THE Coaches

Kasey Griffith

Head Coach • 1st Season
Alma Mater: SIUE (2011)

Kasey Griffith was named the seventh head coach of Missouri State softball on June 5, 2024.

Griffith joined the Missouri State softball staff in July 2022 and was promoted to associate head coach in July 2023. She serves as the third base coach while working closely with the Bears' hitters and infielders. She also oversees the student-athletes' academic progress and is responsible for all equipment and uniform needs among other duties.

Griffith arrived in Springfield after spending the previous 10 years at Drake University. She started out as a volunteer assistant for the Bulldogs in 2013, before being promoted to assistant coach beginning with the 2015 season.

She worked with the Bulldogs' hitters and infielders, and assisted with team travel and game day logistics, directed fundraising efforts and alumni relations and events, and partnered with support staff to ensure team success and cohesion among other duties.

Prior to her coaching career, the former Kasey Schlafke, played softball at SIUE. She spent three years playing shortstop before moving to third base in her final season. When she graduated, she ranked fifth all-time in career home runs at SIUE with 18, and she started 182 games in four seasons for the Cougars (2008-11).

An excellent student, Griffith was named to the Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll twice and to the Great Lakes Valley Conference All-Academic team once. She graduated from SIUE with a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science in 2011.

Griffith was a multi-sport athlete in basketball, softball, track and field and volleyball at Dallas Center Grimes High School (Iowa), where she earned all-conference, all-district and all-state honors in softball. Her head coach for softball was her dad, Steve Schlafke, a longtime and highly-successful high school head coach who has won more than 1,300 games and three state titles leading DCG.

Griffith and her husband, Calvin, have two sons, Beckett and Maddox, and one daughter, Nolan.

Shelby Hiers

Assistant Coach
Second Season
Alma Mater: Arkansas (2017)

Shelby Hiers joined the Missouri State softball staff in August 2023. She is in charge of working with MSU's catchers and serves as the team's recruiting coordinator. She also assists with the Bears' hitters and offensive strategy.

Hiers arrived in Springfield after spending the previous two seasons at Louisiana Tech, where her primary responsibilities included assisting with the Bulldogs' catchers, defensive game planning and hitting, as well as video analysis, recruiting and camp coordination.

Prior to her time in Ruston, she spent two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach at the University of Georgia, where she was a part of the coaching staff that helped lead the Bulldogs to the 2021 Women's College World Series. At Georgia, Hiers worked with the catchers while assisting with hitting and serving as the first base coach.

She was also a volunteer assistant coach at the University of Virginia for a brief stint.

Hiers played four seasons at the University of Arkansas from 2014-2017, where she made 151 starts for the Razorbacks. Offensively, she owned a career .242 batting average with 17 home runs, 91 walks and 58 RBI. Defensively, Hiers recorded a .971 career fielding percentage and threw out 24 baserunners across her four years, including 15 in her senior season.

Following her playing career at Arkansas, Hiers remained in Fayetteville to serve as a graduate assistant where she assisted with bullpen sessions and worked with the pitching staff among other duties. The Razorbacks went on to make their first-ever NCAA Super Regional appearance in 2018. She received her bachelor's degree in Kinesiology in May 2017 and earned her master's degree in Recreation and Sports Management in May 2019.

Hailing from Quitman, Ga., Hiers also played professionally for a short time. First, playing for the Akron Racers of the National Pro Fastpitch league in the summer of 2017, before earning a spot on the American Softball Association all-star team the next summer.

Jess Weber

Assistant Coach
Fourth Season
Alma Mater: Northern State University (2017)

Jess Weber was promoted to assistant coach in July 2023 after spending the previous two seasons as the volunteer assistant on the Missouri State softball staff.

Weber has been assigned to work with the MSU outfielders while also assisting with hitting development and offensive strategies. She is also in charge of making travel arrangements, scouting opponents and coordinating the preparation and maintenance of Killian Stadium among other duties.

She joined the Bears softball program in 2022 after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant at Upper Iowa University in Fayette, Iowa. While at Upper Iowa, Weber (formerly Vernon) worked with the hitters, catchers and outfielders, while also assisting with travel planning, recruiting and scouting.

Prior to her time at Upper Iowa, she served as a graduate assistant at Southwest Minnesota State in Marshall, Minn. While coaching in the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference, Weber had one first-team all-conference player, one second-team all-conference player and two all-tournament team players as she primarily mentored hitters and outfielders. She graduated from SMSU with a master's degree in special education in 2019.

She played softball collegiately at Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota from 2013-2017. While at NSU, Weber received a bachelor's degree in special education and a minor in coaching.

Brittany Gray-Cardenas

Assistant Coach
First Season
Alma Mater: Georgia (2019)

Brittany Gray-Cardenas joined the Missouri State softball staff in August 2024. She is in charge of working with the Bears' pitching staff.

Gray-Cardenas arrived in Springfield after spending the previous three seasons as the pitching coach at Indiana State University. While in Terre Haute, she was also in charge of fundraising efforts, coordinating team travel and overseeing both the recruiting process and the academic success of student-athletes.

Prior to her time at ISU, Gray-Cardenas was a graduate assistant at the University of Missouri for two seasons where she assisted with film, scouting and academic supervision. She graduated from Mizzou with a master's degree in Education in 2021.

Gray-Cardenas played at the University of Georgia, where she was an All-American pitcher for the Bulldogs. She compiled a 60-27 record in 126 appearances and owned a 2.06 career earned run average over 518.2 innings pitched at UGA. As a senior in 2018, Gray-Cardenas led the country with a 0.48 ERA while posting a 16-1 record before an injury ended her season early. She would go on to earn First-Team All-SEC, First-Team All-Region and Second-Team All-America honors to cap her senior campaign.

She helped lead the Bulldogs to the NCAA Tournament all four years of her career, including two trips to the Women's College World Series in 2016 and 2018. Following her playing career, Gray-Cardenas served as a student assistant coach at UGA for a short stint before graduating with a bachelor's degree in Communication Studies and a certificate in American Sign Language in 2019.

A native of Greenwood, Ind., Gray played four years of softball at Greenwood High School where she was a four-time all-conference honoree, a two-time Johnson County Player of the Year and a two-time Gatorade Player of the Year nominee.

She married her husband, Corbin, in July 2023.

MISSOURI STATE

2024 review

2024 Season Highlights

• Hesse Retires After 36 Seasons

The 2024 season was the final season of long-time head coach Holly Hesse's career. Hesse retired with a record of 922-889-2, all at the helm of the Bears program. At the time of her retirement, she ranked 47th in NCAA Division I history in career victories and second in the MVC in both overall and conference (413) victories. She also ended her career with the most MVC Tournament victories (55). Under Hesse's leadership, the Bears averaged 25.6 wins per season, tallied 11 different 30-win seasons and won two regular-season MVC titles, six MVC tournament crowns and made six NCAA Tournament appearances.

• Mueller Mashes - Breaks Single-Season HR & RBI Records

Annie Mueller had a career year offensively in her final season as a Bear. She was MSU's top power hitter and run producer in 2024, leading the Bears with 19 home runs, 51 RBI, 25 extra-base hits and a .723 slugging percentage.

In a win over Valparaiso on April 20, Mueller tied the MoState single-game record with 8 RBI after going 3-for-3 with an RBI single, grand slam and three-run homer.

In the series at Evansville (April 26-28), Mueller broke the single-season home run record of 14, previously set by teammate McKenzie Vaughan in 2023, and she broke the single-season RBI record of 46, which was previously held by Heather Anderson (1996) and Bethany Sullinger (2014).

• Krehbiel Cements Legacy

Fifth-year senior and third baseman Olivia Krehbiel cemented her legacy as one of the best hitters in Missouri State softball history. In her final season as a Bear, she broke the MSU career records for home runs (31), RBI (135), doubles (46), runs scored (129), total bases (341), slugging percentage (.582) and grand slams (4).

Over the course of her career, Krehbiel started 207 of her 208 games played and owned a .317 batting average. She was a two-time all-MVC first-team selection and earned all-conference honors a total of four times. She collected three MVC Player of the Week honors, was a two-time member of the MVC All-Tournament Team and earned two NFCA All-Region nods to highlight her accolades over five seasons.

• Krehbiel Earns National Player of the Week

Olivia Krehbiel was voted the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Division I Player of the Week on April 23 following an incredible weekly performance against Kansas and Valparaiso. Krehbiel became just the second Bear to earn the honor, joining Mary Stephens who earned the weekly award in 2017.

Krehbiel slashed .636/.692/1.364, which included seven RBI, six runs scored, two doubles, two home runs and two walks. With her first of two home runs against Valparaiso, Krehbiel made history as she became Missouri State's career home run leader, surpassing Jessie Smith's previous record of 27 set from 2006-09.

• Stellar Freshman Campaign

Kayla Ulrich made an immediate impact for the Bears in her freshman campaign. The Sullivan, Mo., native led Missouri State with a .361 batting average, which was also tops in the Missouri Valley Conference. Against MVC opponents, her average rose to .408. She also recorded an on-base percentage of .477 which paced the Bears and ranked 4th in The Valley. Ulrich was named to the All-MVC First Team as a first baseman.

She was also named MVC Newcomer of the Week once during the season after slashing .538/.923/.571 during a four-game stretch against No. 8 Oklahoma State and Murray State.

• Johnston Ties Single-Season Saves Record

Fifth-year senior Gracie Johnston ranked eighth nationally and first in the Missouri Valley Conference with seven saves in 2024. Her seven saves tied the MoState single-season record, joining Melissa Porche (2006) at the top of the list.

The Augusta, Kan., native paced the Bears in the circle in 2024 with 42 appearances, 27 starts, 157.1 innings pitched, 71 strikeouts and a 3.96 ERA. She accounted for 48% of Missouri State's innings pitched in 2024.

• MVC Tournament Run

Missouri State entered the MVC Tournament as the No. 6 seed after posting a 13-14 record in conference action. The Bears opened the tournament with a 4-2 victory over No. 11 seed Indiana State, before pulling off the upset against third-seeded Belmont, 7-4, in the quarterfinals. Krehbiel led the way against Belmont as she drove in five runs and went 2-for-4.

The Bears' run came to an end with a 2-1 loss to No. 2 Northern Iowa in the semifinals. All three runs in the matchup came courtesy of solo homers, but despite MSU not allowing a Panther past first base after the second inning, the comeback effort fell short and the season came to an end with an overall record of 19-32. Krehbiel and Johnston represented Missouri State on the MVC All-Tournament Team.

• NFCA All-Region

Missouri State's Annie Mueller earned a spot on the NFCA Midwest All-Region Third Team as an outfielder in 2024. She was one of four players to represent the MVC on the Midwest All-Region teams.

The honor marked the first all-region nod of Mueller's career following her breakout senior season. Mueller finished the 2024 season with a .291 average, 19 home runs, 51 RBI, a .723 slugging percentage, 26 runs scored and 25 extra-base hits. She broke the Missouri State single-season records for RBI, home runs and total bases. In the final NCAA rankings of 2024, Mueller 10th in HR/game, 15th in home runs, 41st in RBI/game, 59th in RBI and 62nd in slugging percentage.

• All-Missouri Valley Conference

Missouri State had five players earn postseason All-MVC honors: Olivia Krehbiel, Annie Mueller, Kayla Ulrich, Chloe Merced and Kelsie Lewis.

Krehbiel, Mueller and Ulrich all earned a spot on the All-MVC First Team. Krehbiel became a four-time all-conference performer, and appeared on the first team twice in her career, while Mueller and Ulrich received all-MVC nods for the first time in their careers.

Merced was also a first-time honoree as she earned a spot on the second team at the DP/UTL position. The Springfield, Mo., native was MSU's second-best hitter in conference action with a .386 average. She also had 17 hits, five RBI, 14 runs scored, four walks and three stolen bases in just 13 starts and 23 appearances in league play.

For the second year in a row, second baseman Kelsie Lewis represented MoState on the MVC All-Defensive Team. She constantly flashed the leather and was a defensive staple in the Bears' lineup as she owned a .972 fielding percentage in league action, committing just three errors in 106 total chances.

• Fifteen on MVC Honor Roll

A total of 15 Missouri State softball players were named to the annual MVC Honor Roll for the 2023-24 academic year, the league announced after the 2024 season. Joining the MVC Honor Roll from MSU were: Taylor Akers, Mackenzie Chacon, Kenzie Derryberry, Emily Gerardy, Shelby Houchlei, Sofia King, Olivia Krehbiel, Kelsie Lewis, Sidney McLaughlin, Chloe Merced, Annie Mueller, Alexis Perales, Makenzi Swick, Kayla Ulrich and McKenzie Vaughan.

Seven Softball Bears also received the Commissioner's Academic Excellence Award (Chacon, Krehbiel, Lewis, McLaughlin, Merced, Swick and Vaughan)

• On the Field & In the Classroom

Missouri State also had five student-athletes named to the College Sports Communicators Academic All-District Team in Chacon, Johnston, Krehbiel, Lewis and Merced.

The Bears also placed six student-athletes across three MVC scholar-athlete teams. Krehbiel was a first-team selection, while Chacon, Derryberry and McLaughlin earned spots on the second team.

Johnston and Merced earned honorable mention recognition.

All-American Barb Gaines

Infielder Barb Gaines (right) became the first Missouri State softball All-America pick as a senior in 1993. She was named to the National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-America Third Team after authoring one of the most outstanding careers in the program's history.

A native of St. Louis, Gaines enjoyed a brilliant senior season, ranking among the national top-10 in batting average for most of the season and finishing with a then-school record .442 mark. Gaines ranked first in the Missouri Valley Conference in hits (68) and second in stolen bases (22).

The first player in Gateway/MVC history to win all-league honors four straight years, Gaines closed her career with five Missouri State single-season records and eight career marks. She still holds the career records for hits (252), total chances (1,287), and batting average (.403), is second in stolen bases (58), and at bats (626), third in putouts (1,013) and fourth in runs (113).

Gaines received the Missouri State Outstanding Female Athlete award in 1992 and 1993 and was inducted into the Missouri State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000. On April 20, 2013, she became the first player to have her jersey retired by the Missouri State softball program.
