SPARTANS OPEN B1G SLATE AGAINST MICHIGAN

Michigan State opens B1G action on Friday, Jan. 11 with a trip to Ann Arbor for a matchup with No. 25 Michigan at 7 p.m. inside Cliff Keen Arena. The Spartans fell to Michigan, 30-10, last season in East Lansing. Rayvon Foley and Cameron Caffey picked up MSU's lone wins at 125 and 184 pounds, respectively. Michigan and Michigan State will meet for the 112th time on Friday. The Wolverines hold a 71-35-5 advantage over the Spartans in the all-time series. Michigan has won 15 of the last 18 meetings and eight-straight over the Spartans dating back to 2011.

ABOUT THE SPARTANS

Michigan State is off to a 4-2 start in dual action, with wins over No. 20 Oklahoma, Kent State, Duke and Wyoming. The Spartans are led by redshirt junior Jake Tucker at 157 pounds, who leads the team with 17 wins. A native of Lowell, Ind., Tucker leads the Spartans with five wins in the dual slate. Tucker claimed a first-place finish at the Navy Classic, tallying a 5-0 record and capping the title with an 8-3 win over Ohio's Zac Carson in the final. Caffey, who has three top-5 finishes in tournament action, including a second-place finish at the Cougar Clash, holds a 15-5 record and leads the team with seven falls at 184 pounds. Caffey is 5-1 in duals with his lone loss coming to No. 16 Zach Carlson of South Dakota State. Redshirt junior Christian Rebottaro is 5-1 in duals and holds a 13-6 overall record at 285 pounds for the Spartans.

TUCKER CLAIMS TITLE AT NAVY CLASSIC, 2ND AT COUGAR CLASH

Redshirt junior Jake Tucker raced out to a hot start to begin the 2019-20 season, collecting an individual title at the Navy Classic on Nov. 23 in Annapolis, Md., followed by a second-place finish at the Cougar Clash on Dec. 7 in Edwardsville, Ill. After starting the season with a fourth-place finish, Tucker reeled off seven-straight wins on his way to the Navy Classic title. Tucker bested Zac Carson of Ohio, 8-3, in the Navy Classic final. At the Cougar Clash, Tucker knocked off No. 21 Justin Ruffin of SIUE in the semifinals, before falling to No. 14 Jarrett Jacques of Missouri in the final.

SCOUTING THE WOLVERINES

No. 25 Michigan enters Friday's match with a 1-2 record overall following a 21-15 loss to Oregon State at home on Sunday, Jan. 5. The Wolverines are led by sophomore Mason Parris at 285 pounds, who comes into the match with a perfect 16-0 record and eight wins over ranked opponents. Parris ranks No. 3 and joins five other Wolverines in rankings systems. Will Lewan ranks No. 14 at 157 pounds and holds a 10-3 record on the season. The Wolverines hold a 71-35-5 edge over the Spartans in the all-time series.

SCOUTING THE SCARLET KNIGHTS

The Scarlet Knights jumped into this week's NWCA Coaches Poll at No. 24 after a 6-0 start to the season. Rutgers holds wins over Maryland, CSU Bakersfield, Fresno State, Centenary (N.J.), Pitt-Johnstown, and LIU. Rutgers opens Big Ten action this Friday, Jan. 10 with a trip to Columbus to take on Ohio State. Four wrestlers enter the weekend in national rankings, with true freshman Sammy Alvarez leading the way at 133 pounds. Alvarez ranks No. 11 and holds a 15-4 overall record is 1-0 in the Big Ten. Redshirt freshman Nicolas Aguilar is 14-4 on the season and 2-0 in duals to go along with a No. 14 ranking at 125 pounds. Rutgers defeated Michigan State, 22-20, in its last meeting on Jan. 25, 2019 in Piscataway. Rutgers leads the all-time series, 4-0-1.

SPARTANS TO WATCH

• Redshirt Junior Jake Tucker - 157 pounds

After suffering a knee injury at the Big Ten Championships in 2018-19 that kept him off the mat for the remainder of the season, Tucker has bounced back in a big way in 2019-20. Tucker, who finished 21-13 and 9-9 in dual play last season, is off to a 17-3 start in 2019-20. Tucker has been balanced all season, and has secured a title at the Navy Classic and two top-5 finishes at both the Cougar Clash and MSU Open.

• Redshirt Sophomore Cameron Caffey - 184 pounds

One of three NCAA Qualifiers from 2018-19, Caffey ended his freshman season with a stellar 32-9 record and 13-5 mark in the Big Ten. A CoSIDA All-American and computer engineering major, Caffey joined sophomore Rayvon Foley and redshirt sophomore Drew Hughes at the NCAA Championships. Caffey went 2-2 at NCAA's, with wins over No. 16 Dylan Wisman (Missouri), 7-5, and Will Schany of Virginia, 7-3. Caffey is off to a 15-5 start to the 2019-20 season and leads the team with seven falls. Caffey claimed top-5 finishes at the MSU Open (5th), the Navy Classic (3rd) and the Cougar Clash (2nd).

• Redshirt senior Garrett Pepple - 133 pounds

A transfer from Indiana, Pepple joins the Spartans for the 2019-20 season. Pepple competed four years for the Hoosiers, compiling a 50-53 record. Pepple brings experience and leadership to the program, as he is one of only two seniors on this year's team. Pepple has captured two third-place finishes at both the Navy Classic and Cougar Clash and is 11-7 overall and 2-3 in duals. Many of Pepple's matches have come down to the wire, as two four of his losses were decided by two or fewer points. Of his seven losses, three are to top-15 opponents.

• Redshirt junior Drew Hughes - 165 pounds

Hughes looks to become a three-time NCAA Qualifier in 2020 after a 26-15 finish in 2018-19. Hughes qualified for the NCAA Championships as a true freshman, where he compiled a 3-2 record and became the first true freshman to make the NCAA's since 2011. Hughes is off to a 9-5 start at 165 pounds, and holds a 4-1 record in duals. Three of Hughes' five losses are to top-25 opponents. Hughes finished second at the Cougar Clash and sixth at the Navy Classic.

• Redshirt junior Christian Rebottaro - 285 pounds

A native of Scotts Valley, Calif., Rebottaro is off to a solid start to his redshirt junior season. Rebottaro was in and out of the lineup last season at 285 pounds, splitting time with Chase Beard. Rebottaro finished the 2018-19 slate with a 15-10 overall record and a 3-4 mark in duals. Rebottaro finished second at the Cougar Clash and fifth at the MSU Open at 285 pounds. Rebottaro is 5-1 in dual action and 13-6 overall.

CHANDLER IN FOURTH YEAR AS HEAD COACH

Michigan State head coach Roger Chandler is in his 23rd season on the Spartan wrestling staff, but his fourth as head coach, taking over the reins of the MSU program from longtime head coach Tom Minkel, who directed the program since 1991, and retired following his 25th season at Michigan State in 2015-16.

In 2018-19, Chandler led the Spartans to a 10-8 record and a 33rd place finish at the 2019 NCAA Team Championships, marking the best finish since 2002-03 for head coach Roger Chandler in his third season at the helm. Chandler guided sophomore Rayvon Foley to a seventh-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Foley earned All-America honors for the Spartans, the first to do so since 2014. Along with Foley, redshirt sophomore Drew Hughes and redshirt freshman Cameron Caffey were national qualifiers for the Spartans under Chandler's guidance.

Chandler has helped produce 10 different All-Americans and six Big Ten Champions for a total of 22 All-American selections and nine Big Ten individual titles during his time at Michigan State. He also coached three-time All-American Franklin Gomez, who won a national title in 2009 at 133 pounds

In his first season as head coach, Chandler led the Spartans to a 10th-place finish at Big Ten Championships, the team's best finish since 2012. MSU's 38.5 points at the meet was their highest total since 2012, showing the signs of the program's progress in Chandler's first year acting as head coach. The Spartans also qualified three for NCAA Championships for the first time since 2013 in Chandler's first year at the helm of the program.

In year two, Michigan State improved their record in dual meets to 6-11 and brought 12 freshman into the program. MSU continues to rebuild with 16 freshman on the roster in 2018-19.

SPARTAN ASSISTANT COACHES

• Former Spartan All-American Chris Williams is in the fourth year of his second stint on the MSU staff as an assistant coach. Williams had served as the head wrestling coach at Adrian College since November 2014, where he restarted the program and led the Bulldogs in their first season of competition in 31 years in 2015-16. He previously was an assistant coach at Michigan State, along with Chandler, for eight seasons (2005-13).

• Former Central Michigan All-American and U.S. Senior Nationals Champion Wynn Michalak enters his fourth as Spartans' assistant wrestling coach. One of the most successful wrestlers in Central Michigan history, Michalak was a four-time Mid-American Conference Champion (2005-08), three-time MAC Wrestler of the Year (2006-08), and a three-time NCAA All-American (2005, 2006, 2008), including a runner-up finish at 197 pounds in 2008. He won the 2015 U.S. Senior Nationals title at 97 kg/213 pounds on Dec. 19, 2015, in Las Vegas, and competed in the past two U.S. Olympic wrestling trials.

MILKOVICH INDUCTED INTO MSU HALL OF FAME

Former wrestling standout Tom Milkovich was among five Spartans inducted into the Michigan State Athletics Hall of Fame on Thursday, Oct. 24. Milkovich was joined in the 2019 Hall of Fame Class by Dan Bass (football), Karen Dennis (track & field), Mike Donnelly (hockey) and Mike Robinson (men's basketball). Milkovich etched his name in the record books during his time at Michigan State from 1969-73, claiming a national championship in 1972 at 142 pounds and earning four Big Ten Tournament titles after going undefeated in all four years of wrestling in Big Ten action. Milkovich was only the third wrestler to accomplish that feat at the time and presently only 16 wrestlers have won four Big Ten titles. Prior to his fourth conference championship crown in 1973, no one had been a four-time winner since 1950. No one was again until 1981.

PEYTON OMANIA CLAIMS BRONZE AT GRECO-ROMAN JUNIOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

Michigan State wrestler Peyton Omania claimed the bronze medal on Sunday, Aug. 18, at the Greco-Roman Junior World Championships in Tallinn, Estonia. Omania became the first Spartan wrestler to earn a World medal since Franklin Gomez's silver medal at the 2011 World Championships in Istanbul.

Omania, who elected to take an Olympic redshirt for the 2019-20 season to train for the 2020 Olympics, put together an impressive run to the semifinals at the Junior World Championships. In his first of five matches on the day, Omania opened with a 13-5 tech fall against Jaekwon Lee of Korea in the Round of 64 and never looked back. Omania came out hot in his Round of 32 match against Italy's Ignazio Sanfilippo, scoring a headlock and arm throw in the first two minutes on his way to a 13-3 win and a spot in the Round of 16.

Omania, who made his third World Championships appearance in Tallinn, faced off against bronz Xin Huang of China in the bronze medal match. The 2018 U.S. Junior World Team member jumped out to a quick 4-0 lead over Huang, capitalizing on a headlock throw. After racing to a 6-1 lead, Huang battled back to cut the lead to one at 6-5. Omania remained strong and finished out the match on top, winning 6-5 to claim the bronze.

WRESTLING CLAIMS THIRD PLACE FINISHES AT NAVY CLASSIC AND COUGAR CLASH

Michigan State wrestling placed six wrestlers in the top six, including Jake Tucker winning his weight class to go with three third-place finishers at the 42nd Annual Navy Classic on Saturday, Nov. 23 on its way to a third-place finish in the team standings.

MSU finished with 99 team points in the 18-team field at the Navy Classic, behind second-place Campbell with 107 points and first-place finisher and No. 16-ranked Virginia Tech who captured the team crown with 116 points. The Spartans finish in the top three for the second-straight year after taking the title in 2018. A total of 10 Spartans reached the championship quarterfinals and six advanced to the semifinals.

Michigan State's wrestling team wrapped up action at the Cougar Clash Invite with its second-consecutive third-place finish of the season, on Saturday, Dec. 7, inside Southern Illinois-Edwardsville's Vadalabene Center.

The Spartans finished in third place with 114.5 points behind No. 19-ranked Missouri (138.5) and No. 8 Wisconsin (121.5). MSU had nine wrestlers finish in the top 4, including a trio of second-place finishes from redshirt junior Jake Tucker at 157 pounds, redshirt junior Drew Hughes at 165 pounds and redshirt junior Christian Rebottaro at 285 pounds. Redshirt sophomore Cameron Caffey compiled a 3-1 record in the 184 pound round robin bracket.
