Michigan State head Suzy Merchant has established herself as one of the premier coaches in MSU history. With nearly 500 career wins, Merchant has proven to be one of the best coaches in Michigan State history and a force in the Big Ten Conference. Entering her 13th season as head coach of the MSU women's basketball program, Merchant has brought the Spartan program to the upper echelon at the Big Ten and national level. The Spartans have finished third or better in the Big Ten in eight of the last 12 seasons, and her conference record of 127-77 (62.3%) is in the top-12 career winning percentage in the 35-year history of the Big Ten. The Spartans have won at least 20 games in 10 of her 12 seasons.

The Great Lakes State native was hired at MSU on April 30, 2007, after spending time as a head coach at Eastern Michigan (1998-07) and Saginaw Valley State (1995-98). In her 24 years as a head coach, she has won nearly 65 percent of her games, collecting a 466-254 (.647) career record, including 265-134 (.664) in 12 seasons in East Lansing. Merchant became the fastest Spartan coach to 100 wins. She is also the winningest coach in Eastern Michigan history, compiling a 147-91 record in her nine seasons.

Through her first 12 seasons at MSU, 43 Spartans have earned All-Big Ten recognition and 55 have been named Academic All-Big Ten. A pair of Spartans have earned major Big Ten awards - Kalisha Keane was the Big Ten Player of the Year in 2010-11, following up the Sixth Player of the Year award as a junior, while Lykendra Johnson (2010-11) and Allyssa DeHaan (2009-10) were named Big Ten Defensive Players of the Year. DeHaan, who finished her career second all-time in NCAA history in blocked shots, and Keane were also named All-Americans following their senior seasons. In 2013-14, Aerial Powers became the first Spartan freshman to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors. Powers would go on to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors in 2014-15 and 2015-16, as well as being named an All-American both seasons. During the 2016-17 season, Tori Jankoska became the Spartan all-time leading scorer as well as earning first-team All-Big Ten and All-American honors.

Last season, the Spartans had some dazzling wins with victories over No. 3 Oregon and No. 16 Iowa, as MSU was 15-1 at the Breslin Center. Michigan State ended the season with a 21-12 overall record, going 9-9 in Big Ten play. The Spartans reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament before failing to national runner-up Notre Dame. Four Spartans earned All-Big Ten honors with Shay Colley picking up first-team honors by the coaches. Jenna Allen earned second-team accolades, as Nia Clouden captured honorable mention honors and was named to the All-Freshman team. Taryn McCutcheon rounded out the group with honorable mention honors.

The 2017-18 Spartans battled injuries throughout the season and still managed to make the Sweet 16 of the WNIT, ending the season with a 19-14 mark and a 7-9 Big Ten record. MSU earned its first-ever win over Maryland on Jan. 11. Four Spartans earned All-Big Ten honors: Brannadai Agee, Allen, Colley and McCutcheon earned honorable mention honors. Once again, Michigan State continued to fill the Breslin Center, finishing 10th in the nation and second in the Big Ten in attendance, averaging 5,689 fans per game.

During the 2016-17 season, Michigan State reached the NCAA Tournament with a 21-12 record, including going 9-7 in Big Ten action. The year was filled with more record-breaking performances as Jankoska became the first Spartan to score over 2,000 points. Four Spartans were honored with All-Big Ten honors. Jankoska was named first-team All-Big Ten, while Agee, Taya Reimer and McCutcheon were named to the honorable mention squad. MSU finished eighth in the nation and first in the Big Ten in attendance, averaging 6,011 fans per game.

The 2015-16 season was a return to form for the Spartans, as MSU ended the season with a 25-9 overall record. Michigan State ended league play 13-5, which was good for third place in the ultra-competitive Big Ten Conference. Powers was once again named to the first team, while Tori Jankoska was named to the second team. Both Agee and Jasmine Hines earned honorable mention honors. Against Minnesota on Feb. 21, Merchant earned her 400th win as a head coach. 2018-19 YEAR IN REVIEW

The 2018-19 Michigan State women's basketball team had a stellar season at the Breslin Center en route to a 21-12 season and a trip to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Spartans finished the always-tough Big Ten Conference play with a 9-9 record.

- The Spartans said goodbye to lone senior Jenna Allen, who became the 27th member of the MSU 1,000-point club. She is one of only 13 Spartans to have 1,000 points and at least 500 rebounds in her career.
- The Spartans defeated four ranked teams in 2018-19, including a win over No. 9 Maryland on Jan. 17, joining No. 3 Oregon (88-82 on Dec. 9), No. 16 Iowa (84-70 on Dec. 30) and No. 18 Minnesota (Jan. 9), marking the second time in last four seasons that the Spartans had beat four ranked teams in the same season.
- Michigan State women's basketball ended the home portion of the regular-season schedule among the NCAA and Big Ten leaders, averaging 5,496 fans per game. MSU ended 15th in the nation and fifth in the Big Ten in attendance. This marked the 15th-consecutive season that the Spartans have ranked in the top 15 nationally in attendance. Michigan State has had a total attendance of over 80,000 every season since 2005-06. The Spartans had their 15th-best crowd this season when 11,368 fans packed the Breslin Center as MSU defeated Michigan.
- Michigan State tied a school record with 15 home wins last season, finishing the 2018-19 season with a 15-1 record at Breslin Center, matching the 2010-11 MSU squad. The Spartans won 18 of their last 19 home games dating back to last season, after having their 16-game home winning streak snapped by Ohio State on Feb. 24. The 2010-11 MSU squad was 15-1 at home and the only losses both in 2018-19 and 2010-11 were at the hands of Ohio State. The 2005-06 team finished 14-1 at home, while the 2008-09 squad was 14-2.

- Michigan State has now earned 43 All-Big Ten selections. MSU has had at least two players earn All-Big Ten honors in each of her 12 seasons under head coach Suzy Merchant as part of 17-straight seasons overall. Jenna Allen, Nia Clouden, Shay Colley and Taryn McCutcheon all earned All-Big Ten honors in 2018-19. Clouden also earned a spot on the All-Freshman squad.
- Guard Taryn McCutcheon now has 472 assists in three seasons as a Spartan. She stands third in the all-time MSU record book. She is also fourth in made 3-pointers with 198.
- Guard Nia Clouden had a stellar freshman campaign, ending the season with 120 helpers, which is fifth all-time among MSU freshmen. She also scored 397 points, which stands fifth.
- In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the Spartans stopped Central Michigan, 88-87. MSU's 88 points were third-most scored in its NCAA Tournament history. In 1991, Michigan State scored 94 points in a triple overtime loss to Oklahoma State. The 19 assists were the fourth-most in NCAA Tournament history. MSU shot 52.2 percent from the field (35-for-37), which was the third-most in tourney history for the Spartans.

* Finish at Big Ten Championship

NOTE: Since the 1982-83 season, a double round-robin format has determined the conference champion. From 1976-82, the conference champion was determined by a weekend tournament. Championships prior to the 1981-82 season were not sanctioned by the Big Ten Conference. Beginning with the 1994-95 season, a postseason conference tournament has been played with the winner gaining the Big Ten's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

HALL OF FAME

KRISTIN HAYNIE

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL (2002-05)

CLASS OF 2017

Kristin Haynie was the quintessential Spartan, leading the Michigan State women's basketball team to its first Final Four during the magical 2005 season. The Mason, Michigan, native dreamed of becoming a Spartan and used complete tenacity to make her dreams come true.

She joins Mary Kay Itnyre (2015), Diane Spoelstra (2012) and Kisha (Kelley) Simpson (2011) as MSU women's basketball players in the Michigan State Athletics Hall of Fame.

A native Michigander, Haynie finds it particularly special to be named to the MSU Athletics Hall of Fame. Haynie was inducted into the Greater Lansing Area Sports Hall of Fame in 2014, but did not anticipate being named to the MSU Athletics Hall of Fame at such a young age.

Haynie had a stellar Michigan State career, ranking as the career leader in assists (574) and steals (346). She finished her career ranked eighth in MSU history in scoring (1,199 points) and is still 14th in career scoring. At the time of her graduation, she was just the fourth player in Big Ten history to reach career totals of 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 500 assists and 300 steals. She is also the Michigan State leader in single-season steals with 117. The point guard is still one of just three Spartan women's basketball players to record a triple-double.

The Spartan had an amazing stint in East Lansing, but the pinnacle of her MSU career was the 2005 season. Michigan State advanced to its first-ever Final Four, falling in the championship game to Baylor. MSU finished the season with a 33-4 record, which is still the school record for wins, under the tutelage of head coach Joanne P. McCallie.

Haynie knows that her success during her senior season had as much to do with the other four players on the court with her. Shimek and Bowen both started every game of the 2005 season with Shimek leading the team in scoring, averaging 14.8 ppg. Haynie, Shimek and Bowen all garnered Kodak/WBCA and Associated Press All-American honors after the conclusion of the 2005 season, but it was Haynie that emerged as the heart of the Big Ten Championship squad.

MARY KAY ITNYRE

CLASS OF 2015

After beginning her playing career at Arizona State, Mary Kay Itnyre transferred to Michigan State and became a dominant player for Coach Karen Langeland, setting 19 Spartan single-season and career records. The 6-foot, center/forward became only the second 1,000-point scorer in program history. She closed out her career as MSU's all-time leader in scoring (1,189 points), scoring average (14.9 points per game), rebounds (821), rebounding average (10.3 rpg.) and double-doubles (43). Itnyre, who scored in double figures in 63 of 80 career games, led the team in scoring for three-straight seasons from 1977-80. She posted 27 career 20-point games.

The Detroit, Michigan, native burst onto the scene as a sophomore in 1977-78, leading the Spartans in scoring (career-best 17.1 points per game), rebounding (career-high 11.3 per game) and field-goal percentage (career-best .511) en route to a 21-7 record. Itnyre reached double figures in scoring in 22 of 28 games, including 11 20-point games. Her top single-game performance came against Grand Valley State, with a career-high 30 points and a season-best 18 rebounds. She recorded a career-best 19 double-doubles that season.

As a junior in 1978-79, Itnyre averaged 14.2 points and 10.3 rebounds, as the Spartans took second in the Big Ten Championship. She netted double figures in 20 of 26 games, including six 20-point outings. Itnyre tallied a season-high 28 points at Northwestern. She grabbed 20-plus rebounds in three games, including a career-best 23 boards against Central Michigan. Itnyre totaled 13 double-doubles.

She averaged 13.2 points and 9.0 rebounds as a senior in 1979-80. Itnyre scored in double figures in 21 of 26 games, including five 20-point efforts, and produced 11 double-doubles. She was selected All-Region, All-First-Team All-State and team MVP in 1979-80. In addition, Itnyre was named CoSIDA Academic All-American (third team).

Itnyre still ranks among MSU's career leaders in double-doubles (first), rebounding average (second at 10.3 rpg.), free-throw percentage (third at .823), scoring average (tied for fourth at 14.9 ppg.), rebounds (eighth), free throws (11th with 261 made), field-goal percentage (12th at .485), scoring (14th) and field goals (14th with 464 made).

CLASS OF 2012

Diane Spoelstra became a rare three-sport athlete at Michigan State, earning starting positions in volleyball, women's basketball and softball from 1975-78. According to athletic communications' records, Spoelstra is one of only two women to compete in three different sports at MSU, joining Shirley Cook (1955-58: field hockey, basketball and track).

The 5-foot-10 Spoelstra was a two-year starter in basketball from 1976-78 for Coach Karen Langeland, who helped Michigan State to a combined record of 44-13 including back-to-back 20-win seasons. As a senior, Spoelstra contributed 7.8 points, 3.4 rebounds and 1.5 assists per game.

She started 45 of 51 career games for Coach Langeland, averaging 9.8 points, 4.8 rebounds and 1.5 assists. For her career, Spoelstra shot 44 percent from the field and 70-percent from the free-throw line.

Spoelstra began her playing career at Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Mich., before transferring to Michigan State.

CLASS OF 2011

A four-year letterwinner for Michigan State, Kisha (Kelley) Simpson (1991-95) became the first Spartan women's basketball player inducted into the Michigan State Athletics Hall of Fame, in a ceremony on Sept. 22, 2011.

She finished her illustrious career as MSU's all-time leading scorer and became the first All-American in Spartan women's basketball history. Kelley, now third on the Spartan career points list, completed her four seasons with 1,668 points. Her 15.2 career points per game average is tied for first all-time at MSU, while she is also currently second with 360 free throws made, sixth with 201 career steals and eighth with 701 career rebounds.

That season, she broke the MSU single-season scoring mark for the second-straight season with 529 points, topping her junior total of 513. The two totals currently rank sixth and seventh, respectively, as Kelley is one of only two MSU players to score at least 500 points in two separate seasons.

A three-time All-Big Ten selection and team Most Valuable Player, Kelley led Michigan State in scoring her last three seasons, in addition to pacing the Spartans in rebounds and steals as a junior and senior. Earning second-team All-Big Ten honors as a junior, she set career highs with 19.0 points and 8.8 rebounds per game. MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

PRESIDENT

SAMUEL L. STANLEY JR., M.D.

Stanley was selected by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees as MSU's 21st president, effective Aug. 1, 2019.

Born in Seattle, Dr. Stanley earned a Bachelor of Arts in biological sciences (Phi Beta Kappa) from the University of Chicago. After earning his medical degree from Harvard Medical School in 1980, he completed resident-physician training at Massachusetts General Hospital and then went to Washington University in St. Louis in 1983 for a School of Medicine fellowship in infectious diseases. There, he became a professor in the departments of both medicine and molecular microbiology in recognition of the collaborative nature of his research.

A distinguished biomedical researcher, Dr. Stanley was one of the nation's highest recipients of support from the National Institutes of Health for his research focusing on enhanced defense against emerging infectious diseases. He is an expert in the biological mechanisms that cells employ when responding to infectious agents such as parasites, bacteria and viruses — a process known as the inflammatory response.

In 2006, Dr. Stanley was appointed vice chancellor for research at Washington University, serving in that position until he was appointed president of Stony Brook University in New York in 2009.

As the fifth president of Stony Brook, Dr. Stanley recorded the most successful fundraising year in the university's history and championed legislation that helped Stony Brook hire more than 240 new faculty over five years.

Dr. Stanley served as chair of the National Science Advisory Board for Biosecurity, which advises the United States government on issues related to the communication, dissemination and performance of sensitive biological research. He was a member of the National Advisory Allergy and Infectious Diseases Council at the NIH and a member of the NIH Director's Blue Ribbon Panel on the National Emerging Infectious Diseases Laboratories. He also served as an ambassador for the Paul G. Rogers Society for Global Health Research and has received an Honorary Doctorate Degree in Science from Konkuk University in South Korea. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of American Universities (AAU) and has served on the NCAA Board of Directors and NCAA Board of Governors.

A researcher, patent holder and former technology transfer executive, Dr. Stanley supports academic and industry collaborations to leverage both their economic impact and the potentially enormous contributions they can make to society. His extensive experience gives him invaluable perspective on the emerging field of translational research. Dr. Stanley also continues to work as a strong advocate for federal funding of basic research, working through organizations such as the AAU to promote the critical role of university research in innovation and discovery.

President Stanley's wife, Ellen Li, M.D., Ph.D., is a distinguished biomedical researcher and gastroenterologist. In addition to her roles as a clinician and scientist, Dr. Li tutors students in chemistry and has mentored many students interested in biomedical research. Dr. Stanley and Dr. Li have four children.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

BILL BEEKMAN

Bill Beekman officially assumed the role of MSU's 19th athletics director on July 17, 2018. He was appointed interim athletic director on Feb. 5, 2018, before taking over the position full time.

Beekman is responsible for oversight of MSU's 25 varsity sports teams as well as the care of more than 700 Spartan student-athletes. He provides leadership in the areas of sports management, game operations, financial administration, personnel, advancement, corporate interaction, facility management, marketing and communication.

In his first full season as athletic director, the men's basketball team advanced to the Final Four and won Big Ten regular season and tournament titles, men's soccer reached the College Cup for the first time since 1968, and the football team earned a bowl bid for the 11th time in the past 12 seasons. In addition, the men's and women's golf teams both played in the NCAA Regionals, the women's cross country team placed 11th at the NCAA Championships, and the women's basketball team earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament for the ninth time under head coach Suzy Merchant.

The Spartans were just as impressive off the field, posting the highest all-time cumulative grade-point average (3.1771) in the history of the athletic department during the 2019 spring semester. It also marked the 17th consecutive semester the department has achieved over a 3.00 cumulative GPA. Nineteen teams delivered a cumulative GPA over a 3.0, tying a department record, and an all-time high 88 students posted a perfect 4.0 semester GPA in the spring semester of 2019. Six student-athletes earned Academic All-America honors and 316 were recognized on the Academic All-Big Ten team. In addition, the men's basketball, men's swimming and diving and volleyball programs earned NCAA APR Public Recognition Awards (ranked among the top 10 percent of their sports in the most recent Academic Progress Rate results).

Michigan State also measured at an all-time department high of 88 percent according to the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in 2018-19. The men's basketball program produced a perfect 100 percent GSR and the football program posted its all-time high GSR of 82 percent in the most recent NCAA figures that were released in November 2018 (graduation rates for classes 2008-11). MSU Athletics is succeeding at record levels in the Federal Graduation Rate (FGR) as well, posting record highs in both the four-year (75 percent) and single-year (80 percent) marks. The single-year 80 percent FGR topped the general student population for the first time (79 percent).

An MSU alumnus, Beekman has served his alma mater since 1995, assuming his most previous recent role as vice president and secretary of the Board of Trustees in 2008. Previously, he served as executive director of the MSU Alumni Association, senior adviser to the provost and assistant dean for finance in the College of Human Medicine. Beekman also served briefly as acting president at Michigan State University in January 2018.

Beekman received his MBA from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University, his Juris Doctorate from Wayne State University Law School, and his undergraduate degree in justice, morality and constitutional democracy from James Madison College at MSU.

The Beekman family: Katie, Bill, Nick, Cindy and Will.

THE NICKNAME

In 1926, Michigan State's first southern baseball training tour provided the setting for the birth of the "Spartans" nickname.

It all came about when a Lansing sportswriter imposed the silent treatment on a contest-winning nickname and substituted his own choice, the name that has lasted through the years.

In 1925, Michigan State College replaced the name Michigan Agricultural College. The college sponsored a contest to select a nickname to replace "Aggies" and picked "The Michigan Staters."

George S. Alderton, then sports editor of the Lansing State Journal, decided the name was too cumbersome for newspaper writing and vowed to find a better one. Alderton contacted Jim Hasselman of Information Services to see if entries still remained from the contest. When informed that they still existed, Alderton ran across the entry name of "Spartans" and then decided that was the choice. Unfortunately, Alderton forgot to write down who submitted that particular entry, so that part of the story remains a mystery.

Rewriting game accounts supplied by Perry Fremont, a catcher on the squad, Alderton first used the name sparingly and then ventured into the headlines with it. (Incidentally, after two days of spelling the name incorrectly with an "o", Mr. Alderton changed it to Spartan on a tip from a close friend.) Dale Stafford, a sports writer for the Lansing Capitol News, a rival of the State Journal, picked up the name for his paper after a couple of days. Alderton called Stafford and suggested that he might want to join the Spartan parade and he did.

As Mr. Alderton explains: "No student, alumnus or college official had called up the editor to complain about our audacity in giving the old school a new name, so we ventured into headlines with it. Happily for the experiment, the name took. It began appearing in other newspapers and when the student publication used it, that clinched it."

SPARTY

"The Spartan" statue, designed and produced by MSU assistant art professor Leonard D. Jungwirth, has a permanent home inside the atrium of the Spartan Stadium tower. The 9-foot-7 ceramic figure weighs approximately 6,600 pounds, including its base. In 2005, the sculpture was relocated to protect it from the elements.

"The Spartan" was dedicated on June 9, 1945, at the intersection of Red Cedar Road, Kalamazoo Street and Chestnut Road. Popularly known as "Sparty," the statue remains one of the favorite photo subjects of campus visitors.

In 2005, an exact replica of the original terra cotta sculpture - now cast in bronze - took up residency on the plaza located at the north end of Demonstration Hall Field. The molds for the bronze statue were made from the original sculpture. The new statue was cast in bronze at the Artworks Foundry in Berkeley, Calif.

As part of MSU's sesquicentennial celebration, the bronze "Sparty" was dedicated on Oct. 8, 2005. Donors contributed approximately $500,000 to pay for all work related to the new sculpture, including the plaza.

SPARTY MASCOT

Michigan State's beloved Sparty has won three national championships at the Universal Cheer Association's mascot competition at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida.

In March 2008, Sparty was selected to appear on the cover of NCAA Football 09 for Nintendo Wii. EA Sports conducted an online poll, asking college football fans to vote and determine which college mascot would have the honor of being depicted on the game's cover. Fans went online and cast more than 700,000 votes and Sparty won a tightly-contested race, beating out mascots from Central Florida, Washington State, Auburn, LSU, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa State, Alabama and Penn State.

In January 2004, Sparty became the first Big Ten mascot to claim the national title, and in 2005, he defended his national championship, beating Goldy Gopher and Bucky Badger in the finals. After finishing third in the 2006 competition, Sparty reclaimed the national championship in 2007.

Made of hi-tech materials, including a vinyl chest plate and fiberglass molds like the ones used for making Muppets, the seven-foot costume weighs in at 40 pounds, allowing enough flexibility for playful gestures and animation. Sparty is a far cry from the many papier-mache heads that have popped up since the 1950's, mostly from fraternity efforts. The first official one apparently debuted in 1955 courtesy of Theta Xi.

Other versions were introduced at times. In 1984, Sigma Phi Epsilon introduced the first "gruff" head — sporting the unshaven look that still adorns many sweatshirts and jackets. By contrast, the current Sparty costume is a state-of-the-art, full-bodied uniform that costs $12,000.

Today six students — their identities kept private — take turns being Sparty with one of three costumes. Because of the costume size, Sparty aspirants must be between 5-10 and 6-2 in height. Candidates who fit the physical needs are chosen after a hands-on process that includes tryouts and interviews. The Sparty Mascot Program is run and funded by the Student Alumni Foundation.

GREEN AND WHITE

Details are sketchy as to when Michigan State athletic teams officially began using the school colors green and white. But records of the Athletic Association of the then Michigan Agricultural College show that on April 11, 1899, the organization took steps toward adoption of a green monogram, "to be worn only by athletes who subsequently take part in intercollegiate events."

It is generally thought the colors came into wide use with the arrival in 1903 of Chester L. Brewer as the school's first full-time director of athletics. Brewer also coached the football, basketball, baseball and track teams, the only varsity units in existence at the time.

MSU FIGHT SONG

On the banks of the Red Cedar,
There's a school that's known to all;

Its specialty is winning,
And those Spartans play good ball;

Spartan teams are never beaten,
All through the game they'll fight;
Fight for the only colors,
Green and White.

Go right through for MSU,
Watch the points keep growing.
Spartan teams are bound to win,
They're fighting with a vim.

Rah! Rah! Rah!
See their team is weakening,
We're going to win this game.
Fight! Fight! Rah! Team, Fight!
Victory for MSU.

MICHIGAN STATE BRESLIN CENTER

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

The Jack Breslin Student Events Center, one of the premier facilities in the country, serves as the home to the Michigan State basketball programs. Besides accommodating the programs, the arena is used for student commencements, concerts, trade shows, conventions, banquets and other functions of interest to both the university and the community. The 14,797-seat arena is beginning its 31st season of Spartan basketball.

One of the greatest venues in the country for college basketball, MSU has ranked among the nation's top programs in attendance over the past 15 seasons. Over the span, MSU has been among the top-15 nationally each season, including ranking in the top-10 eight of the last 10 years. Last season, the Spartans were 15th in the nation and fifth in the Big Ten in attendance, averaging 5,496 fans.

Michigan State recorded its first official sell out in 2010-11 against Michigan (Feb. 13, 2011), attracting a school-record 14,797 fans.

The Spartans surpassed 1 million fans all-time at Breslin Center nine seasons ago against Washington (Dec. 19, 2009). In the 31-year history at Breslin, 1,868,607 fans have watched a MSU women's basketball game.

All-time, MSU is 322-104 (.756) at Breslin Center, including a 187-41 (.820) mark since the beginning of the 2003-04 season. The Spartans had a 20-game winning streak at Breslin snapped seven seasons ago, the second-longest streak in school history. In addition, Michigan State has hosted the 2007 and 2009 NCAA Tournament First and Second Rounds in Breslin.

Last season, MSU set the school record for wins at home going 15-1 at the Breslin Center.

In January 2002, the Michigan State men's and women's basketball staffs moved into their new offices in the Alfred Berkowitz Basketball Complex, one of the finest facilities in the nation. The new addition added two auxiliary gyms along with expanded office space, a large video review room, a video workroom and a conference room for both programs. In November 2007, the latest addition, a new locker room and player lounge were added to the floor level of the Breslin Center.

The auxiliary gyms allow greater flexibility for practice times and individual workouts. A small balcony off the video workroom allows a great location from which to film practice.

BRESLIN CENTER

The gym also contains an auxiliary training room and an observation area for visitors.

The Alfred Berkowitz Foundation pledged $2 million toward the $7.5 million project. The entire cost of the project was covered by private funds.

The theater provides a showcase for Spartan basketball in the form of a mini movie theater. With seating for more than 30 people, it can handle a team film meeting or a press conference. Videos can be shown on a projection screen or a Smart Board, allowing the coaching staff to diagram plays directly on the screen.

Opened in fall of 2017, the $20 million addition, provided through private support, will be a multi-faceted construction project and upon completion will feature a new ticket box office, a championship display, the Draymond Green Strength and Conditioning Center, a recruiting lounge, alumni locker room and interactive areas that will enhance the fan experience for the more than 500,000 people attending events each year. Open on non-game days throughout the year, the Tom Izzo Hall of History will celebrate the extraordinary success of Spartan Basketball throughout all eras.
