

Bobcat Records & History

2025

The Bobcats beat the Griz for the fourth straight time in Bobcat Stadium. Kenneth Eiden IV (top) and Adam Jones (right) helped lead the effort, which began with MSU's electric rodeo run-out.

2024 Bobcat Record Book

Most Bobcat statistics and records are available for Bobcat football since 1956, which coincided with the arrival of Bobcat Hall of Famer Ken Nicholson as the school's first full-time Sports Information Director. While Nicholson's work forms the foundations of MSU's football records, considerable contributions have been made through the years by John Nicholson, Erica Hauge, Tanner Gooch, Dan Huffine, and many others.

A special word of thanks go to those who have served on the Bobcat Stat Crew through the years, including: Larry Baker, Ralph Brigham, Mike Cavaness, Dori Cofer, Steve Erickson, Scott Heck, Dr. Tom Hildner, Dia Johnson, Mark Johnson, Lynn Lamberty, Jennifer Pomnichowski, the late Howard Rein, Leo Schlenker, Eric Strohmeier, and Larry Zwiefelhofer; and to those who assembled the crew, former Bobcat Sports Information Directors Ken Nicholson, Arnie Sgalio, Bruce Parker, and Steve Fenk.

The information contained herein is compiled based on currently available data. To contribute season or individual game statistics please contact Bobcat Sports Information.

- Game Notes
- Montana State earned its first win over an FBS opponent since 2006 (Colorado), and its fifth ever.
 - Adam Jones' 93-yard fourth-quarter touchdown run was the second-longest rush from scrimmage in Bobcat history (Ben Vaughn once ran 97 yards for a touchdown). He finished the day with 167 yards and two catches.
 - After becoming the first Bobcat to gain more than 100 yards in his first game as a true freshman by rambling for 114 against Utah Tech a season ago, Scottie Humphrey gained 140 at New Mexico to open 2024.

Game Notes

- In the first three quarters, with the top defensive units on the field, Montana State held the Vandals to just three plays of 10 yards or more.
- Tommy Mellott threw two touchdown passes and scored two himself on the ground, gaining 140 yards with his legs.
- The 31-point win was MSU's largest margin of victory in the series since 1978, and its biggest home win against Idaho in history.

Game Notes

- The Cats raised their record to 11-0 for the first time in program history and clinched a share of the Big Sky title for the second time in three seasons.
- Lan Larison became the second back to gain at least 100 yards rushing against the Cats in 2024.
- MSU scored at least 30 points for the 11th time in 2024, the first time a Bobcat team has accomplished that, and for the 12th straight game, also a school record.

Game Notes

- Montana State's win gives the Cats 15 wins for the first time in program history and advances the team to an NCAA Championship game for the fourth time.
- MSU's 4.4 yards per rush was the team's lowest mark of the season, but was the most a team had gained against South Dakota.
- Tommy Mellott rushed for 125 yards, his second straight post-season 100-yard effort.

Bobcat Records

MSU Stadium History

The Bobcat football program has known two truly permanent on-campus homes. Gatton Field (immediately above) sat on the plot of land across from Romney Gym which is mostly occupied by the MSU PE Complex. Bobcat Stadium's current site at 11th and Kagi began its football existence as Reno H. Sales Stadium (right), evolving into its current configuration (top), blessed with beauty involving football (below) and of a general nature (above, right).

Summary of Montana State Home Football Stadiums

Information compiled from the Exponent, Montanan, Tom Donovan's Montana's Greatest Rivalry: A College Football Classic

1897-1908

Butler Field/College Field

Location: Near present-day 11th & College

MSU Record: 9-2-1

Montana State's original football field ran north and south near what is now 11th Street south of current College Street. The field held a considerable uphill grade toward the campus, before the work that has made that a flatter, graded area. That field was outside the boundaries of the original campus, and the reason for the name "Butler Field" is lost to history. By the turn of the 20th Century it was most commonly referred to as College Field.

1903-14

Inter-State Fairgrounds

Location: Just south of present-day Heroes Park

MSU Record: 11-7-5

The State College's football team moved to Bozeman Field at the Inter-State Fairgrounds, in 1903, although the 1904-05 seasons returned to campus. When the football program resumed after a faculty-imposed hiatus in 1906-07, the 1908 home season was played at the Fairgrounds. What little photographic evidence exists suggests that the field ran east-west approximately where Heroes Park, current home of the Bozeman Bucks American Legion baseball team. The 80-acre Fairgrounds was created in 1903 with the primary goal to host horse racing.

1915-22 Brewer/College/Original Gatton Field

Location: near current 11th & College

MSU Record: 11-9-3

The Aggies moved back to campus after the second of three stints playing on the north edge of town at the Fairgrounds. This time, the team was greeted by the first wooden bleachers at an on-campus facility with an east-west orientation bordered by College Street on the north and 11th Street on the west, with the playing surface of the stadium alternately referred to as Brewer Athletic Field (after William Fisk Brewer, a professor and early proponent and organizer of football on campus) and College Field (because old habits die hard) before World War I. After World War I students of the College rallied around the memory of flying ace Cy Gatton, one of the school's first beloved football stars who was shot down in France a week before the Armistice in 1918.

1919-20

Roundup Stadium

Location: near current Bozeman & Tamarack streets

MSU Record: 3-0-2

Completed in August, 1919, for what was envisioned as a rodeo to rival Cheyenne Frontier Days and other great western pageants, Roundup Stadium was hastily constructed in about a month at a cost of about $20,000. Encircled by permanent bleacher seating and anchored by a main, covered grandstand, the majestic stadium's field was composed of dirt and oriented north and south. Montana State played the 1919 Cat-Griz game and the full 1920 home season at Roundup Stadium, but in 1921 the entire Roundup operation was purchased by White Sulphur Springs' Richard Ringling, the son of one of the famed Ringling Brothers. MSC moved Bobcat games back to campus for the 1921 season, never again to play at or near the Fairgrounds. A 1926 lightning strike damaged the grandstand, and the entire structure fell into disrepair and was eventually abandoned. (Information on Roundup Stadium from a Bozeman Magazine article by Gallatin History Museum's Rachel Phillips, and Tom Donovan's Montana's Greatest Rivalry.)

1923-29

Temporary Gatton Field

Location: Slightly south and east of current 11th & College

MSU Record: 19-7-0

When the Bobcats moved back to campus permanently after the demise of Roundup Stadium, the team's playing field was moved south and east, bordered by the barracks just off of 11th Street and what is now 8th Street, then the campus' main entrance. This period saw the erection of the first permanent grandstands for an on-campus facility at Montana State, and a manually-operated scoreboard. The name 'Gatton Field' followed the team's home, as it would when it moved again in 1930.

1930-71

Gatton Field

Location: Grant Street (between 7th & 11th streets)

MSU Record: 46-27

The Montana State community was finally able to pay permanent tribute to beloved one-time student and local legend Cy Gatton, who perished in the French countryside in the last days of World War I. Gatton's mother and sisters returned for the dedication of the field and a gate donated by the family on October 4, 1930, when the Cats beat Regis College. This field ran east-west, directly across Grant Street from Romney Gym, forming one of the better small-college athletic complexes in the west. Some of the program's greatest stars played home games at Gatton Field, including 32 All-Americans.

1972

Van Winkle Stadium

Location: Bozeman High School (Main Street)

MSU Record: 3-1

Reno H. Sales Stadium's construction forced MSU to play one season at Bozeman High's Van Winkle Stadium, and it was a success. The Cats finished 3-1 at the field named for Gallatin County High student Bob Van Winkle, who was killed in a game against Lewistown in 1954, on their way to winning Sonny Holland's first Big Sky title. MSU beat Idaho 17-3 in its Van Winkle debut on September 30, its fourth game that season, then drilled Northern Arizona 23-9 there a week later, and beat Boise State 37-10 for Homecoming on October 21 before losing to Idaho State one week later.

1973-97

Reno H. Sales Stadium

Location: 11th & Kagy

MSU Record: 46-27

Montana State ushered in a dozen seasons of football glory when the Cats beat Idaho State 42-7 on September 8, 1973, to open Reno H. Sales Stadium. MSU won three Big Sky titles and two national championships from 1973 to 1984, compiling a 48-19 home record. At one time legend - perhaps apocryphal - had it that the Gatton Field playing surface was transplanted to Reno H. Sales Stadium. The field was oriented northwest to southeast to accommodate autumn's setting sun. Montana State never lost a home playoff game in this configuration, winning one in 1976 and two in 1984.

1998-

Bobcat Stadium

Location: 11th & Kagy

MSU Record: 46-27

With Bobcat Stadium's most recent round of renovations in the books, it certainly is one of the finest comprehensive football complexes in the FCS. The Sonny Holland End Zone in 2011 added nearly 4,000 seats, moved MSU's raucous student section into that area, and enhanced an already-electric game-day atmosphere. FieldTurf was added in 2008, lights during the 2011 expansion, and the north end zone's Bobcat Athletics Complex in 2021. The Stark-Kennedy Indoor Athletic Complex opened in August 2025 just northwest of the stadium. In spite of the improvements, the playing field's orientation hasn't changed since it opened in 1973.

Butler/College Field

Location: 11th & College

MSU Record: 9-2-1

The northwest corner of Montana State's first football field was located near 11th and College Streets on land that is now occupied by the Langford Parking Lot and Langford Hall and running southward toward Linfield Hall. At the time that plot of land was not part of campus, and sloped upward toward the south goal line. Fans stood around the field until bleachers became an addition in 1908.

Brewer Field,

Original Gatton Field

Location: Just southeast of Butler Field, bordered by the Barracks (west), College Street (north) and 8th Street (east)
MSU Record: 11-9-3

Montana State's first stadium within campus boundaries was called College Field and Brewer Athletic Field, and in 1920 became the original Gatton Field. Sitting just south of the old Butler or College Field, it ran east and west on land now covered by Langford and Culbertson Halls. Per photos from an early Montanan, the field's main wooden grandstand butted up against what is now College Street, while the smaller bleachers from Butler Field were relocated to the south sideline backing up to campus. Temporary bleachers lined the south sideline or east end zone, and cars often parked along unoccupied sidelines beginning around 1910. The field's completion necessitated covering 9th Street, which ran south toward Montana Hall. The College's Barracks, built in 1907, flank the field on the northwest corner. The name Brewer Field honored long-time Montana State professor William F. Brewer, generally credited with being among football's early organizers at MAC. Sentiment for naming the playing grounds Gatton Field grew on campus after the beloved local athlete was killed in action near the end of World War I, and became commonly accepted in 1920.

Location: Across Tamarack Street from the southwest corner of the current Gallatin County Fairgrounds, between Tracy and Grand avenues, running north and south

MSU Record: 1-0

Built nearly on a whim, Roundup Stadium hosted its first Bobcat game on November 15, 1919, when Montana State and Grizzlies tied 6-6. The home team never lost at Roundup, returning to campus in 1921 before the structure burned to the ground in 1926.

Temporary Gatton

Location: Just to the south

MSU Record: 19-7

The bleachers of original Gatton Field were dragged about a block south to an east-west field to take advantage of fresh grass and slightly elevated and flatter area. Running west from 8th Street between Harrison and Cleveland, temporary Gatton's surface was an upgrade from its predecessor but was always seen as transitional before the team moved south of the school's new gymnasium. Once permanent Gatton Field was built this plot became an open field used as an ice rink in 1932 and later for recreation. It is now the site of Rendezvous dining hall and a parking lot.

Gatton Field

Location: Grant Street

MSU Record: 83-45-6

Through most of the 1920s, Montana State played its home football games on a Gatton Field as a tribute to a beloved former Bobcat football player and Montana State student, but never was it the Gatton Field.

Permanent Gatton Field became a beloved campus landmark after its dedication on October 4, 1930, when Cy Gatton's mother and sisters returned and donated the gateway that still remains on 11th Street across from Romney Hall. Gatton Field and Romney stood as the centerpiece of Bobcat Athletics for more than four decades, and the football field saw it's share of legendary moments - it hosted the last visits to Bozeman of long-time Rocky Mountain rivals Utah, Utah State, BYU and Wyoming, was the home field of the men who ultimately made the ultimate sacrifice during World War II, saw the revival of the program in the 1950s, helped change football forever when Jan Stenerud was booting soccer-style kicks more than 50 yards in solitude, and was trampled under the The Iron Tumbleweed, Don Hass, and the great teams of the 1960s.

Van Winkle Stadium

Location: Bozeman High
MSU Record: 3-1

Montana State's only season playing at Bozeman High was a success. The Cats finished 3-1 at the field named for Gallatin County High student Bob Van Winkle, who was killed in a game against Lewistown in 1954. MSU's first game at Van Winkle came on September 30, its fourth game of the season, a decisive 17-3 win over Idaho (pictured below). The Cats drilled Northern Arizona 23-9 there a week later, and beat Boise State 37-10 for Homecoming on October 21. One week later MSU lost to Idaho State, but beat the Grizzlies a week later in Missoula to clinch Sonny Holland's first league title as head coach.

Reno H. Sales Stadium

Location: 11th & Kagy
MSU Record: 46-27

The "Stadium for State" campaign finally came to fruition, although in a drastically revised form, when the Bobcats moved into Reno H. Sales Stadium for the 1973 season. Sales played on Montana State's first football team - there are reports that indicate he scored the first touchdown for the then-Montana State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts - and after graduating became a world-renowned geologist. He made a significant donation toward MSU's first new football home in more than four decades. Reno H. Sales Stadium was home for five Big Sky title teams and two national championship squads until its partial reconstruction in 1998.

Bobcat Stadium

Location: 11th & Kagy

MSU Record: 52-28

Every permanent facility change in Bobcat history ushered in a period of sustained success, and the Bobcat Stadium era is no different. By its fifth season the Cats had won a Big Sky Championship and from 2002-14 (a period of time that saw MSU add artificial turf, lights, 4,000-plus seats in the south end zone) Montana State won six Big Sky crowns and appeared in the I-AA/FCS Playoffs seven times. The 2021 campaign ushers in an era defined by the new end zone complex.

~ - These attendance figures are estimates. Those for Cat-Griz games come from Montana's Greatest Rivalry: A College Football Classic by Tom Donovan or The Divide War: Montana's Golden Treasure by Pat Kearney. Others are anecdotal accounts from the Weekly Exponent, the Montanan, and other publications.

Individual Honors and Awards

MSU National Award Winners

Brad Daly

2013 Buck Buchanan Award

&

Caleb Schreibeis

2012 Buck Buchanan Award

The similarities are eerie.

When Montana State's Brad Daly captured Montana State's second consecutive Buck Buchanan Award, presented by The Sports Network to each season's top defensive player in the FCS, it echoed loudly of the previous season's award.

Like Daly, 2012 Buchanan winner Caleb Schreibeis is the younger brother of a former Bobcat captain, and also rose to that leadership level. Both Schreibeis and Daly were dynamic and productive as young players, respected and important players in the program before bursting onto the national scene as seniors.

Both of MSU's Buchanan Award winners offer compelling personal storylines. Schreibeis, the 2012 winner, came to Montana State as a walk-on. He wasn't moved to full-scholarship status until before his senior season, and played throughout his career as if proving his worth on every snap.

Daly, on the other hand, came to Bozeman as the Class AA Defensive Player of the Year out of Helena Capital. After initially trying Daly at linebacker a year after his brother Bobby had graduated from that spot as an All-America, he was moved to end. Immediately, the younger Daly thrived.

But in the winter of 2010, Daly decided college life was not for him. He left MSU and worked in the oil industry. He returned to the gridiron with an explosion in 2011, leading the Big Sky in sacks.

Daly and Schreibeis each posted spectacular careers statistically. Schreibeis led the nation in forced fumbles (eight), and was among the FCS and Big Sky leaders in sacks. Daly's 14.0 sacks in 2013 led the FCS and the Big Sky.

Jeff Bolton

2005 Rimington Award

Jeff Bolton didn't enter 2005 with his sights set on individual awards at the center position, because he didn't begin the season as a center.

But when the dust had settled on Montana State's third Big Sky title in four years, Bolton had earned First Team All-America and All-Big Sky honors and been named the winner of the Rimington Award as the top center in Division I-AA. The Hailey, Idaho, product accomplished this while playing center for the first time. In fact, he accomplished this while moving to center mid-way through the season.

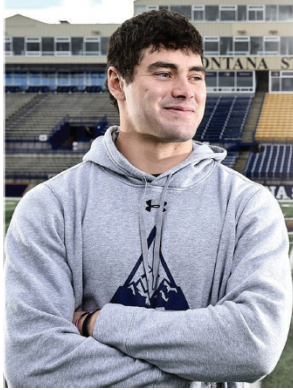

As a senior, the selfless Bolton started six games at center, four at left guard, and one at right guard, although he saw a majority of his time at center in eight of MSU's 11 games. As a junior, Bolton started eight games at right tackle, one game at left guard, and two at left tackle. He started 10 games at right guard and one at left guard as a sophomore, and rotated in as the team's third guard during eight games as a sophomore.

Bolton's awards dossier is as impressive as any Bobcat in history. He was a Second Team All-America as a junior and consensus first team selection as a senior, winning the MSU Offensive Coaches Choice Award each of those seasons. His Rimington Award as the top center in Division I-AA was also a landmark for the program, giving Montana State its first national player of the year award.

Troy Andersen

2021 FCS ADA National Defensive Player of the Year Award

Jeff Choate, the coach who recruited Troy Andersen to Montana State, liked to compare the Dillon, Montana product to a fable. "People will consider him like Paul Bunyan," Choate said, "by the time he's done."

Choate was half-right. Andersen's career seemed unreal, but it didn't take until it was finished.

Andersen earned Big Sky Freshman of the Year honors in 2017, and was only warming up. In the summer of 2018 Choate moved him to quarterback after the team's starter departed, and the former prep signal caller led MSU to the FCS Playoffs for the first time since 2014, landing First Team All-Big Sky and All-America honors in part by rushing for 1,412. When his junior season began he found himself at outside linebacker, his more natural position, again earning All-America and First Team All-Big Sky honors. He also managed to rush for 339 yards and complete both of his passes.

Fast forward through the idle times of 2020-21 and Andersen returned in good health at another new position. Playing middle linebacker he registered the fifth-most tackles in MSU history, earned unanimous First Team All-America and All-Big Sky honors, won FCS ADA National Defensive Player of the Year, and finished second in Buck Buchanan voting. He capped a truly extraordinary career as a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete, the only player selected from the FCS, and CoSIDA First Team Academic All-America.

Tommy Mellott

2024 Walter Payton Award

2023 Doris Robinson Award

Tommy Mellott never fit neatly into a category.

As a quarterback, he was more of an electrifying runner than a gunslinger, but he led a prolific, record-setting Bobcat offense. He commanded respect as a passer, leaned on efficiency and proficiency and always the threat of slipping out of the pocket. His first play as a Bobcat was covering a kickoff, and his last play was in his second FCS Championship Game.

Add it all together, and Mellott is in a category by himself.

"Touchdown Tommy from Butte America" became

Montana State's first Walter Payton Award winner in 2024, and along the way captured offensive player of the year honors from Walter Camp and the FCS Athletic Directors Association, as well. Big Sky Conference coaches named him the league's offensive player of the year, along with First Team All-Big Sky, and during his spectacular senior season he also earned CSC First Team Academic All-America honors.

Brody Grebe

2024 NFF Scholar Athlete

2024 FCS ADA Scholar Athlete of the Year

There was always something about Brody Grebe.

The work ethic, the intensity, the commitment to learning, all those things were visible to anyone around the BAC during his time at Montana State. But dig a little deeper and you'd learn about the curiosity, the commitment to always learning, the discipline that began with his schoolwork and then spilled into football.

Brody Grebe, the Melstone Cowboy, will always be remembered as one of the great student-athletes in Big Sky Conference history. He was a two-time CSC Academic All-America and was one of 16 finalists for the National Football Foundation William V. Campbell Trophy, the "Academic Heisman."

On the MSU campus, he won numerous honors from the College of Engineering, and began a business with products developed during his capstone project in mechanical engineering.

Bobcat Legacy Number

Former Bobcat coach Jeff Choate introduced 41 as Montana State's legacy number in the summer of 2016, a tribute to the Treasure State's status as the 41st state in the Union and to Montana State's iconic 1941 football team, the last group of Bobcats to play represent the University on the gridiron before World War II. By the end of the 1944 season 10 Bobcat football players had perished in the war effort, a fact observed by famed sportscaster Bill Stern. Stern's 1944 All-America football was comprised only of those 10 men, and in the next year their names had been memorialized nationally and read into the Congressional record. By the time the 1945 academic year dawned, four teammates had joined those 10. Bozeman's Grant Collins wore no. 41 when Choate decided to designate it as MSU's legacy number, and Belgrade's Brayden Konkol was the first Bobcat selected specifically for the honor.
