MISSISSIPPI STATE SOCCER

2016 GAME NOTES | GAME 17 | #HAILSTATE

Road Dawgs

The Bulldogs went undefeated on the road in non-conference play, as MSU has earned a 3-0-0 record as the visiting squad. The three road wins out of conference are the most since 2009 for MSU.

Non-Conference Success

MSU earned a winning record in non-conference play for the first time since 2012, as the Maroon and White finished 5-2-0 out of conference.

Own Goal Winner

In the 50th minute of a scoreless game between MSU and USM, junior Ari Holmes sent a throw in into the box which found its way into the goal after bouncing off a Golden Eagle player. The own goal was enough for the win as MSU left Hattiesburg with the 1-0 victory.

Jags Upset No. 1

After falling to MSU on Sept. 2, South Alabama has followed up the loss with a pair of 1-0 wins against No. 1 Florida State and SEC foe Ole Miss.

Double-Overtime Thriller

Trailing 1-0 to defending Sun Belt champion South Alabama, sophomore Kennadi Carbin netted her first goal of the season to set up an overtime winner for freshman McKenna de Graaf. For de Graaf, the game was her first back from injury and her first start as a Bulldog. She sealed the comeback win in the 101st minute. The overtime win was MSU's first on the road since 2004.

August Improvement

Last season the Bulldogs were 0-4 in the month of August, as State managed to only score one goal in the first four games. This year, the Bulldogs posted a 2-2 mark with six goals scored over the same stretch.

Double Trouble For Adams

Before the Aug. 28th game against UT Martin, junior McKenzie Adams had only two assists for her career at MSU. The Madison, Miss., native doubled that total after her two-assist performance in the 3-1 win against UT Martin.

Waldner Playing Like A Vet

Freshman forward MaKayla Waldner has played above her class for the Bulldogs this season as the newbie has scored twice in her first four games for the Maroon and White to lead the team in goals.

Juniors Get Career Firsts

The junior duo of Khalyne Harmon and Kelly Dorney found their way into the scoring column for the first time after the pair scored against College of Charleston and UT Martin respectively.

All-Tournament Team Honors

Captain Mallory Eubanks, along with freshmen Johanna Hamblett and MaKayla Waldner each earned spots on the Charleston Classic All-Tournament Team in the opening weekend after their great performances on the pitch.

De Souza's 11 Saves Best In SEC

Junior Tanya de Souza kicked off the 2016 season tying her career-high in saves after stopping 11 shots against College of Charleston. The 11 saves are tied for first in the SEC with Georgia's Louise Hogrell, who saved 11 on the same night as de Souza on August 19.

Welcome To America

In her first collegiate game, New Zealand native Johanna Hamblett earned her first goal as a Bulldog. The freshman followed up that performance with an assist in her next game, as she aided MaKayla Waldner's score against No. 17 Virginia Tech.

Trio Named To SEC Watch List

Senior Ari Holmes, junior Mallory Eubanks and sophomore Carly Mauldin were each named to the SEC Preseason Watch List on Aug. 17 by the league's coaches after their outstanding play in the 2015 season.

Junior Team

Gordon's squad features 10 juniors on the roster, the most at any time during his tenure at MSU. Over his first three years, Gordon has had a combined total of seven before 2016's team.

Freshmen Presence

MSU welcomes eight newcomers to the roster in 2016, which is a low total compared to past seasons. Freshman Johanna Hamblett has received starts in every MSU game this season.

Friendly Fire

MSU netted four goals in their two preseason friendlies, as the Maroon and White downed Memphis 3-0 and Iowa State 1-0 to cap its scoring barrage.

When Mississippi State Director of Athletics Scott Stricklin was searching for the fourth head coach in Mississippi State soccer history, one name that repeatedly came up in his search was Aaron Gordon.

Hailed by many as one of the top up-and-coming coaches in the nation, Gordon was tabbed to take the reigns of the Bulldog soccer program on Nov. 27, 2012. Entering his fourth year at the helm, Gordon continues MSU's rise as a soccer program. Under the tutelage of Gordon, the Bulldogs have had three players earn postseason honors, including one SEC All-Freshman Team honor.

In 2015, Gordon led the Maroon and White to one of its most successful seasons in over a decade as the Bulldogs earned three wins and two draws in conference play. The season was filled with many accomplishments, with the first coming in Fayetteville as the Bulldogs downed Arkansas on the road for the first time in school history. Gordon's squad followed up that accomplishment by earning a pair of draws with Tennessee and Missouri, which was a first against either team in the series history. The highlight of 2015 came against Kentucky however; as the Bulldogs downed the 20th-ranked Wildcats, 3-0, for MSU's first ranked win since 2011.

Gordon made the move to Starkville following six seasons on the staff at Texas Tech University, where he was named associate head coach of the Red Raiders on Feb. 15, 2012, after five seasons as an assistant at the school. His time in Lubbock helped prepare him for his first college head coaching opportunity, as he oversaw all areas of the program, including recruiting, scouting, team training and video match analysis.

During his six-year tenure as a member of head coach Tom Stone's staff, the Red Raiders became a regular fixture around the top of the Big 12 Conference table.

The 2012 season, his final at Texas Tech, was a record-setting one for the Red Raiders. The team won a school-record 16 games, advanced to the semifinals of the Big 12 Tournament for the first time, and made its first trip to the NCAA Tournament, where it advanced to the second round. The 2012 Red Raiders tallied 130 points behind 46 goals and 38 assists, and defensively registered an 0.97 goals-against average while posting 10 shutouts.

Texas Tech's 16-win campaign was the school's third-straight double-digit win season, another first for the program. During his time in Lubbock, Gordon helped the Red Raiders to more overall (60) and conference (23) wins than the previous nine years combined, and a spot in the Big 12 Tournament all six seasons. He helped mentor seven players to Big 12 All-Freshman honors, including the Big 12 Freshman of the Year two of the past three seasons, and five to First Team All-Big 12 accolades. During his tenure, he also helped mentor a pair of players that were selected to United States youth national teams.

Gordon stayed in the state of Texas following a three-year stint with his hometown FC Dallas of Major League Soccer. With the team, he served as the director of coaching for the second-largest youth club program in North Texas. Gordon moved back to the Lone Star State following a tenure as the top assistant for the Atlanta Beat of the WUSA. While there, he coordinated the daily training schedule and served as head of scouting and video analysis among other duties.

He joined the Beat following a stint as director of coaching for Dallas Inter Soccer Club, where he oversaw a program that won numerous state and regional championships. In addition to his duties at Dallas Inter, Gordon also served as head coach of the Women's Texas Lightning team of the W-League, guiding the program to back-to-back United States Amateur Championships.

The Dallas native prepped at Lake Highlands High School before going on to Hardin Simmons University. He transferred to the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg before coming back to his home state in 1997 to receive his B.S. in Kinesiology from the University of North Texas. After college, Gordon played professionally in the USL, where he led the indoor league in goals in 1996.

Gordon, who holds a USSF "A" License and a USSF Goalkeeper Diploma, spent a tenure as the head coach for the 93 Region 3 ODP team.

SEC Offensive Player of the Week

Auburn's Casie Ramsier, a senior midfielder from Dallas, Texas, scored the game-winning goal in the 82nd minute against 12th-ranked Arkansas, sending Auburn to its sixth-consecutive SEC win, matching a program record set in 2004. She drew double teams consistently through the night and distributed away from pressure for the full 90 minutes. Ramsier became the program's all-time leader in shots (250) and scored her ninth career game-winning goal, moving into third on the program's all-time chart. She scored her 29th career goal moving into a tie for fourth in program history. Auburn has won all six matches in which Ramsier has notched either a goal or assist in 2016.

SEC Defensive Player of the Week

South Carolina's Kaleigh Kurtz, a senior defender from Greer, S.C., played all 102 minutes in the 1-0 double overtime win against No. 17 Florida. Kurtz led a backline that helped shut out the Gators, who entered the weekend with an SEC-leading 2.77 goals per match. She helped hold Florida to four shots on goal, including just two over the final 57 minutes. UF did not record a shot at all in overtime. South Carolina has earned shutouts against six of its eight SEC opponents this season. Kurtz is the only Gamecock to play all 732 minutes in league play this season.

SEC Freshman of the Week

Missouri's Sarah Luebbert, a freshman forward from Jefferson City, Mo., scored both Mizzou goals in the Tigers' 2-1 win over Vanderbilt on Oct. 14. She put Missouri ahead with a tally in the 14th minute then, with the score tied, slotted home the game-winner in the 59th minute to give Mizzou its 10th win of the season. Luebbert's four points against the Commodores upped her season point total to 21, the most for a Tiger since the 2010 season. She leads the Tigers with those 21 points on nine goals and three assists.

Other Notes

- South Carolina is enjoying the program's highest position in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America poll with a No. 2 ranking this week. Auburn moved up to No. 11 while Arkansas comes in at No. 15. Florida is ranked for the 53rd consecutive week, coming in at No. 20. Missouri is among the teams receiving votes.
- South Carolina's .967 winning percentage on the season is the best in the nation. The Gamecocks are one of two teams (Bucknell 12-0-1) without a loss on the season.
- Entering the week, Arkansas' Claire Kelley leads the nation with 12 assists and with 0.75 assists per game.
- Florida's Savannah Jordan is fifth in the nation with 2.21 points per game (12 goals and 7 assists) this season. Her 77 career goals trail only Abby Wambach's 96 (1998-01) for the second-most in SEC history and rank among to top 25 all-time in NCAA history.
- Three SEC student-athletes who excel both on and off the field were selected as candidates for the 2016 Senior CLASS Award in soccer. Auburn's Casie Ramsier joined Florida's Meggie Dougherty Howard and Savannah Jordan on the list. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition.
- Nine SEC women's soccer teams have earned the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Team Academic Award for exemplary performance in the classroom as a team during the 2015-16 academic year. To qualify for the award, the team must have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 or higher for the entire academic year.
