LEADING OFF

- Morehead State leads the OVC in runs scored, crossing the plate 82 times through 12 games.
- Morehead State's Ryley Preece leads the team in total bases with 34. He is also the team leader in home runs with 5.
- Saturday's 5-2 win over Samford marked the program's first win in the Bulldogs home park.
- Kyle Bartman impressed in his second start of the season Saturday, sparking the Eagle attack with a double and two walks, crossing the player twice in the win.
- Jackson Feltner has paced the Morehead State offense thus far this season, leading the team in both average (.368) and hits (14). Feltner hit a three-run home run in last season's loss at Louisville.
- Morehead State's Colton Becker is top 50 in the nation in stolen bases with 7, and has yet to be caught stealing this season.
- Ryan Grabosch is 3-3 in catching would-be base stealers this season, throwing out two Bulldogs over the weekend.
- Jarrett Miller is tied for the OVC lead in saves with 3 in 5 appearances.

HEAD COACH MIK AOKI

With a pedigree encompassing more than 500 collegiate wins and more than 50 draft picks by Major League organizations, Mik Aoki is now in his fourth year as head baseball coach at Morehead State.

The 2020 season, his first at MSU, was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. His first full season in 2021 resulted in 24 victories as the Eagles were in first place in the OVC for much of the season. MSU was one of four teams who qualified for the shortened OVC Tournament, finishing third place. Aoki's team featured the first-ever OVC Freshman of the Year in program history in first baseman Jackson Feltner. In 2022, Aoki led Morehead State to its fifth straight top three finish in the OVC, while having five players named All-OVC.

Aoki (A-Oh-Key) led the baseball program at Notre Dame for nine seasons after serving as the head coach at Boston College for four campaigns. He also held the head coaching spot at Columbia. Forty of his players over his time as a head coach have been named all-conference.

Aoki piloted the Irish to 248 wins while seeing 26 of his student-athletes drafted into MLB organizations, including a first-round pick. Four of his players went on to stints with Major League teams, including current Notre Dame alums Cavan Biggio (Toronto) and Trey Mancini (Baltimore).

In addition to on-field success, Aoki's Notre Dame clubs raised more than $75,000 for charity from 2014-19, including awareness for amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS or Lou Gehrig's Disease). In 2018 and 2019, the baseball team won "The Trophy" at ND for the team most committed to community service. In 2018, his team alone logged more than 1,000 hours of community service. His teams also consistently turned in 3.0 or better team grade point averages.

Aoki inherited the Irish program in 2011 and improved its win total for three straight seasons. Notre Dame transitioned into one of the most competitive leagues in the nation, the Atlantic Coast Conference, in 2014, and Aoki guided the Irish to 37 wins and its first NCAA Tournament berth since 2006 in 2015.

Aoki's club set more Irish draft standards in 2017, as it tied a school record with six draft picks. In addition, three players taken in the first seven rounds were a program record for selections over those opening seven rounds, while it was the third time in school history Notre Dame had three picks in the first 10 rounds, the second time that happened under him.

Aoki also saw resounding success as head coach at Boston College from 2007-10. His teams averaged 29 wins per year in the ACC, including the high-water mark with a 34-26 campaign in 2009 that resulted in an NCAA Regional berth at No. 1 national seed Texas. That was BC's first NCAA Tournament berth in 40+ years. He had 13 players drafted, including two first-rounders and four future MLB professionals.

Prior becoming the head man in Chestnut Hill, Mass., Aoki served as Boston College's pitching coach from 2004-06. Six of his pitchers were drafted by MLB clubs.

He led the Columbia Lions from 1999-2003, taking over a program that hadn't seen a 20-win season since 1987. He promptly led Columbia to three straight 20+ win results.

His first head coaching assignment came at Manchester (Ct.) Community College in 1992 before he served as an assistant coach at Ohio University (1993-94) and Dartmouth (1995-98).

Aoki has been a strong advocate for the Pete Frates #3 Fund since the diagnosis of his former outfielder, Pete Frates, with ALS in 2012. Frates was a freshman at Boston College during Aoki's first season as BC and served as team captain on the 2007 Eagles squad which was Aoki's first as head coach. Since Frates' diagnosis with ALS, Aoki has helped raise thousands for the foundation to help offset his medical costs and fund research for a cure to ALS.

Born in Yokohama, Japan and raised in Plymouth, Mass., Aoki attended Davidson College, graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in English in 1990. He earned his Master's Degree in physical education and athletic administration from Ohio in 1994.
