Voted Missouri Valley Conference staff of the year in 2017-18, the Missouri State University Athletics Communications staff is members of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

The 2018 Missouri State Volleyball Guide is intended to serve as a primary information source for writers, broadcasters, sports directors, sports editors, sports information directors and fans who follow the Bears volleyball team. Material in this publication is based on information available as of August 17, 2018. Weekly news releases, statistics, photographs and other materials are available to media outlets covering the Bears by contacting the Missouri State Athletics Communications Office.

The Missouri State Athletics online provides up-to-date information on Bears' volleyball and other sports through the MSU athletics page at www.MissouriStateBears.com. A free service available to anyone with internet access, the MSU web page includes rosters, schedules, results, statistics, player and coach biographies and much more. In addition to the MSU athletics page, fans can track the Bears on Facebook and Twitter by following MissouriStBears on both platforms.

Missouri Valley Conference information can be obtained through the league office in St. Louis, by accessing the MVC's web page at www.MVC-Sports.com. The MVC distributes weekly releases which include standings, statistics and notes. The MVC's office phone is (314) 421-0339 and the fax number is (314) 421-3505.

The Valley on ESPN, part of the Missouri Valley Conference's media rights agreement with ESPN, will feature the majority of home volleyball matches from all 10 MVC institutions on ESPN's streaming platforms, all accessible from the ESPN app and ESPN.com/watch. HD-quality telecasts will originate live from Hammons Student Center for all 12 MSU home matches in 2018, as well as the Bears' nine MVC road contests and the MVC Tournament, and will be streamed on the ESPN app.

Missouri State is located in Springfield, Mo., at the junction of Interstate 44 and U.S. Highways 60, 65 and 160. Springfield is served both by national and regional airlines through the Springfield-Branson National Airport, 10 miles west of the Missouri State campus. The University is in the central portion of the city, one mile west of Glenstone Avenue (I-44 Exit 80) on Grand Street.

Missouri State Athletics Communications is located in Suite 300 on the upper level of Hammons Student Center, on the corner of Bear Boulevard and John Q. Hammons Parkway. The office is open 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and the office phone is (417) 836-5402.

Media credentials are available to personnel from accredited media outlets by writing to Missouri State Athletics Communications, 901 South National, Springfield, MO 65897, by calling Ben Adamson at (417) 836-4584 or by emailing BenAdamson@MissouriState.edu. Credential requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance, and credentials will be available at least one hour before match time at the Hammons Student Center ticket office on the east side of the building.

Interview requests for student-athletes and coaches must be made through the Athletics Communications office. Availability is each day before practice, after matches, or phone arrangements made through the Athletics Communications office.

Media services include notes, a match program and a complete NCAA boxscore after each Bears home match. Phone lines are available by contacting the Athletics Communications office.

Melissa Stokes

Entering her 23rd season as head coach at Missouri State in 2018, Melissa Stokes has posted a 492-228 record (a .683 winning percentage) and is the Missouri Valley Conference's all-time winningest coach in league matches with 289 MVC victories.

Stokes set the MVC wins record at Bradley on Sept. 30, 2011, to kick off an historic two-week stretch that included her 200th MVC win on Oct. 14 and her 350th overall victory the next night. She added her 400th career victory against Miami (Fla.) on Sept. 13, 2014, becoming the 46th active head coach to reach that milestone, and joining just three other active coaches to have 400 wins in less than 20 full seasons of experience at the time.

A member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame Class of 2017, Stokes has taken Missouri State to 10 NCAA Tournaments during her tenure, all in the last 15 seasons, and the Bears have finished at least second in either the MVC regular season or tournament in 13 of the last 17 seasons.

Missouri State has won at least 20 matches in 18 of the last 19 seasons, helping Stokes to her No. 3 ranking in total victories in MVC history. In total, Stokes has mentored seven All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 64 MVC Scholar-Athletes, 79 all-MVC selections and 59 MVC Players of the week.

MSU's best season under Stokes came in 2017, culminating in a No. 25 national ranking in the AVCA Coaches poll for three weeks in November, a final 28-6 record, and an unbeaten run to MVC regular season and tournament championships. The Bears ended the year with winning streaks of 34 consecutive MVC matches, 22 straight road wins, and 20 Valley road wins in a row, all while going on a 21-match overall winning streak that ended in the NCAA Tournament.

Stokes made it two consecutive seasons as the MVC and AVCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year, while Lily Johnson earned third-team All-American honors from the AVCA, and Emily Butters joined her as an honorable mention choice to give MSU multiple All-Americans for the second time in school history. Missouri State was the only school in the nation with multiple Academic All-Americans, with Johnson earning CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year laurels and Brianne Dixon picking up a third-team nod. All told, Johnson, Butters, Lynsey Wright, Aubrey Cheffey and Daniele Messa earned all-MVC honors. Johnson, Butters and Wright gave MSU an unprecedented three AVCA All-Region selections, while Butters, Dixon and Johnson made the MVC Scholar-Athlete team.

Did you know???

Stokes leads all Missouri Valley Conference coaches in wins at his/her current school. Stokes has 492 wins at Missouri State and Bobbi Petersen is second with 461 wins at UNI.

The Bears had a season for the ages in 2016, going on a remarkable 17-match winning streak late in the year on the way to a 26-9 overall record and NCAA Tournament berth. After an 0-2 conference start, Missouri State won its next 16 league matches to claim the school's fourth regular-season MVC title. The Bears won their 17th match in a row with an MVC Tournament semifinal victory over Illinois State before falling in the championship match exactly two months to the day since their previous loss.

Stokes was honored as the MVC and AVCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year, leading a host of Bears who were awarded on a conference and national level. Lily Johnson picked up honorable mention All-America laurels from the AVCA for a third consecutive season, and was a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American while earning MVC Player of the Year honors for the second straight year. Daniele Messa was the MVC Freshman of the Year and a first-team all-conference pick after ranking 15th nationally in total assists, while Simone House and Lynsey Wright also earned all-MVC accolades and Emily Butters, Brianne Dixon and Johnson were MVC Scholar-Athlete selections.

Year 20 under Stokes continued MSU's run of excellence as the Bears went 24-11 overall and earned an at-large NCAA Tournament spot with a final RPI ranking of 35. Missouri State finished 13-5 in MVC play and advanced to the league tournament title match in what was a banner year for The Valley as four teams qualified for the Big Dance.

The 2015 season included plenty of individual honors as well, as Kinsey Batten and Lily Johnson became the first MSU teammates to earn All-America honors in the same season as honorable mention picks by the AVCA. Batten earned MVC Setter of the Year honors and led the nation with 1,522 assists, while Johnson was voted the league's Player of the Year as the first MSU player to earn All-America honors multiple times in a career after ranking third nationally in kills and fourth in points. In all, seven different Bears were recognized by the MVC during the season with either a weekly or postseason award.

Honors continued to roll in well into the offseason as Johnson, Emily Butters and Lynsey Wright each participated in the U.S. Women's National Team Open Tryouts and earned spots competing for the Collegiate National Team in the summer of 2016.

The 2014 season was highlighted by a pair of first-team all-conference outside hitters in Olivia Brand and Lily Johnson, with Johnson becoming the program's sixth All-American, and first freshman to do so, as an honorable mention AVCA choice.

MSU hit the 20-win mark again in 2013, finishing the season 21-11 while ranking 51st or better in the NCAA in assists, digs and kills per set. Senior setter Carly Thomas also became the program's fifth All-American, earning honorable mention honors for the AVCA.

The 2011 Bears went 22-9 and placed second in the MVC with a 15-3 league mark to earn an NCAA at-large selection. Missouri State lost at Pepperdine in the first round, and finished the season 26th nationally in kills per set while also recording more digs than the opposition in all but two matches.

Senior Calli Norman finished her career as the third player in MVC history to earn first-team all-MVC recognition four times, while Carly Thomas led the MVC in assists as an AVCA all-Region choice.

The Bears made a return to the NCAA Tournament in 2010, going 21-10 overall and 12-6 in perhaps the toughest MVC field ever. Missouri State received an at-large selection as the league tied its 2007 record of four NCAA berths as a conference.

Junior Kelley Michnowicz became the third All-American under Stokes, earning honorable mention laurels from the AVCA, while Calli Norman became one of the few players in MVC history to earn first-team all-conference honors her first three seasons.

MSU made it four straight NCAA appearances in 2008 after finishing 23-13 overall and winning the State Farm MVC Tournament with victories over Illinois State, unbeaten and ninth-ranked Wichita State, and UNI in the final. The Bears' five-set win over the host Shockers was the first loss of the year for WSU after it cruised through the regular season at 29-0.

The 2007 Bears went 25-8 and tied for second in the league with a 14-4 MVC mark on the way to another NCAA berth. It was a banner year for the MVC as a record four teams earned invitations to the NCAA Tournament.

Stokes guided Missouri State to new heights in 2006, as the Bears earned the first NCAA Tournament win in school history with a 3-1 first-round victory at Arkansas. MSU ended the year 27-9, achieving 27 victories for the third time in Stokes' tenure. Missouri State reached another milestone in November, becoming the second program in NCAA Division I history to win 1,000 matches with a home sweep of Indiana State. The Bears reached the MVC Tournament championship match for the fifth time in the last six seasons, and placed three student-athletes on both the all-conference and MVC Scholar-Athlete team.

Stokes had one of her strongest teams in 2005, placing all four seniors on the All-Missouri Valley Conference teams and taking the Bears to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in her tenure and the fifth in school history. The Bears posted a 24-9 overall record and placed second in the league during the regular season with a 15-3 record. The Bears made the MVC Tournament championship match and won the title by sweeping regular-season champion Wichita State. The Bears also had success in the classroom, with all four seniors posting a 4.0 grade-point average in both semesters and the team posting a 3.51 cumulative grade point average.

In 2004, Stokes did one of her best coaching jobs, taking a team with only two returning starters and making it a force in the Valley. The Bears rolled into the championship match of the State Farm MVC Tournament and took regular-season champion Wichita State to five sets on the Shockers' home floor. The loss meant the Bears narrowly missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, but they finished with a 23-10 overall record and tied for second in the Valley regular-season race.

In 2003, the Bears claimed their first outright MVC title in 20 years and Missouri State advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time under Stokes. The Bears spent four weeks ranked in the AVCA/USA Today Top 25 poll and Stokes was the MVC Coach of the Year for the first time in her tenure at MSU.

Additionally, Linette White became the first Missouri State player to earn All-America accolades from the American Volleyball Coaches Association.

The Bears finished second in the Valley standings each of the previous two seasons (2001 and 2002) with 15 league wins each year. Prior to that, the Bears moved up the Valley standings every year (fourth in 1999, third in 2000 and second in 2001).

Missouri State won at least 21 matches each year from 1999-2011, going 308-119 overall (.721 winning percentage) and 180-54 in Valley matches (.769) during that stretch. At home, the Bears went 160-33 (.829) over that same span.

In 2001, Stokes led Missouri State to 15 MVC wins against three league losses and the Bears' second-place finish in The Valley was the best finish since 1993. Missouri State also advanced to the Valley tournament title match for the first time since 1993 and was ranked as high as seventh in the Central Region.

The Bears were 27-7 and 14-4 in The Valley in 2000. Missouri State was third in the Valley's final regular season standings and the 27 victories were the most for a Missouri State team since the 1982 season.

A native of El Cajon, Calif., Stokes took over at Missouri State in 1996 and promptly led her first squad to a 20-win season as the Bears went 20-11 in what was her first season as a college head coach. The 20 wins and tie for third at the MVC Tournament marked the program's best efforts since 1993.

The 1997 squad was an offensive powerhouse, leading the conference and ranking sixth in the nation with a 17.52 kills per set average, a new school record. Missouri State's Michelle Witzke (5.70) and Joleen Meservy (4.88) ranked one-two in the league in kills and both were among the nation's top 20. The Bears also ranked second in The Valley in digs per set.

The 1999 Bears finished with a 22-12 record overall, a fourth place finish in the Valley and a berth in the conference postseason tournament. The 22 victories were the most since the 1993 club went 22-8, and the 11 league wins marked the sixth time Missouri State had won 10 or more league matches since joining the MVC in 1992.

A 1991 graduate of San Diego State University, Stokes came to Missouri State after four years as an assistant coach at the University of Idaho. At Idaho, she worked under head coach Tom Hilbert and served as the Vandals' recruiting coordinator. Stokes helped put together teams that won four straight Big Sky Conference championships, earned four NCAA Tournament berths and went 103-21 (.831) during her stay in Moscow.

In 1995, Idaho went 28-5 and was nationally ranked for six weeks, finishing 21st in the final poll after losing in the NCAA first round. In 1994, the Vandals were ranked for 10 straight weeks during a 31-3 season and ended up 19th after getting to the NCAA second round for the second year in a row. Idaho was 24-6 in 1993 and 24-7 in 1992.

Stokes served a stint as head coach of the Idaho men's varsity volleyball club team and coached the Missouri State men's club team in the spring of 1997.

Before going to Idaho, Stokes coached high school volleyball in California and won four of a possible five conference titles while serving as the head girls coach at San Pasqual High in Escondido during the fall of 1990 and

Power Five Wins Under Stokes

The Bears have won 26 matches against schools from current Power Five football conferences since Stokes became head coach. MSU has defeated Arkansas four times, the most of any such school, while adding wins against Miami (Fla.) (twice), Ohio State (twice), and North Carolina State (twice), along with single victories versus Boston College, Florida State, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Iowa State, Kentucky, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Northwestern, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oregon State, Pittsburgh, Syracuse, Texas A&M and Utah.

Stokes has guided the Bears to nine wins against the Atlantic Coast Conference (seven different schools), seven against the SEC, six versus the Big Ten, and two each against the Pac 12 and Big 12.

Did you know???

In 1996, Melissa Stokes was the first MVC/Gateway rookie coach to win 20 (20-11) matches since 1983, when Eastern Illinois posted a 26-10 mark under first-year coach Betty Ralston. Stokes is the only current Valley coach who won 20 matches in her first season.

1991 and as the boys' coach at St. Augustine High in San Diego during the spring from 1990 to 1992. She also served from 1988 to 1992 as a head coach in the San Diego Volleyball Club, training boys and girls aged 14 to 18 for regional and national competition.

As a setter at SDSU, Stokes helped the Aztecs to two NCAA Tournament appearances. She finished her career ranked fourth on the school's career assists list with 2,239 and was seventh on the all-time single season charts with 1,108 in 1987. In 1986, SDSU was ranked first in the nation for six weeks en route to a 37-9 final record.

Prior to attending SDSU, Stokes was a multi-sport standout at Granite Hills High School, where she was inducted into the Athletics Hall of Fame in May 2009.

Stokes, who won USVBA All-America honors in 1986, competed from 1990 to 1997 in the California Beach Volleyball Association. A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Stokes received her Master of Science degree in sports and recreation management from Idaho in 1995.

Since taking over at Missouri State, Stokes has served on numerous committees with the AVCA. She has been a voter on the AVCA top 25 poll since 2005 while also voting in 1998, and has been on the AVCA all-regional and regional coach of the year committee. In 2001, 2002 and 2003, Stokes was also a member of the AVCA regional coaches poll committee, and has held a spot on the Regional Advisory Committee since 2007.

Also very active in the Springfield community, Stokes was named the 2001 Big Sister of the Year by Big Brothers/Big Sisters of the Ozarks. In 2006, Stokes spent nearly a month on a mission in Thailand, working at a children's home, teaching English and serving meals, among other things, to Thai youth.

Adam Rollman

Adam Rollman joined the MSU staff on a full-time basis in February 2018 after serving as a volunteer assistant in 2017. During his first season with the program, Rollman's duties included utilizing DataVolley software, film and statistical break down for both Missouri State and opponents, maintaining team video equipment and coordinating match-day film setup, creating and aiding in MSU player and opponent scouting videos, and assisting with other day-to-day duties of the program.

Rollman has accumulated extensive coaching experience since graduating from the University of Nebraska in 2012, most recently serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Central Michigan for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. He worked primarily with the Chippewas' outside hitters and defensive specialists, helping the program to its highest conference win total in three years in 2015.

The Norfolk, Neb., native spent the 2014 season as an assistant coach at Jacksonville University, aiding the Dolphins to the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament title and an NCAA Tournament appearance.

Rollman has also served as a volunteer assistant at Creighton, Iowa, and Nebraska Wesleyan, and was a student manager for the Nebraska volleyball team during his time as an undergrad.

He was a four-year starter as an outside and opposite hitter for the men's club team at Nebraska, serving as the club president his senior year and helping the team to top-10 national finishes in each of his four seasons. His resume also includes numerous coaching stops with clubs and summer camps.

Sara Thomas-Dietrich

Sara Thomas-Dietrich returned to her alma mater as an assistant coach in February 2018.

No stranger to coaching success, Thomas-Dietrich spent seven seasons from 2011-2017 as the head coach of her high school alma mater, Althoff Catholic High School in Belleville, Ill., culminating with an Illinois Class 3A state title and 41-1 record in 2017.

Thomas-Dietrich coached 10 players that went on to play college volleyball, five all-state selections, three conference players of the year, numerous all-conference selections, and twice earned coach of the year honors from the Belleville News-Democrat.

In addition to her coaching duties, Thomas-Dietrich worked in private business in the areas of sales and marketing, event coordination and customer experience.

During her playing career, the former Sara Thomas helped the Bears to three NCAA Tournaments, including a trip to the second round in 2006, and won Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the year honors as a senior in 2007. Also a first-team all-MVC pick that season, she averaged 3.20 kills on .279 hitting, 3.45 digs and 1.23 blocks per set, finished her career with 797 kills, 1,117 digs, 316 blocks and 288 assists in 131 matches.

Thomas-Dietrich graduated from MSU with a Hospitality & Restaurant Administration degree in 2009. She and her husband Brad have two daughters, Emma and Charlotte.

Missouri State

Former MSU standout Karen Rivatto joined the Bears' staff in June 2015 as a graduate assistant, and has since transitioned to Director of Operations, which became a full-time position in February 2018. In her role, Rivatto handles myriad duties, including team travel, alumni relations, video, statistical analysis, practice, camps, and other administrative tasks.

Originally from Porto Alegre, Brazil, Rivatto was an outside hitter for Missouri State from 2011-2013, after beginning her college career at Northeastern Junior College in Sterling, Colo.

At MSU, Rivatto led the Bears with 290 kills and a 3.02 per set average in 2011 as a second-team all-MVC selection, recording 12 double-doubles on the season as MSU advanced to the NCAA Tournament. After missing the 2012 campaign with an injury, she returned to the lineup and posted 3.01 kills per set for the 21-11 Bears in 2013, helping the team to a 12-6 MVC record thanks to an eight-match winning streak late in the season.

Rivatto earned her bachelor's degree in Hospitality & Restaurant Administration from Missouri State in May 2014, and earned her Master's in Administrative Studies – Producing and Screenwriting, in December 2016.

MSU Volleyball Assistants

Adam Rollman and Sara Thomas-Dietrich are the 28th and 29th individuals to serve as either associate head coaches, assistant coaches, graduate assistants or directors of operations in the Missouri State volleyball program since the 1979 season.

Missouri State Summer Volleyball Camps

The Missouri State Summer Volleyball Camps saw nearly 900 participants in 2018. Players ranged from sixth-grade beginners to seasoned veterans. Nearly all skill levels are taught by the variety of camps offered, which cover techniques in a fun and progressive manner.

The Missouri State Volleyball Camps boast some of the best facilities in the area. All on-campus camps are housed in air-conditioned Hammons Student Center. The training room is located in the same facility with a certified athletic trainer. Players who stay on campus are housed in air-conditioned Missouri State dorms and eat all their meals in the cafeterias.

The Missouri State Volleyball Camps are under the direction of Missouri State Volleyball head coach Melissa Stokes and her assistants. The remainder of the staff is filled with additional collegiate coaches, Missouri State players and some of the area's top high school and club coaches. The camps listed are available most summers.

Young Players Camp gives elementary and junior high athletes the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of volleyball.

Specialty Position Camps give campers personal one-on-one attention for individuals serious about taking their game to the next level.

High School Camp further develops the players' foundations and allows for much more competition.

Elite Camp allows high level players with aspirations of playing collegiate volleyball to compete against talented regional competition.

Varsity and Junior Varsity Team Camps bring in high school programs from across the Midwest to practice and compete in order to prepare for the fall season.

Traveling Camps give schools the opportunity to host a camp under the direction of a Missouri State coach.

Bears Sweep MVC Titles in Historic Season

MSU sails through Valley schedule without a loss in year of superlatives

After recording one of the best seasons in school history in 2016, the Missouri State volleyball team faced lofty expectations to raise the bar even higher in 2017.

The Bears passed with flying colors.

Missouri State posted 28 wins (the program's most in 35 years), spent three weeks ranked in the AVCA Top 25, and completed a perfect run through the Missouri Valley Conference regular season a tournament schedule, just to name a few of the squad's numerous accomplishments.

HIGH-LEVEL NON-CON

Missouri State played its usual tough non-conference schedule, opening the season in North Carolina. The Bears won their debut in five sets at Appalachian State, the first of what turned into a 13-0 road record that would extend their winning streak to an NCAA-high 22 consecutive road victories by season's end.

MSU spent the next day in Raleigh, dropping a 3-1 decision to eighth-ranked Kansas before claiming a 3-2 win over a North Carolina State team that advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Bears traveled to Ohio State to begin September, topping the 20th-ranked Buckeyes in four sets in the tournament opener, then dropping a tough five-setter to Lipscomb before closing with a sweep of Oakland.

Missouri State's cross-country tour continued in California on Sept. 8 and 9 with a 3-1 loss to No. 8 Washington followed by wins over Wyoming and Pepperdine.

The long-awaited home opener resulted in a Sept. 14 sweep of Chattanooga, and the Bears suffered a pair of heart-breaking 3-2 losses over the following two days to Washington State and Illinois before closing the non-league schedule with a 3-0 win over Tennessee State for an 8-5 record. Lily Johnson broke MSU's career kills record in the Illinois match.

MVC PERFECTION

Johnson continued her record-breaking ways in the MVC opener - taking over the league's career kills lead - in the Bears' five-set win at Illinois State, and MSU made it a 2-0 start the next night with a 3-1 win at Bradley.

The Bears wrapped up the month of September with home sweeps of Loyola, Indiana State and Evansville, and opened October with another straight-set win, this time on the road at Southern Illinois.

Lynsey Wright finished her MSU career ranked eighth in school history in kills (1,346) and hitting percentage (.297)

MSU's Oct. 13 win at Drake produced several school records, including 153 team digs and 266 attacks. Additionally, Emily Butters (44), Johnson (32) and Daniele Messa (29) became the first MSU trio with at least 25 digs in a match, with Butters' total ranking fifth in MVC history and Messa's setting an MSU mark for digs by a setter.

The Bears followed that marathon with a 3-1 win at No. 20 UNI a day later for Missouri State's second top-20 road win of the year.

Missouri State hit the midpoint of the league schedule with an Oct. 20 five-set win over Bradley at home, and beat Illinois State 3-1 the next evening to improve to 10-0 in the league.

Road sweeps of Evansville and In-

Lily Johnson set numerous school records as Missouri State's first four-time All-American diana State followed before a 3-1 home win over Valparaiso put the finishing touches and an unbeaten October for the second straight season.

The Bears swept Southern Illinois on Nov. 4 to set up an exciting home weekend, beginning with a showdown with UNI on Nov. 11.

Missouri State swept the Panthers to claim a share of the MVC title, and clinched the league outright a day later with a sweep of Drake in front of more than 2,000 fans at Hammons Student Center.

Championship in hand, the Bears hit the road in search of a perfect MVC mark to close the regular season, sweeping Valpo and then taking a four-set win at Loyola on Nov. 18 for the program's first 18-0 Valley record and 34th straight regular-season MVC win.

FINISHING THE JOB

After suffering back-to-back MVC Tournament title match losses in 2015 and 2016, the Bears went to Normal, Ill., on a mission, opening with a sweep of Indiana State in the semifinal round.

That set up a final round match-up with UNI, and the Bears delivered with a dominant 3-0 win - their 21st straight victory - behind tournament MVP Johnson's 18 kills and 14 digs.

Brianne Dixon was the MVC Elite 17 winner each of her last three years

TOUGH NCAA DRAW

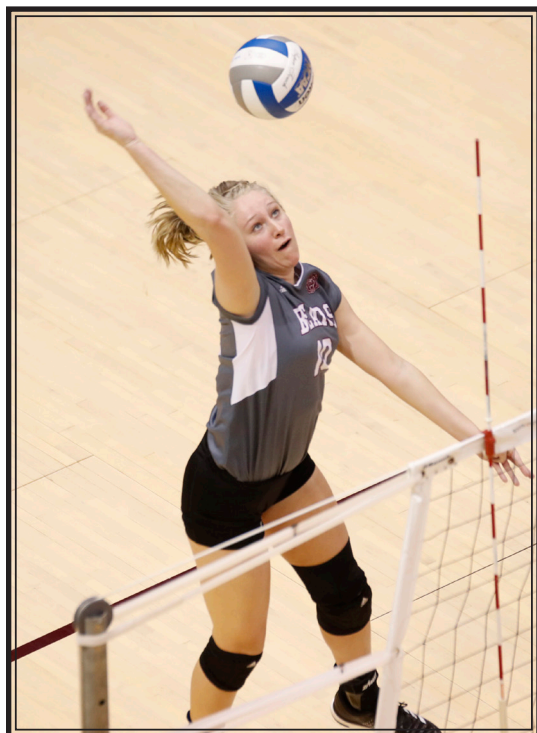

The Bears' 10th NCAA Tournament trip in the last 15 seasons saw them sent to the lone regional with three teams ranked in the AVCA Top 25, with 15th-ranked Creighton serving as the host and a match-up with No. 12 Michigan State in the first round.

The Spartans handed the 25th-ranked Bears a 3-0 loss in the opener, prematurely ending the season for a club with the tools to advance further in the Big Dance.

UPDATES TO THE RECORD BOOK

Johnson wrapped up her career with MSU and MVC records for (2,293), attacks (6,610), and matches with at least 10 kills (123). Her attack total ranks second in NCAA history, while she closed her career ranked 19th in kills and third with 519 consecutive sets played. She is one of 10 players in NCAA history with at least 2,200 kills and 1,500 digs.

Johnson also became the first player to lead in MVC in kills for four straight seasons, and pulled down a league-record 15 conference player of the week awards.

Aubrey Cheffey was a first-team all-MVC selection

Additionally, Johnson finished her career with a record 47 matches with at least 20 kills, and ranks second in kill average (4.42), third in aces (165), third in sets played (519), and fourth in digs (1,615).

Wright wrapped her time at MSU ranked eight in career kills (1,346) and attack percentage (.297).

Butters set single-season school records for digs (737) and average (5.80), closing the season with 1,883 career digs, 30 shy of Cara Hackmann's school record.

Messa moved into the top 10 in career assists by season's end, more than halfway to the No. 2 spot after two seasons.

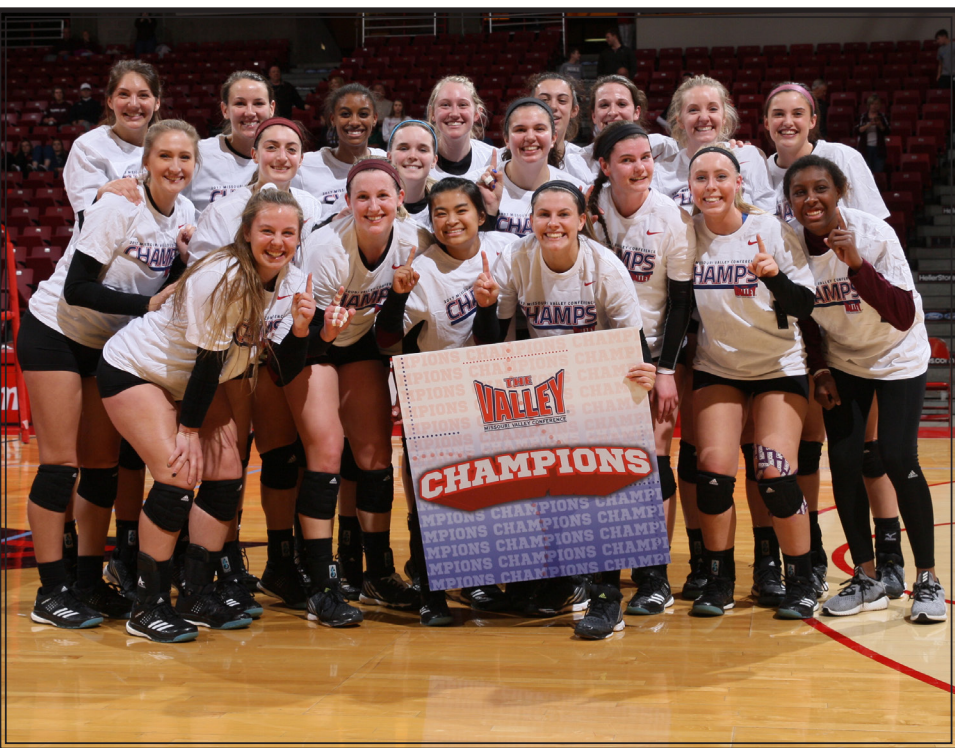

STOKES CONTINUES TO WIN

Melissa Stokes completed her 22nd season at MSU with a 492-228 record. She ranks third all-time in victories among MVC coaches, and first in conference wins with 289.

It was the 19th consecutive year that the Bears finished above .500 both overall and in Missouri Valley Conference play, while the Bears have won at least 20 matches in 18 of the last 19 seasons.

Emily Butters set the MSU single-season digs record with 737 on the way to AVCA All-America honors

The Bears swept the MVC regular season and tournament titles

Missouri State NCAA History

The Bears have appeared in the NCAA Tournament 13 times. The Bears earned an at-large berth in 1982 and lost in four sets at Texas in the first round. In 1990, Missouri State won the Gateway automatic bid and fell in three games at Hawaii. In 1993, the Bears collected the MVC automatic berth and lost in three games to Illinois. In 2003, the Bears returned to the Tournament but lost in four to Arkansas at Manhattan, Kan. In 2005, the Bears won the MVC Tournament to clinch the automatic berth, falling at Missouri in the first round. In 2006, the Bears broke through with the program's first NCAA win, defeating Arkansas 3-1 in the first round before falling 3-0 to Oklahoma. MSU made it three in a row in 2007, losing to Oregon in the first round as one of a record four MVC teams included in the field. In 2008, Missouri State fell to UAB in the first round, while the Bears fell to another Alabama school, Auburn, in 2010 as the MVC matched its 2007 record of four bids. The Bears fell to 15th-seeded Pepperdine in the 2011 first round, and lost to Missouri in 2015 in yet another four-bid year for the league. The Bears fell to Big Ten foes Ohio State in 2016 and Michigan State in 2017. The current MVC membership has a 19-48 mark in NCAA volleyball competition through the 2017 tournament. The all-time Missouri State results in the NCAA:

Notes: Missouri State began keeping stats for volleyball in 1979; career records for players who competed prior to 1979 are incomplete. Season statistics from 1979 and 1981 are incomplete, and assists were not kept until after 1982. Career percentage leaders must have played in at least 200 sets and season percentage leaders need at least 300 serve or attack attempts.

Collegiate volleyball used side-out scoring and 15-point sets through the 2000 season, used rally scoring to 30 points from 2001-07, and changed to 25-point sets with rally scoring in 2008.

Missouri State First Team All-Conference Selections

Maureen Manda

1983 (MVP), 1984
A two-time all-Gateway pick, Manda was the league's MVP in the 1983 season. "Mo" established the Missouri State season record for kills in 1982 as she smashed 510 spikes in 172 sets. Manda was Missouri State's Senior Scholar Athlete in 1984-85.

Mary Beck

1983, 1984
Beck received all-conference honors in 1983 and 1984 after collecting all-tourney honors at the first Gateway meet in 1982. Beck holds the school record for sets played in a career (577) and for service aces in a career (198) and in a single season (91 in 1982).

Kathy Crotty

1985, 1986 (MVP)
Crotty earned league MVP honors in 1986 and was an all-Gateway first team selection in both 1985 and 1986. Crotty set several Missouri State records, including career marks for kills (1,570) and digs (1,133). She was a member of the AVCA's 1986 All-Midwest squad.

Mindy Struckhoff

1987, 1988 (MVP)
One of the finest blockers to play at Missouri State, Struckhoff led the Gateway in blocking four straight years. She was a first-team all-Gateway pick in 1987 and 1988, collecting league MVP honors her senior year. Struckhoff won second-team all-league honors in 1986.

Susan Ruch

A versatile performer, Ruch earned first-team all-Gateway honors in 1988 and 1989 after making the second team as a sophomore. In 1989 Ruch set a school record with 490 digs and closed her stay at Missouri State as the career leader in assists (2,043) and digs (1,583).

Amy Ziegler

An outside hitter, Ziegler was a first-team all-Gateway pick as a senior in 1990, when she led Missouri State with 383 kills and a .253 hitting mark. Ziegler also became the first person ever to earn Gateway Conference Player of the Week honors in back-to-back weeks.

Janene McDaniel

McDaniel was an all-Gateway first team choice as a senior in 1991 after earning honorable mention in 1990. She paced the club with 347 kills, a .234 hitting mark, 31 aces and 170 blocks in 1991 and ended up fifth in career blocks (459) and blocks per set (1.28).

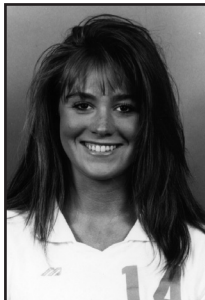

Kim Flieg

An all-Gateway first team pick as a junior, Flieg was named to the first all-Missouri Valley Conference team as a senior. Flieg, the first Bear to record two 1,000-assist years, ranks seventh in career assists (2,432).

Kris Oglesby-Agee

An honorable mention all-MVC pick as a junior, Oglesby-Agee was a first team choice as a senior after leading the team with 379 kills and adding 387 digs. Her 3.68 kills a set as a senior ranked sixth in school history at the time, and she is 14th in career digs with 1,037.

Amy Russell

Russell collected all-MVC first team honors as a senior after making the second team as a junior. Russell led the team in blocks and twice won league Player of the Week honors as a senior, and she became the eighth Bear to register 1,000 career kills (1,003).

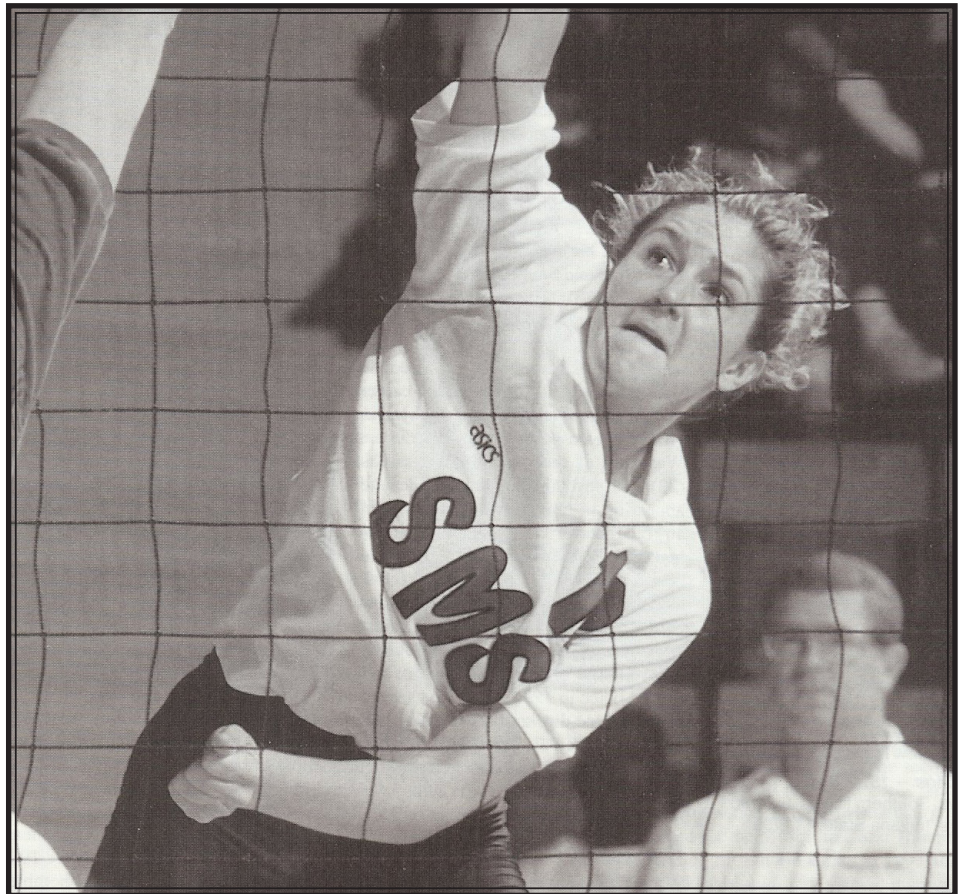

Vanessa Wouters

Wouters became the first Missouri State freshman to receive first-team all-conference honors in 1994, when she also was named the MVC's Freshman of the Year. The Belgian ranked second in the league with 3.89 kills per set and led the Bears with a .272 hitting percentage.

Michelle Witzke

After two years on the second team, Witzke earned first team honors as a senior, when she set conference records for kills in a season (667) and career (1,919). She was third in the nation in kills per set (5.70) and was a second-team GTE Academic All-American.

Michelle Witzke (1994-97)

Missouri State First Team All-Conference Selections

Amanda Omar

Omar earned first-team honors as a senior after garnering second-team accolades as a junior. In 1999, the two-year star led the team with a 3.88 kills per set average, which ranked sixth in the Valley and eighth on the Missouri State all-time single season list.

Rese McNatt

2000, 2001
McNatt was named to the all-MVC first team as a junior. A two-year starter, McNatt paced the Bears with 390 kills, averaging a team-best 3.31 kills per set average. McNatt ranks. Her 390 kills stands as the 21st best effort in Missouri State history.

Linette White

2001, 2002, 2003 (MVP)
The Bears' first three-time first-team all-MVC pick, White was also the first MSU athlete to earn AVCA all-America honors with a third-team selection in 2003. She finished her career with MSU and MVC records for hitting percentage in a season and career.

Erin Murphy

Murphy was one of the top players in the MVC in each of her four seasons. She was the second player in school history to record over 1,200 kills and over 1,200 digs. She finished her Missouri State career ranked third in digs all-time and fifth in kills.

Casey Young

Young joined White to give the Bears one of the top middle blocking tandems in the Valley in both 2001 and 2002. In 2002, she ranked fifth in the league in attack percentage (.334) and in blocks per set (1.23). She finished her MSU career ranked seventh in school history in total blocks.

Chenille Bayless

2000, 2001, 2002, 2003
A four-time all-MVC pick, Bayless earned first team honors in her final season at Missouri State. During her career as the Bears' four-year starting setter, Bayless set a Missouri State record with 5,431 assists which also put her third in MVC history.

Sabrina Apker

2004, 2005
Apker was an honorable mention AVCA All-American in 2004. She finished her career ranked second all-time in hitting percentage at .338, and holds the school record for career blocks per set with 1.57. She ranked sixth in the NCAA in blocks per set with 1.72 as a senior.

Missouri State Volleyball Attendance

Year By Year Attendance

With an average home crowd of over 800 per match over the past 23 seasons, Missouri State ranks as one of the nation's top college volleyball attractions. The Bears' home attendance total has eclipsed 8,000 in 24 of the last 27 years and has been over 10,000 in 12 of the last 15.

The Bears set a new standard for attendance in 2005 when Missouri State drew 19,199 fans in 17 home dates for a 1,129 average. The average beat the previous best set in 2002. That season Missouri State had a home total of 15,690 and an average of 1,121. The 2005 total attendance eclipsed the 2003 total and is now the new record for total crowd in a season. Missouri State set new attendance records for home season total and per match average five years in a row from 1989 to 1993, and its home average more than tripled during that stretch, going from 355 in 1988 to 1,102 in 1993. The Missouri State home attendance figures for the past 34 years, including each season's top crowd:

Year by Year at Home

The Missouri State volleyball team has compiled an impressive 450-126-2 (.780) record at home since moving to Hammons Student Center in 1976. The Bears have 40 winning seasons in 42 years in the 8,846-seat facility.

Missouri State had a 14-0 home mark in 1988 to close a school-record 15-match home win streak, and the Bears were unbeaten at home in 1976 with a 10-0-2 mark. Missouri State has also had eight seasons in which it lost just once at home, including 1981, when the Bears won a record 16 home matches. In 2003, the Bears' completed a Missouri State record-tying 15-match home winning streak. The Bears in HSC:

MSU Regular Season Tournaments

The 2018 Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Invitational features four teams and six matches over two days this season. The Bears' annual in-season tournament plays host to Ball State, Grambling State and Oral Roberts on Aug. 31 and Sept. 1

The Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Invitational, formerly known as the Missouri State September Classic and Missouri State Bear Challenge, was renamed in honor of Dr. Mary Jo Wynn, who dedicated more than four decades of service to the university as a teacher, coach and administrator.

Dr. Wynn organized women's athletics competition in 1958 with volleyball and tennis teams, and coached the volleyball Bears through the 1971 season, guiding the 1969 team to ninth in the first AIAW championship. She retired from her post as Missouri State senior associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator on July 1, 1998.

The Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Invitational has been played since 1985 with no tournaments in 1993, 1995 & 1996.

Missouri State Fall Invitational

Until recent years, the Bears hosted a pair of in-season tournaments – the September Classic (later named the Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Invitational) and the Autumn Classic (later named the Missouri State Fall Invitational). From 1993 to 1996, Missouri State had just one in-season tournament – the 1994 September Classic.

John Q. Hammons Student Center

The Missouri State Bear volleyball team plays its home matches in spacious John Q. Hammons Student Center, the home of Missouri State volleyball since the start of the 1976-77 school year.

One of the largest indoor facilities in southwest Missouri, Hammons has a main arena seating capacity of 8,846. There are 4,646 permanent seats and folding bleacher units on the north and south ends each seat 2,100 fans.

Hammons Student Center was constructed at a cost of $5.5 million and was named for Springfield business executive and former Missouri State student John Q. Hammons, who donated a gift of one million dollars to the project.

The facility grew out of a lengthy project begun by Missouri State students in the early 1970s, with actual construction beginning in January of 1975. The structure, completed in the late summer of 1976, is located on the northwest edge of the Missouri State campus. The land for the building was made available to the University in 1972 by the Springfield Land Clearance for Redevelopment Authority.

An additional $326,000 of the total cost came in a grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the facility's eight-lane swimming pool. Parking is located south of the building.

The court in the main arena, two more full-size courts in the east and west gyms under the side seats, and two smaller courts under the bleacher units on the north and south ends are marked for basketball, volleyball and tennis. In 1985, Missouri State acquired a hardwood floor, which is laid over the permanent floor for volleyball and basketball competition.

The office space in women's athletics was doubled in the fall of 1993, and the volleyball locker room was remodeled following the 2005 season, thanks to lead gifts by Chip McGeehan of Marshfield. Several others have made significant gifts to benefit the locker room projects, including Jim and Joan Cologna.

The Missouri State volleyball and softball teams had shared a locker room since the opening of Hammons Student Center in 1976 and each now has its own space with the completion of the two projects. The new locker rooms each include 20 wooden lockers, a team meeting area, a trophy case, sinks, toilets and individual showers.

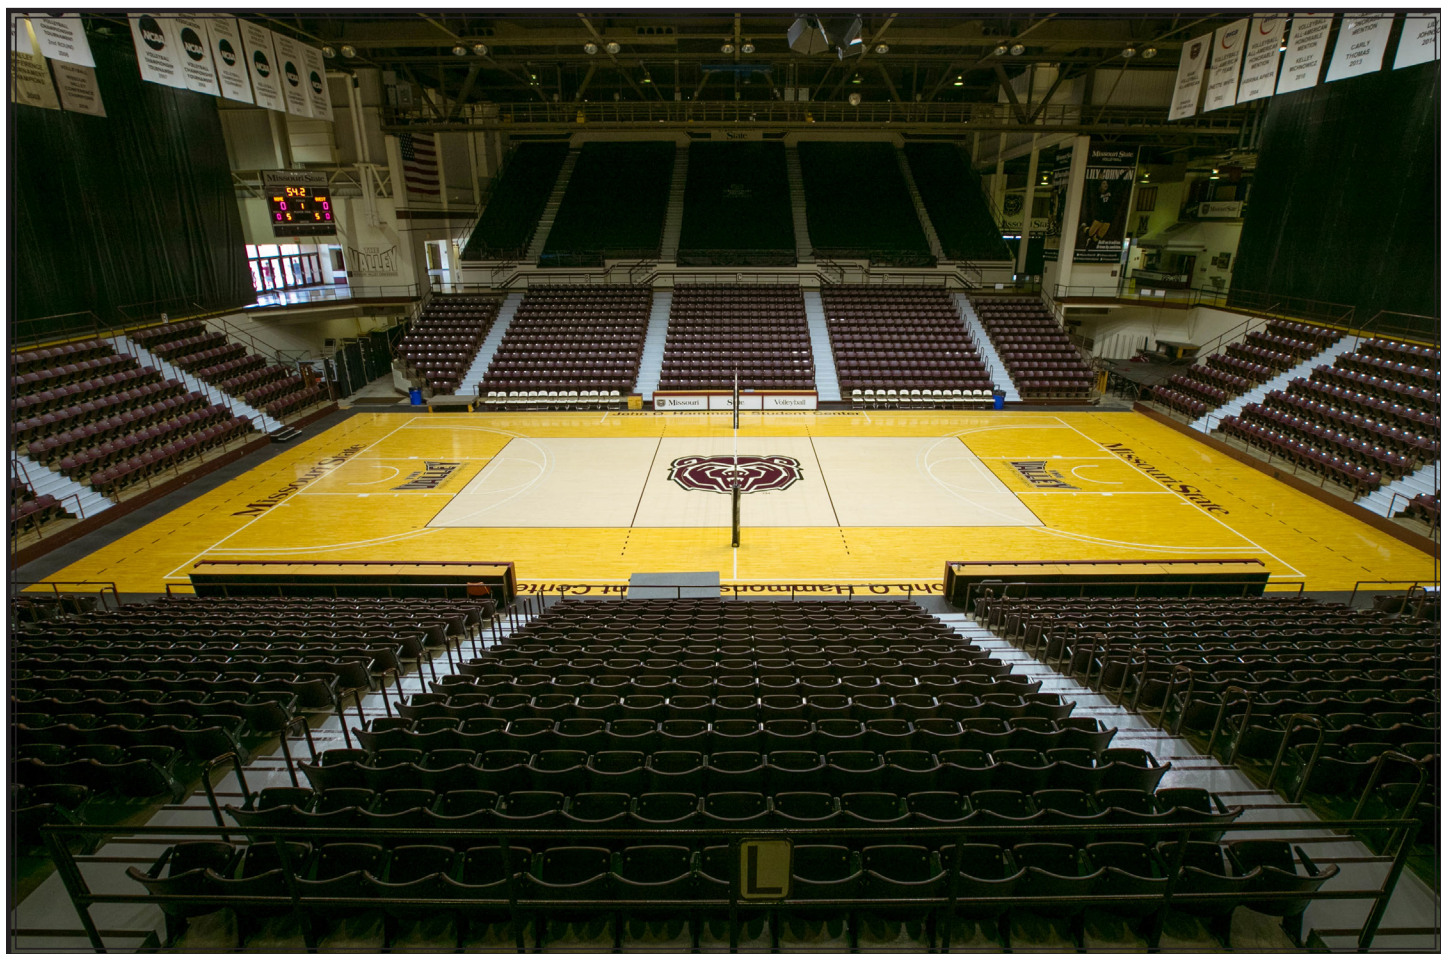

The Colognas are longtime supporters of Missouri State volleyball and pledged a significant gift toward the volleyball locker room. The trophy case is named in their honor.

In 2016, a campaign to replace the more than 2,000 existing seats in the lower bowl with maroon versions began, while numerous cosmetic improvements took place both inside and outside the facility. The seat installation was completed in early 2017.

The swimming pool is equipped for use at either 25 yards or 25 meters and has both one and three-meter diving boards. Hammons Student Center also houses a rifle range, a training room and six racquetball courts.

Hammons contains athletic and building administration offices as well as offices for many coaches, a lounge area, large varsity locker rooms and locker rooms for visiting teams and recreational use.

Performers who have made appearances in Hammons include Bob Hope, Anne Murray, Huey Lewis and the News, Tina Turner, Elvis Presley, Barbara Mandrell, Barry Manilow, Genesis, Dolly Parton, the Harlem Globetrotters, George Carlin, Garth Brooks, John McEnroe, Mikhail Baryshnikov, Amy Grant, Alabama, James Taylor, 98 Degrees and the Dixie Chicks. There have also been appearances in 1986 by President Ronald Reagan, in 1988 by Vice President George Bush and in 2002 by President George W. Bush.

Completed in 1976 at a cost of $5.5 million, Hammons Student Center is home to Bears volleyball and seats nearly 9,000 fans.

The Jim D. Morris Family Strength and Conditioning Center sits adjacent to the Turner Family Practice Court gives the Bears a dedicated cardiovascular and weight facility inside Hammons Student Center.

Wooden lockers in the volleyball locker room were introduced after the remodel in 2005.

The Turner Family Practice Court was completed in 2006, helping ease the practice schedule of the volleyball Bears and both basketball programs. The east gym underwent extensive renovations, including the installation of new lighting, wall covering, and the addition of the hardwood floor that was in use in HSC's main arena from 1985 until February 2006.
