PRIME 9

- Missouri State brings an 18-game MVC home win streak into this weekend's series with Illinois State; the Bears have gone 26-7 at home in Valley play since the start of the 2015 season and have not lost a regular-season home game to a league foe since May 8, 2016 vs. Southern Illinois
- The Bears own a 59-42 overall series advantage against Illinois State, including a 30-18 edge at home
- Drew Milias has four multi-hit performances in his last six games, going 14-for-26 (.538) over the same stretch; the sophomore has 10 multi-hit games this season, including three separate four-hit efforts
- Preseason All-America pick Jeremy Eierman was named to the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List Thursday for the second straight year; the junior shortstop is just one stolen base away from becoming the lone Bear on both the program's career lists for home runs and steals
- MSU leads the Valley in team triples (9), ERA (4.08) and opponent batting (.234); Dylan Coleman paces the circuit in strikeouts (68) and opposing batting (.183), while Eierman leads the league in doubles (14) and rates among the MVC's top 10 in runs scored (30), RBIs (28), triples (2), home runs (5), total bases (74) and steals (17)
- Coleman is currently tied with Brett Sinkbeil for fourth place on the Bears' career strikeout list with 256 K's; the junior also needs one more victory for his 20th as a Bear, which would move him into the school's top 10 for wins
- MSU pitching has allowed double-digit run totals in three consecutive games for the first time since March 2011; the Bears have also dropped three straight contests in which they have scored at least six runs, after winning 106 of their previous 114 such games over the past four seasons
- Head coach Keith Guttin (1,241) needs one more victory to match the career total of former Southern Illinois coach Itchy Jones for the No. 21 position on the NCAA's Division I coaching wins list
- Missouri State has 71 combined come-from-behind victories over the last four seasons, including 12 through its first 33 contests of the 2018 campaign

LEADING OFF

The Missouri State Bears return to Missouri Valley Conference play this weekend with a three-game series against the Illinois State Redbirds at Hammons Field. The Bears and Redbirds will open the weekend with a 6:30 p.m. game Friday (April 20), before matching up in single games Saturday (2 p.m.) and Sunday (1 p.m.).

The Bears (22-11, 5-1 MVC) will be looking to snap out of a recent funk that has seen them drop four straight contests to ranked opponents. MSU built a four-run lead Tuesday night at Arkansas, only to watch the No. 3 Razorbacks score the final eight runs of the night in an 11-7 setback. MSU has lost three straight home games as well, marking its longest home skid since May 2016.

Illinois State (14-19, 4-5 MVC) dropped a pair of midweek contests to in-state foes SIU Edwardsville and Eastern Illinois, after taking two of three Valley games at Indiana State last weekend. The Redbirds bring the top team fielding percentage (.979) in the conference into this weekend's series.

SERIES HISTORY

Missouri State brings a 59-42 all-time advantage over Illinois State into Friday's series opener. The Bears hold a 30-18 edge over the Redbirds in Springfield, including a three-game sweep of ISU in its last regular-season trip to Hammons Field in 2016. Last year, the Redbirds stopped the Bears' 22-game Valley win streak in the regular-season finale in Normal to earn a split of the weather-shortened two-game series. ISU also took two of three games from the top-seeded Bears at Hammons Field in the MVC Championship en route to a runner-up finish at the league meet.

Bears reliever Jake Fromson has a pair of wins and a save in four career appearances against Illinois State. The reigning MVC Pitcher of the Year has struck out 17 Redbirds over 13.0 total innings, while both John Privitera (.333) and Hunter Steinmetz (.303) bring .300 or better career batting marks against ISU into the series.

WATCHING EIERMAN

Junior shortstop Jeremy Eierman is just one stolen base away from becoming the lone Bear on both the Bears' career top 10 lists for home runs and steals. Eierman currently ranks ninth on MSU's all-time homer list with 37, while his total of 40 steals is tied for 14th. With one more stolen base, he would tie Bob Blakley (1974-77), Gary Mitchell (1976-78), Greg Brewer (1985-86) and Kevin Medrano (2009-12) for the 10th spot on the Bears career steals list.

+ at MVC Championship

A unanimous preseason All-America pick, Eierman earned another national honor Thursday when he was named to the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List for the second straight year. The honor, for which Eierman was one of five national finalists in 2017, is presented by the College Baseball Foundation and recognizes the top collegiate shortstop in the country. The Warsaw, Mo., native was previously selected for USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award Midseason Watch List, which features 40 of the nation's top college players.

Eierman was a unanimous preseason All-America and the No. 9 college prospect for the 2018 MLB Draft, as well as the No. 17 overall prospect, by Baseball America prior to the start of the season. He currently ranks among the MVC's top 10 individuals in seven different offensive categories, on the heels of a breakthrough 2017 season that earned Eierman first-team All-America recognition and a spot on USA Baseball's Collegiate National Team last summer.

STREAKING AT HAMMONS

With their midweek loss to Mizzou last Tuesday, the Bears saw their 10-game Hammons Field win streak come to an end. MSU's 2018 home mark fell to 11-5 with its two-game sweep at the hands of Oregon State, but the Bears' double-digit home win streak represented the sixth different streak of at least six home victories since the start of the 2015 season, as well as the Bears' third-longest home streak since moving to Hammons Field in 2004. The longest such streak is 16 straight victories from April 18, 2015 through March 6, 2016.

The Bears have logged their top two single-season home win totals over the last two years, going 73-23 (.760) overall at home since the start of the 2015 season.

IN RARE COMPANY

With Missouri State's 10-5 win over SEMO on March 20, Bears head coach Keith Guttin moved past former San Diego State coach Jim Dietz into sole possession of the No. 22 spot on the NCAA's Division I career coaching wins list. With a career record of 1,241-770 (.617), Guttin needs one more win to catch former Southern Illinois coach Itchy Jones in the No. 21 position on the list. Guttin is the second-winningest coach in MVC history, while his win total ranks sixth among all active Division I head coaches.

CARDIAC CUBS

Missouri State has made a habit of eliminating leads over the last three seasons, and their recent hot streak has highlighted this trend. The Bears rallied for comeback wins in each of their first two wins over Evansville (April 6-8) and have now totaled 71 come-from-behind victories since the start of the 2015 season. This year alone, the Bears have rallied for 12 wins after trailing the opposition. MSU has been good in close encounters as well, recording a 9-1 mark in one-run contests, including three walkoff wins at home.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

The Bears' sophomore catching combination of Logan Geha and Drew Millas turned in a weekend to remember in leading the Bears to a series sweep of Evansville. The duo went 10-for-17 (.588) with four doubles, a triple and six RBIs over the three games. In the series finale, they were particularly lethal, combining to go 4-for-7 with three walks, three runs scored and three RBIs. They also teamed up to backstop a strong weekend from the MSU pitching staff, which allowed just eight earned runs and struck out 23 Purple Aces and issued only four walks over the 27.0 innings in the series.

ROAD WARRIORS

Missouri State has proven to be hard to stop on the road over the past four seasons, logging a 59-34 (.634) record in such contests. Including their 20-6 record in neutral-field games over the same stretch, the Bears have gone 79-40 (.664) away from Hammons Field since the start of the 2015 season. MSU has held its own against top 25 clubs on the road as well, logging five victories in 12 such contests over the same span.

COLEMAN CLIMBING

Junior right-hander Dylan Coleman picked up his fifth mound victory of the season March 30 with a 4-3 decision over Indiana State, striking out seven Sycamores over 6.2 innings. He moved into the Bears' top five for career strikeouts on April 6, passing Jordan Knutson and Jarrod Mays with his six-strikeout effort vs. Evansville. Coleman, who fanned an MVC-high 106 batters in 2016, matched the career total of Brett Sinkbeil (256) for the No. 4 spot on MSU's career list. He needs 19 more K's to catch Matt Hall in the third position on the chart.

Coleman also needs one more win to crack the Bears' all-time top 10 list for that category. With 19 wins, he trails five different Bears — most recently Sam Perez (2013-16) — in the 10th spot with 20 victories.

HEATING UP

After starting the season with only five hits in his first 30 at-bats, junior outfielder Hunter Steinmetz has keyed a recent surge that has seen the Bears go 18-8 since March 3. Over the same span, Steinmetz has hit .333 (35-for-105) with 22 RBIs and 28 runs scored. The Springfield native recorded a hit in nine straight games, March 20-31, hitting .389 with 11 RBIs. After seeing his streak end, Steinmetz has responded by recording hits in six consecutive outings, batting .417 (10-for-24) with 10 runs scored. He brings a .346 MVC batting mark into this weekend's series, while his .338 home average this season is second on the squad.

Likewise, Drew Millas has been on a tear over the last two weeks, logging four multi-hit performances—including two four-hit games. Since April 7, Steinmetz and Millas have combined to go 24-for-50 (.480) in six games, good for 39 percent of the Bears' 61 total hits over the same stretch.

MILLAS TABBED FOR VALLEY HONOR

On the heels of a red-hot weekend that helped power a Missouri State series sweep of Evansville, Drew Millas was named Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week for the second time this season on April 9.

The Bears' sophomore catcher sparked the MSU offense by going 6-for-12 with six RBIs in the Bears' three victories over the Aces. After helping the Bears erase a late deficit with two RBIs — including a game-tying, seventh-inning sac fly — in the series opener, Millas went 3-for-4 with the game-winning RBI in game two. The Swansea, Ill., native helped MSU lock up its 10th consecutive home win in the finale, logging a key three-run double as part of a 2-for-4 day in the 11-4 victory.

The MVC honor was the second in six weeks for Millas, who picked up the same award on April 5. It also marked the fourth consecutive week a Missouri State player earned either MVC Player or Pitcher of the Week and the fifth time overall in 2018 a Bear received one of the two weekly Valley honors.

MARCH MADNESS

As part of their 22-11 start to the season, the Bears locked up their eighth-consecutive .500 or better month of February. Missouri State has been even better in the month of March, which has traditionally been the Bears' most successful month. MSU went 15-5 in March this season, has gone 50-21 in March over the last four seasons and logged 16 winning months of March since 2001. Overall, MSU has posted a .633 March winning percentage and finished .500 or better in the month 46 times in 55 years as a varsity program.

STARTING STRONG

With their MVC series win at Indiana State (March 30-31), the Bears have now won 12 of their last 13 Valley openers and have won or split 11 of their last 13 MVC-opening series. Additionally, MSU is a combined 26-10 in its opening conference series since 2006.

Missouri State posted its best-ever-start to a Valley season in 2017 as part of its 22-game MVC win streak. The Bears won their first 18 conference games before falling to Illinois State (May 19) in their regular-season finale. With their 8-5 win over the Redbirds on May 18, the Bears ran their regular-season Valley win streak to a league-record 22-straight games, dating back to their May 15, 2016 win at DBU. They surpassed the previous all-time win streak by an MVC club with their title-clinching win vs. Indiana State on May 13, topping Wichita State's 19-game league win streak (1981-82).

VALLEY FORECAST

With 18 letterwinners returning from last year's 43-20 squad, the Bears were tabbed second in the Missouri Valley Conference's 2018 preseason poll of the league's head coaches. DBU Defending Valley Tournament champion DBU garnered seven of the eight first-place votes and finished with 63 points overall to claim the top spot in the poll.

The Patriots edged the Bears (57 points), who received the remaining first-place vote, while Indiana State (42) and Southern Illinois (35) rounded out the top half of the preseason poll. Illinois State (31) and Bradley finished fifth and sixth, respectively, while Evansville (18) and Valparaiso were slotted into the final two positions in the poll. The league's eight clubs will convene in Dallas at the conclusion of the conference season for the right to represent the Valley in the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

WHAT'S ON TAP

The 2018 Missouri State baseball schedule will feature a total of 52 games, including 24 home dates and match-ups against seven different 2017 NCAA Tournament teams. In all, the Bears are slated to play 23 games against 12 different opponents that rated among the top 125 RPI-finishers a year ago, including 13 contests against NCAA Regional qualifiers.

Highlighting the home portion of the schedule will be a three-game non-conference series (April 13-14) against an Oregon State squad that returns the bulk of its roster from last year's club that earned the top overall national seed in the 2017 NCAA Baseball Championship and advanced to the College World Series with a 56-6 overall record.

MSU's home slate will also feature midweek return visits from Missouri (April 10) and Kansas (May 2) as part of home-and-home series with the Tigers and Jayhawks. The Bears will host three Missouri Valley Conference weekend series, beginning with a three-game set against Evansville (April 6-8), followed by series with Illinois State (April 20-22) and Southern Illinois (May 11-13).

FEELING SUPER

Coming off the winningest three-year period in program history with 130 victories since the start of the 2015 season, the Bears turned in a stretch like no other in school history. Over the last three seasons, nine different players have been selected as All-Americans, six different players have been taken in the top 10 rounds of the MLB Draft, including two first-rounders. Last year's 43-20 team captured the program's fifth MVC regular-season crown, as well as the NCAA Fayetteville Regional title to advance to Super Regional play for the third time. With their run to the Regional title, the Bears advanced to NCAA Super Regional play for the second time in three seasons and the third time as a Division I program in 2017.

BEARS IN THE PRO RANKS

Four Missouri State baseball standouts reached contractual agreements with professional organizations after being selected in the 2017 Major League Baseball Draft.

First-round pick Jake Burger agreed to terms with the Chicago White Sox after the club selected the three-time All-American third baseman 11th overall in the June 12 draft, while fellow MSU juniors Trey Turner and Doug Still followed suit by reaching deals with Washington and San Francisco, respectively. Senior first baseman Justin Paulsen inked a contract with San Diego after being picked in the 39th round by the Padres.

Former Missouri State baseball standouts Pierce Johnson and Luke Voit became the 18th and 19th Bears to receive call-ups to the big leagues last year. Johnson was selected by the Cubs in the Comp Round of the 2012 MLB Draft with the 43rd overall pick, while Voit was taken by St. Louis in the 22nd round of the 2013 draft. The duo became the second and third Bears to receive big-league call-ups in the last two seasons after Buddy Baumann made his Major League debut with San Diego in July 2016. Voit is one of three former Bears currently on MLB 40-man rosters, joining Baumann and Brad Ziegler (Marlins), while 11 additional former MSU standouts remain active in the minor league ranks.

In 2016, two MSU seniors — Spencer Johnson and Sam Perez — were among those taken in the 2016 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Perez was the first Missouri Valley Conference player to be chosen in the draft, as the Miami Marlins selected the right-hander in the fifth round with the 143rd overall pick on the second day of the 40-round amateur draft. The following day, Johnson heard his name called by the Houston Astros in the 16th round with the 487th overall pick. With the selections of Johnson and Perez, Missouri State extended an impressive string of talent production that has resulted in at least one Bear being picked in 30 of the last 31 MLB Drafts dating back to 1986.

BEARS ON RADIO

Once again in 2018, Meyer Communications is slated to provide live radio coverage of all 52 Missouri State regular-season games, plus all Bears' games in the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament and any 2018 postseason play.

The broadcasts can be heard primarily on KBFL 1060 AM and 96.9 FM in Springfield with Art Hains, Ben Goss and Corey Riggs describing the action. An online audio stream is available through KBFL's website via RadioSpringfield.com.

BEARS ON THE WEB

Missouri State University, in conjunction with SIDEARM Sports, launched a new partnership in August 2016, unveiling a reconstructed MissouriStateBears.com, the official MSU Athletics web site. The revamped site will provide MSU fans with improved features and overall customer service. It uses the latest technology to provide fans with a seamless, robust experience unique to Missouri State University.

RETIRED NUMBERS

Bill Rowe

On Saturday, May 8, 2004, former head baseball coach and director of athletics Bill Rowe became the first person in the 48-year history of the MSU baseball program to have his number retired.

Rowe guided the baseball Bears as head coach for 19 years from the start of the program in 1964 through its final season in NCAA Division II in 1982. He led the Bears to a 394-230-1 record and four Division II College World Series appearances. Under Rowe, the Bears finished as national runners-up in 1969 and finished third nationally in 1970 (just the sixth and seventh years of the program). As athletic director, Rowe guided the Bears from Division II to Division I and saw the Bears change leagues from the MIAA and Mid-Continent Conferences to a current membership in the Missouri Valley Conference.

The retirement ceremony for Rowe's jersey was held prior to the Bears' doubleheader against Illinois State.

The indoor practice facility at Hammons Field also bears Rowe's name as of January 30, 2010.

Ryan Howard

On Dec. 18, 2010, Missouri State retired the No. 6 jersey of former Bear and 2006 National League Most Valuable Player Ryan Howard at JQH Arena.

A St. Louis native who played at Missouri State from 1999-2001, Howard finished his collegiate career with 50 home runs, 183 RBIs and a .335 career average in 172 games. He was the 1999 Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year and MSU's A.E. "Ted" Willis Most Valuable Player in 2000.

Since being drafted by Philadelphia in the fifth round of the 2001 draft, Howard has enjoyed a standout professional career. His long list of accomplishments as a member of the Phillies includes 2005 National League Rookie of the Year, 2006 NL MVP, 2006 Home Run Derby champion, 2008 World Series champion, 2009 NLCS MVP and three All-Star selections.

Howard debuted with the Phillies in 2004, accumulating a career batting average of .258 with 382 homers and 1,194 RBIs in 1,572 MLB games over 13 seasons.

KEITH GUTTIN Head Coach

36th Season
Alma mater: UMSL (1978)

One of the most successful baseball coaches in Missouri Valley Conference history, Keith Guttin began his MSU head coaching career in 1983, and has spent the past 35 seasons building the Bears into one of the top programs in the country. Under Guttin, the Bears have won 61 percent of their games, averaging 35 victories a year and racking up 11 different 40-win seasons.

Guttin, who will enter the 2018 season sixth among active Division I head coaches in career victories, has been a part of the MSU baseball program as a player, assistant coach and head coach for 40 of the program's 54 years. He took the helm of Bears baseball at the start of the 1983 season, coinciding with the move of Missouri State athletics to Division I status. He inherited the reins of the program from its only previous head baseball coach, former Missouri State Director of Athletics Bill Rowe. Guttin ultimately helped stretch MSU's string of consecutive winning seasons to 32 in a row, easily the longest of any Missouri State athletics team. His 1,241 career wins are the most recorded by any head coach in the 110-year history of Missouri State athletics, and the Bears have finished in the top half of the conference race in all but four of his 35 seasons.

During Guttin's tenure, 121 Bears have signed professional contracts, including six first-round draft picks and 17 players who have advanced to the Major Leagues. Additionally, MSU has won 17 regular-season or conference tournament championships and made 10 NCAA Division I Tournament appearances, including nine in the last two decades.

In 2003, Guttin led the Bears to the NCAA Division I College World Series for the first time in school history, marking the only trip to Omaha by a Division I team from the state of Missouri since 1965. He has been a conference coach of the year 11 times and was selected as the American Baseball Coaches Association Division I Midwest Region Coach of the Year in both 1997 and 2003.

Guttin's pupils have produced results off the diamond as well. Missouri State baseball players have been recognized on the Valley's all-academic team 62 times since the inception of the honor in 1992. Additionally, seven Bears have garnered academic All-America honors on 12 different occasions under Guttin, including three-time selection Brian Mahaffey.

Missouri State is coming off its second NCAA Super Regional appearance and MVC regular-season title in three seasons. The Bears won their first 18 Valley games en route to the title, then captured their third overall NCAA Regional crown by knocking off Arkansas in the deciding game of the Fayetteville Regional. MSU saw its storybook season come to an end at the Fort Worth Super Regional, as TCU secured a fourth straight trip to Omaha with a two-game sweep of Guttin's Bears. Consensus All-America picks Jake Burger and Jeremy Eierman led a potent Bears lineup that paved the way to a 43-20 campaign, while Valley pitcher of the year Jake Fromson led a star-studded pitching staff and garnered All-America recognition of his own.

The 2015 season will go down as one of the more memorable campaigns for Guttin, who was inducted into both the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and Springfield Area Sports Hall of Fame during the year. He also surpassed the 1,100 career victory mark early in MSU's record-setting season en route to earning his fifth MVC Coach of the Year nod. Under Guttin's guidance, the 2015 Bears set a program record with 49 victories and were ranked as high as No. 6 (Baseball America) in the nation while capturing the Valley's regular-season and postseason tournament titles. MSU went on to earn its ninth NCAA Division I postseason berth, sweeping the Springfield Regional at Hammons Field to advance to its second Super Regional appearance, where the Bears came up just one win shy of punching their ticket to the College World Series.

In 2001, Guttin led the Bears to their first-ever MVC regular-season championship and, in the process, dethroned perennial league powerhouse Wichita State. The Shockers had previously won outright or shared the Valley regular season crown in the previous 14 years, but the Bears posted a 22-10 record in 2001 and beat WSU by one game in the final league standings.

While the accomplishments of Guttin's teams on the field speak volumes about the success of his program, another dream came true in April 2004 when the Bears opened a sparkling 8,000-seat stadium just four blocks north of the Missouri State campus. The Bears finished the year ninth among NCAA Division I teams in attendance, playing only a portion of their home schedule at Hammons Field.

It was merely a coincidence that the crown jewel of the Missouri State baseball program came one year after the Bears exploded onto the national college baseball radar in the College World Series. But both events show the growth of college baseball in the Ozarks and the amount of community and administrative support the program had received in the last several years. With the continued support of the MSU community, Guttin has led the Bears' efforts in numerous charitable endeavors, including the program's annual Price Cutter Celebrity Golf Classic, proceeds from which have been committed to Champion Athletes of the Ozarks in each of the last 20 years. MSU's popular First Pitch and Reunion Night has also been a positive force for both the Bears and a variety of local charitable organizations. The preseason kickoff event has benefited entities such as the Miracle League Ball Field, Care to Learn, Boys and Girls Clubs and the Wounded Warrior Project.

The Bears have finished lower than third in the league standings just nine times since Guttin took over. Guttin directed Missouri State to six straight league titles in Mid-Continent play from 1984 through 1989. He has given MSU its first three Valley postseason tournament championships in 1996, 1997 and 2015. He was voted the MVC Coach of the Year in 1993, 2001, 2003, 2008, 2015 and 2017 and was selected the American Baseball Coaches Association Division I Midwest Region Coach of the Year in 1997 and 2003.

Guttin had two notable seasons as the Missouri State second baseman, coming from Mineral Area College. He earned MIAA all-conference honorable mention in 1977 as the Bears made their first NCAA Division II tournament appearance in seven years.

A University City native, Guttin finished his undergraduate degree at the University of Missouri-St. Louis in 1978, and earned his master's degree in 1984 at Truman State. He and his wife, Marianne, have three daughters; Lauren, Lindsey and Samantha.
