MISSOURI STATE MEN'S BASKETBALL

2023-24 MEDIA GUIDE

Great Southern Bank Arena

Home of the Bears

- In 15 seasons as home of the Bears, Great Southern Bank Arena has hosted six men's postseason tournament games, in addition to a round of the Preseason NIT.
- Missouri State is 155-64 (.708) over the last 14 seasons at Great Southern Bank Arena with nearly 1.3 million fans spinning the turnstiles since it opened in 2008.
- MSU has reeled off 52 consecutive winning seasons at home, dating back to the 1971-72 season and cover three different home venues.
- The top seven home crowds in Missouri State history have all been at Great Southern Bank Arena, including a record 11,077 draw on Feb. 26, 2011 to witness the Bears clinch their first-ever Missouri Valley Conference title with a 69-64 victory over Wichita State.
- Since moving to the NCAA Division I ranks in 1982-83, the Bears are 38-3 in home openers, including wins in 16 of the last 18.
- Great Southern Bank was awarded the arena naming rights on April 21, 2022 after the facility was originally named JQH Arena.

Bears Gear Up for Big Season with Returning Nucleus in Place

With one of the largest returning groups in the Missouri Valley, coach Dana Ford is braced for a Bears outbreak in his sixth season at the helm of the MIssouri State club.

With 10 returners in all, Ford will lean heavily on All-MVC standout Donovan Clay to lead the charge. A two-time Valley All-Defensive performer, Clay has proven his ability to defend any position and can score from any area. The fifth-year standout also dished out over 100 assists a year ago, making him one of the best-rounded athletes in the league.

Joining Clay on the list of returning starters is guard Alston Mason who averaged 9.9 points and dished out 87 assists in 27 minutes per game in his first season in Springfield. Fellow backcourt mate Damien Mayo Jr. also earned over 20 minutes per game as a true freshman and proved his ability to impact the game on both ends of the floor as well. Mayo can alter shots, scramble for a loose ball or rebound with the best of them while serving as a viable ball handler or shooter, as needed.

Chance Moore came off the bench a year ago but collected "starter minutes" to earn MVC All-Bench honors. He averaged 10.6 points, 3.9 rebounds and flushed home 50 3-pointers in 21.9 minutes per game as a sophomore. He will be primed for an outbreak in 2023-24 with extended off-season work earning him Preseason All-MVC recognition.

Also back for the Bears is point guard Matthew Lee who Bears' fans barely got to see a year ago before he suffered a season-ending knee injury in game two. After leading Saint Peters to the Sweet Sixteen in 2022, Lee is primed to run the point in Springfield this winter and catch even more eyes as this season unfolds.

At nearly 7-feet tall, sixth-year man Dawson Carper struggled through injuries last year and will add experience, size and depth to the front court for his final campaign. N.J. Benson will also be back in the low post for MoState. He saw action in 27 games as a true freshman a year ago, but has spent the off-season changing his physical performance and getting ready for a more significant role.

The longest-tenured Bear on this year's roster is Raphe Ayres, a fourth-year squadman who started 9 games last winter with 24 appearances. His steady presence and unmatched drive make him another Bear to keep an eye on to fill a variety of roles.

Newcomers Nick Kramer, a Saint Louis University transfer, and Cesare Edwards, from Xavier, also look to have an immediate impact for Ford's Bears. Likewise, two redshirt freshmen and two true freshmen round out the club's 2023-24 roster with high expectations in store.

Chance Moore is primed for a breakout season after leading the squad in 3-pointers (50) a year ago as a sophomore and earned MVC All-Bench Team honors after scoring 10.8 points per game.

Two-time MVC All-Defensive Teamer Donovan Clay enters his senior year as a Preseason All-MVC honoree. On pace for more than 1,500 career points, Clay's presence on both ends of the floor will be pivotal.

THE COACHES

DANA FORD

HEAD COACH
Sixth Season

B.S., Illinois State, 2006
Hometown - Tamms, Illinois

A new era for Missouri State men's basketball officially began on March 22, 2018 with the introduction of Dana Ford as the program's 18th head coach.

In 2022-23, the new-look Bears featured 14 new faces and ultimately turned the squad into Valley contenders. The Bears landed an All-MVC selection in second-teamer Donovan Clay and All-Bench Team honoree Chance Moore. Clay, who was also on the MVC All-Defensive Team, led the Bears in scoring (11.9 ppg) and assists (108) while becoming the first Bear since 2018-19 to reach the century mark in assists. Moore averaged 10.6 points per game and racked up 17 double-figure scoring games.

Ford's fifth season concluded with a 12-8 conference record, making him the first sideline boss in program history to collect a dozen or more conference wins in three straight seasons. The Bears allowed just 63.2 points per game on the year, which ranked 24th nationally and was the club's best scoring defense in more than a decade. MSU also eclipsed its season record for blocked shots (140) -- a mark that had held for nearly a quarter century -- and ranked second in The Valley in rejections.

In a breakout 2021-22 campaign, Missouri State finished the season as one of the nation's most-efficient offensive teams, ranking 2nd nationally in free throw percentage (.797), 14th in field goal percentage (.482) and 23rd in 3-point FG percentage (.374) -- the only DI team to rank in the top 25 in all three. KenPom also rated the Bears 21st in effective FG percentage (54.6) and 23rd in adjusted offensive efficiency (113.2). MSU led the MVC in all of those metrics, except 3-point percentage, while also leading The Valley in scoring (77.3) and turnovers per game (10.6), which ranked 38th and 34th in the country, respectively.

Likewise, the 2021-22 Bears finished as runners-up in the Missouri Valley Conference, racking up a 23-11 overall record and 13-5 record in the league. The Bears' season win total was the program's most since 2011 and the 10th-best in team history. The squad advanced to the MVC Tournament semifinals for the third straight year and also represented The Valley in the NIT in Ford's first postseason tournament showing at MoState. The Bears also set team records for 3-point field goals (283) while boasting two first-team all-conference players in the school's all-time best scoring tandem – Gaige Prim and Isiaih Mosley, while Donovan Clay earned MVC All-Defensive Team honors, and Isaac Haney landed on the MVC All-Freshman Team.

For the third time in his head coaching career, Ford was a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award at the conclusion of the 2021-22 season.

During his third season in Springfield in 2020-21, the Bears matched a school record with seven conference road wins and finished third in the MVC standings, going 17-7 overall and 12-6 in the league. The Bears advanced to the MVC Tournament semifinals for the second straight season and became the first Valley team since 2015 to post two players on the All-MVC first team without being a league champion or runner-up. Isiaih Mosley was the Bears first-ever MVC scoring leader and was also the top vote-getter on the Valley's Most-Improved Team, while Gaige Prim also earned All-MVC first-team laurels after finishing 10th nationally in field goal percentage (.599) and earning a spot on the MVC All-Defensive Team. MSU also boasted a player on the MVC All-Newcomer Team in point guard Demarcus Sharp.

Ford was also a national finalist for the Ben Jobe Award and Skip Prosser Award at the conclusion of the 2020-21 campaign.

In 2019-20, Ford engineered a solid season finish that saw the Bears go 9-9 in the Missouri Valley Conference and upset third-seeded Indiana State in the MVC Tournament quarterfinals. The Bears matched or out-rebounded 24-of-33 opponents, including nine of their last 10, to finish 25th nationally in rebound margin (6.2). The Bears also posted their second-best free throw percentage (.749) of the program's Division I era and had their highest scoring average in league games (71.6) in 10 years. Despite eight losses by four points or less, MSU boasted two All-MVC performers for the second year in a row with second team selection Keandre Cook and third-teamer Gaige Prim, who also was recognized on the MVC All-Newcomer Team.

In his first season at Missouri State in 2018-19, Ford began the year as the fifth-youngest Division I coach in the nation (33) and helped guide the Bears to a third-place finish in The Valley. In addition to pushing the Bears to their first winning conference record (10-8) since the 2010-11 campaign, two MSU players earned All-MVC honors, including the 2019 MVC Newcomer of the Year, and three players who landed spots on the Valley's All-Newcomer team.

Ford orchestrated one of the best turnarounds in NCAA history when he accepted the Tennessee State job in 2014-15 as the nation's youngest Division I head coach at the time. The Tigers went from a 5-26 record his first season to a 20-11 ledger in 2015-16. He earned Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year, NABC District 19 Coach of the Year and the Ben Jobe Award for his outstanding efforts that season.

Over his last three years in Nashville, Ford has led the Tigers to a combined 52-39 record and coached five All-OVC players in addition to two players recognized on the OVC All-Newcomer Team. Under his leadership, Tennessee State also doubled its home attendance average and twice earned votes in the Associated Press Top 25 poll during the 2016-17 season.

A native of Tamms, Ill., Ford is a 2006 graduate of Illinois State University where he was a four-year letterman for the Redbirds under coaches Tom Richardson and Porter Moser from 2002-06. He was a regular starter and led ISU in steals as a senior.

He went on to successful assistant coaching stints at Winthrop and Wichita State under coach Gregg Marshall and later as associate head coach at Illinois State under coach Dan Muller. His coaching resume also includes assistant coaching stops at Chipola (Fla.) College and Tennessee State. He was an assistant for two NCAA Tournament teams at Winthrop (2006-07) and Wichita State (2011-12) as well as a NJCAA national final four run at Chipola College (2008-09). and was responsible for recruiting future NBA talents such as Robert Covington (Clippers) and Fred Van Vleet (Rockets).

Dana and his wife Christina have three daughters, Charlie Rose, Cline and newest addition Courtney (born in July 2023), and three sons, Carson, Cameron and Crain. They are also the parents of another daughter, Promise, who passed in infancy in 2017.

The Fords are also the founders of the Rebound Foundation which raises funds and awareness to help renew and restore women who have experienced a life of domestic abuse. The foundation provides a stable home and fresh start to abuse victims and their children. The Rebound Foundation currently provides homes in Springfield and Chicago.

Ford has also received recognition from numerous community and civic organizations, including a Citizen Service Commendation by the Springfield Police Department in June of 2021 for his help in creating the Bears, Badges and Kids program. Bears, Badges and Kids provides monthly community-wide, basketball-centric events for youth that center on community unity and education. He was recognized by 417 Magazine as one of its top 100 most-influential professionals in 2022 and 2023. Dana also serves on the NCAA Men's Basketball Rules Committee.

SHELDON EVERETT

Assistant Coach
6th Season

After joining the Missouri State men's basketball staff in 2018 as the director of basketball operations, Sheldon Everett was promoted to assistant coach during the summer of 2020.

During his time with the Bears, Everett has helped mentor six All-MVC performers, including five on the first team. Missouri State has finished as Missouri Valley runners-up once (2022) and third place twice (2019 and 2021) in that span with a trip to the NIT in 2022. In addition, five Bears have earned MVC All-Newcomer Team honors and two have claimed All-Defensive Team laurels.

Prior to arriving in Springfield, he spent the previous five seasons (2012-2017) as an assistant coach at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. During his time in Miami, Everett coordinated the recruiting efforts for the RedHawks and oversaw the development of Miami's guards.

Everett came to Miami after three seasons (2009-12) as an assistant coach with the men's basketball program at Tennessee State under coach John Cooper. Alongside, Ford, Everett helped Tennessee State to a 20-13 record in 2011-12, the program's first winning record since 1995-96 and the Tigers' first 20-win season in 32 years. The team knocked off seventh-ranked Murray State and later defeated their first SEC opponent with an upset of South Carolina. TSU nearly earned a berth to the NCAA Tournament, falling to Murray State by two points in the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament final.

Prior to his time with the men's program at TSU, Everett spent one year (2008-09) as an assistant coach with the Tigers' women's basketball program. During his time on the TSU women's basketball staff, Everett helped the team to its first winning record in 14 years.

Everett joined the Tennessee State staff after spending the 2007-08 season as the director of basketball operations at his alma mater, South Carolina, under head coach Dave Odom. While at South Carolina, Everett served as an assistant coach for the American Team of the 2008 DiGiorno College All-Star Game presented by the NABC at the 2008 NCAA Final Four in San Antonio, Texas.

Everett was a two-year letterman and two-time SEC All-Academic Team selection at South Carolina, helping the Gamecocks to a 23-11 record and an NCAA Tournament berth in 2004. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in management and marketing at South Carolina in 2004.

He is the proud father of two daughters, Kinsley and Lennon.

BUZZY CARUTHERS

Assistant Coach
2nd Season

Buzzy Caruthers joined the Missouri State men's basketball staff in April 2022.

Originally from Kansas City, Kan., he came to Springfield after serving the previous four years as director of player development at Nebraska (2018-22). While serving on coach Fred Hoiberg's staff in Lincoln, Caruthers filled several roles in the day-to-day operation of the Huskers program and also served as an analyst for Nebraska basketball games on the Big 10 Network.

Before joining the Nebraska staff in 2019, he spent two years at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, and then spent the 2018-19 season at Maryville University in St. Louis. While at Lincoln, Caruthers helped the Blue Tigers to consecutive MIAA Tournament appearances, including a 17-win campaign in 2017.

He gained Division I experience as a graduate assistant at St. John's during the 2015-16 season, and he has also worked at Butler (Kan.) Community College, Chipola (Fla.) College, Dodge City (Kan.) Community College. At the junior college level, he coached 20 players who went on to play at either the NCAA Division I or Division II level, including eight all-conference selections. His 2016 team at Butler achieve 19 wins and advanced to the regional semifinals.

Caruthers has also coached at Barstow High School and Sumner Academy of Arts and Science in Kansas City, Kan. At Barstow, he assisted in the formation of a winning culture that culminated in the program's first 24-win season. He has also coached with MoKan Elite, one of the top AAU basketball organizations in the country, and sent more than 30 players to the NCAA Division I ranks.

As a high school player, Caruthers won two high school state championships at Sumner Academy. He went on to earn his degree in Finance in 2006 from Hampton University. He and his wife, Diorlena, reside in Springfield.

JAY SPOONHOUR

Assistant Coach
1st Season

The son of Missouri State coaching legend Charlie Spoonhour, Jay Spoonhour joined the Missouri State basketball staff on June 9, 2023.

A veteran coach with nearly 30 years of experience, Spoonhour has compiled 225 career wins as a head coach and holds a wealth of experience and passion to his hometown team.

He returned to the Ozarks after most recently spending nine seasons as head coach at Eastern Illinois University from 2012 to 2021. At EIU, Spoonhour led the Panthers to a CIT appearance in 2015, advancing to the second round, and made eight OVC Tournament trips in nine years with three postseason victories. He coached four NABC All-District players, seven All-OVC players and six OVC Newcomer Team honorees during his tenure in Charleston.

His 2014-15 EIU squad won 18 games and set a program high-water mark with nine straight Division I wins, while ranking 54th nationally in 3-point FG percentage. He led EIU to wins over Missouri in 2016-17 and Illinois in 2017-18, followed by a remarkable 2018-19 season in which the Panthers ranked 54th nationally in 3-point percentage and buried 272 treys as a team.

Prior to his term at EIU, Spoonhour was head coach and athletic director at Moberly Area Community College from 2009-12, was assistant coach at UTSA from 2006-08 and assistant at Missouri from 2004-06. He spent the 2001 to 2004 seasons on his father's staff at UNLV where the Runnin' Rebels participated in the NIT all three seasons. Jay served as interim head coach at the end of the 2004 season, guiding UNLV to a 6-3 finish down the stretch.

He also has a previous head coaching stop at Wabash Valley College (2000-01) in Mt. Carmel, Ill., where he helped lead the team to a 36-1 record, Great Rivers Athletic Conference title and NJCAA national championship. For his memorable run, Spoonhour earned NJCAA National Coach of the Year, Region XXIV Coach of the Year, GRAC Coach of the Year and Hutchinson Rotary Club Coach of the National Tournament.

The Springfield native also has assisting coaching stops at Valparaiso (2000), Saint Louis (1996-99) and Central Missouri (1994-96). He also coached alongside his father at SLU, helping the Billikens to a 22-11 run in 1998 that resulted in an NCAA Tournament win over UMass.

Ten of his former players have gone on to careers in the NBA, including two lottery picks.

A 1994 graduate of Pittsburg State, Spoonhour was an honorable mention all-conference player as a senior for the Gorillas in 1994.

He and wife Nicole, have three children -- Grace, Charlie and Sam.

RANDY PEELE

Special Asst. to Head Coach
2nd Season

Veteran coach Peele came to Missouri State in August 2022 as special assistant to head coach Dana Ford.

His most-recent stop was at Texas Southern University where he was associate head coach from 2018-22. Peele was part of three postseason runs in four seasons there, including back-to-back SWAC Championships and NCAA Tournament runs in 2021 and 2022.

Peele spent four season as associate head coach under Dana Ford at Tennessee State (2014-18).

He has been to three NCAA Tournaments as a head coach and guided UNC Greensboro to a 20-win season and NCAA Tournament berth in 1996 and was head coach there from 1995-99. He went on to serve as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech from 1999-02 under Ricky Stokes as the Hokies transitioned from the Atlantic 10 to the Big East. He then joined Gregg Marshall's staff at Winthrop from 2003-07 and assumed the head coaching duties at Winthrop when Marshall departed for Wichita State. As head coach at Winthrop (2007-12), Peele led Winthrop to NCAA Tournament berths in 2008 and 2010. He is the only coach in Big South history to take two different teams to the NCAA Tournament.

He has also made assistant coaching stops at St. Michael's College in Vermont (1983-85), UT Martin (1985-88), Campbell (1988-1991), UNCG (1991-1995) and Georgia Southern (2013-14).

Peele graduated from Virginia Wesleyan in 1980 with a bachelor's degree in secondary education and history. He is married to the former Debra Carter and they have three children, Aaron, Brad and Blair.

MATT McGOURAN

Dir. of Basketball Operations
1st Season

Matt McGouran joined Missouri State's staff as its new director of basketball operations on August 1, 2023.

McGouran arrived in Springfield after spending the last previous at Texas State University in San Marcos. He joined Texas State in September 2022 and assisted with all travel and expense reports for all of the athletic department teams.

Prior to his time Texas State, McGouran was a graduate assistant coach for the men's basketball team at Texas A&M-Kingsville (2020-21), a box office representative for Spurs Sports & Entertainment (2019-2020), and a member of the internal operations team, working directly with the men's basketball program, at the University of Houston (2018-19).

McGouran graduated from Houston in December 2018 with a bachelor's degree in Sport Administration and a master's in Business Administration from Texas A&M-Kingsville in 2022.

2022-23 REVIEW

Rebuilding Season Nets Memorable Moments in 2022-23

BEARS 2022-23 SEASON NOTES

♦ Missouri State eclipsed its season record for blocked shots with 140 rejections on the season, which ranked second in The Valley.

♦ The Bears allowed just 63.2 points per game, which ranked 24th nationally and was the club's best scoring defense in more than a decade (2011-12).

♦ Donovan Clay led the Bears in scoring (11.9 ppg) and assists (108), becoming the first Bear since 2018-19 (Josh Webster) to reach the century mark in assists. Clay was rewarded with All-MVC second-team and MVC All-Defensive Team honors.

♦ Coach Dana Ford became the first sideline boss in program history to collect 12 or more conference wins in three straight seasons. Ford's squad topped Indiana State on the final day of the regular season to finish 12-8 in The Valley. Prior to Ford's arrival in Springfield for the 2018-19 season, MSU had not had a winning Valley season since 2010-11 and had not reached five straight .500 league seasons since a span from 2001-02 to 2006-07.

♦ The Indiana State win also marked the Bears' 26th MVC road win under Ford, matching the top league road win total during his five-year tenure.

Donovan Clay earned All-MVC second-team and MVC All-Defensive Team distinction in 2022-23 after leading the Bears in scoring (11.9 ppg) and assists (108) and ranking second on the club in rebounding (5.5 rpg).

♦ After averaging 10.6 points per game and knocking down a team-high 50 three-pointers on the season, Chance Moore was named to the MVC All-Bench Team. Moore came off the bench 28 times in 31 appearances and was MSU's top scorer a team-high 11 times with 17 double-figure scoring games.

♦ MSU was one of just 12 Division I teams that played on the road in four different time zones during the non-conference portion of its 2022-23 schedule. MSU's trips to BYU (Mountain), Nassau (Eastern), Saint Mary's (Pacific) and Oral Roberts (Central) highlight a non-MVC slate that took the Bears some 11,812 air and ground miles. Per KenPom, the Bears had the 93rd-best non-conference strength of schedule in the nation and by far the best in the MVC (Bradley was second at No. 151).

♦ On Nov. 16, a jumper off the glass from Dallin Hall with 1.5 seconds to go lifted Brigham Young to a 66-64 win over visiting Missouri State. The game featured 11 ties and 14 lead changes before 12,587 fans at Marriott Center. Chance Moore led Missouri State with 18 points and 11 rebounds off the bench while contributing three treys. Bryan Trimble added 11 points, also with three triples, for the Bears. MSU trailed by 10 points with 12:47 to go, falling behind 50-40. But the Bears then exploded for a 15-3 run over the next three-and-a-half minutes to take the lead and later tied the game on a bucket by Alston Mason with 7.2 seconds to go.

♦ With his hook shot off the glass with 8:21 left in the second half, Donovan Clay eclipsed 1,000 career points in Missouri State's win over Drake on Jan. 1. Clay reached the 1,000-point club in his 111th career game (48th at MSU). He also racked up his 50th double-figure scoring game in the win.

♦ Forward Dalen Ridgnal was named the Missouri Valley Conference Newcomer of the Week on Jan. 2 after leading the Bears to a 2-0 week, including a victory over the MVC preseason favorite Drake and a rare road win at UNI. For the week, the Georgia transfer averaged 16.0 points and 7.5 rebounds, both team highs, while squaring up 7-of-14 3-pointers (.500) and 11-of-19 (.579) field goals.

Newcomer Chance Moore provided the Bears with a needed offensive lift throughout his debut campaign in Springfield. He was second on the club in scoring (10.6 ppg) while knocking down a team-high 50 three-pointers to earn MVC All-Bench Team distinction.

♦ MoState's 254 3-pointers on the season marked the third-highest team total in program history, while its 7.94 threes per game ranked second.

♦ The Bears posted back-to-back games with 10 or more steals for the first time since Feb. 29 to March 6, 2020 after securing 11 takeaways at UIC (Nov. 30) and 10 vs. Bradley (Dec. 3).

♦ The Bears shattered the program and arena records for 3-point field goal attempts on Dec. 10 by launching 41 shots from downtown against visiting Purdue Fort Wayne (making seven). The previous record of 38 was achieved twice.

♦ The Bears used 14 different starting lineups this season, which matched the 2012-13 squad for most on record in club history. On a national scale, only seven teams used more starting combinations.

♦ Jonathan Mogbo's 5 dunks vs. UIC in the opening round of Arch Madness gave him a season total of 42 slams on the season, matching Tulio Da Silva (2018-19) for the club's season record.

♦ On Dec. 18, the Bears fell behind 60-37 at ORU with 15:53 to go, then reeled off a 24-4 run to make it 64-61 with 9:15 remaining. The Bears captured a 75-73 lead on a layup by Damien Mayo Jr. with 1:34 left before ORU ultimately closed out the game on a 7-2 run to capture an 80-77 decision in what would have tied the biggest comeback in program history. MSU's 55 bench points in that game also tied a program record.

Bears Award Winners

♦ Eight basketball Bears were recognized on Jan. 24 for their academic excellence during the fall 2022 semester. Dawson Carper, Matthew Lee, Alston Mason, Damien Mayo Jr., Jonathan Mogbo, Kendle Moore, Tommy Pinegar, and Dalen Ridgnal all achieved a 3.0 GPA's or higher for the term, earning a spot on the MSU Athletic Director's Honor Roll, which included a record 276 student-athletes. Carper was named to the State Farm MVC Scholar-Athlete Spotlight on Feb. 2.

♦ The Bears were 5-1 -- and improved to 42-5 under coach Dana Ford -- when they shot 50 percent or better from the field. MSU's 51.6 percent shooting effort against Murray State on Feb. 21 in the home finale marked the club's first game shooting 50-percent or better since its road win at UNI on Dec. 28.

♦ Missouri State's game versus Sam Houston, scheduled for Dec. 22 at Great Southern Bank Arena, was canceled due to the threat of extreme winter weather in the Springfield area. The game was not rescheduled, although the teams look to complete the home-and-home series in Springfield in 2023-24. The WAC champions had a regular-season NET of 59.

♦ Missouri State captured its 750th victory at the Division I level with a 79-67 win at UNI on Dec. 28. The Bears are in their 41st season as an NCAA DI program (since the 1982-83 season).

♦ Damien Mayo Jr.'s 17 starts in 2022-23 marked the 16th-most by a Bears freshman in club history. It was also the most since Ja'Monta Black's 20 starts in 2019-20.

♦ Not counting the shortened COVID campaign of 2020-21, MSU's season total for personal fouls (497) was the squad's lowest since 1994-95 (479) and the team's fewest fouls per game (15.5) in a full season since 1985-86.

♦ With its 74-59 win over UIC in the opening-round of Arch Madness on March 2, the Bears secured a win in the MVC Tournament for the fourth straight season, a milestone matched only by Drake in that span.

♦ Jonathan Mogbo became just the third Missouri State player to lead the club in blocks (34) and steals (38) in the same season, joining Kyle Weems (2009, 2010, 2011) and Gaige Prim (2021) on that exclusive list.

GAME 1

November 9, 2022, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 82, Missouri S&T 47

Newcomers Chance Moore and Alston Mason paced Missouri State's scoring with 18 and 13 points, respectively, to help lead the Bears to an 82-47 opening-night win over visiting Missouri S&T here Wednesday.

Fellow MoState newcomer Jonathan Mogbo added 11 points and 7 rebounds with Preseason All-MVC standout Donovan Clay also snagging a game-high 7 boards in the winning cause.

Coach Dana Ford's Bears doubled up the Miners on the glass, out-rebounding the visitors by a 46-23 margin and holding them to just six second-chance points. The Bears also shot 55.2 percent from the field with 11 3-pointers.

Missouri State's wealth of new talent was evident early with Matthew Lee scoring the first points of the season in the opening minute. Fellow transfers Jonathan Mogbo, Kendle Moore and Bryan Trimble Jr. then pitched in buckets before the first media timeout. By halftime, 10 of the 11 players who saw action found the scoring column, and the Bears held a 51-25 lead.

MSU shot 69 percent from the field in the opening 20 minutes and carried that momentum into the second half. Coming out of the first media timeout of the second stanza, five different Bears scored as part of a 16-0 run that pushed the home side ahead 71-31 with 12:37 to go.

Less than three minutes later, Trimble knocked down back-to-back 3-pointers to make it a 77-33 game and provide the Bears with their biggest cushion of the night.

Missouri S&T was led by Ikenna Okeke and Andrew Young who each contributed 14 points while combining for four of the Miners' five 3-pointers.

Aside from the rebounding advantage, the Bears held Missouri S&T to 30.6 percent from the field (19-of-62), forced 13 turnovers and racked up 6 steals and 5 blocks. Mogbo rejected three shots to lead all players.

GAME 2

November 16, 2022, Marriott Center, Provo, Utah
Brigham Young 66, Missouri State 64

A jumper off the glass from Dallin Hall with 1.5 seconds to go lifted Brigham Young to a 66-64 win over Missouri State in a game that featured 11 ties and 14 lead changes before 12,587 fans at Marriott Center.

Chance Moore led Missouri State with 18 points and 11 rebounds off the bench while contributing three treys. Bryan Trimble added 11 points with three triples.

Noah Waterman was the leading scorer for BYU (2-1) with 15 points, all on 3-pointers, while Spencer Johnson scored 10.

Missouri State trailed by 10 points with 12:47 to go, falling behind 50-40 on Waterman's fifth trey of the game. But the Bears then exploded for a 15-3 run over the next three-and-a-half minutes to take the lead.

Donovan Clay's layup at the 7:56 mark gave MSU a 55-53 lead. Shortly thereafter, Bryan Trimble Jr.'s free throw gave MSU a 56-53 advantage.

Down the stretch, Trimble's three off the glass with just under three minutes to go gave the Bears a 62-61 lead. The Bears came up with clutch plays from there, none greater than Alston Mason's layup with 7.2 to play that knotted things up 64-64.

After Hall's key bucket, the Bears had 1.5 seconds for a desperation shot, but couldn't pull off the road upset to fall by two.

MSU finished 24-of-61 (.393) overall, including 7-of-22 (.318) from long range and 9-of-16 (.600) at the line in a violent environment. MSU finished with just 9 turnovers and snagged 6 steals with Lee dishing out a team-high 4 assists.

BYU was 23-of-56 (.411) overall and 9-of-25 (.360) from long range and 11-of-20 (.550) at the stripe with a 42-37 rebounding advantage. BYU* blocked 9 shots and matched Missouri State's 16 second-chance points.

In the opening half , there were eight ties and six lead changes with BYU's 7-0 run just before the intermission giving the home side a narrow 36-35 advantage at the midway point.

Chance Moore's 10 points led the Bears, and his streak of seven straight points midway through the opening stanza gave MSU a 30-29 lead with 4:21 to go in the half. But after a Lee jumper gave the Bears a 32-29 advantage, BYU reeled off seven unanswered. Lee ended the half with a banked-in 3-pointer to cut the MSU deficit to 36-35 at the break.

GAME 3

November 19, 2022, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 75, Middle Tennessee 51

Missouri State shot 50 percent from the field and went 12-for-27 from 3-point land for a 75-51 victory over visiting Middle Tennessee.

Chance Moore scored a career-high 19 points off the bench and made his first eight shots before finishing 8-for-9. Alston Mason added 16 with four triples, and Donovan Clay scored 15 with a career-best 9 assists as the Bears dished out 20 helpers on 28 made baskets.

It marked the most assists by a Missouri State player since Gaige Prim handed out 9 dimes vs. Northwestern State on Dec. 19, 2020.

Missouri State took the lead for good during a 14-3 run in the opening minutes, with Mason hitting a pair of 3-pointers and Kendle Moore capping it with another for a 19-8 advantage with 11:26 on the first-half clock.

Chance Moore hit all three of his long balls in a 14-2 MSU run for a 37-20 margin with 1:32 left in the opening half, and Mason beat the halftime buzzer with a layup for a 41-22 Bears advantage at intermission after the home club went 8-for-14 deep and 16-for-28 overall in the opening 20 minutes.

Another Kendle Moore triple put the Bears up by 20 for the first time at 44-24 early in the second half, and Middle Tennessee (2-2) would get no closer than 15 from there as the Bears' lead grew to as many as 29 in the waning minutes.

Missouri State's defense held the Blue Raiders to 34 percent overall and 3-for-19 from long range while grabbing 9 steals and forcing 16 MTSU turnovers. In his 100th career game, Clay had three of those thefts while Kendle Moore, Chance Moore and Dalen Ridgnal nabbed two apiece.

Clay's five rebounds were a team high with nine players grabbing multiple boards, and the Bears made all seven of their free throw attempts.

GAME 4

November 25, 2022, Baha Mar Convention Center, Nassau
UNC Wilmington 68, Missouri State 54

A 7-0 run midway through the second half gave UNC Wilmington the game's first double-digit lead, and the momentum swing pushed the Seahawks to a 68-54 win over Missouri State in the opening round of the Baha Mar Nassau Championship.

The Bears held a share of the lead all but one minute of the first half but could only convert seven field goals over the game's final 20 minutes to let their early advantage slip away. Still, MoState trimmed an 11-point deficit down to six with 3 minutes, 11 seconds remaining after a pair of technical free throws by Bryan Trimble Jr. made it a 59-53 contest.

But UNCW closed out the game on a 9-1 run, getting a back-breaking three by Donovan Newby that gave his team a 66-53 lead with 1:43 to play.

Trazarien White led UNCW with 16 points and a game-high 11 rebounds, while Jamari Thomas added 13 points, and Newby scored 11.

Kendle Moore was Missouri State's top scorer with 12 points, while Dawson Carper added 10 points off the bench.

Donovan Clay led the Bears in rebounds (6) and assists (3), while Chance Moore finished with 7 points and 6 boards.

On a tough shooting day, the Bears couldn't find their touch from most areas, finishing just 2-of-19 (.105) from 3-point range, 18-for-34 (.529) from the foul line and 17-of-45 (.378) overall from the field. Despite the shooting metrics, the Bears out-rebounded UNCW by a 35-34 margin, allowing just six second-chance points.

Missouri State trailed 29-28 at the intermission, however its deficit grew to seven before the first media timeout. But coming out of the first break of the second half, Trimble drained a three, and Kendle Moore's running one-hander with just under 15 minutes to go made it a two-point game.

Midway through the final period, Nick Farrar's jumper, Newby's three, and Shykeim Phillips' fast-break bucket capped a 7-0 run by UNCW, giving coach Takayo Siddle's a 54-43 led with just over nine minutes to go.

In the opening half, the Bears held an eight-point advantage midway through the stanza but after Kendle Moore's transition layup gave MSU a 15-7 lead, MSU managed just two field goals over a nine-minute stretch. A corner three from Kendle with five seconds left in the half trimmed UNCW's lead to one at the break.

GAME 5

November 26, 2022, Baha Mar Convention Center, Nassau
Ball State 67, Missouri State 64

In a wild, roller-coaster second half, Missouri State came up just short against Ball State, falling 67-64, despite a courageous effort in the game's final minute.

With 59 seconds to go, the Bears trailed by 10 and had not made a field goal in 11 minutes. But then something clicked.

Alston Mason's spinning layup at the 54-second mark ended the dry stretch for Missouri State, then Jonathan Mogbo's dunk after a Ball State turnover made it a 66-60 game. The Bears then took the ball away again with Mason snagging a steal and layup with 31 ticks to go.

Donovan Clay then snatched another Bears' steal on the ensuing play, but couldn't capitalize. However, a Ball State traveling call with 16 seconds left in the game gave the Bears the ball back, and this time Clay converted with a put-back off a Mason missed three to make it a 66-64 game.

Needing to foul with just under 10 seconds left, the Bears put 50-percent foul shooter Payton Sparks on the line. Sparks made one of his two charity shots to make it a three-point game and keep MoState in the game on its final possession.

But the final-minute magic ran out on the Springfield team on its final possession of the afternoon. Clay's drive to the rim with two seconds to go certainly drew contact. But with no whistle, the missed layup led to a scrum for the rebound, and ultimately left Kendle Moore with the ball in no-man's land. Unable to get the ball behind the arc to attempt a three, the Bears ran out of time and the clock struck zero in a hard-fought, three-point defeat.

Chance Moore scored 14 points in just under 14 minutes to lead MSU (2-3), while Mason added 12 points.

The Bears led by three at the intermission, and held the advantage until the 8-minute mark when Clay's free throw made it a 53-53 game. Ball State then throttled the momentum away, going on a 12-3 run over the next six minutes to lead by nine and then taking a 66-56 lead on a Sparks free throw with 59 seconds left.

In the first half, Missouri State shot 58 percent and connected on 7-of-10 threes to take a 38-35 advantage into the break.

The Bears answered a Ball State 10-0 run midway through the opening stanza with an 8-0 run of their own moments later. Threes by Trimble and Chance Moore preceded a layup by N.J. Benson to push MSU back on top 30-23 with 4:44 to go before the intermission. Later, Moore's back-to-back scores gave the Bears their biggest lead of the half, 38-27, with just under two minute on the clock.

GAME 6

November 27, 2022, Baha Mar Convention Center, Nassau
Missouri State 76, Oakland 64

Five Missouri State players scored in double figures, and the Bears shot 56 percent from the field in the second half to dispatch Oakland, 76-64, in the seventh-place game of the Baha Mar Hoops Nassau Championship.

The Bears (3-3), who ran into second-half scoring droughts in their first two games of the tournament, left nothing to risk Sunday. After going into the half tied, 33-33, MSU opened the second stanza on an 18-3 run, forcing two Oakland timeouts and seizing a 15-point lead for the first time on a three from Kendle Moore less than six minutes into the final period.

Missouri State racked up a dozen threes on the afternoon, including four from Bryan Trimble Jr., who reached career trey No. 200 in the win. He finished with a team-high 14 points, while Moore scored 13, and James Graham added a career-high 13 in reserve.

Donovan Clay added 11 points in the win, and Alston Mason scored 10 while sharing the team lead in assists with four. Damien Mayo Jr. and Kendle Moore also dished out four assists apiece as part of a 19-assist game for the maroon side.

With just under eight minutes to play, Graham's dunk sparked another MSU run as Mason tacked on a pair of treys, and Clay racked up two high-percentage shots at the rim to give MSU a 72-51 advantage with 4:46 remaining.

The 10-3 mini-run covered three minutes and put the icing on the cake for MSU.

From there, former Bear Keaton Hervey scored Oakland's next 11 points with the game already in hand, giving him a game-high 24 points to lead the Golden Grizzlies (2-6) from the Horizon League.

MSU just missed a 50-percent shooting effort, firing 30-of-61 (.492) overall and 12-for-29 (.414) from long range. MSU also owned a 33-28 rebounding advantage.

The Bears collected 36 points in the paint, their most since opening night, and posted 19 points off 14 Oakland turnovers.

Oakland was 23-of-50 (.460) overall, 10-for-25 (.400) from downtown and 8-of-12 (.667) at the line.

In the first half, the Bears got off to a slow start, making just two of their first 11 shots, but finished the opening stanza with some momentum. After trailing 23-13 with 8:39 left in the period, MSU outscored Oakland by a 20-10 margin down the stretch, making 10-of-18 shots in that span, to knot things up, 33-33.

Kendle Moore and Trimble Jr. each scored eight points in the opening half, with Graham burying a pair of key 3-pointers in the final two minutes to stage the comeback.

GAME 7

November 30, 2022, Credit Union 1 Arena, Chicago, Ill.
Missouri State 66, UIC 51

Missouri State got 17 points apiece Donovan Clay and Chance Moore, dominated the glass and used a solid defensive effort to turn back home standing UIC, 66-51, in the Missouri Valley Conference opener for both clubs.

The win marked head coach Dana Ford's 22nd conference road victory during his tenure at MoState, the most by any Valley team in that span.

The Bears racked up 11 steals, 10 blocks and out-rebounded the Flames by a 50-40 margin to overcome a rough shooting effort.

The Bears scored 42 points in the paint and registered 14 points on fast break situations to keep the home club at arm's length most of the second half.

UIC was led by Jace Carter's 15 points, while Jalen Jackson scored 14. Toby Okani also had a game-high 12 rebounds for the league newcomers.

MSU was supported with a 9-point, 10-rebound effort from Jonathan Mogbo, while N.J. Benson matched his season high with 8 points.

The Bears extended their six-point halftime lead to double figures right after the intermission, getting a transition bucket from Mogbo and a layup from Chance Moore to lead 36-26. Later, a Clay-led 6-0 run quieted the home crowd after UIC had trimmed MSU's lead to seven. Clay's dunk with 10:28 remaining in the game capped the stretch and extended the Bears' lead to 50-37.

By the seven-minute mark, Mogbo's close-range finish gave the Bears a 55-39 lead, which was their most to that point. Only Kendle Moore's final layup of the night put the visitors up by a greater margin at 17.

The Bears were 27-of-73 (.370) overall from the field, 6-for-23 (.261) from long range and 6-of-13 (.462) at the line with just 8 turnovers and 14 assists.

UIC was held to 30.2 percent on 16-of-53 field goal attempts. The Flames were also 7-of-21 (.333) from distance and 12-of-19 (.632) at the line with 15 turnovers.

MSU also converted its 19 offensive rebounds into 21 second-chance points on the night. It marked the first November conference game in program history.

In the opening half, the home club made four of its first seven shots, while the Bears had trouble finding their mark. But after working through an early 11-2 deficit, Missouri State embarked on an impressive 11-0 outburst in the span of two minutes to capture the lead and never looked back.

Benson had four points on the decisive run, while Clay had seven, and the Bears wouldn't trail again, leading by as many as seven before the breaker after Clay's layup at the 5:52 mark.

GAME 8

December 3, 2022, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Bradley 58, Missouri State 40

In its long-awaited return to Great Southern Bank Arena on Saturday, Missouri State ran into a determined Bradley squad and couldn't seem to gain a foothold against the more-experienced Braves in a 58-40 MVC setback.

The Bears shot just 31.4 percent from the field but made up for it early with several key defensive stands and solid rebounding. The game was tied, 8-8, eight minutes in, before the visitors ultimately used the three ball to gain separation and take a low-scoring 26-18 lead into the intermission.

Jonathan Mogbo, who had a dunk for the first points of the game, led the home side with five points in the opening stanza. Bradley's only two treys of the opening period came in the final four minutes with Christian Davis and Connor Hickman giving the Braves (6-3, 2-0 MVC) an 11-point lead at the 2:32 mark with back-to-back triples.

Bradley went to all-conference post Rienk Mast early and often in the second half as the 6-foot-9 junior accounted for six of the Braves' first eight points of the final period and pushed them up 34-22 with his hook shot at the 17-minute mark.

Missouri State seemed to steady its ship shortly thereafter as Kendle Moore and Bryan Trimble Jr. hit back-to-back 3-pointers to get the Bears back within 36-28. At the midway point, Moore's steal and layup preceded a layup by Dawson Carper that cut MSU's deficit to 39-32.

But Bradley would bury five 3-pointers in the next seven minutes to take away any momentum the Bears had. By the time, the dust settled, Bradley finished out a 19-4 run with Hickman's second triple of the evening, giving the Braves their largest lead of the night, 58-36.

Alston Mason scored MSU's final four points to trim the game's final margin.

Coming off a four-game, nine-day road swing, the Bears finished 16-of-51 from the field, 2-of-15 (.133) from three and 6-of-11 (.545) at the line with 13 turnovers.

Bradley out-rebounded the Bears by a 22-12 margin in the second half and 39-27 overall.

Mast was the game's only double-figure scorer with 15 points on 6-of-11 from the field, while Malevy Leons tallied 8 points and 10 boards for the visitors.

Kendle Moore and N.J. Benson led Missouri State with 7 points apiece, while Donovan Clay's 6 rebounds was tops among all Bears.

Missouri State, which swept Bradley each of the past two seasons, snagged 10 steals for the second game in a row.

GAME 9

December 7, 2022, University Credit Union Pav., Moraga, Calif.
Saint Mary's 66, Missouri State 46

Missouri State trailed Saint Mary's by five at the midway point and showed the defensive intensity it needed to stay in the game early. But the home-standing Gaels outscored the visitors by 15 in the second half and used a physical inside presence to gain separation down the stretch in a 66-46 road loss.

Saint Mary's collected 48 points in the paint and shot 51 percent from the field while outscoring Missouri State by a 29-15 margin over the last 14 minutes.

Alston Mason and Chance Moore led MSU's scoring efforts with 12 points apiece, both accounting for two 3-pointers.

It marked the Bears second trip to Moraga in as many seasons to take on the nationally-prominent Gaels squad.

The Bears used a scrappy defensive effort to stay within 26-21 in the first half, getting within one point of the lead on three occasions. But after a layup from Donovan Clay opened up the second half, SMC went on a 7-0 run to lead by double figures for the first time, 33-23, and forced a Bears timeout with 16:44 remaining.

Back-to-back MSU 3-pointers by Chance Moore and Mason brought the visitors back within 37-31, at the 14:27 mark, but that was as close as the Bears would get. Saint Mary's allowed MSU just two field goals over the next eight minutes – a three by James Graham and a transition bucket by Dawson Carper – while the Gaels' lead ballooned to 18.

Mitchell Saxen was part of the SMC size that gave the Bears fits. He made 7-of-10 shots in the first half and finished with 19 points. The Gaels' other big man Alex Ducas scored 9 points, all in the second half, to contribute to SMC side.

The Bears were out-rebounded, 31-26, but allowed just 6 second-chance points on the evening with the Gaels collecting just five offensive caroms.

MSU finished 17-of-47 (.362) overall from the field, while converting 7-of-20 (.350) from long range and 5-of-10 (.500) at the foul line with 13 turnovers. MSU also had just 6 second-chance points and racked up 5 blocked shots.

In the first half, SMC led 12-4 just four minutes into the game, but MSU unreeled a 12-5 run over the next six minutes to close the gap to 17-16 after back-to-back buckets from Donovan Clay. With less than three minutes to go in the period and MSU trailing 22-19, Clay hit the deck on a jumper from the right-side, but with no call, the Gaels found an easy layup on the other end by Logan Johnson to extend their advantage to five. The clubs traded buckets from there to give the home side a five-point lead at the break.

GAME 10

December 10, 2022, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Purdue Fort Wayne 65, Missouri State 61

Missouri State's steal and fast-break dunk by Chance Moore with 1:58 to go tied the game and erased what was once a 10-point second-half deficit against visiting Purdue Fort Wayne. But the Mastodons outscored the Bears 8-4 in the final two minutes, including 4-of-6 free throws, to steal a 65-61 victory.

The Bears were led by 23 points and 6 rebounds by Chance Moore in his first collegiate start, while Alston Mason scored 14 and dished out 3 assists. Donovan Clay also pitched in 6 rebounds and 3 assists for MSU.

MoState also broke a school record for 3-point field goal attempts with 41, the fifth most in Missouri Valley Conference history.

Meanwhile, the Bears held PFW to 5-of-19 (.263) from downtown after the Mastodons came in averaging 10.6 threes per game.

After trailing by one at the half, the Bears came out the second half with quick buckets from Mason and Clay to tie things up, 33-33. But the visitors responded with their best surge of the night, reeling off 10 unanswered points over the next three minutes to lead 43-33, the largest margin of the night for either team.

MSU responded immediately with James Graham hitting a triple off the bench ahead of Mason's first of two treys. Chance Moore's runner at the 12-minute mark closed MSU's gap to 43-41 and set the pace for a back-and-forth ending.

Down the stretch, Moore took over for the Bears and used a layup and four free throws to bookend a 3-pointer by Dalen Ridgnal, which ultimately knotted things up, 50-50, at the 7:39 mark.

MSU would throttle control back from there with Mason hitting a step-back jumper and then another clutch triple that gave the Bears a 55-52 advantage with just under five minutes on the clock. PFW then got a controversial three-shot foul opportunity on its next possession as Jarred Godfrey tied it up with three makes, and then gave the Mastodons the lead with another bucket before the media break.

But Moore's fast-break dunk with 1:58 to go tied the score for the eighth and final time as the sophomore's fourth slam of the game in making it a 57-57 contest.

In crunch time, Godfrey scored again before Ra Kpedi's dunk gave the visitors a four-point cushion. Then with 35 seconds to go, Clay went to the line a chance to pull the Bears closer. But he missed the front end of the one-and-one.

In the first half, the Bears pushed ahead by eight after Chance Moore's third dunk of the half made it 27-19 with just over five minutes left in the period. MSU cooled off to the tune of 1-of-8 field goals in a critical stretch before the intermission, while the Mastodons ended the period on an 11-2 run to lead 30-29 at the midway point.

GAME 11

December 16, 2022, Mabee Center, Tulsa, Okla.
Oral Roberts 80, Missouri State 77

Down by 23 points with just under 16 minutes to go, Missouri State used a young rotation that never left the floor and eventually took the lead with 94 seconds to go. But home standing Oral Roberts narrowly beat the shot clock on a game-winning dunk with 19 seconds remaining to steal an 80-77 victory.

Jonathan Mogbo led the Bears with a career-high 14 points. His two free throws with 49 seconds remaining got the Bears back within 78-77 before the Golden Eagles ran a give-and-go play to 7-foot-5 Connor Vanover for the dunk as the shot clock expired. Damien Mayo Jr.'s desperation three for MSU from the left wing as time expired was on-line but came up just short in the final moments of an otherwise uplifting stretch for the MoState.

In addition to Mogbo's effort down the stretch, Dalen Ridgnal (13) and Raphe Ayres (10) also tallied career highs for the Bears as part of their second-half resurgence. James Graham and Damien Mayo Jr. each added 9 points as part of the "youth movement" MSU used over the last 16 minutes.

Mayo's layup with 94 seconds to play broke a 73-73 tie and gave the Bears their only lead of the night. ORU (9-3) responded with a 5-0 run on a layup from Kareem Thompson and a traditional three-point play from Patrick Mwamba at the one-minute mark that gave the home side a three-point lead heading down the stretch.

Mogbo's two free throws at the 49-second mark trimmed the deficit to one, but MSU couldn't close out what would have tied a school record for the largest deficit overcome for victory.

Missouri State had its best offensive effort since opening night, converting 28-of-52 field goal attempts for 53.8 percent, while matching a season-high with 12 triples, including three apiece by James Graham and Ridgnal.

In the first half, ORU made 8 of its first 9 shots and ended the stanza at 69 percent from the field with three players in double figures while capitalizing on a chilling foul discrepancy to lead 45-32 at the midway point.

Chance Moore's 8 points in the first half led Missouri State as he was one of seven Bears to hit a 3-pointer on the night and joined Graham and Ridgnal with multiple treys.

MSU outscored the home side by a 45-35 margin in the second half with the Bears racking up a season-high 55 bench points to ORU's 8. Missouri State also owned a 30-26 rebounding advantage, allowing just 8 second-chance points.

The Golden Eagles finished 29-of-52 (.558) from the field, 6-of-18 (.333) from distance and 16-of-25 (.640) at the stripe with MSU whistled for 20 fouls.

GAME 12

December 18, 2022, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 79, Central Michigan 58

All ten players who saw action for Missouri State landed in the scoring column as the Bears dispatched visiting Central Michigan, 79-58.

Dalen Ridgnal scored 16 points and snagged a game-high 8 rebounds in his first MSU start, while Jonathan Mogbo and James Graham added 12 points apiece for the winning side, which shot an even 50-percent from the field and trashed a four-game losing skid.

It was the first career starts for Graham as well as third-year squadman Raphe Ayres, who finished with 7 points, while the rest of the new-look starting lineup included Damien Mayo Jr., Mogbo and Ridgnal. Mayo tallied 8 points and dished out 4 assists to help the winning cause.

Missouri State built off a 10-point halftime lead with a 10-2 surge in the first four minutes of the second half to extend its lead to 18. Near the midway point in the half, the Bears used a 13-0 run over a three-minute stint to stretch their lead from 16 to 29. Kendle Moore started the rally before three straight 3-pointers by Graham and Alston Mason ahead of a pair of free throws from Donovan Clay made it a 66-37 game.

Graham's final 3-pointer of the night made it a 76-44 game with 4:26 to go – Missouri State's largest lead of the night – to put the contest out of reach.

The Bears held Central Michigan to 36.4 percent from the field on 20-of-55 attempts, 7-of-22 (.318) from 3-point range and 11-of-15 (.733) at the line. CMU scored six of its 10 second-half field goals in the last five minutes of the game.

Reggie Bass scored a game-high 18 points for the Chippewas, while Brian Taylor scored 12 for the visitors.

MSU posted its second-straight 50-percent shooting game, racking 26-of-52 field goals, while dropping in 10-of-26 (.385) 3-pointers and 17-of-26 (.664) at the stripe. The Bears also out-rebounded CMU by a 41-26 margin, their second-largest margin of the season, to go with 15 second-chance points.

Led by 3 rejections from Mogbo, the Bears also blocked 8 shots, while dishing out 18 assists, including 4 apiece from Mayo and Clay.

In the first half, a Ridgnal-led 10-0 run midway through the opening stanza catapulted the Bears to a 26-20 lead and swelled to a 12-point advantage just before the half. Ridgnal finished the half with 16 points and 6 rebounds to lead MSU's efforts, while marking the most points by a MoState player in a half this season.

GAME 13

December 28, 2022, McLeod Center, Cedar Falls, Iowa
Missouri State 79, Northern Iowa 67

Missouri State got 24 points and 11 rebounds from Dalen Ridgnal and shot 55 percent from the field to dominate home-standing Northern Iowa, 79-67.

The Bears also got double-figure scoring efforts from Kendle Moore with 15 points, Chance Moore and Damien Mayo Jr. with 13 apiece, and Jonathan Mogbo with 10 points and 4 assists.

The Panthers saw their two-game win streak end with Bowen Born scoring a team-high 21 points, while Tytan Anderson scored 15 points and snagged 6 boards

The Bears extended an 11-point halftime lead with a three from Ridgnal and a layup from Mogbo that ultimately led to a quick timeout by the Panthers. Less than five minutes later, Mogbo forced another UNI timeout on back-to-back layups that pushed the Bears up 55-37 with just under 12 minutes to play.

The Bears burned a timeout with 9:45 to go, but after the timeout, Ridgnal lit up two more 3-pointers to give MSU its biggest lead of the night, 64-42, and matched that on a steal and dunk by Donovan Clay with 3:08 remaining that made it 76-54.

Down the stretch, the Panthers were active in the back court and racked up three of their six steals in the game in the final three minutes to chip away and use a 9-0 run to make it 76-63 inside two minutes.

But the Bears weathered the storm with Kendle Moore and Ridgnal hitting clutch free throws to put the win on ice.

It marked MSU's 23rd MVC road win of the Dana Ford era and the 750th win for the Missouri State program since the move to Division I status in 1982-83.

Missouri State hit the 50-percent mark for the third straight game, making 29-of-53 (.547) shots overall and burying 11-of-24 (.458) from long range. The Bears were also 10-of-14 (.714) from the line with 14 assists and 9 steals.

In the first half, both teams shot 60 percent from the field, but Kendle Moore's 11 points and no second-chance points for the Panthers led to a 40-29 Bears advantage at the midway point. Missouri State turned a four-point advantage into a nine-point lead late in the opening half with a 10-2 run that started with a three by Kendle Moore and ended with five points from Chance Moore.

Coming out of an MSU timeout with 2:39 to go in the half, MSU exploded for another 7-0 outburst to push ahead by 14, its largest of the stanza. An alley-oop dunk to Ridgnal kicked off the outburst before Mayo scored from close range, and Kendle Moore's third trey of the half made it a 40-26 contest.

Born, who came into the night leading the league in scoring, ended the first half with a contested three from the right wing to make it a 40-29 contest at the half.

GAME 14

January 1, 2023, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 52, Drake 49

Donovan Clay scored three points in the final 77 seconds and finished with a team-high 15 points on the afternoon to lift Missouri State to a 52-49 home win over visiting Drake.

Clay's jumper with 1:07 to go erased Drake's narrow one-point lead, and pushed the Bears ahead 50-49. That score held until Clay attacked the rim with 21 seconds left in the game and got fouled before making one-of-two at the line.

MSU's defense then stepped up, forcing the Bulldogs (11-4, 2-2) to miss their last four field goal attempts of the night, while Jonathan Mogo's free throw with 3.8 seconds remaining pushed the home club up by its final winning margin of three.

Mogbo's defensive rebound off a miss from Sardaar Calhoun moments earlier was his eighth of the game, matching Clay for team-high rebounding honors, and was one of the biggest caroms of the ball game.

It took nearly four minutes to sort out the game's final three seconds, but in the end, DU's Roman Penn lost the ball in the corner, giving MSU its third straight win.

Kendle Moore joined Clay in double figures for Missouri State with 13 points off the bench, while Chance Moore scored 9. Clay also dished out a team-high 5 assists, blocked 4 shots and eclipsed 1,000 career points in the victory.

Drake was led by Tucker DeVries with 20 points, while D.J. Wilkins scored 11, and Darnell Brodie snagged a game-high 13 rebounds.

The Bears shot an even 40 percent from the field (20-of-50) overall and 8-of-24 (.333) from distance, including three triples by Chance Moore. MSU was 4-of-9 at the line (.444), while matching DU on the glass, 35-35.

Drake finished 20-of-57 (.351) overall, 5-of-13 (.385) from downtown and 4-of-8 (.500) at the line with 10 turnovers. The Bulldogs secured 11 second-chance points off 10 offensive rebounds, compared to MSU's 2 second-chance points.

The victory marked Missouri State's third in the last four meetings with Drake. The teams will square off again in Des Moines on Jan. 18.

In the first half, the Bears took it to the Valley preseason favorites from the jump, pushing ahead by seven early on a steal and dunk by Dalen Ridgnal. Chance Moore's first 3-pointer of the day then pushed MSU up 17-7 to give the home club a double-figure lead for the first time.

Drake would cut the Bears' lead to four on two occasions before the break, but in both instances, MSU had an answer. Clay's driving layup ended an 0-for-6 stretch for the home club with six minutes left in the stanza and started a 5-0 mini-run. Later, Chance Moore's second triple of the period and Clay's late layup pushed MoState ahead 30-21. DeVries' jumper at the buzzer got the Bulldogs back within 30-23 at the midway point.

GAME 15

January 4, 2023, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 85, Evansville 62

Missouri State had four players score in double figures, including a double-double from Jonathan Mogbo, to score an 85-62 conference win over visiting Evansville, extending the Bears' win streak to four in a row.

Mogbo's 14 points and 10 rebounds marked his first Division I double-double, while Chance Moore poured in a team-high 19 points on five 3-pointers. Missouri State (8-7, 4-1 MVC) also got 17 points and 9 boards from Donovan Clay, while Dalen Ridgnal added 14 points and 9 rebounds in a wire-to-wire MSU victory.

Evansville got a game-high 22 points from Marvin Coleman and 18 points from Kenny Strawbridge in the third straight Valley loss for the Aces.

Missouri State took a double-figure lead less than eight minutes into the game, using an 8-0 surge to push ahead 22-10 at the 11:47 mark of the first half. Chance Moore, Damien Mayo Jr., Clay and Ridgnal each score baskets in the run.

Later in the half, a Clay-led 6-0 mini-run gave MoState a 39-23 lead just before the intermission, their largest of the period for the home side.

The Bears, however, put things out of reach in the second half. A free throw from freshman N.J. Benson, who scored a season-high 9 points, at the 15:49 mark gave the home side a 47-27 lead for its first 20-point lead.

After Evansville cut its deficit to 16, the Bears turned to Moore who scored eight points as part of a 15-5 Missouri State run over the next four-and-a-half minutes. Ridgnal also had four points during that stretch that culminated in a 66-40 lead for MoState with 9:23 to play.

The Bears would match that 26-point advantage twice more before the final horn and cruised to their fifth home victory of the season.

Clay led all players with 6 assists, marking the sixth straight game he has led Missouri State in that category. Mogbo was equally strong in filling the box score with a game-high and season-high 5 steals.

For the ball game, MSU finished 32-of-65 (.492) from the field, 9-of-23 (.381) from distance and 12-of-18 (.667) at the line with a 41-24 rebounding margin – their largest since opening night. As a team, the Bears racked up 15 assists and 11 steals on the night.

Evansville was a respectable 23-of-47 (.489) from the field and 6-of-10 (.600) from distance, while converting 10-of-18 (.556) free throws with 16 turnovers. Yacine Toumi snagged 4 of the visitors' 11 steals on the night with Coleman racking up 8 rebounds and 4 assists for the Aces.

The victory marks the second time in three seasons the Bears have started 4-1 in Valley play under Dana Ford, who earned his 80th MSU win in the contest.

GAME 16

January 7, 2023, Curb Event Center, Nashville, Tenn.
Belmont 74, Missouri State 61

Donovan Clay posted 20 points for Missouri State, but the visiting Bears committed a season-high 17 turnovers and were unable to stop a hot-shooting Belmont squad in a 74-61 setback here Saturday in Missouri Valley Conference play.

In the first-ever meeting between the two teams, the home standing Bruins turned MSU's mishaps into 23 points off turnovers and buried 11 threes to snap MSU's four-game MSU win streak.

Cade Tyson led Belmont with 20 points behind three triples, while Ben Shepherd scored 17, also with three treys.

The Bears shot an efficient 45 percent on the offensive end and connected on seven 3-pointers of their own. However, an eight-and-a-half minute scoring drought for the visitors midway through the second half was pivotal.

After Chance Moore's 3-pointer with 15:10 to play pulled the Bears within 47-43, the only scoring Missouri State did during the ensuing stretch was four free throws from Moore. Meanwhile, Belmont pushed ahead 61-47 with 7:26 to play.

Moore was the only other Bear in double figures with 12 points.

Clay, who scored a season-high and was just two points shy of his career high, posted three field goals in the last four-plus minutes of the contest to help MSU finish strong. Belmont's largest lead, 74-59, with 1:17 remaining, was answered by a basket by Clay and a pair of free throws from Raphe Ayres in the final minute to cement the final margin.

The Bruins finished 26-of-56 (.464) overall from the field and 11-of-26 (.423) from distance while converting a perfect 11-of-11 at the stripe.

The Bears out-rebounded Belmont by a 33-30 margin, led by 8 caroms from Clay. Jonathan Mogbo accounted for 3 of the visitors' 7 blocks and led MSU in assists with 3.

In the first half, the Bears fell behind by as many as eight points twice but rallied both times and used a 14-5 run late in the period to take a 32-30 lead on a Kendle Moore layup with 2:37 before the intermission. Belmont responded with a 7-0 outburst to retake the lead, but a long trey by Ayres with 19 seconds to go pulled MSU within 37-35 at the midway point.

Missouri State shot 63.6 percent from the field in the opening stanza (14-of-22) but its 9 turnovers led directly to 14 Bruins points in that span to keep the visitors from leading by more than two at any point.

GAME 17

January 11, 2023, CEFCU Arena, Normal, Ill.
Illinois State 76, Missouri State 66 (ot)

Illinois State made all 10 of its free throws in overtime and 29-of-32 (.906) for the game to help the home-standing Redbirds secure a 76-66 win over visiting Missouri State in a Valley gut-wrencher.

With the score tied at the end of regulation, the Bears missed a pair of close-range shots before the buzzer, but jumped out to a 64-61 lead in the extra period thanks to three free throws from Donovan Clay.

But the rest of the OT period belonged to the Redbirds (8-10, 3-4 MVC) who only made two field goals in extra time, but capitalized on their free throw chances when it counted. ISU pulled ahead by two on a pair of foul shots from Kendall Lewis with 2:16 to go and extended their lead on a triple from Luke Kasubke moments later. From there, the home club made all eight free throws in the final 83 seconds to cap a 13-0 run and put the game on ice

Seneca Knight's 22 points led five Redbirds in double-figures with Malachi Poindexter adding 16 points, Lewis scoring 12 and Kasubke adding 11. Darius Buford added 10 points for ISU which also snagged 9 steals as a team.

Chance Moore led MoState with 17 points, while Dalen Ridgnal scored 14 points behind three treys. Clay and Jonathan Mogbo each added a dozen points for the visitors with Mogbo tacking on 12 rebounds, 3 assists, 2 blocks and 2 steals.

The Bears committed a season-high 27 fouls and matched ISU's 26 points in the paint. Four MSU players fouled out.

Missouri State made 21-of-62 (.339) overall from the field on the night but made just 1-of-15 field goal attempts in the final three minutes of regulation and overtime. Alston Mason's uncontested layup with 30 seconds left in OT ending an 0-for-12 stretch that covered more than eight minutes.

At the end of regulation, Ridgnal made 3-of-4 free throws over a 45-second stretch to push Missouri State ahead 61-59 with 28 seconds to go. The Redbirds called timeout and seemed to be in trouble late in the clock before Lewis bailed out ISU with a layup with 6 seconds remaining. In the final moments, Mason's drive to the rim was knocked away, but Mogbo snagged the rebound, and his last-second jumper rimmed out to end regulation, 61-61.

In the first half, Moore led the Bears with 10 points as five different MSU players hit 3-pointers to push the visitors to a 34-30 at the midway point. A 10-2 run by the Bears late in the half, led by Moore and Mogbo, gave MSU a 33-24 lead with less than two minutes left in the opening period. But ISU hit a pair of late threes themselves, both by Poindexter, to cut into MoState's lead late.

GAME 18

January 15, 2023, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 64, Indiana State 62

Led by 21 points from Donovan Clay and 20 from Bryan Trimble Jr., Missouri State led wire to wire and turned back visiting Indiana State, 64-62.

The visiting Sycamores came into the game with a comfortable lead in The Valley standings and left town locked into a three-way tie for the league lead with Belmont and Southern Illinois.

In his longest appearance of the season, Trimble saw 33 minutes off the bench and went 5-of-10 from 3-point range and a perfect 5-for-5 at the line to give MSU a needed offensive boost. On the inside, Clay and Dalen Ridgnal showed up strong, with Clay coming up one point shy of a career high and finishing 7-of-15 from the field with a pair of threes. Ridgnal narrowly missed a double-double with 9 points and 10 rebounds, while securing a key late-game block.

After leading by four at the midway point, the Bears came out strong in the second half, getting back-to-back buckets from Kendle Moore ahead of a triple from Trimble Jr., and a traditional 3-point play from Clay. Before the under-12 timeout, the Bears had extended their lead to 47-37.

From there, Trimble splashed home his fifth trey of the night with just under 11 minutes to go, and Clay's two free throws at the 10:26 mark gave MoState its largest lead of the game at 52-39.

But the experienced Sycamores responded with a 13-4 run over the next seven minutes and turned to Cameron Henry and Courvoisier McCauley to make it a 56-52 game with 3:23 remaining. Coming out of the final media timeout, Jonathan Mogbo's putback off a Ridgnal miss and Clay's layup a minute later gave MSU an eight-point cushion with a minute-and-a-half to play.

Down the stretch, ISU got a second-chance 3-pointer from Henry, a short hook shot by Robbie Avila and a layup by Cooper Neese to make it a 60-59 game. But when the Bears finally got to the foul line with 18.3 seconds to go, Trimble converted two foul shots to put MSU up by three, and later Ridgnal made it 64-59 with 4.9 left to put the game out of reach.

Neese's desperation three from 30 feet out at the buzzer splashed home to make the final margin two points.

MSU shot a season-best 94.1 percent from the foul line, making 16-of-17, while going 20-of-52 (.385) from the field and 8-for-22 (.364) from distance. The Bears out-rebounded the Sycamores by a 32-26 margin and registered 24 bench points.

Clay and Trimble each scored a dozen points in the first half with the Bears shooting an even 50 percent from the field.

GAME 19

January 18, 2023, Knapp Center, Des Moines, Iowa
Missouri State 65, Drake 62 (ot)

Missouri State overcame a 14-point deficit and clipped Valley preseason favorite Drake, 65-62, to sweep the season series from the Bulldogs.

Missouri State got 16 points apiece from Donovan Clay and Bryan Trimble Jr., while Alston Mason tacked on 13.

The Bears trailed 32-18 with 3:03 left in the first half and were down 34-21 at the half. The Bears took their first lead of the game with 5:10 left in regulation on a 3-pointer from Clay. Two minutes later, Clay gave MoState the lead again on his second three of the night, pushing the visitors ahead 56-54 at the time.

Drake eventually knotted things up on a pair of free throws by Tucker DeVries with 52 seconds left, which ultimately pushed the game into overtime. DeVries finished with a game-high 26 for the Bulldogs.

In OT, the Bears got an early triple by Kendle Moore and later a layup by Mason to take the lead on both shots as part of six lead changes in extra time. Mason's two free throws with 1:32 to play put the Bears up for good as they came up with three straight defensive stops, while Trimble iced it with a pair of free throws for Missouri State.

The Bears shot 46.8 percent from the field for the night (22-of-47) after making just seven field goals in the opening half. MSU was also 11-of-24 (.458) from downtown and 10-of-15 (.667) at the line with just 5 turnovers in the game's final 25 minutes.

Drake was 21-of-54 (.389) overall, 6-for-25 (.240) from distance and 14-of-15 (.933) at the stripe with a slight 30-29 rebounding advantage. DeVries finished 7-of-18 from the field.

DU set a blistering pace from the jump, turning an early 11-8 lead into a 21-11 advantage less than nine minutes into the contest. That double-figure advantage swelled to 14 late in the half as the Bears went over three minutes without a field goal before Trimble scored MSU's last five points of the half.

During the opening 20 minutes, MSU committed 10 turnovers and surrendered 14 points in the paint to trail 34-21 at the intermission. Trimble led MSU with 8 points in the opening period.

The Bears outscored Drake 35-22 in the second half and matched the largest deficit overcome for victory under coach Dana Ford.

GAME 20

January 21, 2023, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Southern Illinois 61, Missouri State 57

Missouri State trimmed an 11-point deficit to just two in the final minute but ultimately could not catch visiting Southern Illinois, falling 61-57 to the first-place Salukis as both teams reached the midway point in the Valley race.

SIU had four players score in double figures, including a team-high 11 points from Lance Jones who knocked down three 3-pointers. But it was Xavier Johnson who hit the game's biggest shot, burying a mid-range jumper on SIU's final possession to give the visitors a four-point lead.

The Bears tried to answer with a jumper from Bryan Trimble Jr., but SIU gathered the rebound and ran out the clock to end MSU's comeback hopes. MoState never led in the contest.

Chance Moore's 3-pointer by the Bears drew the home club within 45-42 with 9:25 to go. But the Bears went cold for the four minutes, while a 10-2 run by SIU in that span put the Salukis ahead 55-44, their biggest lead of the game.

Free throws my Alston Mason and Donovan Clay drew MoState back within seven, and later a dunk-back by Jonathan Mogbo made it a 59-54 contest with 1:25 remaining. After getting a defensive stop on SIU's next possession, the Bears turned to Kendle Moore for a huge three from the right wing to make it a 59-57 contest with 42 seconds left.

But as the shot clock expired on SIU's next trip down, Johnson's jumper found its mark and pushed SIU into at least a share of first place in the MVC standings at the midway point in the league standings.

Mogbo scored a game-high 14 points for the Bears on 6-of-9 field goals to go with 11 rebounds in securing his third double-double of the year. Trimble was also in double figures for MSU with 12 points, all in the first half, while Donovan Clay had 9 points, 5 rebounds and 4 assists.

MSU finished 21-of-52 (.404) overall from the field, 8-of-24 (.333) from distance and 7-for-12 (.583) at the line with a 36-28 rebounding advantage. Mogbo snagged 7 offensive rebounds on the afternoon, helping the Bears rack up 14 second-chance points.

The Salukis were 23-of-51 (.451) overall, 10-for-26 (.385) from three and 5-of-6 (.833) at the stripe with 7 steals. SIU standout Marcus Domansk scored 10 points.

In the first half, early turnovers put the Bears in an eight-point hole eight minutes into the contest, but Trimble helped the home club rally. The Akron transfer knocked down three straight treys for the Bears, each of which pulled MSU within one point of the lead. He finished with 12 points in the opening stanza, but SIU scored the last four points of the period to lead 30-25 at the intermission.

GAME 21

January 24, 2023, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 63, UIC 59

The Missouri State trio of Jonathan Mogo, Chance Moore and Alston Mason each had big moments in the game's final minute to lift the home-standing Bears over visiting UIC, 63-59.

Mason tallied career highs in points (19), rebounds (5) and assists (5) to pace a MoState squad that trialed with just over two minutes to go. Donovan Clay also pitched in 19 points and 7 boards, while Mogbo added 12 points.

After five unanswered points by UIC's Filip Škobalj erased a three-point Bears lead with 2:04 remaining, Clay tied the game, 56-56, with a pair of free throws at the 1:21 mark. The Flames regained the advantage briefly on a free throw by Tre Anderson, but Chance Moore gathered in the rebound on Anderson's second shot, giving the home team the ball down by one and less than a minute remaining.

Moore then stepped up with one of the Bears' biggest shots of the night, a 3-pointer from right wing that rattled home to give the Bears the lead for good with 48 ticks showing on the clock. After Christian Jones missed a 3-pointer on UIC's next possession, the Bears secured the victory at the foul line. Mogo and Mason combined to go 4-for-4 at the line down the stretch to keep UIC just out of reach and push Missouri State to victory.

The Bears overcame a rugged shooting night by going 14-of-18 (.778) at the free throw line, including nine straight makes to end the game – five by Mason. Missouri State was 22-of-58 (.379) overall from the field and 5-for-25 (.200) from long range. MSU also out-rebounded the visitors by a 38-34 margin, allowing just three second-chance points on the evening.

UIC was led by 19 points and 11 rebounds by Jace Carter with Škobalj pitching in 18 points, and Anderson adding 11. Carter's double-double was just the third against the Bears this season.

The victory pushed the Bears to 7-3 at Great Southern Bank Arena for the season and handed fifth-year head coach Dana Ford his 50th home victory (50-19).

In the first half, the Bears built a 29-21 lead after a drive and bucket from Mason with 4:15 to go before the intermission. But the Flames rallied after the under-four media timeout, splashing home three unanswered 3-pointers from Carter and Škobalj to give the visitors a 30-29 lead at the break.

The Bears got 10 points and 4 assists from Mason in the opening stanza before going into the intermission on a 1-for-13 stretch.

GAME 22

January 28, 2023, CFSB Center, Murray, Ky.
Murray State 74, Missouri State 71

Murray State made 14-of-17 free throws in the second half and held off a late surge from the visiting Bears in a 74-71 decision.

The Bears were led by a career-high 22 points from Alston Mason and 14 points from Donovan Clay, while Damien Mayo Jr. notched a career-high 13, and Jonathan Mogbo racked up 10 points and a career-best 16 rebounds in the loss.

Murray State got 17 points apiece from Rob Perry and Brian Moore Jr.

The decisive swing came with a 9-0 run from the Racers that included four straight trips to the free throw line. After Clay's layup on a lob from Mason gave Missouri State a 55-53 lead at the 10:52 mark, the visitors went scoreless for nearly five minutes while the Racers made their run.

The home side rode the coat tails of Kenny White Jr., who started the 9-0 run, while a three-point play from D.J. Burns and extended free throw chances by Moore and Jamari Smith made it 64-57.

Smith's jumper with 3:05 remaining ended a 13-3 stretch for Murray State and gave the Racers their biggest lead of the day, 66-58.

But the Bears were able to mount a comeback in the final two minutes with Mason scoring five big points in crunch time, and Clay flushing home a second-chance dunk. But the Racers were solid on their free throw opportunities with the game on the line, with Burns and Perry combining to make four charity shots in the final 21 seconds and ruin MoState's comeback hopes.

The Bears finished 28-of-62 (.452) overall from the field and 5-of-19 (.263) from long range with Mason's trey in the final minute as the only bonus ball of the second half from the visitors. MoState was also 10-of-15 at the line with a 35-30 rebounding edge.

Missouri State matched a season-high with 46 points in the paint and surrendered just two points off its nine turnovers.

Murray was 24-for-51 (.471) overall, 5-of-15 (.333) from three and 87.5 percent at the line on 21-of-24 attempts. The Racers also committed a dozen turnovers.

In the first half, both teams led for about six-and-a-half minutes with nine ties and four lead changes in an offensive-oriented stanza. Murray State got a layup from Kenny White Jr. to go ahead 37-35 at the break with Rob Perry accounting for 15 points for the home side in the opening half.

The Bears led 10-5 out of the gates with Alston Mason and James Graham knocking down threes as part of an 8-0 run for Missouri State. Graham would later tie the game with his second trey of the period with 6:59 remaining, and Donovan Clay gave MoState two leads in the final five minutes – both from close range – the latter of which put the Bears up 35-33 with 3:11 showing. But the visitors missed their last four field goal attempts of the opening half, and the Racers scored last to take a two-point advantage.

GAME 23

February 1, 2023, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 76, Valparaiso 67 (ot)

Alston Mason scored 12 of his game-high and career-high 27 points in the last three minutes of regulation and overtime to help lift Missouri State to a 76-67 win over visiting Valparaiso.

Mason never came out of the game, playing all 45 minutes of the overtime contest, while dishing out 9 assists and burying three clutch triples to help the Bears weather a 10-0 run by the Beacons late in regulation.

After a tip-in by Jonathan Mogbo with 6:32 left in regulation gave MSU a 54-51 lead, Valpo went on a 10-0 run over the next three minutes to lead 61-54 with 3:11 left in the game. Quinton Green caught fire to spark the run by the visitors, pushing home the Beacons first five points of the outburst before Ben Krikke and Nick Edwards followed suit.

But the Bears were game for the fight. Mason and James Graham combined for three 3-pointers over a 90-second span to draw MoState within 65-63 in the final minute. Then after a missed trey by Connor Barrett on Valpo's last offensive possession, Chance Moore gathered in the rebound and got the ball to Mason who was fouled and sent to the line with 22.5 seconds on the clock.

Mason made both shots to tie the game, 65-65, and the Bears' defense held up down the stretch, including a last-second block by Mogbo, to force overtime.

In the extra period, Mogbo scored MSU's first three points to set the pace, then Mason gave the Bears a five-point lead with a reverse layup midway through the extra period. Missouri State's defense then stepped up again with a steal by Chance Moore, a rebound by Mogbo and a block by Moore giving the Bears the energy they needed to gain separation. Dalen Ridgnal's tip-in preceded four straight free throws from Moore and Mason to cap a 16-0 run by the Bears and give the home side its biggest lead of the night, 76-65 with 21 seconds left in OT.

The Beacons scored their last basket on a tip-in by Krikke, who led Valparaiso with 19 points, to make the final margin nine points.

After MSU trailed by seven at the intermission, the Bears held Valpo to a combined 13-for-37 (.351) from the field in the second half and overtime, while chipping away at an early rebounding deficit and solid transition game by the visitors early in the game.

Mogbo finished with 17 points and 10 rebounds for Missouri State, his fifth double-double of the season and second in as many games. Moore tallied 16 points off the bench for the Bears and snagged 3 steals.

The Bears finished 27-of-57 (.474) from the field overall, 7-of-21 (.333) from long range and 15-for-23 (.652) at the line with 8 steals and a dozen turnovers.

GAME 24

February 5, 2023, Banterra Center, Carbondale, Ill.
Southern Illinois 73, Missouri State 53

A decisive 18-2 run over a seven-minute stretch in the second half propelled home-standing Southern Illinois to a 73-53 win over visiting Missouri State.

Lance Jones (18) and Troy D'Amico (15) led SIU in scoring, which racked up a dozen steals and knocked down nine 3-pointers.

The Bears got 14 points apiece from Chance Moore and Alston Mason.

MoState cut a double-figure SIU lead to four points with 10:37 left in the game to put itself in a position down the stretch. A runner by Damien Mayo Jr. followed a triple by Mason to make it a 50-46 game. But the Salukis responded with the decisive stretch over the next seven minutes, collecting triples by Jones and Xavier Johnson to trigger the outburst.

A quick put-back by Jonathan Mogbo at the 8:57 mark gave the visitors a needed bucket, but SIU responded with 12 unanswered points from there, ending the decisive run on a layup by Clarence Rupert before N.J. Benson's three-point play for MSU with 3:34 to go ended the drought.

Missouri State finished the game 20-of-42 (.476) from the field, 5-of-11 (.455) from long distance and 8-of-16 (.500) at the foul line with 16 turnovers.

SIU finished 26-of-57 (.456) overall from the field, 9-of-32 (.281) from long range and 12-of-13 (.923) at the line with a 29-26 rebounding advantage. SIU scored 26 points off turnovers and posted 10 second-chance points off its 12 offensive boards.

In the first half, Missouri State shot 59.1 percent from the field but turned the ball over 10 times – leading to 11 Saluki points – to trail 36-32 at the midway point. SIU used backup D'Amico to gain separation midway through the half, turning a six-point Bears lead into a seven-point SIU advantage with D'Amico scoring 12 points during an 18-5 run by the home club.

Missouri State tied it up twice before the intermission, first on a pair of free throws by Chance Moore and later on a jumper by Mason that made it 32-32 with 98 seconds before the break. But SIU managed to score twice more before the break, riding the momentum of its seven steals into a four-point halftime lead.

GAME 25

February 8, 2023, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 61, Belmont 59

In a back-and-forth Valley battle that featured 10 lead changes in the second half, a dunk by MSU's Jonathan Mogbo with 8.9 seconds remaining proved to be the difference as the Bears held on for a 61-59 win over first-place Belmont.

After missing the past two games with an illness, Donovan Clay returned to action and racked up a game-high 18 points to lead Missouri State, while Kendle Moore tallied 15 points – all on 3-pointers -- in his return to the starting rotation. In addition to his game-winning dunk, Mogbo posted a career-high 19 rebounds.

Belmont got 14 points and three steals from Ben Sheppard with Cade Tyson contributing 12 for the visitors.

After Clay's 3-pointer with seven minutes to play gave MoState a 55-53 lead, the Bears never trailed again, but the visitors did not go away. Belmont tied the game three times from there, including a bucket by Even Brauns with 1:30 on the clock that made it a 59-59 contest. Brauns went to the line for a chance for a traditional three-point play, but couldn't convert the free throw.

The Bears were called for a charge on their next possession and then forced Belmont into two misses on the Bruins' next trip down the floor before Mogbo cleaned the glass to keep it tied. Missouri State then called a timeout and finished a crucial series with Clay drawing a double team then lobbing the ball to a wide-open Mogbo for the go-ahead dunk with less than 9 seconds remaining.

Missouri State's defensive pressure forced Belmont into taking its last two time-outs in the deciding moments with the final in-bounds pass from the visitors sailing over the head of Sheppard before the clock expired.

The Bears finished 25-of-58 (.431) from the field and 8-of-25 (.320) from 3-point range. MSU was also 3-of-6 (.500) in limited free throw chances with a 39-30 rebounding advantage, 17 assists and 10 turnovers.

Belmont was 24-of-56 (.429) overall, 5-of-16 (.313) from long range and 6-of-9 (.667) at the line with 6 turnovers and 7 steals. The Bruins were 2-for-10 from the field over the game's last seven-plus minutes.

It was the lowest 3-point output by the Bruins since Jan. 29 at Drake.

With the victory, Missouri State improved to 9-3 at Great Southern Bank Arena this season with wins in seven of its last eight home contests.

In the first half, the Bears shot 47 percent from the field and turned the ball over just three times to take a 35-33 lead into the break. Damien Mayo Jr. and Kendle Moore scored 9 points apiece to lead the home side in the opening stanza.

MSU ended the first half on a 7-1 run with a 3-pointer from Kendle Moore, a bucket from Chance Moore and a dunk from Mogbo.

GAME 26

February 12, 2023, Ford Center, Evansville, Ind.
Missouri State 66, Evansville 60

Chance Moore drained three 3-pointers in the final two minutes of the game to help spark Missouri State to a 66-60 victory over home-standing Evansville.

Moore was one of three Bears in double figures with 14 points, while Alston Mason pitched in a game-high 18 and Donovan Clay added 17, including two free throws in the deciding moments.

With the victory, the Bears have racked up 10 or more Valley wins in three straight seasons and lock in at least a .500 Valley finish for the fifth time in five seasons under Dana Ford.

Evansville survived double-figure deficits in both halves and used a 14-3 run over a six-plus minute stretch to take a 54-53 lead with 3:47 to go in the game. That's when Chance Moore stepped up with a needed 3-point bucket for the visitors with 2:19 to go, MSU's first field goal in nearly eight minutes to return the lead to Missouri State, 56-54.

The Aces responded with a corner three by Antoine Smith to retake the lead briefly before Moore buried another triple with 94 seconds left. Finally, after a pair of UE free throws made it 59-59 with 1:18 to go, Moore stepped up again at the 51-second mark, giving the visitors a 62-59 advantage and a lead they would never relinquish.

Clay and Damien Mayo Jr. combined to go 4-for-4 at the line in the final 30 seconds to seal the deal. Also big down the stretch was a deflection by Jonathan Mogbo who jarred a ball loose in the back court that rolled all the way to the other end of the court off an Evansville player to help MSU's cause.

Mogbo finished with a game-high 10 rebounds for Missouri State, while the Bears finished the contest 11-of-14 (.786) at the stripe, all in the second half.

In a first half marred with 10 turnovers, the Bears got 9 points from Clay and 8 from Mason to take a 30-27 lead at the intermission. MSU shot 43.3 percent from the field in the opening 20 minutes but a 20-13 rebounding margin limited Evansville's second-chance opportunities.

A 9-0 run capped by a three from Mason pushed the Bears ahead 21-10 at the 7:53 mark of the opening half, before UE answered with back-to-back threes to get back in the game.

The Bears were 23-of-54 (.426) from the field and 9-of-21 (.429) from long range with a 38-24 rebounding advantage. Mason has 6 of MSU's 12 assists.

The Bears also committed a season-high 18 turnovers.

Evansville was led by Smith's 16 points, while Marvin Coleman added 14 points. The Aces were 18-of-46 (.391), 7-17 (.412) from distance and 17-for-19 (.895) at the line with seven steals.

GAME 27

February 15, 2023, Carver Arena, Peoria, Ill.
Bradley 64, Missouri State 54

Bradley rode the momentum of a 12-point lead five minutes into the game – and an 18-point advantage early in the second half -- to a double-figure win over visiting Missouri State, 64-54.

The Bears were led by Donovan Clay who scored 16 points, while Alston Mason tallied 14 points and 3 assists. MoState also got help off the bench from Chance Moore who added 11 points, while N.J. Benson racked up a career-high 12 rebounds in reserve.

Bradley kept its share of first place in the Valley standings intact with Rienk Mast and Malevy Leons scoring 11 points apiece.

Bradley shot just under 60 percent in the opening half to lead 37-26 at the mid-way point. The Braves jetted out to a 16-4 lead in the opening five minutes before Chance Moore's 3-pointer for the Bears calmed the waters.

Moore, Clay and Mason combined to drop in four more threes before the inter-mission, two of which got the visitors within single digits of the lead. Mason's triple with 5:22 left before the half made it a 29-21 game, but the Braves responded with a 6-0 run of their own to push ahead by 14. Clay scored all five of MSU's points on a 5-2 Bears' run before the horn to get within 11 at the break.

The Bears would outscore Bradley by a 28-27 margin in the second half and used a 12-4 run to make it a six-point game. Chance Moore started the rally before Mason scored 8 of the next 10 for MoState. Mason's layup with 9:03 to go made it a 50-44 contest.

Bradley responded with five unanswered points to extend its lead to 11 before Dalen Ridgnal splashed home a 3-pointer for the Bears to make it 55-47.

Free throws by Clay and Benson would keep the Bears within single digits over the next three minutes but MoState would go nearly seven minutes without a field goal down the stretch before Chance Moore's electrifying dunk with 44 seconds to go.

The Bears finished 20-of-60 (.333) from the field overall, 7-of-32 (.219) from three and 7-of-11 (.636) at the line with a 40-38 rebounding advantage.

Bradley was 27-of-61 (.443) overall, 6-of-19 (.316) from three and 4-of-6 (.667) at the stripe with 13 assists and 8 turnovers.

GAME 28

February 18, 2023, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Northern Iowa 69, Missouri State 66

Missouri State led by six with just under five minutes left in the game before visiting Northern Iowa stormed back down the stretch to steal one from the Bears, 69-66, at Great Southern Bank Arena.

UNI went 7-for-7 at the line in the final two-and-a-half minutes which certainly helped the visitors get that opportunity. Meanwhile, the Bears made just one of their last five field goal attempts after Chance Moore's bucket on a slick pass by Alston Mason gave MSU a 60-53 lead with 5:24 remaining.

Just before the two-minute mark, Damien Mayo Jr., scored on a layup high off the glass to give the Bears a 64-60 cushion. UNI quickly responded with a layup from Michael Duax to cut it to two, then rallied behind a traditional three-point play from Bowen Born on its next possession to take the lead.

Missouri State tried to lob inside to Jonathan Mogbo on its next trip down the floor but turned it over in traffic. Chance Moore's steal moments later gave the Bears another chance to retake the lead before his potential go-ahead trey car-omed out.

Later, Moore got to the line for three shots with 7.5 seconds left in the game and the Bears down by three. He made two-of-three from the stripe, which forced MSU to foul again, and Born converted both subsequent free throws for the Panthers.

Just before the final buzzer, Mason's potential tying three also looked online for the Bears, but it rimmed out as time expired.

Chance Moore's 17 points led Missouri State, while Donovan Clay scored 11, and Kendle Moore added 10. Mason and Chance Moore led MoState with 6 rebounds each.

UNI got 21 points from Born, 17 from Duax and 12 points with 12 rebounds from Tytan Anderson.

For the game, Missouri State finished 22-of-53 (.415) overall, and 8-of-27 (.296) from bonus distance. The Bears were also 14-of-22 (636) at the foul line with just 8 turnovers and a 33-32 rebounding edge. MoState shot just 31.8 percent from the second half.

Clay had a game-high 6 assists for the Bears with a pair of blocks.

Northern Iowa was 25-of-52 (.481) overall, 7-of-18 (.389) from distance and 12-of-16 (.750) at the line with 9 turnovers.

In the first half, there were eight ties and three lead changes with a 10-3 Bears run late in the half pushing MSU up 36-31 with 1:37 left before the half. The run included threes from Kendle Moore and Chance Moore and ultimately pushed the Bears ahead 38-33 at the intermission behind a 48-percent field goal percentage.

GAME 29

February 21, 2023, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 84, Murray State 69

Missouri State hit a season-high 13 three-pointers and had its first 50-percent shooting game since December, rolling to an 84-69 win over visiting Murray State in the home finale for the Bears.

Donovan Clay led MSU with 19 points, while Alston Mason racked up 18, and Kendle Moore contributed 14. The Bears also got 13 points and 9 rebounds from Jonathan Mogbo who narrowly missed his sixth double-double of the campaign.

The Bears, who tallied their 10th home win of the year, never trailed and matched a season-high with 20 assists.

Murray State was led by Rob Perry's 20 points, while JaCobi Wood added 16 for the visitors who turned the ball over 11 times.

MoState was on fire from the jump, getting 3-pointers from Mason and Clay in the opening minute before Clay's tip-in made it 8-0 and forced a Murray State timeout. Three minutes later, Mason's second of four 3-pointers on the night gave the Bears a 10-point lead, 18-8, just over five minutes into the contest.

The Racers, who also hit a season-high 12 threes, used the long ball to get back within four before a 15-2 Missouri State run before the under-four timeout pushed the home club up by a 40-25 scored.

The Bears would shoot 54.3 percent from the field in the opening 20 minutes with half a dozen threes to lead 46-34 at the midway point.

Murray State opened up the second half with a 7-0 run to get within five points of the lead twice, but Missouri State turned to Clay to stop the bleeding. The Alton, Illinois product buried back-to-back triples for the Bears, the second of which ignited a decisive 16-0 run over a five-minute stretch.

By the time Dalen Ridgnal's layup ended the run at the 10:50 mark, MoState had built its biggest lead of the game, 65-44.

The Racers whittled away at the Missouri State lead midway through the final stanza, using an 11-3 outburst to get within 13. But the home side weathered the storm and turned to Mogbo for back-to-back scores before Mason's final triple of the game got Bears back on track.

James Graham's 3-pointer with three-and-a-half minutes remaining pushed Missouri State's lead back to 19. It was Graham's 20th trey of the season, giving the Bears six different players with 20 or more treys.

The Bears finished 33-of-64 (.516) from the field, their best shooting effort since their win at UNI on Dec. 28. They also eclipsed a season-best in 3-point shooting, converting 46.4 percent (13-of-28) from distance. MSU also had 5-of-7 (.714) free throws, a 36-25 rebounding advantage and just 8 turnovers.

GAME 30

February 26, 2023, Hulman Center, Terre Haute, Ind.
Missouri State 66, Indiana State 62

Led by 22 points from Kendle Moore, Missouri State snagged its fifth Valley road win of the season, leading wire-to-wire in a 66-62 victory over Indiana State.

The Bears held off a late surge by the Sycamores to finish things off with Moore providing a clutch rebound on ISU's last possession, and then burying a free throw with 1.2 seconds left to clinch it. With the victory, Missouri State locked up the No. 6 seed for Arch Madness in St. Louis while reeling off its third straight season with 12 or more conference wins for the first time in program history.

Joining Moore in double figures for MoState was Donovan Clay with 15 and Alston Mason with 10. Four Bears had five rebounds with Mason dishing out a game-high five assists and Moore snagging three of the team's nine assists.

After leading by nine at the half, the Bears held off several runs by the Sycamores in the game's final 10 minutes. Mason ended a 6-0 ISU run on a floater with 7:49 to go. Later, Jonathan Mogbo and Clay scored on back-to-back alley-oop dunks to stretch a four-point lead to 54-46 with 6:50 remaining.

Chance Moore knocked down a clutch three for MoState at the six-minute-mark, and then Clay extended five-point Bears' leads twice from there on a layup and elbow jumper to make it 61-54 with three-and-a-half minutes showing.

From there, Indiana State trimmed its deficit to four points on two more occasions – the first was answered by a pair of free throws by Damien Mayo Jr., but McCauley got the Sycamores as close as they would get by making a clutch 3-pointer with 22.6 seconds to go and making it a 63-62 contest.

The Trees had to foul from there and sent Clay to the line, but the MSU upper classmen converted both charity shots with 17 seconds left. Then with the game on the line, MSU's defense stepped up, Neese's potential game-tying three came up short for the home side, and Kendle Moore corralled the rebound. He was subsequently fouled and made one-of-two at the stripe to put the win on ice.

In the first half, the Bears rode the hot shooting hand of Kendle Moore to a nine-point advantage at the break. Moore was 4-for-4 from three and 5-of-6 from the field overall to bank 17 points in the opening stanza.

Meanwhile, the MSU defense was solid throughout, surrendering just 8 field goals and holding the Sycamores to 0-for-9 from long range to lead by as many as 14. The home squad ended the half on an 8-3 run that included six free throws in the final 4:52.

GAME 31

March 2, 2023, Enterprise Center, St. Louis, Mo.
Missouri State 74, UIC 57

Behind a dominant second-half effort, Missouri State defeated UIC, 74-57, in the opening round of the Missouri Valley Conference Men's Basketball Tournament.

After leading by four at the half, the Bears (17-14) shot 55.2 percent from the field in the final stanza and got a game-high 17 points from Alston Mason, 15 from Jonathan Mogbo and 13 by Damien Mayo Jr. to secure the win.

Missouri State outscored the No. 11-seeded Flames by a 40-27 margin in the second half. All 13 of Mayo's points came in the final period and matched a season scoring high. The freshman also snagged 6 rebounds.

With the Bears leading 40-34 with 18:33 to go, Mayo took over. The freshman reeled off Missouri State's next 11 points over the next five minutes to extend the lead to 51-38. Following a dunk by Mogbo and a 3-pointer from James Graham, the Bears pushed ahead by 16 – their largest lead of the night to that point.

UIC made one last surge and cut its deficit to single digits with back-to-back layups from Jace Carter whose dunk with 5:07 to play made it a 62-53 contest.

Missouri State responded with a layup from Mayo and a dunk from Mogbo – his fifth dunk of the night and 42nd of the season, which tied a Bears' single-season record. He also racked up a team-high 8 rebounds on the evening.

Down the stretch, Graham put things on ice with back-to-back 3-pointers in the final 75 seconds, while Mason's two free throws moments later gave the Bears their largest lead of the game and extended the final margin to 17.

The Bears shot 49.2 percent for the game on 29-of-59 field goals, while converting 9-of-25 (.360) from long range and 7-of-13 (.538) at the foul line. MoState held a 39-30 rebounding advantage and turned the ball over just six times – a season low.

Donovan Clay snagged 7 rebounds and dished out 6 assists to contribute to the victory.

UIC was led by Carter's 14 points, while Christian Jones tallied 12 in reserve. The Flames finished 23-of-58 (.397) overall, 5-of-22 (.227) from distance and 6-of-12 (.500) at the line with 7 turnovers.

In the first half, the Bears never trailed and held UIC to 38.7 percent shooting to lead 34-30. Alston Mason and Kendle Moore scored 9 points apiece to lead the No. 6-seeded Bears who led by as many as nine on two occasions.

GAME 32

March 3, 2023, Enterprise Center, St. Louis, Mo.
Southern Illinois 54, Missouri State 51

In a defensive war that featured nine ties and eight lead changes, Missouri State's shot at upsetting third-seeded Southern Illinois at Arch Madness came up one possession short, 54-51.

The Bears (17-15) were led by a game-high 18 points from Donovan Clay, including 11 in the second half, while Chance Moore added 10 points, and Dalen Ridgnal snagged a game-high 8 rebounds.

Southern Illinois got 17 points by Marcus Domansk and 13 from Xavier Johnson.

With a close-range bucket from Damien Mayo Jr. with 9:05 to go, the Bears pulled ahead, 45-39, their largest lead of the second half. But the Salukis then responded a decisive 13-0 outburst over the next seven minutes to grab a seven-point lead with two minutes to play.

A three-pointer by Troy D'Amico pushed SIU up by five at the 4:12 mark before a layup by Johnson made it 52-45.

But the never-say-die Springfield squad was up for the fight. Clay scored on back-to-back possessions for MoState to make it a 52-49 contest with a minute to play, just ahead of a turnover by the Salukis on the ensuing in-bound play.

Missouri State was unable to capitalize on the turnover and missed a potential game-tying three as the shot clock expired, but another defensive gem by the Bears moments later resulted in an easy layup by Mogbo in traffic to make it 52-51 with 30 seconds left in the contest.

The Bears were forced to foul Domansk on SIU's next possession, and the all-conference senior made both foul shots at the 21-second mark. Down by three on their last possession of the night, MSU struggled to get a clean look, and Kendle Moore's desperation shot from the wing rattled away as the final horn sounded.

The Bears out-rebounded SIU by a 34-29 margin and held the Salukis to just three second-chance points on the night. Likewise, the Bears tallied two more field goals than their maroon rivals and held a 32-24 advantage in points in the paint.

MSU finished 20-of-52 (.385) overall from the field, 4-of-18 (.222) from three and 7-of-11 (.636) at the line with 17 turnovers – one shy of a season high.

In the first half, the Bears led by as many as 13 and held SIU to just 36 percent shooting. But the Salukis ended the half on a 7-0 run and held MoState scoreless for the final six-and-a-half minutes of the opening period. Ridgnal's 8 points led all scorers in the first half as he buried a pair of threes and snagged 6 rebounds to hold SIU to just one second-chance point.

RETIRED JERSEYS

#22, Winston Garland (1985-87): Garland led MSU to its first two Division I postseason tournament appearances, leading the scoring on the Bears' 1986 NIT ballclub and also on a school-record 28-win NCAA Tournament team in 1987. He became the Bears' all-time leading two-year scorer with 1,248 points, was a Mid-Continent Conference all-league first team selection both of his seasons, was named Mid-Continent Player of the Year as a senior, and was the first two-time winner of the MSU Player of the Year Award. A native of Gary, Ind., Garland came to MSU following two seasons at Southeastern (Iowa) Community College.

#32, Daryel Garrison (1971-75): Garrison was a four-year starter for the Bears whose 1,975 points stands as Missouri State's all-time scoring record. He played for MIAA championship teams as a sophomore and junior which both advanced to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The 1972-73 Bears were eliminated in the NCAA Regional Tournament, but the 1973-74 club reached the national finals in Evansville before losing to Morgan State. Garrison played in 107 Missouri State games and also holds MSU career marks in 20-point games (46), field goals (830) and field goal attempts (1,755).

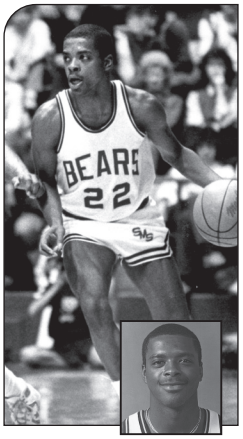

#43, Jerry Anderson (1951-55): Anderson was a two-time NAIA national tournament MVP, playing on MSU NAIA national championship teams in 1952 and 1953 and an NAIA national third place ball club in 1954. He was named to the NAIA all-time all-tournament team in 1971 and was selected to the NAIA 50th and 75th Anniversary All-Tournament teams. A four-year starter for the Bears, Anderson was the second MSU player ever to collect 1,000 points in a career. A native of Marshfield, Mo., he also played on MIAA championship teams each of his first three years.

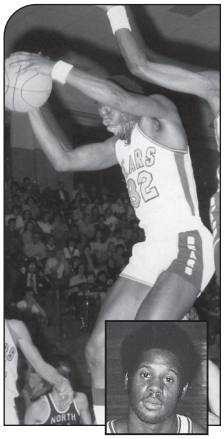

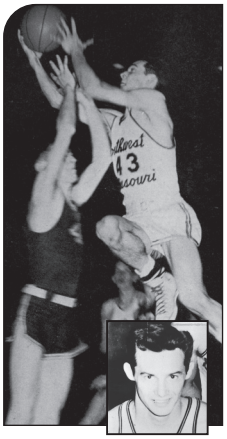

#54, Curtis Perry (1966-70): Perry is the Bears' all-time leader on the boards with 1,424 career rebounds, and he also holds the MSU single-game and single-season rebounding records. He played on Missouri State's NCAA Division II national runner-up teams in 1967 and 1969, and on four consecutive MIAA championship and NCAA Tournament teams. Perry was the MIAA Most Valuable Player in 1970. He is the club's third-best all-time leading scorer, with 1,835 career points; and was a College Division All-America pick in both 1969 and 1970. A four-year Bears' starter, Perry is originally from Washington, D.C. and went on to NBA stardom.

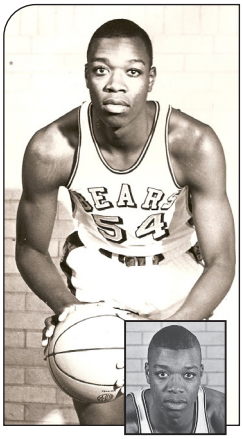

Coach Charlie Spoonhour (1983-92): Spoonhour's teams won 197 games in his nine MSU seasons, taking the school to seven straight 20-victory campaigns with postseason tournament appearances in each. He authored the first five of the six trips MSU has made into the NCAA tournament, won four straight Mid-Continent Conference championships and chalked up the Bears' only Missouri Valley Conference tournament title.

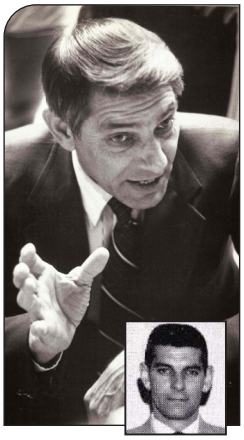

He went on to coaching stops at Saint Louis (1992-99) and UNLV (2001-04) and finished 373-202 in 19 years overall as a Division I head coach. Spoon passed away on Feb. 1, 2012.

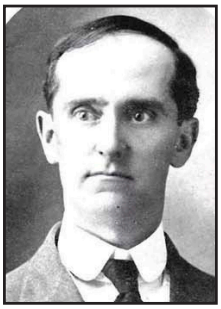

Coach Bill Thomas (1964-80): Thomas was a three-year starter for the Bears as part of the 1952 and 1953 NAIA national championship clubs and returned to campus as an assistant coach in 1956. He became the head coach of the Bears in 1964 and over the next 16 seasons, directed them to eight MIAA basketball titles, more than any coach in league history. The Bears won the MIAA title five years in a row from 1966 to 1970 and finished second in the NCAA Division II tournament three times - 1967, 1969, and 1974. Thomas compiled a 16-year coaching mark of 265 wins and 158 losses and was named 1974 College Division National Coach of the Year by the NABC.

100-Point Games

The Bears have scored 100 or more points 43 times, most recently in a 103-56 home win over Evangel (12/30/21).

MSU's 110 points vs. Troy (12/11/04) marked the highest point total ever for a Missouri State team in Hammons Student Center.

The Bears scored a 105-82 win over Rice in the NIT (3/16/05) in the team's home finale, MSU's first-ever 100-point postseason game.

The Bears topped 100 in both games of the 1995-96 Price Cutter Classic, marking the first time in 27 seasons the Bears had back-to-back 100-point games.

The Bears' 130-106 win over Central Missouri in McDonald Arena (2/8/75) is the only time Missouri State has given up 100 points in a game at home and also the only time the Bears have won a game in which they allowed 100 points.

The 1974-75 campaign also saw the most 100-point games recorded by Missouri State in a season (4). The Bears last hit the century mark in scoring in a road game at Evansville (1/8/69).

1987

Southeast Regional First Round
March 13, 1987, The Omni, Atlanta, Ga.
Missouri State 65, Clemson 60

In its first-ever NCAA Division I Tournament game, MSU pulled off the biggest upset in the 1987 first round by defeating Clemson 65-60. The Bears also set a new all-time single season victory record with 28 wins.

The Bears went ahead for good with eight minutes left to knock off the ACC runner-up and fourth seed. MSU's Winston Garland contributed 24 points and added 6 rebounds while Basil Robinson added 13 points of his own.

MSU had a 29-22 rebound edge over the taller Tigers and minimized Clemson center and ACC Player of the Year Horace Grant, who scored just two of his 16 points in the second half. The Bears shot 22-46 from the field and forced 15 Clemson turnovers.

The Bears padded their lead at the foul line down the stretch to record a stunning 65-60 upset.

In a game which saw six ties and 10 lead changes and in which neither team was ahead by more than five points until the closing minutes, the Bears went up for good 47-46 on a right wing jumper by Winston Garland with 7:36 to play. Clay Holt and Kelby Stuckey got loose for layups over the next minute to make it 51-46.

The Tigers pulled back within 54-52 on two free throws by Grant with 4:19 left, but Garland answered with a trey and the Bears converted nine of their final 13 free throws to run their winning streak to 15 and their season record to 28-5. The victory set a new MSU record for wins in a season, snapping a tie with the 27-win Bears' NAIA champs from 1951-52. Clemson finished with a 25-6 record.

Clemson jumped ahead 7-2 at the outset but the Bears roared back for a 16-12 edge and there were three more ties before a 28-28 halftime deadlock. The Bears then hit 50 percent from the field and second half and enjoyed a 29-22 rebound advantage over Clemson for the game.

Mid-Continent Conference Player of the Year Garland led the Bears with 24 points and six rebounds while Basil Robinson added 13 points for MSU. Grant was held to 16 points for Clemson, but got 14 of those before intermission and was held without a field goal the second half.

Clemson shot 57 percent from the floor the first half and 54 percent for the game but the Bears' defense limited the Tigers to 46 shots. MSU finished 17 of 23 from the foul line while Clemson tried just six free throws in the game.

1987

Southeast Regional Second Round
March 15, 1987, The Omni, Atlanta, Ga.
Kansas 67, Missouri State 63

All-American Danny Manning was too much for MSU as he scored 42 points to lead Kansas to a 67-63 win over the Bears. The loss snapped MSU's 15-game winning streak.

Early in the second half, the Jayhawks went on an 11-2 run to take a 51-41 lead with 10:44 left. But, in the next ten minutes, Winston Garland and Basil Robinson led a Bear comeback that cut the KU lead to 58-56. MSU was forced to foul and Kansas salted away its verdict at the foul line.

The Bears shot 47.9 percent from the field, but it wasn't enough to match the Jayhawks 60 percent from the field shooting performance.

Manning almost single-handedly disposed of the MSU Bears as he fired the Jayhawks to the win over the Bears.

In getting 42 of his team's 67 points, Manning took 26 of KU's 45 field goal tries, hitting 16. He had 12 of the Jayhawks' 14 free throw attempts as he completely dominated the Bears in the paint. Led by Manning's close-in accuracy, KU shot 60 percent from the field in both halves as the Jayhawks moved to 25-10 for the season as they advanced to the regional semifinals. The Bears saw an end to their 15-game winning streak and ended with a 28-6 record.

In spite of Manning's overpowering dominance, the Bears made it close. KU came back from a 33-31 halftime deficit to forge its biggest lead of the game at 51-41 with 10:44 to play. The Bears whittled that margin to 58-56 with 3:24 to play and were still within 65-63 in the final minute on a jumper by Clay Holt before KU closed out the win.

In a game which had six ties and 10 lead changes, the Bears had a 10-point advantage of their own at 16-6 six minutes into the contest but Manning contributed eight of KU's next 16 points as the Jayhawks drew even at 22-22.

Senior guard Garland closed out his two-year MSU career with 24 points, five rebounds and no turnovers in a 40-minute effort. Backcourt running mate Robinson added 18 for the Bears as he hit 6-of-9 from the floor and all six of his free throw tries. Kelby Stuckey led in rebounding with five boards and added two blocked shots.

Manning also played 40 minutes in the contest, and, after his production, no other Jayhawk scored in double figures. Kansas finished with a 24-23 rebound edge.

1988

West Regional First Round
March 18, 1988, Pauley Pav., Los Angeles
UNLV 54, Missouri State 50

The Bears tried to shake off a 13th seed for the second year in a row against the fourth-seeded team in their regional but couldn't hold off favored Nevada-Las Vegas down the stretch and dropped a 54-50 decision to the Runnin' Rebels in the first round.

MSU held its last lead with 2:49 to go in the game but didn't score again as the Rebels punched up their final five points and took advantage of fouls and turnovers.

MSU had jumped on top at the outset and stayed in front throughout the first half with 59 percent field in goal accuracy over the first 20 minutes. MSU held the bigger Rebels even in rebounding in the first half but committed an uncharacteristic 12 turnovers against UNLV's swarming defense. MSU hit just 20 percent from the field in the last half, although MSU outrebounded UNLV for the game.

With Kelby Stuckey scoring on two inside shots, Clay Holt cashing in on a drive, and Stan Worthy canning a pair of free throws, MSU jumped to an 8-0 lead before the Rebels got onto the board. Stuckey added two more buckets and when Holt swished a 25-footer, the Bears had what would be their biggest lead of the night at 15-6 with 13:59 to go in the half.

UNLV quickly got back within four, and the MSU lead stayed between four and six points the rest of the half. A bucket and a pair of free throws by UNLV forward Jarvis Basnight got the Rebels even for the first time in the game when they tied the score at 29-all with 2:12 before intermission. MSU got a continued good job from Caleb Davis at the foul line and moved to a 34-31 halftime lead. Davis was the leading MSU pointmaker at halftime with 10, including 8-of-10 from the foul line.

Basnight scored the first basket of the second half and then Gerald Paddio launched a pair of three-pointers to give UNLV its first lead of the night. A drive by Basnight put the Revels up 41-36 with 15:40 to play. The Rebels then went over five minutes without scoring, during which time MSU got a bucket from Doug Lewis and two baskets from Stuckey to retake the lead at 42-41 with 12:13 remaining.

The Bears then went cold, going form the 12:13 mark to 6:34 without scoring. UNLV managed just two free throws in that span and the Bears still led 44-43.

The teams swapped points for the next four minutes and the Bears got free throws form Davis and Stuckey for a 50-49 margin with 2:49 left. Paddio hit a foul line jumper with 2:20 to play for a 51-50 score and UNLV was ahead to stay. The Rebels got the ball back and Basnight banged in a reverse layin with 1:47 left.

With 1:09 remaining, MSU guard Keith Jackson had to leave with a knee injury. Then, when Lewis fouled with 22 seconds left, the official table signaled MSU that Lewis had fouled out. Lewis, who finished the game with four fouls, had to leave and the Bears, playing without either starting guard, couldn't get the ball back.

1989

West Regional First Round
March 17, 1989, McKale Ctr, Tucson, Ariz.
Seton Hall 60, Missouri State 51

Establishing the pattern of a stifling defense through the closing 10 minutes of the ballgame, a pattern they would stay with throughout the NCAA tournament, the Seton Hall Pirates put the clamps on the MSU Bears down the stretch of a bruising defensive struggle to forge a 60-51 victory in the first round of the West Regional in Tucson.

The Bears traded defensive blows with the Pirates all afternoon during a tough inside struggle but let guard John Cooper get loose for 26 points, mostly outside, to make the difference for Seton Hall. The Bears held the Pirate front line of Andrew Gaze, Daryll Walker and Ramon Ramos to just 17 points and the Bears ultimately got closer to Seton Hall than did any of the Pirates next four NCAA tournament foes. Only the Michigan Wolverines, with their last-second, one-point victory in the national championship game, got closer to Seton Hall than did MSU in the Pirates' six-game run through the NCAA tournament bracket.

Trailing 30-23 at halftime, MSU slowly but steadily mounted a comeback that saw the Bears draw to within two at 39-37 with 13:48 to play. Neither team scored for over three and a half frustrating minutes, and then, after an exchange of baskets, the Bears finally drew even at 41-41 on two free throws by Lee Campbell with 7:51 remaining. After leading twice in the first 10 minutes of the game, that was as close as the Bears got. Seton Hall sandwiched four baskets around a three-point play by Hubert Henderson to get back in front by six 50-44 with 5:36 remaining.

Doug Lewis hit a free throw at the 5:19 mark and Henderson popped a six-footer from the right side with 4:26 to play to make it 50-47. Then, in what may have been the pivotal play of the game, Henderson drove the lane from the right side and tossed in a bank shot which would have cut the Pirates lead to one, only to be whistled for a charge. The basket was nullified and Seton Hall quickly responded with a basket from Gerald Greene and two free throws from Morton. Stuckey hit only the second try of two separate two-shot foul situations but Gaze scored on a short layin and Morton hit two more from the foul line to make it 58-49 inside the final minute.

A field goal by Doug Lewis with two seconds left kept the final margin at nine and proved to be only the fourth bucket the Bears had had over the final 14 minutes of the game. The next four teams Seton Hall would face weren't destined to fare even that well.

MSU got back-to-back buckets from Keith Jackson, Lewis and Caleb Davis in a span of about 90 seconds to forge a 12-10 lead midway through the first half as MSU held the Pirates scoreless for over five minutes. The Bears then went without a point for three minutes and Seton Hall regained the lead for the rest of the first half.

1990

Midwest Regional First Round
March 15, 1990, Erwin Center, Austin, Tex.
North Carolina 83, Missouri State 70

The tournament-tested North Carolina Tar Heels took control down the stretch with superior inside size and depth and wore down the MSU Bears on the way to an 83-70 win over MSU in the first round of the 1990 NCAA Midwest Regional.

The Bears battled throughout, trailing by one at halftime and by just six points with 2:12 minutes to play before UNC pulled away at the end.

The three-point bombing of senior forward Jeff Ford kept the Bears in the hunt through the first half but the fortunes of the game seemed to turn when Ford picked up his third and fourth fouls within a span of six seconds with 14 minutes left in the game. MSU, leading by three points at the time, surrendered the lead and never regained it after that.

MSU jumped into leads of 7-2 and 11-4 at the outset of the contest before UNC drew even at 12-12. The game was even at 14, 16, 18 and 20 before the Tar Heels ran off five points in a row. Ford kept MSU in it with four treys and a total of 19 first half points as the Bears trailed by one at halftime, 41-40.

The lead had changed hands five times in the first half in addition to being tied on nine occasions. In the second half, the lead shifted on four more occasions, with two free throws from Reid and a follow shot from Lee Campbell putting MSU in front 50-47. When Ford left with his fourth foul, North Carolina ran off eight points in a row for a 55-50 advantage. Baskets by David Brewer and Campbell got the Bears back to within a point but UNC quickly shot out again by seven at 61-54 midway in the half.

MSU drew to within 64-61 and 66-63 but the Tar Heels were keeping Campbell from asserting himself and MSU couldn't cut the gap. Campbell finished with just six points, and had only two of his eight rebounds in the second half.

The last time MSU was within six came at 73-67 and the Bears were forced to foul in the final two minutes to try and get the ball back. North Carolina plunked in six of eight free throws and got a pair of uncontested layups in the final two minutes to get the end margin into double figures.

Ford led both teams in points and rebounds for the game as he finished with a season-high 25 points and had only his second double-figure rebound effort of the campaign, hauling down 11. Reid was the only other MSU player in double figures with 13 points on 3-of-13 shooting.

North Carolina went on to defeat the region's top-seeded team, Oklahoma, in the second round to enable Dean Smith's club to reach the round of 16 for the ninth time in 10 years. MSU, with its fourth straight setback in NCAA tournament play after a win over Clemson in the Bears' initial NCAA outing in the 1987 tourney, maintained its position as one of just 18 Division I schools to have reached the NCAA championship in 1987, 1988, 1989 and 1990.

1992

Midwest Regional First Round
March 20, 1992, Dayton (Ohio) Arena
Michigan State 61, Missouri State 54

The MSU Bears made a strong first-half comeback and led much of the second half before dropping a 61-54 decision to the Michigan State Spartans in the first round.

The Bears held their last lead at 44-42 with 8:50 to play in the game as both ball clubs went through long dry spells through the middle part of the second half. The Spartans tied the game 44-44 with 7:37 left and then added two more buckets for a 48-44 advantage as 6-10 center Matt Peplowski dropped in two short jumpers along the baseline.

A tip in by Tony Graves, a fast break dunk from Andre Rigsby and a short jumper along the baseline by Johnny Murdock drew MSU even at 50-all with 3:48 to play. It would be the last tie of the game.

From there, the taller and more physical Spartans answered with seven consecutive points as MSU didn't score again until the final 31 seconds of the game. Michigan State got a tip in from Dwayne Stephens and a jumper and three free throws from Mark Montgomery to build a 57-50 lead before Graves finally ended the MSU lull with two free throws. The Spartans cashed in four more free throws in the final seconds, and Murdock's jumper from 15 feet was the Bears' only answer as the final margin stayed at seven.

MSU was scrappy in the early going against the Big Ten's third place team. Michigan State jumped to a 6-0 advantage at the outset as MSU went over three and a half minutes without scoring. The Bears, however, stayed tough defensively and worked their way back into the game.

After lagging 10-2 at the 14:55 mark and 14-7 with 9:53 to play in the half, MSU got two free throws each from Jackie Crawford and Clint Thomas and then a three-point play on a driving layup by Crawford that knotted the game at 14 with 5:16 left in the half.

Baskets by Rigsby and Crawford gave MSU its first lead of the afternoon at 18-16. Michigan State forged ahead again but the Bears came back as Crawford and Murdock scored again and a tipin by Thomas put MSU in front 24-20 with 1:37 to go in the half.

Michigan State got to within one at the half, 24-23. Michigan State had just 40 percent shooting on 10 of 25 in the first half but the Bears were a woeful 25 percent on 7 of 28, missing all eight three-point tries. MSU led by virtue of hitting 10 of 12 free throws the Bears attempted.

There were three lead changes early in the second half, with ties at 30, 35 and 37. Crawford hit the Bears' only three-pointer of the game to give MSU a 40-37 edge with 12:23 to play and the Bears went through a period of several minutes during which they had opportunities to expand that lead as the MSU defense held Michigan State in check, but couldn't get the shots to fall to build any significant cushion as the game entered its stretch run.

1999
East Regional First Round
March 12, 1999, Charlotte (N.C.) Coliseum
Missouri State 43, Wisconsin 32

MSU's first trip to the NCAA Tournament in seven years was a happy one as they defeated fifth-seeded Wisconsin at the East Regional in Charlotte, N.C. The Bears put together a remarkable 40-minute defensive effort and led throughout to defeat the 18th –ranked Badgers in the first round of the NCAA East Regional.

The Bears held the Badgers to just 25.5 percent shooting from the field. Wisconsin hit just two baskets the first 11 minutes. The tone was set when Ty Calderwood missed four straight 3-pointers at the start. MSU led 21-12 at halftime.

The Badgers cut it to 28-22 with 10 minutes left, but MSU held UW scoreless six minutes and had a double-digit lead the rest of the way. The Bears' biggest lead was 13. MSU also had a 37-20 rebound advantage over Wisconsin, marking the Bears' third biggest rebound margin over an opponent that season.

MSU held UW to the fewest points in NCAA first/second rounds, and the lowest total for a tourney game since the advent of the three-point shot in 1987. MSU had a big rebound edge as Kevin Ault's career-best 14 boards was the most for a Bear all year.

Ault also added 10 points while Danny Moore added 12 points of his own and 13 rebounds, giving MSU two double-doubles for the first time in 1998-99. Ryan Bettenhausen came off the bench to spark the Bears with nine points in the game.

1999
East Regional Second Round
March 14, 1999, Charlotte (N.C.) Coliseum
Missouri State 81, Tennessee 51

For the second game in a row, the MSU Bears put up a stifling defensive effort and added a potent offense to blow by fourth-seeded Tennessee in the second round of the NCAA East Regional. MSU never trailed and took an early 9-2 lead early in the half.

The Bears grabbed a double-digit lead for the first time at 29-19 with 4:14 left in the half and then took command at 36-26 after Ken Stringer's 3-pointer banked in as the horn sounded ending the first half.

The lead never fell below six the rest of the day and the game became a complete mismatch after the Bears went on a 19-2 run early in the second half. Tennessee fell back by double digits started firing threes with little success. The Bears kept firing in the second half to push the lead by 20 points with 13 minutes left, and quickly hiked the edge to 25.

Danny Moore had 25 points and eight rebounds and Kevin Ault added 14 points and five assists. MSU's defense again was outstanding, holding Tennessee to 29.5 percent shooting from the field.

The Bears had a season-low six turnovers and hit 52 percent from the field to become one of the four teams with double-digit seeds to reach the NCAA Sweet 16.

1999
East Regional Semifinal, March 19, 1999
Continental Arena, East Rutherford, N.J.
Duke 78, Missouri State 61

The MSU Bears fought solidly but were overpowered by the top-ranked Duke Blue Devils in the regional semifinal. With Trajan Langdon bombing away from the outside and Elton Brand dominating inside, Duke defeated the scrappy Bears 78-61 in the East Regional semifinals at Continental Airlines Arena.

Two buckets by Scott Brakebill got MSU within 23-20 late in the half but Duke forged its intermission lead from there. MSU outhustled Duke a half but couldn't get shots to fall and trailed 39-30 at halftime.

After William Fontleroy drew MSU within 39-32 with the first basket of the new half, Duke ripped off a 10-2 run that was punctuated by William Avery's 3-pointer to make it 47-34. Duke pulled away the second half but nothing like Duke's 41-point routs the first two tourney games.

The Blue Devils went on to win by 17 as the Bears' final 37 percent field goal accuracy effort was nearly nine points off the team's season-long shooting percentage.

Allen Phillips led MSU but was no match for a balanced Duke attack. Phillips scored 16 points and Danny Moore added 15 as MSU finished 22-11 in their first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.
