Spartan Hockey History

spartan hockey timeline of tradition

Michigan State has long been at the forefront of collegiate hockey success. Spartan hockey ranks among the winningest programs in NCAA history, and both teams and players alike have reached the pinnacle of achievement. From its championship tradition to record-setting players and coaches, Spartan hockey truly embodies a Commitment to Excellence.

january 11, 1922

Michigan State plays its first intercollegiate hockey game, falling to Michigan, 5-1. The very first team picture is above.

february 11, 1923

MSU gets its first win, 6-1 over the Lansing Independents.

january 12, 1950

MSU plays its first game since 1930, losing to Michigan Tech, 6-2.

november 29, 1951

MSU plays its first game under legendary coach Amo Bessone, defeating Ontario Agricultural College, 8-2 at home.

march 1, 1952

february 6, 1954

Goaltender Ed Schiller makes a Spartan-record 73 saves in a 5-4 loss to Denver.

february 19, 1954

MSU skates to its second scoreless tie in history, 0-0 against Michigan. It snaps a 14-game losing streak to the Wolverines since hockey was reinstated in 1950.

december 7, 1957

MSU sets a school record for most goals in a game in an 18-0 win vs. Ohio State. The mark still stands.

march 1, 1958

MSU completes its first winning season (12-11), despite losing to Minnesota in the finale, 5-1.

march 13, 1959

MSU makes its first NCAA Tournament appearance, defeating Boston College in the semifinals, 4-3.

march 14, 1959

The Spartans fall to North Dakota, 4-3 in overtime, in their first national championship game. MSU finishes the season 17-6-1.

december 11, 1964

Mike Jacobson scores three goals in one minute of the first period against Wisconsin. The accomplishment lands him in Sports Illustrated and still stands as the fastest three goals by one player in MSU history.

march 5, 1966

MSU defeats defending national champion Michigan Tech, 4-3, to win the WCHA playoffs after finishing sixth in the regular season.

march 18, 1966

Doug Volmar's goal gives MSU a 2-1 win over Boston University in the NCAA semifinals.

march 19, 1966

MSU completes one of the most unlikely postseason runs with a 6-1 win over Clarkson to claim its first NCAA championship. Bob Brawley gives the Spartans a 2-1 lead in the second period, and they cruised from there. Goaltender Gaye Cooley is named the tournament MVP and Amo Bessone is named Coach of the Year.

march 16, 1967

MSU, fifth in the WCHA regular season, defeats champion Michigan Tech, 2-1 in overtime, to win the playoffs for the second straight season. Doug Volmar nets both goals, including the winner at 5:44 of overtime.

march 18, 1967

After falling to Boston University in the NCAA semifinals, MSU captures third place with a 6-1 win over North Dakota in the NCAA consolation game.

november 10, 1973

Tom Ross ties the school record with five goals in a 9-5 win over Notre Dame at MSU Ice Arena.

december 28, 1973

MSU wins its first Great Lakes Invitational, defeating Michigan Tech, 5-4, in the finals.

october 25, 1974

Munn Ice Arena hosts its first game, a 4-3 MSU loss to Laurentian. The arena is dedicated a week later, on november 1, 1974.

november 16, 1974

The first sellout crowd in Munn history sees the Spartans down North Dakota, 6-2. Goalie Ron Clark sets a record with 30 saves in the first period.

february 14, 1976

The Spartans establish a new single-season attendance record at Munn Ice Arena in a win vs. North Dakota, 7-1. A total of 157,567 fans attend games during the year, a record which still stands.

march 14, 1976

The longest game in MSU history is settled in the third overtime, as Minnesota defeats the Spartans, 7-6, after 86:33 of play in the WCHA playoffs. It is the final game for record-setting stars Tom Ross and Steve Colp, who finish their careers with 324 and 300 points, respectively.

march 3, 1979

Amo Bessone coaches his final game, a 5-3 win over Michigan. It is Bessone's 367th win in 28 years at Michigan State, a record which stands until 1992.

Gaye Cooley

Ron Scott

april 1, 1979

Ron Mason is named Spartan head coach.

october 19, 1979

Ron Mason gets his first win at MSU in his first game, 7-6 over Western Michigan.

october 23, 1981

MSU begins its first season of CCHA play, defeating Lake Superior, 4-3, in East Lansing. MSU had left the WCHA along with Michigan, Michigan Tech and Notre Dame.

march 12, 1983

MSU tops Bowling Green in the CCHA title game, 4-3 in overtime. Ron Scott stops a penalty shot by BGSU All-American Brian Hills during the extra stanza to set the stage for Mark Hamway's winning goal.

march 10, 1984

The Spartans win their third straight CCHA playoff championship, defeating Western Michigan, 5-0, with Norm Foster in goal.

march 23, 1984

After reaching the NCAA Frozen Four for the first time in 17 years, MSU falls to Bowling Green, 2-1, in the semifinals.

december 29, 1984

The Great Lakes Invitational championship game produces the third straight North American record crowd, as MSU defeats Michigan Tech again, 7-0, in front of 21,576 at Joe Louis Arena.

march 24, 1985

In possibly the most painful loss in MSU history, Providence knocks the "Super Team" out of the NCAA tournament, 4-2 (Providence wins the two-game, total-goals series, 6-5). Providence goalie Chris Terreri stops 50 MSU shots and its season at an NCAA record 38 wins. MSU outscores its opponents by more than two-to-one on the season, and 18 members of the team go on to sign professional contracts.

november 15-16, 1985

The National Hockey League uses Michigan State's exhibition series with Team Canada at Munn as its first experiment with video replay. NHL Director of Officials John McCauley and Hockey Night in Canada Vice President of Production Don Wallace oversee the experiment. Both coaches challenge one goal in the series, which the two teams split, but neither is overturned.

december 14-15, 1985

Mike Donnelly scores eight goals in a two-game sweep of Ohio State. Five come in Saturday's 6-5 MSU win, including the OT winner.

march 29, 1986

MSU wins its second national championship, downing Harvard, 6-5, in Providence, R.I., on Mike Donnelly's NCAA-record 59th goal of the season.

Mike Donnelly

march 12, 1993

Ron Mason gets career win No. 674, a 6-5 triumph over Kent State, to become the winningest U.S. college hockey coach in history, surpassing Len Ceglarski (Clarkson and Boston College).

january 21, 1994

The Spartans knock off Michigan, ranked No. 1 in the nation, by a 6-3 score in Ann Arbor, giving Ron Mason his 400th victory as the Spartan head coach.

march 18, 1994

Trailing by a 2-0 score with under 10 minutes remaining, the Spartans top Bowling Green in overtime, 3-2, in the quarterfinals of the CCHA playoffs at Joe Louis Arena. Junior Steve Guolla scores all three goals, giving Ron Mason career victory No. 698 and making him the winningest coach in college hockey history, passing former University of Alberta mentor Clare Drake.

Michigan State beats Michigan, 5-1, giving Ron Mason his 800th career win. MSU's win over Michigan the next night helps propel the Spartans to their first CCHA championship since 1989-90.

february 28, 1998

Senior goaltender Chad Alban caps a memorable Senior Night with an empty-net goal, becoming just the fourth college goalie to be credited with a goal and the first to shoot it himself into an empty net. Alban shot the puck from behind and to the right of his net and it went in with 13 seconds remaining in the 6-3 win over Ferris State.

march 21, 1998

Shawn Horcoff's goal 2:30 into the second overtime gives MSU a 3-2 victory over Ohio State and ends the longest CCHA championship game in league history. The win marks the Spartans' eighth playoff title.

february 20, 1999

MSU defeats Michigan, 3-1, at Joe Louis Arena; 40 minutes after the game ends, the Spartans learn that Alaska Fairbanks defeated Ohio State in overtime, giving the Spartans their second-straight CCHA regular-season title. The MSU-Michigan game at Joe Louis attracts a sellout crowd of 19,983 for the third year in a row.

march 28, 1999

Andrew Hutchinson and Adam Hall score 32 seconds apart with less than two minutes remaining in the third period, lifting MSU past Colorado College, 4-3, and into the NCAA Frozen Four for the first time since 1992.

Chad Alban

Shawn Horcoff

A record crowd of 7,117 watches the Spartans fall to Michigan, 2-0, in a newly-refurbished Munn Ice Arena which includes the addition of luxury suites and club seating.

march 16, 2000

Senior centerman Shawn Horcoff wins an unprecedented five individual CCHA awards (Player of the Year, Best Defensive Forward, Scoring Champion, All-CCHA First-Team and CCHA All-Academic).

march 17-18, 2000

Freshman Ryan Miller becomes the first goaltender to record shut-outs in the CCHA Tournament semifinals and championship game, leading MSU to its ninth playoff crown.

Andrew Hutchinson

CCHA head coaches and athletics directors vote unanimously to rename the league's playoff championship trophy the Mason Cup in honor of then-Spartan head coach Ron Mason.

december 30, 2000

John Nail's goal with 56 seconds remaining in overtime propels the Spartans to a 3-2 win over Michigan Tech in the GLI championship, MSU's fourth-straight GLI crown.

january 12, 2001

Goaltender Ryan Miller makes 18 saves in a 2-0 shutout of Lake Superior State. The whitewash is the 13th of Miller's MSU career and propels him past Chad Alban for first place on the school's all-time shutout list. The shutout is also the 11th in Miller's career against a CCHA opponent, the most in league history. That record also was previously held by Alban.

Ryan Miller blanks Lake Superior State for the third time in four starts as the Spartans outlast the Lakers, 3-0, at Munn Ice Arena. The win extends the MSU unbeaten streak to 23 games (20-0-3), matching the school record set during the 1998-99 campaign.

Ryan Miller allows a goal 2:17 into the second period of the Spartans' 4-3 overtime loss to Michigan at Joe Louis Arena. The marker snaps the goaltender's scoreless streak at a school-record 229:29, which spanned five games and included three shutouts.

february 10, 2001

Ryan Miller backstops the Spartans to a 3-0 win over Alaska Fairbanks at Munn Ice Arena. The shutout is the 17th of his career, pushing him past Clarkson's Wally Easton and Greg Gardner of Niagara into sole possession of first place on the NCAA's all-time shutouts list.

Jim Slater

Adam Hall scores a pair of goals and Brian Maloney adds a marker and two assists as MSU hands Michigan a 4-2 defeat in front of a sellout crowd of 19,995 at Joe Louis Arena. The win is coach Ron Mason's 600th behind the Spartan bench.

march 1, 2001

MSU needs just 14 months to set a new Munn Ice Arena attendance record as 7,121 pack the facility to see the Spartans drop Michigan, 3-1, in the regular-season finale for both teams. The Spartans are presented with the CCHA regular-season trophy following the game.

march 15, 2001

For the second straight year, a Spartan dominates the CCHA Awards Banquet. This time, it's Ryan Miller, who is named the league's Player of the Year and Best Goaltender along with All-CCHA First-Team distinction.

march 17, 2001

Ryan Miller's success continues as the MSU netminder blanks Michigan, 2-0, in the CCHA Tournament championship, his second title game shutout in as many seasons. He's named tourney MVP for his efforts, becoming the first player to earn the honor twice.

march 25, 2001

The Spartans, the nation's top-ranked team for 19-consecutive weeks, advance to the NCAA Frozen Four for the second time in three seasons by defeating Wisconsin, 5-1, in a West Regional quarterfinal match at Van Andel Arena in Grand Rapids.

april 5, 2001

One day after MSU is ousted from the Frozen Four by North Dakota, Ryan Miller becomes the second goaltender and second Spartan to win the Hobey Baker Memorial Award.

Ryan Miller and Ron Mason

october 6, 2001

A world-record crowd of 74,554 watch as Michigan State and Michigan skate to a 3-3 overtime tie in an outdoor hockey game played at Spartan Stadium (below). The record crowd braved chilly temperatures, hovering just above freezing with wind gusts reaching nearly 30 mph. MSU freshman forward Jim Slater scored the game-tying goal with 47 seconds left and neither team could find the net in the extra session. And as they say .... the rest is history.

october 20, 2001

Ron Mason picks up his 900th career victory, a 2-0 victory over Ferris State before 6,732 fans at Munn Arena. The shutout was the 20th of Ryan Miller's career and win No. 50 for the goaltender. Adam Hall and Ash Goldie post the goals for the Spartans.

march 22, 2002

Ron Mason coaches in his final game behind the Spartan bench as the Spartans fall to Colorado College 2-0 in the NCAA Tournament. Mason leaves the coaching ranks as the all-time winningest coach in NCAA hockey history with 924 victories.

april 25, 2002

Veteran head coach Rick Comley is introduced as MSU's fifth head hockey coach. Comley replaces the legendary Ron Mason, who stepped down at the conclusion of the season to become MSU's athletics director.

october 24, 2002

Rick Comley picks up his 600th career win as the Spartans blank Lake Superior State, 7-0, at Munn Ice Arena.

december 30, 2004

Colton Fretter's goal at the 9:24 mark of overtime gives MSU a 2-1 victory over arch-rival Michigan in the championship game of the Great Lakes Invitational. The win marked State's 10th GLI title and the team's first since the 2000 season.

march 18, 2006

Michigan State captured its unprecedented 11th CCHA Tournament title with a 2-1 victory over regular-season champion Miami. Freshman Jeff Lerg, who earlier in the week had earned the league's Rookie of the Year honors, is named Tournament MVP, while Tim Crowder and Drew Miller are named to the All-Tournament Team.

march 25, 2006

Jeff Lerg makes MSU history with a 1-0 shutout of New Hampshire in the NCAA East Regional in Albany, N.Y. The Spartans make a Tim Crowder goal just 2:14 into the game hold up for the win, behind 36 saves from Lerg. It is the first shutout for MSU in 24 trips to the NCAA Tournament. The Spartans' run ends the next day in the regional final against Maine, 5-4.

Justin Abdelkader

january 6, 2007

Rick Comley's 700th career victory comes in Oxford, Ohio with a 4-1 victory over the Miami Red Hawks. Comley is just the fifth coach all-time to reach 700.

april 7, 2007

An underdog Spartan team shocks Boston College, 3-1, to secure Michigan State's third NCAA Hockey title in school history. Trailing 1-0 entering the final frame, Tim Kennedy tied the score midway through the period then set up Justin Abdelkader (above) for the game-winner with just 18.9 seconds remaining in regulation. Abdelkader secures MVP honors, while Kennedy, Jeff Lerg, and Tyler Howells are named to the Frozen Four All-Tournament Team. Head Coach Rick Comley becomes just the third coach to lead two different schools to NCAA hockey titles. Three days later, more than 4,500 people turned out for a parade through East Lansing and a rally for the National Champions at Munn Ice Arena. The team also traveled to the Champions Day Celebration at the White House in June.

may 2007

Jeff Lerg is named the USA Hockey College Player of the Year, joining Mike York (1999) as the two Spartan recipients. Lerg was also named the USA Hockey Junior Player of the Year in 2005.

march 29, 2008

Playing in a third straight NCAA Regional Final, the Spartans drop a heartbreaker to Notre Dame, 3-1, to deny MSU a shot at defending its national championship. The Irish scored twice - at 14:06 and 15:20 - of the third period to seal the victory. Sent to Colorado Springs to play host Colorado College in the first round, the Spartans dispatched the Tigers 3-1 on the strength of second-period goals by Corey Tropp, Tim Kennedy, and Jeff Dunne. The 2007-08 team went 26-11-5 and finished third in the CCHA.

february 28, 2009

With 12:52 showing on the clock in the second period, Jeff Lerg made a blocker save on Notre Dame's Christian Minella's shot from the top of the right circle, which gave the netminder his 3,934th career stop, and the CCHA all-time saves record.

march 7, 2009

Jeff Lerg's Spartan career comes to an end with 3,996 saves, topping the career chart at MSU and in the CCHA and second all-time in the NCAA Annals. He graduates with a robust resume of accolades, earning both All-America and Academic All-America honors, is the Academic All-American of the Year in 2009, in addition to being a finalist for the AAU James Sullivan Award, which is given to the top amateur athlete in the United States.

anson carter

Inducted in 2024

- 1995 All-American
- Three-time All-CCHA selection
- 1995 Hobey Baker Award Finalist
- Won two World Championships Gold Medals with Team Canada

A prolific scorer. An All-American. A Hobey finalist. A professional hockey player. A trailblazer and a role model, and now one of the faces of the National Hockey League. And now, Anson Carter can add “Michigan State Athletics Hall-of-Fame” to his list of accolades.

Carter excelled on the ice for more than 15 years in the collegiate and professional game, spending his entire four-year career in Green and White before spending more than a decade in the National Hockey League.

“I played 11 years in the National Hockey League and you think that would be the best time in your life. But I tell my kids - my four years at MSU were actually the best years of my life,” admits Carter. “Wearing that jersey is everything; It’s a sense of pride. It’s something that is hard to put into words.”

The Scarborough, Ontario, native came to MSU as a 10th-round pick (No. 220 overall) of the Quebec Nordiques in the 1992 NHL entry draft. He still ranks among MSU’s all-time scoring leaders; currently standing sixth in goals (106), fourth in power-play goals (40), and third in shorthanded tallies (11); his 178 career points finds him 22nd all-time.

He was the team’s Outstanding Rookie in 1993, won the team’s Outstanding Offensive Player Award in both 1995 and 1996, and in his senior season, was the recipient of the Bill Burgess Outstanding Senior Award as well as the Amo Bessone Award, which recognizes a player for academic and athletic achievement in addition to involvement in the community. In terms of league recognition, he was the CCHA Rookie of the Year in 1993, and was an All-CCHA pick from 1994-96, including first-team honors as both a sophomore and junior. He helped guide the Spartans to the CCHA Championship weekend all four seasons and the NCAA Tournament in three.

As a junior in 1995, Carter had a team-best 34 goals and finished with 51 points, and was named an All-American in addition to being a Hobey Baker finalist. Carter went on to play 11 seasons in the NHL.

Carter has never been far from the game – he now serves as one of the studio analysts for the NHL on TNT, and is a charter member of the NHL’s Player Inclusion Coalition, which takes action to accelerate the growing movement for inclusion across the hockey community to educate and engage at all levels of the game.

During consecutive March nights in the studio, while discussing the games of the day and how the NHL playoff picture was developing, Carter wore the iconic script Michigan State jersey to celebrate the 2024 Spartan squad winning the Big Ten Championship. Proudly, the #22 jersey featured the captain’s “C”.

As he said – wearing that jersey is everything.

national coaching honors

spencer penrose award

The Spencer Penrose Award given annually by the American Hockey Coaches Association to honor the Division I National Coach of the Year. The award is named in memory of the Colorado Springs benefactor who built the Broadmoor Hotel Complex, site of the first 10 NCAA championship hockey tournaments. It is annually presented at the AHCA Coach of the Year Banquet in Naples, Fla.

1966 Amo Bessone

john macinnes award

Named for the successful coach at Michigan Tech, the John MacInnes Award recognizes those people who have shown a great concern for youth hockey and amateur programs. The recipients have had high winning percentages, as well as outstanding graduation percentages among their former players. The winners of this award have helped men grow not only as hockey players, but more importantly as men.

HISTORY

The 58th Great Lakes Invitational will be played in December 2024, and continues to be the top holiday tournament in the country. Many have challenged the GLI's stature, but none have matched its continued success.

In 2013, the GLI was played at Comerica Park as part of the Hockeytown Winterfestival in conjunction with the NHL Winter Classic. In 2023, it moved to a new home at Van Andel Arena in Grand Rapids.

The tournament was born out of a conversation between then-general manager of Olympia Stadium, Lincoln Cavalieri, legendary Michigan Tech head coach John MacInnes and Detroit Red Wings scout Jack Paterson. The three men were discussing the lack of American-born players in the National Hockey League and concluded that a prestigious collegiate hockey tournament could make a difference by promoting interest in hockey among young athletes as well as the general public. American Airlines vice president Jack Tompkins, a former University of Michigan goalie and a member of the Detroit Red Wings organization, championed the trio's vision as well and together in 1965, they founded the Great Lakes Invitational Hockey Tournament.

Michigan Tech has hosted the GLI since its inception with Michigan joining as co-host in 1976. The event moved from Olympia Stadium to Joe Louis Arena in 1979 and shifted to its third home - Little Caesars Arena - in 2017. The Covid-19 pandemic wiped out the 2020 GLI, and the 2021 edition was played on the campuses of Michigan State and Michigan as a "Showcase" event. The last two years, the team has enjoyed Van Andel Arena in Grand Rapids as the newest home of the storied tournament.

Michigan State has made 47 GLI appearances prior to this season and has been a regular part of the tournament field since 1979. The Spartans have won 12 titles, including four in a row from 1982-85 and 1997-2000. In 2009, Michigan State took home its first tournament title since 2006, downing Michigan Tech (10-1) and Rensselaer (6-1) in offensive outbursts. MSU and Michigan Tech skated to a 3-3 overtime tie in the 2023 chapter of the tournament, with the Huskies taking home the trophy with a shootout victory.

the big ten

The 2013-14 season marked the launch of a new era in college hockey with Michigan State, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio State, Penn State and Wisconsin beginning play in the Big Ten Conference. Notre Dame joined the conference as an affiliate member for hockey in 2017-18, giving the league its seventh team. Michigan State won its first-ever regular-season and tournament titles in 2024.

the big ten before the big ten

From 1959-81, Big Ten standings were determined by regular season WCHA games between Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota and Wisconsin. Ohio State, a non-WCHA member, played two games against Wisconsin in 1968, two against Michigan State in 1971 and two against Minnesota in 1981.

spartan hockey in the ccha

2012-13 marked the 40th season of the original Central Collegiate Hockey Association, which then came back as a new iteration in 2021-22.

The CCHA sent at least four teams to the NCAA Tournament in four of its last five seasons, and regularly has several teams not only contending for the NCAA Championship, but also ranked among the nation's Top 10.

The CCHA began in the 1971-72 season with four teams (Ohio State, St. Louis, Bowling Green, and Ohio University). A period followed which saw both growth and attrition; In 1981-82, Michigan State, Michigan Tech, Michigan and Notre Dame jumped from the Western Collegiate Hockey Association to the CCHA. Also that year, the league welcomed Illinois-Chicago into the fold. The league expanded to 12 teams in 1999-2000 as Nebraska-Omaha was welcomed to the CCHA in the first expansion for the conference since Northern Michigan joined in 1997-98.

Michigan State led all schools with a total of 586 CCHA victories. MSU captured regular-season titles in 1985, 1986, 1989, 1990, 1998, 1999 and 2001 along with playoff championships in a league-record 11 of its 32 seasons as a CCHA member. Michigan State also holds the best winning percentage in league play of any CCHA member past or present.

Michigan State enjoyed unprecedented success in the CCHA's post-season event, capturing 11 titles, two more than any other team.

The Spartans won the tournament title in their first four seasons in the league, and its tradition of success extended into 2006, where the Green and White hung it's 11th banner in the Joe Louis Arena rafters. The Spartans appeared in 15 of the league's 32 championship games after joining the league for the 1981-82 season, nearly 50 percent.

The CCHA's prestige was highlighted by its eight national champions from 1984-2013 — Bowling Green (1984), Michigan State (1986 and 2007), Lake Superior (1988, 1992 and 1994) and Michigan (1996 and 1998).

The return of the CCHA came in 2021-22, with former CCHA members Bowling Green, Ferris State, Lake Superior State, and Northern Michigan joined by Bemidji State, Michigan Tech, Minnesota State-Mankato, and Division I newcomer St. Thomas.

By a unanimous vote of head coaches and league athletic directors on Oct. 3, 2000, the CCHA Playoff Championship trophy was renamed the Mason Cup in honor of longtime coach Ron Mason.

Mason stepped down from behind the bench – and into the athletics director position – at Michigan State University at the conclusion of the 2001-02 season. He retired as college hockey's all-time winningest coach, (924 victories), won 13 CCHA titles (10 at MSU, and three during his time at Bowling Green) as well as a National Championship with his 1986 Spartan squad.

msu at joe louis arena

Joe Louis Arena, the home of the Detroit Red Wings, became a second home to Michigan State. Nicknamed “Munn East” by fans, the Spartans played at Joe Louis Arena over 160 times since 1979. MSU won 11 CCHA playoff titles and 11 Great Lakes Invitationals at “The Joe” and produced a stretch of 17 consecutive wins in the building from 1982-86. Since the first game at the Joe in December 1979, more than 2.5 million fans enjoyed watching the Spartans at the historic hockey facility, which closed following the 2016-17 season.

In all, Michigan State played 161 games at the iconic barn, winning 11 CCHA Championships and 12 Great Lakes Invitational crowns. In all, MSU played in front of 2,523,642 fans at the facility, dating back to the first-ever game at JLA for the Spartans on Dec. 28, 1979.

spartan hockey in the wcha

Michigan State joined the Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA) prior to the 1981-82 season. Before then, the Spartans were among the first members of the Midwest Intercollegiate Hockey League (MIHL) in 1951-52 – that group became the Western Intercollegiate Hockey League (WIHL) in 1953-54. Those schools then formed the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA), which began play in 1959-60. Michigan State remained in the WCHA until joining the CCHA. Meanwhile, Michigan State also competed in the Big Ten from 1958-59 until formal Big Ten play ceased in 1980-81.

1958-59 • ncaa finals. 17-5-1

In a campaign in which MSU had no league affiliations other than with the Big Ten Conference, the Spartans enjoyed one of their finest seasons in history. MSU went into the NCAA Tournament at Troy, N.Y., as the Big Ten champion (5-2-1) and met Boston College in the semifinals. A 4-3 victory over the Eagles put the Spartans into the finals against a strong North Dakota club where head coach Amo Bessone's icers bowed, 4-3 in overtime, in the championship game. Goalie Joe Selinger and wing Bill MacKenzie were first-team NCAA all-star choices, while Ed Pollesel and Tom Mustonen were second-team selections.

1965-66 • ncaa champions. 16-13-0

One of the most colorful of all MSU hockey units was the 1965-66 Spartan team. The club lost three weeks of preseason practice when its home facility, Demonstration Hall, was under repair. Midway through the campaign, the Spartans had a 4-9 record but rallied to win 12 of their last 16 games. During that stretch, the Spartans dumped arch rival Michigan four times and then topped defending champ Michigan Tech, 4-3, to reach the NCAA semifinals. MSU won its first national hockey crown by dropping Boston University, 2-1, in the semis and Clarkson, 6-1, in the finals at Minnesota's Williams Arena. Goaltender Gaye Cooley was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player and Don Heaphy, Mike Coppo and Brian McAndrew were first-team all-tournament selections. Bob Brawley and Tom Mikkola were second-team picks. Though the team finished in sixth place in the WCHA (9-11), MSU's Amo Bessone won the Spencer Penrose Award as national coach of the year.

Michigan State wound up in fifth place in the WCHA standings with an 8-11-1 league record but again was a postseason surprise. In the conference playoffs, the Spartans disposed of Michigan, 4-2, and Michigan Tech, 2-1 in overtime, to advance to the NCAA semifinals in Syracuse, N.Y. Boston University shattered MSU's hopes for a second straight national title in the semis by downing the Spartans, 4-2. The Spartans routed league foe North Dakota, 6-1, in the consolation game to claim third place. Tom Mikkola was the only MSU skater named to the all-tournament team.

Following wins against Michigan Tech and Notre Dame for the CCHA playoff title, the Spartans faced New Hampshire in their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 15 years. The two teams played a tight 3-2 contest in the opener with the Wildcats claiming the win. MSU ran out of steam the next night, falling 6-2. It was the only time all season that the Spartans lost two games in a row.

Despite capturing its second consecutive CCHA postseason championship and posting 30 wins, the NCAA selection committee seeded the Spartans No. 4 in the West and sent them on the road to face Harvard. In the opening game of the series, MSU twice had two-goal advantages, but was unable to hold them as Harvard skated to a 6-5 triumph. In the final game, Harvard raced out to a 2-0 advantage only to see the Spartans knot the game and keep their hopes alive. Both teams went on to score one more goal to give the Crimson a 9-8 edge in the total-goals series.

1983-84 • fourth place, 34-12-0

Michigan State rolled over Boston College in the first round, taking the two-game, total-goals series, 13-8. The sweep of the Eagles gave the Spartans a nine-game winning streak and a No. 1 seed in the Frozen Four in Lake Placid, N.Y. The Spartans, the CCHA playoff champions, faced rival Bowling Green, the CCHA regular-season champion, in the opening round of play. MSU dropped a hard-fought contest to BGSU, 2-1, which went on to defeat Minnesota-Duluth for the national championship. The Spartans were edged in the consolation game by North Dakota in overtime. Lyle Phair was named to the tournament's all-star team for his two-goal, two-assist tournament performance.

MSU entered the NCAA tournament as the No. 1 seed in the West and the favorite to win the national championship. However, Providence College, led by eventual tournament MVP Chris Terreri, dashed MSU's title hopes by outscoring the Spartans, 6-5, in the two-game series at Munn Arena. Terreri stopped a total of 83 shots vs. MSU, which ended the season with a then-NCAA record 38 wins against just six defeats.

After losing a number of stars from 1984-85's banner season, MSU hoped to qualify for a home-ice bid in the league playoffs. What ensued, however, was more than anyone could have imagined. The Spartans came from behind all season to win the CCHA's regular-season title, took their fourth straight GLI and finished second to Western Michigan in the CCHA Tournament. The Green and White gained the home ice advantage against Boston College in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and – after defeating the Eagles, 10-6, in the two-game, total-goals series – advanced to the NCAA semifinals in Providence, R.I. MSU beat Minnesota, 6-4, in the semis, where Spartan goaltender Norm Foster kicked out 42 shots. In typical fashion, MSU came back from a 4-3 deficit in the second intermission of the title game to defeat the Harvard, 6-5, on Mike Donnelly's game-winning goal with 2:51 remaining.

The defending national champions hadn't envisioned themselves a championship contender after losing the NCAA record-holder for goals scored and the NHL entry draft's first pick Joe Murphy, but surprised everyone by advancing to the NCAA championship game. MSU came into the NCAA Tournament as the No. 2 seed in the West and battled Maine in the first round. The Spartans disposed of the Black Bears, 6-2 and 5-3, to advance to the Frozen Four at Joe Louis Arena. For the second straight season MSU met Minnesota in the semifinals and knocked off the Gophers, 5-3, with the key goal coming from Dave Arkeilpane, who took a strange carom off the backboards and buried it past Minnesota's John Blue. North Dakota shattered MSU's hopes for a second-straight NCAA title in the final by downing the Spartans, 5-3, after taking a 3-0 first-period lead.

A consolation game victory over Western Michigan in the CCHA playoffs helped the Spartans gain their seventh straight NCAA Tournament appearance. MSU traveled to Harvard for a first-round, total-goals series and handed the Crimson their first-ever home NCAA Tournament losses, 6-5 and 5-3, with Kevin Miller picking up the winning tally in each game. MSU then moved on to quarterfinal action against Minnesota, a foe the Spartans had knocked out of the postseason in two straight years. The Gophers won the first game, 4-2, but MSU came back in the second match to take a 3-0 lead in the first period, with all three markers coming from Kip Miller. Minnesota stormed back, however, notching four unanswered goals to eliminate MSU.

A CCHA playoff title game victory over LSSU secured a first-round bye in the NCAA Tournament for the Spartans, who were participating in the NCAA playoffs for the eighth straight year. MSU hosted Boston College in quarterfinal play and, after a stunning opening-game loss to the Eagles, came back to take the next two games to win the best-of-three series. The final game was won on an overtime goal by Mark Hirth. MSU advanced to the semifinals in St. Paul, Minn., against revenge-minded Harvard, which was defeated by the Spartans in the national title game three years before. The Crimson used a stellar goaltending performance to key a 6-3 victory that ended MSU's chances for a national championship. The Spartans finished third in the tournament after a 7-4 drubbing of Maine in the consolation game that saw sophomore Shawn Heaphy register his first career hat trick.

Michigan State earned its ninth straight NCAA Tournament bid after downing Michigan and Lake Superior State in the CCHA playoffs. MSU, recipients of a first-round bye, hosted Boston University in quarterfinal action at Munn Arena. BU held a 2-1 lead in game one midway through the opening period before the Spartans charged back to score the game's next five goals. The following evening, the Terriers scored the first three goals of the third period to break a 2-2 deadlock, tying the series. In the finale, MSU appeared it would be making a return trip to the Frozen Four after holding a 3-1 lead halfway through the second stanza. However, BU used a flurry of third-period goals to claim the series.

After defying predictions of a fifth-place regular-season CCHA finish, Michigan State continued to befuddle critics in the post-season, staging come-from-behind upsets to muscle its way into the Frozen Four. Receiving the fifth seed in the West, the Spartans drew Boston University. Trailing 2-1 entering the final period, MSU scored three unanswered goals, sending the Terriers packing and giving Ron Mason his 650th career victory. Against top-ranked Maine, the Green and White gave up the opening goal then struck back with a three-goal blitz, led by Dwayne Norris' two goals and one assist. Mike Gilmore turned in a remarkable performance, making 20 of his 36 saves in the final stanza to secure the win. Making its second Frozen Four trip in four years, MSU met league rival Lake Superior State in a semifinal match. The two teams matched each other until midway through the third, when LSSU's Mark Astley poked a shot in from point-blank range. The Lakers added an insurance goal and held on to advance.

After finishing third in the CCHA regular-season race and advancing to the conference semifinals, the Spartans were seeded sixth in the NCAA West Regional, held in the Spartans' own Munn Arena. MSU faced third-seeded Massachusetts-Lowell in the first round and occupied the visiting bench. A breakaway and two power-play goals gave Lowell a 3-1 first-period edge. Steve Suk and Anson Carter each scored to pull MSU within one, but the Spartans could get no closer. Despite holding an 8-3 edge in third-period shots, the Spartans could not score the equalizer, and the "host" Chiefs moved on to the quarterfinals.

Following a third-place finish in the CCHA and a loss to Lake Superior State in the conference playoff championship game, the Spartans earned a berth in the NCAA West Regional for the second straight season. Seeded fifth in the West, MSU traveled to Dane County Coliseum in Madison, Wis., to face the host Wisconsin Badgers in the first round. Michigan State built a 3-1 lead on Anson Carter's 34th goal of the year early in the second stanza, but that was the last Spartan hurrah of the season. The Badgers cemented a tie before the end of the period on goals by Mike Strobel and Shawn Carter, and took the game in the final session on scores by Mike Strobel and Chris Tok.

Michigan State's third-place CCHA finish earned the Spartans a berth in the NCAA West Regional, and for the second time in three years they faced higher-seeded Massachusetts-Lowell while wearing dark jerseys in their own arena. Despite a first-period penalty-shot save by Chad Alban, the Spartans were trailing the River Hawks, 2-0, after 20 minutes and couldn't make up the difference. Lowell stretched its lead to 4-0 in the second period before Sean Berens found the net for MSU. Mark Loeding scored for the Spartans in the third period, a goal which was sandwiched by two Lowell tallies to make the final 6-2.

MSU's fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament paired the fifth-seeded Spartans against Minnesota in Grand Rapids' Van Andel Arena. The Gophers broke a 1-1 tie midway through the first period with a pair of goals and went on to win easily, thanks to two goals and two assists from Casey Hankinson. Michigan State received a strong effort from freshman center Shawn Horcoff, whose short-handed goal late in the third period produced the 6-3 final score.

Michigan State earned the No. 1 seed in the NCAA West Regional by virtue of its CCHA regular-season and playoff championships – the Spartans were the only team in the nation to capture both of their league titles. After fourth-seeded Ohio State beat fifth-seeded Yale, a rematch of the CCHA playoff championship was set up between the Spartans and the Buckeyes. Michigan State's potent power-play accounted for all three goals, as the Spartans held leads of 2-0 and 3-2. Ohio State kept responding, and evened the score early in the third. Stellar goaltending from MSU's Chad Alban and OSU's Jeff Maund kept the score tied at 3-3 through regulation. After going into double overtime a week earlier in the CCHA finals, this game was resolved in the first extra session. A sprawling Alban poked the puck away from Hugo Boisvert but right on to Andre Signoretti's stick. The seldom-scoring defenseman fired a perfect shot in the top left corner for his second goal of the game, sending Ohio State to the Frozen Four.

Michigan State earned a second consecutive first-round NCAA Tournament bye, but a year to the day after the Spartans' 1998 disappointment they posted a win in dramatic fashion. MSU trailed Colorado College 3-2 in a back-and-forth game with two minutes remaining before freshmen Andrew Hutchinson and Adam Hall scored goals 32 seconds apart to deliver the improbable win. That gave the Spartans their first trip to the NCAA Frozen Four since 1992, where they met New Hampshire in Anaheim, Calif. The two teams traded goals into the third period, where MSU tied the score at 3-3 less than four minutes in. The Wildcats had the game's final two goals, however, to end MSU's hopes for the school's third national title. Senior center Mike York had two assists in his final collegiate game, giving him 201 career points.

Despite winning the CCHA postseason championship in convincing fashion, Michigan State was seeded fifth in the NCAA West Regional and earned a date against fourth-seeded Boston College. Jeff Farkas scored a power-play goal 11:53 into the first overtime – with just six seconds remaining on a five-minute major called on MSU – to earn a 6-5 victory. The Eagles scored five power-play goals and a shorthanded goal while the Spartans gave up a power-play goal with 50 seconds remaining in regulation to send the game into OT. MSU stormed out to a 2-0 lead in the first 8:33 of the game on goals by Adam Hall and John Nail. BC rallied to tie the game with two goals in the first 1:39 of the second. The two teams traded goals the rest of regulation with the Eagles' Mike Lephart forcing the extra session with a tally late in the third. The winner came late in the major, which had been called on Sean Patchell for hitting from behind. Mike Mottau's shot from the point was blocked by a de-fense-man, but Gionta, who had drawn the penalty, shoveled the puck over to Farkas whose shot eluded goalie Ryan Miller.

As the top seed in the NCAA Tournament, the Spartans were sent to the West Regional as the No. 1 seed and faced Wisconsin, an opening round winner over Providence, in a quarterfinal match. MSU easily defeated the Badgers, 5-1, getting goals from five different players and successfully converting on three of eight power-play opportunities. The win gave the Spartans a berth in the NCAA Frozen Four semifinals against defending national champion North Dakota in a contest that pitted one of the country's top offensive teams against the nation's best defensive unit. However, it was the Fighting Sioux that boasted the stifling defense as the Western Collegiate Hockey Association foe blanked MSU, 2-0, ending the Spartans' quest for a national championship. North Dakota netminder Karl Goehring made 30 saves on the day. The only scoring took place in the first period on goals by the Fighting Sioux's Kevin Spiewak and Ryan Bayda.

CC's Trent Clark scored at the 10:05 mark of the first period to give the Tigers a 1-0 lead heading into the first intermission. The teams turned in a defensive battle in the second period with MSU producing just nine shots and CC six. The Tigers' Alex Kim added an insurance goal at the 5:43 mark of the third period to give Colorado College the 2-0 win. Spartan netminder Ryan Miller turned aside 27 shots, including 14 in the first period, while his counterpart Jeff Sanger finished with 25 saves. The game also marked the end of an era for Spartan hockey as the legendary Ron Mason coached his final game for the Green and White.

The Spartans shook off an injury-riddled and sluggish start to the regular season to put together an impressive second-half run which saw them earn the #1 seed in the East Regional in Albany, N.Y. MSU got a 36-save performance from freshman netminder Jeff Lerg to post the first shutout in Spartan NCAA history, 1-0. First-year skater Tim Crowder scored the only goal MSU would need just 2:14 into the game, and the stalwart defense would hold on to send the Spartans into the second round against Maine. In the regional final, the Black Bears posted a 3-0 lead by the 16:38 mark of the first period, but the Spartans found their stride and fought back to twice come within a goal. Crowder scored twice while Jim McKenzie and Drew Miller also found the back of the net, but MSU fell just short and dropped a 5-4 decision. Crowder and defenseman Corey Potter were named to the All-Regional Team.

After a fourth-place finish in the CCHA regular season and a dramatic overtime victory in the CCHA consolation game, the Spartans were hardly a favorite to reach the Frozen Four in St. Louis. Behind a stellar performance from regional MVP Jeff Lerg - who allowed just two goals in 120 minutes - Michigan State easily dispatched Boston University (5-1) before squaring off for a defensive battle with CCHA champion and national-No. 1 Notre Dame. The Spartans held on for a 2-1 victory over the Irish, and were off to St. Louis for the program's first Frozen Four since 2001.

A slow start against Maine - allowing a pair of goals before the game was four minutes old - could have spelled disaster, but a resilient MSU team cut the lead in half before the period was over and tacked on three more unanswered goals to post a 4-2 victory and send MSU to its first National Championship game since 1987. Facing off against the high-flying Eagles of Boston College, few gave MSU a chance in the contest - but a scoreless tie after one and a 1-0 deficit after two periods kept MSU right in the thick of things. The outstanding defensive effort paid dividends - Tim Kennedy got the equalizer just before the halfway point of the third period, then the winger set up linemate Justin Abdelkader for the game-winner with just 18.9 seconds remaining in regulation. It was truly a team effort by Michigan State, which had no All-League selections, no All-Americans, and no Hobey Baker finalists - just 26 determined, resilient hockey players who played for a common goal.

The Spartans had a formidable team with considerable experience coming back off of a National Championship, and the squad finished third in the CCHA regular season. The Spartans were sent to Colorado Springs to go up against the host Tigers on the big sheet of Olympic ice at the World Arena. MSU posted a 3-1 victory over their hosts, with Jeff Lerg making 41 saves as the Spartans exploded for three second-period goals for a victory over the WCHA regular-season champions.

MSU then had a meeting with CCHA foe Notre Dame, a rematch of the previous season's regional final in Grand Rapids. A pair of Irish goals scored just over a minute apart in the late stages of the third period - at 14:06 and 15:20 - broke open a 1-1 game and propelled Notre Dame to a 3-1 victory. Justin Abdelkader had the only score for Michigan State, which had advanced to a regional final for the third straight season.

After a dozen years missing from the NCAA Tournament, the Spartans won both the regular-season and tournament titles in the Big Ten -their first ever since the league began in 2012-13 - and earned the No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Spartans drew a bracket with two other Michigan squads, and faced Western Michigan for the first time in the postseason affair. The Broncos took a 4-2 lead with three straight goals in the second period, but the resilient and tested Spartans got a goal from captain Nash Nienhuis midway through the third, an exciting finish from Karsen Dorwart on Artysom Levshunov's outstanding individual effort in the final minute to send the game to overtime, and the game-winner from Kalamazoo native Jeremy Davidson at 8:47 of OT to rally for the 5-4 win. In the regional final, the Spartans had to play archrival Michigan for the sixth time in the season, which included a dramatic OT victory for the Spartans in the Big Ten Championship game just a week prior. With the squads tied 2-2 midway through the third period, Michigan rallied for a pair of goals just 12 seconds apart, and then added an insurance marker with 2:19 remaining to send the Wolverines to the Frozen Four.

cinderella spartans claim national crown

MINNEAPOLIS — The 1966 National Collegiate Athletic Association hockey championship rested in the West, and Michigan State had its first crown because it wouldn't give up.

"We had our troubles early in the season . . . a lot of injuries and some ice problems that hampered our practice," head coach Amo Bessone said after Michigan State beat Clarkson, 6-1, in the title game at the University of Minnesota.

"But I figured we had the potential all along, once we got straightened out," Bessone added. "I know one thing: our kids worked very hard for this, and they were deserving of the championship."

At mid-season, Michigan State was bogged down with a 4-9 record, including a 6-3 loss to Clarkson.

Then MSU began to find the combination. The Spartans still finished sixth in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association, but the team had jelled. The Spartans whipped Michigan and WCHA champion Michigan Tech in the Western hockey playoffs to gain a berth in the NCAA championships.

Once the title game was decided, Michigan State had won 12 of its final 16 games to wind up with a 16-13 season record.

The championship was no contest after Bob Brawley fired home a 35-foot slapshot to break a tie and give Michigan State a 2-1 lead in the second period.

The Spartans rammed in four more goals in the third period to turn it into a rout, and wound up peppering the Clarkson goal with 46 shots.

Mike Coppo got two Spartan goals and Bob Fallat, Doug Volmar and Bill Faunt had one each. Spartan goaltender Gaye Cooley earned tournament MVP honors.

Four Michigan State players were named to the all-tournament team, including Cooley, Coppo, Heaphy and McAndrew also earned first-team honors, while Brawley and Tom Mikkola were on the second team.

spartans claim second national championship

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — When Michigan State left wing Mike Donnelly played against Harvard in NCAA Regional action in 1983, he had a broken wrist.

At the Providence Civic Center at the 1986 national championship, all he could break after the game was a big smile.

Led by a pair of goals by the senior left wing — the final one at 17:09 of the third period — MSU claimed the 1986 NCAA championship by downing the Crimson 6-5 before a crowd of 9,214.

It was MSU's second national title in the school's history, the other coming in 1966.

Donnelly's goals were his 58th and 59th of the season, padding his NCAA record for most goals in a season.

Also scoring for head coach Ron Mason's Spartans, who closed the year with a 34-9-2 record, including a 23-2-1 mark since December, were Mitch Messier, Jeff Parker, Brad Hamilton and Brian McReynolds. Bob Essensa finished with 15 saves in the Spartan nets.

"Tonight, we won the game in a way that was characteristic of our whole season — we came from behind and never gave up," Mason said.

Donnelly, Parker, Norm Foster and Don McSween were named to the all-tournament team. Donnelly was named the Most Valuable Player.

"I'm proud of our team — very proud," Mason added. "This team has a lot of character, and they gave it quite a gutsy effort tonight. They've made a believer out of me.

"Last year, it was doomsday around Michigan State after the loss to Providence," said Mason, referring to the disappointing NCAA quarterfinal loss that knocked perhaps the best MSU team of all time out of the tournament. "It takes more than a great team to win an NCAA championship. It takes the right chemistry."

resilient spartans defy the odds

ST. LOUIS - Beating the odds again, Michigan State won its first NCAA hockey championship in 21 years.

Justin Abdelkader snapped a tie with 18.9 seconds to go, seconds after ringing a shot off the post in the Spartans' 3-1 victory over Boston College.

Jeff Lerg made 29 saves, and Chris Mueller added an empty-net goal with 1.2 seconds left to clinch it for the Spartans (26-13-3), a lightly regarded No. 3 seed in the Midwest Regional when the tournament began.

Tim Kennedy tied it midway through the third period, and set up the go-ahead goal from behind the net when he spun off his man and passed the puck in front. Abdelkader, the MVP of the tournament, beat Cory Schneider for his 15th goal and first in nine games.

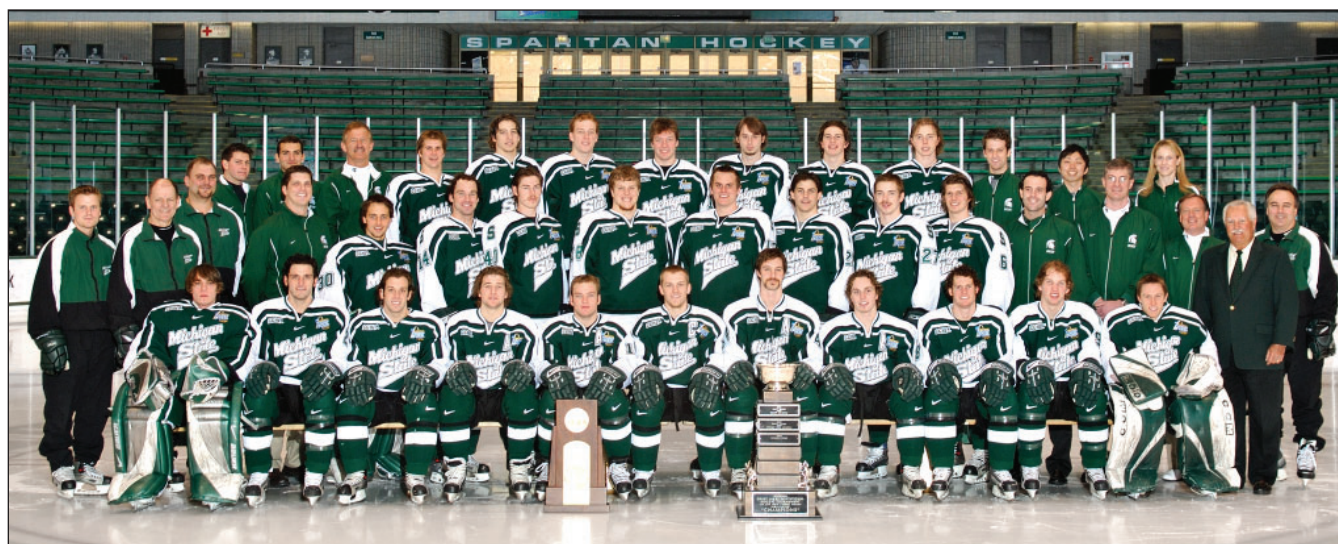

Comley captured his first title at MSU and the second of his career - he also won it all with Northern Michigan in 1991. He and Boston College's Jerry York are among three coaches to win championships at two schools.

Boston College's success on the power play was a key to its drive to the final, with a 35.6 success rate and three goals in the semifinals against North Dakota. Michigan State held the Eagles to 1-for-4 with the man advantage and was 17-for-18 on the penalty kill in the tournament.

The 5-foot-6 Lerg made his biggest save of the game when he stopped Brian Boyle on a 2-on-1 short-handed break early in the third period, keeping it a one-goal game. He pumped his glove after the stop.

Trailing 1-0 after a second-period Boyle goal for BC, Kennedy tied it at 1 midway through the third period on a power play, breaking in alone after a faceoff just outside the zone and beating Schneider to the stick side. Kennedy has 18 goals, five in the last seven games.

Michigan State was the second No. 3 seed to make it to the championship game since the bracket was expanded to 16 teams in 2003. Boston College made it in 2006 as a No. 3 seed.

the hobey baker memorial award

Since 1981, Hobey Baker Memorial Award has been presented annually to the outstanding college hockey player in the United States by the Decathlon Athletic Club of Bloomington, Minn. Michigan State boasts 17 Hobey Baker Finalists, while two Spartans have won this prestigious honor - Kip Miller (1990) and Ryan Miller (2001). Taro Hirose was the most recent finalist in 2019.

The award is named after college hockey great Hobey Baker of Princeton, a member of both the United States Hockey Hall of Fame in Eveleth, Minn., and the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto. Also a standout in football, he is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, and the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta.

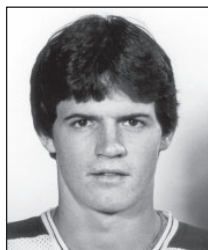

Hobart Amory Hare Baker was born in Philadelphia in 1892 and began his hockey career at age 14 at St. Paul's Prep School in Concord, N.H. Hobey took his athletic prowess to Princeton, where his brilliant skating and stickhandling abilities allowed him to dominate the college game and lead Princeton to the Intercollegiate League Championship in each of his three years of varsity hockey (1911-14). He added to his physical prowess the exemplary qualities of being a completely unselfish sportsman and an opponent of publicity. Facts about Baker's career often sound more like myths, such as the story of his playing every second of a 73-minute game against Harvard, or the claim that he was penalized just twice during his career, and both times the mere suggestion that he had violated a rule of the game nearly drove him to tears.

Baker worked in the business world following his graduation from Princeton but, believing U.S. involvement in the first World War was near, took up flying and was commissioned as a lieutenant in the Army in 1917. He was with the first group of American pilots sent to France and was honored with the Croix de Guerre after bringing down three enemy planes during the Great War. Following the armistice, Hobey decided he would take one last flight in his fighter before heading back to the States. It would be his last flight – Hobart Amory Hare Baker died after his plane crashed just a quarter mile after taking off. He was 26.

1990 recipient • kip miller

Kip Miller won the 1990 Hobey Baker Memorial Award winner after leading the nation in scoring for the second consecutive season (48-53-101). He was the CCHA Player of the Year after leading the conference in scoring (36-38-74) and also was the Hockey News/Bauer College Hockey Player of the Year.

A two-time Hobey finalist and First Team All-America selection, Miller finished his career with 116 goals and 145 assists. In addition to leading the country in scoring as a senior in 1989-90, he shared the national scoring lead in 1988-89 with teammate (and fellow Hobey finalist) Bobby Reynolds.

Over the course of his four collegiate seasons, Miller helped the Spartans to three CCHA regular-season and tournament titles and four straight NCAA Tournament bids, including Frozen Four appearances in both 1987 and 1989.

2001 recipient • ryan miller

Goaltender Ryan Miller won the 2001 Hobey Baker Memorial Award 11 seasons after his cousin, Kip, accomplished the feat. The Millers joined Harvard's Fusco brothers - Scott (1983) and Mark (1986) - as the only relatives to win the Hobey.

Miller put together arguably the most impressive single-season effort in college hockey history during his final season at MSU. The East Lansing native boasted a 1.32 GAA, .950 save percentage, 10 shutouts, and a 31-5-4 record. He led the nation in five statistical categories, and the Hobey capped off a season in which Miller also earned First Team All-America honors, CCHA Player of the Year kudos, and was the CCHA Tournament MVP.

In his career, he helped MSU to two Frozen Four appearances (1999, 2001), three NCAA Tournament bids, a pair of CCHA regular-season titles, and two CCHA Tournament titles. Miller left MSU as the all-time NCAA career leader in goals against average (1.54), save percentage (.941) and shutouts (26).

spartan olympians

Nineteen Spartans representing five different countries have had the honor of wearing their country's colors in the Olympic Games, and eight have combined to win 10 medals in Olympic competition.

The 2018 Games in Pyeongchang featured two Spartans playing in their first Olympics as Jim Slater represented the U.S. while Brock Radunske played for South Korea.

The Winter Games of 2010 were groundbreaking for MSU, as the Spartans boasted double medal-winners for the first time since Weldon Olson and Gene Grazia were teammates in 1960. Duncan Keith won gold with Team Canada in a dramatic overtime victory over the US in the gold-medal game. Ryan Miller (top) backstopped the US in the tournament, and was the Olympic MVP for his performance in Vancouver.

Keith became the first Spartan to win two gold medals, claiming his second at the 2014 Olympic Games in Sochi, Russia.

nhl draft

A total of 130 current and former Spartans have been selected in the NHL's entry and supplemental drafts. Among those selections are Joe Murphy, picked No. 1 overall by the Detroit Red Wings in 1986, and a pair of No. 2 selections - Artyom Levshunov in 2024 (Chicago Blackhawks) and Craig Simpson in 1985 (Pittsburgh Penguins.)

Since 2000, 47 Spartans have been chosen in the NHL Entry Draft, including 15 in the first or second round. The Spartans had two players chosen in the 2024 draft in Las Vegas (Artyom Levshunov and Patrick Geary), and have eight drafted players on the 2024-25 roster.
