QUICK HITTERS

- After tallying their first win of the season, Mount St. Mary's goes for two in a row against a VMI squad seeking their first Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) win.
- With a hat trick for the third time in his career, freshman Brody Atkinson recieved his third MAAC Rookie of the Week honor on Monday. The first-year player involved himself in half of the Mount's offensive productivity in the win over Wagner.
- Defense provided a steady presence in last Saturday's victory. Three players - Mitchell Dunham, Ben Ward, and Caden Cote - finished with two caused turnovers each. Dunham leads the Mount in ground balls with 36 and caused turnovers with 19.
- Owen Peters recorded double digits in saves for the eighth straight game, but for the first time faced fewer than 20 shots on goal. This meant that the sophomore goalie held opponents to fewer than 10 to help earn the win.

HOME GAMES IN BOLD CAPS

* MAAC Game

MOUNT ST. MARY'S NEWS AND NOTES

INSIDE THE SERIES

>>> Mount St. Mary's has a decisive advantage in the all-time series, taking 25 of the 28 previous contests over VMI, and all but one of the games at home.

>>> Games date back to 1991 and have taken place almost every year since. The Keydets won their games in 1995, 2005, and 2022.

MAAC PRESEASON POLL

>>> Mount St. Mary's was picked fourth in the 2024 poll, as voted on by the league's coaches. Mitchell Dunham won a spot on the Defensive Preseason Team in addition to being named Co-Preseason Player of the Year. Dunham shares the defensive team honor with two Siena Saints and the PPOY honor with Kyle Gucwa of Manhattan.

ALL-MAAC HONOREES

>>> In 2023, the co-championship came with six All-MAAC team members, a Rookie Team honoree and four of the five major awards handed out.

>>> Mitchell Dunham was named Defensive Player of the Year, Connor Beals earned Face-off Specialist of the Year, Steven Schmitt was Long Stick Midfielder of the Year and TJ Gravante was Rookie of the Year.

>>> Three of the four were First Team All-MAAC while Gravante took the top spot on the Rookie Team. Jared McMahon and Jake Krieger were also First Team players, and defender Jackson Phillips was named to the Second Team.

>>> Together, the selections are the most since 2019, with the highest number of First Team honorees since 2003.

HIGH MARKS

>>> The Mountaineers rank in the top 25 nationally per game for clearing percentage (18th, .883), saves per game (20th, 12.78), and caused turnovers per game (24th, 8.78).

>>> Individually, Cormac Giblin is ninth in man-up goals in Division I (4), Mitchell Duhnham stands 12th in caused turnovers per game (2.11), and Owen Peters in 14th in saves per game (12.56).

SEEKING NEW OFFENSES

>>> The Mount's top three point scorers from the 2023 season exited the program at the conclusion of the year. Cormac Giblin - who finished third in goals scored - returns for his graduate season. After that is Kyle Cullen with 13 points and Kevin Whitty, who had 12 in his rookie year.

>>> Of the 172 goals scored last season, 53 were recorded by members of the team who return this year.

FACE-TO-FACE

>>> Another challenge facing the 2024 Mountaineers will be replacing a face-off core who finished third nationwide for face-off percentage, winning 61.4 percent of engagements.

>>> Connor Beals was the primary face-off specialist, taking 65.1 of chances (205-for-315) en route to winning top MAAC honors.

>>> Of the group who participated in face-offs last year, only Ethan Holobinko is still on the team. Three newcomers (Jaden Saysanam, Winston Chodnicki, Klaus Anger) will all fight for the job.

>>> With Saysanam injured, the duties have fallen to Holobinko and Chodnicki, who are looking to improve on ranking 69th of 73 teams with a .380 percentage. Holobinko went 10-for-19 in faceoffs in the win over Wagner.

CONFERENCE: 92-15

CHAMPIONSHIPS

- NCAA Division II Champions (2011)
- NCAA Division II Runner-Up (2007, 2013, 2023)
- NCAA Semifinalist (2003, 2004, 2006, 2012, 2021)
- ECAC Semifinalist (2015)
- NCAA Quarterfinalist (2014)
- NCAA Tournament (2016, 2019, 2022)
- GMAC Champions (2019, 2021)

Chris Ryan was named the sixth coach in men's lacrosse history in July 2023.

Ryan comes to Emmitsburg after a storied career with Mercyhurst University. At the helm of the Lakers' program since 2000, Ryan has led Mercyhurst to an impressive run over the past two decades. His teams went 268-69 and took home the Division II national championship in 2011, defeating Adelphi to take home the hardware. This past season, he helped lead the Lakers to the D-II national title game, using an upset of #1 Le Moyne in the semifinals to achieve the feat. Mercyhurst finished the year with a mark of 16-3, won its third Great Midwest Athletic Conference Championship (GMAC) in four seasons, and advanced to its fourth straight NCAA Tournament.

Mercyhurst won nine conference championships in his tenure, winning titles in the NYAC, East Coast Conference, Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference and GMAC during Ryan's tenure. This helped the team punch their ticket to the NCAA Tournament 12 times, making at least the semifinals on nine occasions.

In addition to his time on Mercyhurst's campus, he works on the staff of the Waterdogs, a Premier Lacrosse League squad.

A member of various committees during his coaching career, he serves at present on the USILA Division II All-American committee, holding the post since 2019. Further administrative accomplishments include representation for Division II to the USILA from 2006-11, and the NCAA Division II Regional Advisory Committee from 2006-08.

Originally from Rochester, New York, Ryan earned recruitment out of Irondequoit High School to Monroe Community College in the same city. After two seasons there, he competed for the Randolph-Macon Yellow Jackets out of Ashland, Virginia, graduating from the school in 1998.
