PRESEASON MEDIA CONFERENCE

MSU will hold its annual preseason media conference, Thursday, August 7, at 12:00 noon, at the Bryan Athletic Administration Building media conference room. Head coach Sylvester Croom will address the media and take questions for 30 minutes, after which selected players will be available for approximately 30 minutes for interview purposes in the Bryan Building. Contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for specific player requests.

* - Please call the MState Athletic Media Relations office for daily practice schedules.
 - Daily practice will be held the week of August 17 - August 24. Game week preparations and applicable schedules will begin on Monday, August 25.

SYLVESTER CROOM INTERVIEWS

All interviews with head football coach Sylvester Croom should be directed through the MSU Athletic Media Relations office. Please contact Joe Galbraith at 662-325-2703 to arrange an interview time. The head coach prefers that all interviews be conducted on Monday.

Croom has three scheduled interview opportunities during game-week and media representatives are encouraged to make use of these question-and-answer situations. Croom is also generally available before or after practice, but media members must coordinate those opportunities through Galbraith.

MONDAY TELECONFERENCE (MSU)

MSU will conduct a Monday teleconference with coach Croom at 10:00 a.m. (CT). This is generally a 30-minute conference call that reviews the previous week's game; however, the upcoming game's media is encouraged to use this opportunity to speak to the MSU head coach. Contact the MSU Media Relations office for the teleconference number.

TUESDAY PRESS CONFERENCE (MSU)

Coach Croom will conduct a weekly media conference each Tuesday prior to an MSU game. The conference will be conducted at the Bryan Athletic Administration Building. Coach Croom's press conference begins at 1:00 p.m. (CT). Selected players will be available following Croom's presentation (at approximately 1:30 p.m.). To request specific players, media members must contact Joe Galbraith in the MSU Media Relations Office (662-325-2703) by 3:00 p.m. the Monday preceding each respective media conference.

WEDNESDAY TELECONFERENCE (SEC)

Coach Croom will join the league's other 11 coaches on the SEC's Wednesday teleconference. Coach Croom's seven-minute segment is scheduled from 11:03-11:10 a.m. (CT). The teleconference phone number can be obtained by calling the SEC or the MSU Media Relations Office. The SEC provides an archived copy of the teleconference at www.secsports.com for media replay.

WEEKLY PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our players are encouraged; however, all interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Media Relations Office. This policy facilitates the orderly scheduling and completion of the desired interview. During game week, all player interviews must be conducted by Tuesday evening and need to be arranged at least 24 hours in advance. Please coordinate all requests with Joe Galbraith in the MSU Athletic Media Relations office.

MSU Athletic Media Relations will not supply the media home or cellular telephone numbers for Bulldog student-athletes. Likewise, training room, locker room and apartment/dormitory areas are considered private player areas and are off-limits to the media.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

The first six periods (until "team" periods) of MSU's spring, preseason and fall practice sessions are open to the media (print media, still photo & TV video). Media must remain on the sidelines during this practice time as an injury precautionary measure. Coach Croom will be available to the media following the practice session on the practice field or in the Palmeiro Center. Media requesting practice reports should contact the Athletic Media Relations office.

Assistant coaches and players may be interviewed prior to, and after practice at the Shira Athletic Complex. Contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations office to arrange this time. Players MAY NOT be interviewed after Tuesday night during a game week.

When the Bulldogs are on the road, the media may attend any "walk-through" preparations and interview coaches provided they have contacted the MSU Athletic Media Relations office in advance.

MSU ON THE INTERNET

Visit the official Mississippi State Athletics home page on the Internet at: http://www.mstateathletics.com. The site provides updated statistics, game notes and other pertinent football information to visitors as well as live statistics and audio links for all of MSU's home football games and selected road contests.

An abbreviated transcription of head football coach Sylvester Croom's Tuesday press conference each week is available on MSU's athletic web site. Maroon To The Max, MSU's premium area on the web site, carries Croom's Tuesday press conference live for media members who subscribe to the site and cannot attend the conference in person. M2M also covers selected preseason and game-week football practices, including post-practice interviews with the Bulldog head coach.

The site also offers up-to-date information on all of State's 16 varsity sports, including schedules and results, player and coach biographies as well as the latest news from the MSU athletic program. Links to the NCAA, the Southeastern Conference and the other 11 SEC schools are also provided.

MEDIA WILL CALL

A media will call window will be operated on game days at the Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field Ticket Office (south end zone) for the distribution of credentials which have not been mailed. Proper ID will be required.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of season and individual-game parking spaces reserved for the media are available just west of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, no motor homes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking. Parking pass requests for satellite trucks should be made at least one week in advance.

HOTEL ROOMS

The Athletic Media Relations office has a limited number of rooms reserved for media use during the 2008 football season. As you make plans for this season and need assistance with accommodations, please contact our office as soon as possible.

REAL-TIME INTERNET POLICY

Mississippi State retains the rights to the distribution of play-by-play, drive-by-drive, statistical material and photographs of MSU football during, and for 30 minutes following, game action, just as it retains the rights to the video and audio description of game action. All rights to the dissemination of audio, video and real-time material is granted on a contractual basis only. Failure to abide by these restrictions may result in revocation of press credentials.

MSU SATELLITE SERVICES

MSU's weekly football media conference, highlights and game preview material, and postgame highlights of the Bulldogs' six home games in 2008 will be available to television outlets via satellite. For more information on MSU's satellite and television services, please contact Bennie Ashford (662-325-1332).

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Mississippi State's six home football games in 2008 must be made through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Mike Nemeth (via mail: P.O. Box 5308, Mississippi State, MS 39762, or by fax, 662-325-2563). Credential requests received via e-mail will only be granted to media representatives that regularly cover Mississippi State football or their weekly opponents.

Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers, radio stations and television stations which cover MSU football on a regular basis. Due to space limitations, weekly publications, non-broadcasting radio representatives and on-line services may not be granted credentials. Student publications, radio stations and web sites that do not regularly cover MSU or its opponent, will be limited to one working media credential and/or one sideline photo pass, if applicable. Other credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers, and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box. Media credential holders who violate this policy risk forfeiture of future credentials. Media credentials must be requested at least 48 hours prior to the requested game.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the sideline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respective areas. Press box or sideline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and news organizations who allow credentials to fall into improper hands will have the credentials revoked for the remainder of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee and the SEC regarding sideline control to insure the sideline is a working media area. The following guidelines are adhered to:

1.) Each photographer is required to wear an armband.

2.) Armbands must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup, at the base of the media elevator at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. Display the photo credential to the media relations representative there and receive an armband with a corresponding number. Both the credential and the armband must be worn on the field.

3.) After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area, on the playing field, or in the 12-foot area between the photo limit line and sideline.

4.) In accordance with NCAA policies, no freelance photographers will be credentialed.

5.) Cutline writers, messengers and equipment carriers are not permitted in the sideline armband area. Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing field. This will insure that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.

6.) Tripods are not permitted in the sideline armband area. Monopods are permissible.

7.) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

MSU officials will recognize the NCAA's 10-minute cooling-off period following each MSU game this season, home and away. Head coach Sylvester Croom and selected players will be available for postgame interview purposes following each game on the second floor of the Seal M-Club Center at the south end of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. MSU players may not be approached on the field following games for interviews.

Croom's portion of the press conference may also be viewed in the press box on the MSU TV Center channel on press box television monitors.

The visiting head coach and players will be available following the cooling-off period in the interview room adjacent to the visitor's locker room. This media opportunity will be coordinated by the visiting SID and MSU Media Relations personnel.

The Robert M. Hartley Press Box, named for longtime Mississippi State Sports Information Director and administrator Bob Hartley, is located on the 200 level of the west side of Davis Wade Stadium. To access the press box, enter Gate 5 on the west side of Davis Wade Stadium and take the media elevator to Level 2.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

MSU provides ample work space in the 144-seat Bob Hartley Press Box for members of the print media as well as booth accommodations for radio networks and originating telecasts. Post-game work space is available in both the open-air seating area of the press box or in the climate-controlled work area adjacent to the seating area.

STATISTICS

Complete individual and team stats, play-by-play and post-game quotes will be available to the media following each game. One hour prior to kickoff, media packets containing a game program, flipcard, updated stats and game notes will be distributed in the media working area.

An internal public address system will provide updated notes and information during the game. A post-game fax service is also available upon request.

TELEPHONES

A limited number of telephones are available for media use in the press box on a first-come, first-served basis. Private lines are recommended for those working under tight deadlines and may be ordered through BellSouth (1-800-622-0644 [out of state] or 662-557-6000 [in Mississippi]). Instruct BellSouth personnel to install the line in the press box at Scott Field, B.S. Hood Drive, on the MSU campus.

Please notify the Media Relations office when ordering private lines so that phone line installation and seat location can be coordinated.

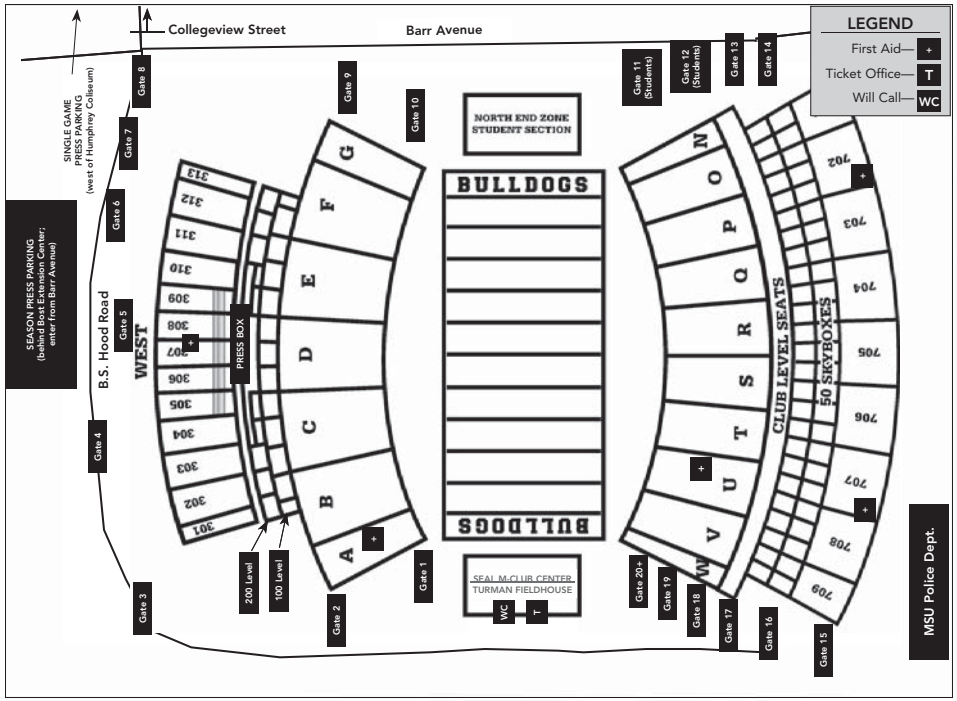

ETHERNET/WIRELESS CONNECTIVITY

A limited number of Ethernet connections are available for photographic transmission in the climate-controlled area of the press box. These connections are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis to photographers requesting the service. All Ethernet lines are NOT reserved by any media entity and may be shared when not in use.

The press box is equipped with wireless internet access. To gain access to the wireless internet, media members must have a wireless card on their computer.

MEALS

A pre-game meal is served on the second floor of the Seal M-Club Building (south end of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field) beginning three hours before kickoff with a light snack available in the press box at halftime. A stub on your credential, or an all-sports pass, is required for the pre-game meal.

Dr. Vance Watson

Interim President

Alma Mater: Southeast Missouri State, 1964

Named Interim President of Mississippi State last April, Vance Watson assumed the top leadership role after a career of progressively responsible positions at the land-grant university.

Most recently, he served as vice president of the Division of Agriculture, Forestry and Veterinary Medicine; dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences; director of the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station; executive director of Extension and Outreach; and professor of agronomy.

He earned his undergraduate degree from Southeast Missouri State University in his native state, followed by a master's degree at the University of Missouri and a doctorate from Mississippi State. He has invested his 42-year career in the institution and the state he has come to call 'home.'

Under his leadership, the Division of Agriculture, Forestry and Veterinary Medicine gained an eighth-place ranking for total research and development expenditures, and a third-place ranking for federal expenditures, as calculated by the National Science Foundation. Units making up the division include the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station, Mississippi State University Extension Service, Forest and Wildlife Research Center, College of Veterinary Medicine, College of Forest Resources, and the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences.

Watson was instrumental in the establishment of a number of interdisciplinary research efforts, including one that led to a sustainable energy research partnership between the Bagley College of Engineering and the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences. He played a key role in securing a commitment for a collaborative poultry research facility that will house research scientists from MSU, USDA, and the Agricultural Research Service— USDA's research arm. The latter will provide more opportunities to assist an important segment of Mississippi's economy.

Within the division, he advocated a faculty mentoring program to help enhance the success and contributions of junior faculty members, and as Interim President, seeks to expand the concept university-wide.

An Eagle Scout, he also is a Fellow of the American Society of Agronomy and a Fellow of the Crop Science Society of America. He has received the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation Distinguished Service Award, the Southern Association of Agricultural Experiment Station Directors' 2007 Excellence in Leadership Award, and numerous other awards and honors.

He and his wife, Jo Ann, have three children and seven grandchildren.

1964-1966	Research Assistant, Department of Agronomy, University of Missouri

Greg Byrne

Director of Athletics

Alma Mater: Arizona State, 1994

When Greg Byrne was named Mississippi State University's 15th Director of Athletics on February 21, 2008, he became the youngest top current athletic administrator in the Southeastern Conference. At 36 years of age, he became the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level.

Despite his age, Byrne is anything but inexperienced. He has been around successful athletic programs, and the director's chair at those institutions, literally all his life. He is the son of long-time athletic administrator Bill Byrne, currently the Director of Athletics at Texas A&M University.

Byrne, however, has made a name for himself in intercollegiate athletics. He has 15 years of professional experience, a resume' that shows progressive growth in both responsibility and achievement. He has been directly involved in raising over $120 million in gifts during his career in athletics. He has finalized and implemented an annual giving renovation for athletics at three different institutions. Byrne has also helped in the reorganization of the athletic program at one school while renovating the department's budgeting systems, development, marketing, and compliance programs. Byrne was on the ground floor of resurrecting a football program and athletic department at another institution, one that achieved success for the first time in three decades.

Prior to being named to head State's athletic program, Byrne came to MSU in June 2006 as Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs. In just his first year on the job, Byrne initiated a first-ever volunteer fund-drive that resulted in 969 new Bulldog Club members for Mississippi State. He implemented a priority seating program for football and men's basketball that led to a $1 million increase in annual giving. He also led the effort to package State's donor and ticketing software, in connection with the department's athletic web site, for fan convenience. In so doing, MSU became the first Bowl Championship Series school to enlist XOS Technologies for total donor support in those areas.

Byrne held a similar position at the University of Kentucky prior to coming to Starkville. As Associate Athletic Director for Development and Fund-Raising at UK from 2002-05, he managed the development staff and operated a multi-million dollar budget. He oversaw development efforts that raised annual gifts from $4 million to $9 million annually. While in Lexington, Byrne led a $35 million athletic facility campaign, and participated in the design, funding and marketing for Kentucky's $30 million basketball practice facility. He worked with a corporate sponsorship team to manage UK marketing and development efforts, including signing one of the nation's top multi-media rights packages. Byrne was one of four members on the UK search committees that brought new head football and baseball coaches to the Wildcat athletic program.

Byrne possibly made his greatest athletic program impact as Associate Athletic Director for Development at Oregon State University from 1998-2002. Managing an eight-person staff, he replaced an antiquated 60-year old fund-raising organization and increased annual giving from $1 million to over $5 million in cash during his tenure there. He assisted the Director of Major Gifts in raising more than $30 million in capital gifts for facilities and budget enhancement while in Corvallis. He participated in securing a $12.5 million gift to rename the Beavers' football stadium. Byrne was involved in the department's transition of corporate sponsorships for radio, television, stadium and arena signage and game program sales to increase revenue.

Byrne began his athletic fund-raising career as Regional Director of Development at the University of Oregon from 1995 through '98, overseeing development efforts for Portland, Southern and Central Oregon, Northern California and the Oregon coast. He secured the largest donation totals ever for each region during his U of O career. While overseeing the Duck's letterman's organization, he participated in raising $14 million for an indoor football facility and soccer complex.

The energetic Byrne launched his professional career as Special Projects Coordinator for the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz., from 1993-95. During that time, he managed a 1,000-person volunteer base for 63 Fiesta Bowl annual events. Byrne was promoted to a full-time position following an initial internship period.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994. He anticipates receiving his master's degree from Mississippi State this summer.

Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons: Nick (12) and Davis (10).

From the opening whistle to the final horn, the color and excitement that is Mississippi State football will fill the airwaves across the Mid-South thanks to the MSU Football Radio Network. Linking 35 radio stations, the satellite-fed broadcast signal blankets the Magnolia State from affiliates on the Gulf Coast to a network outlet on the Tennessee border. Network programming is distributed and coordinated through the facilities of TeleSouth Communications, Inc., headquartered in Jackson, Miss.

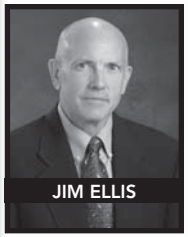

Anchoring the MSU broadcasts and returning for his 55th season behind the microphone is the personable "Voice of the Bulldogs" Jack Cristil. Cristil is a veteran of more than an estimated 1,700 MSU athletic broadcasts.

The 2008 season marks the 30th year of work for two other veteran members of the MSU football broadcasting team, color analyst Jim Ellis and reporter John Correro.

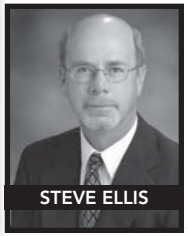

A native of West Point, Miss., and a 1969 graduate of Mississippi State, Ellis hosts MSU's post-game locker room interview and scoreboard radio shows in addition to his duties as color analyst. An Associate Athletic Director at MSU, he was selected as the "Outstanding Broadcaster in Mississippi" in 1999 and 2002, and is perhaps most widely recognized as the "Voice of the Diamond Dogs" on one of the nation's largest college baseball radio networks. He also serves as color analyst on the MSU basketball radio broadcasts.

The Greenwood, Miss., native Correro is a former three-year football letterman at MSU (1959-61). He recently retired as Director of Alumni Affairs and is the secretary-treasurer of the MSU M-Club Alumni Association.

Entering his 18th season with MSU's radio crew is Steve Ellis. A native of Columbus, Miss., Ellis assumed color duties for State football when veteran Jim Ellis moved to Comcast Cable television for a tape-delay broadcast of MSU's games from 1999-2001. Steve, who serves as Broadcast Coordinator for WMSV-Radio, State's on-campus radio station, serves as the studio host for the halftime show of each Bulldog game. He is also the host of the regionally-syndicated show Southeastern Drive Time.

JACK CRISTIL

Jack Cristil has served as the MState sole football play-by-play broadcaster for 54 years, calling over 500 games for the Bulldogs. Cristil has also broadcast MSU basketball games since the 1957-58 season.

Born December 10, 1925, in Memphis, Tenn., Cristil grew up with the dream of becoming a radio broadcaster, often simulating games outside his boyhood Memphis home. After graduating from Memphis' L.C. Humes High School in 1943, Cristil served as a member of the Army Air Corps during World War II.

In 1947-48, Cristil studied broadcast journalism at the University of Minnesota before returning home to Memphis. He landed his first job in broadcasting in 1948 as a minor league baseball announcer in Jackson, Tenn. Over the next five years, he would also hold that position with teams in Anniston, Ala., Clarksdale, Miss., and Memphis.

After two years with the AA Memphis Chicks of the Southern League, Cristil moved back to Clarksdale and broadcast local high school football and basketball games for WROX, where he had worked previously.

It was August of 1953 when Cristil sent audition tapes in to Mississippi State when he heard of a job opening. MSU athletic director C.R. "Dudy" Noble hired Cristil that fall and he began his current career with the start of the 1953 football season.

From 1955-85, Cristil also served as play-by-play announcer (broadcasting games for Tupelo High School and Itawamba Junior College) and advertising salesman for WELO radio in Tupelo, Miss, where he has resided since '55. He also served as sales manager for WTVA television in Tupelo beginning in 1986.

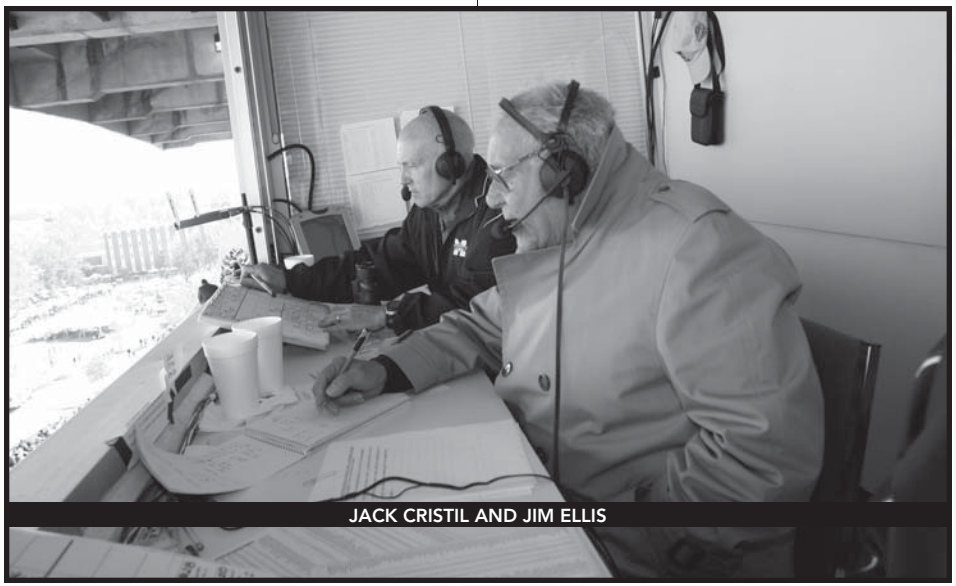

A winner of numerous broadcasting laurels during his career, Cristil was honored with the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award in 1997 (the longtime ABC announcer was the initial recipient in 1996) for excellence in college broadcasting.

In 1992, Cristil received the Ronald Reagan Lifetime Achievement Award and was also the first non-coach/non-athlete to ever be inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame that same year. Winner of the Mississippi Sportscaster of the Year Award a record 21 times, Cristil was named the Southeastern Conference's Broadcaster of the Year in 1988.

Cristil, who survives his late wife, Mavis, is the father of two daughters, Kay Clouatre and Rebecca Newhall. He also has one grandson, Jake Clouatre, and one granddaughter, Lindsey Newhall.

It has acquired the nickname "Egg Bowl", but no invitations are issued, or required. Mississippi State University and the University of Mississippi have standing reservations each November to battle for school pride, bragging rights and a battered 81-year old trophy symbolizing football supremacy in the state of Mississippi.

One of the Deep South's great football rivalries, this feud between State and UM will be renewed a 105th time on Nov. 28, 2008, in Oxford.

Whether known as "The Battle for the Golden Egg", or just "State-Ole Miss", it is the most significant athletic event of each year in the Magnolia State. Seasons and careers are made and hearts broken by the outcome, and gameday finds no one in the state neutral on the subject.

In 1998, for the first time in 27 years, the Battle for the Golden Egg returned to Thanksgiving Day to accommodate a national television audience on ESPN and was carried by the nation's leading cable network for six-straight seasons on Thanksgiving from 1998-2003.

While then-Mississippi A&M began playing football in 1885, and Mississippi two years earlier, the schools did not meet until October 28, 1901. The Mississippi Rebels were returning from playing Alabama in Tuscaloosa, and stopped in Starkville for a game with the A&M Aggies. The inaugural meeting was contested on the south end of campus, on a field used until recently for practice by the Famous Maroon Band. The Aggies, who had played only seven previous football games, scored the first points in school history that day and shut out the visitors 17-0.

Thus began a rivalry that has only gotten fiercer with 100-plus years of seasoning. Ole Miss currently holds a 59-39-6 advantage, their margin largely built in the quarter-century between World War II and Vietnam. The series has been interrupted only twice, with no games from 1912-14 and in 1943.

However, there were two meetings in one season, in 1918, with A&M winning both: 34-0 at Starkville and 13-0 at Oxford.

But the game did not acquire its distinctive symbol, and thus the unique title, until 1927. It came about after Mississippi broke a 14-game losing streak to A&M on Nov. 25, 1926, in Starkville. Celebrating Rebel fans took the field to tear down the goal posts, angry Aggies attempted to protect them, and a general melee ensued. Hoping to prevent similar episodes in future years, both schools agreed that the winner of the annual game would take possession of a trophy.

The next year's game debuted a regulation-size, gold-plated football mounted on a pedestal where the outcome of each year's game would be recorded. Because the trophy was shaped as the standard, more rounded ball of the day, it eventually came to be called the "Golden Egg." Today it is awarded immediately following every Battle for the Golden Egg, and proudly paraded on-field by the victors.

The series' commonly used title "Egg Bowl" was hatched in the 1970s when a newspaper sports editor wanted a shorter, distinctive name for the big game than "Battle for the Golden Egg". It seemed natural to call the annual MSU-UM meeting a "bowl" game and to title it after the prize.

The Battle for the Golden Egg has been played on 10 different fields in seven different cities, but since 1922 has been contested only on the respective campuses or in the state capital of Jackson. There have been 34 games played in Starkville, 32 in Oxford, and 30 in Jackson. The Jackson mark includes a run of 18 consecutive years, from 1973-90, at Mississippi Veteran's Memorial Stadium.

The series returned to campus in 1991, in Starkville, with host MSU taking a 24-9 win. The Bulldogs lead the series 9-8 since the return to on-campus games 17 years ago.

BUILDING ON THE POST-SEASON

2008 MSU Preseason Outlook

If the Mississippi State football program turned the proverbial corner in 2007, one need only analyze how each of the last two Bulldog teams reached their final record to test that hypothesis.

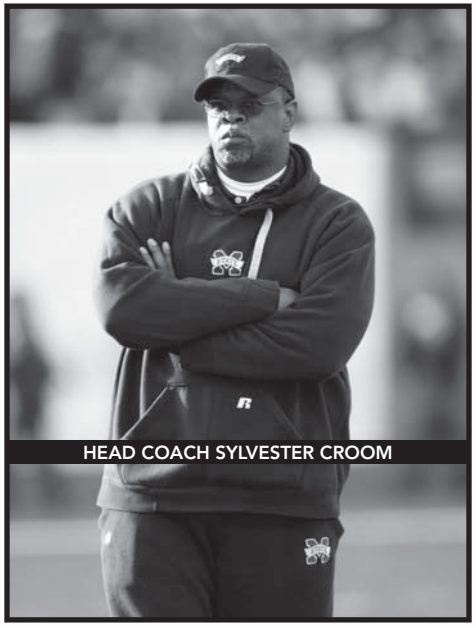

In 2006, State lost four games by a field goal, leaving what could have been a successful season in 3-9 ruins. Even in narrow defeat, MSU head coach Sylvester Croom knew his team was close. Last year, the slogan "one play, this play" was born. Croom knew that if his team could make that one critical play each game, close losses could become close wins.

This past season, the Bulldogs won eight games, including an AutoZone Liberty Bowl triumph for the team's first winning season and post-season bowl reward in seven years. In so doing, Croom's team won all three games that were decided by a touchdown or less.

In 2007, MState defeated Auburn, Kentucky and Alabama, all nationally ranked at some point in the season and each a bowl team, plus arch-rival Ole Miss to recapture the Egg Bowl trophy. That win spurred the team to the Liberty Bowl, where the Bulldogs beat Conference USA champion Central Florida.

That '07 club returned 14 starters overall, nine on offense and five on defense, so experience was critical in reversing the outcomes of those close games.

Croom and his staff have the advantage of 13 returning regulars, plus all of their specialists, this year. So, experience is again on hand as the team heads into 2008 with a whole new set of challenges and expectations.

HEAD COACH SYLVESTER CROOM

OFFENSE

Mississippi State returns six starters to its offense, and now has quality depth in virtually all areas. A total of 14 players on that side of the ball have earned at least one starting call at some point during their careers.

The Bulldogs have two returning starters on the offensive line, one of the team's top wide receivers, and all three backs as the season begins. It is only at tight end where inexperience and a lack of that quality depth currently reside.

Anthony Strauder (6-3, 290, Sr.) has now played in 35 career games, starting 30 times at offensive guard. He has played every snap 13 times and opens the season at his customary spot on the left side.

A starter also returns at right guard, whether one considers Craig Jenkins (6-4, 315, Jr.), who has started 23 of the 25 games he has played in his career, or Michael Gates (6-4, 305, Sr.), who has started nine times, including the final two of last season. Gates will open the fall first on the depth chart there.

Jamayel Smith (6-0, 183, Sr.) has played in 24 games with 10 starts in the wide receiver rotation, seven of those coming last fall. He has made 53 catches for 845 yards, a 15.9-yard average, and five touchdowns during his career.

Halfback Anthony Dixon (6-1, 240, Jr.) highlights a backfield long on experience and ability. After just two seasons, Dixon already ranks among the school's all-time leaders in all ball-carrying statistics. His 456 career carries are the sixth most ever at State, his 1,734 yards are 15th on the school's all-time list, and his 23 rushing touchdowns are fifth on that State chart.

Fullback Brandon Hart (5-11, 240, Sr.) has played in 34 career games, earning five starts, four of which came last fall. Like Gates at guard, he started the final two games of the '07 season and opens the fall atop the depth chart lined up in front of Dixon.

Quarterback Wesley Carroll (6-1, 190, So.) played in all 13 games with nine starts as a true freshman a year ago. He posted a 6-3 record as the team's starting signal-caller, and was also on the field during the late-game deciding touchdown drive at Auburn.

OFFENSIVE LINE

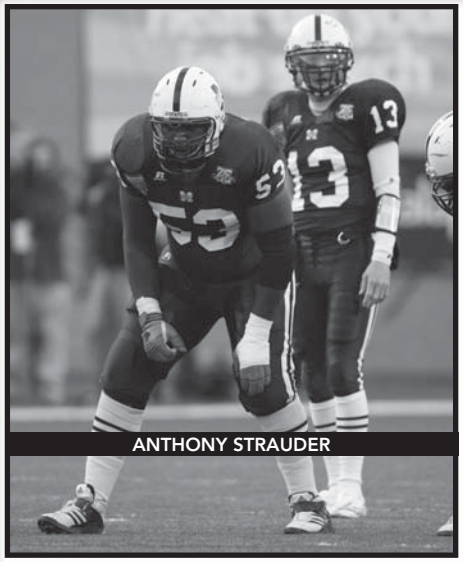

Strauder, and the Gates/Jenkins combination provide a veteran nucleus around which to build the offensive line and experienced depth, as well as youthful promise, are available along the offensive front.

Strauder started all 13 times at left guard and graded out at 80 percent or better 10 times during the regular season, including six straight to finish '07. He is a heady performer who is long on experience.

Gates only started two games last fall, but they were the season-ending wins over Ole Miss and Central Florida. He hit the 80 percent blocking mark eight times on the year, including seven times in the last eight regular season games.

Jenkins started the first 11 games at right guard and scored 80 percent or better eight times, as well.

Derek Sherrod (6-5, 298, So.) played in all but two games for the Bulldogs at right tackle last year and, despite not earning a collegiate start, was splitting playing time with then-senior starter J.D. Hamilton by the end of the season. Sherrod assumes the starter's role at left tackle in place of the departed Michael Brown to open 2008.

It is at center, though, that Mississippi State must find a proven replacement for a departed team co-captain and multi-year regular in Royce Blackledge.

A spring injury and the resulting surgery took Johnny Carpenter (6-2, 290, Jr.), who served as Blackledge's chief back-up for two seasons, out of the competition at center. Carpenter has played in eight games during his career, including five times as a sophomore. His previous time on the field has been interrupted at times due to injury, and the spring surgery just further confuses his availability.

Even before Carpenter's injury and absence, the coaching staff moved J.C. Brignone (6-1, 290, So.) to bolster depth at center during the off-season. Brignone, like the aforementioned Sherrod, played in 11 games as a freshman and was essentially splitting time with the guards by the close of '07, and he adapted well to the move to center.

Another player who has seen game action returns at tackle, but Mark Melichar (6-5, 284, So.) moved to the top of the depth chart at right tackle following spring ball. He played in eight games as a reserve tackle and showed in just his first season that he would be a dependable option along the offensive line. He must now shoulder more responsibility.

The coaching staff is eager to see a bevy of young linemen with bright futures continue their maturation process as '08 opens.

Highly regarded athlete Quentin Saulsberry (6-3, 286, RFr.) will push Melichar at right tackle. Saulsberry started his Bulldog career on the defensive side of the ball, but he was a highly decorated offensive lineman in the Mississippi high school ranks who had a productive spring.

Program veteran Chris Spencer (6-3, 305, Jr.) will get the first chance to work behind Sherrod at left tackle. He has seen practice time all along the offensive line and continues to be listed as a reserve at guard and center, as well.

Phillip Freeman (6-6, 290, Jr.) was a mid-year junior college transfer who the coaching staff had hoped could gain a year of seasoning before hitting the game field. A solid spring and an opening at left tackle, however, may make that choice impossible. Freeman was a two-time, all-state JC performer who was rated among the top two-year offensive linemen available by at least one national organization.

The aforementioned Carpenter and Spencer will provide experienced depth at guard.

Another highly regarded young player will factor heavily at center, as well. D.J. Looney (6-1, 290, RFr.) was ranked among the best high school center prospects in the nation a year ago. He will open the fall behind Brignone.

Addison Lawrence (6-4, 265, RFr.), Dakota Merritt (6-5, 302, RFr.) and non-scholarship player John McMillan (6-2, 285, So.) will look to establish themselves as dependable reserves at left tackle, right guard and center, respectively.

A trio of true freshmen will get their feet wet when fall drills open. Templeton Hardy (6-3, 295, Fr.) will begin his collegiate career at tackle, while Tobias Smith (6-3, 292, Fr.) starts his at guard. The third first-year performer, John Paul Alford (6-3, 280, Fr.) may have the beginning of his career slowed as he recovers from a high school knee injury.

RECEIVERS

Smith's two-year receiving numbers of 53 catches for 845 yards, a 15.9-yard average, and five touchdowns are not far off departed starter Tony Burks' team-leading figures (68-1,294,19.0-9) from the past two seasons. Smith will look to emerge from Burks' shadow and become the go-to receiver for State this year.

Smith, who started seven times last year, finished second on the team with 33 catches for 510 yards, a 15.5-yard average, and three touchdowns in '07. His 10-catch, 208-yard receiving day at Arkansas last fall tied for the second most receiving yards ever by a Bulldog.

Co-Eric Riley (6-1, 200, Sr.), a highly recruited junior college transfer a year ago, gets the first crack at Burks' slot. Riley caught eight passes (68 yards) in his debut season, but had a standout spring practice that more closely resembled the play he showed as a high school and junior college standout.

But those two players are not alone among the Bulldog stable of receivers with playing time and starting experience.

Aubrey Bell (6-3, 217, Sr.) and Brandon McRae (6-4, 200, Jr.) also return to the wide receiver picture and will push Smith and Riley for playing time this season.

Bell has played in 30 career games and drawn 11 starting calls. He made 14 catches for 186 yards, a 13.3-yard average, and a touchdown when he started eight times in multiple wide receiver sets. McRae, who had an outstanding spring a year ago, looks to build on that showing and the 13 games he played last fall. McRae had two catches for 50 yards on the year.

Like Freeman at tackle, another interesting prospect appeared for the first time this past spring in the wide receiver rotation.

O'Neal Wilder (6-5, 190, Fr.) originally signed with MState a year ago, but joined the football program this past January. A nagging injury limited his play this past spring, but the size and speed he brings to the position is hard to match. A track star for the Bulldogs when not on the gridiron, he played just two years of prep football.

First-year players Delmon Robinson (5-10, 180, Fr.), Charles Bailey (6-2, 173, Fr.) and possibly Terrance Davis (5-11, 180, Fr.), who will also be given a chance at quarterback, could factor in at wide receiver. Walk-ons Andrew Ellard (5-11, 180, Jr.) and Major Sosebee (6-2, 185, So.) will add to the receiving corps' depth.

For the first time in three years, the tight end position must be completely rebuilt. Three solid players – Eric Butler, Dezmond Sherrod, and co-captain Jason Husband – have all graduated.

The only player with any substantive work at the position, Brandon Henderson (6-1, 250, So.) is penciled in first on the depth chart. But with just two career games played to his credit, his experience is certainly limited.

Converted fullback Marcus Green (6-2, 230, RFr.) made the move over to tight end during the course of the '07 season and showed enough ability there to suggest a solid future is possible. He will open the fall behind Henderson.

January enrollee Nelson Hurst (6-4, 240, Fr.) had a prosperous first spring and could push Henderson and Green. Hurst made 46 catches for 806 yards and 13 touchdowns during a high school career in Indiana before joining MSU early.

Non-scholarship player Austin Wilbanks (6-3, 245, Jr.) and signee Kendrick Cook (6-3, 230, Fr.) will also compete for playing time.

RUNNING BACKS

Dixon gives the Bulldogs an all-SEC caliber back that is durable and powerful, yet displays deceptive speed. He rushed 287 times for 1,066 yards and 14 touchdowns as a sophomore. His rushing attempts were the most ever in a single season by a State back and he became just the seventh Bulldog ever to surpass 1,000 yards rushing in a season.

Dixon, who started 12 of the 13 games last fall, was third in the SEC in scoring touchdowns (14), the second highest total for one year in school history.

CHRISTIAN DUCRÉ

But Dixon is not MSU's only talented halfback. Christian Ducre' (6-0, 215, Jr.) came into his own in '07 as an alternative to Dixon. Ducre' displayed a slashing style to contrast Dixon's power, and gained 487 yards on 112 attempts and three touchdowns. Often, Dixon and Ducre' were paired together in the Bulldog backfield.

One player who began to tap his enormous potential this past spring was halfback Robert Elliott (6-0, 192, RFr.). The shifty speedster, who was highly recruited a year ago, could become the "home-run hitter" at running back that his high school career foretold.

And if Elliott doesn't produce that long-ball threat at halfback, converted defensive back Wade Bonner (5-10, 180, RFr.) just might. He showed elusiveness and pass-catching abilities this past spring and could fit in the rotation of running backs.

First-year performer ToJo Patterson (6-0, 190, Fr.) adds depth to the running back position, but could be ticketed for a redshirt.

A shoulder nerve injury sidelined fullback hopeful Eric Hoskins (5-10, 230, Sr.) this past spring and clouds his future. Hoskins, who came from nowhere to earn four starting assignments in '07, proved to be a devastating blocker and solid receiver out of the backfield.

But the effectiveness of the fullback position will hardly hinge on Hoskins' return from injury.

Hart became a hard-nosed blocker in his own right and improved as a pass receiver in Hoskins' mold as the '07 season unfolded. He played in all 13 games and earned four starts, including the season-concluding Ole Miss and Central Florida wins.

Arnil Stallworth (5-10, 205, Jr.), who opened his career as a halfback, makes the move to fullback with an eye on regaining substantial playing time. Stallworth missed the spring following off-season shoulder surgery.

WESLEY CARROLL

QUARTERBACKS

In a season of big stories for the Bulldogs, none was bigger than the development and play of Carroll, who came to Mississippi State in August 2007 and by the end of September was the team's first-unit quarterback. For his work, Carroll was named The Sporting News and the Coaches Freshman All-SEC quarterback.

Carroll completed 134-of-255 passes (.525) for 1,392 yards, nine touchdowns and seven interceptions. He opened his college career by throwing 137 passes without an interception, a school record for all quarterbacks and within one attempt of breaking the NCAA freshman record for passes without a pick.

And while Carroll may have been the Fall '07 story, junior college transfer walk-on quarterback Tyson Lee (5-11, 190, Jr.) was, without a doubt, the Spring '08 unfolding drama.

Lee quickly proved to a great study at QB and had a scintillating spring. Not only did he complete 31 of 45 passes (.689) for 328 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions, he earned a scholarship before the four-week session had concluded, and gave the coaching staff confidence that he could aid the quarterback position.

Chris Relf (6-3, 211, RFr.) remains under the coaching staff microscope. Relf progressed significantly during his redshirt season and had a solid spring. He is tremendously gifted athletically, and just needs more snaps in Croom's offense.

True freshman Davis, mentioned earlier with the wide receivers, is the fourth quarterback on the roster.

DEFENSE

The Bulldogs return seven starters to a defense that held eight opponents to 17 points or less, and may have even more seasoned depth than their offensive counterparts. No less than 13 defenders have earned starting calls during their tenure.

Like one year earlier, two starters return to the front four, but other experienced players are available, including three players who have won collegiate starts in their careers. Defensive tackles Jessie Bowman (6-1, 305, Sr.) and Kyle Love (6-1, 320, Jr.) are considered returning regulars up front.

Bowman made an immediate impact as a junior college transfer, starting nine times on the year. He made 26 tackles in the middle of the defense, with five and one-half coming behind the line of scrimmage (minus 13 yards), one a quarterback sack (minus 3 yards).

Love has now played in 21 career games, with a total of nine starts. He has made 24 tackles, including three and one-half for loss (minus 10 yards). Love has been a disruptive force in the middle, recovering a fumble and blocking a field goal in addition to his tackle numbers.

A pair of regulars also returns to the linebacker corps, an area that boasts both veteran leadership and youthful promise. Middle linebacker Jamar Chaney (6-1, 236, Sr.) and weak side backer Dominic Douglas (6-2, 227, Sr.) are veteran starters just behind the line of scrimmage.

An all-SEC selection, Chaney has now seen action in all 36 games of his career, with 26 opening assignments to his credit. He has played both inside and outside linebacker during his career and has registered 186 tackles during that time, 11 for losses totaling 32 yards. Chaney has made two and one-half quarterback sacks (minus 17 yards) and has been credited with one caused fumble and four pass deflections.

Like Bowman, Douglas burst upon the MSU scene last spring and had a solid first season in Maroon and White. Douglas, the state of Mississippi's top JUCO tackler two years ago, picked right up during nine starts at State.

Three starters and even more experience are prevalent throughout the defensive backfield.

The secondary will be highlighted by the return of one of the SEC's top all-around performers in Derek Pegues (5-10, 196, Sr.). The talented free safety has now played in all 36 games for the Bulldogs, earning 25 starts. Pegues has made 96 career tackles, including three and one-half for loss (minus 9 yards), and ranks fifth all-time at State in interception returns (10 for 218 yards, three touchdowns).

Keith Fitzhugh (5-11, 206, Sr.) will open the fall first on the depth chart at strong safety. Like Pegues, he has seen action in all 36 career games, and made 15 opening calls. He has made 130 total tackles, including seven for loss (minus 22 yards). Fitzhugh has made four career interceptions (22 yards in returns), six pass deflections, two caused fumbles and a pair of recoveries.

Cornerback starter Jasper O'Quinn (5-10, 185, Sr.) also returns to the secondary. He joined the Bulldog program last August and made an immediate impact as a junior college transfer. He played in all but one game for the Bulldogs last fall and started seven times.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Bowman and Love are difficult tackles to move in the middle of the defensive line, and the coaching staff has experienced personnel to spell the two returning starters.

Bowman played in 12 of 13 games and started nine times. He made 26 tackles, including five and one-half for loss (minus 13 yards), one of which was a quarterback sack (minus 3 yards).

Love played in all 13 games last fall and also started nine times. He made 17 tackles, including three and one-half for loss (minus 10 yards). Love also recovered one fumble and blocked a field goal try.

JESSIE BOWMAN

A third defensive tackle, built in the mold of Bowman and Love, saw action a year ago as a true freshman, and another has experience at both tackle and end.

LaMarcus Williams (6-1, 290, So.) had what could have been a prosperous true freshman season on campus short-circuited by a foot injury. Still, Williams played in all but two games for State, and managed one starting assignment. The coaching staff has high expectations for his future.

The player State's coaching staff would like to play at both defensive line positions is Cortez McCraney (6-4, 272, Sr.), who came to MSU as a defensive end but made his mark inside at tackle with his quickness.

McCraney, who opens the fall as a top reserve at both spots, played in all but one game last fall and started four times. He made 24 tackles, including four and one-half for loss (minus 19 yards), one of which was a quarterback sack (minus 9 yards).

Reggie Odom (6-0, 295, So.) and signees Joshua Jackson (6-3, 294, Fr.) and Devin Jones (6-2, 240, Fr.) will add depth to the tackle positions.

Tim Bailey (6-3, 241, Sr.), who has spent the past two years as a top reserve, first at linebacker and then at defensive end, will assume the rather large cleats of departed all-conference right defensive end Titus Brown.

Bailey has played in 24 career games, including all 13 last fall, and opened the Liberty Bowl win in place of Brown. Bailey made 25 tackles a year ago, including three for loss (minus 11 yards).

Another reserve defensive end in '07 who was impressive in injury-reduced activity will line up behind Bailey, but will push for playing time. Jimmie Holmes (6-3, 235, Sr.) managed to see work in 11 games. He had 21 tackles, including three and one-half for loss (minus 18 yards), two of which were quarterback sacks (minus 10 yards). In abbreviated work, he caused one fumble and recovered two others, ranking fourth in the SEC in that category.

Brandon Cooper (6-3, 240, So.) progressed as the '07 campaign unfolded and was a valuable substitute as his first year came to a close. He played in the final eight games of the season and made four tackles, but a solid spring has him at the top of the depth chart at left defensive end.

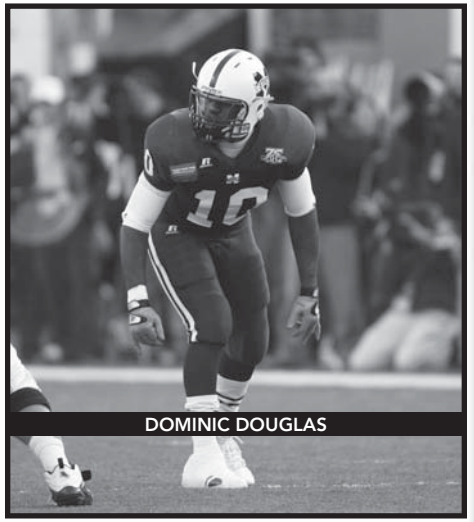

Charles Burns (6-3, 265, Sr.), who missed all of '07 with injury, but has seen game action at State, and signees Trevor Stigers (6-4, 225, Fr.), Shane McCardell (6-5, 220, Fr.) and Sean Ferguson (6-4, 225, Fr.) all could figure in the defensive end rotation.

LINEBACKER

In Chaney and Douglas, the Bulldogs have substantial experience returning at two of the three starting positions, but even more game time also returns, as do some of the team's most exciting young players.

Chaney earned second-team, all-SEC recognition from the league's coaches a year ago after starting 12 of the 13 games. He led the team with 89 tackles and had three and one-half for loss (minus 5 yards). Chaney tied for 15th in the conference in tackles per game.

Douglas started 11 times at weak side linebacker and finished second on the club with 78 tackles. He was also second on the team with eight tackles for loss (minus 27 yards), one of which was a quarterback sack (minus 9 yards).

DOMINIC DOUGLAS

Another veteran defender returns to the playing field intent on concluding his playing career after spending this past spring as a volunteer coach.

Anthony Littlejohn (6-1, 230, Sr.) is a fifth-year player who has seen considerable work with the Bulldogs. He has played in all 36 games of his career and earned 13 starts. Littlejohn has made 57 tackles, including eight for loss (minus 17 yards), two and one-half of which were sacks (minus 9 yards). He could be a valuable experienced reserve who also can play special teams.

While experience in the line backing corps gives the coaching staff comfort, a group of young 'backers with unlimited potential provides the excitement.

One of those youngsters gained experience in '07 as a true freshman. K.J. Wright (6-3, 215, So.) played in 10 straight games for the Bulldogs after hitting the field in Week 3. He registered seven tackles and recovered one fumble in mostly special teams' duty, at least until the final four weeks of the year. The coaching staff believes Wright could reach star status before his career is too old.

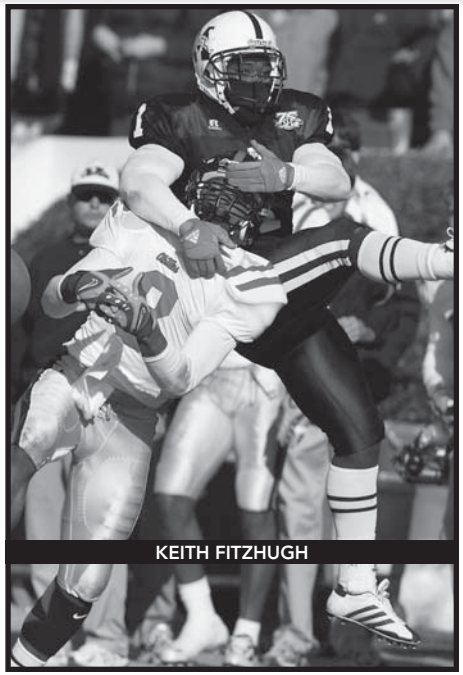

No less than four more players open fall drills in the linebacker picture, and the coaches are eager to see their development, Terrell Johnson (6-2, 210, RFr.), Karlin Brown (5-9, 195, So.), Jamie Jones (6-0, 215, RFr.), and Michael Hunt (6-2, 210, Fr.) all aim to use their athletic abilities to make a dent in that picture.

Johnson and Jones will back up on the weak side and in the middle, respectively, while Brown will also play inside after seeing special teams work only last year. Hunt, who joined the program at mid-year, will play on the weak side, and converted defensive back Jarvis Kyles (6-0, 185, Jr.) will support Wright and Johnson on the strong side, as will non-scholarship player Mark Brown (5-11, 225, Jr.).

Nick Bell (6-4, 230, Fr.), Antonio Hoskins (6-2, 215, Fr.), Kirkland Gainous (6-2, 205, Fr.) and Bo Walters (6-1, 225, Fr.) were signed to add linebacker depth.

K.J. WRIGHT

KEITH FITZHUGH

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Three of the four starters return to the secondary, but that only begins to tell the story of arguably the deepest and most talented unit on the field.

Pegues returns as one of the most explosive players in the Bulldog line-up, and a player certainly worthy of all-America consideration. He again earned all-SEC recognition in 2007, and has now won that title as both a defensive back and a return specialist. Pegues has scored five touchdowns in his career, three on interception returns, two on punts.

Pegues recorded five pass interceptions in '07, returning those thefts 120 yards and a touchdown. He also averaged nearly 23 yards per kickoff and 10 yards per punt return a year ago. The five picks tied for the sixth most in school history, and he ranked 10th and fourth, respectively, in league kick and punt return standings.

Like Pegues at free safety, the strong safety position promises to produce big plays for the defense, as well. Fitzhugh played in all 13 games, starting the final four. He finished second among all defensive backs with 58 tackles, including five and one-half for loss (minus 20 yards), one of which was a sack (minus 9 yards). Fitzhugh filled the State stats sheet, making a pair of interceptions and deflecting three. He also forced two fumbles and recovered one.

But De'Mon Glanton (6-1, 190, Sr.) could easily be considered a starter at strong safety as well. He has played in all 36 games of his career and earned 17 starts in that span. His 85 career tackles, with four for loss (minus 19 yards), one of which was a quarterback sack (minus 11 yards) supports his reputation as a big hitter. But he has also had four career pass interceptions

DE'MON GLANTON

(70 yards, one touchdown) and 13 pass deflections. Glanton, who sees a lot of time in five defensive back alignments, started 10 times last fall.

O'Quinn broke into the starting line-up in his first season after transferring from junior college and responded with a solid campaign at one corner. He recorded 37 tackles and a pass interception a year ago and is listed first at left corner as spring '08 commences.

While not considered a returning starter, Marcus Washington (5-10, 180, Jr.) is another veteran player who steps into a regular role to open 2008. He has played in 24 games and started seven times in the secondary. Washington had 44 tackles, including four for loss (minus 7 yards), an interception and four pass deflections in his career.

Another corner saw action for the first time last fall, and showed the coaching staff he could be counted on in the secondary, as well as special teams. Tay Bowser (6-3, 185, Jr.) has played in 17 career games with 13 tackles, and made one start and one interception last fall.

The coaching staff is also interested in seeing the continued growth of yearling Damein Anderson (5-11, 175, RFr.) who impressed during his first spring in '08.

Signees Corey Broomfield (5-10, 157, Fr.), Louis Watson (5-10, 165, Fr.), and Arceto Clark (5-10, 165, Fr.) will be evaluated quickly during two-a-days to determine their readiness for SEC play.

A young safety came in a year ago and was indeed impressive during pre-season work.

Zach Smith (6-0, 180, So.) saw action immediately and showed that his two-a-day practices were no mirage. Smith played in 12 games and made 21 tackles. He was on the field at critical times as a true freshman.

Chris Nance (5-10, 182, Sr.) makes the move from cornerback to free safety for the '08 campaign, while highly regarded recruit Charles Mitchell (6-0, 190, Fr.) will make his presence felt at strong safety.

SPECIALISTS

Mississippi State returns its starters at place-kicker, punter, snapper for punts and all placements, as well as the key members of its return game.

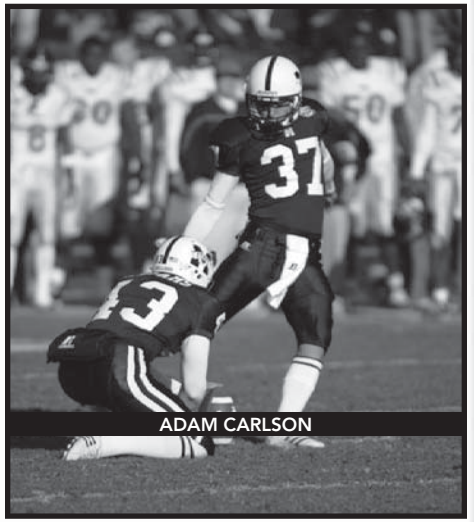

Adam Carlson (6-4, 195, Sr.) has now been State's regular place-kicker in 28 games and has made 18-of-29 field goal attempts. He currently owns a streak of seven consecutive made field goals.

Blake McAdams (5-10, 190, Sr.) returns as the team's punter for a fourth-straight season. He has averaged nearly 40 yards per punt on 214 career kicks. McAdams also returns as the team's primary holder for all placements.

Aaron Feld (6-1, 225, So.) won the regular long- and short-snapping responsibilities as a true freshman a year ago.

The return to full competition of Eric Richards (6-4, 227, RFr.) in both the punting and place-kicking areas is eagerly anticipated. Richards suffered a broken bone in his kicking foot during his first August two-a-day practice. Punter Baker Swedenburg (6-0, 175, Fr.) was in the '08 signing class. Anthony Bowles (5-11, 220, Sr.) again will serve as the top reserve snapper.

Pegues will be back at his specialties in the return game, and could be joined by Bonner and Elliott, among others.

CAREER: Saw action from the outset of his college career at Mississippi State ... Has played in all 25 games of his career, with 17 starting assignments ... Has rushed 456 times for 1,734 yards, a 3.8-yard average, and 23 touchdowns during his tenure ... He already ranks sixth on the school's all-time rushing attempts chart, 15th on the career yardage list, and fifth on the rushing TDs ranking ... He became just the seventh back (ninth occurrence) in school history and the first Bulldog sophomore ever to surpass 1,000 yards rushing in a single season (1,066) and his 287 carries that season set a State single season record ... The rushing touchdown total he accumulated as a sophomore (14) was the second best ever at MSU ... His true freshman rushing attempts (169), yards (668) and touchdowns on the ground (9) were all first-year records at MSU ... Has also caught 18 passes for 209 yards, an 11.6-yard average, and two more scores in his career ... Came to MSU following a star-studded high school career in the Jackson metro area.

2007: Played in all 13 games, starting 12 times during his sophomore campaign ... Only missed starting against UAB at mid-season on a coach's decision ... Rushed 287 times for 1,066 yards, a 3.7-yard average, and 14 touchdowns ... He became just the seventh back (ninth occurrence) in school history and the first Bulldog sophomore ever to surpass 1,000 yards rushing in a single season and his attempts set a State single season record ... Finished seventh in the SEC in rushing yards per game (82.0) and 10th in scoring (7.4 points per game) ... He was third in the league in scoring touchdowns (14), second among all running backs ... His rushing attempts easily eclipsed the previous MSU record (236; James Johnson, 1998) and his rushing yardage was sixth-most on the single-season chart ... His 14 TDs were the second most ever in one year at MSU ... He led the team in rushing 11 times (missing only at Kentucky and vs. Ole Miss) and surpassed the 100-yard rushing plateau four times ... Also caught 14 passes for 167 yards, a 11.9-yard average, and two more scores ... Resumed his role at the top of the depth chart at the halfback position to open his sophomore season ... Led the club with 29 yards rushing on 13 attempts against LSU in the season opener ... He arrived at that total in an unusual way, however, gaining 21 yards rushing in the first quarter and having 31 yards on the ground on eight carries by halftime ... Rushed a then-career-best 27 times for a then-career-high 131 yards, a 4.9-yard per carry average, and two touchdowns, during State's Week 2 win over Tulane ... He gained 122 yards of that total over the final three quarters ... Rushed five times for 32 yards on State's final scoring drive midway through the fourth quarter, a score that provided MSU the final margin in the 38-17 victory ... Picked up 103 yards on a career-high 29 carries, a 3.5-yard per carry average, in MState's 19-14 win at Auburn ... Rushed 10 times for 52 yards in the first quarter alone and added eight rushes for 21 yards on the game-winning drive during the fourth quarter ... Played essentially just the first half of the Bulldogs' 31-15 win over Gardner-Webb and responded with 15 carries for 88 yards, a 5.9-yard per carry average, and two touchdowns ... His initial score, a 9-yard touchdown run, put MSU on the scoreboard first just five minutes into the game ... Added a 12-yard TD run with 2:42 left before half, a score that gave State a 21-0 lead at the time ... Rushed 22 times for 83 yards, a 3.8-yard per carry average, and two touchdowns at South Carolina in Week 5 ... Scored on a 1-yard blast with 2:20 left in the first half to tie the game at 14-all at the time ... Added a 2-yard dive mid-way through the third quarter to give MSU a 21-17 lead ... Rushed a career-high 32 times for a career-best 152 yards, a 4.8-yard per carry average, and a career-high three touchdowns in the team's Week 6 win over UAB ... His rushing attempts and yards gained rushing were the most in a game since Jerious Norwood gained 204 yards on 34 attempts against Ole Miss in 2005 ... His initial score, a 1-yard dive, pulled MSU within 10-9 with 5:46 remaining in the third period ... His other two TDs, a 10-yard dash and a 12-yard bolt, came in a six-minute stretch of the fourth quarter and provided the Bulldogs with a 23-13 lead with two minutes left in the game ... With his three scores, he moved into a 10th place tie all-time at State with 18 career TDs (Dennis Johnson, 1974-77) ... He also becomes the first Bulldog to account for three touchdowns in one game since Michael Henig accomplished that feat against Kentucky in 2006 ... Surpassed the century mark rushing again in Week 7 vs. Tennessee ... Rushed 26 times for 108 yards, a 4.2-yard average, and a touchdown, against the Volunteers ... His 30-yard TD run just into the second quarter gave MSU a 14-7 lead at the time ... It was the 19th rushing TD of his career, moving him into a ninth-place tie with Tom "Shorty" McWilliams on the school's all-time list ... Rushed 20 times for 61 yards and one touchdown at West Virginia in Week 8 ... He blasted into the end zone from 1 yard out just prior to the end of the first half in Morgantown, State's first score of the game ... That TD was the 20th of his career, moving him into seventh all-time at State in rushing scores ... Rushed 25 times for 75 yards and a touchdown at nationally ranked Kentucky in Week 9, a total amassed in the first three and one-half quarters ... With that performance he moved to 19th on the school's all-time rushing list and sixth on its rushing touchdowns chart ... He rushed eight times for 31 yards on the team's opening scoring drive ... Also caught two passes (1 yard), but made the first catch of his sophomore season a meaningful one ... Hauled in a 1-yard TD toss from Wesley Carroll just into the second quarter to give MSU a 14-7 lead at the time ... His 1-yard TD burst came midway through the third quarter and opened a 24-7 State lead at the time ... Rushed 26 times for 84 yards and one touchdown in State's Week 10 win over No. 21 Alabama ... His 3-yard TD run just into the third quarter gave MSU a 17-9 lead at the time ... Led the team with 40 yards rushing on 17 carries against Arkansas in Week 11 ... On his second rush of the game in the first quarter, he broke James Johnson's single-season rushing attempts record (236 carries in 1998) ... Set a career high with seven pass receptions for 101 yards and a touchdown in the Bulldogs' season-ending 17-14 win over Ole Miss in the Battle For The Golden Egg, a total that included a career-long 53-yard reception ... The 101 yards receiving marked the first time an MSU running back had surpassed the century mark in receiving yardage since Robert Isaac caught six passes for 108 yards against Louisiana Tech in 1996 ... Hauled in a 4-yard toss from quarterback Wesley Carroll with 7:51 left in the game to give State its first sore of the game and begin the Bulldog comeback ... Limited to just 26 yards rushing on 11 carries by the Rebels ... Was named State's Offensive Player of the Game in the 2007 AutoZone Liberty Bowl win over Central Florida ... Rushed 24 times for 86 yards, a 3.6-yard per carry average, and the game's deciding six-pointer in a 10-3 win over the Knights ... Fairburn, Ga. (North Clayton)

CAREER: Pressed into immediate service as a reserve on the defensive line ... Has played in 21 games for Mississippi State at defensive tackle or nose ... Has earned nine starting calls in the middle of the defensive line as his experience level increased ... Has made 24 tackles during his still-infant Bulldog career, including three and one-half for loss (minus 10 yards) ... Credited with one fumble recovery and a blocked kick during his Bulldog tenure ... Came to MSU as an outstanding two-way lineman from the Georgia prep ranks.

2007: Saw action in all 13 games for Mississippi State during his sophomore season, he earned nine starts in the middle of the defense ... Opened nine of the last 10 games for MSU, only failing to start the team's Week 10 win over Alabama ... Made 17 tackles on the year, including three and one-half for loss (minus 10 yards) ... Credited with one fumble recovery and a blocked kick ... Played in a reserve role at defensive tackle to begin his sophomore season ... Reached the stats column for the first time in Week 3 action at Auburn ... Had two tackles and a fumble recovery in Mississippi State's 19-14 win over the Tigers ... It was a career-first recovery ... Made his first career start in the Bulldogs' Week 4 win over Gardner-Webb ... For the second-straight week, made a pair of hits in the win over the Runnin' Bulldogs ... Had a 3-yard tackle for loss in State's Week 5 game at South Carolina ... Had a solid all-around game in the Bulldogs' 30-13 win over UAB a week later ... Tallied two tackles against the Blazers, including one-half for loss (minus 4 yards) ... Also blocked a UAB field goal try just into the second quarter with UAB already holding a 3-0 lead at the time ... His block was returned 22 yards by Marcus Washington to the UAB 45, a turn of events that set MSU up for a tying field goal ... It was the first blocked field goal by a Bulldog since Antonio Johnson blocked an Arkansas three-point attempt in 2006 ... Part of a defensive effort that permitted the Blazers just 71 yards rushing ... Had two hits against Tennessee in Week 7 ... Made three hits a week later at West Virginia ... Returned to the stats sheet with a 2-yard tackle for loss at Arkansas in Week 11 ... Credited with one hit in MSU's 17-14 victory over Ole Miss in the Battle For The Golden Egg ... Made three tackles, one of which was a tackle for loss (minus 1 yard), in the Bulldogs' 10-3 win over Central Florida in the 2007 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

2006: Played in eight games during his true freshman season for the Bulldogs ... Played in four games at midseason (Weeks 4-7) and three near the schedule's end (Week 8-10) ... Totaled seven tackles on the year ... Saw action for the first time in his initial season in Starkville during Week 4 action at UAB ... Had a solid outing in just his second collegiate game one week later at LSU, seeing increased playing time with injuries along the defensive line ... Totaled five tackles against the Tigers ... Made one stop in the team's Week 7 victory over Jacksonville State ... Suffered a broken finger against the Gamecocks, but missed little work in preparation for the Georgia game one week later ... Added another hit in Week 11 game with Arkansas.

HIGH SCHOOL: Two-way lineman for head coach Donald Shockley at North Clayton High School in College Park, Ga., an Atlanta suburb ... Above a 3.0 grade point average in the classroom ... Committed to Mississippi State in January 2006.

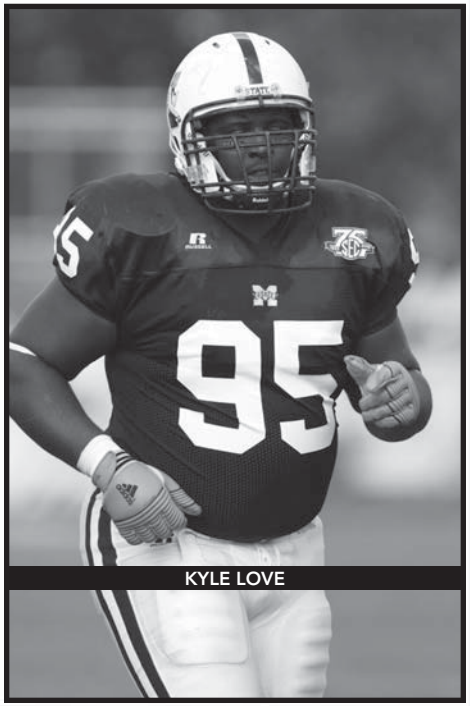

PERSONAL: Born Alexander Kyle Love, 11-18-86, in The Philippines.. ... Son of Mr. Anthony Love and Mrs. Miriam Love ... Majoring in fitness management.

MISSISSIPPI STATE BULLDOGS

Blake McAdams · P

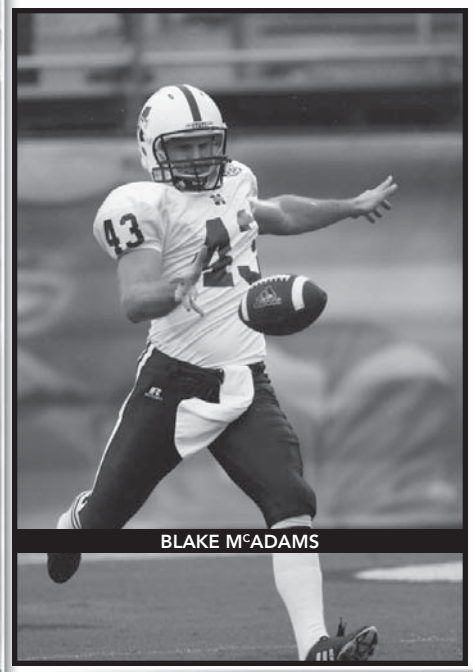

5-10 · 190 · Sr. · 3L #43

Ripley, Tenn. (Ripley)

CAREER: Won the starting job at punter from the outset of his collegiate career as a true freshman at Mississippi State ... Has started all 36 games at the position during his career ... Has punted 214 times for 8,513 yards, a 39.8-yard average, with 47 of his punts being downed inside the 20-yard line and 14 more going for touchback ... His 214 career punts after three seasons are tied for second on the school's all-time attempts' list, just four kicks away from owning that all-time State record ... His yards punted were the third most ever ... Has averaged 40 or more yards per punt in 15 of his 36 career games, and had 29 punts of 50 yards or more ... Career-long 73-yard punt came against Auburn in 2007 ... Has also completed his only pass attempt (5 yards) and made two special teams tackles ... Came to Mississippi State following an all-around multi-sport all-star high school career.

2007: Started all 13 games at his specialty ... Punted 77 times for a 39.3-yard average, with a career-long 73-yard punt ... Finished seventh in the SEC in punt average (39.3) ... His 77 punts tied for the second-most ever at MSU in a single season and his 3,024 yards punting were the fourth most at the school ... Twelve of his punts exceeded 50 yards and 18 came to rest inside the 20-yard line ... Had four touchbacks and made two special teams tackles ... Maintained his role as the team's regular punter to begin his third season ... Kicked five times for a 35.6-yard average, with one punt inside the 20-yard line, against LSU to open the year ... Punted three times for a 37.3-yard average, with two of those coming to rest inside the 20-yard line, in the Bulldogs' Week 2 win over Tulane ... Punted six times for a 43.3-yard average, with one of his kicks stopping inside the 20, in MSU's Week 3 win at Auburn ... May have had the game-changing play in the contest, however ... On a fourth-and-14 kick from the State 16-yard line and just over 11 minutes left in the game, he nailed a career-long 73-yard punt against the Tigers, a boot that rolled dead at the AU 11 ... Two plays later Tiger quarterback Kodi Burns threw an interception at mid-field and the Bulldogs began their game-winning touchdown drive ... That punt was the longest boot by a Bulldog since Jeff Walker hit a 79-yarder against Alabama in 1999 and tied for the eighth-longest ever at State ... It was also the longest punt of the year in the SEC ... Punted four times for a 37.2-yard average in the team's win over Gardner-Webb in Week 4 ... Three of those four kicks pinned the Runnin' Bulldogs inside their 20-yard line and the other went for a touchback ... Went through a three-game stretch at mid-season where he kicked 16 times for a 43.7-yard average ... Had the best game of the first half of his junior season in Week 5 action at South Carolina ... Punted six times for a 45.7-yard average, with one of his kicks stopping inside the 20-yard line ... Was remarkably consistent in the game, hitting punts 41 (downed at the 3), 47, 44, 51, 46, and 45 yards ... Punted four times for a 42-yard average in the Bulldogs' Week 6 victory over UAB ... One of his four kicks was downed inside the 20-yard line ... Punted six times for a 42.8-yard average against home-state school Tennessee in Week 7 ... He moved into sixth place on the school's all-time punts list, tying Mike Patrick (1972-74) on that chart, and sixth on the punting yards list as well ... Punted eight times for a 36.6-yard average, with two of those kicks ending inside the 20-yard line, at West Virginia in Week 8 ... Kicked six times for a 41.3-yard average one week later in the team's win over Kentucky ... Half of his punts (3) were downed inside the Wildcat 20 ... His first two punts were a game-best 55 yards and a 52-yarder and his last was another 52-yard effort ... Punted six times for a 39.5-yard average in State's Week 10 victory over Alabama ... Had a game-long, 53-yarder and one kick came to rest inside the 20-yard line ... Punted four times for a 33.5-yard average at Arkansas at Week 11 ... Punted eight times for a 41.2-yard average in State's win over Ole Miss ... Two of those kicks rolled dead inside the 20-yard line ... Punted a Liberty Bowl-record and career-high 11 times for a 34.9-yard average in the Bulldogs' 10-3 win over Central Florida.

2006: Maintained his assignment as the team's first punter ... Started all 12 games at his specialty ... Punted 68 times for 2,598 yards, a 38.2-yard average ... His 68 punts were the sixth-most ever in a single season at State ... Had a season-long, 59-yarder ... Four of his punts exceeded 50 yards and 15 were downed inside the 20-yard line ... Completed his lone pass attempt for 5 yards ... Opened his sophomore campaign with another solid performance ... Punted seven times for a 41.6-yard average in the Bulldogs' season opener against South Carolina ... Three of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line against the Gamecocks, with one of his kicks going more than 50 yards (51) ... Only three of his punts were returned (16 yards) ... Punted eight times for a 38.9-yard average in Week 2 vs. Auburn ... One punt was downed inside the 20 ... Punted six times for a 34.3-yard average against Tulane in Week 3, with three of his punts going inside the Green Wave 20 ... Kicked five times for a 39.2-yard mean in Week 4 at UAB ... Had the best game of the first half of his sophomore season at LSU one week later ... Punted seven times for a 44.1-yard average against the Tigers ... It was his best game in six into fourth place on MSU's career punt return yardage list with 615 yards ... The 84 yards in punt returns were the second most in the SEC this year, and the 75-yarder was the second longest by an SEC player ... He also had three tackles against the Rebels, including one for loss (minus 1 yard) and three pass break ups in the game ... Also had two kickoff returns for 23 yards vs. UM ... Was named Mississippi State's Defensive Player of the Game for his work in the Bulldogs' 10-3 win over Central Florida in the 2007 AutoZone Liberty Bowl ... Made four tackles, including one for loss (minus 2 yards), in the win over the Knights ... But turned the game with a pair of interception returns, totaling 45 yards ... With MSU trailing 3-0 midway through the second quarter, he intercepted a Kyle Israel pass and returned it 40 yards to the UCF 6-yard line, setting up the field goal that tied the score at 3-all ... He intercepted his second pass on the succeeding UCF possession ... Also credited with one pass deflection, a break up that secured the win on UCF's final offensive snap of the game ... Returned one kickoff for 14 yards and a pair of punts (5 yards) against UCF.

2006: Named second-team, all-Southeastern Conference by the league's coaches and recruiting web site Scout.com ... Won the starting job at one cornerback to open his sophomore season ... Started all 12 games ... Also handled all kick returns during his sophomore campaign ... Registered 32 tackles during the year, a total that includes one and one-half tackles for loss (minus 6 yards) ... Had four pass interceptions (98 yards in returns for two touchdowns) and nine pass deflections ... Finished eighth in the SEC in interceptions ... Brought back 25 punts for 350 yards, a 14-yard per return average, with one touchdown, and 29 kickoff returns for 687 yards, 23.7 yards per return ... His punt return yardage was the fifth highest in a single season at State, and for the second straight year, his number of kickoff returns set a school record ... His kick return yardage was also a single-season high ... Finished second in the league in punt return average and fifth in the loop in kick return average ... Returned two kickoffs for 47 yards, a 23.5-yard average, against South Carolina in the season opener ... Helped hold USC all-SEC WR Sidney Rice to a career-low two catches in that game ... Recorded four tackles against Auburn in Week 2 ... Added three punt returns for 30 yards against the Tigers ... Had the best return game of his career in Week 3 work against Tulane ... Brought back two kickoffs for 112 yards and added six punt returns for 80 yards against the Green Wave ... His 112 kickoff return yards were the most by a Bulldog since Nick Turner had 163 yards vs. Tennessee in 2003 ... The 80 punt return yards are the most since Turner had 103 yards in that same Tennessee game ... His 61-yard kickoff return in the game was a career best (previous: 51 vs. Auburn '05) ... His 192 total kick return yards in the game were the most since Turner's combined 266 yards against UT ... Moved to the top of the Southeastern Conference statistical rankings in kickoff returns, second in punt returns, with that performance ... Made three tackles and a pass deflection during Week 4 action at UAB ... Ran back three punts for 29 yards (9.7-yard average) and one kickoff for 21 yards against the Blazers ... Maintained his spot atop the SEC in kick returns following that game ... Registered two tackles and returned a pass interception 23 yards for a touchdown during Week 5 work at LSU ... It was his first career score and the first interception return for a TD by a Bulldog since teammate Quinton Culberson returned a theft 35 yards for a score against Kentucky in 2004 ... Also returned five kickoffs for 88 yards, a 17.6-yard average, and one punt (11 yards) against the Tigers ... Registered two tackles with a pass deflection in Week 6 against West Virginia ... Also had two kickoff returns for 61 yards, one of which was a 41-yarder ... With that effort, he moved into 10th all-time at MSU in kick return yardage ... Additionally brought back two punts (minus 5 yards) against the Mountaineers ... Ranked first in the SEC in kickoff returns and second in the league in punt returns at the season's mid-point ... Turned in the top game of his career in the Bulldogs' Week 7 win over Jacksonville State ... Scored the team's first two touchdowns against the Gamecocks on the way to a 35-3 win ... Made two tackles, including a half tackle for loss, but it was two big plays that resulted in his TDs ... Intercepted a pass on JSU's first play of the game and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 MSU lead ... It was his second interception return for a touchdown in his sophomore season ... He became the first Bulldog since Conner Stephens (2000) to return two or more thefts for touchdown in the same season ... Widened the spread to 14-3 in the second quarter by returning a punt a career-long 81 yards for six points ... It was MSU's first punt return for a touchdown since Jonathan Lowe returned one 73 yards for a score against Florida in 2004 ... It was also the seventh-longest return for a TD in school history, the longest since Kevin Prentiss' 83-yarder in the 1998 SEC Championship Game ... He became the first Bulldog to score as a specialist and from the line of scrimmage in one season in three years (Fred Reid; rush and kickoff return, 2003) and the first to score in both capacities in the same game since Kevin Prentiss returned a kickoff for a touchdown and hauled in a scoring aerial against Kentucky in 1997 ... Made it two straight weeks as a big-play performer for the Bulldogs at Georgia in Week 8 ... Made just one tackle against UG, but intercepted a pair of passes (46 yards in returns), his third and fourth of the season, and had one pass deflection ... Also returned three kickoffs for 65 yards and one punt (37 yards) vs. the Peach State Bulldogs ... Maintained his hold on the SEC lead in both punt and kickoff returns following that game ... Totaled four tackles during the Bulldogs' Week 9 game vs. Kentucky ... Also returned five kickoffs for 93 yards (18.6-yard average) and one punt (1 yard) against the Wildcats ... Head Coach Sylvester Croom

Joined Mississippi State: December 2003

Alma Mater: Alabama, 1975

It took just over three years for Sylvester Croom to rebuild a Mississippi State football program that was devastated by three straight losing seasons, a second NCAA probation with sanctions during the previous decade, countless student-athlete departures, all the while installing new offensive and defensive systems with a new coaching staff. With that as a backdrop, Croom was a landslide winner of Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year Award in 2007 for leading the Bulldogs to a 7-5 overall record.

Croom inherited all that and more when he accepted the challenge of reconstructing the Bulldog program for the 2004 football season. His work eventually built an organization that had endured six straight seasons with no more than three wins into one that earned seven wins overall in 2007, four in the SEC, and a post-season bowl reward. It was the school's best results in six years.

When then-Mississippi State athletic director Larry Templeton began his search in October 2003 for the 31st head coach in the school's long football history, Templeton sought an enthusiastic teacher with the energy to rebuild the Bulldog football program and an individual with an attention to detail who demands the discipline needed to bring structure to a vast organization. History will record that Templeton found his man when MSU hired Sylvester Croom on Dec. 1, 2003.

SYLVESTER CROOM

"Sylvester Croom met all of the criteria we laid forth for the selection of a new head football coach at Mississippi State," Templeton said at the time of the hire. "We went after the best football coach, and we're confident we found that individual in Sylvester Croom."

Since that hiring, Croom undertook the daunting task of constructing the foundation upon which the Bulldog football program would be rebuilt. There was little question that progress toward that goal was being achieved, even as the team won just three games in each of his first three years. In those first three years since being named to head MSU's football fortunes, the traits that made Croom the best coach for State came to life.

Croom immediately became an in-demand speaker at alumni and booster events because of his forthright approach to directing the pigskin program. But his non-stop energy on the banquet circuit was only exceeded by the fervor with which he began shaping the Bulldog football operation. He established new offensive and defensive systems, paying particular attention to an attack which mirrored what he taught as a National Football League assistant. And despite the fact he had been away from the college game for 17 years as a pro coach, he has been unwavering in his demand for student-athlete accountability, on the field and off it.

His first two Bulldog teams finished 3-8, a record he has been quick to point out is not acceptable at MSU. That said, the final marks were still one-win improvements over the team he inherited. His first team posted the school's first victory over a ranked team in four years, a 38-31 win over then-No. 20 Florida, and his second squad captured the Egg Bowl Trophy for the first time in four years.

His third team concluded the year 3-9, but lost four games by a field goal each, three of those being SEC contests. The Bulldogs were just one made play away in each of those games from a winning season and a post-season bowl bid.

Croom's fourth team turned those near-misses into success in 2007. State won three of its first four games, including two road triumphs – one at Auburn, a team that eventually earned national ranking during the '07 season. Croom's team also won three of its last four games, back-to-back wins over nationally ranked opponents Kentucky and Alabama, and a heart-throbbing victory over Ole Miss, to reclaim the Egg Bowl Trophy.

Even before coaching his first football contest on the Starkville campus, Croom was recognized nationally in 2004 for his impact on the college game. Dennis Dodd ranked him #2 on CBS Sportsline's list of the 50 most relevant people in college football for the 2004 season. In so doing, Dodd said: "The State program took on a more organized look the moment he arrived."

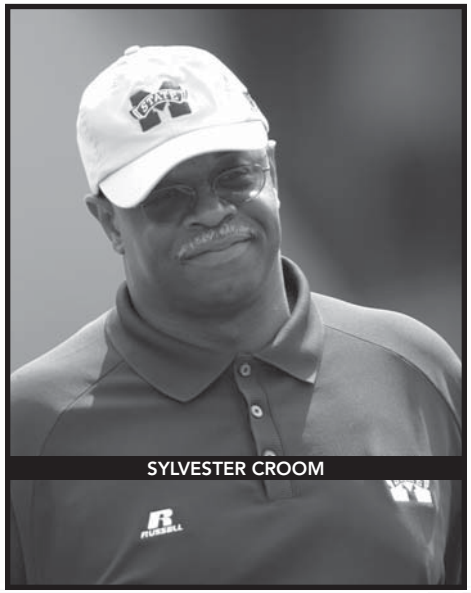

Sports Illustrated rated him the 31st most influential minority in all of sports. "In Mississippi and beyond, his impact has already been profound," SI noted.

In February 2007, Croom was invited to the White House by President George W. Bush to celebrate African-American History Month. Croom was one of the 200 minority leaders invited to the program in the East Room. The President indicated that Croom was not only invited because he was the first African-American head football coach in the SEC, but because "he's a strong leader and a fine man. And I thank you for blazing trails."

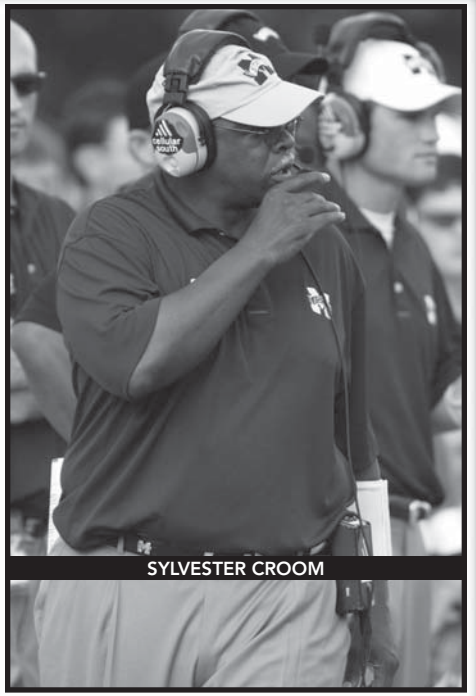

Croom came to State from the NFL's Green Bay Packers, where he served the previous three seasons under then-Packer general manager/head coach Mike Sherman as the team's running backs coach. He is a veteran of 29 years in the coaching profession, 17 of which have come at the professional level on the offensive side of the football. He spent four years as an NFL offensive coordinator.

Croom's Packer running attack ranked third in the National Football League in 2003, averaging 160 yards per game. Under his guidance, Ahman Green blossomed into one of the true stars of the NFL. He finished second in the league in rushing in '03 and was the fourth most productive rusher in the NFL over the three seasons in which Croom was his coach.

The natural by-product of Green's stellar season in 2003 was a third-straight, 12-4 regular season and a second consecutive NFC North title. Croom, who had already accepted MSU's head coaching position, helped the Packers to the second round of the NFL playoffs.

In 2002, Green Bay clinched the inaugural NFC North championship with a second-straight 12-4 record. Croom's backs contributed to a Packers' rushing effort that posted the most yards on the ground in 17 years. His rushers helped Green Bay rank fifth in the National Football Conference in that category. As part of that effort, Green earned his second consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl on the heels of his third-straight 1,000-yard season. He ranked fourth in the NFC in rushing. Additionally, Croom's work with undrafted free agent Tony Fisher furthered his reputation as a successful teacher. Fisher's rushing total was the most by a Green Bay rookie in 16 years.

In his first season in Green Bay, Croom helped the Pack qualify for the postseason for the first time in three years with a 12-4 record. Green Bay defeated San Francisco in the NFC Wild Card game, the Packers' first postseason win in three seasons. Green posted a second-consecutive 1,000-yard season and led the team in receptions for a second-straight year. Green was second in the NFC in both rushing yards and total yards from scrimmage. Under Croom's tutelage, Green was named the team's Most Valuable Player and earned his first of three straight trips to Hawaii's Pro Bowl. He was also a second-team, All-Pro selection by the Associated Press.

During his three seasons in Green Bay, the Packers were the second-most successful NFL franchise, winning nearly 70 percent of their games over that stretch.

"Sylvester is a great football coach," Sherman said. "He is a salt-of-the-earth person who represents everything good."

Sherman hired Croom on Jan. 30, 2001, and the latter arrived in Green Bay after four seasons as offensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions (1997-2000).

Croom achieved noted success during those four years in charge of the Detroit attack. His 1997 offense ranked second in the NFL overall, and he helped lead the Lions to a postseason playoff berth. Hall of Fame running back Barry Sanders led the NFL in rushing and became just the third player in league history to crack the 2,000-yard barrier that year. Wide receivers Herman Moore and Johnnie Morton both surpassed 1,000 yards receiving, with Moore leading the NFL with 104 catches. Detroit became the first organization to have teammates lead the NFL in both rushing and receiving in the same season. Moore and Morton entered the 2003 season Nos. 7 and 21, respectively, on the NFL's top active receivers list.

In 1998, Sanders rushed for nearly 1,500 yards, and Morton duplicated the feat of more than 1,000 yards receiving in a season. One year later, Morton and Germaine Crowell combined for nearly 2,500 yards receiving and tight end David Sloan earned a trip to the Pro Bowl with the best production by a Lion tight end in 20 years.

Croom helped lead Detroit to its best finish in three seasons during the 2000 campaign, narrowly missing a second-straight, post-season appearance, what would have been the third in his four seasons in the Motor City.

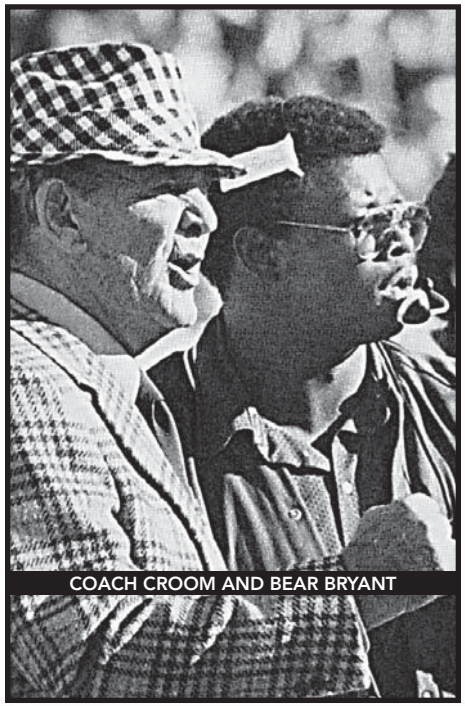

Prior to his tenure with Detroit, Croom tutored the San Diego Charger running backs for five seasons (1992-96). During that span, the Chargers twice won American Football Conference Western Division titles and participated in postseason play three times. The '94 Charger team not only won a Western Division championship, it won a pair of postseason contests and played in Super Bowl XXIX.

Under Croom's direction, second-year back Natrone Means set a team rushing record in 1994 with 1,350 yards. It was in San Diego where Croom first joined the staff of head coach Bobby Ross, with whom he made the move to Detroit.

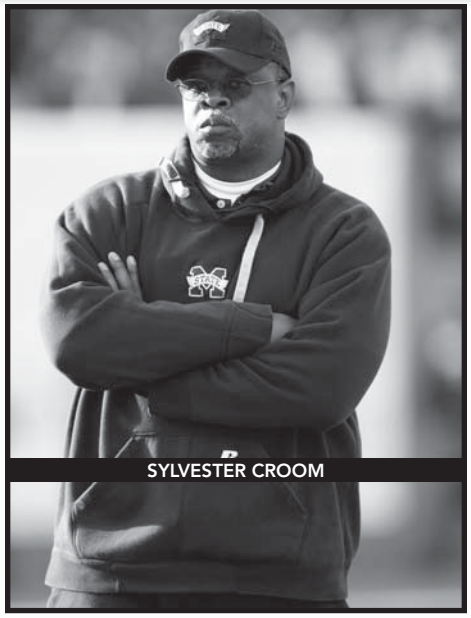

"He's as good a coach as you could ask for on the field and in the classroom," Ross said. "He is a great communicator with coaches and with players. I've had some great coaches work for me like George O'Leary, Ralph Friedgen and Frank Beamer. I put Sylvester Croom in the same category as those guys."

Croom broke into the NFL as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1987. He worked in Tampa for four years (1987-90) before joining the Indianapolis Colts in the same capacity for one season (1991).

But the Tuscaloosa, Ala., native also has a solid resume on the college coaching level. He worked for 11 seasons at his alma mater, the University of Alabama, all on the defensive side of the football. Croom oversaw both the inside (1977-81, 1984-86) and outside (1982-83) linebackers during his tenure with the Crimson Tide. He helped Alabama to back-to-back national championships in 1978-79. With his help, Alabama led the Southeastern Conference in total defense during the 1979 and '80 seasons.

That '79 team recorded five shutout wins, gave up just seven touchdowns all season, and allowed only 180 yards of total offense per game during its championship run.

During his coaching tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide went to 10 postseason bowl games in 11 years. He accompanied Alabama teams to the Sugar Bowl (1977-79), Cotton Bowl (1980-81), Sun Bowl (1983,'86), Liberty Bowl (1976,'82) and Aloha Bowl (1985) while in Tuscaloosa. Croom helped Alabama teams to a composite 102-28-2 record during those 11 seasons.

Croom began his Alabama coaching tenure on the staff of legendary Tide head football coach Paul "Bear" Bryant and stayed in Tuscaloosa when Ray Perkins was hired to succeed Bryant.

Croom only left UA when Perkins took him to Tampa Bay when the latter was named the head coach there.

"Mississippi State has hired a real good man," Perkins said. "Sylvester is a great character guy, and he's a bright coach. He gets along well with people, and he's very organized."

Croom also enjoyed a measure of teaching success on the collegiate level at Alabama. Four of his players - E.J. Junior (1981), Mike Pitts (1983), Cornelius Bennett (1987) and the late Derrick Thomas (1989) - all became first-round NFL draft picks following their days with Croom. Two of his linebackers - Wayne Davis (1983-86) and Thomas Boyd (1978-81) - rank one-two on Alabama's all-time tackle chart, while Thomas still ranks first in career sacks at UA.

Croom first enjoyed achievement at Alabama as a player under Bryant, lettering for three seasons (1972-74), and starting the final two at center, helping the Tide to a 22-2 overall record as a starter. During his playing career with the Tide, Alabama captured three straight SEC titles and the national championship in 1973. The Crimson Tide went to the Cotton, Sugar and Orange Bowls during his playing career.

As a senior captain, the 6-0, 229-pound Croom was named all-SEC and a Kodak All-America, in addition to earning the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best offensive lineman in the league. He earned a trip to the 1975 Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala., for his standout play. He was so respected by the Alabama coaching staff for his devotion to the game of football that the program each spring awards the "Sylvester Croom Commitment to Excellence Award."

Before making his mark at center while at UA, he had stints at linebacker, tight end and tackle.

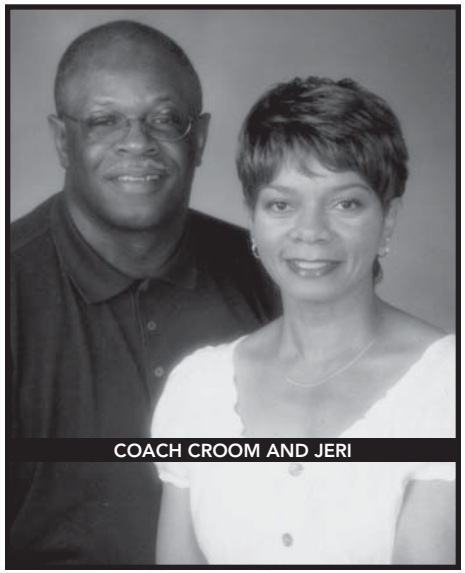

"In my career, I've been around a lot of great leaders," Ozzie Newsome, Hall of Fame tight end, current general manager of the Baltimore Ravens and former teammate of Croom's at Alabama, said. "And he led that huddle, trust me. He was impressive at a lot of things, but mostly a leader."

At just 20 years of age, Croom earned a bachelor's degree in history with a minor in biology in 1975 from Alabama. He earned his master's degree in educational administration in 1977 from the Tuscaloosa school as well.

A 1975 free agent signee of the New Orleans Saints following his playing days at Alabama, Croom played one season in the NFL before going back to Tuscaloosa to launch his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1976. He worked with the centers during that one-season apprenticeship.

Born Sept. 25, 1954, in Tuscaloosa, Ala., Sylvester Croom Jr., starred at Tuscaloosa High School as a linebacker and tight end. His wife, Jeri, is also a Tuscaloosa native. The couple has a daughter, Jennifer, who lives with husband Ira Bates and daughter, Ryan, in Mobile, Ala.

The son of a Tuscaloosa minister, Croom's late father, mother and aunts were all school teachers. The elder Croom, who was an all-America football player at Alabama A&M, served as the team chaplain at the University of Alabama and was recently recognized posthumously by the institution as one of the 40 pioneers of civil rights in the state.

Woody McCorvey · 5th Season

Asst. Head Coach / Off. Coordinator / Quarterbacks

Alma Mater: Alabama, 1972

No assistant coach hired by Sylvester Croom has a longer personal relationship with the Bulldog head man than Woody McCorvey, who Croom hired as his assistant head coach on his initial Mississippi State staff. McCorvey runs Croom's West Coast offense and coaches the team's quarterbacks.

In his first two seasons at the helm of the Bulldog offense, McCorvey helped Jerious Norwood become just the second running back in MSU history to surpass the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in consecutive seasons. Within McCorvey's offense, Norwood became the school's all-time leading rusher. Following the mid-point of his third season directing the attack, McCorvey's offense began to flourish on the ground and through the air. State averaged 24.2 points per game over the season's final six weeks. The team averaged 217.7 yards per game passing over that stretch, and 145.7 yards per game rushing in the final three, all conference games.

In 2005, Norwood gained 1,136 yards on the ground, the school's third-highest single-season rushing mark. On the way to that feat, he gained 257 yards rushing against Houston, a single-game MSU record. In Norwood's first season under McCorvey, the running back became just the sixth Bulldog back to rush for more than 1,000 yards. In 2006, Anthony Dixon set school freshman rushing attempts, yards and touchdowns records.

This past season, MSU improved its scoring offense by 40 points over '06, and its total offense average by nearly 20 yards per game.

McCorvey, 56, came to State from the University of Tennessee where he served the previous five seasons as the Volunteers' running backs coach. With McCorvey heading the UT running game, the Volunteers posted a 46-14 overall record during that time frame. He helped guide Tennessee to the 2000 Fiesta, 2001 Cotton, 2002 Florida Citrus, 2002 and '03 Peach Bowls.

Under McCorvey's leadership, Tennessee maintained the school's reputation of having a hard-nosed rushing attack. The Volunteers led the Southeastern Conference in rushing in 1999, averaging 191.3 yards per game. McCorvey's work helped tailback Travis Stephens pace the SEC in rushing in 2001 with 1,464 yards. He was named first-team, all-America that season and narrowly missed winning the Doak Walker Award as the country's premier running back. One year prior, McCorvey helped tailback Travis Henry finish second in the league and 14th nationally in rushing with 1,314 yards. During that team-rushing, league-leading '99 season, current National Football League star Jamal Lewis was third among conference ground-gainers.

Prior to joining the staff at Tennessee, McCorvey worked one season at South Carolina, where he served as the Gamecocks' receivers coach.

McCorvey took the South Carolina job following an eight-year stay at the University of Alabama from 1990-97. McCorvey served seven seasons as the Tide receivers coach, and the 1996 campaign as the team's offensive coordinator.

During those first seven seasons under head coach Gene Stallings, Alabama posted a 70-16-1 overall record on the field. During that time, UA was invited to the 1991 Fiesta Bowl, the 1991 Blockbuster Bowl, the 1993 Sugar Bowl, the 1993 Gator Bowl, the 1995 Citrus Bowl, and the 1997 Outback Bowl. Alabama won the SEC Championship and the national title during an undefeated '92 campaign. With McCorvey at the controls of the offense in 1996, Alabama finished 10-3 overall, including a win over Michigan in the Outback Bowl.

Before his SEC tenure, McCorvey worked seven years at Clemson University (1983-89). With McCorvey coaching the tight ends from 1983-85 and the wide receivers from 1986-89, Clemson posted a 60-19-3 overall record. During that time frame, the Tigers were invited to the 1985 Independence Bowl, the 1986 and '89 Gator Bowls, as well as the 1988 and '89 Florida Citrus Bowls.

From 1979-82, he served as an assistant coach at Alabama A&M. He began his collegiate coaching career at North Carolina Central in 1978. McCorvey began his coaching career with a six-year stint at Tate High School in Pensacola, Fla.

A quarterback at Alabama State University from 1968-72, McCorvey earned his bachelor's degree from ASU in 1972 and a master's degree from the University of West Florida in 1977.

A native of Grove Hill, Ala., McCorvey is married to the former Ann Brown, and the couple has a son, Marlon.

Charlie Harbison · 2nd Season

Defensive Coordinator / Safeties

Alma Mater: Gardner-Webb, 1995

When Mississippi State head football coach Sylvester Croom hired Charlie Harbison in January of 2007, he was bringing not only an experienced assistant coach to the Bulldog sidelines, he was acquiring a decorated college recruiter who was also a veteran instructor in the Southeastern Conference.

After just one season on the job, Croom elevated Harbison to the position of defensive coordinator.

In just his first season in Starkville, Harbison helped the MSU pass defense rank fourth in the SEC, allowing just 182.2 yards per game, sixth in pass efficiency defense (114.8). The Bulldogs improved their interception total from 12 to 15 in just one season.

Harbison, 47, came to MSU following four years in his second tour of duty on the staff at the University of Alabama. He coached the Crimson Tide wide receivers during his most recent stint. Harbison helped UA to a 26-24 overall record during that stretch, including berths in the 2004 Music City, '06 Cotton Bowl and Independence Bowl this past December.

During that four-year stretch, Harbison helped receivers D. J. Hall, Antonio Carter, and Triandos Luke rank among the school's all-time top 10 pass-catchers. Two of Hall's single-season receiving totals were among the eight best ever at the school. Following the 2005 season, he was honored as one of the nation's top 25 college football recruiters by Rivals.com.

Harbison coached the Crimson Tide defensive backs in his initial stay in Tuscaloosa from 1998-2000. He helped UA to a 20-16 mark and appearances in the 1998 Music City and 2000 Orange Bowls during those three years. He was a part of the 1999 Alabama team that won the Southeastern Conference Western Division title, defeated Florida in the SEC Championship Game, and dropped a one-point decision to Michigan in the Orange Bowl.

Two of his pupils, Fernando Bryant in 1999 and Tony Dixon in 2001 were taken in the first and second rounds of the National Football League draft.

Sandwiched between those two Alabama assignments, Harbison coached the defensive backfield at LSU in 2001 and '02. He was a member of the Tiger coaching staff that directed the 2001 LSU team to an SEC Championship Game win over Tennessee. During his two years, LSU finished 18-8 overall and played in the 2002 Sugar and 2003 Cotton Bowls. Corey Webster, who played under Harbison his first two years in Baton Rouge, finished his career second on the school's all-time pass interception list.

Prior to his first stint at Alabama, Harbison served as the defensive backs coach at Clemson from 1995-97. The Atlantic Coast Conference Tigers posted a 22-14 mark during those three years, ending those seasons in the Gator and back-to-back Peach Bowls.

He also coached the secondary at UTEP (1994) and served twice at his alma mater, Gardner-Webb, coaching wide receivers (1992-93) and defensive backs (1984-85).

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Harbison worked in both the Arena Football League and the World League of American Football. His professional football coaching resume includes serving as defensive coordinator for the Charlotte Rage (1993).

A native of Shelby, N.C., Harbison graduated from Gardner-Webb College in 1995. A two-sport star in football and track on the college level, he was a free-agent signee of the Buffalo Bills following his senior season.

He and his late wife Gloria, who passed away in early 2003 after battling cancer, have four children – Charlie, Stedman, Masai and Msiba; daughter-in-law Caroline and grandsons, Masai II and Amari.

Louis Campbell · 1st Season

Linebackers

Alma Mater: Arkansas, 1973

Sylvester Croom again drew on his experience in the Southeastern Conference and the relationships he and his staff have developed with top-flight coaches around the league when he named Louis Campbell as his linebackers coach this past offseason.

Campbell comes to Starkville with extensive ties to Croom and two members of the Bulldog coaching staff, and after 18 years of football service to Arkansas. His experience in the SEC is even longer.

A native of Hamburg, Ark., Campbell worked in Fayetteville, Ark., from 1990-2007. He served in various capacities with the Razorbacks, working as the school's secondary coach, director of football operations, or assistant athletic director for internal football operations during that time. He served eight seasons as a Razorback assistant coach under Jack Crowe, Joe Kines and Danny Ford, adding the title of assistant head coach under Ford prior to the 1996 season. Campbell switched to director of football operations prior to the 1998 season.

Campbell returned to the practice and game field in 2006, coaching Arkansas' secondary. He helped UA win the SEC's Western Division title, play in the SEC Championship Game, and earn a spot in the Capital One Bowl. Arkansas finished 10-4 and ranked No. 15 in the nation that year. Prior to that season, his last assignment on the field came at the end of the 1999 regular season. Then-Arkansas head coach Houston Nutt asked Campbell to coach the secondary against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. In that game, he helped direct an Arkansas defensive unit that held the Longhorns to negative rushing yards (-27) for the first time in the Texas program's history as UA posted a 27-6 victory.

During that long stretch in Fayetteville, Campbell worked with current Bulldog assistant coaches Rockey Felker (1993-96) and J.B. Grimes (1990-92) on Razorback coaching staffs.

Campbell, a 1973 Arkansas graduate, began his coaching career that year with a four-season stint at Alabama under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. It was in Tuscaloosa, Ala., that Campbell first developed a relationship with Croom. The MSU head coach played his junior and senior seasons (1973 and '74) and served as a graduate assistant (1976) on Crimson Tide staffs that included Campbell.

A three-year term as defensive backs coach at Southern Methodist University (1977-79) immediately preceded a five-year run back at Alabama. He was reunited with Croom upon his return and the two worked together all five years. Felker, State's running backs coach, also served on the UA staff those final two years (1983-84).

Campbell helped the Crimson Tide to eight bowl games in nine years during those two tours of duty at Alabama. The 1973 squad finished 11-1 and earned a No. 1 final ranking from United Press International.

In 1985, Campbell began a four-year stint as defensive coordinator and defensive secondary coach at Oklahoma State. He helped the Cowboys to three bowl appearances during those four seasons in Stillwater, Okla. Prior to launching his extensive tenure in Fayetteville, Campbell worked one year as a defensive assistant with the National Football League's Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1989). Croom was the running back coach for the Bucs on that '89 Buc staff.

Campbell has accompanied teams to 20 bowl games in his 34 years as a collegiate coach and football administrator.

A three-year letterman as a defensive back at Arkansas, his 12 career interceptions are still tied for third all-time at the school, and his three pass thefts against Tennessee in the 1971 Liberty Bowl are a Razorback bowl record.

He earned his undergraduate degree in education at UA in 1973. Campbell, 58, is married to the former Ila Murphy. The couple has a daughter, Caroline, and two sons, Shepard and Steadman. Shepard coaches defensive backs at Tennessee-Martin and Steadman coaches the secondary at North Alabama.

Rockey Felker · 7th Season

Running Backs

Alma Mater: Mississippi State, 1975

Rockey Felker is living proof that persistence, loyalty and hard work pay dividends. At one time the head football coach at Mississippi State, Felker has taken a long and circuitous route back to coaching on the Bulldog sideline. He is finishing his first season as the running backs coach at his alma mater in 2007, he also serves the staff as recruiting coordinator. Under Felker's guidance, halfback Anthony Dixon entered the school's all-time top 20 rushers in 2007.

State head football coach Sylvester Croom initially retained Felker as the staff's coordinator of football operations in 2004, a position Felker had held prior to Croom's arrival. But it was during the next three years in that capacity that Felker showed Croom that he should be back on the practice and game fields. It was on the field that his career accomplishments had earned him the designation as a rising young star on the coaching front, one that gained him an SEC head coaching position at age 33.

Felker, 54, was the nation's youngest collegiate head coach when he was selected to guide the MSU football program in 1986. He directed the Bulldogs to a 6-5 mark in his first season at the helm, the school's first winning season in five years. Felker's team won road games at Syracuse and at defending SEC champion Tennessee during that '86 season, and he became the first State head football coach to post a winning record in his initial season since the legendary Darrell Royal in 1954. Felker served as State's head football coach through the 1990 season.

He came back to State as the school's head coach following 11 years as an assistant coach on the collegiate level. Immediately prior to rejoining the MSU program, he was an assistant at Alabama from 1983-85. He served as the Crimson Tide receivers coach in 1983-84 and the offensive backfield coach in '85. During his stay in Tuscaloosa, he helped Alabama to postseason bowl wins over Southern Methodist ('83 Sun Bowl) and Southern California ('85 Aloha Bowl).

Prior to returning to the SEC, Felker worked two years each at Texas Tech (1979-80) and Memphis State (1981-82) under the guidance of the late head coach Rex Dockery.

Felker began his coaching career at Mississippi State following his playing days, working for head coach Bob Tyler. He worked with the junior varsity (1975) and the varsity receivers, quarterbacks and running backs (1976-78).

A native of Jackson, Tenn., Felker was a five-sport letterman at Brownsville (Tenn.) High School, earning all-state honors in football under the tutelage of his father, Edwin "Babe" Felker, an assistant coach at the school.

Felker's first association with Mississippi State came in December 1970, when he signed a football scholarship to play quarterback for the Bulldogs. After playing one year of freshman ball, he was under center for most of the next three seasons. In 1974, Felker led MSU to a 9-3 overall record, leading the SEC in total offense and directing the Bulldogs to a win over North Carolina in the Sun Bowl. He was named the Nashville Banner SEC Player of the Year and the Birmingham Post-Herald Outstanding Senior Player for his stellar final season.

Following his five years as head coach at MSU, Felker worked nine more years as an assistant coach. He had two terms as the offensive coordinator at the University of Tulsa (1991-92 and 1997-99) and spent four years on the coaching staff at the University of Arkansas, working three seasons (1994-96) as the school's offensive coordinator.

He helped Tulsa to a 10-2 record in 1991, coaching the quarterbacks and wide receivers. That Golden Hurricane team defeated San Diego State in the Freedom Bowl during that season. He also tutored the running backs during his stay at the Western Athletic Conference school.

While at Arkansas, Felker coached the running backs in 1993, then tutored the quarterbacks the next three years. He helped the Razorbacks win the SEC Western Division title and earn a berth in the '95 SEC Championship Game. The Razorbacks concluded that season with a bid to the Carquest Bowl in Miami, Fla.

When Felker was hired back to the MSU football staff in the spring of 2002, it was indeed a sweet homecoming for one of the school's most loved personalities.

Felker is married to the former Susan Tingle and they have three sons, Jay, David and Stephen.

J.B. Grimes · 5th Season

Offensive Line

Alma Mater: Henderson [Ark.] State, 1977

When head football coach Sylvester Croom hired J.B. Grimes, the MSU mentor was bringing in a college assistant coach with a long list of credits as an offensive line tutor. He has done nothing in his first four years in Starkville to alter that reputation, all the while building the Bulldog offensive front back into what became a major strength of the 2007 team.

Grimes' offensive line moved a Bulldog rushing attack that averaged just 118 yards per game before his arrival to 158 yards and 138 yards per game, respectively, in his first two seasons with the Bulldogs. In both seasons, Jerious Norwood surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing total. State was seventh in the league in rushing in 2005, but just 7 yards per game from the league's top four. In 2006, MSU averaged 145.7 yards per game rushing over the final three weeks (against SEC foes Alabama, Arkansas and Ole Miss.). Just as important, his offensive line reduced the team's number of sacks allowed from 36 prior to his arrival to 29 a year ago, including just three sacks over the season's final four weeks (all SEC games). This season, Grimes offensive line paved the way for a running attack to gain more than 135 yards per game and chopped the quarterback sacks allowed to just 20.

In just his first season with the Bulldog offensive linemen, State rushed for 1,744 yards, the most at the school in four years. Under his guidance, offensive tackle David Stewart was selected in the fourth round by the Tennessee Titans in the 2005 National Football League draft. State upped that rushing total to 1,908 in 2007.

Grimes, 52, came to Mississippi State from East Carolina University, where he served Pirate head coach John Thompson as assistant head coach and offensive line coach in 2003.

Under Grimes, the Pirates' offensive line paved the way for its third straight 1,000-yard rusher. After ECU's running game struggled early in the season, the Pirates averaged 161 yards rushing per game in the last seven contests.

A veteran of 29 years in the coaching profession, the last 27 of which have come at the collegiate level, Grimes has been associated with teams that have won five conference championships and gone to 13 post-season bowl games.

Prior to making the move to East Carolina, Grimes served as the offensive line coach under R.C. Slocum at Texas A&M for five seasons, 1998-2002. During his time in College Station, A&M posted a 40-22 overall record. Those teams ended their seasons in the 1999 Sugar Bowl as champions of the Big XII, the '99 Alamo Bowl, the 2000 Independence Bowl, and the '01 GalleryFurniture.com Bowl.

Immediately prior to joining the A&M staff, Grimes coached five seasons at Virginia Tech, 1993-97. As the offensive line coach for head coach Frank Beamer at Tech, he helped the Hokies to a composite 44-16 overall record. Grimes helped lead the Gobblers to season-ending berths in the '93 Independence Bowl, the '94 and '98 Gator Bowls, the '95 Sugar Bowl, and the '96 Orange Bowl. The 1995 and '96 teams won back-to-back Big East championships.

Grimes served as offensive line coach at his home-state institution, Arkansas, on two different occasions. He was with the Razorbacks from 1989-92, working under three different head coaches. He helped head coach Ken Hatfield's final Arkansas team to a 10-2 overall record and a berth in the '90 Cotton Bowl as Southwest Conference champions. Two seasons later, he assisted Jack Crowe's second and final UA team to an Independence Bowl invitation. He earlier had worked at Arkansas under Lou Holtz from 1981-82 as first a graduate assistant, and then the offensive line instructor. Those two teams posted a 17-6-1 record and landed in the Gator and Bluebonnet Bowls, respectively.

He served two terms as the offensive line coach at Northeast Louisiana, from 1979-80 and again from 1985-88. With Grimes as the offensive line coach, NLU won the 1987 Division I-AA national championship. He worked one-year stints at Delta (Miss.) State and Missouri in 1983 and '84, respectively. Grimes began his coaching career with two seasons on the Arkansas high school level.

A four-year letterman as an offensive guard at Henderson (Ark.) State, he helped his team to a 40-6 record during that time. Grimes helped lead his '74 Henderson State team to a berth in the NAIA championship game. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Henderson State in 1977 and received his master's in education from Northeast Louisiana.

A native of Memphis, Tenn., John Bryan Grimes grew up in Clarendon, Ark. He is married to the former Jennifer Graves, and the couple has four children, sons Aaron and Nick, and daughters Danielle and Lindsey.

Melvin Smith · 3rd Season

Cornerbacks

Alma Mater: Millsaps, 1982

Mississippi State University head coach Sylvester Croom wasted little time bringing a coach with deep Mississippi connections and proven recruiting ability back to the Magnolia State in spring 2006 when he hired Melvin Smith to work in the Bulldog secondary. He coached the cornerbacks in 2007. In just his second season back on the campus, Smith helped the MSU pass defense rank fourth in the SEC, allowing just 182.2 yards per game, sixth in pass efficiency defense (114.8). The Bulldogs improved their interception total from 12 to 15.

For Smith, 49, returning to MSU was a homecoming, not only to the university but to the state of Mississippi. A native of Taylorsville, Miss., who grew up in Magee, Miss., Smith was an assistant football coach previously at State for seven years (1995-2001), helping guide the Bulldogs through arguably the greatest period in the school's football history. The 25-year coaching veteran has spent 21 of those years working in the Magnolia State.

In Smith's first season back at State, Jeramie Johnson led the league in forced fumbles in 2006, and earned all-SEC recognition at free safety. Derek Pegues reached similar all-league honors at cornerback in 2006.

Smith came back to Mississippi State following three seasons at Texas A&M, where he coached the safeties. During his tenure in College Station, Texas, Smith helped the Aggies to a 7-4 regular season record in 2004 and a berth in the 2005 Cotton Bowl.

Prior to his stint at A&M and immediately following his seven years at MSU, Smith coached the safeties at Alabama in 2002. That Crimson Tide team posted a 10-3 regular season record that year.

Despite his assignment with the secondary, Smith has shown an ability to teach on both sides of the ball. In addition to having served six seasons as a defensive backfield coach, he started his MSU coaching career with one year as the wide receivers coach during his initial stay in Starkville.

He tutored the likes of current National Football League cornerback Fred Smoot (1999 and 2000) and long-time pro standout wide receiver Eric Moulds (1995) during that time.

In 2000, three of his four defensive backfield starters signed professional football contracts. That secondary intercepted 19 passes, the second-most in school history. One year earlier, Smith's secondary led the Southeastern Conference in pass defense and finished the season ranked fourth nationally in that department. In 1998, his troops were the last NCAA Division I unit to allow a touchdown through the air (Week 5).

From 1997-2000, Mississippi State posted a 33-15 overall record, 20-12 in the SEC. The 1998 team won the SEC Western Division championship and played eventual national champion Tennessee in the SEC title game in Atlanta. That team culminated the year with a berth in the 1999 Cotton Bowl. In 1999, State finished 10-2, defeating Clemson in the '99 Peach Bowl. The 2000 Bulldog team won eight games and beat Texas A&M in the Independence Bowl.

Smith has also coached on the collegiate level in Mississippi at Ole Miss (1992-94) and Delta State (1990-91). He began his coaching career on the high school level at Greenwood (Miss.) from 1982-89.

Smith holds a master's degree in administration from Delta State (1992) and a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Millsaps College. Smith is married to the former Sheilah McLemore and the couple has four children, sons Robert and Melvin, and daughters Deondra and Ashlee.

Reed Stringer · 3rd Season

Tight Ends / Special Teams

Alma Mater: Delta State, 2001

When Mississippi State head football coach Sylvester Croom rewarded Reed Stringer with a position on his full-time, on-the-field staff in January 2005, it was an endorsement of the work performed by the former two-year graduate assistant in Croom's initial season. In 2007, Croom further rewarded Stringer by adding oversight of the MSU special teams to his job description.

His impact was felt immediately, particularly with the special teams. After his average dipped by nearly 4 yards per punt between his freshman and sophomore seasons, punter Blake McAdams returned his punting average to the 40-yard threshold in 2007. Place-kicker Adam Carlson, who made just eight-of-16 field goals in his first two seasons at State, converted nine-of-12 three-point opportunities this past season, including six in a row to close the regular season. Even more improvement was made by the Bulldog cover units, which reduced both kickoff return and punt return yardage against.

Stringer responded in 2005 by helping Eric Butler become the school's all-time touchdown receptions leader among tight ends with seven scoring catches. This past season, his tight end corps combined for the most receptions by the position at MSU since 1990. He is blessed with tutoring one of the team's deeper and more experienced positions – the top three on the depth chart at the position are seniors. That unit improved its pass-catching numbers each year under Stringer's guidance.

Stringer, 28, served the previous two seasons as the school's graduate assistant on offense, working primarily with the offensive line.

He heads into the '07 season with a pre-season all-SEC performer and former freshman all-league returner at tight end -- Butler -- who set a single-season MSU record for touchdown catches by a Bulldog tight end the year before establishing the career standard, one of the team's most versatile performers -- Dezmond Sherrod -- who has already made a name for himself as a relentless blocker who can play fullback as well, and a converted wide receiver -- Jason Husband -- who has been impressive as a pass catcher at the position with three touchdowns in 15 career grabs.

It was his fervor in working with the scout team preparing the Bulldogs for their weekly opponents, and his work with J.B. Grimes and the 2004 offensive line that paved the way for his initial promotion.

Prior to joining the MSU staff, Stringer served one year as a graduate assistant working with the tight ends at his alma mater, Delta State.

A four-year letterman on the Statesmen's offensive line, he helped DSU claim the 2000 NCAA Division II national championship. Stringer concluded his career with a string of 35 consecutive starting assignments at offensive left tackle. In addition to that '00 national title, he was also instrumental in helping Delta State win the 1998 and 2000 Gulf South Conference championships. He graduated from the Cleveland, Miss., based institution in 2001 with a degree in business management. Stringer also completed his master's degree work in business administration from DSU in 2003.

A native of Canton, Miss., Stringer was a two-time academic all-Gulf South Conference player while at Delta State. He was also named to the GSC Academic Honor Roll three times. He is married to the former Emily Howell, of Starkville, Miss.

David Turner · 2nd Season

Defensive Line

Alma Mater: Davidson, 1985

Mississippi State head football coach Sylvester Croom considered himself fortunate indeed to find an experienced coach to replace Brick Haley, when the latter accepted an early spring coaching assignment with the Chicago Bears of the National Football League. But in David Turner, not only did Croom get an experienced coach, he got an accomplished defensive line instructor with a Southeastern Conference coaching background.

Faced with rebuilding the interior of the defensive line which had three seniors depart prior to his arrival, Turner not only found capable starters to man those positions, he built depth to allow fresh troops to remain on the field as the season developed. Under Turner's tutelage, State reduced its rushing touchdowns allowed. And working with defensive end Titus Brown in his final year of eligibility with State, he helped the player break into the school's all-time top 10 sack leaders.

Turner joined the MState staff after one season at the University of Alabama. He coached the Crimson Tide defensive ends during his lone campaign in Tuscaloosa, and helped the Tide to a 6-6 regular-season record and a berth in the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. UA finished 23rd nationally in total defense in 2006.

A 22-year veteran of the collegiate coaching ranks, Turner joined the Alabama staff after four seasons at Vanderbilt where he was the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. During his time with the Commodores, he coached all-SEC defensive end Jovan Haye, who tied for the league lead in sacks and was named Vandy's first all-league lineman in 10 years.

A native of Goldston, N.C., Turner has also worked in the Big Ten Conference at Minnesota (2001), where he worked with the defensive ends, and in the Atlantic Coast Conference at Virginia (1997-2000), where he was the defensive tackles and linebackers coach. He also served as a special teams co-coordinator during his final year with the Cavaliers.

He began his collegiate coaching career in 1986 as an assistant at his alma mater, Davidson College. He worked with the running backs, tight ends and then outside linebackers over a two-year stretch.

In 1988, he moved to North Carolina State, serving two years as a defensive graduate assistant. He worked with a Wolfpack unit that ranked first in the ACC in total defense both seasons.

He spent one year as the defensive line coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, helping the team to a 12-2 overall record and Division II national championship. He also worked two seasons at James Madison, helping the Dukes to a 9-4 record and a berth in the 1991 Division I-AA playoffs.

Turner returned to the Division I ranks in 1993, serving two seasons as defensive ends coach at Kentucky. In 1995, he went back to N.C. State, coaching defensive ends and linebackers before joining the UVa staff in '97.

Turner worked as an intern for three National Football League teams – Detroit Lions (1992), Miami Dolphins (1997) and the Pittsburgh Steelers (1998) and he played professionally for one season in the Italian Football League.

A three-time varsity letterman as a running back, Turner earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from Davidson in 1985.

He is married to the former Yvette Modica and the couple has two daughters, Bianca and Alexyia.

Pat Washington · 2nd Season

Wide Receivers

Alma Mater: Auburn, 1987

When Pat Washington joined the Mississippi State football coaching staff in January 2007, one of the premier wide receiver instructors in the Southeastern Conference – and a coach with a connection to offensive coordinator Woody McCorvey -- was added to Sylvester Croom's staff.

With Washington at the helm of the receiving corps, MSU threw for more touchdowns than one year prior. Under his direction, Jamayel Smith improved his pass-catching numbers from 20 for 335 yards to 31 for 503 yards. Smith had 208 yards receiving against Arkansas in 2007, tying for the second-most yards receiving in a game by a Bulldog.

Washington, 43, may have come to MSU from Kansas State University of the Big 12 Conference, but it was in the SEC that he gained his reputation as an elite developer of wide receivers. In his lone season as wide receiver coach at KSU, he helped the Wildcats finish 7-5 overall and earn a post-season invitation to play Rutgers in the Texas Bowl at Houston. Along the way, K-State defeated conference opponents Oklahoma State and Texas, two foes who earned post-season bowl wins.

He oversaw a receiving corps that accounted for 2,601 yards in 2006, a total that was 63.5 percent of the Wildcat offense and the most receiving yards at the school in three years. He had four pass catchers with 23 or more receptions this past year.

Prior to his one season in Manhattan, Kan., Washington had an ultra-successful 11-year run as the receivers coach at the University of Tennessee, from 1995-2005. It was in Knoxville where he was widely credited with helping develop the Volunteers' traditionally strong passing game.

During his tenure with the Vols, Washington coached a string of celebrated pass catchers, including Donte' Stallworth, Cedrick Wilson, Peerless Price, Marcus Nash and Joey Kent. In all, Washington produced 11 National Football League draft picks, including first-team, all-SEC selections Kent and Nash. Those two, with Wilson and Price, are the top four names on UT's career receiving list.

He also helped coach Tennessee to 10 bowl berths during his 11 seasons, three Florida Citrus Bowls, two Fiesta, Peach, and Cotton Bowls, and one Orange Bowl selection. UT's 1998 SEC Championship Game win over Mississippi State and 1999 Fiesta Bowl win over Florida State capped the Volunteers' undefeated, national championship season.

Prior to joining the staff at Tennessee, Washington served one season as running backs coach at Baylor University (1994), two years as quarterbacks and receivers coach at Texas Christian University (1992-93) and three seasons as receivers instructor at Louisiana-Lafayette (1989-91). He began his coaching career with two seasons as a graduate assistant at Auburn University.

He also helped those schools attain post-season bowl recognition. Washington was with Baylor at the 1994 Alamo Bowl and in back-to-back Sugar Bowls with Auburn (1988-89).

A native of Mobile, Ala., Washington graduated from Auburn in 1987 with a degree in management. He played quarterback for the Tigers from 1982-85, starting his junior and senior seasons and helping coach Pat Dye's teams to four-straight bowl games. Auburn played in the 1982 Tangerine Bowl, the '84 Sugar Bowl, the '84 Liberty Bowl, and the '86 Cotton Bowl. Playing in the same backfield with Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson, Washington guided AU to a 17-8 record as the school's starting QB.

Washington and his wife Claudette have two sons, Tyson and Justin.

Ben Pollard · 2nd Season

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

Alma Mater: Texas Tech, 1984

Mississippi State head football coach Sylvester Croom must have pinched himself to make sure he wasn't dreaming when he realized that a coach of Ben Pollard's stature was available when the Bulldogs had an opening for a new strength and conditioning coach following the 2006 football season.

And when Pollard was hired in January 2007, the Bulldog weight room had an experienced performance coach with a deep background in Division I-A football, much of which was gained in the Southeastern Conference.

In just his first season in the Mississippi State weight room, he helped groom the Bulldogs to their first winning season in seven years. He helped transform a team that went 3-9 in 2006 into one that concluded the '07 season 8-5, including a win over Central Florida in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Pollard, 46, came to the State program following three years as the head football strength and performance coach on the staff of head coach Dennis Francione at Texas A&M University. During his three seasons with the Aggies (2004-06), Texas A&M posted a 21-15 overall record and advanced to a pair of postseason bowl games. Pollard helped A&M to a Cotton Bowl appearance in 2004 and to a 9-4 overall mark and berth in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl in 2006.

Pollard originally worked with Franchione when both were at the University of Alabama. Pollard served as the director of strength and conditioning for the Crimson Tide, 2001-03, helping UA to 17-8 overall mark and an invitation to the 2001 Independence Bowl.

He had followed Franchione to Alabama from Texas Christian University, where the two worked from 1998-2000. In his capacity as strength and conditioning coach, Pollard helped the Horned Frogs to three straight bowl games, the 1998 Sun and the 1999 and 2000 Mobile Bowls.

A veteran of more than 20 years working in the strength and conditioning field, Pollard was the head strength coach at Sam Houston State from 1990-97. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant in the weight room at Texas Tech University, 1987-89.

During his professional career in the weight room, he has earned the title of Master Strength Coach by the Collegiate Strength Coaches Association.

Born in McKeesport, Pa., but raised in Lubbock, Texas, Pollard earned his bachelor's (1984) and master's (1989) degrees from Texas Tech.

He is married to the former Leslie Willis of Birmingham, Ala., and the couple has three children: sons Harrison and Everett and daughter Melissa.

Brad Pendergrass · 5th Season

Assistant AD / Football Operations

Alma Mater: Tennessee, 1998

Organized and detail-oriented, Brad Pendergrass was hired by Mississippi State head football coach Sylvester Croom in January 2004 as his personal staff assistant. His hard work, efficient style and proven results earned him a promotion to Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations in June of 2008.

Pendergrass continues to handle a wide variety of administrative tasks for the head coach, touching virtually every area of the football office operation. He serves as the football office liaison in budgetary matters and compliance issues with the athletic administration and assists in on-campus football recruiting with the Bulldog staff. He is the coaching staff liaison to the equipment and training rooms, and oversees ticket and facility matters, as well.

He continues to oversee football student-athlete housing and cafeteria issues, directs all summer camps, and is the travel coordinator for home, away and bowl game travel. He assists the athletic ticket office with player complimentary admissions, and oversees the football office secretaries and all graduate assistants. He serves as the head coach's liaison with the video, training room, equipment and facility personnel. In addition, Pendergrass manages the daily operation of the football office.

In his new position, Pendergrass adds game-day management of sideline, locker room and coaches box to his duties. He directs the spring coaches' clinic and serves as the staff liaison to the Southeastern Conference office. He also monitors State's football squad list. Pendergrass also serves as the coaching staff liaison to its car dealers.

He came to Mississippi State following a 10-year association with the University of Tennessee as a student, graduate assistant and football staff member.

For the two years prior to assuming the MSU assignment, Pendergrass was a recruiting assistant on the Volunteer football staff. In that capacity, he assisted with the official and unofficial on-campus recruitment of student-athletes, participated in the evaluation of transcripts, prepared film and prospect databases, and assisted with NCAA compliance paperwork. He also had a hand in UT summer and fantasy camps.

Prior to his appointment as the recruiting assistant, Pendergrass worked for nearly three years as a graduate assistant in Tennessee football operations. In that role, he helped coordinate the UT spring coaching clinic and helped oversee the annual agent seminar and worked the pro timing days for Vol football players. During the season, he was in charge of practice security and assisted with the daily operation of the head coach's office.

Pendergrass began his association with the Vol football staff as a student assistant, working with both the equipment staff and later assisted with scout team organizational duties.

Raised in Huntingdon, Tenn., Pendergrass received a Bachelor of Science in Business/Marketing from the University of Tennessee in 1998. He earned a Master of Science degree in Human Performance & Sports Studies, with a concentration in Sport Administration, in 2001. He has done additional graduate classroom work in human resource development.

Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. - LSU opened the 2007 season by showing why it's the No. 2-ranked team in the country Thursday night, downing homestanding Mississippi State 45-0 at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field in the lidlifter for both squads. The loss was State's eighth in a row to the Tigers.

The Tigers picked off six State passes in the contest to aid in the shutout effort over MSU. State struggled offensively all evening against the highly touted LSU defensive unit, managing just 146 yards from scrimmage. MSU quarterback Michael Henig could not find a rhythm on the home field as he threw a school record-tying six interceptions.

Meanwhile, LSU's offense tallied 347 yards in total. Quarterback Matt Flynn was 12-of-19 for 128 yards through the air, including two touchdown passes, one to Early Doucet who had 78 yards receiving on the night. Tiger running back Keiland Williams ran in a pair of scores for the Tigers on the ground in the first half. Backup signal-caller Ryan Perrilloux rushed and threw for scores in the fourth quarter to round out scoring.

The offenses for both squads came out flat at first, not scoring a single touchdown in the first quarter. The only points came on a 27-yard field goal from LSU kicker Colt David. The Tigers held a 3-0 lead at the end of the period.

In the second quarter, the Bulldogs still couldn't muster up any offensive production. Henig threw four of his six interceptions in the first half. He was 11-of-28 for 120 yards in the game. On the other side of the ball, the Bulldog defense started to lose ground as the Tigers put up 14 points in the last six minutes of the first half to head into the locker room with a 17-0 lead. The Bulldogs were outgained 185-79 in the first half.

At the beginning of the second half, the Tigers continued their attack, scoring on their first drive, an 11-yard touchdown pass from Flynn to Doucet to push the lead to 24-0. LSU then capitalized on another Henig interception by scoring another touchdown, a Flynn pass to Charles Scott to go up 31-0.

LSU also kept State sophomore running back Anthony Dixon from breaking loose, only tallying 29 yards rushing on 13 carries. Senior Tony Burks led the Bulldog receiving corps with 45 yards on one catch.

Dominic Douglas, making his first career start, led the team with nine tackles on the night. He, along with Jimmie Holmes and preseason all-SEC defensive end Titus Brown, accounted for one sack apiece.

Junior defensive back Derek Pegues moved into fifth place on the MSU career list for kickoff return yardage. He had 100 all-purpose yards for the night.

Louisiana Superdome • New Orleans, La.

NEW ORLEANS, La. - Behind a strong second-half performance, Mississippi State posted a 38-17 road win over homestanding Tulane in the Louisiana Superdome. After the Bulldogs (1-1) and Green Wave (0-1) battled to a 17-17 tie at the half, State shut out TU 21-0 in the second half to secure the triumph.

Highlighting the night for MSU was sophomore running back Anthony Dixon, who rushed 27 times for 131 yards (both career highs) and two second-half touchdowns. Starting quarterback Michael Henig completed 20-of-31 passes for 223 yards and a touchdown, and scored his first career rushing touchdown.

The Bulldogs jumped on top of the Green Wave early, with Gabe O'Neal intercepting Scott Elliot's second pass of the game and returning it 47 yards for the score. Tulane answered on its next drive on a Matt Forte touchdown run from 39 yards out. The Bulldog defense held the highly touted running back in check otherwise, as he ended the night with just 47 yards on the ground.

State went up 14-7 later in the first period on Henig's 18-yard touchdown run, but Tulane returned the favor on its ensuing possession to knot the score at 14-14.

In the second quarter, both defenses played well, allowing only a field goal apiece. Henig engineered an 82-yard State drive but was unable to get a touchdown in the red zone. Adam Carlson then connected on 23-yard field goal with 6:25 before the half to put State up 17-14. On the next drive, Tulane drove 65 yards before being stopped inside the 10-yard line. Their resulting field goal left the score tied at 17 at the intermission.

The Bulldog offense came out firing in the second half. MSU drove the ball 67 yards, scoring when Henig completed an 8-yard pass to Jeremy Jones. The defense continued its strong play by holding Tulane's offense to negative yardage for the third quarter and by forcing a fumble that led to a 27-yard touchdown run by Dixon.

Dixon continued to carry the load in the fourth quarter. He rushed the ball on all but one play on State's final scoring drive of the night, completing the charge with a 7-yard scoring run. The defense held Tulane to only six yards of offense in the second half.

Defensively, the Bulldogs were paced by Jamar Chaney's six tackles. In addition to his first career interception, O'Neal also recovered a Green Wave fumble. Keith Fitzhugh notched five tackles and a sack for State on the evening.

Mississippi State 19
Auburn 14

Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

Lincoln Financial Sports

AUBURN, Ala. - An interception that led to a mid-fourth-quarter drive by Mississippi State proved to be the difference in the Bulldogs' 19-14 upset win at Auburn.

After Blake McAdams' 73-yard punt had pinned Auburn deep in its own territory, Demario Bobo's first career interception of a tipped Tiger pass at the AU 44-yard line would set up an MSU drive that was the only scoring play of the second half. State drove the 44 yards on 10 plays and finished it with a 5-yard Christian Ducre rush with 5:29 to go in regulation. The two-point conversion failed. Ducre had an 18-yard rush earlier on the drive on a third-and-12 draw play from the Auburn 25.

Neither team had mounted much momentum in the second half of action before the MSU score, trading short drives back and forth throughout. The only other possessions of significance in the half were Auburn's first and last of the half. AU took the ball to open the third quarter and went 60 yards to the 16 before fumbling the ball away.

On its last attempt of the game, Auburn starting quarterback Brandon Cox returned to the field after being benched early on in favor of backup Kodi Burns. Cox quickly moved Auburn down the field 67 yards on 12 plays - to the Bulldog 9 - before State's defense stood strong, finally watching a last-minute, fourth down attempt fall incomplete in the end zone.

Highlighting the day statistically for MSU was running back Anthony Dixon, who posted his fourth career 100-yard game, rambling for 103 yards on 29 carries. Dominic Douglas led the MSU defensive effort with nine tackles.

State opened the game strong, building a 13-0 lead, only to see Auburn score twice late in the first half to lead 14-13.

MSU took the opening drive and went 58 yards on 12 plays before being halted by the AU defense. Adam Carlson was then true on a 32-yard field goal. Bulldog starting quarterback Michael Henig suffered a broken bone in his throwing hand on the drive and never returned. Reserves Wesley Carroll and Josh Riddell would split time under center for State the remainder of the afternoon.

On the second play of the ensuing Tiger possession, Bulldog Derek Pegues intercepted a tipped Cox pass and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown. Carlson's extra point made the State lead 10-0 just 6:24 into the contest.

After the teams went scoreless the remainder of the first quarter, the Bulldogs added to their lead early in the second period with a Carlson 30-yarder, the result of an AU fumble forced by an 11-yard sack from State's De'Mon Glanton.

But Auburn would get things cranked up late in the half under the direction of the option-style, signal-caller Burns, scoring twice in the final 4:18. He led the Tigers on a 5-play, 54-yard drive - capped by a 28-yard rumble by Ben Tate.

State then handed AU a golden opportunity when Pegues fumbled the ensuing kickoff at the MSU 30. Seven plays later, Burns dove in from a yard out to give the Tigers their 14-13 halftime lead.

Gardner-Webb 15
Mississippi State 31

September 22, 2007
Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Mississippi State won its third straight football game Saturday night, downing non-conference visitor Gardner-Webb 31-15 at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. It marks the first time since the 2000 season the Bulldogs have won three consecutive gridiron contests.

State (3-1) amassed 379 yards of total offense in the game, led by another solid rushing effort from running back Anthony Dixon. Dixon tallied 86 yards on 16 carries while scoring two of the Bulldogs' early touchdowns in the affair.

MSU scored on its opening possession, completing a 68-yard drive with a 6-yard touchdown run by Dixon. On Gardner Webb's opening drive, De'Mon Glanton intercepted Devin Campbell's pass and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown and a 14-0 Bulldog advantage. Glanton's return marked the third consecutive week a Bulldog player had returned an interception for a touchdown on the opponents' opening drive.

About halfway through the second quarter, Josh Riddell came into the game for starting quarterback Wesley Carroll (both splitting time in place of the injured Michael Henig) and drove the Bulldogs down the field for another Dixon touchdown run, this one for 12 yards. On the next drive for State, Riddell threw his first career touchdown pass, hitting Tony Burks for a 30-yarder to give the Bulldogs a 28-0 lead at the intermission.

The Bulldog defense held the Running Bulldogs' option offense to only 64 yards in the first half.

Bulldog penalties and a stagnant offense helped GWU back into the game in the second half. MSU had nine penalties for 102 yards, and those penalties helped the Running Bulldogs get in good field position. However, they could not capitalize as the MSU defense only allowed one touchdown, a 6-yard Phillip Peoples scoring run, and forced three Evan Kay field goals.

The Bulldogs lone second-half points came from an Adam Carlson field goal. He had missed one earlier, the result of a bad hold.

In addition to Dixon's night, backup Christian Ducre' ran for 52 of his own. Riddell ended the night 8-for-11 through the air with 124 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

On the defensive side of the ball, Gabe O'Neal led the way for the Bulldogs with 10 tackles. Titus Brown added two sacks and moved into eighth place on the school's career sack list.

Mississippi State 21
No. 16 South Carolina 38

September 29, 2007
Williams-Brice Stadium • Columbia, S.C.

Lincoln Financial Sports

COLUMBIA, S.C. - Mississippi State's upset bid at 16th-ranked South Carolina fell short as the Gamecocks used a blocked punt to change momentum and pull away for a 38-21 victory. It marked the fifth win in a row for USC (4-1, 2-1 Southeastern Conference) in the series with MSU (3-2, 1-2).

With South Carolina leading 17-14 at halftime, neither team mounted much of a drive on their first tries of the second half. But State, on its second possession of the third quarter, would take the lead on a solid scoring drive of five plays - all rushes by Christian Ducré and Anthony Dixon. Dixon finished off the march with a 2-yard score and MSU led 21-17 at the 8:56 mark of the third.

The Bulldog defense forced a 50-yard field goal attempt by Ryan Succop on the next possession. But as quickly as State seemed to have gained a bit of momentum, it would lose it just as fast. After the Gamecocks stopped MSU on five plays, Eric Norwood broke through the line and blocked Blake McAdams' punt, which Carolina recovered on the MSU 27. On the very next play, Gamecock quarterback Chris Smelley hit receiver Kenny McKinley near the goal line and McKinley then darted into the end zone to put the USC back on top 24-21.

The longest drive State would muster following that scenario was 32 yards. Meanwhile, USC tacked on two more touchdowns, both rushes by back Mike Davis, to pull away for the victory.

The Bulldog offensive production was once again led by Dixon, who amassed 83 yards and two touchdowns on the day. Ducré added 68 rushing yards for the MSU cause. Josh Riddell, in his first career start at quarterback for State, went 9-for-21 for 101 yards, a touchdown and one interception.

The Gamecocks were paced by Davis, who had 59 yards and three scores on the ground. McKinley was also stellar on the receiving end, hauling in four catches for 107 yards and two touchdowns. Smelley was solid in his new starting role for USC, completing 19-of-37 aerials for 279 yards, two touchdowns and one interception.

In a penalty-plagued first half (15 called between the two teams), South Carolina got on the board first in the game taking the opening drive 12 plays and capping it with a 3-yard touchdown run by Davis.

After the teams traded possessions and McAdams pinned the Gamecocks at their own 3-yard line, MSU capitalized by stopping USC on three downs and forcing an errant punt that gave the Bulldogs the ball on the USC 31. Two plays later, Riddell found Aubrey Bell for a 28-yard touchdown pass.

South Carolina got good field position for its next score at the MSU 37. The fourth play of the drive saw Smelley find McKinley for a 20-yard touchdown.

But the Bulldogs would answer again on its last drive of the first half, taking the ball 62 yards on 14 plays, with Dixon scoring from a yard out.

UAB 13
Mississippi State 30

October 6, 2007
Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Mississippi State (4-2) scored three fourth-quarter touchdowns, including two in a late 15-second span, to hold off a pesky UAB team (1-4) for a 30-13 victory Saturday afternoon at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. MSU is 4-2 for the first time since the 2000 season.

State trailed 10-3 at halftime and 13-9 after three quarters of play before putting together an impressive 11-play, 80-yard drive early in the fourth period that lasted seven minutes. The possession ended in a 10-yard Anthony Dixon touchdown run to put State up 16-13.

The Bulldogs would then shut down UAB's offense the remainder of the day, while producing two more scores of their own. After forcing a punt, State drove 60 yards for another score, capped by a 12-yard Dixon run. On the Blazers' next drive, State's Anthony Johnson picked off Sam Hunt's pass on the first play and returned it 30 yards for a score.

Dixon led MSU's offensive performance on the day, registering a career-best 152 yards and three touchdowns on 32 carries. It was his fifth career 100-yard contest, the third of 2007.

Neither team scored in the first quarter, but the Blazers broke the ice within the first minute of the second period with a 42-yard field goal from Swayze Waters, capping a 30-yard drive that was setup by an interception of MSU's Mike Henig. Wesley Carroll received the start for State, but Henig played for the majority of the first half, playing for the first time since breaking his hand Sept. 15 at Auburn. He was 2-for-8 on the day for 26 yards and two interceptions. He did not play in the second half.

On the next Blazer drive, Bulldog Kyle Love blocked another Waters field goal attempt. That led to a 39-yard field goal from MSU's Adam Carlson to tie the game with 10:01 to go in the first half.

UAB answered that with its best drive of the afternoon, a 13-play, 87-yard march that was topped off with a 31-yard Hunt pass to Frantrell Forrest. That gave the Blazers their 10-3 lead at the intermission.

Mississippi State scored on the opening drive of the second half, a 1-yard, fourth-down touchdown run from Dixon. The drive, which went 75 yards, was the longest scoring of the season for MSU.

UAB's lone score of the second half came on the ensuing possession, Waters hitting from 29 yards away after a 69-yard drive by the Blazers.

Although being out rushed 165-71 in the contest, the Blazers still collected 288 yards of total offense as compared to the Bulldogs' 284.

Carroll ended his first career start for MSU 9-for-12 for 93 yards. His longest pass went to Aubrey Bell for 19 yards.

With his three rushing touchdowns on the day, Dixon now has nine touchdowns on the season and 18 for his career. That moves him into 10th place on the all-time list, tied with Dennis Johnson.

No. 25 Tennessee 33
Mississippi State 21

October 13, 2007
Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Tennessee held off a strong Mississippi State upset bid 33-21 at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field as the Volunteers improved to 4-2 and 2-1 in Southeastern Conference play. State fell to 4-3, 1-3 in the league, while dropping their fifth straight to the Volunteers in the series.

Leading 27-21 early in the fourth quarter Tennessee mounted a solid drive, marching 69 yards on 14 plays and eating up 5:42 of the clock. The drive was capped by a 26-yard field goal from Daniel Lincoln, handing the Vols a 30-21 lead with 5:45 remaining.

Tennessee would shut down the Bulldog offense, which had a very productive day, the rest of the way, ultimately shutting them out of scoring completely in the fourth period.

The Vols were led by a solid performance from senior quarterback Eric Ainge who completed 22-of-36 passes for 259 yards and two touchdowns and was intercepted once. Receiver Lucas Taylor hauled in 11 catches for 186 yards and a score. Running back Arian Foster also greatly contributed to the UT offensive effort, which produced 470 yards from scrimmage, by rushing 21 times for 139 yards and one score.

MSU's offense, which tallied 338 total yards of its own, got another 100-yard effort from Anthony Dixon, who tallied 108 yards and a touchdown on the ground. Rookie quarterback Wesley Carroll, in just his third collegiate start, completed 18-of-33 passes for 203 yards and two scores. Tony Burks and Jamayel Smith each had five receptions and a touchdown.

Tennessee built a 17-14 lead at halftime and expanded it to 24-14 when Foster scored on a 1-yard. But MSU answered with a 67-yard drive, as Carroll found Smith on 14-yard pass to the corner of the end zone on a third-down play.

The Vols threatened the end zone again on their next drive, but State's defense stood strong and forced another Lincoln field goal, this one from 29 yards away with 3:47 to go in the third gave Tennessee a 27-21 lead.

After the Bulldogs drove 48 yards on nine plays to the UT 35, MSU faced a fourth-and-6 early in the fourth quarter. The Bulldog opted to go for the first down, but Carroll's pass to Arnil Stallworth was tipped, forcing Stallworth to lean back toward the line of scrimmage to make the catch, which came up a yard shy of the first down.

State would intercept Ainge on the third play of the ensuing possession, but the Vols forced MSU to punt after just three plays. UT then put together a long, clock-eating drive for the field goal that put them up 30-21.

The Vols opened scoring on the afternoon by marching 78 yards on nine plays on their first drive of the day. Ainge hit Chris Brown on a 4-yard touchdown pass for the score.

Mississippi State 13
No. 7 West Virginia 38

October 20, 2007
Mountaineer Field • Morgantown, W. Va.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va.. - West Virginia scored 28 first-quarter points and the ninth-ranked Mountaineers never looked back in a 38-13 victory over visiting Mississippi State in the second meeting ever between the teams, the first on the Morgantown campus.

With the loss, the Bulldogs dropped to 4-4 overall. WVU improved to 6-1. The Mountaineers claimed both meetings in the series, also winning in 2006 in Starkville.

The opening minute of the game set the tone for the afternoon. West Virginia fumbled the opening kickoff and MSU recovered deep in WVU territory, but the play was called back due to an offsides penalty against the Bulldogs. After the rekick, the Mountaineers struck very quickly as quarterback Patrick White scampered 64 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage and WVU led 7-0 just 21 seconds into the contest.

After stopping State on three plays, the Mountaineers drove 88 yards on 12 plays for their second score of the afternoon. White hit Owen Schmitt on a 12-yard pass to cap the possession. After a 51-yard return by Derek Pegues on the ensuing kickoff, the Bulldogs would assist West Virginia on its next score when Anthony Dixon fumbled on the first play and WVU's Marc Magro returned the loose ball to the State 16-yard line. Three plays later, the Mountaineers found paydirt again, White hitting Darius Reynaud on a 10-yard completion. WVU led 21-0 at the 6:09 mark of the first period.

WVU got great field position again on its next drive after a 23-yard MSU punt went out of bounds at the Bulldog 48. West Virginia took advantage again, completing its impressive first period of play with a five-play drive that ended with running back Steve Slaton's 26-yard touchdown jaunt. Slaton had another big day on the ground, gaining 127 yards on 23 carries.

After a WVU field goal six ticks into the second quarter, the Bulldog offense finally got on the board later in the period. A State punt pinned the Mountaineers at their own 1-yard line and, after a three-and-out by WVU, the resulting punt was returned by Pegues to the West Virginia 29. Bulldog quarterback Wesley Carroll found Jamayel Smith on a 22-yard pass play to open the State drive. Four Dixon rushes later, he found the end zone from a yard out on fourth down for MSU's first points of the day. WVU led 31-7 at halftime.

State's offense opened the second half impressively, taking the opening kickoff and driving 58 yards on 13 plays. Christian Ducre ended the possession with a 3-yard scoring rush. MSU's two-point conversion failed and WVU led 31-13 at the 9:50 mark of the third period. Both teams would go scoreless the remainder of the quarter.

The final points of the game came less than a minute into the final period. West Virginia notched a seven-play, 48-yard drive led by backup quarterback Jarrett Brown, who found Reynaud for his second TD of the day.

Mississippi State 31
No. 14 Kentucky 14

October 27, 2007
Commonwealth Stadium • Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky. - Two critical turnovers by Kentucky early in the second half led to 10 Mississippi State points and helped the Bulldogs upset the 14th-ranked Wildcats 31-14. The victory upped State's record to 5-4 overall, 2-3 in the SEC.

With State leading 14-7 at halftime, UK (6-3, 2-3) took the opening kickoff of the second half but Alfonso Smith fumbled and Bulldog Keith Fitzhugh fell on the ball at the Wildcat 32. Seven plays later, place-kicker Adam Carlson hit a 31-yard field goal to give MSU a 17-7 lead early in the third period.

On UK's next possession, the Bulldogs forced a punt, but Wildcat punter Tim Masthay was forced to pull the ball down and run. State took over at the UK 26. Wesley Carroll found Jason Husband to convert a third-and-11; and two Anthony Dixon rushes later, State was in the end zone and led 24-7 with 8:16 to go in the third quarter.

State's defense would be the story the rest of the way, allowing the potent Wildcat offense just seven points in the second half. The remainder of the game would see the Bulldog defense stop the Wildcats twice on downs, pick off three Kentucky passes, recover one UK fumble, and force one punt. The fumble set up State's final points of the day. Two rushes by Bulldog Christian Ducre, the second a 34-yard scamper to paydirt, gave MSU its 31-14 advantage.

Avery Hannibal collected two sacks and Titus Brown added one more to his season totals as well. Fitzhugh, De'Mon Glanton and Marcus Washington all had picks for the Bulldogs.

UK's star quarterback Woodson ended the day 24-of-42 for 230 yards, but had the three interceptions against two touchdown passes. The Wildcat running game, with its top two backs out with injuries, managed just 89 yards on the ground.

Meanwhile, State's signal-caller - the rookie Carroll - produced another very solid day under center for the Bulldogs. He completed 17-of-28 passes for 152 yards and two scores. He was complemented very well by the running of Ducre and Dixon. Ducre tallied 119 yards and his TD run on 19 carries. Dixon ended with 75 yards and a score on the ground, and also hauled in one of Carroll's two scoring aerials.

The Bulldogs enjoyed a 14-7 halftime lead by notching impressive 80-yard drives on their first two possessions of the game. Strong running by Dixon and Ducre, and accurate throwing from Carroll, helped State manage the clock and limit Kentucky's offensive opportunities.

State took the opening kickoff and marched 80 yards on 14 plays. Carroll hit Husband on an 11-yard pass to cap the drive. UK would answer with a nine-play, 73-yard drive of its own. Woodson found Johnson for an 18-yard scoring pass and the teams were tied at 7-7 at the 5:17 mark of the first period.

No. 21 Alabama 12
Mississippi State 17

November 10, 2007
Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Two Mississippi State interceptions of Alabama quarterback John Parker Wilson led to 14 Bulldog points as MSU upset the 21st-ranked Crimson Tide 17-12 Saturday afternoon at Davis Wade Stadium.

A school-record crowd of 56,188 fans witnessed the victory - MSU's second in as many years over UA and upped State's record to 6-4 overall, 3-3 in Southeastern Conference. 'Bama fell to 6-4, 4-3.

With Alabama leading 9-3 late in the second quarter, 'Bama appeared it was going to take control of the game on a well-clock-managed possession which began at the 4:08 mark of the second period. UA drove 78 yards on 13 plays to the Bulldog 1 where it faced a third-and-goal with 21 seconds remaining before halftime. After a timeout, Wilson dropped back to pass, but a heavy rush from MSU's Titus Brown forced him to throw early and short. Waiting in the end zone was Bulldog Anthony Johnson, who intercepted the pass and returned it 100 yards for a touchdown. That huge momentum swing gave State a 10-9 advantage at the intermission.

On Alabama's first drive of the second half, the Bulldogs would pick off Wilson again, this time the interception being made by Derek Pegues. Pegues returned the ball 40 yards to the Crimson Tide 25-yard line. Five plays later, State running back Anthony Dixon plunged in on the right side from three yards out. Adam Carlson's extra point put MSU up 17-9 with 11:35 to go in the third period.

The remainder of the game would highlight both teams' defenses, as only a fourth-quarter Alabama field goal would be scored the rest of the way and State would hold on for the victory. The Crimson Tide, which has now not scored an offensive touchdown against Mississippi State since the 2004 season, never penetrated MSU territory any deeper than the Bulldog 46-yard line in the second half (excluding the field goal drive).

In addition to being State's second straight win over 'Bama, it also marked Bulldog head coach Sylvester Croom's second consecutive win over his alma mater. It was also Crimson Tide head coach Nick Saban's first career loss against MSU (was 5-0 vs. the Bulldogs while at LSU).

Two Alabama field goals were the only scoring in the first period of the game. The Crimson Tide's first score was setup after MSU's first drive ended with quarterback Wesley Carroll's first career pass interception, leaving UA at the Bulldog 34. After State stood strong, Leigh Tiffin nailed a 39-yard field goal for an early 3-0 Alabama lead.

After the Tide held MSU to a second three-and-out possession, Alabama drove 25 yards on five plays to the State 34. From there, Tiffin connected on a 51-yard field goal effort for a 6-0 'Bama lead.

Alabama extended its lead to 9-0 on its first drive of the second quarter. After moving the ball 52 yards on 10 plays, Tiffin connected on his third kick attempt of the day, this time a 29-yard effort.

Mississippi State 31
Arkansas 45

November 17, 2007
War Memorial Stadium • Little Rock, Ark.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Despite Mississippi State's largest offensive day in five years, an equally potent Arkansas offensive output, coupled with Bulldog turnovers, led the Razorbacks to a 45-31 victory over Mississippi State at War Memorial Stadium.

With the win Arkansas improved to 7-4 overall, 3-4 in the Southeastern Conference. State fell to 6-5, 3-4. It marked the ninth consecutive win in the series for the Razorbacks who now own a 12-5-1 advantage over the Bulldogs all-time.

MSU scored first on Wesley Carroll's 4-yard touchdown pass to Jamayel Smith with 3:58 to go in the first quarter and that would be the only points of the period. Smith and Carroll would both end the afternoon with career numbers. Smith grabbed 10 receptions for 208 yards and two scores. The true freshman Carroll completed 29-of-51 attempts for 421 yards and four scores with four interceptions.

Arkansas took control of the game in the second quarter, scoring 24 unanswered points to lead 24-7 at halftime. After an early field goal in the period cut the MSU lead to 7-3, the Razorbacks took the lead on a seven-play, 79-yard drive which ended with Casey Dick's first touchdown connection of the day, a 30-yard strike to Farod Jackson. UA led 10-7 with 10:44 to go before intermission.

While holding the Bulldog offense in check, Arkansas would manufacture two more scores in the final 5:01 of the first half. After State was forced to punt deep in its own territory, Dick hooked up with receiver Robert Johnson on a 35-yard pass and UA led 17-7.

After holding State on the next drive, a short punt would give Arkansas the ball at its own 45. On a third-and-16 play from the MSU 19, Dick spotted Marcus Monk for his third touchdown of the day and the Hogs led 24-7 at the half. Dick ended the day 14-of-17 for 199 yards and four scores through the air.

After the Bulldogs trimmed the lead to 24-10 early in the half, Arkansas answered when Dick found Darren McFadden for a 57-yard scoring pass for his fourth passing TD of the afternoon. The Razorback offense passed for 223 yards and rushed for 206.

State got to within two scores at the 3:17 mark of the third period. Derek Pegues' 37-yard punt return to the UA 35-yard line setup the next play, a 35-yard scoring strike from Carroll to Tony Burks.

Arkansas extended the lead again with 9:44 to go in the contest, as McFadden demonstrated his passing skills. The UA star found Johnson for a 24-yard touchdown to put UA up 38-17.

On the second snap of State's next drive, Carroll found Smith again, this time on an 80-yard toss and the Bulldogs were down only two scores.

On State's next possession Antwain Robinson intercepted Carroll and returned the ball 30 yards for a score and a 45-24 Arkansas advantage.

Ole Miss 14
Mississippi State 17

November 23, 2007
Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field • Starkville, Miss.

Lincoln Financial Sports

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Mississippi State's offense couldn't get in synch for three-and-a-half quarters Friday afternoon, but the Bulldogs manufactured three scores in the final 7:51 to rally and post an improbable 17-14 comeback victory over arch-rival Mississippi in the 104th meeting between the teams at Davis Wade Stadium.

With the victory, MSU improved to 7-5 overall, 4-4 in the Southeastern Conference, and virtually assured itself of its first postseason bowl bid since the 2000 season. It also returned the coveted Golden Egg back to Starkville. With the loss, UM fell to 3-8 and ended the season winless (0-8) in league competition.

Adam Carlson's 48-yard field goal with just 12 seconds to go proved to be the game-winner, but was just the conclusion to a fairy-tale ending in the Bulldogs' win.

The comeback started with the Rebels leading 14-0 and gaining possession of the ball with 12:44 remaining in regulation. After the Bulldogs forced a fourth-and-1 at the UM 49-yard line, the Rebels questionably decided to go for the first down. But the Bulldog defense stuffed UM running back BenJarvus Green-Ellis for a loss of two and State took over possession.

Having mustered only four first downs in the entire game to that point, a seemingly different State offense took charge. The Bulldogs drove 46 yards on six plays, a march capped by a four-yard touchdown pass from Wesley Carroll to Anthony Dixon that trimmed the lead to 14-7 with 7:51 to go.

The Rebels, who would not manufacture another first down the rest of the game, were to forced to punt after three downs on their next possession. On the ensuing drive, the Bulldogs seemed primed to tie the score, moving the ball to the UM 12. But those hopes were dashed when a Carroll pass was intercepted at the 10 by Ashlee Palmer and returned 28 yards. Just under seven minutes remained at that point.

The MSU defense would come up strong again on the next drive, again stopping the Rebels on three downs. Then, the game-turning play would come on the resulting punt. Bulldog Derek Pegues, who UM had made an effort to kick away from all day, picked up a Rebel punt that was purposely kicked short to avoid him again, split a number of Rebel defenders, and returned the ball 75 yards for a touchdown. The incredible play, paired with Carlson's extra point, knotted the score at 14-14 with 2:38 to go.

Then, the Bulldog stopper unit did its job once again, forcing another Mississippi punt after three downs. The ensuing punt gave State the ball on its own 35 with just 36 seconds left in the game.

Carroll then went to work, completing two passes for 23 yards and producing an 11-yard run of his own, to get the Bulldogs into field goal range. Carroll would hit Tony Burks for 17 yards to put the Bulldogs in field goal range at the UM 31. Carlson then came on to nail his 48-yard winner, which was the longest field goal connection of his career.

UCF 3

Mississippi State 10

December 29, 2007
Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

MEMPHIS - Mississippi State cashed in on Central Florida's fourth turnover of the game, marching to the lone touchdown of the day late in the fourth quarter, to defeat the Knights 10-3 in the 49th renewal of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, a game that was otherwise very defensive in nature.

With the win, MSU ended the 2007 season at 8-5, its most wins since 2000, and improved to 2-0 all-time over UCF which ended the year 10-4 after winning its last seven games and claiming the Conference USA crown. The Bulldogs also improved to 7-6 all-time in bowl games with the victory and has now been victorious its last three bowl appearances.

The late score, a 1-yard plunge by running back Anthony Dixon, came with just 1:54 remaining in the game. It capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive, State's longest of the day by almost 20 yards, that was setup by Bulldog Keith Fitzhugh's interception of Knight quarterback Kyle Israel, his third throwing miscue of the contest.

But until that point in the game, neither team had generated much offense in a game very much controlled by the defenses. Only two second quarter field goals - one by each team - graced the scoreboard in the first three quarters and the teams would combined for just 418 yards of total offense in the affair.

After a scoreless first quarter started the lowest scoring first half in Liberty Bowl history, UCF finally broke scoring ice after gaining excellent field position at the Bulldog 46 early in the second period. The Knights then moved the ball 18 yards to set up a Michael Torres 45-yard field goal that just cleared the crossbar. UCF led 3-0 with 11:49 to go before the intermission.

After the Knights forced a State punt on the next drive, the Bulldogs got their first break of the afternoon. MSU's Derek Pegues, named the game's Most Valuable Player, picked off the first of two passes at the Knight 46 and returned it 40 yards to the 6-yard line. UCF stood strong, however, and held MSU to a 22-yard Adam Carlson field goal, tying the game at the 6:02 mark.

UCF would have scoring chances on two consecutive drives in the third and fourth periods but Torres, who came into the game having hit 19-of-21 field goals on the year, would miss from 32 and 37 yards on those drives, negating some offensive momentum that the Knights had built at that point in the contest.

Dixon ended the day with 86 yards on 24 carries for the Bulldogs, who managed just 198 yards from scrimmage the entire game.

State's defense held Central Florida's star running back, Kevin Smith, somewhat in check. The nation's leading rusher still tallied 119 yards on the ground, coming up just 62 yards shy of breaking Barry Sanders' NCAA single-season record.

The game's attendance of 63,816 established a new Liberty Bowl record. The previous record of 61,497 was set in 1991 when the Bulldogs played Air Force.

MSU FOOTBALL TIMELINE

1892 - Mississippi A&M College faculty challenge a team of students on Thanksgiving Day to the first football game played on campus.

1895 - Mississippi A&M fields first team, coached by W.M. Matthews, and finishes the season with an 0-2 record.

1895 - Team captain W.M. Matthews chooses Maroon and White as team colors.

Oct. 10, 1896 - A&M loses 8-0 to Southwestern Baptist University (now Union University) in the first game played in Starkville, at the Starkville Fairgrounds.

1901 - After a four-year absence, football is revived at A&M under player-coach L.B. Harvey.

Oct. 28, 1901 - The Aggies earn the first victory in school history, a 17-0 triumph over Mississippi, the first game in the long and storied rivalry.

1903 - Mississippi A&M finishes its first undefeated season (under head coach Dan Martin) with a 3-0-2 record.

1905 - Mississippi A&M College builds Hardy Field, the school's first-ever football field.

1907 - Fred Furman becomes the first full-time head coach/athletic director.

1909 - W.D. Chadwick is hired as head coach and proceeds to lead Mississippi A&M to five consecutive winning seasons.

Jan. 1, 1912 - In its first and only game played outside of the United States, Mississippi A&M defeats Club Atletico de Cuba, 12-0 in Havana, Cuba.

1914 - A new field is built to replace Hardy Field, and for six years is referred to by the A&M student body as the "New Athletic Field."

1915 & 1916 - Under head coach E.C. Hayes, the Aggies defeat the University of Mississippi in consecutive years by a combined score of 101-0.

1917-19 - In three seasons as head coach, Sid Robinson compiles a .750 winning percentage—still the second-highest percentage in school history.

1920 - Students rename the football field "Scott Field," in honor of 1920 track star and Olympian Don Scott, the nation's premier half-miler and a football letterman in 1915 and 1916.

1922 - In his only season as head football coach, C.R. 'Dudy' Noble leads the Aggies to a 3-4-2 record, including a 19-13 win over Mississippi.

Nov. 25, 1927 - A&M loses to Mississippi in the debut of the "Battle for the Golden Egg," the football-shaped trophy students from the schools decided to award the winning team.

1932 - Mississippi A&M officially becomes Mississippi State College.

December 1932 - Mississippi State College becomes one of 13 charter members of the new Southeastern Conference.

1935 - Coach Ralph Sasse selects a Bulldog from Memphis named 'Ptolemy' as the school's first official game mascot, and the Maroons defeat Alabama 20-7.

1935 - Shortly following one of the school's greatest victories, State's 13-7 win over Army, a litter-mate of 'Ptolemy' becomes the first 'Bully.'

1936 - Scott Field undergoes its first expansion, seating as many as 26,000.

1936 - Under Sasse, the Maroons compile their first SEC winning record.

Jan. 1, 1937 - State competes in its first ever bowl game, a 13-12 loss to Duquesne in the 1937 Orange Bowl.

1937 - Chuck Gelatka becomes first State player selected in the NFL draft, a 10th-round pick of the New York Giants.

1940 - The Maroons compile their first 10-win season and finish with an undefeated 10-0-1 record.

Jan. 1, 1941 - Allyn McKeen's 'Maroon Machine' earns State's first bowl victory, 14-7 over Georgetown in the '41 Orange Bowl, and finishes season ranked No. 9 in AP poll.

1941 - Coach McKeen is named the SEC Coach of the Year, and end Erwin 'Buddy' Elrod becomes State's first consensus all-American, following the 1940 season.

1941 - State wins its first SEC title with a 4-0-1 league record, is ranked No. 16 in the final AP poll, but does not play in a bowl game due to the bombing of Pearl Harbor.

1942 - Maroons finish with an 8-2 record and a No. 18 final AP ranking.

1944 - Tom 'Shorty' McWilliams finishes 10th in the Heisman Trophy balloting, State's highest finish ever.

1948 - Scott Field undergoes second expansion that increases stadium capacity to 35,000.

1952 - Quarterback Jackie Parker sets the SEC single-season scoring record with 120 points (Parker currently stands No. 2 in that category).

1957 - Mississippi State finishes 6-2-1 and No. 14 in the final AP poll.

1958 - State College is granted university status and becomes Mississippi State University.

1961 - MSU adopts 'Bulldogs' as its nickname for athletic teams.

1963 - Under head coach Paul Davis, the Bulldogs finish 6-2-2 and receive the school's third bowl invitation, to the Liberty Bowl.

Dec. 21, 1963 - State defeats North Carolina State in the 1963 Liberty Bowl in Philadelphia, and finishes No. 11 in the final UPI poll.

Oct. 17, 1970 - Flanker David Smith sets the school receiving record with a 215-yard performance (12 catches, 2 TDs) vs. Texas Tech in Jackson.

Dec. 28, 1974 - Following an 8-3 season, Mississippi State defeats North Carolina 26-24 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas. The Bulldogs finish with a 9-3 record and ranked No. 17 in both the AP & UPI polls.

1980 - MSU records a remarkable 6-3 victory over No. 1 ranked Alabama.

October 1981 - After a 21-17 victory in Auburn, MSU climbs to a No. 7 national ranking, the highest in school history.

1982 - State defeats No. 6 LSU, 27-24 in the first night game at Scott Field. Portable lights were used to accommodate ABC-TV.

1986 - Former MSU QB Rockey Felker is named head coach and State proceeds to win five of its first six games and is ranked No. 13.

Dec. 9, 1990 - Jackie Sherrill is hired as MSU's head coach.

Oct. 1, 1992 - In front of the largest home-opening crowd in Scott Field history (38,886—since broken), and a national TV audience (ESPN), the 24th-ranked Bulldogs humble the 13th-ranked Florida Gators, 30-6.

Oct. 22, 1994 - Sophomore Derrick Taite shatters the MSU single-game passing mark with 466 yards in a 66-22 win over Tulane.

Nov. 16, 1996 - MSU defeats No. 8 Alabama 17-16 in Starkville, State's first victory over the Tide at Scott Field.

November 1998 - MSU defeats Alabama, Arkansas and Mississippi in succession to claim the SEC Western Division title. Senior James "J.J." Johnson crushes school records for rushing (237) and all-purpose yards (312) against Alabama.

Dec. 5, 1998 - State competes in the SEC Championship Game for the first time ever, falling to eventual national champion Tennessee 24-14 after holding a 14-10, fourth-quarter lead.

Nov. 6, 1999 - After a last-second win over Kentucky, State moves to 8-0 on the season and is ranked No. 8 nationally.

Dec. 30, 1999 - MSU caps one of the greatest years in school history, downing Clemson 17-7 in the Peach Bowl for a 10-2 overall record.

Summer 2000 - The largest expansion project in MSU athletic history begins with a $30 million expansion of Scott Field.

Sept. 30 & Oct. 7, 2000 - MSU defeats #3 Florida and #15 Auburn, the eventual SEC Eastern and Western Division champions, in back-to-back weekends.

Nov. 11, 2000 - The Bulldogs defeat Alabama 29-7 at Scott Field to give coach Jackie Sherrill his 66th victory at MSU, making him the winningest coach in MSU history.

Dec. 31, 2000 - State defeated Texas A&M 43-41 in an exciting snow-filled overtime game to claim the Independence Bowl title. The game goes down as one of the most memorable games in MSU and bowl history.

Dec. 1, 2003 - Sylvester Croom is named Mississippi State's 31st head football coach.

Oct. 23, 2004 - After recording a season-opening win against Tulane, the Bulldogs get win number two of the Croom era with an upset of No. 20 Florida, 38-31, behind 174 yards and 2 TDs from Jerious Norwood.

Nov. 26, 2005 - Jerious Norwood rushes for 204 yards and scores four touchdowns despite missing most of the third quarter in State's 35-14 route of rival Ole Miss.

Nov. 4, 2006 - Mississippi State picks up a 24-16 victory in Tuscaloosa against Croom's alma mater, Alabama.

Nov. 10, 2007 - The Bulldogs defeat 21st-ranked Alabama for the second-straight season and secure bowl eligibility for the first time since the 2000 season.

Dec. 29, 2007 - Anthony Dixon's fourth-quarter touchdown secured a 10-3 victory for State in the 49th annual AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis.

HELMET HISTORY

Mississippi State has implemented the use of white helmets instead of maroon headgear during certain periods of its football history. Archives show that the white helmets were utilized exclusively by the team from 1951-62 and 1966-73. MSU also wore the white headgear in seven games during the 2000-2003 seasons before again switching permanently in 2004. State's record when wearing white helmets is 91-150-9 (.379).

Orange Bowl

A desperation 72-yard touchdown pass from tailback Boyd Brumbaugh to end Ernie Hefferlie spelled an end to Mississippi State's upset hopes as Duquesne edged the Bulldogs 13-12 in the first decade of Orange Bowl history.

With time running out, coach John "Little Clipper" Smith's Dukes went to the air. His team had thrown six straight incompletions before Brumbaugh heaved one after fading back all the way to his own 20-yard line. Hefferlie cradled it in at the State 25 and scored untouched for the game-winner.

"A shouting, shirt-sleeved crowd of 9,210 went wild when Brumbaugh's bull's eye in the final period pulled the Dukes from almost certain defeat," a local newspaper account detailed.

Coach Ralph Sasse's Bulldogs, who ended the year at a hearty 7-3-1 after the postseason clash, scored first on a 10-yard run by back Ike Pickle. Pickle later boomed an 82-yard punt for an Orange Bowl record that still stands.

After Brumbaugh plunged 1 yard and a PAT kick put the Dukes of Pittsburgh, Pa., ahead 7-6, State reversed the advantage again when tailback Pee Wee Armstrong of Meridian lofted a 40-yard touchdown pass to Fred Walters of Laurel to give the Bulldogs a 12-7 lead. That same twosome had combined for a 65-yard scoring pass to give MSU a stunning 13-7 upset at Army during the 1935 season.

Armstrong's scintillating passes had provided State with the impetus to gain the lead. His aerial strikes set up Pickle's touchdown run prior to his throw to Walters to gain Mississippi State the lead.

Brumbaugh later found Hefferlie for the game-winning TD pass in the fourth quarter. The Dukes edged State after two Bulldog conversion tries had failed.

The narrow loss to Duquesne was a microcosm of the '36 season for State. The Maroons lost three games by a total of 20 points.

The Associated Press proclaimed following State's standout season: "Mississippi State reigns as undisputed king of football in the Deep South. State's 13-0 trouncing of Alabama and subsequent acceptance of an Orange Bowl bid eliminated any doubt that the Maroons were gridiron kings of these parts."

Almost a year before the United States of America officially entered World War II, Mississippi State downed the Georgetown Hoyas (who reigned strongly in Eastern football circles in those days) 14-7 in the '41 Orange Bowl to end the year with a 10-0-1 record and a No. 9 ranking nationally.

Coach Allyn McKeen's crew scored in the first quarter when tackle John Tripson covered a blocked Hoya punt in the end zone and Wilbur Dees' extra point gave the Bulldogs a quick 7-0 lead.

State's rugged defense took control in the second quarter after the Bulldogs had jumped ahead 14-0 when tailback Billy Jefferson scored on a 2-yard dive play and Sonny Bruce kicked the PAT.

Georgetown dented Coach McKeen's vaunted defense for the lone Hoyas' TD of the day in the third quarter when Benny Castiglia hit paydirt on a 2-yard run. But MSU managed good ball control behind the running of tailback Harvey Johnson and the defensive work of all-America end Buddy Elrod to secure its first bowl win.

State was led by Starkville native Hunter Corhern, a captain of the team and an outstanding guard. MSU was considered to have the finest line in the South during the '40 season, a group that boasted three all-Southeastern Conference performers, plus the aforementioned Elrod, a consensus all-America.

When asked to compare all his great teams at Mississippi State, head coach Allyn McKeen said, "Some of the school's greatest wins came during the 1939 season, but I have to go with the 1940 team as my best."

Hot coffee froze on press box ledges between kickoff and halftime, but the action on the field was warm enough to offset eight-degree temperatures and 17 mile-per-hour winds outside as coach Paul Davis' Bulldogs took a 16-12 win over the North Carolina State Wolfpack.

As the Bulldogs capped a 7-2-2 season before their first national television audience (on NBC, with the legendary Lindsey Nelson providing play-by-play) at Philadelphia Stadium, a blocked punt helped provide MSU's margin of victory for the second bowl game in a row.

In the first quarter, MSU end Bill McGuire blocked a Dave Houtz punt at the N.C. State 26, and fellow end Tommy Inman scooped up the loose football and ran it 11 yards for an MSU score. Justin Canale's PAT made it 7-0. Quarterback Sonny Fisher gave the Bulldogs a little more breathing room later in the period as the Laurel, Miss., resident sprinted 3 yards for a second touchdown. Canale's extra-point kick failed, but the future pro football standout later redeemed himself.

He gave MSU a 16-0 second-quarter lead with a 43-yard field goal into the gusty wind.

But North Carolina State made a bit of a comeback bid, aided by 122 yards on 11 penalties assessed against the aggressive Bulldogs. The Wolfpack scored the last two touchdowns of the game, but both two-point conversion attempts failed.

Coach Davis and his team had heaters on the State bench and a Plexiglas canopy to protect them from the frigid air.

"The defense did a good job all day, especially considering the conditions," Davis said. "We had a stronger line."

Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas

Mississippi State's 26-24 Sun Bowl win over North Carolina was one of the truly great contests of the 1974-75 bowl season.

Coach Bob Tyler's Bulldogs, who finished 9-3 and 18th in the nation, set the stage for the game when Most Valuable Offensive Player Terry Vitrano took a handoff from quarterback Rockey Felker and sprinted 55 yards on the game's opening play.

While a rising fog blanketed the field during most of the first half, Vitrano gained big chunks of real estate to end the day with 164 yards on 20 carries, including a game-winning, two-yard touchdown run.

That run capped a 6:29 drive that ate most of the fourth-quarter clock, ending at the 3:41 mark. Three times MSU faced third downs on the drive and State faced a fourth-and-2 at the UNC 25-yard line, where Felker called his own number, clawing for 15 yards. Felker then ran eight more yards to set up Vitrano winning score.

The drive reminded both Tyler and Felker of the Bulldogs' 29-28 win over Memphis State earlier in the year, a game in which State drove 98 yards in the closing two minutes for the win.

All-America defensive tackle Jimmy Webb, named Most Valuable Defensive Player in the game, registered one of his most critical 12 tackles of the day on a fourth-and-short situation at midfield in the fourth quarter to preserve the MSU win.

MSU's all-SEC tailback Walter Packer piled up 183 yards on 24 attempts, scoring on runs of 1 and 16 yards while Vic Nickels kicked field goals of 24 and 32 yards.

Mississippi State's 455 yards of rushing, which still stand as a Sun Bowl record, were just a bit much for the Tar Heels, coached by MSU grad Bill Dooley.

"This team was better than we expected in a lot of ways," Tyler said. "I think we're a year ahead. We established unity in our program that usually takes two seasons to establish. I've never been more confident or enthusiastic about the future than I am right now."

Sun Bowl

The scene was the same as six years earlier in the Sun Bowl when Mississippi State engaged a team that had as much talent as any football power in the nation.

This bowl trip proved to be less successful, however, as coach Tom Osborne's Huskers prevailed in a 31-17 contest.

Mississippi State had won five consecutive regular-season games to enter the contest with a 9-2 record under coach Emory Bellard, but Nebraska was just a bit too deep and powerful as the Huskers took a 17-0 halftime lead.

State's high-powered offensive attack, which set school records for total offense and rushing offense, later cut the margin to 24-17 behind the option play of freshman quarterback John Bond of Valdosta, Ga. He ran for one touchdown on a 1-yard sneak and hit all-SEC tailback Michael Haddix of Walnut, Miss., for an 11-yard TD pass and MSU's final touchdown.

The day, however, belonged to Nebraska's defense, which held Bond to minus-8 yards rushing on 16 carries, and to seven completions in 19 attempts with two interceptions.

Sophomore kicking specialist Dana Moore from Baton Rouge, La., booted a 47-yard field goal and had a 64-yard punt, enabling him to achieve an MSU-record, 50-yard punting average for the afternoon.

"I am proud of our team and the season we had," Bellard said. "We just flat out gave Nebraska too many opportunities. Our defense played well enough to win. Looking at what we have, we will be back next year."

With Defensive Most Valuable Player and all-America linebacker Johnie Cooks of Leland, Miss., leading a fierce charge, Mississippi State scored its first bowl shutout win by downing the Kansas Jayhawks of the Big Eight Conference 10-0 to improve its bowl record to 4-2.

It was, indeed, a day for the defense.

The Bulldogs, aided by a steady mist that fell throughout the day, held Kansas to 35 yards rushing on 40 attempts, intercepted a pair of Jayhawk passes, and forced a fumble. State recorded its first shutout since 1979.

Lightning struck early for the Bulldogs as all-SEC defensive back Rob Fesmire of Nashville, Tenn., recovered a Ricky Green fumble on the opening kickoff and the opportunistic Bulldogs scored on the next play. Quarterback John Bond, State's Offensive Most Valuable Player and the game's MVP, sprinted 17 yards around right end on the first play from scrimmage and Bob Morgan's PAT gave the Bulldogs an early 7-0 lead.

Place-kicker Dana Moore iced the game with a 22-yard field goal with just over 11 minutes left in the first half for the final margin of victory. The Bulldogs advanced to 8-4 and moved up to 17th in the final AP national poll.

Moore also set a record, averaging 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks.

Wingback Danny Knight of Natchez, Miss., contributed a big 37-yard sprint down the left sideline on a third-and-long situation while Cooks, defensive tackles Glen Collins, Earnest Barnes and a number of unsung heroes on the specialty teams gathered together to provide the Bulldogs with the ingredients necessary for a satisfying bowl win.

"The whole defensive unit played extremely well," MSU head coach Emory Bellard said. "We didn't ring the bell quite enough on offense, but we did move the ball down the field a good bit."

An all-time Liberty Bowl crowd of 61,497 looked on as the wishbone-attack of the Air Force Academy spoiled Mississippi State's return to the bowl scene with a 38-15 victory over the Bulldogs in the 33rd annual Liberty Bowl postseason contest.

Directed by all-WAC quarterback and Liberty Bowl MVP Rob Perez, the Falcons piled up 318 net yards rushing while attempting only two passes in this ESPN telecast. A potent ground attack earned AFA a 37:34-22:26 edge in possession time.

The Falcons jumped on MSU early as they posted three unanswered touchdowns before the Bulldogs dented the scoreboard just before halftime. AFA scored on a pair of 1-yard plunges by Jason Jones and Perez in the opening stanza. A 35-yard fumble return by Air Force's Shannon Yates at the 6:12 mark of the second quarter stretched the lead to 21-0.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard with the final score of the first half, a 4-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sleepy Robinson to tight end Trenell Edwards.

After the intermission, AFA added a third-quarter, 20-yard field goal by Joe Wood and a 31-yard touchdown gallop by Scott Hufford to build the Falcons' insurmountable lead to 31-7 with 14:19 remaining in the contest.

Making its first bowl appearance in 10 years, MSU scored its final points on a 7-yard run by fullback Michael Davis with 7:23 left on the game clock.

Atlanta, Georgia

Despite jumping out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, Mississippi State couldn't hold off a North Carolina squad playing an inspired second half as the Tar Heels posted a 21-17 victory in the first Peach Bowl held inside The Georgia Dome.

The Bulldogs jumped on top early, scoring on their first possession when Greg Plump found Olanda Truitt on a 2-yard touchdown pass. MSU added to that lead when Kenny Roberts raced 22 yards on the final play of the first quarter to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 lead.

State had a chance to put the game away in the second quarter, but a pair of Plump-to-Truitt touchdown passes were called back due to Bulldog holding penalties.

Trailing 14-0 at halftime, North Carolina took the second half kickoff and drove 82 yards to score on Natrone Means' 1-yard plunge. Later in the third period, the Tar Heels' Bracey Walker broke through to block a Todd Jordan punt and raced 24 yards into the end zone to tie the game at 14-14.

North Carolina took the lead for good early in the fourth quarter when UNC's Cliff Baskerville intercepted a Plump pass and returned it 44 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

After Chris Gardner's 46-yard field goal made the score 21-17, the Bulldogs had their chances to win the game late. MSU drove inside the Tar Heel 30 twice in the game's final three minutes, but an interception and loss on downs, respectively, doomed the Bulldogs' final chances.

27th ANNUAL PEACH BOWL

Mississippi State	24
NC State	28

January 2, 1995
The Georgia Dome
Atlanta, Georgia

For the second time in three years, Mississippi State earned a berth in the Peach Bowl. And for the second time in three years, the Bulldogs held a third-quarter lead over its counterpart. But again, State could not maintain that advantage, dropping a 28-24 decision to NC State.

Like it had done two years prior, Mississippi State gained an early advantage in this Peach Bowl match-up. Place-kicker Tim Rogers, MSU's Offensive Player of the Game, booted a 37-yard field goal just 2:21 into the contest, and the Bulldogs had a 3-0 advantage. It would be the first of a bowl-record and school-standard tying five field goals for Rogers.

But, as NC State was able to do throughout the game, the Wolfpack erased that early lead. Running back Tremayne Stephens capped an 80-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to give NCSU a 7-3 lead.

Rogers and Steve Videtich traded field goals around the first-quarter break before the Bulldogs mounted a touchdown drive of their own. Senior running back Michael Davis scored from 11 yards out to give MSU a 13-10 edge.

A pair of big plays opened the door for the Bulldogs to take control of the game as the second half began. Forcing the 'Pack to punt on their first series of the second half, Andre Bennett blocked the NC State kick into the end zone for a safety, and MSU had a two-point lead.

On the ensuing free kick, Keffer McGee returned the punt a bowl-record 50 yards, putting the Bulldogs in business at the NCSU 15-yard line. Unable to advance the ball into the end zone, State settled for a Rogers field goal and its lead was just 18-13.

Three plays later, however, Larry Williams, State's Defensive Player of the Game, put his team back in scoring position with a standout defensive play. On a second-and-16 play from the NCSU 30, Williams sacked quarterback Terry Harvey, stripped him of the football, and then recovered the pigskin at the 21.

But once again, the Bulldog attack was not able to capitalize, and Rogers was forced to convert a 36-yard field goal.

Rejuvenated by the disaster averted, NC State struck for a game-tying touchdown and two-point conversion at the close of the third period. Harvey hit Dallas Dickerson from 3 yards out for the score, and then ran for the extra points.

The Wolfpack used a big play of their own, a 62-yard pass play to set up their go-ahead score. Freshman fullback Carlos King bulled in from 11 yards away and State was down 28-21.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL COTTON BOWL CLASSIC

Mississippi State	11
Texas	38

January 1, 1999
Cotton Bowl
Dallas, Texas

Playing in their first traditional New Year's Day bowl game since the 1941 Orange Bowl, the Bulldogs faced an enormous task in trying to stop the University of Texas and its Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams. Behind Williams' Cotton Bowl record 203 yards rushing and two touchdowns, the Longhorns snapped their seven-game losing slide to Jackie Sherrill and defeated Mississippi State 38-11 in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Texas struck early in the contest behind the arm of quarterback Major Applewhite. The freshman found Wayne McGarity late in the opening period on a 59-yard scoring strike, giving Texas an early 7-0 lead.

The Longhorns took advantage of good field position and a long pass play to take a 14-0 lead, as Applewhite again called McGarity's number for a 52-yard touchdown with 5:11 to go in the first half.

Mississippi State would close out the scoring in the half with a 39-yard field goal from senior Brian Hazelwood.

After showcasing their passing game in the first half, Texas began to exploit a tired Bulldog defense with a running game that featured the NCAA's career rushing leader in Williams, who got the scoring started in the second half with a 37-yard gallop to stretch the Longhorns' lead to 21-3 just 2:26 into the second half. A Kris Stockton field goal would extend the UT lead to 24-3 six minutes later.

The Bulldog offense, led by James Johnson's 112 yards on the ground, still struggled to find its niche against a stubborn Texas defense. An injury to star all-purpose receiver Kevin Prentiss in the opening half made their task even more difficult. Unable to keep the weary MSU defense off the field, the Bulldogs were victimized by another Williams' scoring run at the 2:42 mark of the third period as Texas grabbed control of the contest with a 31-3 advantage.

Mississippi State 17
Clemson 7

December 30, 1999
The Georgia Dome
Atlanta, Georgia

Behind the impetus that had been the key all season — defense — Mississippi State downed Clemson 17-7 in the 1999 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in Atlanta's Georgia Dome.

The win gave State its 10th victory of the season, grouping the '99 Bulldogs with MSU's '40 edition which also posted 10 victories.

MSU notched the win despite allowing the most yardage it had all season (391), with 301 of that coming from quarterback Brandon Streeter who passed 50 times in the game.

Defense was the norm in the first half for both squads as the teams played to a scoreless tie at halftime.The closest either team got to a score in the first half was when Clemson advanced to State's 9-yard line late in the first quarter. But Tiger Tony Lazzara's field goal attempt was blocked by Bulldog senior Robert Bean, who registered his seventh career blocked kick.

State wasted little time breaking the scoring ice in the second half. After Pig Prather returned the opening kickoff after intermission 45 yards to the MSU 47-yard line, the Bulldogs drove 31 yards on seven plays to set up a 39-yard field goal from Scott Westerfield at the 12:39 mark.

Three possessions later, Clemson threatened to answer, driving to the State 13 where it faced a fourth-and-7. The Tigers elected to go for it, but the MSU defense held firm, with defensive lineman John Hilliard batting down a Streeter pass.

The quarter would end with State leading 3-0. The fourth quarter would be quite a different story in terms of point production, as the teams combined for three touchdowns in the final frame.

State extended its lead to 10-0 on the first full drive of the final period, going 43 yards on 10 plays with quarterback Wayne Madkin scrambling for a 2-yard score. The drive was set up at Clemson's 43-yard line on an interception by Bulldog Eugene Clinton, one of five State pickoffs in the contest.

Clemson would answer on the ensuing possession with its only score of the night. The Tigers drove 70 yards on eight plays with Streeter diving in from a yard out.

But State was not intimidated. The Bulldogs answered that challenge with a solid eight-play, 57-yard charge of their own. Madkin, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, found tailback Dontae Walker on the left side and Walker jaunted 15 yards for the touchdown which iced the game for MSU at 17-7 with 4:31 remaining in regulation.

Mississippi State 43
Texas A&M [OT] 41

December 31, 2000
Independence Bowl
Shreveport, Louisiana

Willie Blade blocked an extra point, Julius Griffith ran it to the end zone for a two-point conversion, and Wayne Madkin scored from 6 yards out — all in overtime — to give Mississippi State a hard-fought, 43-41 decision over Texas A&M in the snow-filled Independence Bowl.

The Aggies took advantage of a couple of early MSU miscues on the snow-covered field to take a 14-0 edge seven minutes into the game. After scoring following a mishandled MSU snap just over two minutes into the contest, A&M continued to control momentum on fullback Ja'Mar Toombs' 4-yard plunge. Toombs had a game-high 193 yards.

Jackie Sherrill's Bulldogs fought back in the second quarter. With Toombs running through the State defense, Dontae Walker returned the favor to the Aggie stoppers, tallying 143 yards of his own. The sophomore took a handoff up the middle and scurried for 40 of those yards over the goal line to cut the lead.

With just over a minute until halftime, State scored behind Wayne Madkin. After the junior quarterback rushed for 10 yards, he connected on two pass plays, the second a four-yard score to Dicenzo Miller to tie the game at 14.

A&M bounced back with 31 seconds left in the half to take a 20-14 lead into the locker room. Quarterback Mark Farris lofted a ball high and deep into the heavy falling snow, finding Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard score.

The Aggies tried to put the game out of reach with two fourth-quarter touchdowns. On the opening play of the period, Farris once again went deep, this time connecting with Bethel Johnson on a 35-yard strike. A two-point conversion put the Aggies up 28-21. Toombs extended the lead on the following possession, rushing in from 13 yards to give A&M a 35-21 edge.

Walker cut the lead back to seven as he rushed in from 32 yards out, and, after a Marco Minor interception put MSU at the Aggie 4-yard line, Madkin found tight end Donald Lee in the end zone for the touchdown that sent the game into overtime, tied 35-35.

In the extra session, Toombs rushed in from 25 yards out on the first play to put A&M up 41-35. Blade reached up and blocked the Aggie extra point try. Eugene Clinton picked up the loose ball and pitched to Griffith who ran it in for two points.

Faced with a must-score situation on State's first overtime try, Madkin rushed down to the Aggies' 6-yard line and then took a keeper into the end zone to clinch the 43-41 win in what has become known as "Snow Bowl 2000".

UCF	3
Mississippi State	10

December 29, 2007
Liberty Bowl Stadium
Memphis, Tennessee

Mississippi State cashed in on Central Florida's fourth turnover of the game, marching to the lone touchdown of the day late in the fourth quarter, to defeat the Knights 10-3 in the 49th renewal of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, a game that was otherwise very defensive in nature.

With the win, MSU ended the 2007 season at 8-5, its most wins since 2000, and improved to 2-0 all-time over UCF which ended the year 10-4 after winning its last seven games and claiming the Conference USA crown. The Bulldogs also improved to 7-6 all-time in bowl games with the victory and has now been victorious its last three bowl appearances.

The late score, a 1-yard plunge by running back Anthony Dixon, came with just 1:54 remaining in the game. It capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive, State's longest of the day by almost 20 yards, that was setup by Bulldog Keith Fitzhugh's interception of Knight quarterback Kyle Israel, his third throwing miscue of the contest.

But until that point in the game, neither team had generated much offense in a game very much controlled by the defenses. Only two second quarter field goals - one by each team - graced the scoreboard in the first three quarters and the teams would combined for just 418 yards of total offense in the affair.

After a scoreless first quarter started the lowest scoring first half in Liberty Bowl history, UCF finally broke scoring ice after gaining excellent field position at the Bulldog 46 early in the second period. The Knights then moved the ball 18 yards to set up a Michael Torres 45-yard field goal that just cleared the crossbar. UCF led 3-0 with 11:49 to go before the intermission.

After the Knights forced a State punt on the next drive, the Bulldogs got their first break of the afternoon. MSU's Derek Pegues, named the game's Most Valuable Player, picked off the first of two passes at the Knight 46 and returned it 40 yards to the 6-yard line. UCF stood strong, however, and held MSU to a 22-yard Adam Carlson field goal, tying the game at the 6:02 mark.

UCF would have scoring chances on two consecutive drives in the third and fourth periods but Torres, who came into the game having hit 19-of-21 field goals on the year, would miss from 32 and 37 yards on those drives, negating some offensive momentum that the Knights had built at that point in the contest.

Dixon ended the day with 86 yards on 24 carries for the Bulldogs, who managed just 198 yards from scrimmage the entire game.

State's defense held Central Florida's star running back, Kevin Smith, somewhat in check. The nation's leading rusher still tallied 119 yards on the ground, coming up just 62 yards shy of breaking Barry Sanders' NCAA single-season record.

The game's attendance of 63,816 established a new Liberty Bowl record. The previous record of 61,497 was set in 1991 when the Bulldogs played Air Force.
