LEADING OFF

Missouri State (19-15, 10-2 Missouri Valley Conference) heads to Columbia on Tuesday at 6 p.m. for the first round of this year's home-and-home with rival Missouri (12-23, 0-15 SEC). Round two takes place in Springfield on April 22 at 6:30 p.m.

The Bears are averaging 12.0 runs in their last 15 games overall and are in the midst of a stretch of seven consecutive Tuesdays against Power Four competition. MSU is 2-1 so far with wins over No. 2 Arkansas and Oklahoma State and a loss at Kansas State.

MoState visits UIC April 18-20 for a three-game series before returning home for five in a row to close out April, with Evansville (April 25-27) and No. 2 Arkansas (April 29) coming to town.

SERIES HISTORIES

MoState is 31-34 all-time against Missouri with a 15-19 record in Columbia. The Tigers have won the last three meetings at Taylor Stadium and nine of the last 11 overall.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

D1Baseball's preseason Missouri Valley Conference poll has the Bears pegged as the favorite to win the league in 2025. Sophomore Caden Bogenpohl is the outlet's preseason player of the year, and Michael Yusypchuk is tabbed as the MVC's top freshman.

The MVC coaches poll, released on March 17, also tabs the Bears to win the league, with MoState receiving five first-place votes and edging Southern Illinois and Murray State for the top spot. Bogenpohl and Nick Rodriguez earned preseason all-conference honors from the league's managers.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

The Sports Field Management Association named Hammons Field the 2024 Professional Baseball Field of the Year. The SFMA Field of the Year honor is awarded to the best natural grass field among all 120 teams across all levels of affiliated Minor League Baseball.

NON-CON SUCCESS

MSU has been solid against non-conference competition over the last decade, compiling a 165-130 (.559) record in regular-season games versus non-league foes since the start of the 2015 season. The Bears have won 77 of their last 114 regular-season non-conference home games.

BEARS IN THE PRO RANKS

Missouri State has had 21 players selected in the first 12 rounds of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft since 2010. In 2025, Drake Baldwin became the 24th Bear to play in the majors when he got the Opening Day start at catcher for Atlanta.

Jake Burger (Rangers) and Pierce Johnson (Braves) also began the 2025 season on Big League rosters.

Overall, the Bears have produced 159 players who have gone on to sign professional contracts over 61 years as a varsity program.

NEW MAN IN CHARGE

For the first time since 1983, the Bears have a new coach. Joey Hawkins, who played for the Bears from 2012-15 and served as assistant coach from 2022-24, is just the third head coach in program history. Bill Rowe managed the Bears from 1964-82 before becoming the school's athletic director. Keith Guttin, who played for MSU under Rowe, succeeded him in 1983 before retiring after the 2024 campaign. In their respective first seasons, Rowe went 6-12 overall in 1964, while Guttin's 1983 club went 32-11 and led the nation with a .367 batting average.

PROS ON STAFF

Head coach Joey Hawkins and all three MoState assistants have played or coached professional baseball, or both.

Hawkins reached as high as Double-A in the St. Louis Cardinals organization as a player and coached there from 2019-21, serving as hitting coach for High-A Peoria prior to coming to Missouri State as an assistant in the summer of 2021.

HEAD COACH JOEY HAWKINS

Head Coach
Missouri State (2015)

19-15
First year at MSU and overall

Joey Hawkins was named Missouri State's third head baseball coach on June 4, 2024. Hawkins played shortstop for the Bears from 2012-15 and was a team captain his final two seasons, returned to his alma mater as hitting coach and recruiting coordinator in June 2021 and was promoted to associate head coach one year later.

Hawkins, who turned 32 in March, is the fourth-youngest Division I head coach behind only VCU's Sean Thompson, Manhattan's Steven Rosen and Youngstown State's Trevor Charpie.

Since Hawkins took over as hitting coach before the 2022 season, the Bears rank 10th nationally with 378 home runs, including three of the top seven single season totals in program history and the Nos. 4 and 6 seasons in Missouri Valley Conference history. The Bears have led the Valley in home runs in all three of his seasons on staff while pacing the conference in slugging percentage twice.

Hawkins has mentored eight players to a total of 10 all-MVC selections, with Spencer Nivens earning Joe Carter MVC Player of the Year honors in 2023 and Zack Stewart picking up the league's Freshman of the Year award that same season. Both earned Freshman All-America honors during their rookie years as well. In 2024, Caden Bogenpohl set MSU freshman records with 20 home runs and 53 walks on the way to a Freshman All-America citation of his own. Four hitters - Drake Baldwin, Dylan Leach, Dakota Kotowski and Nivens - have signed professional contracts, with both Baldwin and Nivens going in the top five rounds of the MLB draft and Baldwin making his big league debut with Atlanta on opening day of 2025.

A fan favorite during his time as a Missouri State player, Hawkins spent four seasons with the Bears from 2012-15 and was the MVC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. He owns the top two single seasons in school history for sacrifice bunts and assists, holds MSU's career sacrifice record with 62, and led the NCAA in that category during the Bears' historic 2015 campaign that saw the team earn the No. 8 national seed and win the Springfield Regional on the way to a school-record 49 victories. He started the final 157 games of his MSU career at shortstop.

After college, Hawkins was drafted by St. Louis in the 40th round and spent two years playing professionally, advancing to the Double-A Springfield Cardinals in 2016. He was also drafted out of high school from Whitby, Ontario.

Hawkins began his collegiate coaching career in 2017 as the recruiting coordinator and hitting coach at Jefferson College in Hillsboro, Mo., and joined the Division I ranks at Saint Louis University later that year in the same capacity.

During the 2018 season at SLU, Hawkins was an instrumental part of the Billikens club that swept the Atlantic 10 regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. SLU led the A-10 in scoring, batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, RBI and doubles, while the defense posted a .974 fielding percentage.

Hawkins returned to professional baseball in the St. Louis Cardinals organization in 2019, beginning as a hitting coach in the Gulf Coast League, worked as a hitting coordinator at the Cardinals' alternate site facility in 2020 with some of the organization's top prospects, and served as hitting coach for the High-A Peoria Chiefs to start the 2021 season.

Hawkins is married to former MSU softball player and three-time all-MVC selection Ashley Brentz, and the couple has two children, daughter Kinsley and son Cooper. He graduated from Missouri State with a sports management degree in December 2015.
