Hat Tricks

Josh Dolling recorded the 21st hat trick in Missouri State men's soccer history when he scored all three goals in the Bears' 3-2 victory over Santa Clara on Sept. 11, 2018. Chris Deal is the last player to score four goals in a game, doing so against Evansville on Oct. 10, 2004.

Doug Lascody recorded a hat trick in a 4-1 win against Vanderbilt in 2003. Jed Hohlbein also gathered a hat trick scoring three times in a 3-2 victory over Oakland (Sept. 1, 2002). Severin Lwali and Mike Williams both scored three goals in 1999.

Matt Caution is the only Missouri State player to record more than two hat tricks. Caution posted four in his career, with three his freshman season.

Tim Abeln and Ken Robinson each scored four goals in a 10-0 win against Baptist Bible College in 1981, and Caution repeated the feat against Missouri Southern in 1993 to become the last four-goal scorer before Deal repeated the feat in 2004.

Betty and Bobby Allison South Stadium

The facility, which was constructed in the summer of 2014, serves as a home to the men's and women's soccer programs, as well as track & field.

Nestled between JQH Arena and Glass Hall, in the former location of the grass practice fields, Betty and Bobby South Stadium is one of several new athletic and recreational fields to be in use over the the 2014-15 school year. With the assistance of the student body and the passing of the B.E.A.R. Fee, Missouri State now has a new field hockey and lacrosse complex, new sand volleyball courts, and renovations to Plaster Stadium including a new turf and student seating.

Betty and Bobby Allison South Stadium has a capacity of 1,000 seats, includes an 8-lane track surrounding the field, a press box, two locker rooms, lighting, and a double-sided scoreboard.
