• Michigan State faces its third ranked opponent of the season as No. 13/13 Indiana heads to East Lansing on Saturday, Nov. 2 at 3:30 p.m. in Spartan Stadium. The game will be streamed exclusively on Peacock with Paul Bermeister (play-by-play), Colt McCoy (analyst) and Zora Stephenson (sidelines) on the call.

• MSU fell to 4-4 overall and 2-3 in the Big Ten following its 24-17 loss at Michigan last Saturday night in Ann Arbor. MSU opened the season 3-0 with wins over Florida Atlantic, Maryland and Prairie View A&M. The Spartans lost at Boston College in Week 4, 23-19, on a late fourth-quarter touchdown before falling to No. 3/3 Ohio State on Sept. 28 and at No. 6/6 Oregon on Oct. 4. Michigan State bounced back after its bye week with a 32-20 win over Iowa on Homecoming on Oct. 19. MSU will have its second bye week of the season following the Indiana game.

• Under first-year head coach Curt Cignetti, Indiana is off to its first 8-0 start since 1967 and is also 5-0 in Big Ten play. The Hoosiers beat Washington in Bloomington last Saturday in Memorial Stadium, 31-17.

• Saturday's game marks the 71st meeting between Michigan State and Indiana. The Spartans lead the all-time series against the Hoosiers, 50-18-2, including a 26-8-1 record in East Lansing. MSU defeated IU in Bloomington last season, 24-21, for its 12th win in the past 15 games in the series.

• Since 1950, the winner of the Michigan State-Indiana game has been presented the Old Brass Spittoon. The brass spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be more than 200 years old. Legend has it that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded – Indiana in 1820 and MAC in 1855. The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and student council at Michigan State, and soon accepted by the Indiana Student Senate. Since 1950, Michigan State leads the series, 50-15-1.

• Following a run of five consecutive night games, Michigan State is playing its first afternoon game since Sept. 14 against Prairie View A&M. The Spartans have played a total of six night games this season and will host Purdue at 8 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 22.

• Redshirt junior running back Nathan Carter rushed for a season-high 118 yards and one TD on 19 carries (6.2 avg.) at Michigan last Saturday night. Carter also collected a season-high 174 all-purpose yards as he caught two passes for a career-high 56 yards.

2024 SEASON
• All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials for Michigan State's 2024 home football games should be submitted online. Please contact the athletic communications office at (517) 355-2271 for the website.

• Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily print/digital media outlets and radio and television stations which cover MSU football on a regular basis.

PRESS BOX
• The Spartan Stadium press box, located on level eight, is the working press deck for reporters that features 193 seats and three radio broadcast booths. Level six is the television camera deck as well as the broadcast location for national telecasts. Admission to the press box is through Gate F on the west side of the stadium. All press personnel are subject to search prior to entering Spartan Stadium.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCES
• Post-game press conferences from both head coaches are conducted in the media center on the lower level of the north end zone facility at Spartan Stadium. Reporters can access the media center from the concourse. Selected Spartan players will also be available for interviews following the game. Quotes from both coaches and selected players will be posted online at msuspartans.com approximately one hour after the game.

MEDIA INTERVIEWS
• Outside the weekly press conference, interviews during the week with coaches or any Spartan players should be arranged through the MSU Athletic Communications Department. The best time for player interviews is following practice on Tuesday. All player interviews should be completed by Wednesday. Please contact the MSU Athletic Communications Department for all player interview requests at least 24 hours in advance.

GAME NOTES/POST-GAME MATERIALS
• Upon request, a final statistics book, quotes and notes can be e-mailed to media members approximately 90 minutes after the conclusion of the game. To be added to the list, please e-mail football contact Ben Phlegar. In addition, statistics, game notes and quotes will be posted on msuspartans.com after the game.

Please note that all media policies are subject to change.

RESOURCES/PROGRAMMING
MSUSPARTANS.COM
• The official website of Michigan State Athletics, msuspartans.com, is the most complete source of information on the Spartans, featuring news releases, schedules, rosters, bios, statistics, game notes, photos, videos, archives and more. A complete video from the weekly press conference is available on the website Monday afternoon; weekly releases are available on Monday evenings. Each game day, the website will have stats, quotes and notes following the conclusion of the game.

SPARTAN VIDEO GOOGLE DRIVE UPDATES
Links to download footage for broadcast television use only will be emailed when footage is made available. For questions or to be added to the list, please contact Ben Phlegar.

SPARTAN MEDIA NETWORK
Michigan State Athletics and Playfly Sports announced in August 2020 a rebrand of the statewide Spartan Sports Network as the Spartan Media Network. In addition, long-term extensions were announced with the three flagship stations that anchor the network: Detroit's WJR 760-AM, Lansing's WVFN 730/WJIM 1240-AM and 94.9 WMMQ-FM. The Spartan Media Network is the largest and most expansive radio network in the State of Michigan and extends its programming nationally and worldwide via partnerships with SiriusXM and TuneIn radio.

JONATHAN SMITH SHOW
The Spartan Media Network produces and distributes Jonathan Smith's weekly radio program Wednesdays from 7-8 p.m. ET (note: show is on Tuesdays from 7-8 p.m. when MSU plays on Friday nights). Spartan play-by-play announcer George Blaha hosts this live show, featuring insight from coaches, players, special guests, features and phone calls. The radio show can be heard statewide as well as locally on flagship station WJIM Radio (AM 1240) and WMMQ (FM 94.9) and on msuspartans.com.

SPARTAN ALL-ACCESS
Spartan All-Access is a sports docu-series providing an exclusive look into Michigan State Athletics, its student-athletes, coaches and the people that make the Michigan State Athletics family what it is. The series airs on MSU Athletics' social media platforms throughout the season. The show is produced by the Emmy award-winning Spartan Vision team.

TEAM NOTES: OFFENSE

▶ AIDAN CHILES RECORDS CAREER-HIGH COMPLETION PERCENTAGE IN BACK-TO-BACK GAMES

• Sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles has passed for a career-high completion percentage in back-to-back games for the Spartans. Chiles was 22-for-30 passing for a career-high 73.3 completion percentage in the win over Iowa on Oct. 19 to earn Spartan Offensive Player of the Week honors. His 256 passing yards were the second most this season (career-high 363 at Maryland on Sept. 7). Chiles also compiled 307 yards of total offense with 11 carries for 51 rushing yards, including a career-long 26-yard rush in the third quarter.

• Chiles was 17-of-23 passing (.739) for 189 yards and one TD at Michigan last Saturday night. He is 39-of-53 (.736) passing the past two games against the Hawkeyes and Wolverines.

• Chiles is off to a 4-4 start as the starting quarterback for the Spartans. He has completed 61 percent of his passes (125-of-205) for 1,657 yards (207.1 ypg), seven touchdowns and nine interceptions. The Long Beach, California, native is in his first season in East Lansing after playing in a back-up role as a true freshman at Oregon State in 2023. He ranks fourth in the Big Ten and 27th in the FBS in passing yards per completion (13.3).

• Chiles is also tied for the team lead with three rushing touchdowns; he has a net of 172 rushing yards on 64 carries (21.5 ypg).

▶ SPARTANS FEATURE A PAIR OF 2,000-YARD CAREER RUSHERS IN THE BACKFIELD

• Michigan State features two running backs – sixth-year graduate transfer Kay'ron Lynch-Adams and redshirt junior Nathan Carter – who have both rushed for more than 2,000 career yards. Carter (2,193) and Lynch-Adams (2,347) are one of eight duos on the same team in the FBS to have more than 2,000 career rushing yards (Missouri, Ohio State, UCF, Ole Miss, Penn State, Michigan State, Auburn, South Carolina).

• Lynch-Adams, who transferred from UMass over the summer, leads the Spartans in rushing after eight games, averaging 57.4 yards per game (92 carries for 459 yards; 5.0 avg., 2 TDs). He surpassed the 2,000-career rushing milestone with 46 yards on 10 carries at Maryland; he now has 2,347 career rushing yards – 32nd among active players in the FBS – and 18 rushing TDs in 56 collegiate games.

• Lynch-Adams and Carter have combined for 65 percent of the team's overall rushing attempts (178 of 272) and 94 percent from the running back room (178 of 190).

• Michigan State rushed for a season-high 212 yards against Iowa on Oct. 19, averaging 5.3 yards per carry (40 carries). MSU followed up with 163 yards on 42 carries at Michigan on Oct. 26.

TEAM NOTES: DEFENSE

▶ SPARTANS RANK 23RD IN FBS IN TOTAL DEFENSE

• Michigan State ranks 23rd in the FBS in total defense, allowing 315.9 yards per game. The Spartans have held five opponents under 300 yards of total offense this season (Florida Atlantic, 248; Prairie View A&M, 140; Boston College, 292; Iowa, 283; Michigan, 265).

▶ LINEBACKER CAL HALADAY EXTENDS STARTING STREAK TO 31 STRAIGHT GAMES

• Fifth-year graduate senior linebacker Cal Haladay has started 31 consecutive games, the longest active streak on the team. He is currently tied for second on the Spartan defense with 40 tackles; his 347 career tackles rank ninth most in MSU history and fifth among active players in the FBS.

TEAM NOTES: SPECIAL TEAMS

▶ SPARTANS EXCEL IN KICKING GAME

• Michigan State features one of the best kicking duos in all of college football with sixth-year graduate placekicker Jonathan Kim and redshirt sophomore punter Ryan Eckley. Kim is 16-of-18 on field goals for the season to rank first in the Big Ten and tied for third in the FBS in made field goals. Eckley, who is on the Ray Guy Award Watch List, ranks second in the Big Ten with his 48.4-yard punting average; 14 of his 26 punts this season (54 percent) have been for 50-plus yards.

• Kim earned Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week honors and was named one of the Lou Groza Award three stars of the week and after setting a school record with six field goals in the win over Iowa. A native of Fredericksburg, Virginia, Kim connected on six of his seven field-goal attempts, including a season-long 55-yarder in the fourth quarter. He also was good from 42, 43, 36, 29 and 46 yards out. It also tied a modern-day Big Ten record, matching Jake Moody of Michigan with six field goals vs. Indiana (11/17/18); E.C. Robertson of Purdue owns the overall record with seven field goals on Oct. 27, 1900, vs. Rose Poly. With 20 points overall against Iowa, including two PATs, Kim also set a top scoring mark in modern-day Big Ten history by a kicker, bettering the 19 points by Moody in 2018 vs. Indiana.

• The Hoosiers were slightly outgained by the Huskies in total offense, 318-312, but turned two interceptions by sophomore defensive back D'Angelo Ponds into two TDs, starting with a 67-yard pick six in the first quarter to open the scoring and the other coming early in the second stanza to set up a 42-yard TD pass two plays later and a 14-0 IU advantage.

• Redshirt sophomore back-up quarterback Tayven Jackson filled in for redshirt senior starter Kurtis Rourke, who was out with a thumb injury, and threw one TD and ran for another. Jackson is 23-of-37 passing for 349 yards (69.8 ypg) for the season with four TDs and one INT.

• Indiana leads the B1G and ranks second in the FBS in scoring offense at 46.5 points per game, while ranking second in the conference and seventh in the country in scoring defense, limiting the opposition to 14.1 ppg.

• The Hoosier offense leads the league and ranks sixth in the nation in total offense (487.6 ypg), ranking second in the conference and 25th in the country in rushing offense (200.6 ypg), along with fourth in the B1G and 21st in the FBS in passing offense (287.0 ypg), including topping the league and ranking eighth in the nation in passing yards/completion (14.4).

• Indiana's defense is third in the conference and fifth in the country in total defense (269.5 ypg), leading the B1G and ranking fourth in the FBS in rushing defense (86.1 ypg) and seventh in the league and 24th in the nation in passing yards allowed (183.4 ypg). The Hoosier defense also tops the conference and ranks 14th in the country in team sacks/game (3.0).

• Individually, Rourke leads the nation in passing efficiency (188.7) and ranks second in both the B1G and FBS in completion percentage (.746), along with topping the conference and ranking ninth in the country in passing yards/completion (14.4), and fourth in the league and 15th in the nation in passing yards/game (277.3). Rourke is 135-of-181 passing for 1,941 yards with 15 TDs and three INTs.

• Senior running back Justice Ellison is fourth in the B1G and 22nd in the FBS in rushing TDs with nine, in addition to ninth in the league and 49th in the nation in rushing yards/game (79.6) with 102 carries on 637 yards.

• Junior wide receiver Elijah Sarratt is sixth in the conference and 42nd in the country in receiving yards/game (73.8), with a team-leading 33 receptions for 590 yards, ranking third in the league and 41st in the nation in yards/reception (17.9) with three TDs.

• Redshirt sophomore wide receiver Omar Cooper Jr. is first in the B1G and fourth in the FBS in yards/reception (22.7), on 20 catches for 453 yards (56.6 ypg) with four scores.

• Redshirt junior defensive lineman Mikail Kamara leads the B1G and ranks tied for eighth in the FBS in total sacks (7), as well as second in the league and 11th in the nation in sacks/game (0.88). Kamara is also second in the conference and tied for 18th in the country in total tackles for loss (10.0), including third in the league and 21st in the nation in tackles for loss/game (1.3).

• Junior linebacker Aiden Fisher is third in the B1G and 15th in the FBS in tackles/game (9.4) with 75 total stops, adding 3.0 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks, with three QB hurries and two pass break-ups.

• Hoosier head coach Curt Cignetti is the first Indiana head coach to start his head coaching tenure 8-0, and is also the first FBS head coach to post back-to-back 8-0 starts at two different schools after coming to Indiana from James Madison, where he posted a 52-9 mark there in his five seasons leading the Dukes. Cignetti has a 127-35 overall record in his 14th season as a collegiate head coach.

▶ SERIES NOTES
• Saturday's game marks the 71st meeting between Michigan State and Indiana. The Spartans lead the all-time series against the Hoosiers, 50-18-2, including a 26-8-1 record in East Lansing. MSU defeated IU in Bloomington last season, 24-21, for its 12th win in the past 15 games in the series.

▶ BATTLE FOR THE OLD BRASS SPITTOON
• Since 1950, the winner of the Michigan State-Indiana game has been presented the Old Brass Spittoon. The brass spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be more than 200 years old. Legend has it that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded – Indiana in 1820 and MAC in 1855. The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and student council at Michigan State, and soon accepted by the Indiana Student Senate. Since 1950, Michigan State leads the series, 50-15-1.

▶ SPARTANS FROM THE HOOSIER STATE
• Michigan State's 2024 roster one player from the state of Indiana, redshirt sophomore defensive end James Schott (Greenwood, Ind./Center Grove High School).

► LAST TIME OUT: MICHIGAN 24, MICHIGAN STATE 17

► GAME RECAP
• Michigan State fell at Michigan, 24-17, last Saturday night before a crowd of 110,849 at Michigan Stadium.

• Down 24-10 in the fourth quarter, the Spartans rallied to make it 24-17 on Aidan Chiles' 20-yard touchdown pass to Nick Marsh with 6:12 remaining, but MSU was stopped on fourth down from the Michigan 16-yard line with under two minutes remaining on its final possession of the game.

• Redshirt junior running back Nathan Carter led the Spartans with a season-high 118 yards and one touchdown as MSU outrushed Michigan, 163-119. Michigan State also held a 352-265 advantage in total offense and 37:05-22:55 on time of possession.

• Sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles was 17-of-23 passing (.739) for 189 yards and one touchdown.

• Defensively, junior safety Malik Spencer led MSU with 10 tackles, while fifth-year senior linebacker Cal Haladay had six stops.

► SCORING SUMMARY
• Michigan State drove 68 yards on 14 plays and took 8:08 off the clock on its opening possession, but missed a 25-yard field goal and came away empty on the series; however, after forcing a three-and-out, the Spartans went right back down the field on their second series and scored a touchdown to go up, 7-0, with 10 seconds remaining in the quarter. Carter capped a 62-yard, nine-play drive with a 2-yard run, his third rushing TD of the season.

• The Wolverines scored nine points in the final 30 seconds of the second quarter to take a 9-7 lead into halftime. Colston Loveland caught a 10-yard TD pass from Davis Warren, but the Wolverines did miss the extra point. The Spartans then fumbled just before the half at the Michigan 34, and UM took advantage with a 37-yard field goal by Dominic Zvada to take the lead.

• Michigan extended its lead to 16-7 on Alex Orji's 2-yard rushing TD at the 9:49 mark in the third quarter.

• The Spartans trimmed the margin to 16-10 as Jonathan Kim connected on a 46-yard field goal with 3:45 left in the third.

• Loveland caught his second TD pass, this time from 23 yards out on a halfback pass by Donovan Edwards, and the Wolverines made the 2-point conversion to take a 24-10 lead with 13:20 remaining.

• Marsh's 20-yard TD capped a 13-play, 75-yard drive for Michigan State that took 7:08 off the clock. MSU got the ball back its own 49-yard line with 4:34 left and drove the ball to the UM 16, but couldn't convert on a fourth-and-5 pass at the 1:52 mark. Michigan converted one first down and then ran out the clock to seal the victory.

► Redshirt junior running back Nathan Carter accumulated 174 all-purpose yards at Michigan, including 19 carries for 118 rushing yards and two catches for 56 receiving yards.

▶ OFFENSIVE NOTES

• MSU had six different rushers in the game, including five different ball carriers on the opening drive, on the way to outgaining UM on the ground, 163-119, marking only the seventh time in the last 55 games that the most productive ground attack was not the winning team.

• The Spartans' 163 rushing yards marked the fourth time this season MSU has rushed over 150 yards.

• The Spartans' 13-play, 75-yard drive that ate up 7:08 in the fourth quarter was Michigan State's longest TD drive of the season for both plays and time of possession.

• Redshirt junior running back Nathan Carter scored his third rushing TD of the season with his 2-yard plunge to the end zone in the first quarter for the Spartans' opening TD of the game . . . it was Carter's second straight game with a rushing TD after his one score vs. Iowa, as part of his third of the season, along with seventh during his MSU career and ninth collegiate TD.

• Carter finished with a season-high tying 19 carries for a season-high 118 yards, registering his first 100-yard outing of the season and first since 108 vs. Iowa last season . . . it was also his MSU career high, bettering his previous Spartan-best of 113 in his Green & White debut in the 2023 season opener vs. Central Michigan (9/1/23) . . . with 118 yards, Carter topped his previous season-high of 91 yards vs. Prairie View A&M (9/21/24).

• Carter snared a 26-yard reception in the first quarter for what at the time was his MSU career-long as well as the second-longest reception of his career behind a 47-yarder during his freshman season at UConn . . . he then topped that MSU career-best with a 30-yard reception in the fourth quarter, setting up MSU at the UM 21 on the Spartans' final drive . . . Carter ended the night with a team-leading and collegiate career best 56 yards on two receptions.

• With the 118 rushing yards and 56 receiving yards, Carter finished with an MSU career-high 174 all-purpose yards, and the second-most of his collegiate career, behind his top mark of 200 yards, vs. Utah State (9/27/22) while at UConn.

• Freshman wide receiver Nick Marsh snared his second TD catch of the season with his 20-yard scoring catch and run for a TD in the fourth quarter . . . Marsh finished with a team-high tying four catches for 42 yards, for his third game with four or more receptions.

• With a reception in the first quarter, senior wide receiver Montorie Foster Jr. extended his team-leading streak of at least one reception to 21 games in a row, dating back to 2022 . . . Foster now has at least one catch in 31 of his last 43 career games played . . . he ended with a team-high tying four catches for 44 yards.

▶ DEFENSIVE NOTES

• Junior defensive back Malik Spencer registered a season-high 10 tackles, tallying double-digit stops for the second time of his career as his top two tackle totals have come against Michigan as his career-high of 11 was vs. UM last season (10/21/23).

• The Spartans held Michigan to 119 rushing yards and 265 yards of total offense.

▶ SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

• Graduate placekicker Jonathan Kim made a 46-yard field goal in the third quarter and is now 7-of-9 on field goals in the last two games after making 6-of-7 vs. Iowa and missing his first FG attempt in the first quarter (25 yards out), which was his first miss of the season inside of 55 yards . . . Kim is now 16-of-18, leading the B1G and ranking tied for third in the FBS in field goals made.

• Kim was also 2-of-2 on PATs and is now 15-of-16 in extra points this season . . . he added three kickoffs with touchbacks on all three, for his most touchbacks in the last four games, but third game with three or more touchbacks . . . Kim now has 22 touchbacks this season, giving him 20+ touchbacks in six years as a collegiate kicker and now has 50 touchbacks for his MSU career and 239 touchbacks for his collegiate career.

• For his career, Kim is also now 35-of-36 on PATs and 29-of-37 on FGs.

• Ray Guy Award Watch List member redshirt sophomore punter Ryan Eckley punted for the first time since Oct. 4 at Oregon after the Spartans' bye week and MSU did not punt at all in MSU's game vs. Iowa . . . Eckley ended the game with three punts for a 51.7 yards per punt average with all three going 50 or more yards . . . he boomed a 51-yarder on his first punt, early in the second quarter, and added a 54-yarder later in the second stanza and finished the game with a 50-yarder in the third quarter.

2024 COACHING STAFF

• Jonathan Smith, who led Oregon State to new heights during his tenure over the past six seasons (2018-23), was named Michigan State University's 26th head football coach on Nov. 25, 2023.

• Smith became the fifth MSU head coach to start 3-0 overall in his first season as the Spartans' head coach, and the first since Mark Dantonio in 2007.

• Named the 2022 Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year, Smith built Oregon State into one of the top teams in the conference. He led the Beavers, who were ranked as high as 11th in the College Football Playoff rankings in 2023, to an 8-4 record in the regular season and their third straight bowl appearance, a first for the program since 2006-09. OSU went 25-13 in 2021-23 under Smith, including a No. 17 ranking in 2022 and a win over Florida in the Las Vegas Bowl. He also has experience coaching in the College Football Playoff as an offensive coordinator at Washington in 2016.

• Known for developing talent, the 45-year-old Smith coached six All-Americans during his OSU tenure, including five his last two seasons (OL Taliese Fuaga, OL Tanner Miller and DB Kitan Oladapo in 2023; WR/PR Anthony Gould, LB Jack Colletto and Fuaga in 2022). In addition, Colletto was named the 2022 Paul Hornung Award winner for the nation's most versatile player, marking Oregon State's fourth major award winner in school history. Smith also coached two Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Players of the Year in Jermar Jefferson (2018) and Damien Martinez (2022) and four Freshman All-Americans overall. OSU tallied 74 All-Pac-12 selections during Smith's six seasons in Corvallis.

• Eight Beavers were drafted under Smith's tutelage, and an additional 17 signed as undrafted free agents. Tight end Luke Musgrave became the highest-drafted OSU player in nine years as he was picked in the second round (No. 41 overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers.

• Off the field, Smith led a culture of success in the classroom with a total of 168 Pac-12 Academic Honor Roll selections in his six seasons.

• Six of Smith's assistants at Oregon State joined him in East Lansing: secondary coach Blue Adams, assistant head coach/running backs coach/co-special teams coordinator Keith Bhonapha, offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Brian Lindgren, offensive line coach/run game coordinator Jim Michalczik, defensive line coach Legi Suiaunoa and tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator Brian Wozniak. Smith also hired Joe Rossi as the program's defensive coordinator/linebackers coach, Chad Wilt as the co-special teams coordinator/rush ends coach and Demetrice Martin as the cornerbacks coach, while wide receivers coach Courtney Hawkins enters his fifth season as an assistant at MSU.

• Blue Adams, who brings nearly 15 years of coaching experience with him to East Lansing, including stints at both the collegiate and NFL levels, is the program's secondary coach.
• Adams spent five seasons (2019-23) on Smith's staff as the secondary coach at Oregon State. Adams also coached four seasons as an assistant coach with the Miami Dolphins (2012-15) before returning to the college ranks at West Virginia (2016) and South Florida (2017-18).

• Keith Bhonapha (BONE-uh-fuh) has 20 years of collegiate experience, most recently with Smith at Oregon State in 2023.
• An assistant head coach, Bhonapha is the running backs coach and will also serve as the program's co-special teams coordinator and hold play-calling responsibilities for that unit.
• By helping Oregon State to an 8-4 record in 2023 to become bowl eligible, Bhonapha has coached 15 teams to a bowl game as a coach and was a part of two bowl games as a player while at Hawai'i.

• Courtney Hawkins returns for his fifth season as Michigan State's wide receivers coach.

• A nine-year NFL veteran, Hawkins has helped develop NFL Draft picks Jayden Reed (Packers) and Jalen Nailor (Vikings) during his time in East Lansing.

• Hawkins came to MSU in 2020 after serving as the head football coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Beecher High School, in Flint, Michigan, for 15 years.

• Offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Brian Lindgren spent the past six seasons (2018-23) in the same role at Oregon State.

• A two-time nominee for the Broyles Award, Lindgren helped build the Beavers into one of the most consistent offensive teams in the Pac-12.

• He coached six NFL Draft picks and multiple All-Americans and first-team All-Pac-12 honorees during his Oregon State tenure.

• Former Spartan Demetrice Martin was named cornerbacks coach on Jan. 17, 2024, to complete Smith's on-field coaching staff.

• A four-year letterwinner at MSU from 1992-95, Martin has been a collegiate coach for more than 20 years, most recently as the cornerbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Oregon the past two seasons. He has also coached at USC (2006-07), Washington (2009-11), UCLA (2012-17), Arizona (2018-19) and Colorado (2020-21).

• Jim Michalczik (muh-hall-CHECK), who has more than 30 years of coaching experience at both the collegiate and NFL levels, joined the Michigan State staff in December 2023 as the Spartans' offensive line coach/run game coordinator. Most recently, Michalczik was with Smith at Oregon State the past six seasons (2018-23). Michalczik was a nominee for the 2023 Broyles Award, which honors college football's top assistant coaches. His offensive lines at Oregon State were named semifinalists twice for the Joe Moore Award (2021, 2023).

• Secchia Family defensive coordinator/linebackers coach Joe Rossi spent the past six seasons (2018-23) at Minnesota, where he helped build the Gophers into one of the best defenses in the Big Ten as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

• Minnesota's defense ranked among the top 10 in the FBS in total defense three times (No. 3 in 2021, No. 8 in 2022, No. 10 in 2019) and scoring defense twice (No. 4 in 2022, No. 6 in 2021) under Rossi's direction.

• The two-time Broyles Award nominee coached 30 All-Big Ten honorees, two first-team All-Americans and 10 NFL Draft picks during his time in Minneapolis.

• A collegiate coaching veteran of more than 20 years, Lawrence "Legi" Suiaunoa (Leng-ee SOO-ee-ow-noah) joined the Michigan State staff as the Spartans' defensive line coach in December 2023.

• Suiaunoa spent the past six seasons (2018-23) on Smith's staff at Oregon State, and he also coached with Smith at Montana in 2011.

• Chad Wilt is in his first season as Michigan State's co-special teams coordinator/rush ends coach.

• Wilt, who has more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience, most recently spent the past two seasons (2022-23) as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Indiana. He also spent two years (2020-21) as the defensive line coach at Minnesota under current Spartan defensive coordinator Joe Rossi.

• Brian Wozniak (Wahz-nee-ack), who was on Jonathan Smith's staff the past six seasons at Oregon State, joined the MSU staff as the Spartans' tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator in December 2023.

• After helping Oregon State to an 8-4 record in 2023 to become bowl eligible, Wozniak has guided three teams to a bowl game as a coach and four as a player while at Wisconsin.

QUARTERBACKS

#2 AIDAN CHILES • SO. • 6-3 • 217 • CO-CAPTAIN
Long Beach, Calif./Oregon State/Downey High School
2024: 8 games/8 starts, 125-of-205 passing (.610), 1,657 yards, 7 TDs, 9 INTs
• Sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles is off to a 4-4 start as the starting quarterback for the Spartans. Chiles has completed 61 percent of his passes (125-of-205) for 1,657 yards (207.1 ypg), seven touchdowns and nine interceptions. He ranks fourth in the Big Ten and 27th in the FBS in passing yards per completion (13.3). The Long Beach, California, native is in his first season in East Lansing after playing in a back-up role as a true freshman at Oregon State in 2023.

• Chiles is also tied for the team lead with three rushing touchdowns; he has a net of 172 rushing yards on 64 carries (21.5 ypg). He ran for a career-high 57 yards on nine carries, including a 1-yard TD, at Boston College.

• Chiles has passed for a career-high completion percentage in back-to-back games for the Spartans. Chiles was 22-for-30 passing for a career-high 73.3 completion percentage in the win over Iowa on Oct. 19 to earn Spartan Offensive Player of the Week honors. His 256 passing yards were the second most this season (career-high 363 at Maryland on Sept. 7). Chiles also compiled 307 yards of total offense with 11 carries for 51 rushing yards, including a career-long 26-yard rush in the third quarter.

• Chiles was 17-of-23 passing (.739) for 189 yards and one TD at Michigan last Saturday night. He is 39-of-53 (.736) passing the past two games against the Hawkeyes and Wolverines.

• Chiles passed for 363 yards in the win at Maryland on Sept. 7, the eighth-highest single-game total in MSU history and the most by a Spartan QB since Brian Lewerke threw for 400 in a win against Penn State in 2017.

• Ranked the No. 2 transfer portal quarterback in the nation and eighth-best player overall in the transfer portal, according to 247Sports, Chiles gained valuable experience in a backup role at Oregon State last season behind starter DJ Uiagalelei.

.• Chiles was a consensus four-star prospect in the Class of 2023 and rated one of the top 10 quarterbacks in the nation coming out of high school by 247Sports.

#10 TOMMY SCHUSTER • GR.-6 • 6-0 • 200
Macomb Township, Mich./North Dakota/Chippewa Valley High School
2024: 4 games, 16-of-21 passing (.762), 166 yards, 0 TDs, 0 INTs
• Sixth-year graduate transfer Tommy Schuster played high school at Chippewa Valley in Macomb Township, Michigan, and led the Big Reds to the state title as a senior in 2018 while being named the AP Player of the Year in the state of Michigan.

• He played five seasons (2019-23) at North Dakota and holds school career records for passing yards (9,075), passing completions (843) and touchdown passes (63).

• Schuster started the last 42 games of his UND career at quarterback and appeared in a total of 45 games for the Fighting Hawks, completing 67 percent of his passes (843-for-1,252) for 9,075 yards and 63 touchdowns during his time in Grand Forks.

• Schuster made his Spartan debut vs. Prairie View A&M in Week 3, completing 8-of-10 passes for 97 yards while also scoring on a 1-yard TD run. He also was 3-of-6 passing for 32 yards in Week 5 vs. No. 3 Ohio State and 5-of-5 passing for 37 yards at No. 6 Oregon on Oct. 4.

RUNNING BACKS

#5 NATHAN CARTER • R-JR. • 5-10 • 202 • CO-CAPTAIN
Rochester, N.Y./UConn/Bishop Kearney High School
»DOAK WALKER AWARD WATCH LIST
2024: 8 games/8 starts, 86 carries, 412 yards, 4.8 avg., 3 TDs, 51.5 ypg

• Redshirt junior Nathan Carter, who led the team in rushing last season with a career-high 798 yards and 185 carries in his first year at MSU, has started the first eight games in the backfield for the Spartans in 2024. He ranks second on the team in carries (86) and rushing yards (412; 51.5 ypg); he had a career-long 60-yard touchdown vs. Prairie View A&M in Week 3.

• Carter played 16 games at UConn (2021-22) before transferring to MSU in January 2023. He has started all 20 games since joining the Green and White.

• Voted a co-captain by his teammates, Carter has rushed for 2,193 yards on 461 carries in his 36-game collegiate career (16 at UConn from 2021-22; 20 at MSU in 2023). Carter and Kay'ron Lynch-Adams are one of eight duos on the same team in the FBS to have more than 2,000 career rushing yards (Missouri, Ohio State, UCF, Ole Miss, Penn State, Michigan State, Auburn, South Carolina).

• Carter rushed for a season-high 118 yards and one TD on 19 carries (6.2 avg.) at Michigan on Oct. 26, his fourth 100-yard rushing game as a Spartan. Carter also collected a season-high 174 all-purpose yards as he caught two passes for a career-high 56 yards.

#15 KAY'RON LYNCH-ADAMS • GR.-6 • 5-10 • 205
Warren, Ohio/UMass/Rutgers/Warren G. Harding High School
2024: 8 games, 92 carries, 459 yards, 5.0 avg., 2 TDs, 57.4 ypg

• The Spartans brought in Kay'ron Lynch-Adams during the summer, a graduate transfer from UMass who rushed for a career-high 1,157 yards and 12 TDs last season for the Minutemen.

• Lynch-Adams leads the Spartans in rushing after eight games, averaging 57.4 yards per game (92 carries for 459 yards; 5.0 avg., 2 TDs). He surpassed the 2,000-career rushing milestone with 46 yards on 10 carries at Maryland on Sept. 7; he now has 2,347 career rushing yards in 56 collegiate games.

• In his Spartan debut against FAU, Lynch-Adams led MSU on the ground with 101 yards on just nine carries (11.2 avg.), including a 63-yard touchdown run in the second quarter, and was named the Spartan Offensive Player of the Week. He also led MSU on the ground with 86 yards on 15 carries in the win over Iowa on Oct. 19.

• Lynch-Adams, who has a wealth of experience with 56 collegiate games under his belt at both Rutgers (2019-20) and UMass (2021-23), has rushed for 2,347 yards – 32nd among active FBS players – and 18 TDs in his career.

▶ Kay'ron Lynch-Adams helped lead a Spartan rushing attack that gained a season-high 212 yards on the ground in the win over Iowa on Oct. 19. Lynch-Adams had 86 yards on 15 carries (5.7 avg.).

SPECIAL TEAMS

#96 RYAN ECKLEY • P • R-SO. • 6-2 • 204
Lithia, Fla./Newsome High School
»RAY GUY AWARD WATCH LIST
2024: 48.0-yard average, 11 50+, 3 inside 20, 2 inside 10

• All-America and Ray Guy Award candidate.
• Ranks second in the Big Ten with his 48.4-yard punting average; that figure would also rank fifth in the FBS but does not qualify for stat minimums in NCAA stats (minimum 3.6 punts per game).
• Has boomed 14 punts 50-plus yards (54 percent; 14 of 26), which is tied for second most in the Big Ten.
• Ranked eighth in the FBS in 2023 with his 46.8-yard average, which was the fifth-longest average in MSU single-season history; earned Freshman All-America honors.

#97 JONATHAN KIM • K • GR.-6 • 6-1 • 227
Fredericksburg, Va./North Carolina/Massaponax High School
2024: 16-for-18 FGs, 15-for-16 PATs, 62.1-yard average on kickoffs

• Sixth-year graduate senior is in his second season as the starting placekicker.
• Is 16-for-18 on field-goal attempts (.889), including 3-for-4 from 50-yards out.
• Ranks first in the Big Ten and tied for third in the FBS with 16 made field goals.
• His three 50-plus yard field goals ranks tied for seventh most in the FBS.
• Set a school record with six field goals against Iowa (42, 43, 36, 29, 55, 46) to earn Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week honors; the six field goals are the most by any player in the FBS this season and rank tied for the most ever in a Big Ten Conference game.
• Also set a Big Ten modern-day record for a kicker for 20 points against Iowa (six field goals, two PATs).
• Made a game-winning 37-yard field goal with one second remaining to help MSU past Maryland, 27-24, on Sept. 7 in College Park. He also hit a 50-yarder as time expired in the first half.
• Honorable mention All-Big Ten selection by the coaches and media in 2023.
• Led the Spartans in scoring with 56 points (4.7 pg) in 2023 and was 13-of-18 (.722) on field goals and 17-of-17 on point-after attempts; made four field goals of 50-plus yards, tied for third most in the FBS.
• Made a Kinnick Stadium record 58-yard field goal, a career long, last season at Iowa.
• Is 29-of-36 (.806) on field goals in his two-year MSU career, including seven from 50-plus yards.

#47 KADEN SCHICKEL • LS • R-JR. • 6-2 • 204
Fredericksburg, Va./James Madison/Massaponax High School
• Fourth-year player is in his first season as the team's starting long snapper.
• Started all 13 games at long snapper last season at James Madison.

PERSONNEL/ROSTER NOTES

• The Spartans returned 36 letterwinners from last season's team, including 21 on defense, 13 on offense and two on special teams. MSU had 21 position players returning with starting experience, including six on offense and 15 on defense.

• Michigan State returned its leading rusher (Nathan Carter, 185 carries for 798 yards and four touchdowns) and receiver (Montorie Foster Jr., 43 catches for 576 yards and three TDs) on offense and its leader in tackles (Cal Haladay, 91 tackles) from last season's team.

• Michigan State has 62 new players on its 2024 roster, which is seventh most in the FBS and the most overall in the Big Ten. The Spartans have 34 freshmen on the roster and 28 transfers. The 28 transfers are tied for 18th most in the FBS and rank second in the Big Ten behind Indiana (30).

• Michigan State head football coach Jonathan Smith announced the team captains for the 2024 season following the completion of preseason camp on Aug. 19. The five captains – sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles, redshirt junior running back Nathan Carter, sixth-year graduate defensive lineman Maverick Hansen, sixth-year senior center Tanner Miller and fifth-year senior linebacker Jordan Turner – were voted by their teammates.

▶ MICHIGAN STATE ONE OF THE WINNINGEST FBS PROGRAMS IN HISTORY
• Michigan State is one of 34 programs in the FBS to win more than 700 games. The Spartans currently rank tied for No. 27 all-time with 734 victories (all-time record: 734-491-44, .596). Michigan State is in its 128th season of football in 2024.

▶ ALL IN THE FAMILY
• Michigan State has a deep family legacy on the 2024 roster, from siblings to fathers to relatives. In fact, 13 players and two staff members have direct family connections who played Spartan football, or are alumni of the program.

Legacy: Charles Brantley (cousin Herb Haygood); Dallas Fincher (father Mark); Shawn Foster (father Shawn); Tyler Gillison (brother Trent); Chris Piwowarczyk (father Chris); Dyson Sims (brother Dion); Darius Snow (uncle Percy); Alex Van Sumeren (brother Ben); Jaxson Wilson (father Travis).

Siblings: Angelo/Aveon Grose, Charlton/Mercer Luniewski (twins)

▶ DARQUEZE DENNARD, 1965-66 FOOTBALL TEAMS INDUCTED INTO MSU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

• All-America cornerback Darqueze Dennard was one of six inductees for the 2024 MSU Athletics Hall of Fame Class, which was announced in July. In addition, the 1965-66 football teams were the first teams to be inducted into the MSU Athletics Hall of Fame. The induction ceremony took place on Sept. 13.

Darqueze Dennard | Football (2010-13) | Dry Branch, Ga.
• 2013 Thorpe Award Winner
• 2013 Unanimous First Team All-American
• 2013 Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year
• Two-time First Team All-Big Ten (2012-13)

1965 & 1966 Football Teams
• 1965 & 1966 National Champions
• 1965 & 1966 Big Ten Champions
• Combined two-year record of 19 wins, 1 loss, 1 tie
• A racially integrated team of trailblazers who sparked national changes in college football

▶ MARK DANTONIO ELECTED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME, ROSE BOWL HALL OF FAME

• Mark Dantonio, the winningest coach in Michigan State football history, was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2024. He was also named to the Class of 2024 for the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame. His On-Campus Salute by the National Football Foundation was Sept. 28 for the Ohio State game, when he also had his name added to the Spartan Stadium Ring of Fame.

• After a storied 13 seasons as head coach of the Michigan State football program, Dantonio retired as the winningest coach in Spartan history on Feb. 4, 2020. Dantonio finished his career with a record of 114-57 (.667) in East Lansing and 132-74 (.641) in 16 seasons overall (2004-19). During his time at the helm of the Spartan program from 2007-19, Dantonio compiled an impressive list of accomplishments, including three Big Ten Championships (2010, 2013, 2015), two victories in the Big Ten Championship Game (2013, 2015), victories in the 2014 Rose Bowl and the 2015 Cotton Bowl, and an appearance in the 2015 College Football Playoff.

• Beyond his record for most victories at MSU, Dantonio won more Big Ten Championships (three) and bowl games (six) than any other coach in school history, while also ranking first with 12 bowl appearances. His .639 (69-39) winning percentage in Big Ten games is a school record, while he stands tied for first in AP Top 25 finishes (seven) and second in Big Ten wins (69), home wins (67) and AP Top 25 wins (21).

• Dantonio is the fifth former Michigan State head coach to be selected for the College Football Hall of Fame, joining Clarence "Biggie" Munn (1959), Charles Bachman (1978), Duffy Daugherty (1984) and Frank "Muddy" Waters (2000).

• Dantonio will be officially inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame at the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame's 66th Annual Awards Dinner Dec. 10 at the Bellagio Resort & Casino in Las Vegas. The inductees will also be recognized at their respective collegiate institutions with NFF Hall of Fame On-Campus Salutes, presented by Fidelity Investments, during the 2024 season. Dantonio's On-Campus Salute is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 28 vs. Ohio State.

HEAD COACH JONATHAN SMITH

Jonathan Smith, who led Oregon State to new heights during his tenure over the past six seasons, was named Michigan State University's 26th head football coach on Nov. 25, 2023.

Smith held his introductory press conference in front of Spartan supporters, athletics staff and media from around the state of Michigan on Nov. 28, 2023, inside the Hall of History at the Breslin Center.

Named the 2022 Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year, Smith built Oregon State into one of the top teams in the conference. He led the Beavers, who were ranked as high as 11th in the College Football Playoff rankings during the 2023 season, to an 8-4 record in the regular season and their third straight bowl appearance, a first for the program since 2006-09. OSU went 25-13 the past three seasons under Smith, including a No. 17 ranking in 2022 and a win over Florida in the Las Vegas Bowl. He also has experience coaching in the College Football Play-off as an offensive coordinator at Washington in 2016.

Known for developing talent, the 45-year-old Smith coached eight All-Americans during his OSU tenure, including five his last two seasons (OL Taliese Fuaga, OL Tanner Miller and DB Kitan Oladapo in 2023; WR/PR Anthony Gould and LB Jack Colletto in 2022). In addition, Colletto was named the 2022 Paul Hornung Award winner for the nation's most versatile player, marking Oregon State's fourth major award winner in school history. Smith also coached two Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Players of the Year in Jermar Jefferson (2018) and Damien Martinez (2022) and four Freshman All-Americans overall. OSU tallied 74 All-Pac-12 selections during Smith's six seasons in Corvallis.

Eleven Beavers were drafted under Smith's tutelage, and an additional 20 signed as undrafted free agents. Offensive tackle Taliese Fuaga became the highest-drafted OSU player in 10 years as he was picked in the first round (No. 14 overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints.

Smith helped create one of the toughest home atmospheres in all of college football, as Oregon State compiled a 16-2 record at Reser Stadium over his last three years (2021-23). Off the field, Smith led a culture of success in the classroom with a total of 168 Pac-12 Academic Honor Roll selections in his six seasons.

"Jonathan has a proven track record of success, building the Oregon State program from the ground up by implementing a plan resulting in sustained historic success for the Beavers," said Michigan State Vice President/Director of Athletics Alan Haller. "He's been a part of championship staffs, coached in the College Football playoff, and understands what's required to be successful at the highest level, learning from some of the game's most successful coaches.

"On the field, his teams are tough and physical, yet innovative. (In 2023), Oregon State controlled the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball, ranking among the nation's leaders in both rushing offense and rushing defense. He's shown not only the ability to recruit talented student-athletes who fit his system, but also to develop and maximize players once they're in the program. At his core, he's a quarterbacks coach, and throughout his career he's been instrumental in the development of young quarterbacks, which is essential in today's college football landscape.

"Beyond the football field, the Smith family will be an excellent addition to the entire Michigan State University community. Jonathan and Candice are excited to be invested community members and realize that Spartan football is just one part of the University's larger mission."

"My family and I are excited to join the Michigan State football family," said Smith upon his hiring. "I'm thankful to Alan Haller and the university leadership for entrusting me to lead a Spartan football program which possesses both an excellent tradition and all the resources needed to compete at the highest level in college football today. There are no shortcuts, and we will be a program that's willing to do the work required to experience sustained success."

Oregon State was ranked in the AP Top 25 the first 12 weeks of the 2023 season, a first in program history, including two victories over ranked opponents (No. 10 Utah, No. 18 UCLA). The Beavers had one of the best defenses in the country, ranking seventh in the FBS in sacks (3.00 per game), 17th in rushing defense (104.1 ypg) and 18th in interceptions (12) during the regular season.

On the offensive side of the ball, Smith mentored quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei to a career high in passing yards (2,638; 219.8 ypg) in addition to his 21 touchdown passes. The Beavers averaged 33.8 points per game during the regular season, good for fourth in the Pac-12 and 26th in the FBS, and ranked 36th in the country in total offense (426.9 ypg). Sophomore Damien Martinez, a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award, led the Pac-12 in rushing yards (1,185; 98.8 ypg) in the regular season and was helped by an offensive line that was named one of 12 semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award. That group was anchored by junior first-team All-American offensive tackle Taliese Fuaga, who was one of seven semifinalists for the Outland Trophy, and guard/center Tanner Miller, who earned second-team All-America honors from ESPN.com.

Smith was named the Pac-12 Co-Head Coach of the Year and the AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year in 2022 after leading Oregon State to 10 wins for just the third time in program history. The Beavers (10-3, 6-3 Pac-12) finished No. 17 in both the AP and Coaches Poll following a 30-3 win over Florida in the Las Vegas Bowl. OSU ranked No. 1 in the Pac-12 in scoring defense (20.0 ppg), rushing defense (108.2 ypg), total defense (332.8 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (114.1 rating).

Smith led the Beavers to their first winning campaign and bowl appearance in eight years during the 2021 season as Oregon State went 7-5 in the regular season and earned a berth to the Jimmy Kimmel LA Bowl. The offense was the key to OSU's resurgence, setting a program record with 6.4 yards per play while averaging 31.2 points per game and gaining 5,581 total yards. In addition, B.J. Baylor became the first Beaver to lead the Pac-12 in rushing (1,337 yards) since 2003.

During the shortened 2020 season, Jermar Jefferson earned All-America honors for the second time in his career and was tabbed the Co-Offensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press. A member of Smith's first recruiting class, Jefferson closed his OSU career ranked fifth in school history in rushing yards (2,923), rushing touchdowns (27) and 100-yard games (15). He was also selected as a Freshman All-American and the Pac-12's Freshman Offensive Player of the Year in 2018. Jefferson was one of three players to earn first-team All-Pac-12 accolades, becoming the first Beavers to earn first-team all-league honors since 2013.

In just his second season in Corvallis in 2019, Smith nearly led the Beavers to a bowl game, coming up just short at 5-7 while still tying for second place in the Pac-12 North (4-5). The beginning stages of his program development were on display with statistical improvements on both sides of the ball while also winning three road league games for the first time in six seasons. Redshirt junior linebacker Hamilcar Rashed Jr. led the nation with an OSU school-record 22.5 tackles for loss with 14 sacks to earn first-team All-America honors.

Smith returned to his alma mater as head coach on Nov. 29, 2017, following a highly successful four-year stint as offensive coordinator at Washington. He inherited a program that went from winless in the Pac-12 the year before his arrival as head coach to one of the top teams in the conference and consecutive Top 25 rankings six seasons later.

A four-year letterwinner at quarterback for the Beavers from 1998-2001, Smith helped lead OSU to its greatest season in school history in 2000 with a school-record 11 wins, No. 4 ranking in the AP Poll, and a 41-9 victory over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. He was named the Fiesta Bowl Offensive MVP for his three-touchdown, 305-yard performance against the Fighting Irish.

Smith finished his career as the all-time leader in school history in passing yards (9,680), touchdown passes (55), single-game passing yards (469 vs.

Washington in 1998) and single-season passing yards (3,053). He also left OSU ranked No. 3 in conference history for passing yards and total offense, and his 9,680 passing yards are still third in school history. Smith was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week multiple times during his career and he earned honorable mention all-league honors twice.

Smith – who joined Oregon State as a walk-on – earned his first career start midway through his freshman season in 1998, and the two-time captain held that position the rest of his time in Corvallis, spanning a total of 38 games.

Following his prominent collegiate career, Smith entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at OSU under National Championship-winning coach Dennis Erickson in 2002. He also was a GA under Mike Riley, the winningest coach in Oregon State history, in 2003. During his time as a graduate assistant, Smith helped the Beavers to the 2002 Insight Bowl and the 2003 Las Vegas Bowl and worked with longtime NFL quarterback Derek Anderson.

Smith landed his first full-time coaching position as the quarterbacks coach at Idaho in 2004, and in his final season with the Vandals in 2009, the team ranked ninth in the nation for total offense (451.4 yards per game), 12th for passing offense (286.7 yards per game) and 20th in scoring (32.7 points per game).

He then spent two seasons (2010-11) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Montana. During the 2011 season, the Grizzlies posted one of the best offenses in the country and advanced to the FCS semifinals.

Smith made the jump to FBS in 2012 and joined Chris Peterson's staff at Boise State as the quarterbacks coach for two seasons (2012-13). The Broncos won a share of the Mountain West Conference title in his first season at BSU and also posted a win over Washington in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Smith then followed Peterson to Washington to be the program's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and the Huskies quickly turned into a national power.

Smith helped the Huskies to one of their best seasons in school history in 2016, when UW won 12 games, claimed the Pac-12 title, earned a berth in the College Football Playoff, and finished No. 4 in the national polls. He mentored quarterback Jake Browning, the Pac-12 Player of the Year, to a record-setting career in Washington. Browning set a school record with 43 touchdown passes as a sophomore in 2017 while throwing for 3,430 yards. The Huskies won 10 games in 2017 and advanced to their second straight New Year's Six bowl game with an appearance in the Fiesta Bowl.

Smith was a three-year starting quarterback at Glendora (Calif.) High School before his record-setting career at Oregon State, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in liberal studies in 2001.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- Michigan State defeated Florida Atlantic, 16-10, in the 2024 season opener before a crowd of 70,271 at Spartan Stadium in the Spartan head coaching debut of Jonathan Smith.

The Spartan defense recorded seven sacks, 10 tackles for loss and had two interceptions in the win. MSU also held FAU to 2-of-15 on third-down conversions and made three fourth-down stops.

Fifth-year graduate senior defensive back Angelo Grose led the Spartans with a game-high 12 tackles; he also forced a fumble and returned an interception 15 yards. Seven different Spartans contributed on the sacks.

Offensively, sixth-year graduate Kay'ron Lynch-Adams became the fourth consecutive transfer running back to rush for 100 yards in his Spartan debut, compiling 101 yards on just nine carries, including a 63-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

Making his first career start, sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles was 10-of-24 passing for 114 yards and two interceptions, while also rushing for an 11-yard score.

The Spartans drove the ball into the red zone four times, but only converted once.

After a Ryan Eckley punt that was downed at the 1, the Spartans took advantage on the next play as D'Quan Douse sacked FAU quarterback Cam Fancher in the end zone with 7:49 left in the first quarter.

Following a Nikai Martinez interception he returned 41 yards to the FAU 18-yard line, the Spartans scored their first touchdown of the season at the 11:15 mark in the second quarter on Chiles' 11-yard scamper into the end zone to go up, 9-0.

MSU extended its lead to 16-0 as Lynch-Adams busted loosed for a 63-yard touchdown, his first career TD as a Spartan and the second-longest of his career, with 9:07 left in the first half.

The Owls got on the board with a 43-yard field goal by Morgan Suarez before halftime.

FAU scored its only touchdown of the game on a fourth-and-1 at the end of the third quarter as Cam Fancher found Jayshon Platt in the end zone for a 10-yard TD pass.

Neither team scored in the fourth quarter. The Owls turned the ball over on downs all three of their possessions in the final 15 minutes, including their last possession with just 1:23 left in the game.

MSU ran out the clock to preserve the win, MSU's 24th consecutive over a nonconference opponent in a home opener.

POST-GAME NOTES:

• Michigan State opened the Jonathan Smith era and its 128th season of football with a 16-10 Victory for MSU over Florida Atlantic on Friday night at Spartan Stadium.

• MSU moved to 10-0 in home Friday night games since 2011 and 12-0 overall under Friday night lights during that same time span, with all 12 contests being season openers for the Spartans ... the 2024 edition was its fourth straight Friday night game to open the season and third straight at home.

• MSU improved to 88-37-3 (.699) all-time in season openers, including a 23-3 (.885) mark in its last 26 lid-lifters.

Graduate defensive back Angelo Grose (15) posted his third straight game with double-digit stops and his seventh career contest with 10+ tackles after logging a game-high 12 stops Friday night. Grose tallied 10 tackles in each of the last two games to finish 2023 season (Indiana on Nov. 18 and Penn State on Nov. 24), as part of the fourth time in last six games played, also tallying 10 tackles at Minnesota (Oct. 28). It was Grose's second season opener with the double-figure tackles in the last three years, posting 11 stops vs. Western Michigan in the 2022 opening game (Sept. 2, 2022).

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Michigan State sixth-year graduate senior Jonathan Kim kicked a 37-yard field goal with one second remaining to lead the Spartans past Maryland, 27-24, on Sept. 7 at SECU Stadium.

Michigan State improved to 2-0 on the season as head coach Jonathan Smith won his Big Ten debut, while the Terrapins fell to 1-1.

The Spartans outgained the Terrapins, 484-339, led by standout offensive performances from freshman wide receiver Nick Marsh and sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles.

Marsh had eight catches for 194 receiving yards, the 10th most by a Spartan in a single game and the second most by a true freshman, including a 77-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter that tied the game at 24 with 4:11 in the game.

Chiles was 24-of-38 passing for 363 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions. The 363 passing yards were the eighth most by a Spartan quarterback in a single game.

Defensively, fifth-year senior captain linebacker Jordan Turner led MSU with seven tackles and two tackles for loss, while fellow linebackers Wayne Matthews III and Cal Haladay each had six stops.

Kim was 2-for-2 on field-goal attempts, including a 50-yarder as time expired in the first half.

Maryland opened the game with a 14-play, 75-yard scoring drive capped by a 15-yard TD grab by Tai Felton. The Terrapins were 4-for-4 on third-down conversions on the drive while scoring in 6:30.

The Spartans answered with a touchdown on their first drive, as Chiles found Foster in the end zone on a 9-yard slant with 5:17 left in the first.

Maryland regained the lead in the last minute of the first quarter, taking advantage of a Chiles interception. The Terrapins took over on the MSU 17-yard line and scored two plays later as quarterback Billy Edwards Jr. had a 7-yard rushing TD to make it 14-7.

The Spartans responded once again on their third drive, going 75 yards on 11 plays, to tie the game at the 10:07 mark in the third. Chiles hit Glover on a deep 34-yard pass in the end zone for his first career TD reception.

MSU took over on its own 12-yard line with just 2:20 left in the half, but drove 56 yards on 12 plays to get into field-goal position, and Kim drilled a 50-yard field goal as time expired to give MSU a 17-14 lead going into the break. Kim originally missed a 55-yarder, but a Maryland offsides penalty gave Kim a second chance.

Maryland took advantage of another Spartan interception to start the third quarter, and tied the game on a 45-yard Jack Howes' field goal to make it 17-17 at the 8:18 mark.

The Terrapins took their third lead of the game at 24-17 on Dylan Wade's 28-yard TD catch on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Howes missed a 41-yard field goal that would have put Maryland up by 10 points with 4:22 left, giving the Spartans an opportunity to tie the game on the ensuing drive. On the next play, Chiles connected on a 77-yard touchdown to Marsh that made it 24-24 with 4:11 remaining.

The Spartans then forced a punt to set up their game-winning drive. MSU took over at its own 16-yard line and went on a 13-play, 65-yard drive, setting up Kim for his game-winning 37-yard field goal.

Maryland had one last chance with one second remaining, but Haladay made the game's last tackle to seal the win for MSU.

Freshman wide receiver Nick Marsh snared eight catches for 194 yards, including a 77-yard TD catch from Chiles in the fourth quarter, in just his second collegiate game. The 194 receiving yards was not only the best MSU single-game receiving total against Maryland, but only the second 100-yard receiving outing against the Terps, topping the previous top mark of 114 yards by Jayden Reed on eight catches in 2021 It was also the 10th most receiving yards in a single game by a Spartan, and the second most by a true freshman (Ricky White with 196 vs. Michigan in 2020).

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- Michigan State scored touchdowns on three of its first four drives to open up a 27-0 halftime lead en route to a 40-0 win over Prairie View A&M (1-2) on Saturday afternoon in front of 70,066 at Spartan Stadium.

It was the first shutout victory for the Spartans since a 52-0 win over Akron on Sept. 10, 2022. Michigan State also improved to 3-0 on the season for the first time since 2021.

MSU accumulated 458 yards in total offense, including 270 passing and 188 on the ground.

Sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles completed 12-of-19 passes for 173 passes and a touchdown, while also running one in and graduate Tommy Schuster completed 8-of-10 passes for 97 yards and rushed for the team's final score. Redshirt junior running back Nathan Carter had 8 carries for 93 yards and a score, while sixth-year running back Kay'ron Lynch-Adams had 15 carries for 63 yards.

Redshirt senior linebacker Jordan Turner had seven tackles, including a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss to lead the MSU defense. Redshirt senior defensive back Ed Woods had five tackles, redshirt senior linebacker Cal Haladay added four tackles, including 1.5 for loss, and a sack and sixth-year defensive lineman Khris Bogle finished with four tackles.

Michigan State scored touchdowns on its first two drives to jump out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter.

On MSU's opening possession, Chiles capped an 11-play, 60-yard drive with a 6-yard touchdown run, his second of the season. Chiles then connected on a 17-yard touchdown pass to redshirt freshman Aziah Johnson, his first career collegiate TD, with seven seconds left in the opening quarter.

The Spartans extended their lead to 27-0 with two more touchdowns in the second quarter. Nate Carter busted loose for a 60-yard touchdown, the longest of his career, at the 4:45 mark. In the last minute of the half, redshirt junior Charles Brantley picked off a pass in the end zone and ran it all the way back for an official 100-yard interception return, the longest interception return in school history.

Brantley's pick-six broke the previous school record interception return of 99 yards set by Dan Bass against Wisconsin in 1978.

MSU scored on three-straight possessions in the second half, with sixth-year kicker Jonathan Kim hitting a 33-yard field goal at the 8:24 mark of the third quarter and pushing the Spartans lead to 33-0 on a 23-yard field goal with 11:46 left to play in the game.

Schuster closed out the MSU scoring with a 1-yard rush to cap a 10-play, 56-yard drive with 3:49 left to play in the game.

POST-GAME NOTES:
• Michigan State moved to 3-0 in head coach Jonathan Smith's first season at the helm of the Spartans . . . it's MSU's first 3-0 start since 2021.
• Smith becomes the fifth MSU head coach to start 3-0 overall in their first season as the Spartans' head coach, and the first since Mark Dantonio in 2007 ... Smith joins Dantonio, Bobby Williams in 2000, George Gauthier in 1918 and Frank Sommers in 1916.
• The Spartan defense pitched their first shutout of the season and first since blanking Akron, 52-0 on Sept. 10, 2022.

Redshirt junior defensive back Charles Brantley's 100-yard interception return in the second quarter was the longest defensive TD in school history, bettering the previous record of 99-yard INT return by Dan Bass in 1978 vs. Wisconsin. Brantley now has MSU's last two pick-sixes as Saturday's INT for a TD was the first since Brantley had a 32-yard pick-six vs. Ohio State on Oct. 8, 2022. Brantley's 100-yard interception for a TD was the 16th 100-yard interception return in Big Ten history. It was Brantley's second interception of the season and his fourth career INT.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. -- Playing in a steady rain in front of a sold-out Alumni Stadium for the 11th-annual Red Bandanna Game, Michigan State gave up a late fourth-quarter touchdown to fall at Boston College, 23-19, on the night of Sept. 21, 2024.

The Spartans (3-1) took a 19-16 lead on Jonathan Kim's fourth field goal of the game, a 27-yarder, with 4:12 remaining, but the Eagles (3-1) responded on their next drive with a 42-yard touchdown pass from Thomas Castellanos to Lewis Bond for the game winner.

Michigan State got the ball back one last time with 1:28 left on its own 25 and drove to the BC 36, but Aidan Chiles' pass was intercepted in the end zone by Max Tucker to seal the win for BC.

Chiles finished the game 17-of-35 passing for 241 yards and three interceptions, and also ran nine times for a career-high 57 yards, including a 1-yard TD in the second quarter. Kay'ron Lynch-Adams had 15 carries for 61 yards to lead MSU on the ground, while tight end Jack Velling had six catches for 77 yards, both season highs.

Kim kicked a career-high four field goals for the Spartans (41, 26, 51, 27 yards).

The Spartans outgained the Eagles 368-292, but committed four turnovers (three interceptions, one fumble).

Malik Spencer and Khris Bogle each had a team-high six tackles for MSU.

Michigan State's defense started the game with a three-and-out, giving the Spartans good field position on their first possession at the BC 49-yard line. MSU took advantage, driving 26 yards on nine plays, to set up a 41-yard field goal by Kim.

On the ensuing Boston College series, Cal Haladay forced a fumble that was recovered at the MSU 7-yard line by Wayne Matthews III, thwarting a potential BC scoring drive. However, on the next BC possession, the Eagles drove 64 yards on 11 plays in 6:08, capped by an 11-yard touchdown by Turbo Richard. The Eagles did miss the extra point to make it 6-3 in favor of BC at the 12:22 mark in the second quarter.

MSU responded with its own touchdown drive, going 75 yards on nine plays, to go up, 10-6, with 8:10 left in the half. Chiles connected with Montorie Foster Jr. on a long 40-yard pass play to the BC 1 that set up Chiles' third rushing TD of the season, a 1-yard run up the middle. Kim then hit his second field goal of the half, a 26-yarder with 20 seconds left, to give MSU a 13-6 advantage at the break.

Michigan State fumbled the opening kickoff of the second half, giving BC a first-and-goal at the 4, but the Spartan defense kept the Eagles out of the end zone to force a 39-yard field goal by Luca Lombardo.

The Spartans quickly turned the ball over for the second time of the half on a Chiles interception, and BC capitalized right away, scoring on a 36-yard TD run by Treshaun Ward on the next play to give the Eagles a 16-13 lead at the 12:22 mark in the third quarter.

Kim's third field goal, this time from 51 yards out, tied the game at 16 with 9:06 left in the third.

Michigan State made a fourth-down stop at the 1-yard line to prevent BC from taking the lead, as Jordan Hall stopped Eagle quarterback Thomas Castellanos for a 1-yard loss.

MSU then drove 89 yards on 18 plays over the course of 9:24 to the BC 9, but had to settle for a field goal, as Kim connected on his career-high fourth of the game from 27 yards out to give MSU a 19-16 advantage with 4:12 remaining.

Castellanos found Bond for a 42-yard touchdown on the next drive for BC to give the Eagles the lead for good with 1:28 left in the game.

Senior wide receiver Montorie Foster Jr. snared his first catch of the night with a 40-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles in the second quarter, setting up MSU's first TD of the game. The reception extended Foster's streak of at least one catch in 17 straight games dating back to 2022. Foster has at least one reception in 27 of his last 39 games played. Foster finished with a season-high 87 yards on four catches, as he has snared three or more receptions in all four games this season.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- No. 3 Ohio State scored three touchdowns in the second quarter to open up a 24-7 halftime lead en route to 38-7 win over Michigan State in front of 71,114 at Spartan Stadium on the night of Sept. 28.

Sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles completed 13-of-19 passes for 167 yards and one touchdown, while redshirt sophomore Jaron Glover caught four passes for 53 yards and one score.

On the defensive side, redshirt senior linebacker Jordan Turner had nine tackles, a half for loss and one interception, while junior safety Malik Spencer had seven tackles (a half for loss) and junior safety Nikai Martinez and redshirt senior linebacker Cal Haladay had five tackles apiece.

Ohio State took the first possession of the game down to the MSU 10-yard line early in the first quarter, but the Spartan defense stopped the Buckeyes on third down and goal. Jayden Fielding kicked a 30-yard field goal as the visitors took a 3-0 lead.

MSU responded on its first drive, as running back Nathan Carter had a 19-yard run, Chiles completed a pass to Brennan Parachek for 19 yards and one to Jaron Glover for 8 yards to put the Spartans on the Buckeyes 20-yard line. The Spartans went for it on fourth-and-1 and were stopped by the Buckeyes.

Ohio State took over and used a 14-play, 80-yard drive over 5:42 to extend its lead to 10-0 on a 3-yard pass from Will Howard to Gee Scott Jr.

The Spartans moved the ball once again on their next possession. Chiles completed a pair of passes to Glover, including a 24-yard pass that moved MSU into Ohio State territory. Chiles then threw a 26-yard pass to Jack Velling at the Ohio State 11-yard line but the Buckeyes forced a fumble and took possession.

MSU responded as Turner intercepted a pass from Howard at the OSU 48-yard line and returned it 36 yards. Chiles wasted little time, completing a 12-yard pass to Glover for a touchdown as MSU pulled to within 10-7 with 9:41 to play.

On the next drive, Ohio State's Jeremiah Smith capped off a four-play, 75-yard drive over 2:19 with a 19-yard touchdown run, giving the Buckeyes a 17-7 lead.

The Spartans had a chance to pull within one possession on the next drive, marching down to the Ohio State 16-yard line, but a Chiles fumble turned the ball back over. The teams traded possessions over the next four minutes and Ohio State used a six-play, 60-yard drive over 44 seconds to take a 24-7 lead into halftime on a 17-yard pass to Smith from Devin Brown with 29 seconds left.

Ohio State scored twice in the third quarter, extending its lead to 38-7. Howard completed a 33-yard pass to Emeka Egbuka to cap a 13-play, 76-yard drive over 7:11, making it 31-7. After an MSU turnover that gave the Buckeyes the ball on the Spartans 12-yard line, Howard ran it in from 6 yards out to make it 38-7 with 2:05 to play.

POST-GAME NOTES:
• Michigan State honored former head coach Mark Dantonio, the winningest coach in school history, with the National Football Foundation On-Campus Salute at the break between the first and second quarters.

Sophomore wide receiver Jaron Glover caught a 12-yard TD pass from sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles in the second quarter. It was Glover's first game back since the Maryland game (9/7/24) after missing the previous two with an injury. It was Glover's second TD catch of his career and season, with his first coming in the Maryland contest. Glover finished with team-highs of four catches for 53 yards.

EUGENE, Ore. -- Michigan State fell at No. 6/6 Oregon, 31-10, Friday night, Oct. 4, before a sold-out crowd at Autzen Stadium.

Junior tight end Jack Velling led MSU with six catches for 53 yards, while freshman Nick Marsh had three grabs for 58 yards. Sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles was 10-of-17 passing for 154 yards. Sixth-year graduate senior Kay'ron Lynch-Adams rushed nine times for 32 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Defensively, junior cornerback Charles Brantley recorded his third interception of the season and led MSU with nine tackles. Junior safety Malik Spencer collected the first interception of his career in the first quarter and had seven stops. Sixth-year graduate defensive lineman D'Quan Douse had a team-high two tackles for loss and four tackles overall.

Oregon quarterback Dillon Gabriel, who entered the game leading the nation in completion percentage, threw two interceptions, but did finish the game 20-of-32 for 257 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan James paced the Ducks on the ground with 166 yards and one score while Tez Johnson had 10 receptions for 84 yards and one TD.

After forcing an Oregon three-and-out to start the game, Michigan State drove the ball to the 2-yard line on its first possession following a 44-yard pass play from Chiles to Marsh on fourth down, but the Spartans fumbled on the next play, giving the ball back to the Ducks.

The Spartan defense then came up with its own turnover in the end zone, as Spencer made a diving interception on third-and-goal, keeping the Ducks off the scoreboard.

Oregon scored the game's first points on its third drive, going 75 yards on seven plays in 3:30, capped by a 9-yard TD run by Gabriel to make it 7-0 with 22 seconds left in the first quarter.

MSU picked off Gabriel for the second time in the red zone early in the second quarter as Brantley read the pass and hauled in the ball near the goal line at the 2-yard line for his third interception of the season.

The Ducks scored back-to-back touchdowns on their final drives of the first half to take a 21-0 lead into the break. James had a 3-yard TD run at the 5:26 mark, and Gabriel found Evan Stewart in the end zone on a 9-yard pass with just five seconds left in the half.

Oregon extended its lead in the second half on Andrew Boyle's 50-yard field goal with 6:47 remaining in the third quarter and Johnson's 2-yard TD reception on fourth-and-goal at the 11:18 mark in the fourth quarter.

The Spartans got on the board midway through the fourth quarter as Chiles directed a seven-play, 75-yard drive in 2:51 that was finished by Lynch-Adams with a 1-yard touchdown run. Sixth-year graduate kicker Jonathan Kim remained perfect on the season with his ninth field goal, this one from 42-yards out, with 25 seconds in the game to make the final 31-10.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- Sixth-year graduate kicker Jonathan Kim set a school record with six field goals and Michigan State scored a touchdown with two minutes left as the Spartans beat Iowa, 32-20, in front of 69,682 fans on Homecoming at Spartan Stadium.

The Spartans outgained the Hawkeyes, 468-283, and had the ball for 39:44 compared to Iowa's 20:16.

Sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles completed 22-of-30 passes for 256 yards and one touchdown, while running 11 times for 51 yards. Sixth-year running back Kay'ron Lynch-Adams carried 15 times for 86 yards and senior running back Nathan Carter had nine carries for 49 yards and one touchdown as Michigan State rushed for a season-high 212 yards.

Freshman wide receiver Nick Marsh caught eight passes for 113 yards, his second game this year with at least 100 yards, and senior wide receiver Montorie Foster Jr. had five catches for a career-high 100 yards and a touchdown.

Kim kicked six field goals, including a season-high 55-yarder early in the fourth quarter, and set a new Michigan State school record, breaking the mark of Paul Edinger (1998) and John Langeloh (1988). It also tied a Big Ten record for most field goals in a conference game.

Graduate linebacker Cal Haladay, fifth-year senior linebacker Jordan Turner and junior defensive back Nikai Martinez had six tackles apiece to lead the Spartans, while graduate linebacker Darius Snow had five tackles. Martinez also recorded his second interception of the season.

Michigan State kicked four field goals and held Iowa to 58 yards of total offense in the first half to take a 12-0 lead at halftime. The Spartans amassed 250 yards of total offense and held the ball for 21:12, compared to just 8:48 for the Hawkeyes.

MSU drove 52 yards on eight plays on its opening drive, capped by a 42-yard Kim field goal to take an early 3-0 lead.

After forcing a three-and-out on Iowa's first possession, Kim connected again on a field goal on MSU's second drive, this time from 43 yards out, as the Spartans went up, 6-0, at the 5:58 mark in the first quarter.

Following a Spartan turnover that gave Iowa good field position at the MSU 45-yard line, the Spartan defense responded by not allowing a first down, and the Hawkeyes couldn't convert on a 58-yard field-goal attempt with nine seconds left in the quarter.

Kim made two more field goals in the second quarter, from 36 yards and 29 yards, as Michigan State built a 12-0 lead. He did miss on a 55-yard attempt as time expired in the first half.

The Hawkeyes scored a touchdown on their opening drive of the third quarter, going 58 yards on eight plays, as Reece Vander Zee caught an 18-yard TD pass in the end zone from Cade McNamara to cut the Spartan lead to 12-7.

The Spartans responded with a touchdown on their first series of the second half to put the lead back at 12 points, 19-7. Chiles found Montorie Foster Jr. for an 18-yard touchdown to finish a nine-play, 75-yard drive that took 5:18 off the clock.

Iowa responded on its next drive, going 69 yards over 3:39 with a 2-yard touchdown run from quarterback Brendan Sullivan cutting the MSU lead to 19-14.

The Spartans moved the ball 40 yards on the next drive but stalled and Kim hit a season-best 55-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to extend the lead to 22-14.

Martinez intercepted an Iowa pass and returned it to the Iowa 30-yard line midway through the fourth quarter and Kim finished the scoring drive with a 46-yard field goal, setting the school record for most in a game, pushing MSU's lead to 25-14 with 7:37 left.

Iowa responded immediately with a 75-yard touchdown run from Kaleb Johnson on the opening play of the drive making it 25-20 with 7:22 left, but failed to make the two-point conversion.

Michigan State countered with a nine-play, 75-yard drive, converting three first downs and an 11-yard pass to Marsh putting the Spartans on the 1-yard line before Carter scored with 2:03 left to extend the lead to 32-20.

Sixth-year graduate kicker Jonathan Kim set a school record with six field goals, including making four of 40+ yards . . . Kim's six field goals is the most in the Big Ten and FBS this season . . . the six field goals tied a modern-day Big Ten record, matching Jake Moody of Michigan with six field goals vs. Indiana (11/17/18). Kim's longest field goal of the night was a 55-yarder, marking his career-long at home, and tied for No. 6 on MSU's longest field goal list, matching Edinger vs. Wisconsin in 1999.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Michigan State fell at Michigan, 24-17, Saturday night, Oct. 26 before a crowd of 110,849 at Michigan Stadium.

Down 24-10 in the fourth quarter, the Spartans (4-4, 2-3 Big Ten) rallied to make it 24-17 on Aidan Chiles' 20-yard touchdown pass to Nick Marsh with 6:12 remaining, but MSU was stopped on fourth down from the Michigan 16-yard line with under two minutes remaining on its final possession of the game.

Redshirt junior running back Nathan Carter led the Spartans with a season-high 118 yards and one touchdown as MSU outrushed Michigan, 163-119. Michigan State also held a 352-265 advantage in total offense and 37:05-22:55 on time of possession.

Sophomore quarterback Aidan Chiles was 17-of-23 passing (.739) for 189 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, junior safety Malik Spencer led MSU with 10 tackles, while fifth-year senior linebacker Cal Haladay had six stops.

Michigan State drove 68 yards on 14 plays and took 8:08 off the clock on its opening possession, but missed a 25-yard field goal and came away empty on the series; however, after forcing a three-and-out, the Spartans went right back down the field on their second series and scored a touchdown to go up, 7-0, with 10 seconds remaining in the quarter. Carter capped a 62-yard, nine-play drive with a 2-yard run, his third rushing TD of the season.

The Wolverines (5-3, 3-2 Big Ten) scored nine points in the final 30 seconds of the second quarter to take a 9-7 lead into halftime. Colston Loveland caught a 10-yard TD pass from Davis Warren, but the Wolverines did miss the extra point. The Spartans then fumbled just before the half at the Michigan 34, and UM took advantage with a 37-yard field goal by Dominic Zvada to take the lead.

Michigan extended its lead to 16-7 on Alex Orji's 2-yard rushing TD at the 9:49 mark in the third quarter.

The Spartans trimmed the margin to 16-10 as Jonathan Kim connected on a 46-yard field goal with 3:45 left in the third.

Loveland caught his second TD pass, this time from 23 yards out on a halfback pass by Donovan Edwards, and the Wolverines made the 2-point conversion to take a 24-10 lead with 13:20 remaining.

Marsh's 20-yard TD capped a 13-play, 75-yard drive for Michigan State that took 7:08 off the clock. MSU got the ball back its own 49-yard line with 4:34 left and drove the ball to the UM 16, but couldn't convert on a fourth-and-5 pass at the 1:52 mark. Michigan converted one first down and then ran out the clock to seal the victory.

POST-GAME NOTES:

MSU had six different rushers on the night, including five different ball carriers on the opening drive, on the way to out-gaining UM, 163-119, marking only the seventh time in the last 55 games in the MSU-UM series that the most productive ground attack was not the winning team.

Redshirt junior running back Nate Carter finished with a season-high tying 19 carries for a season-high 118 yards, registering his first 100-yard outing of the season and first since 108 vs. Iowa last season . . . Carter added a team-leading and collegiate career best 56 yards on two receptions to end the night with an MSU career-high 174 all-purpose yards, and the second-most of his collegiate career.
