extended that partnership through 2023-24, concurrent with the league's contract with ESPN.

Notably, the 2016 men's basketball tournament marked the return as State Farm Insurance as the event's title sponsor. The Valley remains the only college athletics conference that State Farm sponsors, and State Farm has been a sponsor of the conference since 1984, first as an advertiser on league TV games. State Farm last had naming rights of the men's basketball championship in 2012.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, The Valley's ninth and longest-tenured commissioner, The Valley has been aggressive in hosting NCAA events in St. Louis. From 1998-2010, the MVC served as host for a staggering nine NCAA tournament events in that 13-year period, which has made St. Louis one of the most frequent stops on the NCAA Tournament trail. The Valley hosted Women's Final Fours in 2001 and 2009 and the Men's Final Four in 2005. In 2016, The Valley hosted a first- and second-round men's basketball event in Scottrade Center. The Valley also hosted an NCAA second- and third-round men's basketball event at Scottrade Center in St. Louis in 2014, and in 2013, the league hosted an NCAA second- and third-round men's basketball event in Kansas City. The Valley previously assisted with preliminary round men's events in both 2008 and 2012 in Omaha.

The seeds for the creation of the Conference were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track & field (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

While The Valley no longer sponsors football (it did from 1907-85), six league members compete in football at the FCS (Football Championship Subdivision) level as Illinois State, Indiana State, Missouri State, UNI and Southern Illinois play in the 10-member Missouri Valley Football Conference (with North Dakota State, South Dakota, South Dakota State, Western Illinois and Youngstown State). That league competed as the Gateway Conference from 1985-2007. Drake plays non-scholarship football in the Pioneer Football League.

This season, the league will conduct its 106th outdoor track and field championship, its 99th tennis championship, its 63rd baseball tournament, and its 79th golf championship for the men. Those programs, plus other current sponsored sports of cross country (58 years), indoor track (66), men's soccer (26), women's soccer (20), and swimming and diving (23), have helped solidify The Valley as one of the nation's most respected conferences.

Athletic accomplishments include four NCAA national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Final Four, a 1989 national baseball championship and 19 College World Series qualifiers. The league owns a total of 32 post-season national team championships, including two men's basketball crowns in 2015 (Evansville-CIT; Loyola-CBI). In 2001, Missouri State added to The Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis. Creighton (2004) and Missouri State (2005) have claimed national championships (WNIT) in women's basketball. MSU also has a 1992 NCAA Women's Final Four appearance, and Creighton (2003), Drake (1999) and Illinois State (2009) have made semifinal trips to the WNIT postseason tournament.

Indeed, the inclusion of women's programs under The Valley banner has provided a boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with The Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

While the inclusion of women's sports under a comprehensive athletic umbrella is a recent development in the league's storied history, over the years, Valley student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the league's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers.

In fact, The Valley began honoring that tradition in the summer of 1997, when the Conference began its athletics Hall of Fame. Hersey Hawkins of Bradley, Larry Bird of Indiana State, Wes Unseld of Louisville, Coach Henry Iba of Oklahoma State, Dave Stallworth of Wichita State, Ed Macauley of Saint Louis, and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati were members of the initial induction class. Currently, more than 90 former players, coaches and alums dot the league's Hall of Fame.

Men's basketball, perhaps, has the league's most storied tradition, boasting the likes of Hall of Famers Bird and Robertson as former players, which includes a list of more than 260 drafted to the NBA, but The Valley has also produced national-caliber student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In 2001, Missouri State's Jackie Stiles became the first Valley woman to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the nation's top female collegiate student-athlete. In June of 2016, Stiles was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. Notably, also in 2016, Loyola head coach Sheryl Swoopes (a star student-athlete for Texas Tech and in the WNBA) was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

In the sport of track and field, Indiana State's Holli Hyche captured seven national sprint titles in the early 1990s, Southern Illinois' Darrin Plab won back-to-back NCAA outdoor high jump titles in 1991 and 1992, SIU's Brittany Riley became the World record holder in the weight throw in 2007, and Kylie Hutson of Indiana State swept both the indoor and outdoor pole vault titles in 2009 and in 2010. Southern Illinois' Jeneva McCall (three NCAA individual championships), Illinois State's Tim Glover (back-to-back javelin championships in 2011 and 2012), Indiana State's Felisha Johnson (indoor weight throw in 2011 and 2013), and Southern Illinois' DeAnna Price (hammer throw in 2015 and 2016) are the most recent multi-year NCAA champions in the league's highly decorated history in track & field. Meanwhile, Raven Saunders of Southern Illinois earned NCAA shot put titles in both the 2015 indoor and outdoor meets.

In 2016, Price was named a semifinalist for the Bowerman Award. She is the second in Southern Illinois history to be a semifinalist, joining Jeneva McCall (2012) and is just the third in MVC history to be named a semifinalist for the Bowerman, joining McCall and Indiana State's Kylie Hutson (2010).

In the fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torres was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second-straight year, while SMU's Luchi Gonzalez (2001) and Tulsa's Ryan Pore (2004) have also earned a National Player of the Year honor in men's soccer. Meanwhile, league member Wichita State has produced three national collegiate players of the year in baseball, including Joe Carter (1981), Phil Stephenson (1982) and Darren Dreifort (1993).

League members include Bradley, Drake, Evansville, Illinois State, Indiana State, Loyola Chicago, Missouri State, Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois and Wichita State. Central Arkansas and Southern Illinois Edwardsville are affiliate members in men's soccer; Dallas Baptist is an affiliate member for baseball; Arkansas-Little Rock is an affiliate member in women's swimming and diving; and Stony Brook competes as an affiliate member in men's and women's tennis.

MSU Student-Athlete Code of Conduct Introduction

Student-athletes at Missouri State University ("University") are representatives of their teams, the Department of Athletics and the University. It is a privilege, not a right, to be a member of an intercollegiate athletics program. It has many benefits, but student-athletes receive a higher level of interest from the public and the media. That attention means student-athletes have a responsibility to be positive and effective members of their program, the University and the Department of Athletics.

As a member of an athletics program, student-athletes are expected to demonstrate the pillars of good character by displaying integrity, honesty, respect for others and good sportsmanship in all academic, athletic and social activities. Additionally, student-athletes are to abide by all University policies, Athletic Department, National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), and conference rules and regulations, as well as city, county, state and federal laws and standards of behavior.

The Student-Athlete Code of Conduct is an Athletic Department policy that applies to all student-athletes including those that are not actively competing in their sport. The standards and expectations set forth apply at all times: in season, out of season, on or off campus, and on and off the playing field. Sanctions will be applied for violation of this Code.

Student-athletes have an obligation to report Code of Conduct violations to their Head Coaches or the Faculty Athletics Representative as soon as possible. Student-athletes who do not conform to this Code may be subject to greater consequences for misconduct that is not reported or that involves multiple or repeat violations.

The Head Coach or Faculty Athletics Representative who learns of a Code of Conduct violation shall report same to the Athletic Director within 24 hours.

A written copy of the Student-Athlete Code of Conduct will be provided to student-athletes annually. It will also be included in the Student-Athlete Handbook and will be available online at missouristatebears.com.
