NEWS & NOTES

TODAY'S GAME

- Breaking a two-game losing streak with a win over Merrimack, Mount St. Mary's now eyes a season sweep over the Bryant Bulldogs.
- A win over the Bulldogs last month kicked off a four-game positive streak for the Mountaineers.
- The Mount stands in a three-way tie for third place. They currently rank third in that group, losing to Saint Francis U in a head-to-head and to Wagner via a forfeit.

SERIES BITS

- With their 68-52 win on January 15th, the Mount leveled the all-time series against the Bulldogs at 13 wins apiece.
- The series dates back to 2009 when Bryant elevated to Division I.
- Several of the early contests went into overtime, as four of the first 10 games required extra time. The squads split those four results.

THE MOUNT'S TRACK RECORD

- Mount St. Mary's won its fourth NEC title and third appearance in the NCAA Tournament this past March.
- Defeating Fairleigh Dickinson and Wagner in the conference championships, the team earned a trip to San Antonio as a No. 15 seed, where they fell to No. 2 Maryland 98-45.
- In their opening contest, the Mount lost to Big East challenger Seton Hall by an 81-68 final in South Orange, then took down Valley Forge in a 102-15 win to open the home schedule.
- Defending Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year Kendall Bresee picked up where she left off last season, leading the Mount in points, rebounds, assists and blocks.
- Michaela Harrison broke the all-time record in three-pointers with her 238th against Merrimack on January 17th.
- Kendall Bresee hit 1,000 career points on February 3rd against Merrimack.
- Due to injuries, illnesses and COVID protocols, head coach Antoine White and staff have had to get creative with their starting five. The quintet that started against the Brooklyn squads in early January is the fifth different lineup at tip-off this season.

MOUNT ST. MARY'S NEWS AND NOTES

FAMILIAR FACE, NEW TERRITORY

- The 2021-22 season marks the debut for new head coach Antoine White.
- No stranger to the Mount, White began as an assistant under Bryan Whitten, and was elevated to Associate Head Coach while Maria Marchesano was at the helm.
- White handled the defensive scheme, opponent scouts, workouts and player development as the AHC.
- Connections to the Mount family run deep with White, who played for men's coach Dan Engelstad while he was at Southern Vermont. The Montgomery County native is also co-alumni with Engelstad at Walt Whitman High School in Bethesda.

IT'S UNANIMOUS!

- For the second straight year, Mount St. Mary's received a first-place vote for all coaches in the Northeast Conference.
- Kendall Bresee also earned a coveted spot on the Preseason All-NEC team as she defends her Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year awards.
- The acknowledgement is the sixth first-place vote in program history. Twice before the Mount came through on the prediction, including last year.

COVID CANCELATIONS

- Right before the Christmas break, the Mount was afflicted with several COVID-19 cases, forcing the cancelation of three games.
- The team's final non-conference bout with UMBC was nullified, interrupting an intrastate rival destined for a fourth straight season of battle.
- More damaging was the following week, as the team's first two conference games could not be played. Forfeits were declared per Northeast Conference policy, so the Mount starts NEC play with an 0-2 record. The defeats do not affect overall record or any statistics the team accrues.
- With forfeitures affecting multiple squads, the NEC modified the tournament field, allowing all nine eligible teams to compete. Merrimack is the lone exception, as the Warriors remain in transition to full Division I status.

SHATTERING THE RECORD BOOKS

- On November 13th, the Mount defeated Valley Forge 102-15. The victory in their largest margin as well as the fewest points allowed in program history.
- Mount St. Mary's held the Patriots to six points at the half and used a 26-0 first quarter run to pull away early.
- The margin and fewest points allowed replaced the previous mark of 73 and 22, respectively. Both came in the same game when the Mount defeated Hood College (Md.) 95-22 on February 16, 1976.

TOUGH STREAK

- Mount St. Mary's dropped six consecutive games dating from Maryland on November 16th to Ohio State on December 7th.
- A challenging schedule is partly to blame as the Mount faced three Power 5 teams and a fellow 2021 NCAA Tournament team in Lehigh during the stretch.
- The dubious distinction is the longest since they dropped six games to open the 2017-2018 season. The longest streak before that was a nine-game slide across January and February of 2015.

HOST OF HONORS

- At the 2020-21 season conclusion, five Mountaineers were awarded postseason honors by the NEC. Maria Marchesano earned Coach of the Year in her final year at the Mount.
- Bresee's Player of the Year honor makes her the ninth Mountaineer to be named best in the league and the fourth for top defender. Marchesano is the third person and the sixth time that the Mount was voted to have the best coach.
- Michaela Harrison was named to the All-NEC Second Team, Aryna Taylor placed on the Third Team and Jessica Tomasetti took a spot as a member of the All-Rookie squad.

NEWCOMER HEAVEN

- Seven new faces join the team for this fall, with five players and two coaches.
- Graduate transfer Tess Borgosz (Towson) headlines the players. Standing 6-foot-4, Borgosz comes to Emmitsburg as a fifth-year and is expected to start at the center position, filling the void left by the departing Rebecca Lee.
- Four true freshmen round out the group, hailing from New Jersey (Maddie McCrea), Maryland (Jasmine Lindsay-Huskey, Abby Bailey) and Virginia (Jaedyn Jamison).
- Newcomers to the coaching staff are Dave Scarborough and Maggie Tien. Scarborough boasts over a decade of experience between several programs, most recently at Sacred Heart, and comes on as an assistant coach. Tien is a recent graduate of Washington Adventist and is in her first-ever role on a college staff, serving as Director of Operations.

PURE DOMINATION

- Mount St. Mary's won a lot of games last season in convincing fashion against NEC foes. This included four victories of 20-30 points and another four ranging from 30-40 games. The biggest blowouts of the season came in a pair of 38 point margins on back-to-back days against Bryant. The Mount won the first game 92-54 and the second 87-49.

MOUNT ST. MARY'S NEWS AND NOTES

MIRROR, MIRROR ON THE COURT

• The Northeast Conference introduced a new format for conference games during the 2020-21 season. When the Mount women play at home, the men will play the same opponent on the road, and vice versa.

• One exception is the series with Saint Francis U. The Mount hosts the Red Flash in a doubleheader for Winter Homecoming January 29th, and the women hit the road in an unpaired match to conclude the season on March 3rd.

HARRISON'S HIGH BAR

• Senior guard Michaela Harrison became the 28th Mountaineer all-time to register 1,000 points in a career and the 10th to do in three seasons of play.

• The Cleveland, Ohio native secured the prestigious mark last February 25th in a 59-58 win over Merrimack.

• Entering the season, she stood 23rd on the all-time list with 1,079 points. Harrison needs 319 points to crack the top 10 list for the program. Halfway through the year, she has already climbed nine spots to 14th place.

KENDALL'S KILLER NUMBERS

• Reigning Player and Defensive Player of the Year Kendall Bresee led the Mount in points per game (13.7), rebounds per game (8.5), assists (100) and steals (50).

• The last person to lead the team in four categories was Alexis Carter in 2015-16. During her junior year, Carter led in PPG, RPG, steals and blocks.

• Despite playing just two seasons in Emmitsburg thus far, Bresee has cracked the record books in several spots. She surpassed the top 40 in scoring, and is top 10 in career rebounds and career assists per game. Bresee is also tied for eighth all-time in double-doubles with 14 after posting three consecutive efforts between Long Island and Bryant.

• Against Merrimack on February 3rd, she reached 1,000 points in her career between her time at George Washington and Mount St. Mary's. Free throws at the 2:25 mark of the fourth quarter sealed the century mark.

SIXTH YEAR STANDOUT

• Graduate student Kayla Agentowicz is embarking on her sixth season in a college career that has lasted since 2016.

• Debuting on November 12th of that year, Agentowicz obtained extra eligibility via an injury that caused her to miss all of the 2018-19 season, earning her undergraduate degree and getting a year back because of the pandemic.

• Agentowicz has 759 points across 116 games, with 370 rebounds, 156 assists and 121 steals.

• In the team's win over Maryland Eastern Shore, she notched a new career high in three's with five, and was one off her career-best 24 points, set in 2017.

TAYLOR FINDS STABILITY

• Guard Aryna Taylor completed two seasons on the Mount's roster, cracking the starting lineup last year after several setbacks with leg injuries dating back to high school.

• Her All-NEC Third Team selection came after averaging double digits in scoring, posting 11.7 points per game.

• On the final game last season, Taylor scored eight points to register an even 500 points in her collegiate career.

CAN I GET A REJECTION?

• One stat line the Mount will be looking to replace is shot blocks. Rebecca Lee graduated last year with the second most rejection in program history with 139, including 39 in her ultimate year.

• With Lee departing the program, the team's leader in blocks is now Michaela Harrison with 33. Newcomer Tess Borgosz had 25 during her career at Towson, Bresee had 14 last year and forward Isabella Hunt added six as a freshman.

• So far, the team has stood up to the challenge with 51 blocks, led by Kendall Bresee with 15.

HIKING OFF THE MOUNTAIN

• In addition to replacing Lee's blocks, along with her 9.7 points and 7.2 rebounds a game, the Mount is searching to replace three-point specialist Bridget Birkhead.

• Birkhead finished one spot behind Lee in scoring average with 7.2 points a game, including 39 triples. She finished her career with 687 points, was fourth all-time in three pointers (173) and eighth in three point percentage (.360).

• After playing four years in Emmitsburg, Birkhead is now pursuing a graduate degree at Radford while competing for the Highlanders.

HOME VS. ROAD

• Last season the Mount dominated on their home floor, winning 11 out of 12. The only loss came to NEC semifinalist Fairleigh Dickinson.

• On the road they battled to a 6-5 record, including sweeps of Merrimack and LIU at their gyms.

• Their one neutral game was the NCAA Tournament loss at Maryland.

• For 2021-22, the Mountaineers are nearly split between Emmitsburg and elsewhere, playing 13 times at home and 15 times on the road. There are no neutral games scheduled at this time.

• This season, they have won five games of nine at home and earned their first two road wins at Sacred Heart and Central Connecticut.

ANTOINE WHITE BIO

Antoine White was named the seventh head coach of the Mount St. Mary's women's basketball program on March 30, 2021.

Promoted to Associate Head Coach in the summer of 2019, White is entering his sixth season on the Mount's women's basketball staff. While an associate, he handled the Mount's defensive scheme while also being in charge of opponent scouts during the season. He also excels in individual workout and player development.

We are very pleased to announce that Antoine White has been named the head women's basketball coach at Mount St. Mary's University," Robinson said. "Over the past five years, we have seen Antoine's development and growth; first as our assistant coach and then as our associate head coach. Antoine has been a great teacher and mentor to our team. He has a tremendous work ethic, contagious enthusiasm, and a commitment to student-athlete development, both on and off the court. Antoine has been an integral part of our success over the past few years, and I am confident that our women's basketball team will continue to thrive under Antoine's leadership."

"I am honored to be named head coach of the Mount St. Mary's women's basketball program and I am very grateful to President [Timothy] Trainor and Lynne Robinson for entrusting me with this position," White said. "I wouldn't be here without the love and support of my family, friends and mentors throughout this process. It is a tremendous opportunity, and I am excited to step into this role with such a talented group of players and passionate fanbase behind me."

White graduated in May of 2016 from Southern Vermont College in Bennington, Vt., where he rounded out his career as the Mountaineers' all-time career assists leader with 242 in 59 games played (4.1 ast/g). White was a three-year team captain at SVC, helping guide his squad to an ECAC Championship in 2015 and NECC Championship in 2016. The Bethesda, Md. native also holds the record for most assists in a single season in program history, tallying 177 during the 2013-14 campaign as he earned Team Co-MVP honors.

Prior to his time at Southern Vermont College, White worked as a coach with the KOA Sports travel team, and as the head JV coach and assistant varsity coach at his alma mater, Walt Whitman High School, in Bethesda.
