BANKS TO BE INDUCTED INTO THE MARYLAND STATE HALL OF FAME

The Maryland State Athletic Hall of Fame will be inducting Earl Banks who was a legendary football coach while at Morgan State and served as the Athletic Director from 1960 through 1973. He was also enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992, a year before he was killed in an automobile accident in Baltimore at the age of 69.

This year's Hall of Fame event will be held on November 13, 2014 in Baltimore, Md.

Banks, who completed his career with a .839 win-loss percentage, will be honored with the John Steadman Lifetime Achievement Award. The Award recognizes a Maryland citizen whose lifetime career in sports has brought honor and distinction to Maryland and its citizenry.

Banks, who led Morgan State to a 95-30-2 record in 14 seasons from 1960-73, was MEAC's first superstar coach. Banks' teams never had a losing season, and he oversaw the Bears' into the MEAC from the CIAA, where they won five conference titles, made four bowl appearances, had three unbeaten seasons and fashioned a 30-game winning streak from 1965-1968. He was named CIAA Coach of the Year - 1962, 1965, and 1966.

As an assistant coach and head coach he sent forty-one of his players to the pros, including Willie Lanier, Leroy Kelly, John Fuqua, Raymond Chester, Roger Brown and Sherman Plunkett.

As the coach at Morgan State, he said, "The players are going to be scholars first. They come for an education, and 90 percent get degrees - not just physical education but in pre-medicine, pre-law and business. Two days a week I talk life, not football. College football is great for today's life. The world is looking for leadership and discipline. Football offers that experience."

Banks played football for Wendell Phillips High School, Chicago, and was all-state in 1943. He was a stocky, 5-8, 210 pound all-star guard for Iowa, 1946-49, and played one year professionally with the New York Yankees of the NFL in 1950.

The following is the list of the Morgan State senior football players play in their last regular season game as collegiate student-athletes last Saturday at Hughes Stadium against Delaware State. LEAD COUNCIL

Senior QB Robert Council earned the starting nod from Hull in Week 1 and delivered a strong performance.

- The 6-foot-4, 215-pound Camden (SC) product completed 18-of-28 passes for 285 yards (2 yds shy of matching career-high) and threw a career-best three touchdowns. It marked the most passing yards in a season-opener by the Bears in the last eight seasons.

- He had an efficient game during Week 6 at Florida A&M, he threw for 121 (7-of-11) and ran for a pair of TDs.
- He accounted for a pair of TDs, including a 15-yd TD pass to Andrew King in the final seconds to help beat N.C. Central.
- He was picked off for the first time all season on his 135th pass attempt at N.C. A&T

ROLLING WITH THE TRENCH MOB

MSU's offense has already rolled up almost 4,000 yards of offense, including a record-setting performance by RB Herb Walker Jr. One thing to keep in mind is that the Bears offensive line should absolutely not go unnoticed.

- The O-line, aka. "The Trench Mob", has plenty of veteran experience with senior center Clarence Swain, senior left guard and preseason All-MEAC first team selection Darren Pinnock, redshirt, senior right guard Randon Key, and junior backup tackle Daniel Onwuegbu. Talented true freshman Matthew Thompson handles the right tackle position.
- The Bears offense is averaging 211.3 rushing yards per contest (No. 2 in MEAC) and is averaging 372.0 total yards of offense per game (No. 4 in MEAC).

HERB SET SCHOOL RECORD

Herb Walker Jr. made quite the splash during his first start of the season. After Lamont Brown III had his season ended as a result of an ACL injury, the coaching staff tabbed Walker as the starter for the Holy Cross game -- Walker did the rest.

- Walker carried the ball 29 times for a career high 271 yards and two TDs. In doing so, he became the school's all-time single game rushing leader.

- Jason Jackson, who finished with 251 yards against Savannah State at the Proctor & Gamble Ohio Classic on Sept. 17, 2005, previously held the record.
- Walker was named the MEAC Offensive Player of Week 2, and was named College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) RB Honorable Mention.
- Walker had 20 carries for a game-high 180 yards and two TDs vs. Bowie State in Week 3.
- He posted 141 yds and a pair of TDs vs. Howard in Week 4, and had 111 yds and a TD vs. Norfolk State (MEAC No. 2 rushing defense) in Week 5, he scored 4 TDs in Week 10 at Hampton, he had 128 yards on 17 carries and a TD in Week 12 vs. Delaware State;
- Walker ranks in the No. 2 in the MEAC (No. 16 in FCS) in rushing yards (1,288 yds), No. 12 in nation in rushing yards per game (116.3 ypg).
- He has scored 15 TDs (13 rushing/2 receiving) so far this season.

FINISHING TOUCHES

Morgan State was the best in the MEAC at scoring in the red zone. Through the first 12 games, the Bears scored 31-of-37 (83%) times inside its opponent's 20 yardline ... 29 of the 31 scores have been TDs.

SKILLON BOUNCES BACK

Morgan State quarterback Moses Skillon was far from perfect at #4 Villanova where he threw three picks in his first career start of the season, but what he did achieve was a rebound from an imperfect Week 9.

- Skillon completed 21 of 37 passes for 252 yards, a touchdown run, no interceptions and the game winning touchdown to lead Morgan State to a 38-35 win over Hampton. He got rolling a 30-yard pass to Andrew King on the Bears first drive en route to the first score of the game. And the 6-6 redshirt-junior walked into the end zone for a 2-yard TD to put the Bears up 14-0 early in the first quarter
- He padded his numbers with a screen pass to electric running back Herb Walker Jr. who raced 17 yards to paydirt for the winning score. It was Skillon's third touchdown pass of his career.
- Skillon has started the last four weeks for the Bears, posting a 3-1 record as the starter.

Year	GP	A-C-I	Pct	Yds	TD	L
2014	8	92-159-5	58%	1107	9	72

2012	1	1-2-0	50%	13	0	13
Totals	14	111-61-7	54%	1,436	9	72

CODY ACKER STANDS OUT IN MICHIGAN

Cody Acker may have been wondering why he was sore after the game at Eastern Michigan; it's probably because he recorded a career-high 19 tackles (T-No. 12 in FCS) to lead the Bears defense.

- The senior, a 2013 All-MEAC Third Team selection, was named the MEAC's Defensive Player of Week 1.
- He currently leads the team with 101 total tackles (No. 5 in MEAC).
- Acker also ranks No. 17 in the nation in solo tackles (66).
- The Landover (Md.) product has posted two double-digit tackle performances so far this season.

Year	Tackles	TFL	Sacks
2014	94	9.0	3.0
2013	65	10.5	1.5
2012	39	2.5	--
2011	23	--	--
Totals	221	22.0	4.5

CHRISTOPHER ROBINSON NO. 4 IN FCS IN SACKS

R-senior outside linebacker Christopher Robinson's four sacks against Bowie State (Sept. 13) were the most by an MSU player since 1989. He has 55 tackles, and 15 sacks ranks No. 4 in the FCS.

- The Dunbar HS product capped the regular season ranked T-No. 2 in the MEAC with 18 tackles for loss (T-No. 21 in FCS). Impressive stuff for a 6-2, 225-pound player who originally joined the Bears as a walk-on.
- Robinson broke the school's career sack record held by Willie Thompson (26, 1994-97), and recently broke school's single season sack record held by James Dozier in 1990 (14.5).

Year	Tackles	TFL	Sacks
2014	55	18.0	15

MSU's RETURN TO GREATNESS

This past May 20, Morgan State University President David Wilson began acting on recommendations from the university's Return to Greatness Steering Committee. The group, commissioned by President Wilson in June 2013, had been charged with conducting a strategic assessment of Morgan's football program, identifying best practices for operating a Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) program, and making recommendations to help Morgan football reclaim its winning legacy.

From 1935 to 1980, Morgan State's football program attained the status of legend. During that time, the Bears won a total of 23 conference championships: 19 in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) and four in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC). In addition, they were one-time NCAA Mid-Atlantic College champions, three-time Orange Blossom Classic champions and a one-time winner of the Tangerine Bowl (now the Capital One Bowl). During those same years, Morgan produced 18 All-Americans and scores of players who went on to success in the National Football League, among them, four NFL Hall of Famers: Willie Lanier, Len Ford, Roosevelt Brown and Leroy Kelly.

"Winning athletic programs boost enrollment," said Kevin M. Banks, Ed.D., Morgan's vice president for Student Affairs and co-chairman of the steering committee. "We know there's a correlation.... You look at any major team that wins a championship or gets close to one: it boosts applications."

Knowing these facts, Dr. Wilson took steps toward a "Return to Greatness," while the steering committee was still deliberating. After meeting with Dr. Banks and Athletic Director Kerr, he directed the enhancement of academic enrichment for scholar-athletes to ensure their success at MSU; the establishment of a training table for scholar-athletes for nutritional guidance during dinner meals; the assignment of customized space for the football team to hold meetings; the renovation of men's and women's basketball locker rooms and the football coaches' offices; and the establishment of programs to connect MSU athletic legends with current Morgan athletes, to help the younger players know the legacy of MSU football. In January, the university hired a new football coach, Lee Hull, who has already had success with Morgan's initiative to increase in-state recruiting of scholar-athletes. These measures, most of which were later included in the committee's recommendations, are part of the ongoing effort to boost the success of Morgan football.

"The recommendations by the Return to Greatness Steering Committee will guide us to building a stronger competitive edge and graduating student-athletes at a higher rate," Kerr said.

"I call upon all alumni and friends to support our athletic program," Dr. Wilson said, "as we seek to return to the glory years of Morgan athletics."

LEE HULL

Head Coach

Lee Hull was introduced by Morgan State University Athletics Director Floyd Kerr as the new head football coach of the Morgan State Bears on January 9, 2014. Hull has been the assistant coach at Maryland since 2008, and has built an impressive coaching resume.

Hull, 48, becomes the 19th head football coach in Morgan State history.

Hull comes to MSU after spending the past six seasons (2008-13) with the University of Maryland as wide receivers coach. During his time there he helped coach Darrius Heyward-Bey (Indianapolis Colts) and Torrey Smith (Baltimore Ravens) to first and second round NFL Draft selections, respectively, as well as building one of the most talented receiving corps in the ACC this season.

Hull also helped develop LaQuan Williams (Baltimore Ravens), Tony Logan (New England Patriots) and Quintin McCree (Winnipeg Blue Bombers) who went on to careers in professional football after leaving College Park.

Hull also has experience coaching other positions. He tutored running backs his first two seasons at Oregon State and wide receivers the last three. He coached three OSU All-Americans, including a pair of wideouts, and was a part of four bowl wins.

In 2006, he coached Sammie Stroughter to All-America status in one of Oregon State's best seasons. The Beavers posted a 10-4 record, second-best in school history, including a win over Missouri in the Sun Bowl. That season, Stroughter led the Pac-10 Conference and ranked 10th in the country in receiving yards per game (92.4). Stroughter was on the watch list for the 2007 Biletnikoff Award, which honors the top receiver in the nation. He went on to be selected in the 2009 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay.

In Hull's first season in charge of OSU wide receivers, Mike Hass ended his stellar career as a first-team All-America selection and the winner of the 2005 Biletnikoff Award. Hass posted the third-highest receiving yards total (3,924) in league history. He is currently a member of the Seattle Seahawks.

Hull also coached current Atlanta Falcon's running back Steven Jackson during the 2003 season. Jackson was a first-team All-Pac-10 and third-team All-America choice as a junior, his final season at OSU. He was a first-round draft choice in the 2004 NFL Draft.

Prior to his five seasons at Oregon State, Hull spent five years (1998-2002) at his alma mater, the College of the Holy Cross. He coached linebackers for one season before becoming wide receivers coach, as well as overseeing the kickoff coverage and kickoff return units. He also went on to become the passing game coordinator.

Hull was a standout wide receiver at Holy Cross from 1984-87, playing under former Maryland coach Mark Duffner his final two seasons. The Crusaders posted a 21-1 record his last two years and were ranked No. 1 in Division I-AA in 1987. Holy Cross also won the Colonial League title and the Lambert Cup that season. He was a preseason

THE THREE HEARTBREAKS

The Morgan State Bears last heartbreaker was at Norfolk State, a 15-14 loss. The play of the game hinged on a pass interference call on a 3rd and 2 from the MSU 5. NSU backup QB Tyler Clark scored on the ensuing play with a 1-yard run to help to seal the win.

- It marked the third game in which the Bears could've easily been in the win column.

- In Week 1, Morgan State had a shot to tie the game down the stretch with a 55-yarder... however, before the snap, the Bears were called for offside that pushed kicker Chris Moller into a 60-yard try as time expired -- it didn't come close.

- In Week 2, the Bears lost at Holy Cross, 29-26, on a last second 1-yd QB TD run as time expired.

- The Bears have lost three games by a total of 7 points.

- The Bears recorded their first close win by rallying from a 20-7 deficit to upset N.C. Central 21-20 during MSU's Homecoming on Oct. 18.

- A 9-yard touchdown run by Moses Skillon with 58 seconds left proved to be the difference in a 24-21 Morgan State victory over the South Carolina State Bulldogs. It was the first win over SCSU since 2002, and it also marked the first home victory over the Bulldogs since 1974.

NO HUDDLE

- PK Chris Moller nailed a 38-yard field goal to help the pullout a 38-35 victory vs. Howard in Week 4 ... it marked the second time of his career that he's booted in a game-winner - he connected on a 27-yarder as time expired to give the Bears a 24-23 win over North Carolina A&T on Nov. 9, 2013 at Hughes Stadium.

- QB Moses Skillon tossed the ball around 43 times during the Bears win against South Carolina State - it was the most pass attempts by the Bears in a decade (2004-32).

- Morgan State's offense ran 86 plays last weekend vs. S.C. State - it was the most plays since the Bears posted 85 plays vs. Hampton in 2010.

- The Bears scored two defensive touchdowns in the regular season finale against Delaware State - Petereson Janvier returned an interception 60-yds for a TD, and Donyae Olton recovered a fumble in the endzone for a score.

WALKER ADDED TO WATCH LIST

Morgan State redshirt sophomore running back Herb Walker Jr. has been added to the 2014 Walter Payton Award Watch List, announced today by The Sports Network.

- Walker will attempt to be the first-ever player from the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference to earn the prestigious award.

- Walker took over as the Bears' No. 1 option after the first game, and he hasn't looked back. The small, elusive back has gone over 100 yards in five games, including twice over 200 yards, while scoring 12 total touchdowns. Overall, he is averaging 119.1 rushing yards per game, ranking first in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and No. 10 in the nation.

- The Cleveland native has already etched his name in the MSU record book by rushing for 271 yards against Holy Cross - it currently stands as the third highest rushing total in the FCS.

- Walker was one of three running backs added to the list, joining Marshaun Coprich (Illinois State) and Tyler Varga (Yale).

NO SACK ZONE

Morgan State's offensive line, "The Mob", has kept its' quarterbacks well protected so far this season.

- Under the direction of new O-Line coach Dwayne Foster, the largely veteran group has only allowed 15 sacks, ranked No. 1 in the MEAC.

- Last season they allowed 22 sacks (ranked No. 4 in MEAC).

- This week the offensive line gets its final test of the season when it lines up against Delaware State. The Hornets have 17 sacks on the season and has 53 tackles for loss. Rodney Gunter (6-5, 305) leads the Hornets in the trenches with 7 sacks (ranks No. 4 in MEAC) and 11 TFLs.

LOST ON SUMMERS' ISLAND

Morgan State CB DeShawn Summers is putting together another great season for the Bears. No matter who he's faced this year, Summers has not only shut some of the league's best receivers down, but he's done it solo, with man coverage. He doesn't have the gaudy statistics that he did a season ago, however it's hard to get stats when teams aren't even throwing to his side of the field.

- Last season, Summers led the Bears with three interceptions.

- So far through 12 games, the Hampton (Va.) native has 38 tackles (28 solo) and has five pass breakups and he recorded his first interception of the season during a win at Hampton.

- He also has three tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

- The Bears have allowed 141.4 passing yards per game (No. 2 in FCS) and are among the nation's leaders ranked No. 10 in pass efficiency defense (104.3).

- A cornerback like Summers creates more flexibility for the entire defense.
