NEWS & NOTES

TODAY'S GAME

- The top two offenses in the Northeast Conference meet in Emmitsburg for a doubleheader. Central Connecticut leads the NEC in points per game, and the Mount has the second most.
- Both teams are coming off post-ponelements due to COVID-19 protocols. For CCSU, this will be their first contest in over a month.
- Mount St. Mary's saw last Tuesday's game with Saint Francis U postponed as a result of contact tracing.

SERIES BITS

- The Mount's longest win streak against an NEC opponent is against CCSU. The Mountaineers are looking for their seventh straight win Saturday over the Blue Devils.
- Control of the series advantage was taken when the Mount won four of the first five games in the series, followed by an eight game win streak from 2001 to 2005.
- Mount St. Mary's won 72-64 in the team's last meeting just over a year ago. Jatarrikah Settle led the team with 16 points and six rebounds.

THE MOUNT'S TRACK RECORD

- The Mountaineers stand at 4-3 (2-1 NEC) on the year, after going 20-11 (14-4 NEC) in 2019-2020, clinching the #2 seed in the conference tournament. They are currently tied for second place with Wagner in the NEC.
- Redshirt senior Kendall Bresee leads in four major statistical categories - points, rebounds, assists and steals. She ranks first in the conference for steals, fourth for rebounds and sixth in scoring and assists.
- Bolstered by five blocks in a game and six for the series with St. Francis Brooklyn, Rebecca Lee leads the team with 13 blocks, with stands third in the NEC.
- Fellow senior Bridget Birkhead leads the team with 15 three-pointers. 38.5 percent of her long range shots have found the bottom of the net.
- With their 84-60 win over the Pioneers, Mount St. Mary's won a contest by 20 points or more for the first time this season. Their largest margin of victory prior to Thursday was an 80-47 win over Long Island in the NEC quarterfinals.

MOUNT ST. MARY'S NEWS AND NOTES

CONTEMPLATING CENTRAL CONNECTICUT

- Central Connecticut stands fourth in the NEC, looking to get out of last place, where they finished a year ago with a record of 4-25.
- The Blue Devils come into Emmitsburg as the NEC's highest scoring offense, averaging 78.3 points per game. They have scored 75 points or more in three games out of four.
- A trio of CCSU players lead the charge. Emma McCamus leads in scoring with 16.8 points per game. Ashley Berube leads with 9.3 rebounds, and Ashley Forker leads with 5.2 assists. All three stats ranked second in the NEC.

FROM PAUSE TO PLAY

- Mount St. Mary's paused team activities for over a month following positive COVID-19 tests within the program.
- Contests affected were non-conference meetings with Maryland, La Salle and Hofstra, which were canceled, and three NEC games with Wagner at Saint Francis U were postponed.
- The Wagner contests have been rescheduled to February 9th and 10th. Merrimack had their own pause due to COVID, so the Mount will challenge them on February 24th and 25th in Massachusetts.
- With Tuesday's postponement against Saint Francis U, the Mount has had more postponements and cancellations (8) than games played (7).

MIND THE GAP

- From December 5th to January 7th, 33 days passed since between games.
- That in-season gap is the fifth longest in team history, and the longest since 1978. The longest is 56 days going back to the team's inaugural season of 1974-75. After their first-ever game against Loyola on December 4th, the team's next game didn't occur until January 29th versus Frederick Community College.

LONGEST IN-SEASON GAPS IN WBB HISTORY:

December 4, 1974-January 29, 1975 - 56 days
December 10, 1975-January 29, 1976 - 50 days
December 10, 1977-January 21, 1978 - 42 days
December 10, 1976-January 15, 1977 - 36 days
December 5, 2020-January 7, 2021 - 33 days
December 7, 1991-January 7, 1992 - 31 days

TYING UP OPPONENTS IN KNOTT

- December 5th's win against UMBC was the program's 100th non-conference victory at Knott Arena since the facility opened in 1987.
- Mount stands 280-155 all-time on their home floor, including a 27-15 mark in the Marchesano era.

FROM DOWNTOWN!

- The Mountaineers under Coach Marchesano have rewritten the record books for making three pointers. Under her three seasons, her teams are 1st, 2nd and 4th for triples made in a season.
- Last season, the team once again set the record with 264 made three pointers. That accomplishment also ranked 15th among all NCAA Division I teams.
- On December 14, 2019, another record toppled with 16 made three's in a game with Maryland Eastern Shore. Bridget Birkhead was responsible for eight made shots.
- So far in 2020-21, Mount has 52 triples for an average of 7.43 per game.

NEC HONOREES

- On January 11th, senior Kendall Bresee was named NEC Player of the Week, after averaging a double-double of 19 points and 10.5 rebounds with 4.5 assists in the Mount's sweep of St. Francis Brooklyn.
- The following week, freshman Jessica Tomasetti netted Rookie of the Week honors, thanks to 20 points in games against Sacred Heart. She was a model of efficiency, making eight of nine shots.

THAT'S DOWNRIGHT OFFENSIVE

- Mount St. Mary's led the NEC in offensive output last year, averaging 67 points per game.
- The squad also topped the NEC in field goal percentage (.406) and three point percentage (.342).
- When they upped their point totals to 70 or more in a game last season, the Mount went 11-1, as opposed to 9-10 when scoring 60 or less.
- Although a small sample, Mount has increased this total in 2020-21 to 70 points a game. November 30th's defeat to Howard was a rare moment in the past three years, marking just the second time in the Marchesano era the team scored 80 or more and took the loss.

27TH HEAVEN

- Junior guard Michaela Harrison stands at 858 career points, 142 away from becoming the 27th member of the 1,000 point club.
- Harrison is on the fast track to becoming the 10th member to push past the milestone in three seasons. The last Mountaineer to achieve this was Jacqueline Brewer in 2015.

MOUNT ST. MARY'S NEWS AND NOTES*PRESEASON COACHES POLL

- For the first time in 20 years, Mount's women were on top of the NEC Preseason Poll. The unanimous decision came from a poll of the conference's coaches.
- It is the fifth time in program history they sit atop the preseason poll, and twice prior a Mountaineer team that was predicted first ended in first by season's end.

MARCHESANO'S MILESTONES

- Entering her fourth season, Maria Marchesano needed two wins for 125 career wins and six victories for 50 as Mount head coach. She crossed the 125 threshold with a win over St. Francis Brooklyn on January 7th.
- A 17-win season would put Marchesano fourth on the all-time list, bolting ahead of Rev. James Delaney (45) and Fred Carter (60).

AWARD-WINNING ACHIEVEMENTS

- A pair of players last season received All-NEC honors at season's conclusion.
- Leading scorer Michaela Harrison earned a First Team nod, while leading rebounder and assister Kendall Bresee received a Third Team selection.

HARRISON'S HILL

- Michaela Harrison earned a spot on the All-NEC Preseason Team following her strong sophomore season.
- The Clevelander led the charge in the scoring department for the Mount, averaging 12.6 points per game. Her 75 three pointers were a school record for an individual's season.
- Along with her scoring ability, she tied the team lead in steals (61) and ranked third on the team with 75 assists.

WHOLE SQUAD READY

- 8 of the 13 players from last year are back the 2020-21 season.
- Departures include Delaney Connors, who transferred to Southern Connecticut State and Alexis Wooden, who graduated and will play for Hampton as a post-graduate player.

20/20

- Just like their first place vote in the NEC Preseason poll, Mount is coming off a 20 win season for the first time in 20 years.
- The 20-11 record was the team's highest since a 20-9 mark during the 1999-2000 season.

KELSEY HAPPY RETURNS

- Coach Marchesano welcomed back Kelsey Funderburgh to the coaching staff for her first-ever role as a college assistant coach.
- Funderburgh played for Marchesano at Walsh, finishing with 1,304 career points. A three-point shooter, she ranked in the top 50 in Division II for long-range shots.
- Since graduating, she worked three seasons as a Director of Basketball Operations - two here at the Mount and last season at Monmouth.

MIRROR, MIRROR ON THE COURT

- The Northeast Conference introduced a new format for conference games. When the Mount women play at home, the men will play the same opponent on the road, and vice versa.
- Adapting the schedule further for COVID-19, teams will now play games back-to-back at one location. Mount will host St. Francis Brooklyn, Central Connecticut, Bryant, and Fairleigh Dickinson.
- The only team that Mount will split home and away is our closest adversary, Saint Francis U. The team will head to Altoona on January 19 and will host the Red Flash in the regular season finale on February 28th.

LOCAL FLAIR

- Last November, Coach Marchesano and her staff signed four new players to NLI's. All four were local talents, either from Maryland or Pennsylvania.
- The quartet is split between a duo of forwards both named Isabella (Hunt, Pelaia) and a pair of guards, Jada Lee and Jessica Tomasetti.
- Hunt was a two-time district champion; Pelaia the leading scorer on a PIAA Class 5A champion; Lee a three-time All-Section awardee; and Tomasetti a 2018-19 WCAC First Team and team captain.

HOME VS. ROAD

- During the 2019-20 season, Mount St. Mary's played 14 contests in Emmitsburg, 15 on the road, and two at neutral sites.
- The Mount split the neutral contests 1-1, carried a 10-4 mark at home and were 9-6 on the road.
- This year the Mountaineers are undefeated at Knott Arena and 1-3 on the road. Scoring has stayed consistent throughout, with the Mount averaging 71 points at home and 73.3 on the road.

MARIA MARCHESANO BIO

Maria Marchesano was named the sixth head coach in Mount St. Mary's women's basketball history on May 1, 2017.

In charge for three full seasons, Marchesano has orchestrated a full program turnaround, which culminated in her third year. The Mount reached heights not seen in Emmitsburg since the beginning of the century, registering 20 wins and 14 in the NEC - both marks were last achieved in 1999-2000. The team was the best offensive unit in the conference, leading the NEC with an average of 67 points a game along with a .406 field goal percentage. Much of their success came from three-point range, ranking 15th in the nation with 264 shots from downtown. Mount locked up the No. 2 seed thanks to a nine-game win streak lasting the entire month of February. They won in the NEC Quarterfinals before the season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Sophomore Michaela Harrison continued her success with an All-NEC First Team selection, and newcomer Kendall Bressee earned a Third Team nod.

In her first two seasons at the helm, Marchesano guided the squad to a 24-36 overall record and a 14-22 mark in Northeast Conference play. Under Marchesano's guidance, the Mount averaged its most points per game since the 2013-14 season. Marchesano mentored and developed guard Juliette Lawless, who was named the NEC Most Improved Player and earned an All-NEC Third Team Selection and NEC All-Rookie Team members Daly Sullivan and Michaela Harrison.

Marchesano came to the Mount following a stint as an associate head coach at IUPUI, where she helped guide the squad to the most wins in a season in program history in 2016-17, as the Jaguars finished at 24-9 overall and 12-4 in Summit League play. IUPUI made its first appearance in the conference championship game since 2008, and also earned a berth in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) to cap off the outstanding season. During the campaign, the Jags collected seven wins versus RPI top-100 teams and earned their highest RPI ranking in program history (53). Marchesano coached three All-Summit League honorees and one Academic All-Summit League member during her season with the Jags.

Prior to her time at IUPUI, Marchesano served for three years as the head coach at Walsh University in North Canton, Ohio. Marchesano led the team to 52 wins during her three seasons, including back-to-back 20-win campaigns in 2014-15 and 2015-16. The Cavaliers made two GLIAC Tournament Final Four appearances, won three-straight Mayor's Cup titles, and defeated a pair of Division I teams (Butler & Kent State) during Marchesano's tenure at the helm.

In her final season at Walsh, she guided the Cavaliers to a 20-9 overall record and 16-6 mark in GLIAC play, as they earned home-court advantage for the first time ever in the conference tournament. During the regular season, the Cavaliers registered an upset-victory over third-ranked Ashland University, which was the highest-ranked opponent Walsh had ever defeated as a Division II program.

Marchesano got her first experience as a head coach at Urbana University in Urbana, Ohio midway through the 2011-12 season. She inherited a 2-8 team in January, before turning the season around, guiding the Knights to a 12-7 record after taking over the helm, which included an eight-game winning streak at home. The team qualified for the D-II Ohio Independent Championships, and Marchesano was named the D-II Independent Coach of the Year. The following season, Marchesano led the Knights to a G-MAC Conference Tournament Championship.

Before her time at Urbana, Marchesano served as an assistant coach for both the women's basketball and softball programs at Manchester College in North Manchester, Indiana from 2010-12.

During her collegiate career, Marchesano was a four-year letter winner at Butler University in women's basketball, and also played one season on the softball team. The Fort Wayne, Indiana native was named the Butler Freshman Female Athlete of the Year, earned Horizon League All-Newcomer Team honors, and was a recipient of the Butler Team Community Service Award. Marchesano finished her career as the second-best three-point shooter in program history. Following her collegiate career, she went on to sign three professional basketball contracts and five professional softball contracts in the Italian Federation.
