100-Yard Rushing Notes

Since 1981, MSU has had a player rush for 100 yards or more in a game 177 times. The longest string of consecutive 100-yard games rushing by a Maverick came in the 2017 seasons when MSU had eight consecutive 100-yard rushing games.

During the first eight games of the 2017 season, Nate Gunn rushed for more than 100 yards in seven games, including a season-high 229 yards against Minnesota Duluth on Sept. 16. Justin Taormina also rushed for more than 100 yards in three of MSU's first eight games of the season, including 154 yards against Southwest Minnesota State on Oct. 19. Ian Pribyl also tallied 133 rushing yards against Minnesota Crookston on Sept. 9.

There have been 17 occurrences in school history where two players have rushed for 100 yards or more in the same game. The last duo to do so was Nate Gunn and Justin Taormina against Midwestern State in the second round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament on Nov. 25. Gunn rushed for 193 yards, while Taormina tallied 134 rushing yards.

Only twice in school history has a trio of Mavericks ran for 100 or more yards in the same game. On Oct. 4, 1986, Tony Jones, Greg von der Lippe and Dave Scofield each eclipsed the 100-yard barrier against North Dakota. Jones ran for 159 yards, von der Lippe 131 and Scofield 129 as MSU downed UND 43-10 in Grand Forks, N.D.

On Sept. 26, 2015, Virgil Hammond, Connor Thomas and Chad Zastrow each rushed for more the 100 yards against Minnesota Crookston. In MSU's 63-3 road win over the Golden Eagles, Zastrow rushed for 115 yards, with Hammond following with 112 yard and Thomas with 110 yards.

A Historic Drive

On December 1, 2018, Minnesota State hosted Tarleton State in the third round of the NCAA Tournament at Blakeslee Stadium. The first half saw little scoring as the Texans carried a 10-0 lead into halftime as the expected snow began to fall.

As the second began, snow covered the entire field and neither team was able to do anything on their opening drive. TSU's first drive of the third quarter ended with a 60 yard punt that put the Mavericks back on their own three yard line. Then it happened.

With 11:19 to go in the third quarter, Minnesota State began a 27-play, 97-yard touchdown drive that took 12:09 off the clock. The drive included 26 rushing plays, six third down conversions and two fourth down conversions. The drive culminated with a five-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Schlichte to Shane Zylstra on fourth down. Nate Gunn carried the ball 18 times for 69 yards during the drive.

The game remained 10-7 in favor of Tarleton State when MSU took over on its own 24 with 3:14 remaining in the game. Seven plays later, the Mavericks took the lead as Gunn raced into the end zone from 13 yards out with 1:47 left in the game. TSU managed to reach the MSU 45 with less than a minute remaining but the Maverick defense held firm as Minnesota State claimed the 13-10 win to advance to the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament.

MSU's 27 plays set an NCAA record surpassing the previous record 26-play drive by Navy against New Mexico on December 30, 2004.

2024 MINNESOTA STATE FOOTBALL

HARLON HILL AWARD

The Harlon Hill Award is given annually to the player selected as the top performer in NCAA Division II. The award seeks to give overdue recognition to a division of college football that has produced such greats as Walter Payton, Neil Lomax, Darrell Green, John Randle and many others.

The player, selected as the “best” in Division II by the sports information directors at more than 140 schools which compete in football at that particular level, will have come through both regional and national balloting to claim the award. The process begins in October when nominations from NCAA Division II SIDs are accepted. The only requirement is that the nominee must have distinguished himself as being among the top players in the game.

Following the nomination process, a listing of no more than regional finalists from each of the four super regions, with Minnesota State falling in Super Region 4, is released following polling from the regional advisory committee. The players who make the regional ballots are then voted upon by the SIDs in their respective region, with each ballot calling for a ranking of the top three players on the ballot and points awarded in the following manner: three points for a first-place vote, two points for a second-place vote and one point for a third-place vote.

After the regional balloting is concluded, the top two vote-getters will advance to the national ballot as finalists for the Harlon Hill Award. Again, the SIDs vote on a first, second and third basis, only this time the ballot is issued nationwide. The top three national vote-getters receive invitations to attend the NCAA Division II Championship Game where the award winner is announced.

Minnesota State University quarterback Jamie Pass, who broke or tied 19 MSU records and also established four North Central Conference marks, finished third in Harlon Hill balloting in 1993. MSU receiver Josh Nelsen, who completed his career owning 16 school marks and one NCC record, finished seventh in 1994 balloting. John Hebgen, MSU quarterback from 1993-1996, was a regional finalist for the award in 1996. Tywan Mitchell, a three-time All-America wide receiver for the Mavericks, was a regional finalist for the award in 1998.

In 2004, I-back Sean Treasure was named as a regional finalist for the award in 2004 in his first season at MSU. Treasure not only became the first Minnesota State running back to be a regional finalist, but also became the first Maverick in school history to be a recognized in the Harlon Hill Award balloting prior to his senior season.

Ben King reached the regional ballot in 2007. In doing so, he became the third Maverick quarterback in school history to make the regional list.

In 2013, Jon Wolf was named regional finalist and eventually advanced to the national ballot where he finished in sixth place. In doing so, Wolf became just the third Maverick to be named a national finalist and the first since wide receiver Josh Nelsen received the honor during the 1994 season.

The 2014 season saw Joshua Gordon named a regional finalist. Gordon was the first defensive player of the Mavericks to reach the regional ballot as he set a single-season record of 17.5 sacks. Gordon garnered multiple All-American honors to go along with NSIC Defensive Player of the Year honors.

In 2019, Nate Gunn was named a regional finalist and advanced to the national ballot where he finished in fifth place. Gunn became the fourth Maverick to reach the national ballot as he led the Maverick rushing attack with 1,667 yards and 31 touchdown carries.

MSU quarterback Jamie Pass finished third in balloting for the Harlon Hill Award as the 1993 NCAA Division II Player of the Year.

Minnesota State quarterback Jon Wolf finished sixth on the national ballot for the Harlon Hill Award in 2013.

Maverick wide receiver Josh Nelsen took seventh-place in the balloting for the Harlon Hill Award in 1994.

Minnesota State has had three players selected in the annual National Football League Draft over the course of the program's history. The most recent player was offensive lineman Jeff Reinke, who was the Raiders tenth-round pick in 1986 and later went on to play with Cincinnati.

He then spent two years with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League before signing with the San Francisco 49ers in 1979 before joining the Minnesota Vikings in 1980. "Brue," who compiled 85 catches, 10 touchdowns and 1,271 receiving yards in four seasons at MSU, went on to play five years with the Vikings.

Defensive lineman Phil Driscoll, who had sons Phillip and Kellen that also played football at MSU, was selected in the 11th round by the Miami Dolphins in 1980.
