Game Overview

The Missouri State Lady Bears wrap up a lengthy four-game road trip Monday evening against a familiar foe when they visit Little Rock for a 6:30 p.m. tip.

The Lady Bears (1-5) and Trojans (2-4) are playing for the seventh consecutive season and 13th time in the 2000s.

Little Rock is MSU's sixth opponent in the season's first seven games that played in the postseason a year ago, and is expecting another successful season after a No. 2 preseason ranking in the Sun Belt Conference.

Missouri State returns to JQH Arena after nearly three weeks away with a Dec. 7 game against Wichita State, the first of a three-game home stand that includes Oral Roberts on Dec. 10 and Northwestern on Dec. 16.

Series History

Missouri State is 11-3 all-time against Little Rock. The home team won 11 of the first 12 meetings in the series, though the road team has won the last two years, including a 64-58 MSU win in its last visit to Little Rock on Dec. 20, 2015. The Lady Bears and Trojans have met 12 times in the 2000s, with MSU going 9-3 with an average margin of victory of 21.6 points in those nine wins.

Scouting Little Rock

Little Rock is 2-4 against a difficult schedule, and is 2-1 at home with a win against Oklahoma. The Trojans are picked to finish second in the Sun Belt, and have six players averaging between 6.7 and 11.2 points per game while playing their trademark stingy defense. As a team, Little Rock averages 60 points and allows 59.8 with shooting percentages of .395 overall, .286 from beyond the arc and .736 at the foul line.

Scouting the Lady Bears

Missouri State is picked to finish second in the Missouri Valley Conference this season and has a veteran roster despite the fact that only five Lady Bears are upperclassmen. MSU boasts five players with at least 30 career starts, and the senior class of Aubrey Buckley, Liza Fruendt, Audrey Holt and Lee Ann Polowy have combined for 363 career games and more than 2,300 points since arriving on campus. Junior Danielle Gitzen and sophomore Alexa Willard are among the players with 30-plus starts.

Fruendt is the MVC Preseason Player of the Year after averaging 18.2 points 6.0 rebounds and 2.7 assists in league games last year, while Buckley averaged 9.2 points and a team-high 5.2 boards for the full 2016-17 season.

Last Time Out

Wichita State took the first game of a non-conference home-and-home series with Missouri State Wednesday evening, handing the Lady Bears a 72-58 loss inside Koch Arena in a battle of former Missouri Valley Conference rivals.

The Shockers scored the game's first five points and led 15-7 after their third 3-pointer of the game with 1:39 left in the first quarter. WSU shot 54 percent in the opening period and capitalized on seven MSU turnovers, but the Lady Bears (rallied with a 5-0 run to start the second period.

Missouri State trailed 21-20 on a Liza Fruendt jumper with 5:08 until halftime, and kept the Shockers without a field goal for more than five minutes before another WSU trey with 4:51 left opened the flood gates for the home team to go on a 16-3 run that resulted in a 37-23 lead with 8:28 to go in the third period.

A Fruendt layup with 6:12 left in the third quarter marked the first of three times MSU cut the Wichita lead to nine points, but the Shockers connected on six consecutive field goals after another Fruendt basket made it 43-34, extending their lead to

The 2017-18 Lady Bear coaching staff combined to score 6,601 points at the Division I level during their playing careers with four All-America seasons, five Final Four appearances and three national championships.

Head Coach Kellie (Jolly) Harper won three national titles at Tennessee under the legendary Pat Summitt, including a 39-0 junior season in 1998. The point guard scored 894 points and dished out 452 assists.

The NCAA's all-time leading scorer until her record was broken by Washington's Kelsey Plum on Feb. 25, 2017, assistant Jackie Stiles poured in 3,393 points for Missouri State from 1997-2001. The three-time All-American and 2001 National Player of the Year led the Lady Bears to their second Final Four that season.

Assistant Jennifer Sullivan enjoyed a standout career at Memphis, piling up 800 points, 310 rebounds and 99 steals as a three-year starter for the Tigers.

Director of Operations Ashley Houts was a four-year starter at Georgia, scoring 1,514 career points and helping the Bulldogs to four NCAA Tournament appearances.

MSU Peaks in The Valley

The Lady Bears are 301-145 all-time in MVC play with a 175-48 home record against league foes. Missouri State has won at least a share of 12 regular-season titles and nine conference tournaments since the 1989-90 season. MSU has played in 13 of the 25 Valley tournament championship games and 15 of the 32 title games since the inception of the Gateway Conference Tournament in 1983.

Missouri State All-Time

Missouri State is in its 49th season of women's collegiate basketball and has an all-time record of 831-585 (.587). MSU began formal competition in 1969 and, with a 16-15 mark in 2017, secured its 32nd winning season. The Lady Bears have made 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, highlighted by Final Four trips in 1992 and 2001 to go along with a Sweet 16 appearance in 1993.

The Lady Bears are in their 36th NCAA Division I season and 26th MVC year. MSU was in AIAW competition on the state, regional and national levels through the 1981-82 season, moved to Division I and Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference play in 1982-83 and started MVC competition in 1992-93 when the Gateway merged with The Valley.

Fandemonium

With the conclusion of their ninth season in JQH Arena, the Lady Bears finished second in the MVC standings in terms of attendance, drawing 33,678 fans in 13 home dates in 2016-17 for a 2,598 average. MSU has now led the MVC in attendance 24 times in the past 28 seasons, and ranked 46th nationally in 2016-17.

Since the 1990-91 season, Missouri State has ranked in the top 20 nationally in average attendance 19 times, including a string of 10 straight top-10 finishes from 1992 through the 2000-01 season. The Lady Bears led all of Division I women's basketball in attendance during the 1992-93 season by averaging 7,421 fans per contest.

MSU ranks in the top 10 among all Division I women's basketball programs in average home attendance over the last two-plus decades, and is joined on that list by the likes of Tennessee and Connecticut. Additionally, the Lady Bears have finished in the top 50 nationally in per game attendance for 29 of the last 30 years.

"Q" Rating

After compiling a 325-108 record in Hammons Student Center over its 32-year stint as home of Missouri State basketball, the Lady Bears posted an 8-5 mark at home in 2016-17 to run their seven-year record to 91-43 in JQH Arena.

The "Q" is the fourth regular home of Missouri State women's basketball in the four-decade history of the program. The Lady Bears utilized both McDonald Arena and the Greenwood Laboratory School gym from 1969 until Hammons Student Center opened in 1976. MSU continued to play some of its home games at McDonald through the 1979-80 season.
