COACHES & STAFF

Beth Cunningham

Head Coach

Alma Mater: Notre Dame (1997)
Career Record:
210-137 (11 seasons)
43-22 (2 seasons at MSU)

Beth Cunningham was introduced as Missouri State's ninth women's basketball head coach on March 31, 2022.

Year two under Cunningham saw the Lady Bears finish 23-10 overall and place third in the Missouri Valley Conference regular season standings with a 15-5 league record, securing a seventh-straight 20-win season for the program. Cunningham led her squad to the MVC Tournament championship game, and after coming up a few seconds short of the conference tournament title, the Lady Bears made their ninth consecutive postseason appearance with a bid to the inaugural Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament (WBIT).

For the second consecutive season, Cunningham plugged in an immediately impactful player at the point guard position, this time in the form of DII transfer Lacy Stokes. Stokes was named the MVC Newcomer of the Year after tying the MVC single-season record with nine MVC Newcomer of the Week awards throughout the season. The junior also earned second-team all-conference honors and was placed on both the MVC All-Defensive and All-Newcomer teams. Junior Kennedy Taylor also secured all-conference honors with a spot on the third team for the second consecutive year, and she was named the MVC's Sixth Player of the Year - becoming the first Lady Bear to win the award since its inception in 2015.

In her first season at the helm of the Lady Bears program in 2022-23, Cunningham led her team to a 20-12 overall record, which secured MSU's sixth-straight 20-win season, and an eighth consecutive postseason appearance with a WNIT bid. Missouri State continued its history of dominance on the boards, ranking inside the top 30 nationally in three categories: eighth in offensive rebounds per game (16.2), 10th in rebound margin (+8.9) and 26th in total rebounds per game (41.5).

The Lady Bears finished fifth in the MVC regular season standings with a 14-6 conference record. Cunningham's squad boasted two all-conference selections in Aniya Thomas (Second-Team All-MVC, MVC All-Defensive Team, MVC All-Newcomer Team) and Kennedy Taylor (Third-Team All-MVC, MVC All-Newcomer Team), while Jade Masogayo was named the league's Freshman of the Year and landed on the MVC All-Freshman team.

Cunningham, who owns an impressive 20-year collegiate coaching resume, arrived in Springfield from Duke University, where she spent two seasons as an assistant coach on coach Kara Lawson's staff. Prior to her stint at Duke, she spent eight seasons (2012-20) as an associate head coach at Notre Dame for Hall of Fame coach Muffet McGraw. She was part of one of the best stretches in NCAA women's history as Notre Dame compiled a 244-19 record in that span with seven straight 30-win seasons, six conference titles, five NCAA Final Four appearances and the 2018 National Championship. The Irish followed that up with a runner-up finish in the 2019 NCAA Championship, finishing the year with the No. 1 scoring offense in the country (88.6 points per game).

Before returning to her alma mater in the summer of 2012, Cunningham spent 11 years on the coaching staff at VCU, including one year as an assistant coach (2001-02), one as associate head coach (2002-03) and nine seasons as head coach starting in 2003-04. She is the Rams' all-time leader in women's basketball coaching wins with a 167-115 (.592) record and postseason appearances in each of her final five seasons. From 2008-12, VCU averaged better than 22 wins per season, including back-to-back 26-win seasons in 2008 and 2009, and the program's first NCAA Tournament berth in 2009.

At VCU, Cunningham coached three WNBA draft picks, two All-America selections, two Colonial Athletic Association Players of the Year and 18 all-conference selections.

During her playing days at Notre Dame (1993-97), Beth (Morgan) Cunningham was a trailblazer, leading the program to its first NCAA Women's Final Four appearance and a 31-7 campaign her senior season. She was a two-time Associated Press and WBCA honorable mention All-America choice, four-time first-team all-conference selection and two-year team captain. The Irish were 97-32 in her four seasons, including a pair of conference titles and three NCAA appearances. She departed as the all-time leading scorer in Fighting Irish women's basketball history with 2,322 points (which now ranks third), having set or tied 28 school records during her career.

She was also a fixture in USA Basketball circles as both a player and coach, first suiting up for Team USA four times from 1996-99 (winning three medals including a gold at the 1997 USA World University Games) and later serving as the athlete representative on the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Team Committee and the USA Basketball Women's Collegiate Committee.

Following her amateur career, Cunningham spent three seasons playing professional basketball, including two years with the Richmond/Philadelphia Rage of the American Basketball League (ABL) and one year with the WNBA's Washington Mystics in 2000 before embarking on her coaching career.

Originally from Bloomington, Ind., Cunningham was a standout two-sport performer at Bloomington South High School, earning all-state honors in both basketball and tennis. She was inducted into the Monroe County Sports Hall of Fame in June 2011. She graduated from Notre Dame in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in Marketing from the top-ranked Mendoza College of Business before going on to earn her Master's degree in Sports Leadership from VCU in 2003.

Cunningham and her husband, Dan, are the proud parents of three daughters (Margaret, Carly and Gretchen) and one son (Danny).

Darren Guensch

Associate Head Coach
Alma Mater: Radford (2005)

Darren Guensch (GENCH) joined the Missouri State Lady Bears coaching staff in April of 2022.

Guensch spent the previous three years at the University of Richmond, where he coached the post players in addition to scheduling opponents for the Spiders. He reunited with Coach Cunningham after serving under her at VCU from 2008-2012, first as her director of operations and then as her assistant coach.

Guensch brings 10-plus years of Division I coaching experience as an assistant coach, including 2018-19 at Bucknell where he helped the team earn a school record 28 wins and a trip to the NCAA Tournament after winning the Patriot League title. He coached three all-conference and all-tournament team players, as the Bison went 15-1 at home and broke the school record for three-pointers made at 283.

He spent two seasons as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at East Carolina, where he helped the Pirates to the largest turnaround in the American Athletic Conference with a five-win improvement in league play from the 2016-17 season to the 2017-18 season. The 2017 recruiting class played a large part in that turnaround, accounting for 67 percent of the team's points and 54 percent of its rebounds.

Prior to his time at East Carolina, Guensch spent six seasons as an assistant coach at three different Division I schools – College of Charleston (2014-16), UNCG (2012-14), and VCU (2010-12). He also held the title of recruiting coordinator at both College of Charleston and UNCG.

Guensch began his collegiate coaching career at VCU under Lady Bears head coach Beth Cunningham, where he spent the first two seasons as the director of basketball operations before being promoted to the coaching staff. The Rams went 86-47 during his four seasons with the team and qualified for four national postseason tournaments. They made their first ever NCAA Tournament in 2009 and followed that with three straight appearances in the WNIT.

Prior to his four years at VCU, Guensch served as the director of basketball operations for two seasons at George Mason from 2006-08.

Guensch graduated from Radford in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in Exercise, Sport and Health Education before earning a master's degree in the same discipline at George Mason in 2012.

He married his wife, Devon, in 2007 and the couple welcomed their first child, Miles, in 2011 and their second, Layna, in 2016.

Kenzie Kostas

Assistant Coach
Alma Mater: Missouri State (2016)

Kenzie (Williams) Kostas returned to her alma mater in April 2022 to serve as an assistant coach for the Lady Bears program.

Kostas spent the previous season as an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic under Coach Jennifer Sullivan, who served as an assistant coach at Missouri State during Kostas' MSU playing career.

Before arriving to Boca Raton, Kostas spent the previous five seasons at Central Missouri, four as an assistant and one as a graduate assistant. Since becoming a full-time coach, Kostas led the Jennies to a 105-19 record with two Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association regular season championships, an MIAA Tournament Championship, two NCAA Regional Championships and a National Championship.

Kostas acquired national recognition in 2020 when she was named as one of the WBCA Thirty Under 30, which recognizes the top 30 collegiate coaches under 30 years old across the country.

Central Missouri qualified for the NCAA postseason in each of her four years as an assistant coach. In the 2020-21 season, the Jennies made a trip to the NCAA Final Four after winning the program's eighth Regional Championship.

Kostas worked closely with the guards at Central Missouri, including All-Americans Paige Redmond, Morgan Fleming and Megan Skaggs. In addition to her work on the court, Kostas served as the team's operations coordinator, which included managing travel arrangements, equipment and camps.

Kostas graduated from Missouri State in 2016, after making 119 career starts for the Lady Bears over four years. The guard was a three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference selection, while being named a First Team All-MVC choice in 2015 and 2016. Kostas completed her collegiate playing career with 1,645 career points, which was the seventh most in program history at the time her career ended. She also sat fifth in 3-point attempts (517), sixth in 3-pointers made (184), ninth in steals (212) and 10th in free throws made (345) and attempts (444) at her time of graduation.

She is one of just four players (Casey Garrison, Tyonna Snow, Brice Calip) in MSU history to finish with 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 steals, 200 assists and 50 blocks in their career.

As a senior for the Lady Bears, Kostas was ninth in the MVC in scoring, averaging 14 points per game, while dishing out 2.8 assists per game. Her .391 3-point percentage was third in the conference, while her .783 free throw percentage and 1.7 steals per game were sixth. Kostas also had a streak of 34 straight free throws made in 2015-16, which is still the second-longest in MSU history and is currently tied for ninth in Missouri Valley Conference history. In her final season, she helped lead the Lady Bears to the NCAA Tournament in 2016, their first appearance in the tournament since 2006.

Off the court, Kostas became the third Lady Bear to receive MVC First Team Scholar-Athlete honors three times. She was also the 2015 MVC Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, the MVC Elite 18 Award winner and MSU Co-Outstanding Female Athlete. Kostas made the MVC Honor Roll all four years and was a three-time MVC Commissioner's Academic Excellence Award recipient. She was inducted into the Missouri State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2022.

Kostas graduated from Mt. Vernon High School in Mt. Vernon, Missouri, where she was a two-time All-State selection and won a Missouri Class 3 State Championship as a junior.

A graduate from Missouri State with a degree in Elementary Education in 2016, Kostas earned her master's degree in Educational Technology from Central Missouri in 2018.

Kostas and her husband Alex, who played football at Missouri State, were married in June 2018. They welcomed their first child, Eli, in September 2021 and their second, Quinn, in August 2024.

Olivia Applewhite

Assistant Coach
Alma Mater: Dayton (2013)

Olivia Applewhite was introduced as a member of the Lady Bears coaching staff in May 2022.

Applewhite spent the previous season as an assistant coach for the Atlantic 10 regular season champion, Dayton Flyers. While there, she was responsible for the skill development of post players and scouted opponents.

Prior to her stint at Dayton, Applewhite served in multiple roles at Saint Louis University. She started out as a graduate assistant at SLU, before working her way up to director of basketball operations and then becoming an assistant coach. On the coaching staff, Applewhite assisted with all aspects of recruiting, worked with post players, served as the athletic training and sport performance liaison and scouted opponents.

Applewhite was named to the 2020 WBCA 30 Under 30 Honoree list.

Before beginning her coaching career, Applewhite played at Dayton from 2009-2013 and played three seasons of professional basketball overseas in Denmark, Ireland and France. While at Dayton, she was named the 2012-13 A10 Sixth Woman of the Year and helped lead the Flyers to a NCAA Tournament berth every season she was there.

Applewhite graduated from Dayton with a bachelor's degree in Public Relations and a minor in Marketing in 2013, before graduating with a master's in Student Personnel Administration from SLU in 2018.

Abby Emmert

Assistant Coach
Alma Mater: Missouri State (2021)

Abby (Hipp) Emmert returned to her alma mater as an assistant coach in the summer of 2024.

Emmert spent the previous two seasons serving as the Director of Scouting and Player Development at the University of Virginia under her former Lady Bears head coach Amaka Agugua-Hamilton. She was responsible for coding games and keeping statistical information for the coaches, producing scouting reports of opposing teams and assisting with post player development while at UVA.

She also gained valuable experience at Virginia while serving as co-director of basketball camps, as an FCA liaison and as the team's community service coordinator.

Emmert, who was a member of the women's basketball team for five seasons, graduated from Missouri State with a bachelor's degree in Business Administrative Management in 2021 and a master's degree in Business Administration in 2022.

On the court, Emmert collected 97 career wins which ranks eighth in program history. Across her career, Emmert scored 720 points, grabbed 439 rebounds and shot .511 from the field in 125 games, and earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honorable mention honors in 2021. During her five-year tenure, the Lady Bears made three NCAA Tournament appearances, including two trips to the Sweet 16. Emmert owned a .515 field goal percentage in NCAA Tournament games which ranks sixth in program history, while her .714 field goal percentage in the 2019 NCAA Tournament ranks fourth in Lady Bears history for a single tournament.

Also a star in the classroom, Emmert was a five-time member of the MVC Academic Honor Roll, a four-time recipient of the MVC Commissioner's Academic Excellence Award, and was given the MVC President's Council Academic Excellence Award and earned a MVC Scholar-Athlete honorable mention selection in 2021 among other academic honors.

A native of Kansas City, Mo., Emmert graduated from St. Pius X where she was named Missouri Class 4 Player of the Year as a senior. She also earned all-conference and all-district honors in all four years of her high school career, was a three-time all-state selection and led her team to a state runner-up finish in 2017.

Emmert and her husband Brandon, who played basketball at Drury University, were married in May 2023.

Nicole Jimenez

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach
Alma Mater: Seton Hall (2019)

Nicole Jimenez joined the Missouri State athletics strength and conditioning staff in 2022.

Jimenez came to Springfield after serving in the same role at Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, Conn., where she managed the strength and conditioning efforts for women's basketball, women's rugby and women's volleyball.

Prior to her stint at Sacred Heart, Jimenez participated in a strength and conditioning internship at the University of Connecticut, serving as the primary intern for UConn women's basketball. In her role, Jimenez observed and analyzed data to create weekly goals as well as return-to-play guidelines for student-athletes, among other responsibilities.

Jimenez was also a graduate assistant at Springfield (Mass.) College, where she handled the strength and conditioning efforts for multiple sports. She has also completed internships at Elon University, Springfield College and Rutgers.

She was also a student-athlete herself, as she played basketball two seasons at Broward College (Fla.) before playing her final two seasons at Seton Hall. In her senior season at SHU, she started 31 games and averaged 12.2 points per game as the Pirates made a WNIT appearance.

Jimenez graduated from Seton Hall University with a bachelor's degree in Social and Behavioral Science in 2019, before obtaining a master's degree in Strength and Conditioning from Springfield College in 2021.

Megan Won

Athletic Trainer
Alma Mater: Missouri State (2017)

Megan Won joined the Missouri State Athletic Medical and Rehabilitation Services staff as a full-time assistant athletic trainer in July 2022. She oversees the health care for the Missouri State women's basketball and STUNT programs.

Before returning to Springfield, Won served as an assistant athletic trainer at Kansas State University. While at KSU, she provided medical coverage for injury prevention, treatment, post-surgery rehabilitation and maintenance programs for multiple sports, while also serving as the clinical supervisor for athletic training master's students.

Prior to her stint at Kansas State, Won served as the head athletic trainer for the CarShield Collegiate League and was a MLB and MiLB rehab intern with the Los Angeles Dodgers organization. She also spent time as an athletic trainer with California State University – Fresno and the Bourne Braves of the Cape Cod Baseball League.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Won earned her bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from Missouri State in 2017 before obtaining her master's degree in Athletic Training from MSU in 2019. She served as an athletic training graduate assistant while studying at MSU, working with the men's and women's golf teams as well as women's tennis. She is also a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Blake Richter

Video Coordinator
Alma Mater: Kansas State (2022)

Blake Richter started his full-time role as the Missouri State women's basketball video coordinator on July 1, 2023. He previously served as a graduate assistant for the Lady Bears during the 2022-23 season.

Prior to his arrival in Springfield, Richter was the head student manager for the Kansas State women's basketball program. His duties at KSU included leading a team of six managers, assisting coaches with individual player workouts and helping with scouting reports and implementing plays with the scout team. He has also worked as a ShotTracker specialist and as a director and camp coach for summer youth camps.

Richter earned his bachelor's degree in Educational Studies with a minor in Business from Kansas State in 2022, and he is currently working towards his master's degree in Professional Studies at MSU.

Game 1

Missouri State 52
Little Rock 47

November 6, 2023 ▪ Little Rock, Ark.
Jack Stephens Center

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. – Missouri State women's basketball secured a 52-47 season-opening victory at Little Rock here on Monday night, marking MSU's fourth consecutive win over the Trojans.

The game came down to the wire despite a fast start by the Lady Bears with a couple of key defensive stops and clutch Lady Bear free throws in the final quarter solidifying a road win for MSU.

After a stretch of swapping five-point runs in the fourth period, the two squads were locked into a five-point game with 6:11 remaining. With few shots dropping over the next few minutes, Little Rock strung together four consecutive points to make it a one-point contest with 1:03 to play.

On its next two possessions, Little Rock missed a jumper and three-pointer with MSU grabbing the defensive rebounds to force the Trojans to foul down the stretch. Missouri State went 4-for-6 from the line in the final 0:34 to capture a 52-47 road victory at the Jack Stephens Center.

Despite the comeback effort from the Trojans in the second half, the Lady Bears couldn't have gotten the season off to a better start, scoring the first 10 points of the game and never relinquishing the lead on the road. Transfer Lacy Stokes jumpstarted the MSU offense by converting an and-1 opportunity and tacked on an additional free throw, before Indya Green and Kennedy Taylor combined for three layups to give the visitors the early lead.

Little Rock connected on its first field goal of the night at the 4:42 mark, before freshman Kyrah Daniels made an immediate impact off the bench with a fastbreak layup and a three-pointer to push the Lady Bear lead to 13 points. MSU finished off the first period leading 17-5 as Green buried a jumper with 0:02 on the clock.

The Trojans found some offense in the second quarter, putting together an eight-point surge over a 2:50 span to outscore the Lady Bears 14-9 in the period. Early in the quarter, Stokes and transfer Angel Scott drained threes to give MSU its largest lead of the game at 14 points, but the aforementioned Little Rock run eventually cut the Missouri State lead to five points.

Stokes put a stop to the Trojans scoring with a jumper in the paint to give the Lady Bears a 26-19 lead at halftime.

Out of the halftime break, the Trojans didn't go down without a fight as they cut the Lady Bear lead to three points early in the third. However, the Lady Bears responded multiple times in the period, continually pushing the lead back to eight points. With less than a minute and half remaining in the third, Scott knocked down her second triple of the night off a beautiful dish from Stokes and Stokes later hit a jumper to make it a nine-point, 41-32, game with 10 minutes remaining.

The wire-to-wire victory marked the first season-opening win under second-year head coach Beth Cunningham and marked the first consecutive road wins for MSU in the history of the series.

Stokes led the offensive efforts for MSU with 18 points on 6-for-13 shooting and five assists in her first official game in a Lady Bear uniform. Daniels joined Stokes in double figures with 10 points on the night. Three Lady Bears (Green, Masogayo and Taylor) each had a game-high seven rebounds with Green adding a team-high three steals.

Collectively, MSU held the advantage on the boards (42-26) and in bench points (16-13).

Game 2

Saint Louis 79
Missouri State 67

November 15, 2023 ▪ St. Louis, Mo.
Chaifetz Arena

ST. LOUIS – Missouri State got a career-high 21 points from Paige Rocca and a double-double from Jade Masogayo but it was not enough here Wednesday as the Lady Bears dropped a 79-67 road decision at Saint Louis University.

The Lady Bears (1-1) extended a two-point halftime advantage to a dozen midway through the third quarter behind a 10-2 run capped by an Angel Scott layup at the 4:53 mark that made it a 44-32 contest.

SLU (2-1) drew within six before Rocca's third trey of the night extended MoState' lead to 47-38. By the end of the third quarter, Masogayo's layup in the final minute had given the visitors a five-point cushion, 51-46.

But the fourth quarter belonged to the Billikens. SLU tied the game, 55-55, on a three-point play by Julia Martinez with 6:28 to go in the contest and took the lead for good, 59-57, on a pair of Martinez free throws at the 5:09 mark.

The Lady Bears missed their next six field goal attempts while they attempted to rally, but SLU ran away with an abundance of trips to the foul line. The Billikens were 18-of-20 at the stripe in the final 3 minutes, 19 seconds, including 9-of-10 by Martinez, to put the game away.

The Billikens outscored MoState 33-16 in the final 10 minutes.

Martinez finished with 21 points for Saint Louis, while Payton Kennedy added 14.

Kyrah Daniels racked up 13 points for the Lady Bears with Masogayo scoring 12 and snagging a game-high 11 rebounds to tie a career high.

The Lady Bears turned the ball over 20 times, including 11 in the second half. They finished 26-of-68 (.382) from the field, 4-of-16 (.250) from beyond the arc and 11-of-18 (.611) at the line with 11 steals.

Missouri State scored 34 of its 67 points in the paint.

Saint Louis was 24-of-54 (.444) overall, 3-of-10 (.300) from bonus distance and 28-of-36 (.778) at the line (25-for-30 in the second half) with 14 steals and a narrow 41-40 rebounding edge.

In the early going, the Lady Bears used an 18-2 run late first quarter to open up a 20-11 lead through the first 10 minutes. Rocca's six points paced Missouri State's efforts in the opening stanza.

Saint Louis used its six second-chance points in the second quarter to pull ahead on back-to-back put-backs from Camree Clegg and Marcalla Shavers that gave the Billikens a 26-25 lead with 2:30 to go before the half. The lead would teeter back and forth twice more before Rocca's three at the halftime buzzer pushed the Lady Bears up 30-28 at the midway point.

Missouri State's 18 points in the paint were also noteworthy in the opening 20 minutes.

Game 3

Missouri State 74
Southeast Missouri State 66

November 22, 2023 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball improved to 2-1 on the season with a 74-66 victory over Southeast Missouri State (1-4) here Wednesday night in the team's home opener.

Transfer Angel Scott and junior Indya Green turned in career performances for the Lady Bears on the night. Scott set two career highs with 24 points (7-10 FG, 6-9 3FG) and eight rebounds, while going a perfect 4-for-4 at the free throw line. Meanwhile, Green dropped a career-high 17 points (7-12 FG) in addition to collecting three steals and three boards.

The Lady Bears used a crucial third period, which they dominated at the free throw line, to grab their first major lead as they carried the momentum through the remainder of the game. After going into the locker room at the half with a narrow 31-29 lead, MSU reeled off three respective runs of seven, four and eight points to outscore SEMO, 21-9, in the quarter.

Missouri State was able to take advantage of the Redhawks' foul trouble, converting 14-of-16 free throw attempts in the third period alone. In addition, MSU's defense stifled the SEMO offense, holding the Redhawks to 4-of-17 (.235) from the field and blocking four shots in the game-altering quarter.

After pushing the lead to 14 points at the end of the third, the Lady Bears extended their lead to a game-high 16 points at the 8:41 mark of the fourth on a Kennedy Taylor layup. Missouri State withstood one final push from the Redhawks as they cut the lead to six, but Scott's sixth three-pointer of the night and two Green free throws drove the lead back into double figures. Ultimately, MSU held tough to secure the eight-point victory.

Earlier in the evening, the Lady Bears got off to a slow start in their first game at home this season, shooting 31 percent from the field and turning the ball over seven times in the first quarter. MSU eventually started to find its rhythm, scoring on a Taylor layup and Scott triple to cut the deficit to 16-12 after the first 10 minutes.

Transfers Lacy Stokes and Scott kept the momentum rolling in the second period, hitting the first two shots of the quarter to give the lead back to the home squad. In a back-and-forth battle, the Lady Bears pushed their lead to three points on two occasions via a Green jumper and a Scott trey. SEMO retook the lead on a small four-point spurt near the end of the half, but the 6-4 senior transfer Katrine Jessen knocked down a three as time expired in the half to put MSU in front by two going into the break.

The victory marked Missouri State's fourth consecutive win over SEMO as the Lady Bears remained undefeated at home all-time against the Redhawks, improving to 9-0. The win also secured MSU's 100th program victory against schools located in Missouri.

In addition to career nights from Scott and Green, Taylor posted her 12th career double-double with a 14-point, 12-rebound performance in just 25 minutes on the floor. She also blocked a career-high four shots to bring her season total to six.

Missouri State came into the game ranked seventh nationally in three-point percentage defense and held the Redhawks to just 1-for-7 from behind the arc, lowering its three-point defense to .174 (4-23). MSU also owned the advantage on the boards, 41-23, and collected seven blocked shots on the night.

Game 4

Oklahoma State 82
Missouri State 51

November 26, 2023 ▪ Stillwater, Okla.
Gallagher-Iba Arena

STILLWATER, Okla. – Missouri State women's basketball fell to 2-2 on the season following an 82-51 loss on the road at Oklahoma State (3-3) on Sunday afternoon.

The deep ball for OSU and a critical second quarter Cowgirl run were the difference-makers in this one as the Cowgirls knocked down 15 triples (15-27, .556) to Missouri State's four treys (4-15) on the afternoon.

The beginning of the game saw both teams struggle offensively with neither team putting points on the board until a Kennedy Taylor layup at the 6:37 mark of the first period. From there, the squads swapped baskets with Taylor tying the game at 12-12 with 0:39 remaining. However, the Cowgirls started to heat up with their third triple of the opening stanza with 0:15 left to take a 15-12 lead after one in Stillwater.

Oklahoma State continued the momentum into what would be a second quarter dominated by the Cowgirls. After an OSU triple and a Lacy Stokes layup to make it a four-point game, OSU went on a 19-0 run that spanned over seven minutes to push the Cowgirls' lead to 23 points. The Lady Bears were held to just 14 percent from the field and 29 percent from the charity stripe, while the Cowgirls went 70 percent from the field, 63 percent from three and 88 percent at the line.

Oklahoma State outscored MSU 26-6 in the second quarter to carry a 41-18 lead into the halftime break.

Out of the half, the Lady Bears continued to struggle offensively as they were never able to get within striking distance of the Cowgirls. MSU was able to go a perfect 6-for-6 from the free throw line in the third quarter, and the Lady Bears put together their best quarter of the afternoon in the fourth after scoring seven consecutive points to begin the period.

The firepower of the Cowgirls from behind the arc proved to be too much to overcome as the Lady Bears dropped their second game of the season.

Stokes led the way for MSU with 14 points, while Indya Green contributed eight points and a team-high five rebounds. Oklahoma State had five players in double figures, led by Anna Gret Asi with 24 points (9-13 FG, 6-9 3FG).

Game 5

Missouri State 70
Tulane 60

December 1, 2023 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball picked up its third win of the season with a 70-60 victory over Tulane here Friday night at Great Southern Bank Arena.

Indya Green provided the spark for the Lady Bears on the night with a career-high 26 points (9-15 FG, 2-4 3FG) in addition to a game-high 13 rebounds to secure her eighth career double-double and her first of the season. She rounded out her impressive performance with three assists, a steal and a perfect 6-for-6 mark at the free throw line as she helped lead Missouri State to a 10-point victory.

In a closely-contested matchup, the Lady Bears (3-2) were consistent throughout the night, winning every quarter in an all-around effort.

The first quarter saw Tulane (3-4) jump out to a quick start, but Missouri State responded as Lacy Stokes knocked down back-to-back triples and Green made her first basket of the evening to go up by three points at the 7:06 mark of the first. The rest of the opening stanza saw three ties as the teams swapped shots, but Paige Rocca hit a jumper with under two minutes remaining to give MSU a 14-12 lead after one.

Out of the quarter break, the second period once again saw a back-and-forth battle as Missouri State used an Angel Scott triple and runs of four and six points to take an 11-point first-half lead with 2:21 remaining. Tulane would continue to battle, answering with a six-point spurt of its own to shrink MSU's lead back to five points. Ultimately, a Green layup with five seconds on the clock gave the home team a 33-26 lead at the half.

Coming back onto the court for the second half, the Lady Bears and Green Wave continued in a close battle, with just two points separating the teams in the third quarter. Green scored 12 of her 26 points in the third period, going 3-for-4 from the field as MSU was a perfect 3-for-3 from behind the arc. After Tulane cut the Lady Bear lead back to seven with 0:26 on the clock, Rocca drew a foul on the other end and hit both free throws to make it a nine-point, 56-47, game with one quarter to play in Springfield.

The Missouri State defense locked it down in the fourth quarter, holding Tulane to 4-for-16 (.250) from the field and 0-for-7 from three in the final quarter. The Lady Bears put together a quick 7-0 run to push their lead to a game-high 15 points with 6:47 to play. With the lead hovering around a 15-point margin, the Green Wave ended the game with five makes at the charity stripe, but it wasn't enough as the Lady Bears secured their second victory at home this season.

MSU forced 17 Green Wave turnovers, scoring 18 points off of those mishaps. Meanwhile, the Lady Bears held Tulane to 2-for-15 from three-point range for the game, including 0-for-9 from behind the arc in the second half. Missouri State also had its best performance of the season at the free throw line, shooting 75 percent (15-20) from the stripe.

Stokes followed Green's career high with 12 points and a game-high six assists on the night, while Rocca joined her teammates in double figures with 11 points.

Game 6

Missouri 81
Missouri State 63

December 6, 2023 ▪ Columbia, Mo.
Mizzou Arena

COLUMBIA, Mo. – Missouri State women's basketball fell to 3-3 following an 81-63 loss on the road at Missouri here Wednesday night.

A first-quarter swing was critical in the outcome of the game after MSU took an early lead to begin the game. Paige Rocca got off to a hot start, scoring the first five points of the game for the Lady Bears to tie the game at 5-5 with 6:26 on the clock. With Missouri (7-3) up by two, a 9-0 Tiger run pushed their lead over MSU to 11 points, seven points courtesy of the game's leading scorer Ashton Judd (20 points).

Trailing 22-11 after one, the Lady Bears played the Tigers to an even second quarter with both squads putting 18 points on the board. A Rocca three just under halfway through the period cut the Missouri lead to as low as five points, but the Tigers responded with a small six-point surge and a Judd triple to push the lead back up to 13 points.

Kennedy Taylor hit a layup as time expired in the first half as the Lady Bears went into the locker room trailing 40-29. The Tigers scored nine points in the half off five MSU turnovers, while MSU scored just two points off five Missouri turnovers.

The second half saw a closer battle as both teams took turns trading baskets. Rocca cut the deficit to 10 early in the third quarter, but the Lady Bears were unable to sustain the momentum as Missouri answered with back-to-back triples. Late in the third stanza, Jade Masogayo and Indya Green connected on layups before the Tigers scored on the fastbreak to make it a 60-46 game going into the final 10 minutes.

Missouri State continued to battle, but the Tigers put together an eight-point run and a few minutes later took their largest lead of the night at 25 points with 4:14 left in the game. Missouri State got a small push late in the game from a couple of freshmen as Kaemyn Bekemeier scored five straight points and Natasha Barnes hit a couple of free throws, but it was too late for the Lady Bears as they fell on the road, 81-63.

Rocca led the way for Missouri State with 13 points, followed by Green and Kyrah Daniels with eight points. The Lady Bears forced 13 Tiger turnovers, but were outmatched in the paint (18-42) and on the boards (36-44).

Game 7

Missouri State 72
Wichita State 65

December 16, 2023 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball moved to 4-3 on the season after mounting a second-half comeback to defeat Wichita State, 72-65, here Saturday afternoon at Great Southern Bank Arena.

After trailing 39-33 at the half, Kennedy Taylor and Jade Masogayo scored the first six points of the second half to tie the game and jumpstart MSU's comeback bid.

With the leading hovering between one and three points for either team, the turning point in the matchup came when MSU put together an 8-0 over the final 2:29 of the second half to go ahead of the Shockers, 55-48. The run consisted of an Indya Green fastbreak layup, followed by back-to-back treys from Lacy Stokes and Kyrah Daniels as Missouri State outscored Wichita State by 13 points, 22-9, in the third period.

The Shockers (4-7) threw one final punch, tying the game at 55-55 with 7:26 remaining in the game. But, MSU retook the lead immediately with back-to-back buckets from Taylor and would later push the lead to its biggest of the game at 10 points with 1:32 left on the clock. Stokes led the way for MSU in the final stanza, scoring 10 of the Lady Bears' 17 points, including going 7-for-12 at the charity stripe to ice the game late.

In a tale of two halves, the Lady Bears struggled in a couple of key areas to start the game. Missouri State turned the ball over 15 times in the first half, leading to 22 Wichita State points, while the Shockers also shot 68 percent (17-25) from the field compared to MSU's 50 percent (14-28).

One area where the Lady Bears did hold the advantage was on the boards, outrebounding WSU 16-7 in the opening half, including a 9-1 margin on the offensive glass.

After surrendering 22 points off turnovers in the first half, the Lady Bears allowed just one point off eight turnovers in the second half, while scoring 16 points off the Shockers' 13 turnovers. MSU also held Wichita State to 35 percent (8-23) from the field in the final 20 minutes to secure the victory.

Stokes led all scorers with 21 points, followed by Taylor with 18 points, five rebounds and a team-high four steals. Green logged her second double-double of the season with a 12-point, 14-rebound performance. Masogayo was the final Lady Bear in double figures with 10 points and a game-high five assists.

Collectively, the Lady Bears outscored the Shockers in the paint, 42-34, and won the battle on the boards, 32-21. MSU also recorded 16 assists on 28 field goals and forced 25 Shocker turnovers for the game.

The victory marked MSU's fifth consecutive win at home over Wichita State and extended MSU's current home win streak to five games, dating back to last season.

Game 8

Missouri State 56
BYU 55

December 20, 2023 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball (5-3) collected its second consecutive victory with a 56-55 hard-fought win over BYU (9-3) here Wednesday afternoon at Great Southern Bank Arena.

The game-changing moment for the Lady Bears came with 0:06 remaining in the first half as Angel Scott nailed a three-pointer to cap a 7-0 MSU run to end the half and give Missouri State a 32-30 lead at the break.

Out of halftime, the two squads continued to battle in a physical game. BYU's leading scorer on the night, Lauren Davenport (12 points), put together a seven-point run with back-to-back triples and a free throw to put the visitors back in front by five. Their lead wouldn't last, though, as Lacy Stokes sparked an 8-0 Lady Bear surge to recapture the lead and extend it to four.

A couple of Cougar free throws with under :30 remaining made it a two-point, 48-46, game in favor of the home team with 10 minutes remaining.

Missouri State jumped on BYU early in the fourth, scoring the first six points of the final stanza featuring layups from Kyrah Daniels, Jade Masogayo and Scott to push the lead to a game-high eight points for the Lady Bears. From there, Missouri State struggled to put the ball in the basket as Daniels' jumper at 5:42 marked the final points of the afternoon for the Lady Bears.

Despite their offensive struggles late, the Lady Bears locked it down on the defensive end when it mattered most, holding BYU to nine points in the final quarter, to outduel the Cougars for a one-point victory.

The first half saw two vastly different quarters that favored each team. BYU was hot out of the gate, going on a 12-4 run to open the game. The Lady Bears eventually settled in, swapping buckets and later cutting the deficit to three.

Down by five entering the second frame, the script flipped as MSU once again cut the BYU lead to just three points on Louis Volker's first career three-pointer at the 2:32 mark. That's when Scott and Masogayo combined for seven consecutive points to end the half and catapult the Lady Bears to victory.

The victory marked the 11th consecutive season that Missouri State has defeated a Power Five opponent, with 19 such wins over that span. It also extended MSU's home win streak to six games, as the Lady Bears have now won 12 of their last 13 games at Great Southern Bank Arena.

Stokes led the way for Missouri State with 13 points and three assists, followed by Kennedy Taylor and Daniels with 10 points apiece. Indya Green was MSU's rebounding and steals leader with six and three, respectively.

As a group, the Lady Bears owned the advantage in points in the paint (30-24) and points off turnovers (28-14) after forcing 25 BYU turnovers on the afternoon. Missouri State also collected 10 steals and five blocked shots in the contest.

Game 9

Missouri State 69
Western Kentucky 68

December 21, 2023 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – The Missouri State Lady Bears racked up their third straight win with a 69-68 victory over Western Kentucky to close out the Lady Bear Classic here Thursday afternoon in Springfield.

Mirroring yesterday's game, Missouri State (6-3) let the visiting team get off to a quick start in the opening quarter. After scoring the first bucket of the game, the Lady Bears (6-3) struggled to find an offensive rhythm and WKU took advantage as the Lady Toppers put together a 10-1 run to go up by seven points. The visitors would eventually push the lead to nine before Missouri State settled down and collected two layups to make it a five-point game.

Trailing by six after the opening quarter in Springfield, MSU came out firing in the second stanza, using a 12-0 surge to flip the score and lead by six points. Lacy Stokes accounted for half the points in the run to help spark the MSU offense. WKU responded with six points off an and-1 opportunity and a triple to cut the Lady Bear lead back to one at the midway point of the second period.

MSU put an end to the run and took over once again, stringing together nine points highlighted by an Angel Scott triple and four points courtesy of freshman Kaemyn Bekemeier to extend the lead back to eight.

The Lady Bears took a 31-25 lead into halftime after an impressive second quarter that saw the Lady Bears shoot 63 percent from the field (5-8), 67 percent from three (2-3) and 83 percent from the line (10-12) as they outscored the Lady Toppers, 22-10.

Coming out of the break, both squads slowed down offensively with MSU shooting 36 percent and WKU shooting just 27 percent from the field in the third period. Missouri State was able to hold the slight, three-point advantage in the period to take a nine-point lead into the final 10 minutes.

The Lady Toppers made things very interesting down the stretch, despite the Lady Bears pushing the lead to their largest of the night at 15 points at the midway point of the final period off a Kyrah Daniels three-pointer. WKU went on a scoring spree, putting together a 24-11 run that included five triples to pull within two points of the Lady Bears with 0:20 remaining.

Stokes and Kennedy Taylor came up with clutch free throws in the final 0:18 seconds to put MSU ahead by two scores, which proved to be crucial as the Lady Bears put WKU at the line after fouling on a three-point attempt with 0:01 left in the game. Despite giving up 31 points in the final frame, Missouri State held on to secure a one-point, 69-68, victory.

Stokes led the way on the afternoon with 16 points and three steals, while Taylor contributed 11 points and seven rebounds. Indya Green was the final Lady Bear in double figures with 10 points and eight rebounds. The Lady Bears shot an impressive 80 percent from the charity stripe, knocking down 24 of 30 attempts at the line.

The win pushed MSU's home win streak to seven games and the Lady Bears have now won 13 of their last 14 at Great Southern Bank Arena.

Game 10

Missouri State 54
Northern Iowa 52

December 30, 2023 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball (7-3, 1-0) pushed its win streak to four games with a 54-52 last-second victory over Northern Iowa (1-9, 0-1) here Saturday afternoon at Great Southern Bank Arena.

With the two-point victory, MSU improved to 4-0 on the season in games decided by five points or less, and the Lady Bears have won their last three matchups by a combined four points.

Junior point guard Lacy Stokes served as the hero on the afternoon, driving in for the game-winning layup at the buzzer to propel the Lady Bears to victory over the Panthers and start 1-0 in Missouri Valley Conference play.

The Lady Bears didn't take their first lead in the game until the 3:18 mark in the fourth quarter on a Kyrah Daniels three-pointer to give MSU a narrow one-point lead. After a UNI free throw to tie the game at 50-50, Daniels once again came up clutch, knocking down a jumper to go ahead by two with 1:10 remaining.

After advancing the ball, UNI's Maya McDermott (19 points) tied the game yet again with 0:05 seconds after getting a tough jump shot to fall. The Lady Bears then took their chance to advance the ball following a timeout with just enough time to draw up one final play.

From there, Stokes worked her magic and got a contested shot off right before the buzzer, watching it fall through basket as she slid across the across the floor for the two-point victory.

Prior to the fourth quarter, UNI managed to hold on to the lead but the Lady Bears kept fighting to stay within striking distance and make their run when it counted most.

Northern Iowa jumped on the Lady Bears early, taking a 7-0 lead to begin the game before both teams settled in and swapped buckets. After a quarter in Springfield, the Lady Bears trailed 18-11 after shooting just 31 percent from the field in the opening stanza.

The second quarter saw more of a defensive battle as MSU outscored UNI, 11-8, in the period. After trailing by as many as 10 points on two occasions in the second, Missouri State forced seven Panther turnovers and pulled together a 6-0 run over the final 2:48, capped by a massive triple from Angel Scott, to cut the UNI lead to 26-22 at the half.

Despite never grabbing the lead in the third, the Lady Bears showed their resiliency and made it a one-possession game on multiple occasions before finally finding a way to capture the late lead in the fourth.

Kennedy Taylor led the way for MSU with her second double-double of the season, posting 13 points and 13 rebounds while shooting 50 percent (6-12) from the field. Jade Masogayo followed with 11 points, five boards, three assists and two blocks. Daniels also posted a double figure scoring performance with 10 points, four rebounds, three assists, three steals and two blocks to round out her game.

As a squad, the Lady Bears outscored the Panthers in the paint, 26-20, and forced 16 UNI turnovers on the afternoon. MSU shot 38 percent from the field, 44 percent from three and 50 percent from the line in the victory.

Game 11

Missouri State 67
Valparaiso 47

January 4, 2024 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball (8-3, 2-0 MVC) extended its win streak to five games with a 67-47 victory over Valparaiso (1-10, 0-2 MVC) here Thursday night at Great Southern Bank Arena.

The win marked MSU's largest margin of victory this season as the Lady Bears pushed their home win streak to nine games and remained undefeated on their home floor. Missouri State also improved to 21-0 under head coach Beth Cunningham when allowing 65 points or less.

In contrast to their previous few games, the Lady Bears came out firing on all cylinders in to start the game, jumping out to a 15-2 lead to set the tone early. MSU outscored the Beacons 20-5 in the opening quarter and locked it down on the defensive end, holding Valpo to 13 percent (1-8) from the field in the first. A balanced effort contributed to MSU's stellar start as eight different Lady Bears recorded points in the first 10 minutes, led by senior Paige Rocca with five points.

MSU's offense faltered a bit in the second quarter, but it made up for it on the defensive end, once again holding Valpo to fewer than 10 points in the period. The Beacons connected on four field goals in the quarter, but Missouri State forced six turnovers in the second to maintain control and take a 30-14 lead into halftime.

Valpo's 14 first-half points were the fewest points allowed in a half by Missouri State this season, as the Lady Bears held the Beacons to just 25 percent (5-20) from the field and shut them out from behind the arc in the opening 20 minutes. MSU took advantage of their opportunities, scoring 13 points off 13 Valpo turnovers in the first half.

The second half saw a more evenly-matched contest especially as the Beacons found some success from three-point range. After knocking down three triples in the third period, Valparaiso put together their best scoring run of the night early in the fourth quarter. Valpo's leading scorer on the night Olivia Brown (15 points), drained two from long range to spark an 8-0 Beacon run that cut the MSU lead to 11 points and forced the Lady Bears to call a timeout.

From there, Missouri State locked back in, answering immediately with an Indya Green jumper and Kyrah Daniels trey to push the lead back to 16. MSU allowed just one Valparaiso field goal over the final seven minutes, following that 8-0 Beacon surge, to ultimately secure the wire-to-wire, 20-point victory and improve to 2-0 in Missouri Valley Conference action.

Green led the way for Missouri State with 12 points, followed by Lacy Stokes (11 points), Rocca (11 points) and Kennedy Taylor (10 points) to put four Lady Bears in double figures on the night. Daniels pulled down a career-high eight rebounds to lead MSU on the night in 26 minutes on the floor for the freshman.

As a team, the Lady Bears won the battle in the paint (26-16) and on the boards (40-23), while shooting 44 percent (23-52) from the field and 64 percent (16-25) from the line.

Game 12

Missouri State 51
UIC 50

January 6, 2024 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball (9-3, 3-0) won its sixth-straight game with a 51-50 victory over UIC (8-6, 1-2) here Saturday afternoon at Great Southern Bank Arena.

The win marked MSU's 10th consecutive at home as the Lady Bears moved to 3-0 in Missouri Valley conference action, their best start in conference play since the 2020-21 season.

Once again, the Lady Bears found themselves in a close game down the stretch with the score tied at 38-38 heading into the final quarter. After UIC knocked down the first basket of the fourth, freshman Kyrah Daniels later answered with a three-pointer, her third of the night, to give MSU a one-point advantage.

The Flames then put together a short 5-0 run to take their largest lead of the second half at four points. MSU then battled to string together seven consecutive points highlighted by a Jade Masogayo jumper to tie it and a Paige Rocca trey to put the Lady Bears up three with 2:52 remaining. With MSU clinging to a one-point lead, UIC found the bottom of the basket to go up a point with just 0:03 left in the game, giving the Lady Bears one final chance on offense.

With the ball on their side of half court following the timeout, the Lady Bears got the ball inside and it was deflected right into the hands of a waiting Masogayo who laid it in to give MSU a one-point lead with 0:01 remaining. The dramatics weren't over, though, as UIC advanced the ball on the timeout and had a great look at the basket with time expiring, but the layup came up short as MSU held on for the one-point victory.

In the lead up to the deciding final quarter, the game was evenly matched with a few big runs favoring each team.

The Lady Bears got off to a slow start, surrendering seven points and starting 0-for-4 from the field to begin the game, but from there they reeled off a 22-2 offensive outburst to lead 22-9 after the first frame. Indya Green and Daniels each had seven points in the first quarter as MSU held the Flames scoreless for the final 6:03 of the period.

Despite the huge momentum shift in favor of the home team, UIC owned the second quarter. MSU's first points in the quarter didn't come until the 1:42 mark as the Flames scored 10 points to close the gap to three points. MSU was strong on the defensive side of the ball until they were able to find some offense with a Masogayo layup and Daniels triple to give the Lady Bears a six-point, 27-21, lead at the half.

In the first half, MSU shot 40 percent (12-30) from the field and 75 percent (3-4) from long range and forced 11 UIC turnovers.

Out of the half, both teams swapped baskets before UIC put together a four-point run to cut MSU's lead to one point once again. MSU was able to push the lead back to five before an 8-2 UIC scoring run gave the visitors the one-point advantage with 1:53 left in the third. Masogayo then hit a free throw to tie the game at 38-38 heading into the final 10 minutes.

Daniels led the way for MSU with a career-high 15 points on 60 percent (6-10) shooting from the field. She also went 3-for-3 from behind the arc and blocked two shots in almost 30 minutes on the floor. Masogayo followed with nine points, including the game-winning bucket.

Collectively, the Lady Bears forced 21 UIC turnovers and collected 11 assists on 21 field goals. MSU improved to 5-0 on the season in games decided by five points or less and to 22-0 under Beth Cunningham when holding opponents to 65 points or fewer.

Game 13

Missouri State 94
Bradley 66

January 11, 2024 ▪ Peoria, Ill.
Renaissance Coliseum

PEORIA, Ill. – Missouri State women's basketball (10-3, 4-0) earned a dominant road victory and pushed its win streak to seven games with a 94-66 win at Bradley (4-11, 0-4) here Thursday night.

Except for a Bradley three-pointer to start the game, it was all Lady Bears from the jump on the road in Peoria. Following a Kyrah Daniels triple to tie the game at 3-3, Jade Masogayo gave MSU its first lead of the night and the Lady Bears would never surrender it.

MSU set the tone early, knocking down three treys in the first quarter and going 10-for-18 from the field. The dominance would continue into the second quarter with the Lady Bears holding Bradley to just three points until the 1:55 mark of the second quarter to push the lead to 45-21. Missouri State also continued to light it up offensively, shooting 73 percent (11-15) from the field while protecting the ball, owning just two turnovers in the first half. Late in the quarter, the Braves would find a little offense and cut the deficit to 49-32 at the half.

The first half saw Missouri State's highest-scoring half this season at 49 points on 21-for-33 shooting (.636) from the field. Indya Green led the way in the first half with 17 points on 7-for-8 shooting, followed by Daniels with 13.

Out of the half, the Lady Bears kept their foot on the gas, eventually pushing their lead to a game-high 31 points near the halfway point of the fourth period. Bradley found some offensive success in the final frame, but Missouri State's early dominance was too much for the Braves as the Lady Bears were able to cruise to a 28-point victory on the road.

Twelve different Lady Bears scored points in the game, led by Green with 21 points on 9-for-12 shooting and tying for the game high with four steals. Daniels tied her career high with 15 points, four rebounds and three assists. Paige Rocca joined in double figures with 13 points, while freshman Louis Volker scored a career-high 12 points on 6-for-9 from the field. Lacy Stokes led the way with six assists, while freshman Kaemyn Bekemeier contributed a career-high in assists (3) and steals (4).

As a team, Missouri State committed just four turnovers, collected 22 assists and tallied 15 steals. The Lady Bears also forced 20 Bradley turnovers and took advantage, scoring 29 points off those mishaps. MSU shot 57 percent (41-72) from the field, 41 percent (7-17) from three and 63 percent (5-8) for the game as the Lady Bears eclipsed their previous high point total for the season by 20 points.

Game 14

Illinois State 85
Missouri State 78

January 14, 2024 ▪ Normal, Ill.
CEFCU Arena

NORMAL, Ill. – Missouri State women's basketball (10-4, 4-1) fell on the road at Illinois State, 85-78, in a hard-fought battle that marked the Lady Bears' first loss in Missouri Valley Conference play this season.

After going down by seven to begin the second half, Missouri State took its first lead of the night at the 5:44 mark of the third quarter on a Kennedy Taylor layup. Following a brief tie, MSU reeled off an eight-point run, bookended by treys courtesy of Paige Rocca and Kyrah Daniels to retake the lead. With Illinois State (10-5, 3-2) answering back over the next couple of minutes the game saw two more ties in the third, but Lacy Stokes gave MSU the edge at the end of the frame, knocking down a triple late in the shot and game clock to put Missouri State in front, 65-62, with 10 minutes to play.

The Lady Bears held on to the lead in the early part of the fourth quarter, as a Taylor and-1 gave MSU a five-point lead with 5:57 on the clock. However, following an Illinois State called timeout, the Redbirds put together seven straight points to take a two-point lead.

Despite Taylor tying the game once more, Illinois State used a 10-3 run to end the game as MSU was forced to foul down the stretch, ending the Lady Bears' seven-game win streak.

The Lady Bears found themselves in an early hole on the road in Normal, as Illinois State jumped out to an 11-2 lead over the first three minutes. Missouri State eventually settled in and cut the lead to three points after three consecutive layups. Following an Illinois State free throw, Stokes would drive it in for another layup to cut the deficit to two points. For the rest of the period, the lead would hover between three to five points as the squads traded baskets.

Missouri State then cut the lead to a single point within one minute in the second period behind triples from Kaemyn Bekemeier and Indya Green. Illinois State came out firing as well, putting together a 10-2 run to push the Redbird lead back to nine, but MSU wasn't going away quietly. A 6-0 surge with three straight jumpers made it a one possession game, then Stokes caught the Redbird offense off guard, stealing the ball and tossing it to Angel Scott who drained the triple to tie the game at 35-35 with less than a minute remaining in the half.

Illinois State got to the free throw line on their last possession of the half, knocking down both to take a two-point, 37-35 lead into the half.

The difference-maker in this one was at the free throw line as the Redbirds went 31-for-36 compared to MSU's 4-for-8 night at the stripe. The Lady Bears forced 18 Illinois State turnovers and knocked down a season-high eight triples, but it wasn't enough in the end.

Taylor led the way for MSU with 14 points on 6-for-8 shooting, followed by Daniels with 13 points. Louis Volker and Green joined them in double figures on the night with 10 points each, while Green grabbed a team-high six rebounds. Stokes had an impressive night at the point guard spot, dishing out a season-high eight assists with just one turnover.

Game 15

Missouri State 90
Evansville 55

January 19, 2024 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball (11-4, 5-1) cruised to a 35-point, 90-55, victory over Evansville (2-15, 0-6) here on Friday night at Great Southern Bank Arena.

It was all Lady Bears from the jump in this one with Missouri State going on a 13-0 run to begin the game and never looking back. As MSU's offense kept rolling, the Lady Bears locked it down defensively in the early going, holding Evansville to 18 percent (2-for-11) from the field in the first period.

With MSU leading 22-6 after a quarter, the Purple Aces knocked down the first two shots of the second quarter. However, Missouri State wouldn't let Evansville grab onto any momentum as the Lady Bears answered with a 12-2 surge, sparked by an Indya Green layup and capped with a Paige Rocca triple to push the lead to 22 points. With under a minute left in the second, freshman Kyrah Daniels found a rhythm, knocking down a jumper and then draining a corner three with time expiring in the half to give MSU a 43-16 advantage at the half.

After holding the Purple Aces to just 16 first-half points, Evansville found a spark in Maggie Hartwig coming out the break. Hartwig (23 points, 9-15 FG) scored 17 of Evansville's 21 points in the third quarter, going 6-for-7 from the field, 2-for-2 from three and 3-for-6 at the charity stripe. Despite UE's spark, the Lady Bears answered by shooting 71 percent (12-17) in the quarter and extending their lead to 33 points at the end of the quarter.

With the lead in hand heading into the final quarter, MSU was able to play its second wave for an extended period of time. After two Evansville free throws to kick off the fourth, the foursome of Louis Volker, Kaemyn Bekemeier, Natasha Barnes and Katrine Jessen were able to put together a 13-2 run to push the lead to a game-high 42 points. Late in the game, freshman Blake O'Grady scored her first collegiate points as the Lady Bears went on to capture a 90-55 victory. With the win, Missouri State moved to 9-0 at home this season and extended its home win streak to 11 games.

Missouri State had five players reach double figures on the night, led by Rocca and Kennedy Taylor with 11 points each. Daniels, Jade Masogayo and Volker each scored 10 points in the victory. Taylor paced MSU with eight rebounds, while Lacy Stokes dished out a game-high seven assists with no turnovers.

All 14 Lady Bears on Missouri State's roster recorded a rebound as MSU dominated on the boards, 52-33. The Lady Bears also racked up 21 assists and 11 steals, while shooting 47 percent (37-79) for the game.

Game 16

Missouri State 89
Indiana State 71

January 21, 2024 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD– Missouri State women's basketball (12-4, 6-1 MVC) moved to 10-0 at home this season with an 89-71 victory over Indiana State (6-11, 2-5) here Sunday afternoon at Great Southern Bank Arena. The victory also extended MSU's home win streak to 12 games, which is tied for the 10th longest home win streak in program history.

The third quarter proved to be the turning point for the Lady Bears after Missouri State went into halftime leading by just two points. After surrendering the lead to Indiana State and going down by four points near the midway mark of the third period, Missouri State caught fire offensively and locked it down on the defensive end of the floor. Following an Indya Green three-pointer cut the deficit to one point, MSU called a timeout and immediately got four consecutive stops on defense to set the tone for the remainder of the quarter.

From there, MSU went on an 18-5 surge over the final 5:07, connecting on 10 consecutive field goal attempts over an eight-minute span, to take a nine-point lead into the final period. The run was sparked by back-to-back triples courtesy of Indya Green and Paige Rocca as the Lady Bears took control of the game.

Missouri State didn't take its foot off the gas, starting the fourth quarter with a 15-2 run to push the lead to 22 points. A Kennedy Taylor layup and two Rocca free throws eventually pushed the lead to a game-high 23 points at the 4:37 mark as the Lady Bears went on to win by a comfortable 18-point margin.

The first half saw an entirely different game with Indiana State holding the early advantage. In a back-and-forth first period, the Sycamores knocked down a couple more shots from behind the arc to lead by one point after 10 minutes in Springfield.

After early foul trouble for the MSU guards, freshmen Natasha Barnes and Kaemyn Bekemeier provided valuable minutes in the second quarter in a close contest. After the Sycamores pushed the lead to six, Barnes knocked down a triple to make it a one possession game. From there, Bekemeier went to work by scoring seven of MSU's last 11 points in the half, which included two huge and-1 opportunities, to help propel the Lady Bears to a two-point lead at the break.

Missouri State had five players score in double figures, led by Jade Masogayo with 15 points and a game-high four blocks. Lacy Stokes followed with 14 points (5-7 FG) and a game-high six assists, while Kyrah Daniels recorded her fifth consecutive double-figure scoring performance with 13 on the afternoon. Bekemeier surpassed her career high yet again with 12 points on 5-for-6 shooting from the field. Finally, Kennedy Taylor secured her third double-double of the season with 10 points and 10 rebounds.

As a unit, the Lady Bears shot 61 percent (34-56) from the field, 44 percent (7-16) and 78 percent (14-18) from the free throw line on the afternoon. Missouri State racked up 19 assists, 10 steals and nine blocks in the victory.

Game 17

Belmont 66
Missouri State 55

January 26, 2024 ▪ Nashville, Tenn.
Curb Event Center

NASHVILLE – Missouri State women's basketball (12-5, 6-2) suffered a 66-55 setback on the road at Belmont (14-5, 7-1) here Friday night in Nashville.

It was a tough start for Missouri State on the evening, with the Lady Bears shooting just 20 percent (3-for-15) to open the game. Meanwhile, Belmont shot 60 percent in the first period and reeled off an 8-0 run following MSU's first basket of the night. Trailing by four just under the halfway mark of the first, Missouri State hit a cold stretch as Belmont took advantage and finished the quarter on a 10-0 surge to lead 20-6 after a quarter.

In the second quarter, the Lady Bears found an offensive spark in freshman Kaemyn Bekemeier, who scored 12 of Missouri State's 16 points in the frame. Bekemeier was a perfect 4-for-4 from the field, 2-for-2 from three-point range and 2-for-2 at the line as Missouri State more evenly matched Belmont heading into halftime.

After trailing 38-22 at halftime, the Lady Bears came out of the locker room on fire. Kyrah Daniels and Indya Green combined for Missouri State's first 11 points in the third, including back-to-back triples from Green to cut Belmont's lead to eight points at the 6:49 mark. Following a couple of Belmont layups and a three from Jailyn Banks to extend the Bruin lead back to 13 points, the Lady Bears went on a tear.

A Kennedy Taylor and-1 sparked a big-time Missouri State surge, as Taylor and Green scored the final 10 points of the quarter to make it a one-possession game at 47-44 with one quarter to play.

Unfortunately, that is as close as the Lady Bears would get in the comeback effort, as Belmont held the Lady Bears to 33 percent from the field in the fourth and outrebounded MSU 13-7 overall and 5-1 on the offensive glass in the final minutes.

Bekemeier paced MSU with a career-high 14 points (5-8 FG, 2-4 3FG) and five rebounds. She was joined in double figures by Green who had 13 points, on 5-for-6 from the field and a perfect 3-for-3 from behind the arc. As a team, Missouri State led 26-15 in bench points and shot 73 percent (8-11) at the charity stripe, but was outrebounded 43-32 and lost the battle in the paint, 38-20.

Game 18

Missouri State 84
Murray State 74

January 28, 2024 ▪ Murray, Ky.
CFSB Center

MURRAY, Ky. – Missouri State women's basketball improved to 13-5 (7-2 MVC) on the season with an 84-74 road victory over Murray State here Sunday afternoon. The win also marked head coach Beth Cunningham's 200th career victory.

After trailing by 13 points at the half, 45-32, the Lady Bears came out on fire to open the third quarter. Out of the locker room, Missouri State immediately put together a 12-4 run with baskets from five different Lady Bears to cut the Racer lead to five points. After swapping possessions, the Lady Bears had another big surge in them, outscoring Murray State 15-3 over the final 4:13 of the third quarter to lead 64-56 with a quarter to play.

Freshman Kyrah Daniels provided a huge spark in the period, scoring 12 points and going a perfect 4-for-4 from long range in the turning point of the game. MSU's 32-point third quarter was their largest scoring quarter of the season, as the Lady Bears shot 69 percent (11-16) from the field, 86 percent (6-7) from three and 100 percent (4-4) from the free throw line. Meanwhile, the Lady Bear defense held the Racers to 4-for-13 from the field while forcing 11 turnovers in the third quarter alone and turning those mishaps into 15 points.

The Racers had one final push in them, cutting Missouri State's lead to two points after a 9-3 spurt to open the fourth quarter. However, the Lady Bears remained resilient and had an answer of their own as a Kennedy Taylor layup sparked a 13-2 run to extend MSU's lead back to 13 points. The run included seven makes at the charity stripe to ultimately ice the game for the Lady Bears, who would go on to secure a 10-point, 84-74, victory and improve to 7-2 in Missouri Valley Conference action.

The opening quarter saw a game of runs as each team threw their punches, with Missouri State owning a slight two-point advantage after the first 10 minutes in Murray.

Kaemyn Bekemeier got things off to a good start in the second frame with a triple in the first minute, but the rest of the quarter belonged to the Racers. Following a Jade Masogayo jumper to give Missouri State its largest lead of the first half at six points, Murray State finished the period on a 23-4 run that spanned the final 7:01 of the half to take a 45-32 lead into halftime. Missouri State shot just 33 percent in the second and turned the ball over seven times which led to 13 Racer points.

Lacy Stokes led the way for Missouri State on the day with 16 points, followed by Daniels with 14 points (5-8 FG, 4-4 3FG). Taylor turned in her fourth double-double of the season with 12 points (4-6 FG, 4-4 FT) and 10 rebounds, in addition to blocking three shots. Indya Green also collected a career-high five steals.

As a unit, the Lady Bears knocked down a season-high nine three-pointers and forced 28 Murray State turnovers on the afternoon. Missouri State also blocked seven shots and recorded 17 assists on 30 field goals.

Game 19

Missouri State 62
Southern Illinois 52

February 3, 2024 ▪ Carbondale, Ill.
Banterra Center

CARBONDALE, Ill. – Missouri State women's basketball (14-5, 8-2 MVC) earned a hard-fought, 62-52, victory on the road at Southern Illinois (7-13, 2-8 MVC) here Saturday evening.

In a close game throughout the entire contest, the Lady Bears pulled away after a gritty fourth quarter performance. Holding a two-point advantage after three quarters, Missouri State scored the first six points of the fourth to extend the lead eight points and force a Saluki timeout. SIU then scored six of their seven points in the quarter over the next two-and-a-half minutes to cut the Lady Bear lead to four. From there, it was all Lady Bears, as five points from Jade Masogayo and a Kyrah Daniels layup gave MSU its largest lead of the night at 11 points with under a minute remaining. Missouri State held SIU to 20 percent (3-for-15) from the field in the final frame to ultimately secure a 10-point win on the road.

The first three quarters of the game saw neither team hold a lead of greater than five points in a back-and-forth battle.

In the opening quarter, the Lady Bears and Salukis swapped scores with three ties in the first 10 minutes. A four-point swing, courtesy of Daniels free throws and a Lacy Stokes steal and score as time ran out, put Missouri State up by three, 17-14, after a quarter.

Southern Illinois then owned the slight advantage in the second frame after the Salukis went on an 11-5 surge to open the period. Southern Illinois pushed the lead to its game-high of five points on two occasions, but Indya Green and Angel Scott layups to close the half made it a 31-30 game in favor of SIU at halftime.

Out of the break, Missouri State retook the lead quickly as Masogayo accounted for five of MSU's first seven points in the third to give the visitors a two-point lead. The teams continued to trade points before MSU gained its biggest momentum down the stretch of the third that rolled over into the decisive fourth.

Three Lady Bears were in double figures on the night, led by Masogayo and Stokes with 14 points apiece. Daniels also contributed 10 points, six rebounds and three steals on the night. Indya Green pulled down a team-high seven rebounds in addition to eight points.

As a squad, Missouri State won the battle on the boards, 40-26, including 11-8 on the offensive glass. The difference-maker in the game was at the free throw line with MSU connecting on 15-of-18 attempts (.833) compared to SIU's 5-for-10 at the line.

Game 20

Missouri State 73
Belmont 54

February 9, 2024 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Jade Masogayo led four Missouri State players in double figures with 17 points to lead the Lady Bears to a dominant 73-54 victory over visiting Belmont here Friday in a key Missouri Valley Conference matchup.

Masogayo was 5-of-7 from the field and 7-for-8 at the free throw line with 5 rebounds to lead MoState (15-5, 9-2 MVC), while Kennedy Taylor and Kyrah Daniels each poured in 13 points, and Lacy Stokes added 10 points and a game-high 6 assists in a wire-to-wire victory.

Belmont (16-6, 9-2) got a game-high 19 points from Jailyn Banks, including 17-of-20 from the free throw line, the most by any Missouri State opponent this season.

The Lady Bears came out of the gates firing, sprinting to a 12-0 lead in the first four-and-a-half minutes with five different players contributing to the early run. Meanwhile, MSU's defense frustrated the Bruins, holding them to 1-for-12 from the field in the opening quarter while building a 21-6 advantage through 10 minutes.

In the second quarter, Belmont was able to stay in the game with an abundance of free throw opportunities, mounting the period's first six points from the charity stripe to trim their deficit to seven. But Kaemyn Bekemeier's 3-pointer near the five-minute mark got things going for MSU to push the home squad's lead back to 24-14. The Bruins would tack on three more free throws and a pair of 3-pointers before the half to draw within 35-29 at the midway point.

Buckets from Masogayo and Daniels early in the third quarter extended MSU's lead to 41-31 less than two minutes in. But, Belmont was able to mount its biggest push of the night coming out of a video review moments later. The Bruins made 7-of-9 free throws over the next three minutes to make it a 41-38 game midway through the stanza before the season-best crowd of 3,503 at Great Southern Bank Arena came to life.

The Lady Bears parlayed that energy into a 16-5 surge over the next five minutes with Stokes and Masogayo combining for 12 points in that stretch that pushed the home side ahead 57-43 heading into the final period.

From there, Taylor and Paige Rocca made sure Belmont's comeback efforts were done for the night. Rocca's triple 12 seconds into the final period set the table before Taylor's layup pushed the Lady Bears ahead by 19 for their biggest lead to that point. Five minutes later, Rocca started a decisive 11-2 run for MSU with her layup midway through the quarter to ignite the surge which ultimately gave Missouri State its larges lead of the night, 73-50, with less than three minutes to play.

For the game, Missouri State was 26-of-55 (.473) from the field, 5-of-11 (.455) from 3-point range and 16-of-21 (.762) at the foul line with a decisive 42-26 rebounding advantage.

Belmont shot a season-low 23.9 percent from the field on 11-of-46 field goals and just 3-of-20 (.150) from long range. The Bruins did manage 29 free throws on 36 attempts (.806) with 11 steals and 10 fast-break points.

Game 21

Murray State 95
Missouri State 89

February 11, 2024 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State fell to 15-6 (9-3 MVC) and suffered its first home loss on the season in a 95-89 shootout against Murray State (15-6, 8-4 MVC) at Great Southern Bank Arena here Sunday afternoon.

The final 10 minutes decided the outcome in this one as Missouri State faltered down the stretch after leading by one point heading into the final period. After swapping possessions to open the fourth, a Paige Rocca three broke the tie and gave the home team a three-point lead. However, that's when Murray State took over, going on a 16-0 run to give the Racers their largest lead of the game at 13 points with just 2:56 remaining in Springfield.

The Lady Bears fought back, knocking down three triples in the final 0:20 to cut the Murray State lead to four. But, down the stretch Missouri State was forced to foul and the Racers made the most of their opportunities, going 14-for-15 at the line in the fourth to hand Missouri State its first loss at home this season.

The game was fast-paced and high-scoring from the opening tip with Missouri State jumping out to a 9-2 lead. Following Murray State's basket to start the game, the Lady Bears held the lead for nearly the entire quarter, until the Racers' Katelyn Young connected on a layup with 0:05 remaining to tie the game at 19-19 after one.

Murray State took the lead early in the second quarter, pushing the lead to as many as five points in the first couple of minutes of the period. Missouri State then put together a big surge, scoring 11 consecutive points, sparked by back-to-back treys from Kyrah Daniels and Rocca. From there, the Lady Bears held onto the lead until halftime, with a Kennedy Taylor layup and Daniels jumper in the final minute giving Missouri State a five-point, 45-40, advantage at the break.

The third quarter saw a good battle that tilted in favor of Murray State. The frame saw three lead changes and two ties as the Racers' last two three-point field goals of the quarter tied the game and then gave the visitors a one-point advantage on the road. However, with three seconds left, Taylor connected on a layup and gave the Lady Bears a one-point lead heading into the decisive fourth quarter.

Taylor led the way for Missouri State with 21 points and eight rebounds coming off the bench. Daniels followed with a career-high 18 points (6-7 FG, 4-5 3FG), while Lacy Stokes (16 points) and Rocca (13 points) also posted double-figure scoring performances on the afternoon.

As a team, the Lady Bears outrebounded the Racers, 33-28, and scored 20 points off 15 Murray State turnovers. Murray State put together an efficient offensive performance and the Lady Bears ultimately struggled to get stops when they needed to most, as the Racers shot 56 percent from the field, 52 percent from three and 86 percent from the line on the day.

Game 22

Missouri State 59
Indiana State 51

February 15, 2024 ▪ Terre Haute, Ind.
Hulman Center

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. – Missouri State women's basketball improved to 16-6 (10-3 MVC) with a 59-51 victory on the road at Indiana State (8-15, 4-9 MVC) here Thursday night.

After trailing by one heading into the fourth quarter, the Lady Bears locked it down defensively and held the Sycamores to just 2-for-10 from the field in the final period. Out of the final quarter break, Missouri State scored the first six points of the fourth with a floater from Kaemyn Bekemeier to open the period marking MSU's first lead in the game since its opening basket.

Lacy Stokes found a rhythm in the final minutes of the game, scoring six of MSU's last eight points in the game to help the Lady Bears escape with a 59-51 conference road victory.

The first three quarters were close throughout with the Lady Bears knocking on the door of the lead several times, but they were never quite being able to grab the lead.

MSU scored the first points of the game on a Stokes layup, but then Indiana State went on an 11-3 run to take a six-point lead near the midway point of the first. The Lady Bears cut the lead to two points twice, on a Kennedy Taylor layup and a Masogayo jumper, but the Sycamores drained a three as time expired in the first to lead by five.

With a layup to open the second period, Indiana State extended its lead to its largest of the game at seven points. From there, the squads swapped baskets as MSU cut the deficit to one point on two occasions in the quarter. As was the theme of the first three periods, the Sycamores had an answer and led 30-28 at halftime.

Indiana State scored the first two buckets out of the intermission to push the lead to back to seven, but a 9-2 Lady Bear surge, capped by a Taylor and-1, tied the game at 37-37. Missouri State stayed within striking distance, hitting the last bucket of the third to cut the deficit to one, until the Lady Bears were able to make their move in the game-deciding fourth quarter.

On a night when MSU's offense struggled to find a rhythm, the Lady Bears came up clutch on the defensive end. After surrendering 20 first-quarter points to the Sycamores, Missouri State held Indiana State to 21 points in the entire second half on 7-for-23 (.304) shooting from the field, while forcing 11 second-half turnovers and dominating 26-6 in the paint.

Taylor led the way for Missouri State with a 14-point, 12-rebound double-double on 50 percent shooting from the field. Stokes joined in double figures with 13 points and a team-high four assists. As a team, the Lady Bears outscored the Sycamores 36-20 in the paint and was plus-eight on the boards. Missouri State also forced 20 turnovers and collected 13 steals.

Game 23

Missouri State 73
Evansville 56

February 17, 2024 ▪ Evansville, Ind.
Meeks Family Fieldhouse

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – Missouri State women's basketball (17-6, 11-3 MVC) collected another Missouri Valley Conference road victory with a 73-56 win at Evansville (4-21, 2-12 MVC) here Saturday afternoon.

After holding on to a three-point lead at the end of the third quarter on the road, Missouri State dominated the fourth quarter to cruise to a 17-point win. The Lady Bears posted 20 points in the final period, while holding the Purple Aces to just six points on 18 percent (2-for-11) shooting from the field and shutting Evansville out from behind the arc (0-4). The Lady Bears ended the game on a 15-2 run, initially sparked by a Kaemyn Bekemeier triple.

Until Missouri State was able to pull away in the fourth quarter, it was a back-and-forth matchup on the road.

The Purple Aces scored the opening basket of the game, but then the Lady Bears surged for 12 straight points with buckets from four different Lady Bears in the run. Evansville eventually settled in, knocking down a couple of threes in the quarter to cut MSU's lead to three at the end of the first.

Going into the second, Evansville found some offensive success, shooting 70 percent (7-for-10) in the period as the lead changed hands four times. A 10-3 run late in the first half helped Missouri State grab the lead, owning a four-point, 39-35, advantage at the half. Lacy Stokes scored 11 of her 14 first-half points in the second period on 3-for-4 shooting from the field and a perfect 5-for-5 at the charity stripe.

Things remained close in the third, with Evansville owning a one-point advantage in the period. The second half of the third quarter saw a big run by each team, as the Purple Aces made their surge first and took the lead back and extended it to four after a seven-point spurt. But the Lady Bears had an answer as Kennedy Taylor and Louis Volker matched Evansville's run to swing the momentum and the lead back to Missouri State, 53-50, with 10 minutes remaining in the game.

Stokes led the way for Missouri State on the afternoon with 19 points while shooting at a 50 percent clip (6-for-12) from the field and .875 (7-for-8) from the free throw line. Indya Green logged a double-double with 13 points and 12 rebounds, while Taylor also joined in double figures with 10 points while missing no shots from the field (3-for-3).

As a team, the Lady Bears dominated in the paint, 42-24, and were plus-21 (44-23) on the boards, including a 15-2 margin on the offensive glass. MSU's depth was also crucial in this one as the Lady Bears scored 23 bench points to Evansville's six.

Game 24

Drake 76
Missouri State 65

February 22, 2024 ▪ Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center

DES MOINES, Iowa – Missouri State women's basketball fell to 17-7 (11-4 MVC) after suffering a 76-65 loss at Drake (21-5, 14-1) here Thursday night.

After MSU held a narrow two-point advantage at the half and owned the lead for the majority of the third quarter, the Drake Bulldogs put together a comeback effort to ultimately secure the win at the Knapp Center.

Missouri State came out of the intermission and extended its lead from two points to nine points at the 5:48 mark of the third. Indya Green accounted for six of MSU's first 10 points in the period to give the Lady Bears a spark. However, the Lady Bears couldn't sustain the momentum as Drake surged for a 16-2 run, half of those points coming from Anna Miller, shortly after the Bulldog timeout to lead by five. Drake would hold that five-point advantage heading into the final period.

In the fourth, the Lady Bears wouldn't go away quietly as MSU cut the Drake lead to two points on three different occasions. Unfortunately, the Bulldogs had an immediate answer for every Missouri State bucket. From there, a six-point surge from Drake gave the home team the separation it needed for the rest of the game as MSU suffered an 11-point loss on the road.

It was close game from the jump in Des Moines with Missouri State scoring the first points of the night. Following five points from the Bulldogs' Grace Berg, MSU then reeled off eight consecutive points to take a five-point lead near the midway point of the opening quarter. The squads then traded baskets as MSU continued to hold on to the lead, but a Drake triple with 1:01 remaining gave the Bulldogs a one-point lead after the first 10 minutes.

Back-to-back triples in the first couple minutes of the second period gave Drake the five-point advantage, but Lacy Stokes immediately responded with a three-pointer followed by a Jade Masogayo jumper to tie the game at 23-23. With the Bulldogs back up by four, Missouri State scored eight straight to flip the script and give MSU the four-point lead. The final few minutes of the half saw both teams knock down shots, but the Lady Bears led by two, 35-33, at the break.

Masogayo led the way for Missouri State with 19 points (8-12 FG, 3-5 FT), seven rebounds and three blocks. Green joined in double figures with 18 points. Stokes led MSU with four assists and three steals. As a team, Missouri State shot 43 percent (26-61) from the field and 85 percent (11-13) from the free throw line, but were held to just 29 percent (2-7) from three. MSU also lost the important battles on the boards and in the paint.

Game 25

Missouri State 77
Southern Illinois 42

February 25, 2024 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball improved to 18-7 (12-4 MVC) on the season with a dominant 77-42 victory against Southern Illinois (8-18, 3-13 MVC) here Sunday afternoon at Great Southern Bank Arena.

The Lady Bears' defensive effort was the highlight of the day as Missouri State held the Salukis to their lowest point total of the season. MSU limited SIU to just 28 percent (13-47) from the field and 30 percent (3-10) from three-point range.

Missouri State dominated on the glass, 41-20, and outscored the Salukis, 18-0, in second-chance opportunities as the Lady Bears tied their largest margin of victory this season at 35 points.

It was all Lady Bears from the jump in this one as Missouri State reeled off a 14-2 run over the final 5:01 of the first quarter, capped by a Paige Rocca triple as the quarter came to an end, to own a 23-9 lead after the first 10 minutes in Springfield. MSU held the Salukis to 4-of-14 from the field (.286) while the Lady Bears went 10-for-18 (.556), led by Paige Rocca with seven first-quarter points on 3-for-3 from the field.

The second quarter saw the Lady Bears get a little sloppy, turning the ball over seven times leading to six SIU points. The Salukis owned the slight advantage in the second period, 14-12, led by Laniah Randle (22 pts., 8-16 FG) with nine second-quarter points. However, the Lady Bears held a 12-point, 35-23, lead at the break.

Out of the intermission, the Lady Bears didn't look back as they outscored the Salukis 42-19 in the final two quarters.

Missouri State continued to dominate in all facets of the game, holding SIU to four field goals (.308), three total rebounds and 10 points in the third quarter. Rocca and Kennedy Taylor each contributed six points in the third as MSU was a perfect 6-for-6 at the free throw line to extend its lead to 22 points with a quarter remaining.

The fourth quarter saw all 14 Lady Bears touch the court with seven different scorers in the final 10 minutes. Missouri State smothered the Southern Illinois offense, limiting them to just 10 percent (1-10) from the field and forced six turnovers down the stretch. With a 13-point scoring margin in the fourth, MSU cruised to a 35-point, 77-42, victory.

Rocca was one of MSU's leading scorers with 15 points on a perfect shooting day (6-6 FG, 1-1 3FG, 2-2 FT), while also dishing out three assists. Taylor joined as MSU's other leading scorer with a 15-point, 11-rebound performance to collect her sixth double-double of the season.

Game 26

Missouri State 70
Bradley 44

February 29, 2024 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball improved to 19-7 (13-4 MVC) on the season with a 70-44 victory over Bradley (6-22, 2-15 MVC) here Thursday night at Great Southern Bank Arena.

It was all Lady Bears from the jump in this one as Missouri State outscored Bradley 25-5 in the first quarter, limiting the Braves to just 2-for-11 (.182) from the field. After a Bradley layup to tie the game at 2-2 early on, the Lady Bears then went on a huge 20-0 run that spanned more than six minutes. Then, the two squads traded three-point baskets to give MSU a 20-point advantage after one in Springfield.

The Braves found a little more offensive success in the middle quarters, but the Lady Bears were able to keep the game well in-check. After back-to-back buckets by Bradley cut the MSU lead to 18 points, the Lady Bears responded promptly with an eight-point surge to make it 44-18 at the half.

Lacy Stokes owned a game-high 10 first-half points, eight of those coming at the free throw line. Paige Rocca was 2-for-2 from the field, dished out four assists and collected two steals in the first half, while Jade Masogayo had a game-high five first-half rebounds.

Coming out of the intermission, Bradley put together its best quarter of the night, knocking down seven field goals and owning a slight advantage in points off turnovers and points in the paint. However, the Lady Bears also came out firing out of halftime, shooting .571 (8-14) from the field and .600 (3-5) from three. Every time the Braves hit a shot, the Lady Bears answered right back and eventually ended the quarter with back-to-back treys from Jaiden Bryant and Indya Green to push the lead to 28 points with one quarter remaining.

The final quarter saw both teams connect on just three field goals, but with the game firmly in hand, the Lady Bears were able to empty their bench and take their largest lead of the night at 29 points with 9:46 left in the game.

Stokes and Bekemeier led the way for Missouri State on the night with 12 and 11 points, respectively. Indya Green followed closely behind with nine points and a team-high seven rebounds. Ten different Lady Bears recorded points on the night and 11 different players pulled down a rebound.

The Lady Bears forced 19 Bradley turnovers, scoring 23 points off those mishaps. MSU once again dominated the rebounding battle, 41-28, and took advantage of its second-chance opportunities, outscoring the Braves 16-2 in the category. For the game, MSU shot .415 from the field, .294 from three and .786 from the line.

Game 27

Missouri State 67
Illinois State 62

March 2, 2024 ▪ Springfield, Mo.
Great Southern Bank Arena

SPRINGFIELD – Missouri State women's basketball (20-7, 14-4 MVC) secured its seventh consecutive 20-win season with a 67-62 win over Illinois State (19-9, 12-6) here Saturday afternoon at Great Southern Bank Arena.

Point guard Lacy Stokes put together an incredible performance in a crucial Missouri Valley Conference matchup. The junior poured in a season-high 26 points, tied her career high with seven steals and dished out seven assists without leaving the floor as she helped lead Missouri State to a five-point victory in its home finale.

After trailing by four at the half, the Lady Bears came out firing in the third quarter, shooting .615 (8-13) and owning a 10-0 advantage in the paint. Kyrah Daniels got things going for MSU in the third, knocking down a triple to cut the Redbird lead in half. With Illinois State still holding on to a narrow advantage, Kennedy Taylor and Stokes connected on back-to-back buckets to tie the game at 38-38.

Less than a minute later, Taylor again tied the game before Kaemyn Bekemeier nailed a three to give MSU its first lead since midway through the second and Indya Green drove in for a layup to extend the lead to five. Illinois State then scored the final four points of the period to make it a two-point, 47-45, game heading into the final quarter.

The Lady Bears used an 8-5 run over the first four minutes of the fourth quarter to push their lead back to five points, but Illinois State wasn't going away quietly. In a key MVC matchup, the Redbirds would tie the game on two more occasions, at the 5:30 and 1:58 mark.

With less than two minutes remaining and a tie ballgame at 61-61, Daniels drove in for what would be the ultimate game-winning layup. After Illinois State cut the deficit back to one on a free throw with 1:25 left to play, Paige Rocca and Stokes went on to score on back-to-back possessions to secure a five-point win for the Lady Bears.

The opening quarter set the narrative for what would be a hard-fought battle throughout a game that saw 11 lead changes and six ties. Illinois State jumped out front early, but the Lady Bears kept things close. Despite trailing nearly the entire first quarter, MSU went on to score four points in the final 0:28 of the first period with a Bekemeier fastbreak layup giving MSU its first lead of the game at 13-12 after one period in Springfield.

The second quarter saw Illinois State own the advantage as the Redbirds shot .583 (7-12) in the quarter, including a 9-0 surge over nearly three minutes in the early part of the second to retake and extend the lead to six points. MSU cut the lead to two points with 0:42 remaining in the half on a Stokes fastbreak layup, but two Redbird free throws down the stretch gave Illinois State a 30-26 advantage at the intermission.

Behind Stokes' 26-point performance, Taylor collected seventh double-double of the season with 12 points and 12 rebounds. As a squad, the Lady Bears forced 21 Redbird turnovers which turned into 26 MSU points, won the battle in the paint (38-26) and held an 11-2 advantage in fastbreak scoring.

Game 28

UIC 65
Missouri State 61

March 7, 2024 ▪ Chicago, Ill.
Credit Union 1 Arena

CHICAGO – Missouri State women's basketball fell to 20-8 (14-5 MVC) on the season with a 65-61 loss on the road at UIC (17-13, 10-9 MVC) here Thursday night.

After a one-point game earlier this season between Missouri State and UIC in Springfield, the rematch lived up to the expectation of a close, physical game.

With the game tied 31-31 at the half, MSU took a three-point lead early in the third period. The lead hovered between one to three points for the Lady Bears until just under the midway point of the quarter, when UIC connected on back-to-back buckets to take a one-point lead. MSU grabbed the lead back momentarily on a Lacy Stokes layup, but the Flames would put together what would ultimately be the game-winning run, outscoring the Lady Bears 7-2 over the final 2:26 of the third quarter.

Missouri State would continue to battle back in the fourth quarter with Jade Masogayo scoring the first eight points of the final period, pulling the Lady Bears within two points near the midway point. Over a two-minute span starting at the 4:59 mark, UIC connected on six free throw attempts to push the lead back to six.

In typical Lady Bear fashion, they kept clawing their way back with back-to-back layups from Kennedy Taylor and Indya Green tying the game at 61-61 with 0:49 left on the clock. Unfortunately, the Flames were able to get a bucket on the other end to go up by two, and Missouri State came up empty on its final possession, forcing a foul situation as UIC iced the game at the line for a 65-61 victory.

The first half saw much of the same back-and-forth between the two squads. After a layup to open the game for MSU, the Flames knocked down two of its three triples in the period to take an early four-point lead. A Green layup a few minutes later tied the game, before a Kyrah Daniels three-pointer gave MSU its first lead since the opening basket at 11-10. The run continued with consecutive Taylor layups to give the Lady Bears a five-point advantage.

After another UIC trey to cut MSU's lead to two at the end of the first quarter, the Flames scored the first five points of the second to reclaim the lead. Following a 21-21 tie at 6:23 on a Taylor basket, UIC reeled off five straight points, but Missouri State didn't let the Flames get too much momentum.

Daniels drained her second three of the night to make it a two-point game before her third three-point bucket of the first half sparked a 7-0 MSU run to give the Lady Bears a three-point lead. Then, the Flames answered with their sixth triple of the first half to tie the game once again at 31-31 heading into the intermission.

Masogayo led the way for the Lady Bears with 15 points, including eight in the fourth quarter. Green notched a double-double with 12 points and 13 rebounds on the night, while Stokes and Taylor joined in double figures with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Missouri State won the battle in the paint (38-24) and on the boards (39-32), but the difference ultimately came at the free throw line with UIC going 17-for-23 compared to MSU's 6-for-9.

The loss marked MSU's first defeat this season in a game decided by five points or less. Missouri State was 6-0 in such games prior to tonight's outcome.

Game 29

Missouri State 77
Valparaiso 66

March 9, 2024 ▪ Valparaiso, Ind.
Athletics-Recreation Center

VALPARAISO, Ind. – Missouri State women's basketball ended the regular season with a 21-8 (15-5 MVC) record after defeating Valparaiso (5-24, 4-16 MV) here Saturday afternoon by a score of 77-66.

The Lady Bears used an important surge in the third quarter to extend their lead over the Beacons in a hard-fought battle. After leading by six at the half, Missouri State put together an 11-2 run to begin the third quarter, seven of those points coming courtesy of Jade Masogayo, and take its largest lead of the game at 15 points. Valparaiso used an eight-point surge later in the period to cut MSU's lead to just four points, but the Lady Bears responded with six makes at the charity stripe to extend the lead back to double figures.

Holding a seven-point lead heading into the final quarter, the Lady Bears surrendered a triple early in the period to make it a four-point game. Missouri State continued to respond, though, this time with a Masogayo layup and Lacy Stokes trey. The rest of the game saw both squads trade baskets as the Lady Bears went on to earn an 11-point, 77-66, road victory to finish out the regular season.

The Lady Bears got off to a good start on the afternoon, jumping out to a quick 4-0 lead. The Beacons would battle to tie things up at 7-7 at the 4:28 mark, but then Kaemyn Bekemeier and Indya Green nailed back-to-back triples to propel Missouri State to a six-point lead. Valparaiso answered with a triple and converted an and-1 opportunity to make it a one-point game, but Stokes and Kennedy Taylor closed out the scoring in the first with back-to-back layups.

Leading by five after one in Valparaiso, the second quarter was nearly identical for the two teams. Both knocked down five field goals, one coming from behind the arc, but the difference-maker was at the line as the Lady Bears went a perfect 8-for-8 compared to Valparaiso's 7-for-10.

Stokes led the way for Missouri State with 22 points (7-for-12 FG, 7-of-8 FT), seven assists and four steals. Masogayo recorded a 20-point performance of her own with 21 points (7-for-9 FG, 7-for-7 FT) while adding seven rebounds, two blocks and two steals. Bekemeier was the final Lady Bear in double figures with 10 points (4-for-5 FG, 2-for-2 3FG).

As a team, the Lady Bears scored 21 points off of 22 Valparaiso turnovers, while also winning the battle in the paint (40-26) and on the boards (34-23). Missouri State shot 43 percent (25-58) from the field, 46 percent (5-11) from three and 88 percent (22-25) from the free throw line.

Game 30

Missouri State 71
Murray State 70

MVC Tournament ▪ March 15, 2024 ▪ Moline, Ill.
Vibrant Arena at The MARK

MOLINE, Ill. – Missouri State women's basketball (22-8) defeated Murray State 71-70 here Friday night to advance to the semifinals of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament.

Indya Green had a sensational night, pouring in 22 points and grabbing 17 rebounds in the victory. Her 17 boards tied for sixth on the Valley Tournament rebound leader list for a single game. She scored 14 of her points and pulled down eight rebounds in the second half, with eight points coming in the crucial fourth quarter.

Lacy Stokes drove to the basket and was fouled with one second left in the game with the Lady Bears trailing by one, and she strolled to the line and knocked down both to ultimately send Missouri State to tomorrow's semifinals.

After extending the lead to 10 points early in the fourth quarter, Murray State (20-11) put together a 10-2 run to cut the Lady Bear lead to two points. Less than two minutes later, another Racers triple tied the game at 57-57 with 4:52 remaining. Over the final 2:20, the game saw five lead changes and three ties.

A Missouri State foul with 0:05 left sent the Racers to the free throw line, where Bria Sanders-Woods connected on 1-of-2 to give Murray State a one-point lead. That's when the Lady Bears drew up their play in the timeout and secured the victory at the free throw line and with one final defensive stop.

The third quarter proved to be huge for the Lady Bears. After trailing by four at the half, Missouri State outscored the Racers 21-10 in the period to take a seven-point lead into the fourth. MSU started the third with a 6-2 surge to tie the game after just two-and-a-half minutes. From there, the Lady Bears took the lead on a Kennedy Taylor jumper at 5:10, and with the MSU lead hovering between one and three points, Missouri State scored the final five points in the quarter to create a bit of separation.

Both squads struggled to get going offensively early on, but Missouri State found some momentum to end the quarter. Freshman Kaemyn Bekemeier hit a free throw to spark a small 5-0 run that Kyrah Daniels and Stokes completed to give the Lady Bears a four-point lead after one quarter in Moline.

The first half of the second period saw a couple of lead changes and ties, but a 10-2 Murray State run in the quarter gave the No. 6 seed its biggest lead of the night at eight points with 2:04 left in the half. Bekemeier went on to knock down a jumper at the buzzer to cut the Missouri State deficit to four points, 33-29, at the half.

The Lady Bears improved to 7-1 in games decided by five points or less and 4-0 in one-point games this season.

Green led the way with her double-double performance and was joined in double figures by Stokes with 17 points and a team-high four assists and four steals. As a unit, the Lady Bears forced 18 Murray State turnovers and led in second-chance points, 15-7.

Game 31

Missouri State 63
Belmont 48

MVC Tournament ▪ March 16, 2024 ▪ Moline, Ill.
Vibrant Arena at The MARK

MOLINE, Ill. – Missouri State women's basketball (23-8) put together an impressive defensive effort to secure a 63-48 win over Belmont (25-8) here Saturday evening to advance to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Championship tomorrow against top-seeded Drake.

Tomorrow will mark Missouri State's 17th appearance in the conference tournament championship game, spanning both the Gateway and Missouri Valley conferences. MSU's last appearance in the conference tournament title game was in 2019 when the Lady Bears defeated Drake, 94-79.

Missouri State dominated the second half in the semifinal matchup, outscoring the Bruins 34-21 and forcing 12 Belmont turnovers over the final 20 minutes. The Lady Bears held Belmont to a season-low 48 points, with the Bruins' previous low of 54 points also coming courtesy of Missouri State earlier this season in Springfield.

After leading by two at the half, Belmont quickly tied the game in the third to set up a whole new ballgame in the second half. From there, Missouri State went on a 12-3 surge to take and extend the lead to nine points. At the 2:00 mark of the third period, an Indya Green three-pointer pushed MSU's lead to double digits, before a Belmont free throw made it a nine-point MSU advantage heading to the final period.

The Lady Bears wouldn't allow Belmont to close the cap significantly in the final quarter, holding the Bruins to 31 percent from the field and just one three-point field goal. With the Lady Bears keeping hold of an eight-point lead down the stretch, Belmont was forced to foul and Missouri State iced the game, going 8-for-10 from the charity stripe in the fourth to secure a 15-point victory over Belmont.

The game saw a close first half matchup with the largest lead for either team topping out at six points. Belmont came out firing from three with the Bruins' Kendal Cheesman knocking down three triples in the first five minutes to take a six-point lead. However, Missouri State settled in and locked the Bruins down, holding Belmont scoreless over the final 5:01 of the first. Missouri Valley Conference Newcomer of the Year Lacy Stokes then went to work, scoring the last six points of the quarter herself to tie the game at 14-14 after one in Moline.

The Lady Bears kept the momentum going in the second, scoring the first four points to take their largest lead of the first half. The remainder of the half saw no lead grow larger than three points as the Bruins retook the lead twice on more success from behind the arc.

Freshman Kyrah Daniels then found her stride, connecting on back-to-back jumpers to give the Lady Bears a three-point advantage. Belmont would tie the game with free throws on two more occasions, but Missouri State got the last possession and Stokes made them pay, knocking down a jumper with 0:02 left in the half to give the Lady Bears a 29-27 lead at the half.

Stokes led the way for the Lady Bears with 21 points, five assists and four steals. Daniels joined in double figures with 13 points on the evening. As a team, the Lady Bears forced 17 Belmont turnovers, turning those mishaps into 16 points. Missouri State also owned the advantage on the boards, 40-33, and in the paint, 24-16.

Game 32

Drake 76
Missouri State 75

MVC Tournament ▪ March 17, 2024 ▪ Moline, Ill.
Vibrant Arena at The MARK

MOLINE, Ill. – A layup at the buzzer by Drake's Anna Miller spoiled a Missouri State comeback for the ages here Sunday as the top-seeded Bulldogs topped the Lady Bears, 76-75, in the Missouri Valley Conference championship game here Sunday afternoon.

Miller's left-handed shot at the horn came on the heels of a MoState bucket by Lacy Stokes with 2.6 seconds remaining to give Missouri State its first lead of the game and cap a remarkable 19-4 fourth-quarter run.

Drake's Berg scored a layup with 7:38 to go to give the Bulldogs their biggest lead of the game, 68-54, before Indya Green, Kennedy Taylor and Stokes led MSU's charge. Paige Rocca's triple with 42 seconds left brought MSU within one before Stokes' jumper completed the resurgence.

The Lady Bears (23-9) showed resiliency all day, clawing back after two other big Drake (29-5) runs in the first and third quarters to set themselves up with the chance to win it in the fourth. After trailing by three at halftime, the Bulldogs scored the first 11 points of the second half, nine coming courtesy of Miller to trail by 14. Once again, Missouri State stayed patient and a seven-point run from Green and Taylor cut it back to seven points.

With the game tied at 4-4 in the early going of the contest, Drake put together a 10-2 surge to push the lead to eight. The Bulldogs were then able to stretch the lead to 10 and 12 points before the end of the half, but a Kyrah Daniels triple with 0:19 made it a nine-point game headed to the second quarter.

Missouri State carried that momentum into the second period, going on a 9-2 run to start the quarter with seven consecutive points coming via Green. Green's triple to cap the run pulled the Lady Bears within two points as Missouri State remained within striking distance throughout the remainder of the half, with MSU trailing 38-35 at the intermission.

Taylor finished with 22 points on 9-of-15 field goals to go with 11 rebounds off the bench with Stokes contributing 16 points, 7 assists and 6 steals. Green tallied 17 points and 9 rebounds, while Jade Masogayo also contributed 10 points for the Lady Bears.

The Lady Bears owned the rebounding battle, 33-25, including an 18-7 advantage on the offensive glass. Missouri State forced 19 Bulldog turnovers, turning those in to 27 points.

Green and Stokes were both named to the MVC All-Tournament Team.

Game 33

Illinois 74
Missouri State 69

WBIT ▪ March 21, 2024 ▪ Champaign, Ill.
State Farm Center

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. – Missouri State women's basketball (23-10) concluded its season with a 74-69 loss on the road at Illinois (15-15) in the first round of the Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament here Thursday night.

After Missouri State led by five at the half, Illinois put together a second-half comeback. MSU opened the third quarter with a Kyrah Daniels jumper and Paige Rocca three to push the lead to 10 points. However, that's when the game took its big turn. Illinois put together eight straight points to cut the MSU lead to two.

The Lady Bears then responded to extend the lead back to six, but Illinois had another surge in them. The Fighting Illini ended the third quarter on a 13-3 run, holding MSU scoreless for nearly four minutes, to lead 55-51 after three in Champaign.

The fourth quarter saw a great battle between the two squads. After going down by seven points, the Lady Bears pulled within three at the 6:46 mark before Illinois once again extended its advantage back to nine points. Missouri State's final push started with 3:52 on the clock, as Rocca knocked down a couple of free throws and Lacy Stokes and Kennedy Taylor hit layups to make it a three-point game.

Following an Illinois basket to make it a five-point game, Stokes went down and knocked down a step-back three as the shot clock ran down to make it a one-possession game at 70-68. But, the Lady Bears were forced to foul and the Fighting Illini iced the game down the stretch as Missouri State fell 74-69 on the road.

Back in the first half, the two teams battled back-and-forth as the game saw four lead changes and three ties in the opening 10 minutes. Neither team held a lead larger than four points. MSU took a lead late in the first on a Stokes trey and a Jade Masogayo jumper, before Illinois cut the Lady Bear lead to two points at 19-17 to end the first.

Missouri State came out firing in the second period, starting the quarter on an 11-2 run to give the visiting Lady Bears their largest lead of the night at 11 points. The run was sparked by a Kaemyn Bekemeier jumper, before Stokes poured in six points and Rocca capped it with a three-point bucket.

From there, Illinois was able to keep things close, responding with a couple of threes to eventually cut the Lady Bear lead to four points. But a Stokes free throw at the 2:08 mark in the period marked the final point for either team in the half as Missouri State led 37-32 at the intermission.

Stokes led the way for Missouri State with 22 points and five assists, including 16 first-half points on 6-for-9 from the field. Taylor joined in double figures with 12 points and nine rebounds. As a team, the Lady Bears shot 40 percent from the field and 71 percent from the free throw line. MSU also owned a slight advantage in the paint, 34-32, and led 18-0 in bench points.

The 2024-25 season will mark Missouri State's final as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference. On May 10, 2024, Missouri State announced it had accepted an invitation to join Conference USA as a full-league member, effective July 1, 2025. Missouri State made its move to Division I and the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference in 1982-83, becoming an inaugural member of the league, before the Gateway merged with the Missouri Valley Conference in 1992-93. The 2024-25 season will mark MSU's 43rd NCAA Division I season and 33rd season in the MVC. The Lady Bears will depart The Valley as one of the most decorated programs in the league's history - owning 14 regular season titles and 11 conference tournament crowns, both of which top the league.

1991-92 Missouri State Lady Bears

Season Record: 31-3
Highlights: Missouri Valley Conference Regular-Season and Tournament Champions, NCAA Midwest Regional Champions, #4 final ranking by USA Today
Head Coach: Cheryl Burnett
Assistant Coaches: Marla Douglass, Jim Middleton, Lynnette Robinson
Co-Captains: Amy Nelson, Karen Rapier

To the nation, the 1991-92 Lady Bears were simply known as the "Cinderella" team of the 1992 NCAA Tournament. They were the team of which no one had heard that was knocking off better-known ballclubs with startling ease.

Ranked 10th in the nation and having won its last 17 games, Missouri State appeared to be a lock for one of the 16 first round byes in the NCAA Tournament, but the NCAA Women's basketball committee said otherwise, making the Lady Bears the eighth seed in the Midwest Regional and giving Missouri State a first-round home game against Kansas. The attractive regional matchup drew 7,652 to Hammons Student Center, and the crowd was deafening at times as it spurred the Lady Bears to a 75-59 victory.

The mission for recognition continued in Boulder, Colo., and the Midwest Regional. Missouri State methodically dispatched UCLA 83-57 and Mississippi 94-71 to become the lowest seed ever to advance to the Women's Final Four.

In one of the most memorable games in the history of Lady Bear Basketball, it was on to Iowa to face the top seed and seventh-ranked Hawkeyes. The game was a classic, a battle between two defensive-minded teams who refused to let the other team operate its offense. And, while MSU had not been tested with very many close games in the regular season, the Lady Bears showed their mettle in the clutch against Iowa, stunning the host Hawkeyes, 61-60, in overtime in the Lady Bears' first win over a top-10 ranked team.

Western Kentucky had gotten to the Final Four by knocking off defending national champ and second-ranked Tennessee in the Mideast regional semifinals and eighth-ranked Maryland in the championship.

Missouri State jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead when Tina Robbins hit a driving layup, was fouled and made the free throw. The Lady Bears built an early 8-2 advantage. But then Western Kentucky turned up its defensive pressure and disrupted Missouri State in a manner similar to the way the Lady Bears disrupted opponents in 31 MSU victories. The Lady Toppers held MSU to four points over a 10-minute span that saw WKU go from six points down to 11 points up at 23-12.

The Lady Bears were fortunate to be trailing by just eight, 33-25, at intermission. MSU had made 18 first-half turnovers and made good on just 8-of-13 from the free throw line.

Western Kentucky scored the first four points to open the second half and the Lady Bears found themselves playing catch-up the rest of the way. MSU fell behind by as much as 19 points before battling back within six at 56-50 with 7:36 to go. With WKU's top four players out of the game due to fouls, it looked like MSU had a chance, but Lady Topper guard Kim Pehlke scored four straight points to boost the lead back to 10 and MSU got no closer than seven. The final score: Western Kentucky 84, Missouri State 72. Robbins led the Lady Bears with a career-best 22 points while Tonya Baucom added 17. Pehlke finished with 30 points, an MSU opponent season high, including 22 in the second half.

The 1991-92 season was truly an unbelievable ride for the Lady Bears and their many loyal fans, who were swept up by a little March Madness that spilled into April. Around 3,000 fans turned out for an April 9 parade honoring the Lady Bears, the state's first Final Four team. It was a season to remember, and one that gave the Lady Bears even loftier goals to shoot for in the years to come.

2000-01 Missouri State Lady Bears

Season Record: 29-6
Highlights: Missouri Valley Conference Regular-Season Co-Champions and Tournament Champions, NCAA West Regional Champions, #4 final ranking by USA Today
Head Coach: Cheryl Burnett
Assistant Coaches: Scott Norris, Karen Rapier, Lynette Robinson
Co-Captains: Melody Campbell, Jackie Stiles

Sparked by the leadership and offensive firepower provided by NCAA all-time scoring leader and AP Player of the Year Jackie Stiles, the 2000-01 Missouri State Lady Bears rode a late-season hot streak all the way to the school's second NCAA Division I Final Four appearance.

Mildly put, the 2000-01 campaign was marked by significant personal and team accomplishments. Stiles shone like no other player in NCAA Division I as she shattered career scoring records for all three NCAA divisions, captivated the hearts of fans everywhere and drew a tremendous amount of media attention from local, regional and national outlets. That attention vaulted the Lady Bears into the national spotlight as they danced their way into the NCAA Tournament and the Final Four.

The Lady Bears earned their 10th NCAA Tournament appearance in the previous 11 years and were seeded fifth in the West Regional. Missouri State rolled over 12th-seeded Toledo 89-71 behind 40 points by Tara Mitchem in NCAA First Round action in Piscataway, N.J., then knocked off fourth-seeded Rutgers 60-53 to send the Lady Bears to their first Sweet Sixteen appearance since 1993. The West Regional in Spokane, Wash., featured Missouri State, No. 1 seed Duke, sixth-seeded Washington, and No. 2 seed Oklahoma.

Missouri State overwhelmed Duke 81-71 in the semifinals as the Lady Bears scored 45 second half points to come back for the victory after trailing 42-36 at halftime. MSU was led by Stiles with 41 points, the fourth-highest point total in tournament history. The Lady Bears outrebounded the Blue Devils 41-33. Meanwhile, Washington cruised past Oklahoma as the Huskies and Lady Bears became the lowest seeds ever to play each other in a regional final.

The Lady Bears claimed the NCAA West Regional Championship and their first Final Four berth since 1992 with a 104-87 win over the Huskies. Stiles poured in 32 points and Tara Mitchem added 23 to lead the offensive attack. The Lady Bears sprinted out to a quick start with terrific defense and pinpoint passing, led at the half 51-33, and maintained their lead throughout the second half for the win.

After having traversed the country from east to west, the Lady Bears found themselves three hours from Springfield at the Final Four in St. Louis as part of a field that included defending national champion Connecticut, Notre Dame and Purdue, which MSU would face in the semifinal game at Scottrade Center.

Missouri State gave the Boilermakers all they could handle until fatigue and an overpowering rebounding onslaught by Purdue took its toll in the end. The Lady Bears and Boilermakers played things close through the first 14 minutes before Purdue managed to make a run. Leading 29-23 with 6:46 to go in the opening half, Purdue closed out the first 20 minutes with an 18-7 run to take a 47-30 lead at the break.

The Lady Bears closed the gap to 11 points five times in the second half but could get no closer as Purdue continued its assault on the boards, outrebounding Missouri State 47-29. When the final buzzer sounded the score read: Purdue 81, Missouri State 64. Purdue eventually lost to the Notre Dame Flighting Irish in the national championship game.

NCAA Mideast Regional First Round
March 13, 1991 ▸ Springfield, Mo.
Hammons Student Center

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — In its first-ever NCAA appearance, Missouri State used an oppressive defense to wear down Tennessee Tech and advance to a second-round match-up against top-seeded Tennessee. MSU trailed just once at 4-2 and used a 14-5 run to close the first half up 47-34 as Melody Howard canned a three-pointer as time expired. Three Lady Bears reached double figures in the first half, with Howard making 6-of-7 from the field, including 3-of-3 from behind the three-point arc, for 15 points. MSU maintained its double-digit lead throughout the second half, with Tech never getting closer than 10 points. Howard had a then-career-high 28 points on 10-of-12 shooting to lead five Lady Bears in double digits in MSU's 11th consecutive victory.

NCAA Mideast Regional Second Round
March 16, 1991 ▸ Knoxville, Tenn.
Thompson-Boling Arena

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Tennessee's powerful inside game was too much for the Lady Bears, as the eventual national champion Lady Vols parlayed a 45-33 advantage on the boards into a hard-fought win. MSU got off to a quick start as two Secelia Winkfield baskets put the Lady Bears up 4-0, and an 11-2 run pushed their lead to 19-9. But UT's inside game took over and MSU went 10 minutes without scoring a point. Tennessee took the lead for good at 21-19 with 0:18 left in the half, went up 28-19 early in the second period and never looked back. MSU got no closer than six points the rest of the way. UT's Daedra Charles turned in a game for the ages, tallying a game-high 25 points to go along with 22 boards, which represented the third-highest single-game rebounding total in NCAA Tournament history.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — A solid second half by Missouri State broke open a tight game as the eighth-seeded Lady Bears beat Kansas before a then-Midwest Regional record crowd of 7,652. MSU led by as many as six points in the first period, but needed a buzzer-beater by Secelia Winkfield to lead 31-30 at halftime. MSU used a 13-0 run to open up a 44-32 lead early in the second half. Kansas closed to within 53-50 with 6:45 to go, but Karen Rapier tallied four straight points and MSU used a 22-9 burst to win going away. The Lady Bears shot .650 (13-of-20) from the field and .850 (17-of-20) from the line in the second half.

IOWA CITY, Iowa — In a classic defensive battle, Missouri State picked up the biggest victory in the program's history with a 61-60 overtime decision at Iowa, the regional's top seed. The Lady Bears shot 61.1 percent (11-of-18) in the first half to build a 31-25 halftime edge, and MSU stretched its lead to 47-36 with 10:05 left in the game. After the Hawkeyes used a 19-6 run to take the lead at 55-52 with 0:33 left to play, Melody Howard nailed a three-pointer at the 0:22 mark to force overtime. MSU trailed for most of the extra period before Secelia Winkfield corralled a loose ball and banked in the game-winner with 1.5 seconds left on the clock. The victory marked MSU's first win over a team ranked in the Top 10.

BOULDER, Colo. — The Lady Bears jumped out to a quick 8-0 lead and UCLA never got closer than four points, as MSU took a 37-22 halftime lead and never looked back in downing the regional's No. 5 seed. Missouri State's defense gave UCLA fits, as the Bruins connected on just 1-of-14 three-point attempts and 33.8 percent overall from the field. Melody Howard scored 12 of her game-high 18 points in the first half and MSU maintained a double-digit lead throughout the second period. Seven Lady Bears scored at least eight points, with five finishing in double figures. The undersized Lady Bears outrebounded the Bruins 49-34.

BOULDER, Colo. — Missouri State rallied from early deficits to score a decisive win over second-seeded Ole Miss and become the lowest regional seed ever to advance to the Final Four. After falling behind 10-2 and 19-11, the Lady Bears battled back and led 46-36 at the break thanks to a half-ending 17-6 run. The Rebels pulled back to within nine at 57-48 with 14:18 left in the game, but MSU scored the next nine points and breezed to the regional crown. Karen Rapier and Charity Shira paced the MSU offense with 16 points apiece, and regional MVP Tina Robbins had 14 points, as six Lady Bears reached double digits.

LOS ANGELES — Missouri State's second-half rally fell short as the Lady Bears' 21-game win streak and dream season came to an end in the national semifinals. MSU got out to an 8-2 lead before WKU turned up the defensive pressure. The Lady Toppers took a 33-25 edge into the break before pushing their lead to as many as 18 points in the second half. The Lady Bears pulled to within 56-50 with 7:36 to go, but WKU's Kim Pehlke scored four of her game-high 30 points to give the Lady Toppers some breathing room, and the Lady Bears would get no closer than seven the rest of the way. Tina Robbins had a career high 22 points to lead MSU.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — Before an NCAA Tournament first-round record crowd of 9,004, Missouri State made 11 of its first 12 shots to build a big lead, then withstood a late Oklahoma State charge to post the win. Using 69.2 percent (18-of-26) shooting in the first half, the Lady Bears jumped to leads of 8-0, 21-5 and 41-17 and took a 47-23 advantage into the locker room at halftime. The Cowgirls, who trailed by as many as 29 points, whittled MSU's lead to 13 at 75-62 with 6:11 remaining but could get no closer. Tonya Baucom poured in a career-high 32 points, Melody Howard added 28 and MSU held OSU's all-Big Eight center Lisa McGill to nine points.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — The Lady Bears used a strong second half and clutch free throw shooting down the stretch to upset Maryland, the Midwest Region's No. 2 seed. After a see-saw first half, the teams were tied 40-all at the break. MSU never trailed after halftime and built leads of six, eight and 11 points, but the Terrapins came back to tie in each instance, the last at 82-82 with 0:51 to play. The Lady Bears regained the lead on Tonya Baucom's putback with 0:32 to go and, after a Maryland miss, Melody Howard sealed the win with two free throws with 0:06 left. Tina Robbins had a career-high 26 points and Howard added 24. MSU forced 28 turnovers to offset Maryland's .681 (32-of-47) shooting, a Missouri State opponent record.

NACOGDOCHES, Texas — Missouri State's bid for a return trip to the Final Four came up short against Louisiana Tech in the Midwest Regional semifinal, as the taller and more physical Lady Techsters scored an impressive win. After falling behind 12-4 to start the game, the Lady Bears battled back to within two at 22-20 with 6:10 left in the period, but Tech went on a 10-4 run to lead 32-24 at the break. The Lady Techsters opened the second half with a 10-1 burst and never looked back in holding MSU to season lows in points, field goals made and shooting percentage.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — The Lady Bears overcame a slow start to down the Northern Illinois Huskies before a crowd of 8,974, the second-largest NCAA first-round crowd ever, behind MSU's 9,004 figure from 1993. After jumping out to a 6-0 lead, the Lady Bears were outscored 12-1 and trailed 12-7 at the midway point of the first period. But MSU used a 21-8 run to lead 28-20 at the halftime break and shot .607 (17-of-28) in the second period to claim the win. Melody Howard paced the Lady Bears with 23 points, while LaTonya Davis and Charitee Longstreth added 18 apiece as MSU won its 15th straight game.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Missouri State fell just short in its bid to upset Virginia, the 10th-ranked team in the nation. The first half was as close as its could be, with Virginia's five-point lead with 14:09 to go marking the biggest advantage either squad could muster in the opening period. MSU got three-point baskets from Melody Howard and Tina Robbins late in the half to lead 31-30 at the break. The Lady Bears were up 38-34 with 16:53 remaining, but a six-minute scoring drought put MSU in an eight-point hole, and the Lady Bears never recovered despite several chances late in the game. Howard scored 23 points and Robbins had 19 to lead Missouri State, which was 9-of-32 (.281) from the field in the second half.

BOULDER, Colo. — LaTanya Davis had 15 points and 13 rebounds and scored the game-winning basket as Missouri State won its NCAA first-round game for the fifth straight season. After trailing by as many as seven points in the first half, MSU battled back to score the last four points of the period for a 22-22 tie at the break. The Lady Bears held a slim lead for most of the second half, and after Utah tied the game on a three-point play with 1:29 left, Davis scored on a short baseline jumper with nine seconds left on the clock. The Lady Bears also got a double-figure scoring night from Lisa Davies, who tallied 13 points on 6-of-7 shooting from the field.

BOULDER, Colo. — Colorado's inside game was too much for Missouri State to handle as the Buffaloes, the Midwest Regional's top seed and the nation's second-ranked team, put together a dominating performance. After Lisa Davies put MSU up 2-0, Colorado used runs of 9-2, 11-0 and 15-2 to put the game out of reach by halftime, when the Buffs led 37-11. MSU's 37 points, .204 (11-of-54) field goal shooting and 11 field goals were all Lady Bear lows under coach Cheryl Burnett.

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Missouri State closed the season with a disappointing loss to Texas in the NCAA Tournament. Texas shot just 41 percent from the field and 52 percent from the free throw line, but hit 9-of-15 (.600) three-pointers, including 7-of-8 by guard Danielle Viglione. The Lady Bears withstood an 18-0 Texas run in the first half to trail by just eight at the break. But UT went on a 16-point second-half run, as the Lady Bears went nine minutes without scoring. Roshonda Reed posted a double-double for MSU, while Jessie McVay tallied a team-high 20 points to go along with eight boards.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Colorado State raced to a 45-28 halftime advantage and never looked back to knock Missouri State out of the NCAA Tournament in the second round. CSU connected on 38-of-48 free throws in the game and was led by Becky Hammon, who had a game-high 30 points. Jackie Stiles poured home a team-high 28 points for MSU to break her own school single-season scoring record. Senior Roshonda Reed pulled down six rebounds against the Rams, pushing her MSU single-season record total to 320. MSU hit on just 1-of-13 attempts from three-point range and matched a school record by committing 36 personal fouls.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. — Missouri State gave the 16th-ranked Auburn Tigers all they could handle in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament before falling 78-74. MSU led for most of the first half before succumbing to Auburn's superior size and strength late in the contest. The Tigers cashed in at the foul line, knocking down 26-of-27 (.963) free throws. Lori Nero was a perfect 11-of-11 from the charity stripe to lead Auburn with 23 points. Jackie Stiles led all scorers with 30 points, and Carly Deer tallied 18 points on 7-of-14 shooting to go along with nine rebounds and seven assists.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. — Senior Tara Mitchem exploded for a career game as the fifth-seeded Lady Bears knocked off 12th-seeded Toledo Rockets in the first round of the NCAA West Regional. Mitchem was 13-of-20 from the field and drained all 12 of her free throw attempts. Her 40-point performance was the fifth-best in NCAA Tournament history and tied for the third-best in West Regional play. The Lady Bears' victory gave MSU head coach Cheryl Burnett her 300th career coaching win.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. — Jackie Stiles returned to form as Missouri State upended fourth-seeded Rutgers, 60-53, in the second round of the NCAA West Regional. Stiles led the way for MSU, scoring 32 points and connecting on 16-of-19 free throw attempts. MSU outscored the Scarlet Knights from the foul line 21-4, and enjoyed a 38-24 advantage on the boards. The win sent the Lady Bears to their first Sweet Sixteen appearance since 1993. MSU, playing in the NCAAs for the 10th time in the past 11 seasons, scored a third upset win of a higher-seeded team on its home floor in the NCAA second round.

SPOKANE, Wash. — Missouri State overwhelmed the fifth-ranked Duke Blue Devils, 81-71, in the West Regional semifinal to advance to the Elite Eight for the second time in school history. MSU scored 45 second-half points to rally for the victory after trailing by six points at the break. Jackie Stiles registered the fourth-highest single-game scoring total in NCAA Tournament history with her 41-point effort. Tara Mitchem chipped in 17 points, and Carly Deer grabbed a game-high 11 boards as MSU enjoyed its best shooting night of the tourney, connecting on 28-of-56 (.500) field goal attempts.

SPOKANE, Wash. — Missouri State claimed the West Regional crown and its second Final Four berth in a decade with a resounding 104-87 victory over Washington. Jackie Stiles, the West Regional's MVP, poured home 32 points, while Tara Mitchem enjoyed a perfect shooting night en route to a 23-point effort. Mitchem was 7-of-7 from the floor and 6-of-6 from the free throw line, while the Lady Bears shot 86.7 percent (26-of-30) as a team from the charity stripe. Erika Rante notched her third double-double of the year with a 16-point, 11-rebound performance for the Lady Bears, who sprinted out to a 51-33 halftime lead and cruised to victory.

NCAA Final Four National Semifinal
March 30, 2001 ▸ St. Louis, Mo.

ST. LOUIS — After traversing the country from east to west, Missouri State found itself just three hours from Springfield at the NCAA Final Four, which featured defending national champion Connecticut, Notre Dame and Purdue, the Lady Bears' opponent in the semifinal game at Scottrade Center. MSU gave the ninth-ranked Boilermakers all they could handle until fatigue and an overpowering rebounding effort by Purdue took its toll. The two teams traded blows early in the contest until Purdue closed the first half with an 18-7 run to take a 47-30 lead into the locker room. The Boilers shot 54 percent from the floor and outrebounded MSU 22-12 in the first stanza while holding Jackie Stiles, the tourney's scoring leader, to just seven points. The Lady Bears closed the gap to 11 points five times in the second half but could get no closer as Purdue finished with a 47-29 advantage on the boards and closed out a 17-point victory to advance to the national championship game for the second time in its history.

NCAA Midwest Regional First Round
March 23, 2003 ▸ Lubbock, Texas
United Spirit Arena

LUBBOCK, Texas — Making their 11th NCAA Tournament appearance, the Lady Bears kept the heat on the second-seeded Texas Tech Red Raiders until late in the contest, but ultimately fell by a 67-59 score. MSU slowed down an explosive Texas Tech offense in the first half, using its 2-3 matchup zone to fluster the Red Raiders into shooting 0-for-8 from beyond the arc. The Lady Bears fought back from a double-digit deficit in the second stanza, but could not find the answer for Tech's Plenette Pierson, who finished with game-highs of of 25 points and 13 rebounds. Kari Koch totaled 19 points and seven steals, while Jenni Lingor added 16 points to pace the Lady Bears' attack.

NCAA Cleveland Regional First Round
March 19, 2006 ▸ West Lafayette, Ind.

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Despite a valiant first-half effort that included a 10-point lead, the Lady Bears came up on the short end of a 73-52 loss to 11th-ranked Purdue in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Kari Koch's steal and layup at the 9:19 mark of the first half gave MSU a 22-12 lead, but Purdue responded with a 14-3 run to close the half with a 32-27 advantage. The Lady Bears struggled to generate any offense in the second half, shooting just 28.6 percent from the floor. Purdue had four players finish in double figures, including Aya Traore, who turned in a game-high 20 points and 11 boards.

NCAA Chicago Region Second Round
March 25, 2019 ▸ Ames, Iowa
Hilton Coliseum

AMES, Iowa — Missouri State pulled the biggest upset of the 2019 NCAA Tournament with a 69-60 victory at third-seeded Iowa State, advancing to the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in school history with a school-record 10th consecutive road victory. The win also marked the Lady Bears' 16th straight away from home, and 24th win in the last 26 games. MSU's 30-23 second-quarter lead shrunk to one point shortly after halftime, and the Lady Bears responded with a 10-0 run to lead 43-32. ISU countered with a 9-0 run but never retook the lead, with Sydney Manning's 3-pointer with 3:37 left providing a 60-54 margin late. The Lady Bears led by multiple possessions to the finish, holding the high-scoring Cyclones to nearly 20 points below their season average and 2-for-17 from beyond the arc.

CHICAGO — Missouri State's magical season came to an end with a 55-46 Sweet 16 loss to second-seeded Stanford in a defensive struggle. The Lady Bears held the Cardinal to 25 percent shooting and 3-for-29 from 3-point range, but shot just 25 percent themselves in their first loss away from Springfield in 111 days. MSU never led and scored season-low 19 first-half points, but remained within one possession as late as a 38-35 score with 11 minutes remaining. Stanford pushed its lead to 13 points in the fourth quarter, and the Lady Bears clawed back to a 49-44 deficit with 2:09 remaining but could not break through. Danielle Gitzen scored a game-high 14 points in her final game, and Jasmine Franklin collected a double-double with 11 points and 10 boards.

BATON ROUGE, La. — Missouri State hit the 25-win mark on the season and advanced to the NCAA First Round with a 61-50 First Four round victory over Florida State. The Lady Bears jumped out to a fast start in Baton Rouge, leading 14-1 in the first quarter, but Florida State eventually gained momentum as they scored the first 15 points of the second quarter. MSU's Mya Bhinhar hit a three-pointer with :16 remaining to tie the game at 29 points each heading into the half. Missouri State used a 6-0 run courtesy of Ifunanya Nwachukwu at the end of the third quarter to lead by 11 with just 10 minutes remaining. The Lady Bears survived one final push from Florida State to advance in the NCAA Tournament. Bhinhar led MSU with 12 points, while three other Lady Bears joined her with double figure scoring performances.

Missouri State 56

NCAA Spokane Region First Round
March 19, 2022 ▸ Baton Rouge, La.
Maravich Assembly Center

BATON ROUGE, La. — Missouri State women's basketball concluded their season with a 25-8 record following a 63-56 loss to No. 14 Ohio State in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament. Missouri State once again jumped out to an early lead in Baton Rouge, leading by nine after the first quarter. However, the Buckeyes found success from behind the arc in the second quarter to lead by five at the half. Both teams continued to swap leads with OSU going up by one point with :02 on the clock in the third period. The Lady Bears immediately answered with a four-point run to begin the final quarter, but Ohio State was able to retake the lead and force MSU to foul in the final minutes to end the Lady Bears' season. Brice Calip, the winningest Lady Bear of all-time, led MSU with 15 points and became the second Lady Bear in program history to record at least 1,700 points, 500 assists and 700 rebounds in a career. Abi Jackson broke the program's single-game NCAA record with four blocked shots, while Ifunanya Nwachukwu grabbed the second-most rebounds in an NCAA Touranment game in program history with 17 boards.

Number Retired: February 2, 2002
Career Points (Avg.): 3,393 (26.3 ppg.)
Highlights: NCAA Division I all-time leading scorer, 2001 AP Player of the Year, 2001 Wade Trophy recipient, 2001 Honda Awards Program Broderick Cup recipient, three-time All-American, two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American. three-time MVC Player of the Year, four-time All-MVC pick, USA Basketball World University Games and Select Team member, MSU Hall of Fame inductee, Missouri Sports Hall of Fame inductee, MVC Hall of Fame inductee, MVC All-Centennial Team selection, Springfield Area Sports Hall of Fame inductee, 2001 WNBA Rookie of the Year, 2016 Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee.

The NCAA's all-time leading scorer from 2001-2017, Jackie Stiles (#10) is the most decorated athlete in the history of Missouri State athletics. As a senior, Stiles was named to the 2001 Kodak All-America First Team, the Associated Press All-America First Team and was named Women's Basketball News Service Player of the Year. Stiles, who ended her collegiate career with 3,393 points, was also named the Honda Awards program Player of the Year and was the recipient of the coveted Honda Awards Broderick Cup, as well as the Wade Trophy as a senior. A four-time Missouri Valley Conference first team selection, Stiles earned MVC Player of the Year honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. Stiles, who broke the women's NCAA all-time scoring record while helping lead Missouri State to the 2001 NCAA Final Four, became the first Missouri State player ever to be drafted by a WNBA franchise. The Portland Fire's first-round (No. 4) draft pick, Stiles received 32 out of 60 possible votes from sportswriters and sportscasters in being named the league's Rookie of the Year in 2001.

Highlights: Two-time All-American, two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, three-time all-conference pick, 1994 MVC Player of the Year, USA Basketball World University Games selection, MVC All-Centennial Team honoree, MSU Hall of Fame inductee, MVC Hall of Fame inductee, Missouri Sports Hall of Fame inductee, Springfield Area Sports Hall of Fame inductee

One of the top three-point shooters in Missouri State and Missouri Valley Conference history, Melody Howard (#35) was a first team all-conference pick as a sophomore in 1991-92 and an All-MVC first teamer her last two years at Missouri State, collecting league MVP honors as a senior in 1993-94. The Marshfield, Mo., native led the Lady Bears to a 104-23 record over her four-year career, including the school's first Final Four appearance in 1992. Howard was a two-time WBCA All-America honorable mention and three-time CoSIDA Academic All-America choice. She connected on 258 treys during her MSU career--good for ninth all-time in the Valley--and ranks fourth in career points scored at MSU with 1,944. Howard was selected by the Colorado Xplosion in the 1996 American Basketball League draft, becoming the first Missouri State female athlete to be drafted by a professional organization.

Years at Missouri State: 1982-86
Number Retired: March 6, 1986
Career Points (Avg.): 1,769 (16.1 ppg.)
Highlights: Two-time All-American, three-time all-conference pick, MSU Hall of Fame inductee, Springfield Area Sports Hall of Fame inductee, MVC All-Centennial Team selection

Springfield native Jeanette Tendai (#42) was the first female Missouri State athlete to have her jersey retired in any sport. The Glendale High product played at MSU from 1982-86 and was the Lady Bears' first All-Gateway Conference pick as a sophomore in 1983-84, when she shattered the then-school record for scoring in a single season en route to earning honorable mention All-America honors. Her 21.3 ppg. average remains the fourth-best season scoring mark in MSU history, and the highest for any Lady Bear not named Jackie Stiles. Tendai was a three-time all-conference selection, earning first-team honors in 1983-84 and 1984-85, before picking up second-team recognition in 1985-86. She closed her career as Missouri State's all-time scoring leader and currently ranks seventh on the career leaderboard with 1,769 points.

Elsberry, Mo. (Elsberry High)

Years at Missouri State: 2002-06
Number Retired: January 21, 2024
Career Points (Avg.): 2,073 (17.0 ppg.)
Highlights: All-American, four-time all-conference first team selection, 2003 MVC Freshman of the Year, 2004 MVC Player of the Year, Two-time MVC Tournament MVP, Three-time MVC All-Defensive Team pick, three-time MVC Scholar-Athlete Team honoree, MVC All-Centennial Team selection

An impactful player from the moment she stepped on campus, Kari Koch (#22) earned first-team all-conference honors in all four years of her career, becoming one of just three Lady Bears in program history to do so. She was named the Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year in 2023 and became the first freshman in league history to be selected as MVP of the conference tournament. Koch followed up her impressive freshman campaign by winning MVC Player of the Year and earning All-America status with an honorable mention selection in 2004. The Elsberry, Mo., native also earned league all-defensive team honors three times in her career and was named to the MVC All-Centennial Team in 2007. Koch helped lead the Lady Bears to three NCAA Tournament appearances and a WNIT championship in 2005 to go along with three conference tournament titles and two regular season crowns. She left Missouri State as the program's second-leading scorer, and she is still the program's all-time leader in three-point field goals, while ranking second in career assists and steals.

Head Coach

Number Retired: February 3, 2013
Highlights: Missouri State's all-time winningest women's basketball coach, Cheryl Burnett guided the Lady Bears to a 319-136 (.711) record in 15 seasons. From 1987-2002, Burnett's teams played in 10 NCAA Tournaments and two Final Fours while winning nine MVC regular-season and six conference tournament championships. Missouri State ranked in the top 10 of Division I attendance in each of her final 11 seasons and led the country during the 1992-93 campaign. Burnett was recognized as the MVC's all-time greatest coach during the league's centennial celebration in 2006-07, and mentored eight All-Americans, six Academic All-Americans, five league MVPs and 26 first-team all-MVC selections during her tenure.

In 2006-07, the Missouri Valley Conference celebrated a century of excellence as the nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference. As a part of the Centennial Celebration, The Valley named all-centennial teams for each of its sponsored sports, including women's basketball. A total of nine former Lady Bears were honored on the MVC Women's Basketball All-Centennial Team, while Jackie Stiles was named the league's all-time greatest player, and former Missouri State head coach Cheryl Burnett was recognized as the MVC's all-time greatest coach. The league celebrated 25 years of sponsoring women's sports during the 2017-18 school year, with three Lady Bears included among the 10 best players in conference women's basketball history.
