ABOUT LAST GAME: The Monmouth College football team won their 24th straight Turkey Bowl and finished an 8-1 Midwest Conference slate on Saturday with a 42-7 win over Knox College. The Scots and IC finish with identical 8-1 MWC records but IC will represent the conference in the NCAA Playoffs by virtue of the head-to-head tiebreaker. As the second-place MWC team, Monmouth received the bid to the Cousins Subs Lakefront Bowl to play old MWC rival St. Norbert. The Green Knights earned the bowl invitation by finishing in a tie for second place in the Northern Athletics Collegiate Conference, which was won by Aurora University.

AWARD WINNERS: The Monmouth College football team put 11 players on the Midwest Conference First Team and five more on the Second Team as announced by the MWC on Tuesday. Senior center Derek Brown (Pekin, Illinois) was named Offensive Line MVP for the second straight season and sophomore Anthony Cikauskas (Oswego, Illinois) was named Defensive Line MVP.

ALL CONFERENCE SELECTIONS: The Monmouth offense had 11 MWC first-team selections with quarterback Carter Boyer (Carthage, Illinois) and wide receiver Nate Thornton (Peoria, Illinois) joining Brown as repeat selections. Wide receiver Jackson Bergren (Monmouth, Illinois) along with linemen James Conner (Kewanee, Illinois) and Colby McMillan (Spring Hill, Florida) also made the first team. On the defensive side of the ball, the Scots had four other first-teamers to join Cikauskas. Nick Harris (Winter Haven, Florida) repeats as a first-team choice while Tevin Baker (Kewanee, Illinois) and Michael Lord (Laharpe, Illinois) move up from second-team selections a year ago. Jermai Glenn-Louis Charles (Bloomington) was selected for the first time.

SECOND TEAM SELECTIONS: In addition to the 11 first-team selections, the Scots also put five players on the MWC Second Team, three on offense and two on defense. Junior running back McKade Brooks (Astoria, Illinois), senior tight end Dylan Bone (Jacksonville, Illinois), freshman left guard Tyrek Tripp (Florida), senior linebacker Caleb Endicott (Saint Cloud, Florida) and senior linebacker Tanner Tomaschke (Greenville, Illinois) were also second team selections.

MONMOUTH MOMENTS: The all-time series is led by Monmouth, 74-50-10 with 24 straight wins... Knox has scored seven points or less in five straight games and 10 points or less in 10 straight games... Monmouth has topped 40 points in six of the last eight and scored at least 31 points in 20 straight Turkey Bowl wins... The Scots are 57-3 under Braun when allowing 20 points or less... Monmouth held Knox to 2-of-13 on 3rd down conversions... With two touchdown passes, Boyer tied Mitch Tanney for fourth most (57) in school history... He also passed Hayden Nelson for fifth most rushing yards (797) by a Monmouth quarterback... Thornton tied Kyle Wantland for fourth on the receptions list with 136 career catches... He also passed Evan Haffner for third on the receiving yards list with 2,430... With 15 sacks on the season, Cikauskas has the second-most in school history, one behind Korbryn Personett's record from 2021... With five career forced fumbles, Cikauskas is tied for second in Monmouth history... He also moved into seventh with 22 career sacks... Baker moved into ninth on the career sacks list with 19... Baker and Cikauskas are both top 10 on the career TFL list as well... Cikauskas has 22 TFL on the season, four shy of Personett's school record from 2021.

CHAD BRAUN

Head Coach • Ninth Year as Monmouth HC
23rd Year Coaching • Ninth Year as Head Coach
 Illinois College '95 • WIU '03

CHAD BRAUN became the 31st head coach in Monmouth football history in 2015 after serving as the defensive coordinator for 15 seasons. Braun didn't wait long to earn a conference title, winning the Midwest Conference crown in just his second season, the same year the Scots claimed their fourth Gagliardi Trophy finalist. His team repeated as MWC champions in 2017, earning their first back-to-back titles since Braun's assistant days in 2008 and 2009. Another league title came the Scots' way in 2019, the same year Braun earned his fifth straight Coach of the Year honor from the Midwest Conference. Monmouth shared a MWC crown in 2022 and won the inaugural Lakefront Bowl after finishing second place in 2021.

Braun continues to direct the defense as head coach, a defense which led the nation in scoring defense in 2016 and 2018. The 2016 squad coupled with the offense which laid claim to the nation's top individual pass efficiency rating to win their fifth league crown with Braun on the coaching staff. The team repeated as league champions in 2017, giving Braun two league titles in three years, making him a multiple league champion faster than any coach in Scots' football history.

Under Braun's direction, the Scots' defensive units have been known as a swarming, hard-hitting group. During his tenure both as head coach and prior as an assistant, the defense has rewritten Monmouth's modern-era record book and been among the nation's leaders in numerous categories, including scoring defense, turnover margin, interceptions, pass defense efficiency and total defense.

Braun's teams have won four conference titles, produced eight All-Americans and he has won five Midwest Conference Coach of the Year awards.

Coach Braun is also the winningest men's tennis coach in Monmouth history. He coached the men's tennis team from 2004-14 and posted a record of 139-112 for a .553 win percentage. Braun coached five MWC singles champions and three doubles champions and was in charge for both 20+ win seasons in school history. The 2006 team won a school-record 22 matches and Braun was named the 2011 Midwest Conference Coach of the Year.
