Kerri Reaves begins her 14th season on the women's basketball staff at Central Connecticut State University. Reaves will serve as interim head coach for the 2020-21 season.

Reaves, who came to New Britain after serving as an assistant at Providence, is CCSU's recruiting coordinator and primarily works with CCSU's forwards and centers. She also assists in game preparation while working with compliance and academic advising efforts.

"Kerri's experience coaching and recruiting at the Division I level, combined with her head coaching experience, makes her the perfect addition to our staff," Piper said. "She is a hard worker who will promote CCSU athletics in a positive way. I am so excited that she is on board to help us move the Central Connecticut women's basketball program to a new level."

Prior to arriving at CCSU, Reaves spent two seasons in her second stint as an assistant coach for the Friars. In addition to acting as the team's academic liaison, Reaves's responsibilities included recruiting, working with the Friar wing players and on-floor coaching. She also served as an assistant coach with Providence for six seasons from 1996-2002. From 1999-2002, the former Marquette standout was the recruiting coordinator for the Friars.

Before her return to Providence College, Reaves spent 2002-05 as the head women's basketball coach at Saint Leo University, an NCAA Division II program affiliated with the Sunshine State Conference.

Reaves, a 1996 graduate of Marquette University, played for the Golden Eagles from 1991-95. She finished her career at Marquette among the top-10 all-time in scoring (1,203 points), rebounding (608 rebounds), free-throws made (297), steals (195), three-point field goals made (84) and blocked shots (47).

She led the Golden Eagles to the Women's National Invitational Tournament in 1993 as a sophomore and, as team captain, helped guide the program to consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1994 and 1995. During her four-year career, Marquette posted a 79-41 record.

LAST TIME DUT

vs. Fairleigh Dickinson 12/20/20

- -The Central Connecticut women's basketball team returned to winning fashion, with a dominant 77-56 victory over Fairleigh Dickinson. CCSU took control in the second quarter and never let the Knights back into the game. The Blue Devils get back to .500 on the season (2-2, 2-2 NEC), while Fairleigh Dickinson falls to 4-4 and 1-3 in conference play.
- -Point guard Forever Toppin scored a season high 16 points and dished out 5 assists. Claire Sutherland-Case scored a career high 11 points. It marks the first time she has ever scored in double figures as well.
- -The Blue Devils shot 42.6% from the floor and led for over 30 minutes of the game.
- -Junior Lindsey Mack tried to keep the Knights in the game, scoring 17 points and went 4-5 from the foul line. The only other player in double figures for the Knights was Madison Stanley, who provided 11 points.
- -The Blue Devils snap a five game losing streak to FDU that dated back to the 2017-18 season.

Player Quote:

"We pushed the ball, we got out in transition. We stuck to what we do best and that's running the floor. This year we really wanted to focus on us, and believe that we're good enough because we are."

-Forever Toppin

KEY MOMENTS

- -The game started off as a back and forth affair. There were four lead changes in the first quarter. Each team led by four at one point, but no larger than that. The first quarter ended with CCSU having a 16-15 lead.
- -The flood gates opened up in the second quarter for the Blue Devils. CCSU went on a 15-0 run, which started from a pair of threes by senior Emma McCamus.
- -The Blue Devils then went on another big run to extend their lead to 45-27 at the half.
- -Ashley Berube started to get going in the second half. She scored 6 points in a row in the middle of the third quarter. The senior forward finished with 12 points on the night.
- -The Blue Devils outscored the Knights 17-12 in the final quarter and held on to their huge lead.
