Isaiah LeSure has 10 career receiving touchdowns, the most on the Leathernecks' active roster

11

Khaleen Saunders posted a career-high 11 tackles against North Dakota State to mark his first career game in double figures.

THE SERIES: The current series between Western Illinois and Missouri State is deadlocked at 17-17-1. The Leathernecks maintain a record of 8-10 inside of Hanson Field and are seeking their third straight win this Saturday.

In last year's meeting, the Leathernecks put up 49 points, the second most versus the Bears, en route to a 49-30 success. The game included a 99-minute weather delay and saw the Western score two touchdowns in the final four minutes.

WESTERN'S LAST OUTING: The Leathernecks played host to the top-ranked team in the nation North Dakota State, and turnovers proved to be the deciding factor. The Bison scored half their points on Western miscues – a fumble recovery and a pair of interceptions – and all three occurred in Leatherneck territory.

Isaiah LeSure finished the game with a career-high, game-high 170 receiving yards and posted the Leathernecks' lone touchdown in the 34-7 setback.

- Isaiah LeSure finished the game with a career-high, game-high 170 receiving yards on 12 catches; it marked the second 100-yard performance of his career
- Steve McShane recorded a 55-yard kick return Saturday to mark his second 50-plus yard return of the season
- Quarterback Connor Sampson entered the game in the fourth quarter and went 4-for-7 with 78 yards

JARED ELLIOTT

When searching for the Leathernecks' next head football coach, WIU didn't have to look far. On Jan. 4, 2018, Jared Elliott, the program's former assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator, was chosen to lead the next era in Western football.

Elliott rejoined the team in January of 2016 as an assistant coach for Charlie Fisher.

No stranger to success, he assisted WIU to 14 wins in his first two seasons, highlighted by an 8-4 record in the 2017 campaign. The Leathernecks concluded the latter slate with an appearance in the FCS Playoffs -- their second trip in three years -- and were also ranked ninth in the STATS FCS Top-25 poll.

In his role, Elliott coached quarterback Sean McGuire to a pair of honorable mentions on the All-Missouri Valley Football Conference postseason list (2016 & 2017). He moved into the position of co-offensive coordinator just before the 2017 season and helped Western to the 16th-best scoring offense in the FCS. The Leathernecks were also ranked 22nd in fourth down conversions, 23rd in third-down conversions and 29th in passing offense.

Elliott, who worked at Western during the 2012 season, spent the previous three years (2013-15) at Carthage College as an assistant coach and co-offensive coordinator. In 2015, Carthage averaged more than 360 yards of total offense and finished 5-5. The program improved in each of the three years Elliott worked at Carthage, going from a 1-9 record in 2013 to 3-7 and .500 during the 2015 campaign.

During the 2012 season, Elliott and the Leathernecks started three different quarterbacks (including a true-freshman). He joined Western after serving as a graduate assistant for Fisher at Miami (Ohio). Elliott was a graduate assistant in both 2010 and 2011 and assisted in coaching the quarterbacks, was responsible for film breakdown, helped in recruiting and managed the scout teams. In 2011, he worked with the offensive line and tight ends.

Elliott worked as an assistant coach for wide receivers at Missouri Southern State University in the 2008 and 2009 seasons. He conducted position meetings, film study, assisted in game planning, monitored the academic progress of his position group and ran field drills.

A native of Franklin, Tenn., Elliott was a quarterback and wide receiver at Miami (Ohio) from 2004 to 2007 and part of three Mid-American Conference championship teams. He received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and health with a minor in coaching.

Elliott and his wife Jamie have three daughters: Ava, Sadie, and Clara.

WESTERN ILLINOIS
has won 17 Super Bowl
Championships
(players/coaches)

WHAT IS A FIGHTING LEATHERNECK?: Western Illinois holds the distinction of being the only non-military institution to officially have its nickname derived from a branch of the military service. The school began use of the Marine Corps' official nickname, "The Fighting Leathernecks," in 1927 when then-athletic director and head baseball, basketball and football coach Ray "Rock" Hanson was granted permission by the U.S. Navy, based on his status as a Marine hero, to use the Marine's official seal, bulldog mascot and nickname. He still remains third all-time at Western in victories with 56 in 16 years as head coach (56-60-12) from 1926-41. He posted a winning record six years and a .500 mark during another season. The 1939 team went 5-1-1 and won the Little 19 Conference championship.

NFL CONNECTIONS: Western Illinois continues its tradition as one of the top NCAA FCS programs with a pipeline to the NFL; Leatherneck players and coaches have won 17 Super Bowl Championships.

- Mike Wagner won four Super Bowls with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Steel Curtain era.
- Rodney Harrison won a pair of Super Bowls with the New England Patriots in three appearances all-time. He now works in-studio at NBC Sports during Sunday Night Football Night.
- Don Beebe is just one of three players to have played in SIX Super Bowls in his career. He was part of the four consecutive appearances by Buffalo and went 1-1 with the Green Bay Packers. Beebe has one of the most famous Super Bowl plays when he raced down the field and chased down Dallas Cowboys lineman Leon Lett at the 1-yard line and knocked the ball away to keep Dallas from scoring a touchdown. From 1957-59, former WIU head coach Lou Saban had on his staff Joe Collier and standout WIU player Robert 'Red' Miller.
- Saban was the inaugural coach for the Boston Patriots, then later the Buffalo Bills. He was the 1964 AFL 'Coach of the Year'. Saban spent four years as coach of the Denver Broncos and would later come back and coach the Bills.
- Miller, a three-time MVP for the Leathernecks, would later coach the Denver Broncos in the 1977 Super Bowl and three consecutive playoff appearances.
- Collier joined Saban in Boston and was promoted to the Buffalo Bills head coach in 1966. He took the Bills to the AFL Championship game that season. He later worked as an assistant with the Denver Broncos, hired first by Saban then later Miller as defensive coordinator. He coached in three Super Bowls with the Broncos. Collier was the mastermind behind the Broncos defense known at the time as the 'Orange Crush Defense'.
- Former All-American John Teerlinck won two Super Bowls with the Denver Broncos as an assistant coach and another Super Bowl with the Indianapolis Colts as an assistant coach.
- WIU All-American Bryan Cox worked 11 years in the NFL as an assistant coach.
- Mike Scifres spent 13 years with San Diego as the starting punter and was recently announced as a member of the 2017 WIU Athletics Hall of Fame Class.
- Western's all-time leading wide receiver Lance Lenoir is currently on the practice squad with the Dallas Cowboys.
- Offensive Lineman Frank Winters won a Super Bowl with the Green Bay Packers and was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame. In September 2016 he received the George Connor Lifetime Achievement Award from the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame.

Three of Western's football games will air on ESPN3 while the other six will appear on ESPN+ - the premium multi-sport, direct-to-consumer subscription streaming service from The Walt Disney Company's Direct-to-Consumer and International Group and ESPN.

The Missouri Valley Football Conference's digital initiative is available through the redesigned ESPN App and features live-event programming on both ESPN3 and ESPN+. The new ESPN App gives fans a premier, all-in-one digital access point for everything ESPN offers -- 1) news, scores, highlights, and audio, 2) "TV Everywhere" streaming video and 3) ESPN+. The league's digital endeavor is part of its 10-year agreement with ESPN which runs through the 2023-24 academic year.

^Division I FCS playoff game; *Missouri Valley Football Conference game

TROUBLING TURNOVERS: Western is 2-0 on the season when committing fewer turnovers than its opponent. In its 45-38 victory over Youngstown State, the team didn't commit a single turnover and recorded three.

THE BIG MAN: Khalen Saunders posted a career-high 11 tackles against North Dakota State to mark his first career game in double figures. He finished the outing with 3.5 TFLs that combined for a loss of 20 yards, which included 2.5 sacks.

Saunders currently ranks ninth all-time in Western history with 16 career sacks, and he's also known to line up for the offense from time-to-time. The 6-foot, 300-pound lineman's first career catch versus Youngstown State (9/29) resulted in a touchdown, and he recorded the team's first TD of the season in 2017 with a one-yard rush.

1K FOR LESURE: Isaiah LeSure's stellar performance against No. 1 North Dakota State also captured a career milestone. He recorded his 10th career receiving touchdown in the matchup, the most on Western's active roster, while also surpassing 1,000 career receiving yards.

He finished the game with a career-high 170 receiving yards, and currently manages 1,012 career yards on 72 receptions.

SWENSON STOPS: Pete Swenson leads the Missouri Valley Football Conference and ties for fourth in the nation with 12.0 tackles for loss. He notched a season-high 3.5 TFL at Illinois State and sits ninth all-time in program history with 37 in his career.

Swenson also ranks fifth in the Leathernecks' history books with 18.5 career sacks.

HOLDING FIRM: Western lays claim to one of the best defenses in the MVFC, currently ranking third in the Valley in total defense with 333.8 yards allowed per game. When it comes to tackles for loss, the Purple & Gold are averaging a league-leading 7.5 per game for a combined loss of 165 yards.

Both categories place the Leathernecks 24th in the nation.

MCGUIRE & MILESTONES: Sean McGuire became Western's career leader in passing yards and touchdowns at Illinois State (Oct. 6), and currently manages 8,478 and 65, respectively.

Paul Singer, who played at Western from 1985-88, previously sat atop the record book in passing yards (8,257) and touchdowns (62), and still holds the all-time marks for completions (678) and attempts (1,231).

McGuire matched his career-high with four touchdowns thrown in the Leathernecks' Missouri Valley Football Conference opener against Youngstown State. He was named the MVFC Offensive Player of the Week for the game, adding a rushing TD while completing 22 of his 34 passes with no interceptions.

THE BEST IN THE FCS: For the third straight week, Quentin Moon continues to pace the FCS in solo tackles per game (7.2). He tabbed a career-high 11 solo tackles at Illinois State earlier this season and has finished with 10 or more tackles in all but one game. He sits eighth in the nation in total tackles.

ALL-TIME AT HANSON FIELD: On September 23, 1950, Hanson Field was dedicated and became the home of Leatherneck Football. In the last 68 years, Western has compiled a 239-123-7 record at home. In 52 of those years, Western finished at least .500 at home, including a perfect 6-0 record in 2010.

MCGUIRE NAMED MVFC PLAYER OF THE WEEK (SEPT. 30): After putting together his second 300-yard passing game of the season to go along with five total touchdowns, Sean McGuire was named the MVFC Offensive Player of the Week.

He finished Saturday's MVFC opener against Youngstown State 22-for-34 with four passing touchdowns and one rushing. McGuire has collected an Offensive Player of the Week award in each of the last two seasons.

WE DID IT FIRST: WIU began its 2018 season with a five-game streak of scoring before its opponent and each was a touchdown in the first quarter.

Montana State – A three-yard rush by Steve McShane on Western's second drive
Illinois – A 20-yard pass from Sean McGuire to George Wahee on the very first drive of the game
Montana – A 71-yard pass from McGuire to John Brunner on the second play of the game
Youngstown State – An eight-yard pass from McGuire to Adam Conrady on the opening drive
Illinois State – A 16-yard pass from McGuire to Tony Tate on the opening drive

MOMMA, THERE GOES THAT MAN: Running back and return specialist Steve McShane is on the bend of claiming a top 10 spot on the Leathernecks' career rushing yards list. He cracked the top 10 in all-purpose yards and rushing touchdowns in the Leathernecks' MVFC opener against Youngstown State, and currently sits seventh (3,340) and 10th (17) in the categories.

The YSU game also saw McShane tab the eighth-longest rush in program history as it took him 14 seconds to travel 75 yards for a TD.

Brian Knuckles is 10th on Western's career rushing list with 2,158 yards, and McShane is currently managing 2,014. The senior from Freeport, Ill., also ranks seventh all-time in program history with 27 touchdowns (17 rushing, eight receiving and two on returns).

MISSOURI VALLEY PLAYERS OF THE WEEK (SEPT. 16): After scoring all four of Western's touchdowns against Montana, Steve McShane (Special Teams Player of the Week) and John Brunner (Newcomer of the Week) were honored by the MVFC.

Brunner finished the first quarter with two touchdowns and 144 receiving yards – nearly triple the yardage from his first two games combined. Highlighted by a 71-yard reception, the redshirt-junior transfer from Butler Community College crossed the end zone twice in the first 2:11 of the game.

The Leathernecks were trailing by 10 points in the fourth quarter when McShane worked a 58-yard punt return down the sidelines for a touchdown, and with less than two minutes remaining in the game, he added the go-ahead score on an 11-yard reception.

CLOSE CALLS: Two of Western's three matchups this season were decided by less than a touchdown and both were determined in the fourth quarter. A 35-yard field goal in the final five minutes lifted Montana State to a 26-23 victory in the Leathernecks' season opener, and in the team's home debut versus Montana, Steve McShane scored back-to-back touchdowns in the final six minutes of the 31-27 WIU win.

Western is 61-46 all-time in games decided by a touchdown or less.

WAY TO GO, COACH: Jared Elliott claimed his first career win in Western's 31-27 victory over previously ranked No. 15/16 Montana.

AND THE AWARD GOES TO: The Leathernecks' bye week fell on a perfect date for Justin Fitzpatrick, who used the weekend to pick up an award at the 42nd Annual Mid-America EMMY Gala (Sept. 22) in Kansas City.

There were 10 categories in the collegiate section, and Justin earned the NATAS Mid-America Regional Student Television Award for short form, non-fiction. His feature "More Than a Number: Sam Pryor's Story" told the story of a fellow Leatherneck student-athlete who suits up for the University's women's basketball team. She lost her mother to cancer shortly before arriving at campus her freshman year.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADS: The National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame released its annual list of student-athletes who are playing college football this fall with their undergraduate degrees already in hand, and Western Illinois ranked second in the FCS with 10.

Michael Bishoff, LaQuay Brown, Matt Clark, Jared Drake, Grant Kasal, Thomas Kirsch, Sean McGuire, Zach Muniz, Reno Rosene, and George Wahee were named alongside 1,200 student-athletes from 235 schools around the nation.

They will be pursuing master's degrees in:

CAPTAINS: The letter "C" will be stitched into the uniforms of five Western Illinois football players this upcoming season, as Riggs Baxter (LB), Justin Fitzpatrick (DB), Sean McGuire (QB), Quentin Moon (LB) and Clint Ratkovich (RB) were selected team captains.

ELLIOTT FILES: Jared Elliott became the Leathernecks' 34th head coach in its 116-year history in January 2018. He previously served as the team's assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator since arriving in Macomb in 2016.

RECAPING 2017: Western concluded its 2017 season with an appearance in the FCS Playoffs to mark its second trip to the tournament in three years and the 11th in program history. The Leathernecks dropped a first-round decision, 21-19, to Weber State.

Western posted an overall record of 8-4, 5-3 in the MVFC, and finished the year ranked 13th in the STATS FCS poll.

BUCK BUCHANAN WATCH LIST: Khalen Saunders has garnered several accolades in his Western Illinois career. Last season, he was named a Phil Steele Third Team All-American and a First Team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference selection, and this preseason he received honors as an MVFC preseason first-teamer and STATS FCS Preseason All-American.

The latter organization also announced its 25-member preseason watch list for the Buck Buchanan Award where Saunders joined four others from the MVFC. The annual honor is given to the most outstanding defensive player in the FCS.

PRESEASON PICKS: League coaches, sports information directors, and local media named six Western Illinois Leathernecks to a preseason all-conference team with three receiving first-team recognition. Defensively, Khalen Saunders, Justin Fitzpatrick, and Steve McShane were first-team selections while Quentin Moon was named to the second team. The honor marked McShane's second in the preseason, as the running back and return specialist also joined quarterback Sean McGuire as a second-team offensive pick.

WESTERN SELECTED TO FINISH SEVENTH: In MVFC preseason poll, Western was selected to finish the regular season in seventh place. North Dakota State was tabbed as the preseason favorite with 39 first place votes while South Dakota State and Northern Iowa rounded out the top three.

The Leathernecks joined the three and South Dakota as MVFC invites to the 2017 FCS Playoffs. The 2017 season saw Western ranked as high as No. 9 in the STATS FCS national poll before finishing the year No. 13.

A FAMILIAR FACE: When Sean McGuire took over as the starting quarterback late in the 2015 regular season, he led Western to a pair of overtime victories at Indiana State and South Dakota State. In the last four seasons, the Leathernecks are 17-12 with McGuire under center.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK: Head coach Jared Elliott welcomed several Leathernecks to the program this past summer in 24 true freshmen and 10 transfers from four-year institutions.

Transfers: George Wahee (Norfolk State), Zach Muniz (Duke), Jared Drake (Ohio State), Derriyon Shaw (Boise State), Demetri Royer (Charleston Southern), Reno Rosene (Duke), Matt Clark (Eastern Kentucky), Laquay Brown (Coastal Carolina), Malik Burns (Temple), and Derrell Grisby (Robert Morris).

VETERAN DEFENSE BACK AGAIN: The Leathernecks return seven starters from their defensive core in Phil Steele Third Team All-American Khalen Saunders (DL), linebackers Pete Swenson, Riggs Baxter and Quentin Moon, and defensive backs Eric Carrera, Xavier Rowe, Mike Viti and Justin Fitzpatrick.

Moon was named an MVFC honorable mention in both the 2016 and 2017 seasons while Fitzpatrick was a second-team selection.

DOUBLE-DUTY: Steve McShane and Justin Fitzpatrick are not only members of Western's football team, but are also outfielders on the baseball team as well. Both were named All-Missouri Valley Football Conference Second Team at the end of the 2017 season, and McShane doubled down on the honors as a First Team All-Summit League selection.

At the end of the 2018 baseball season, McShane posted the sixth-best batting average in the Summit League and the best on the team (.317). He manages a career .265 average in 107 games (82 starts) with 79 hits, 49 runs, and 26 stolen bases while Fitzpatrick has a career .180 batting average in 84 games (52 starts) with 32 hits and 11 runs.

LEATHERNECKS IN THE PROS: Former Leatherneck Lance Lenoir signed an undrafted free agent contract with the Dallas Cowboys after the 2017 draft and will suit up on the team's practice squad for the 2018 season. During preseason camp, Lenoir led all Cowboys receivers in receptions (12) and yards (91).

Heading into the final week of camp, Lenoir (Dallas Cowboys), Brett Taylor (Minnesota Vikings), and Jacob Judd (Vikings) were all listed on NFL rosters. Former Leathernecks Tyrin Holloway (DB/Chicago Bears), David Griffith (DB/Los Angeles Chargers), and Jaelon Acklin (WR/Baltimore Ravens) also received mini-camp invites following the 2018 Draft.
