The Bisons come into Starkville after a monumental win for the program, as Lipscomb knocked off inner-city rival Vanderbilt, 2-0. The win was propelled by freshman Olivia Doak, who scored both goals for the Bisons. Doak has scored all three of the squads goals this season.

"Mississippi State has been on fire in preseason games scoring tons of goals," head coach Kevin O'Brien said. "We have a huge test ahead."

UT Martin travels for a lone weekend contest against MSU, as the SkyHawks look to improve their 0-2 mark. The club lost its season opener to Western Kentucky, 7-1, at home before losing 4-1 to UAB on the road.

Captain Mallory Eubanks, along with freshmen Johanna Hamblett and MaKayla Waldner each earned spots on the Charleston Classic All-Tournament Team last weekend, after their great performances on the pitch.

Between the posts, junior Tanya de Souza has stopped 16 shots in just two games. That total is good enough for second in the SEC behind Georgia's Louise Hogrell's 20 saves.

MSU has started the same XI in each of its two exhibitions and three regular season games this season, as nine returning starters and two newcomers compose the lineup.

Senior Ari Holmes, junior Mallory Eubanks and sophomore Carly Mauldin were each named to the SEC Preseason Watch List on Aug. 17 by the league's coaches after their outstanding play in the 2015 season.

Gordon's squad features 10 juniors on the roster, the most at any time during his tenure at MSU. Over his first three years, Gordon has had a combined total of seven before 2016's team.

MSU welcomes eight newcomers to the roster in 2016, which is a low total compared to past seasons. Freshmen MaKayla Waldner and Johanna Hamblett both received starts in every MSU game this season.

MSU netted four goals in their two preseason friendlies, as the Maroon and White downed Memphis 3-0 and Iowa State 1-0 to cap its scoring barrage.

Sophomore Carly Mauldin was a force for the Bulldogs during the preseason, as she scored back-to-back goals in both exhibitions. Last season, the midfielder had no goals.
