Bobcat History Book

2012 Headlines

Bobcats Win Third Straight Big Sky Crown

- Montana State clinches third straight championship with second straight win in Washington-Grizzly Stadium
- MSU's only regular season loss came when Eastern Washington turned a pair of late Bobcat mistakes into a big road win
- The Cats won a home playoff game for the second straight year for the first time
- For only the second time in MSU history, Montana State has won three consecutive Big Sky championships (MSU also won the league from 1966-68)
- MSU has won or shared the Big Sky title 15 times in school history, including six times in the past 11 seasons
- The Bobcats spent the entire season ranked in the nation's top 10

Schreibeis Wins Buchanan, Bobcats Land Unprecedented Post-Season Honors

- Caleb Schreibeis' dominant season earned MSU its first Buck Buchanan Award
- DeNarius McGhee won his second Big Sky Offensive MVP award, while Jody Owens snagged the league's Defensive MVP
- Center Shaun Sampson joined Schreibeis, McGhee and Owens as Bobcat All-Americas

MSU Legend Sweeney Passes Away in Fresno

- Won three Big Sky Championships during his five seasons at Montana State
- Coached at Washington State and in the NFL, but gained national acclaim with an outstanding career at Fresno State
- His 31 wins remains tied for sixth in Bobcat history, and his winning percentage stands as the school's fourth-best mark

Ash Claims Top Spot on MSU Wins List

- Montana State's win over North Dakota gave Rob Ash his 48th win as the school's head coach, passing Sonny Holland for first place among all Bobcat head coaches
- Ash presently has 50 wins, three more than Sonny Holland, who travels with the Bobcats
- Rob Ash is the career wins leader at three different schools, also topping the career victories list at Juniata and Drake

Paths of Bobcat Coaching Legends Intersect in 2012

The careers of Rob Ash, Sonny Holland and Jim Sweeney converged on one magical Saturday in Bobcat Stadium

It was a ride Rob Ash will never forget - into the night, into the history books, on the shoulders of some of the greatest and most beloved players in Bobcat football history.

Montana State's sixth-year head coach topped North Dakota on October 27, 2012, for the program's 48th win under Ash's direction. That pushed the school's sixth-year head coach into first place on MSU's all-time wins list, one past the man Ash calls the greatest Bobcat of all, Sonny Holland.

Holland's connections to the program are well-known. The man who won 47 games as head coach from 1971-77, and who was a three-time All-America for the Bobcats, has traveled with the Bobcats throughout Ash's tenure. In addition to working as MSU's head coach and as an all-time great player, Holland served as a Bobcat assistant during the 1960s.

The man who brought Holland into the coaching fold at MSU a half-century ago, of course, was the legendary Jim Sweeney. With Holland and the rest of his staff, the Butte native and former prep coaching dynamo extended and elevated Montana State's run of dominance when he took over in 1963. Sweeney and the Bobcats won league titles in 1964 and 1966-68. Three of those titles belong to Sweeney, and he was the architect of the last series of Bobcat teams to win three straight Big Sky titles.

As Ash and Holland shared the moment in the twilight following that game, one couldn't help but trace the great lineage of Bobcat coaches back to Sweeney, who would pass away months later in his adopted hometown of Fresno.

Schreibeis Schocks the (FCS) World

From unassuming walk-on to unheralded starter to undisputed best defensive player in the FCS, 2012 was quite a season for Montana State defensive end Caleb Schreibeis

He shook Jerry Rice's hand. He chatted with Buck Buchanan's widow, accepted praise from people he'd never dreamed of meeting, and accepted a trophy he had no idea he could win.

And when it was all over Caleb Schreibeis could still barely believe his journey.

"It's surreal," the thoughtful and cerebral mechanical engineering technology major said. "It's been an amazing experience."

The amazing experience was triggered by an amazing senior season. Schreibeis forced an FCS-leading eight fumbles, 15 tackles-for-loss, which included 12.5 sacks, and seven quarterback hurries. Schreibeis earned First Team All-Big Sky honors, and was a consensus All-America.

What made Schreibeis' story more amazing is that he followed his brother Joe to MSU as a walk-on, and according to Bobcat coach Rob Ash, "Worked as hard as he could every single day to prove he was worth a scholarship."

He was a productive player almost immediately, including one memorable moment on special teams from his freshman year. His brother Joe forced a fumble on a kickoff that Schreibeis recovered. "That was an amazing coincidence," Caleb remembers, "but it was very special."

McGhee Makes History

- By grinding out a win at Sacramento State, on November 3, DeNarius McGhee became MSU's winningest starting quarterback. He now has 30 career victories.
- McGhee became one of only 10 players to win multiple Big Sky Offensive MVP awards.
- McGhee enters his senior season with 9,116 passing yards and 71 TD passes in his career

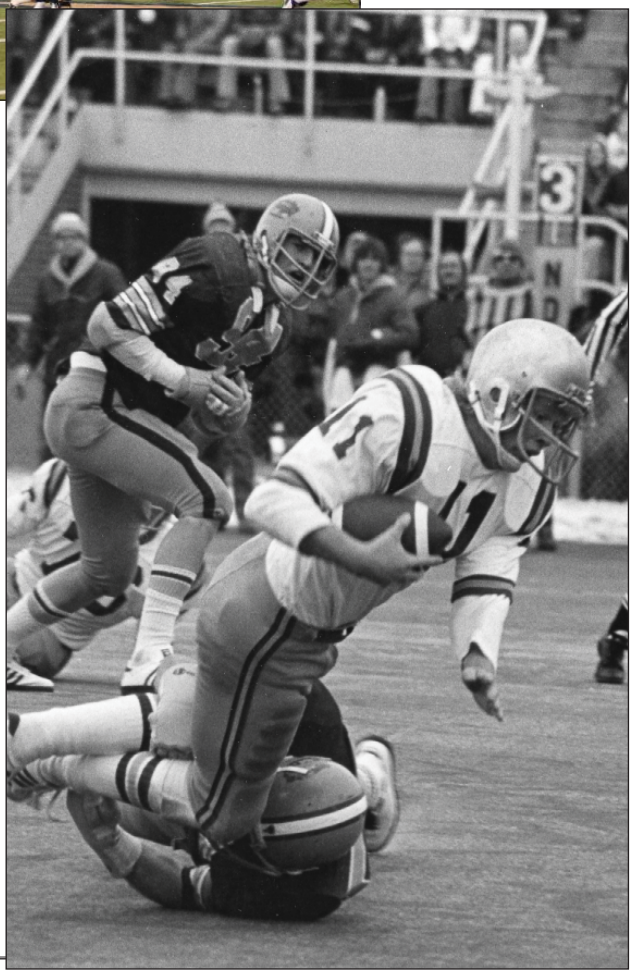
post-season history



As Montana State rides the first string of qualifying for the post-season in three straight seasons, there are many moments to celebrate. The Bobcats defeated Stony Brook in a night game last year (top, photo by Dean Hendrickson). In 2011, while the Bobcats fell to Sam Houston State, Elvis Akpla made one of the greatest catches of the year, captured by Kelly Gorham. And DeNarius McGhee breaking Paul Dennehy's school record for victories brought the opportunity to celebrate the Bobcat Hall of Fame signal caller, at right in a Division II Playoff win at North Dakota State in 1976.

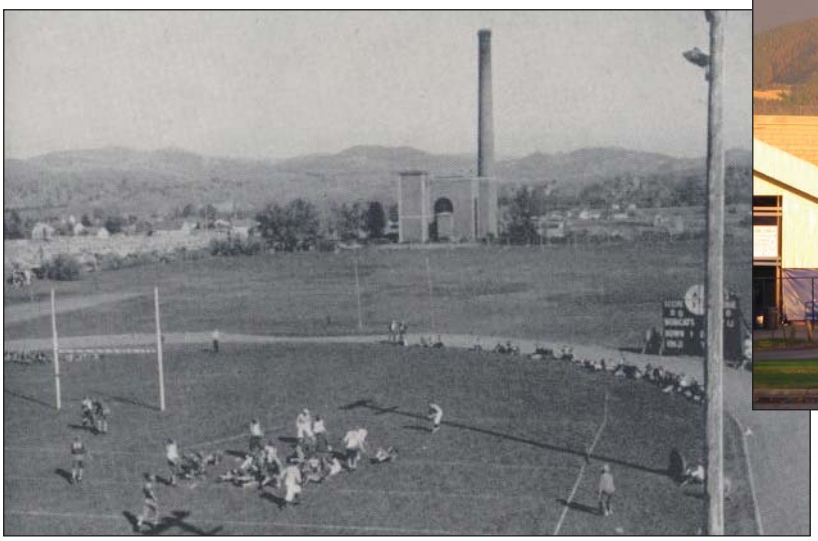
MSU Stadium History



The Bobcat football program has known two truly permanent on-campus homes. Gatton Field (immediately above) sat on the plot of land across from Romney Gym which is mostly occupied by the MSU PE Complex. Bobcat Stadium's current site at 11th and Kagy began its football existence as Reno H. Sales Stadium (right), evolving into its current configuration (top), blessed with beauty involving football (below) and of a general nature (above, right).

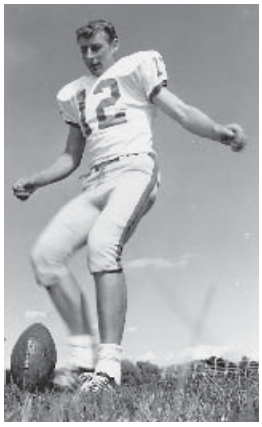
Stenerud Caps Impressive List of Bobcats in Pros

As time passes, Jan Stenerud's contributions to Montana State University, to the National Football League, and to the game of football, become even more impressive.

For instance, Stenerud was the first in what has become a tradition of outstanding Bobcat kicking specialists. He was the first foreign player to become an established star in the NFL. And, with his side-winding kicking technique which would become known as "soccer-style," he revolutionized the science of kicking.



Jan Stenerud

Although he has been out of the game which he learned on the Montana State campus when he was a jumper on the MSU Ski Team for five years, the honors continue to pile up for Stenerud. He was named the NFL's Silver Anniversary All-Super Bowl Team, consisting of the players who have performed outstanding feats in pro football's title game, and was the first pure kicker inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame.

Stenerud was the most noteable Bobcat to earn a living playing football, but not the first or last. Ed Ritt was the first Bobcat ever drafted into the NFL, joining St. Louis in the 12th round in 1956. Ron Warzeka was picked by San Francisco one round later.

Bobcats in the CFL Hall of Fame

Al Wilson, OL

Al Wilson was elected to the CFL Hall of Fame on September 20, 1997, following a long career as an offensive lineman with British Columbia. The guard and center was awarded All-Western All-Star and All-Canadian All-Star honors for seven years, 1975-81. He was voted the Schenley Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman in 1977. He played in two Grey Cup games (1983 and 1985), and was a key member of B.C.,s 1985 championship team.

Harvey Wylie, DB

Harvey Wylie was elected to the CFL Hall of Fame on May 24, 1980. The former Bobcat All-America was a standout defensive back and kick return specialist for nine years with Calgary. He played for the Stampeders from 1956-64, and for five straight years was an All-Western All-Star and twice was an All-Canadian All-Star.

MOP

Travis Lulay, QB, B.C. Lions

Bobcat legend Travis Lulay posted a spectacular 2011 season as quarterback for the B.C. Lions, earning regular season MOP and Grey Cup MVP honors. He helped lead the Lions to the Grey Cup title.
