HELMET HISTORY

Mississippi State has implemented the use of white helmets instead of maroon headgear during certain periods of its football history. Archives show that the white helmets were utilized exclusively by the team from 1951-62 and 1966-73. MSU has also wore the white headgear in seven games during the 2000-2003 seasons before again switching permanently in 2004. State's record when wearing white helmets is 81-136-9 (.378).
