THE MATCHUP

Bryant treks to Mount St. Mary's for its second NEC road series of the season beginning on Saturday, Feb. 20. Both games are set for a 2pm tip in Emmitsburg.

The Bulldogs split with the Mount last season when they first fell, 76-70, in Smithfield, followed by a 72-67 triumph in Emmitsburg. Bryant posted one of its best offensive performances to take down Mount St. Mary's shooting 47.1% (24-51). Both Bjelko and Gallagher were 50% from the field in that game as Gallagher led the returner with 12 points (3-6) followed by Bjelko with 11 (5-10).

Last year's win was the first time an NEC team took down the Mountaineers on their home court and the Bulldogs now hold the all-time series record, 6-5, in Knott Arena.

LASTTIME OUT: MERRIMACK

In a total team effort, the Bulldogs snapped a two-game losing stream when they took down Merrimack, 83-80, in overtime. Brooke Bjelko and Fatou Jallow led Bryant with 19 points each and were two-of-four Bulldogs to tally double-figures. Stephanie Mayerhofer posted a career-high 18 points shooting 70% from the field (7-10), while Shannon O'Connor netted 12 points in just 22 minutes of play. Senior Kandis Taylor also showed an impressive stat line of 11 assists, four steals, six rebounds, and five points. The outing was Bryant's best shooting performance as the team shot a season-best 47.2% from the field (34-72) and dished out a season-high 22 team assists.

COACH BURKE

Entering a monumental 30th season as the leader of the women's basketball team, Mary Burke returns for the 2020-21 season. Burke has been an instrumental member of not only the women's basketball program, but the entire athletic department at Bryant. Since graduating from Providence College in 1987, Burke was originally hired as an assistant coach in 1987 and held that position until being promoted on August 1, 1991. Burke has become one of the top coaches in the New England area, constantly pulling in nationally-recognized recruiting classes. Last season, Burke and her squad competed in the quarterfinals of the NEC Tournament falling to Fairleigh Dickinson. She coached Sydney Holloway to Second Team All-NEC honors last season and Nicole Gallagher to the NEC All-Rookie squad. All time, Coach Burke has accumulated a 417-438 record. In Division I, Burke is 170-204.

MEET THE NEWCOMERS

Bryant welcomes six new faces, including five true freshman and one junior transfer. The class is one of the most diverse that Bryant has ever seen as half hail from international backgrounds, Lucie Castagne (Paris, France), Fatou Jallow (Stockholm, Sweden), and Mariona Planes Fortuny (Bellpuig, Spain). Stephanie Mayerhofer, Nina Karlin, and Castagne represent the true freshman guards, while Juliette Golden and Fortuny add height to Bryant's frontcourt. Jallow transferred in from Salt Lake City Community College where she ranked as one of the top-100 junior college players in the country.

NIKKI G

Gallagher earned a NEC Prime Performer nod after posting a season-best 20 points in the second of the two-game series against St. Francis Brooklyn. She topped off the 20-point performance with an added 11 rebounds for her second career double-double. The sophomore also shot an impressive 70% from the field shooting seven-for-ten and five-for-eight from behind the arc. Gallagher netted 16 points against Saint Francis shooting six-of-nine from the field. She also added a career-high five steals and five assists. She ranks second on the team in scoring averaging 11.6 ppg.

SWISS MISS

Junior transfer, Fatou Jallow, has made an immediate impact on the Bulldogs this season. She recently posted her fourth double-digit scoring performance of the season with a career-high 19 points off eight-of-17 shooting. On the defensive end, Jallow proves why she's one of the most dominant defenders in the NEC as she leads the team and ranks second in the conference with a 2.2 steal per game average. She swiped a career-best six at Central Connecticut.

I WANT KANDY

Kandis Taylor has had a breakout season this year highlighted by an OT game-winner against St. Francis Brooklyn which earned her a spot on ESPN's SportsCenter Top-10 plays at number 9. Most recently, Taylor dished out a career-best 11 assists and filled the rest of the stat sheet with six rebounds, five points, and four steals. She leads the Bulldogs averaging 3.7 assists a night, ranking her fifth in the NEC. She also ranks fourth in the conference with 2.00 steals per game.

DON'T CALL IT A COMEBACK

Redshirt freshman Shannon O'Connor is back and has been a key for the Bulldogs so far this season. After earning an NEC Rookie of the week nod earlier this season, O'Connor now averages 5.7 ppg and recently achieved a career-high of 12 points against Merrimack. The redshirt freshman contributes in all facets of the game averaging 4.0 rebounds, 1.8 assists, and 1.5 steals per game.

SENIOR SZN

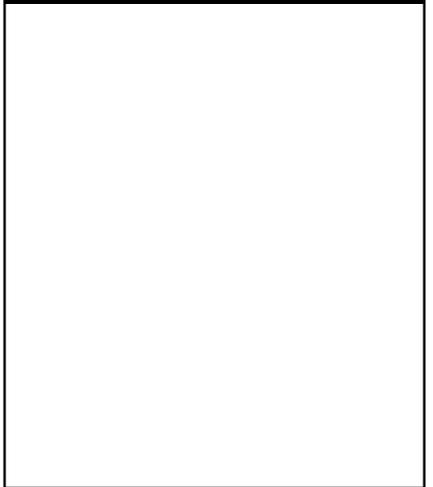

Brooke Bjelko posts six double-double efforts so far this season. She has been key in Bryant's success this season with three 20+ point performances including a career-high 30 points against Saint Francis. The senior is the first Bulldogs since Jenniqua Bailey '15 in 2014 to accomplish the 30-point feat. Bjelko was also awarded the first three NEC Player of the Week nods, marking the first Bulldog to earn three-straight in the D1 era. Currently, Bjelko has posted double-figure scoring in five-straight games as she averages 16.8 points a night. She also leads the conference and ranks among the top 30 nationally in offensive rebounds per game with 3.8. She leads the NEC in rebounds per game (9.8), ppg (16.8), ranks second in FG percentage (49.4), and third in blocked shots per game (1.77).

LAST GAME vs. MOUNT ST. MARY'S

2020-21 BRYANT UNIVERSITY BASKETBALL

BLACK AND GOLDEN

Freshman Juliette Golden made her first set of career starts at Central Connecticut. The rookie posted nearly identical stat lines in both games of the series when she tied her career-high of nine points in both outings. She also pulled down seven rebounds in both games marking a career-best. She matched her career-best of seven rebounds in the first game of the Sacred Heart series marking three-straight games where the rookie tied her career-high. The Millville native now averages 4.1 ppg in an average of 20.9 minutes a night.

BLOCK PARTY

Bjelko tied Bryant's Division I single-game block record with seven in game one of the St. Francis Brooklyn series. Bjelko now sits next to Siamone Bennett '11 who set the record at LIU in 2009. As a team, Bryant finished the game with nine thanks to an added pair of blocks from freshman Mariona Planes Fortuny. The Bulldogs also tied the D1 single-game team block record which was set last season against Albany. As a team, Bryant ranks fifth in the NEC with 42 blocks on the season averaging 3.2 a game. Bjelko leads the team with 23 so far this season followed by Planes Fortuny with 10.

JERSEY GIRL

Freshman Stephanie Mayerhofer has been making the most of her increase in minutes for the Bulldogs. The rookie made her first set of career started in the Sacred Heart series and remained in the starting lineup against Merrimack. Mayerhofer combined for 11 points against Sacred Heart before erupting for a career-high of 18 points. The 18 point mark came off an impressive 70% shooting from the field (7-10) and four-for-six from three. She also added three rebounds, one assist, and one steal in the OT win.

ALANA PERKINS FOR THREE

Sophomore Alana Perkins led Bryant in its season opener against UMass with 12 points off the bench. Perkins netted two three's and aided in Bryant's biggest run of the game (16-2) in the fourth quarter. The sophomore is the only Bulldog to have posted double-figures in all three opening games, and out of the first eight games, Perkins tallied double-figures in five.

COOKIES

As a team, Bryant posted a season-best 15 steals in game two against Saint Francis U. Both Nicole Gallagher and Fatou Jallow led the team with five apiece followed by Alana Perkins with four, and one from Kandis Taylor. The 15-steal performance ties the team for ninth in a single-game in Bryant's D1 era. The record is set at 17 team steals in a single game which was accomplished at Colgate in 2011 and against Saint Francis U in 2012. Most recently, Jallow swiped a career-high of 6 and proved why she is one of the top defenders in the NEC as she ranks second in the conference with 2.30 steals a night.

DOMINATING THE GLASS

Bryant is known for its dominating rebounders and nothing has changed in the 2020-21 season. Bryant has outrebounded its opponents in all but three games and leads the conference with 40.58 rebounds per game. Bjelko leads the Bulldogs averaging 9.9 a night and also ranked first in the NEC and 27th nationally with 3.8 offensive boards a night. At Central Connecticut, the team pulled down 48 rebounds, 21 of which were from the offensive side of the floor, led by Bjelko with seven offensive rebounds.

MAY THE ODDS BE IN YOUR FAVOR

The Bulldogs are 4-0 when they score 70+ points and are 4-0 when they lead at halftime. Bryant also proves to have its best chance at winning when shooting between 40-49% from the field, as they are 5-2 when they achieve the FG percentage compared to the 1-5 mark when shooting under 40%. Lastly, dominating the boards will continue to lead Bryant to success as all six wins came when the Bulldogs outrebounded their opponent. The Black and Gold dropped all three games where they were outrebounded and fell to Sacred Heart when both teams pulled down 40 rebounds each.

WEEKLY AWARDS

Bryant swept the first of the NEC weekly awards when senior Brooke Bjelko earned Player of the Week and redshirt freshman Shannon O'Connor earned Rookie of the Week honors. Bjelko then followed up by earning two more for a total of three consecutive weekly honors, marking the first Bulldog to accomplish three consecutive weekly awards in Bryant's D1 era. Sophomores Nicole Gallagher and Alana Perkins also earned NEC Prime Performers for their contributions in the St. Francis Brooklyn series followed by a Prime Performer nod for Bjelko after the SFU series.

YOUNG DAWGS

Bryant's upperclassmen are outnumbered 4-11 by the underclassmen on the team. Of the four upperclassmen, one is a junior transfer in Fatou Jallow. Despite Jallow being new to the team, she joins Brooke Bjelko and Nicole Gallagher as captains of the Black and Gold. With five true freshmen, one redshirt freshmen, and five sophomores, the Bulldogs are going to have a brand new look and feel to their lineups as they look to their returners for guidance.

Mary Burke, the four-time Rhode Island Women's Basketball Coach of the Year ('07, '08, '13, '14), will enter her 30th season as head coach of the Bryant women's basketball team in 2020-21.

In 2019-20, Burke coached two all-conference selections in NEC All-Rookie honoree Nicole Gallagher and Second Team All-NEC Sydney Holloway. Coach Burke assembled one of the most competitive non-conference schedules to date as the Black and Gold trekked to two Big Ten opponents, Illinois and Minnesota, and grabbed wins over Brown and Albany.

In 2018-19, Burke enjoyed a historical season as she reached a personal milestone just before the end of the regular season. On March 9, 2019, Burke secured her 400th career win at LIU, 69-54, which was the first of two-straight victories for the Bulldogs to help the team finish fifth in the conference standings. Bryant finished the season with an 11-19 overall record led by Sydney Holloway. Coach Burke guided Holloway to her second First Team All-NEC honor.

In 2017-18, the Bulldogs qualified for the Northeast Conference postseason by posting an 8-10 mark against conference foes. Burke also coached sophomore stand-out Sydney Holloway to a First Team All-NEC honor after ranking among the top 20 nationally in double-doubles. Coach Burke also helped freshman Hannah Scanlan earn NEC All-Rookie laurels.

In 2016-17, Burke led the Bulldogs to their best-ever Northeast Conference finish, reaching the conference finals where they fell to No. 1 Robert Morris. The 18-14 Bulldogs went 11-7 against conference foes, earning the No. 4 seed in the league tournament. The Bulldogs hosted and defeated No. 5 Mount St. Mary's in the NEC Quarterfinals, before defeating No. 2 Sacred Heart in the NEC Semifinals en route to the program's first-ever NEC Championship appearance as the unlikely No. 4 seed. Senior Alex Klein earned First Team All-NEC, while Sydney Holloway was named to the NEC All-Rookie Team.

In the 2015-16 season, Burke helped the Bulldogs back to the NEC Tournament after posting an 18-13 overall record and 14-4 conference mark, including a 10-0 start in league play, becoming one of only seven teams to reach the 10-0 tally in Northeast Conference history (29 years). Burke has recorded 10+ conference wins in 14 seasons, including eight-straight years with double-digit league victories (2000-08). The No. 2 Bulldogs took down No. 7 LIU Brooklyn, 70-56, in the NEC Quarterfinals, before No. 3 Robert Morris upset the Bulldogs, 72-59, for the third-straight year in the league semifinals.

In 2014-15, Burke guided the Bulldogs to their best Division I season to date in which they earned a share of the Northeast Conference Regular Season Title. The first conference championship of her career, Burke led Bryant to a record-setting season which featured a tie for the most wins in program history (22), most Northeast Conference wins in a season (14), and the highest finish in the NEC standings (tied for first). The Black and Gold advanced to the NEC Tournament Semifinals for the second-straight season led by NEC Player of the Year Breanna Rucker and NEC Rookie of the Year Ivory Bailey.

In the 2008-09 season, the Bulldogs' inaugural DI season, they posted the most wins of the four Division I schools in Rhode Island (PC, URI, and Brown). The Bulldogs earned wins over New Hampshire, Colgate, Central Connecticut (twice), Saint Francis, Wagner and Fairleigh Dickinson.

Before the transition to Division I, the Bulldogs were among the top teams in the Northeast-10 Conference. Under Burke's tutelage, the Bulldogs qualified for the NCAA Tournament four times, including back-to-back appearances in 2004 and 2005, as well as their final appearance in the Division II Tournament in 2008.

Burke appeared in the national polls on five occasions in 2007-08, each time in the "Others Receiving Votes" category. The 2008 dance was Burke's fourth as a head coach, while the 2007-08 effort marked just the second time she has eclipsed the 20-win clip.

Another highlight of Burke's tenure at Bryant came in the 2003-04 season when the Bulldogs finished the year ranked in the USA Today Division II Coaches' Poll Top-25 and advanced to the NCAA Regional Final, where they fell to Northeast-10 foe Merrimack College, finishing the season 22-9.

Burke's rapid climb up the coaching ladder began in 1987 when she joined former Bryant head coach Ralph Tomasso's staff as an assistant with the Bulldogs. She was promoted to head coach, August 1, 1991, becoming only the fourth women's basketball head coach in Bryant history.

Burke's success as the Bulldogs' leader comes as no surprise, considering the lofty heights she reached as a player at Providence College. A three-time Big East All-Conference selection, Burke was named a District I All-American as a senior. In her four years as a Friar, Burke helped lead her team to an 80-36 record. During that time, she led the 1985-86 Providence squad to the Big East Championship Game and a bid in the NCAA tournament and also spearheaded the Friars' run in the 1986-87 NIT.

Burke graduated as the Friars' fourth-leading women's scorer (1,672 points) and seventh-leading rebounder (740) of all time. Her 43-point outburst against Miami of Ohio in her final season at Providence set a new school record, etching her name in the record books yet again.

Before even attending Providence, Burke had already made a name for herself in Rhode Island. Earning All-State recognition five times at Toll Gate High School - three times in basketball and twice in volleyball - Burke has been honored on two occasions by Words Unlimited, Rhode Island's professional organization of sports publicists and journalists.

Burke was named Rhode Island's Schoolgirl Athlete of the Year in 1983 and accepted the organization's highest honor in 1987 when she was named Rhode Island's Female Athlete of the Year. She was also the recipient of the ECAC Award of Valor in 1987.

Burke was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in 2004 and enshrined in the Providence College Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.
