BLUE RAIDER NETWORK

Blue Raider football is on the air! The 2013 football season marks the seventh year of the Blue Raider Network under the umbrella of a joint venture between Middle Tennessee athletics and Nelligan Sports Marketing. Nelligan started managing the exclusive athletics marketing rights in January 2007.

The Blue Raider Network, which actually debuted in the early 1960s, is blessed with two flagship stations for football and men's basketball, including WPRT 102.5 The Game in Nashville and WGNS AM-FM in Murfreesboro.

Middle Tennessee fans throughout the southeast region also can follow their favorite teams on WMOT FM 89.5, which reaches a three-state coverage area.

The combination of these three stations provides coverage to Middle Tennessee sports fans in a 100-mile radius of Murfreesboro.

WGNS and 102.5 The Game will carry all Blue Raider football and men's basketball games along with the Rick Stockstill and Kermit Davis radio shows.

WGNS, which made its return to carrying Blue Raider athletics in 2005, blankets the local area by reaching to McMinnville to the east, Columbia to the west, and Gallatin to the north.

Campus station WMOT 89.5 FM will also broadcast football and men's and women's basketball games for Middle Tennessee in 2013-14. WMOT, a 100,000-watt station, reaches beyond Bowling Green, Ky., to the north, Cookeville, Tenn., to the east, and Huntsville, Ala. to the south.

WDUC FM 93.9 The Duck, joined the network in 2012-13 and will provide additional coverage in southern middle Tennessee and northern Alabama.

All Blue Raider football, men's and women's basketball, and baseball broadcasts can also be heard on the Internet at GoBlueRaiders.com.

RICK STOCKSTILL RADIO SHOW

The Blue Raider Network carries Rick Stockstill LIVE on WMOT, WPRT, and WGNS AM-FM each Monday night from 7:00 to 8:00 PM. The show originates from Sam's All-American Sports Grill in Murfreesboro during the season and is open to the public.

COVERING MT

Weekly Press Conference

Coach Stockstill will conduct a weekly press conference each Tuesday prior to a Middle Tennessee game. The conference, which will be shown live on GoBlueRaiders.com, will begin at noon CST and will take place in the Kennon Sports Hall of Fame building. Following Stockstill's presentation there will be selected players available for interviews with the media.

Practice Coverage

During preseason camp in August, the first week of drills will be open to the public and media. After the first week through the first game of the season, practices will be closed to the public and open to the media for the first 30 minutes. Interviews will be conducted after practice and all media, including photographers, must observe drills from the sideline or bleacher area during those 30 minutes.

Practices may be closed at any time subject to the head coach's request.

Stockstill Interviews

All interviews with Coach Stockstill should be directed through the Athletic Communications Office.

Player Interviews

During the week of games, all player interviews must be conducted by the end of practice on Wednesday. Please request interviews at least 24 hours in advance and go through the Athletic Communications Office.

GAMEDAY INFO

Working Credentials

Arrangements for media credentials for the 2013 football season should be directed to the Athletic Communications Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Mark Owens. Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Blue Raider football on a regular basis. Student publications will be limited to one working credential and one sideline photo pass. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space-available basis.

Press Parking

Parking space can be reserved with a request received by Middle Tennessee's Athletic Communications Office at least one working day prior to the game. The athletic communications office will send out parking directions in advance of the game. Satellite trucks will park on the north side of the pressbox and will enter off Middle Tennessee Boulevard just before the Faulkinberry Road entrance.

Photographers

Only accredited photographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. In accordance with NCAA rules, no freelance photographers will be admitted to the sidelines or press box camera deck. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines (the team areas). A photographer work room will be set up for each game with directions to the area set up outside Gate 2 of the stadium. The room is inside Murphy Center and internet access will be available.

Media Will-Call

A media will-call window will be operated on game days at Floyd Stadium for the distribution of credentials that have not yet been picked up or mailed out. The designated pickup area is located at Gate 1A (southwest corner of stadium on Faulkinberry Drive).

Radio Coverage

Radio broadcast permission must be obtained in advance, along with Press Box reservations. Middle Tennessee maintains two courtesy lines, an ISDN line and a dry pair line for use by schools who can provide reciprocal arrangements for the Blue Raider Network.

MEDIA SERVICES

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for the conference and each of its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Press Box Services

Complete individual and team statistics, play-by-play, and postgame quotes will be available to the media following each game. One hour prior to kickoff, media packets containing game programs, flipcards, updated stats, and game notes will be distributed in the media working area. Live running statistics are also available via monitors throughout the press box and on the internet at GoBlueRaiders.com during the game. A pregame meal is served in the dining area of the press box 90 minutes before kickoff.

Internet Access

The Floyd Stadium press box is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to utilize the wireless Internet simply need to click on the Internet and use the Guest option located at the bottom of the screen. A number of Ethernet lines are also available, and media members are encouraged to bring their own cable.

Internet Guidelines

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of Middle Tennessee's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and an outlet's agreement to abide by any restrictions Middle Tennessee may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by MT may result in revocation of press credentials.

Middle Tennessee reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real-time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet ("real time" is defined as any online media providing live, continual play-by-play coverage; in-game statistics; digital photographs; or audio or video of an event).

Postgame Interviews

After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and Coach Stockstill will be made available to members of the media. The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, interviews will be conducted in the Green Room located in the southeast corner of Murphy Center. On the road, requested players and Coach Stockstill will be brought to a designated area outside the locker room.

Conference USA officially received a new look July 1, 2013, while maintaining the same commitment to excellence, integrity and leadership in athletics, academics and in our communities.

Eight institutions, including the return of charter member Charlotte along with FIU, Florida Atlantic, Louisiana Tech, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion and UTSA, joins with East Carolina, Marshall, Rice, Southern Miss, Tulane, Tulsa, UAB and UTEP.

From its beginning in 1995, Conference USA's dedication to excellence has been the league's guiding principle and remains a common thread today and for a promising future. Throughout the changes during the C-USA history, the conference has held onto its strong foundation that reflects the league's national presence. These 16 schools have compiled numerous athletic and academic achievements. Additionally, the C-USA footprint will grow by nearly 20 percent, while providing the geography that allows for a divisional scheduling model that will be beneficial to the student-athletes, fan-friendly and cost effective.

Conference USA sponsors competition in 20 sports - nine for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis and indoor and outdoor track and field) and 11 for women (basketball, cross country, golf, rowing, softball, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball).

The league sponsors numerous academic awards, including the Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom, in addition to sport specific All-Academic teams.

C-USA annually awards 12 postgraduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Award, Scholar Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award. Conference USA also added a Spirit of Service Award, recognizing student-athletes three times a year for a combination of significant community service efforts, good academic standing and participation in their elected sport.

SUCCESS ON THE PLAYING FIELD

Conference USA performers have achieved great success in competition, placing the league among the top conferences in the nation.

The league has also had nine national champions in NCAA track and field competition, one national champion in diving and numerous NCAA individual and team competitors in cross country, golf, swimming, tennis and track and field. Overall, Conference USA teams and individuals have made more than 700 NCAA appearances.

SUCCESS OFF THE FIELD

C-USA institutions are among the nation's best in academic performance among student-athletes, bolstered by the fact that student-athletes at league schools have a higher graduation rate than the general student population. Among C-USA's 5,000 student-athletes, there are champions off the playing field as well. In 18 years, 176 student-athletes earned national Capital One Academic All-America honors, while 618 were named All-District. In addition, more than 26,000 student-athletes have been named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll or received the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom.

C-USA ON TV

C-USA enjoys significant television exposure through partnerships with FOX Sports Media Group, CBS Sports Network and ESPN. The multi-tiered selection process that is rooted in partnering with all three networks has substantially increased the number of national and regional appearances for football, men's and women's basketball, and all other C-USA sports.

As one the largest FBS conferences in 2013, C-USA membership will include institutions in 12 of the Top 65 television markets, eight in the Top 40 and four in the Top 25 media markets according to Nielson. C-USA home markets next year will include more than 14.5 million TV households, a 43 percent increase from a year ago.

C-USA DIGITAL NETWORK

The C-USA Digital Network officially launched in August of 2011. Network programming includes live streaming of non-televised events, video on demand, a weekly C-USA studio show, podcasting, regular-season and championship event highlights and conference-produced feature stories. In its first year, 1,164 events were streamed live and 8,126 videos were posted and available on the C-USA Digital Network, and that number just keeps growing. Monthly and yearly subscriptions offer fans access to events offered on all of the C-USA member institution's athletic websites as well as C-USA network programming.

C-USA IN THE COMMUNITY

The conference's current footprint is concentrated with 16 members in nine states and a combined area population of nearly 17 million. With a commitment to community involvement, the conference developed several initiatives to maintain strong ties in C-USA cities, as well as with fans and alumni across the country. C-USA schools also place a priority on giving back to their communities through volunteer service with local and national organizations. Individually, student-athletes are recognized each season through the Spirit of Service award.

GOVERNANCE

Conference USA has significant representation in the NCAA governance structure. The Presidents of the member institutions serve as the league's Board of Directors.

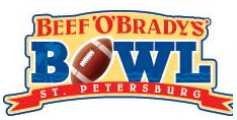

A PROUD HISTORY

Conference USA was formed in 1995 and quickly emerged as one of the nation's top conferences. The conference unveiled its name, logo and commissioner April 24, 1995 in Chicago. The league's charter members included Charlotte, Cincinnati, DePaul, Houston, Louisville, Marquette, Memphis, Saint Louis, Southern Miss, Tulane, UAB and USF. Eleven of the institutions began athletic participation in 1995, while Houston joined competition in the fall of 1996.

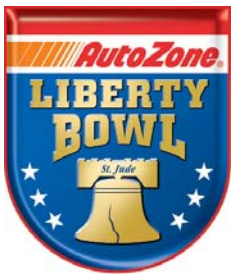

The league's headquarters were established in Chicago and, after nine years, relocated to the current office in Irving, Texas. Britton Banowsky was named Commissioner in October 2002, succeeding Mike Slive, the league's first commissioner.

C-USA added East Carolina (September, 1996) and the United States Military Academy (March, 1997) as football members. ECU began league competition in 1997; Army in 1998 and UAB began football play in 1999. The league added TCU and ECU (1999) for all sports and they began competition in 2001. USF started C-USA football in 2003. Marshall, Rice, SMU, Tulsa, UCF and UTEP became full-time members of Conference USA in 2005.

2013 C-USA BOWL SYNOPSIS

Conference USA has guaranteed spots in six games during the 2013 season. The AutoZone Liberty Bowl has the top selection of C-USA teams and the league will also send teams to the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg, Heart of Dallas Bowl, Military Bowl, R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl and Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl this season.

The 55th annual AutoZone Liberty Bowl is scheduled for Tuesday, December 31 in Memphis. The AutoZone Liberty Bowl matches the first selection from Conference USA against an opponent from either the Southeastern Conference or the American Athletic Conference in a game that will air on ESPN with a 3 p.m. CT kickoff.

For the sixth straight year, C-USA will play in the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg will take place on Monday, December 23 at 1 p.m. ET. Conference USA will face an opponent from the American Athletic Conference at Tropicana Field in a game that will air on ESPN.

C-USA will participate in the fourth annual Heart of Dallas Bowl at historic Cotton Bowl Stadium on New Year's Day. The league's representative will face an opponent from the Big Ten Conference in a game that will air on ESPNU, beginning at 11 a.m. CT.

Conference USA is scheduled to participate in the R+L Carriers New Orleans for the 10th time in 12 seasons when it plays in the Saturday, December 21st contest. C-USA will play a representative from the Sun Belt Conference at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, beginning at 8 p.m. CT on ESPN.

For the 10th time in the bowl's 12-year history, C-USA will compete in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl on Tuesday, December 24 in Honolulu. The league's representative will face a Mountain West Conference opponent in the game, which will kick off at 3 p.m. HT (8 p.m. ET) and be televised by ESPN.

The league also has an agreement to play an opponent from the ACC in the Washington, D.C.-based Military Bowl. This year's game will be played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis, Md. on Friday, December 27 at 2:30 p.m. ET on ESPN.

It is important to note that a Conference USA champion may qualify for the Bowl Championship Series if ranked in the BCS final Top 12 or, in the BCS Top 16 and ranked higher than a team which receives automatic qualification.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES ABOUT THE BCS

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a five-game arrangement for post-season college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other games. The bowl games participating are the Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl. In addition, a BCS National Championship Game will be played at one of the bowl sites.

BCS RANKINGS

The BCS Standings, have been compiled by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame since the beginning of the 2000 regular-season. The BCS Standings determine which teams play in the National Championship game, and which are included in the pool of eligible teams available for at-large selection. The BCS Standings include the Harris Poll, the USA Today Coaches poll and an average of six computer polls. Each component will count for one-third of a team's overall BCS score in the BCS Standings.

C-USA AND THE BCS

The Conference USA champion (along with the champions of the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference, the Sun Belt Conference, and the Western Athletic Conference) will have an automatic berth in one of the five bowls if, and only if: *It is a Conference Champion; and Either: *It is ranked in the top 12 of the BCS Standings on Bowl Selection Sunday; *It is ranked in the top 16 of the BCS Standings on Bowl Selection Sunday, and its ranking in the BCS Standings is better than that of a champion of a Conference that has an annual automatic berth in one of the BCS bowl games.

COACHES & STAFF

RICK STOCKSTILL

Head Coach | 8th Season | 43-44 Record at MT
Florida State, 1982
2-Time SBC Coach of the Year
@CoachStock

Winning on the field, off the field and having a first-class football program from top to bottom is the goal of any University at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics. That is exactly what Middle Tennessee has as a result of the leadership of Head Coach Rick Stockstill.

Entering his eighth season at the helm of the Blue Raiders, Stockstill has captured a league title, won the 2009 New Orleans Bowl, made three bowl appearances, earned two public recognition awards from the NCAA for APR success, appeared on national television a school record 20 times, and produced six of the top eight crowds in Floyd Stadium history.

Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have also produced five all-American's, including one academic all-American, three defensive players of the year, and a bowl game MVP. Middle Tennessee also became the first Sun Belt team to win 10 games in a season, and set the Floyd Stadium single-game attendance record. He also has three NFL Draft picks with Erik Walden in 2008, Chris McCoy in 2010, and Rod Issac in 2011.

Some regard the 2012 season as his best coaching job after leading the Blue Raiders to the nation's biggest win improvement from the previous year. His seventh MT squad went 8-4, won an FBS school record five road games, received votes in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll three straight weeks, and upset ACC Coastal Division Champion Georgia Tech. Along the way, he produced a freshman all-American, eight all-conference players, and a national offensive player of the week.

In 2010, Stockstill's team battled back from a tough start to make back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history. The coach also had an Academic All-American in Jeremy Kellem, the SBC Defensive Player of the Year in Jamari Lattimore, and a total of nine players who were recognized on the All-Conference team.

The 2009 season was one for the record books as that squad accomplished what few believed possible with an FBS-record 10 wins, a final ranking of 33rd nationally in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll, a bowl victory, a seven-game winning streak, the most Sun Belt victories in school history, five road victories, and a second straight undefeated month of November. It all resulted in Stockstill being named Sun Belt Conference Co-Coach of the Year and 11 players earning All-Conference honors, including co-Defensive Player of the Year Chris McCoy, who was taken in the 7th round of the NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. To top things off, quarterback Dwight Dasher earned New Orleans Bowl MVP honors and became just the fourth player in NCAA history to pass for more than 2,500 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.

Stockstill, who owns upsets over Maryland (2008 and 2009) and Georgia Tech (2012), has also shown a commitment to academics during his tenure. The Blue Raiders have gone from an APR score of 892 to a very impressive 983, the biggest increase of any program in the country. The Blue Raiders have also been crowned with the Sun Belt Conference Academic Award on two occasions (2006-07, 2007-08) and earned two public recognition awards from the NCAA for APR success (2011, 2012). For his efforts, Stockstill was inducted as an honorary member into Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society in April 2010.

After 24 years as an assistant, Stockstill was given the chance to run his own program, and all he did was lead the Blue Raiders to a 2006 Sun Belt Conference championship, help set a new single-season attendance record, and take the program to its first postseason bowl game in the I-A era. Taking a Middle Tennessee team predicted to finish sixth in the Sun Belt during the preseason to a league title, Stockstill ended up as the 2006 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and the Tennessee Sports Writers Association Coach of the Year while also garnering that honor from ESPN.com.

Stockstill's teams have amassed the top four tackles for loss and quarterback sack totals in school history and have produced the Sun Belt's top touchdown scorer twice. Individual players have 47 All-Conference honors and two Player of the Year Awards, and there have been four different National Player of the Week winners.

During the 2006 championship run, Stockstill and his staff developed an All-American, 11 All-Conference players, 11 SBC Player of the Week winners, a consensus National Defensive Player of the Week (Damon Nickson won the Walter Camp and the Bronco Nagurski awards), and the school's all-time sacks leader (Erik Walden). Much of the team's success was attributed to their play on the road that year; the Blue Raiders won four conference road games. Only 10 other teams nationally could stake that claim.

Along with his extensive background in collegiate coaching circles, the driven and determined Stockstill has had the advantage of working alongside some of the greatest minds in college football history.

Stockstill, who made his way to Murfreesboro after spending the previous two years at South Carolina, has worked with legendary coaches Lou Holtz, Steve Spurrier, Danny Ford, Tommy Bowden, Ken Hatfield, and Tommy West.

Stockstill demonstrated the ability to develop and coach big-time players throughout his career as an assistant. He joined the Gamecock staff in December 2003 and immediately made an impact in recruiting. Stockstill coached the Gamecock tight ends and served as recruiting coordinator in 2005 and was the wide receivers coach in 2004.

Before joining Holtz's staff at South Carolina, Stockstill was the offensive coordinator at East Carolina in 2003.

In his first year at South Carolina, Stockstill coached Troy Williamson to one of the best seasons ever for a Gamecock receiver. Williamson made 43 receptions for 835 yards (75.9 per game average) and seven touchdowns. Williamson's 835 receiving yards put him among the single-season leaders at USC, along with his seven touchdowns. Williamson was taken as the seventh pick in the 2005 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

In addition to his on-field coaching at Carolina, Stockstill coordinated the signing of a top-20 recruiting class for the Gamecocks in his first season and was recognized as one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com.

From 1989 to 2002, Stockstill was on the coaching staff at Clemson, where he helped lead the Tigers to some of their most proficient offensive performances in school history. He served in a variety of capacities during his tenure with Clemson, working as recruiting coordinator, wide receivers coach, co-offensive coordinator, passing game coordinator, and quarterbacks coach. One of his prize pupils was All-America wide receiver Rod Gardner, who was the number 15 pick of the 2001 NFL Draft. Stockstill played an integral role in Clemson's offense, which set more than 100 school records from 1998 to 2002.

Stockstill is credited with recruiting Clemson's all-time leading rusher (Raymond Priester), third all-time leading passer (Woodrow Dantzler), and number three and number four all-time leading receivers (Derrick Hamilton and Rod Gardner). As a coach, Stockstill has been a part of 15 bowl games, including three as a head coach.

Stockstill also has coaching experience at the University of Central Florida (1985-88), where he tutored wide receiver Shawn Jefferson, who went on to a 13-year career in the NFL, and at Bethune-Cookman College (1983-84).

Born Dec. 23, 1957 in Sidney, Ohio, Stockstill grew up in Georgetown, Ky., and then moved to Fernandina Beach, Fla., where he was inducted into the Fernandina Beach Hall of Fame in 2006. He was a three-year letterman at Florida State as a quarterback, where he was team captain and earned Honorable Mention All-America honors in 1981 under Coach Bobby Bowden. During his career at FSU, the Seminoles had two top-10 final Associated Press rankings and had wins over powers Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Ohio State, and Nebraska. Stockstill, who received his bachelor's degree from FSU in 1982, made three bowl trips with the Seminoles.

Stockstill and his wife, the former Sara Fleischman, have a son, Brent, and a daughter, Emily.

DAVID BIBEE

Safeties | 6th Season
Tennessee, 1977

David Bibee is in his second stint at Middle Tennessee, having joined Rick Stockstill's staff in 2008 after two years at Chattanooga. Bibee will be in charge of the Blue Raider safeties for the sixth straight season.

Bibee was faced with breaking in two new starters in 2012 so he turned to Kevin Byard and Jajuan Harley. The pair registered 74 tackles each, combined for seven interceptions and forced three fumbles. Byard went on to earn FWAA Freshman All-American honors and Harley was a two-time Defensive Player of the Week winner.

The 2011 campaign saw the Blue Raiders rank 44th nationally in pass defense thanks to a career year by safety Eric Russell. Russell led the team in tackles and interceptions, while ranking second in tackles for loss.

Bibee's 2010 unit was once again very solid behind the play of All-Conference pick Jeremy Kellem, Kevin Brown, and Derrick Crumpton. The threesome combined for 15 pass breakups and helped the Blue Raiders have the nation's 30th ranked pass defense.

In 2009, his safeties had eight interceptions, nine tackles for loss, 12 breakups, three sacks, and three fumble recoveries in helping the Blue Raiders finish second in the Sun Belt in pass defense. Kellem and Brown were 4th and 6th on the team in tackles, and Kellem earned First Team All-Conference honors.

Bibee, who has 32 years of coaching experience including 25 on the collegiate level, has served as an assistant coach at Ole Miss, North Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Austin Peay State, Appalachian State, South Carolina, Tennessee Tech, Clemson, East Tennessee State, and Chattanooga.

He has coached a Super Bowl Most Valuable Player in former Dallas Cowboys cornerback Larry Brown, seven All-Americans including the Blue Raiders' all-time tackles for loss leader Dennis Mix, and nine NFL draft picks. His list of draft picks coached includes former Blue Raider great James Griffin; Clemson safety Antwan Edwards, a first-round selection by the Green Bay Packers; and former Baylor High School and Virginia kicker Kurt Smith of the San Diego Chargers. Bibee has also had five different safeties at MT earn player of the week honors.

Prior to his stint at Chattanooga, Bibee worked in the local high school ranks as head football coach at Baylor School in Chattanooga from 2000 to 2005. He guided the Red Raiders to the Division II state semifinals in 2000 and 2005. After the 2005 season, Baylor defensive lineman Jacques McClendon was elected Division II Class AAA Mr. Football Lineman of the Year and was later drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round.

McClendon received a scholarship to play football at the University of Tennessee, and 24 other players went on to sign scholarship agreements.

Bibee's coaching career began at Tennessee, where he served as a student assistant for Coach Bill Battle. He moved on to the staff at Ole Miss in 1978, where he was placed in charge of the defensive scout teams on Steve Sloan's first Rebels' staff.

He left Ole Miss to coach the defensive secondary and work as recruiting coordinator at North Alabama for one year and held the same positions for one year at Middle Tennessee (1980).

Sparky Woods hired Bibee at Appalachian State in 1984 to be his assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator and secondary coach. Bibee helped the Mountaineers compile a 38-19 overall record during that span, with back-to-back Southern Conference titles in 1986 and 1987. The Mountaineers ranked first, third, and fifth nationally in scoring defense during his tenure.

Bibee joined Woods at South Carolina in 1989 to work as assistant head coach, co-defensive coordinator, and secondary coach.

He was part of Mike Hennigan's first coaching staff at Tennessee Tech in 1996, holding the posts of defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator for the Golden Eagles for one season. He coached alongside current Atlanta Falcon Head Coach Mike Smith.

Prior to heading to the Baylor School, Bibee coached the secondary and outside linebackers at Clemson from 1997 to 1999, where he was on staff with Stockstill. Working for head coach Tommy West, Bibee helped the Tigers to a Peach Bowl berth in 1997.

Bibee is a 1977 graduate of the University of Tennessee, where he earned a bachelor's degree in health education. He played football for the Volunteers from 1973 to 1976 and was a member of the 1973 Gator Bowl team and the 1974 Liberty Bowl squad.

Bibee is married to the former Lisa Carter of Savannah, Tenn. The couple has three daughters, twins Ashlee and Allison, and Lindsay.

JOE CAUTHEN

Defensive Line | 3rd Season
Stephen F. Austin, 1990

Joe Cauthen is in his third season as a member of Rick Stockstill's staff at Middle Tennessee. Cauthen, who coached linebackers and was the special team's coordinator in 2011, will handle the defensive line for the second straight season. He also remains as the special team's coordinator.

Cauthen, 49, made his way to Middle Tennessee after spending the previous four seasons at Valdosta State as the Blazers defensive coordinator.

In his first year guiding the defensive line, Cauthen molded a young group that showed marked improvement from 2011. Omar McLendon earned all-conference honors while Kendall Dangerfield and Jimmy Staten enjoyed career years.

In 2010, Cauthen helped lead Valdosta State to a Gulf South Conference Championship after his defense finished ranked 23rd nationally in total defense and 18th in scoring defense. His unit was led by All-American (both coaches and SIDs) and National Defensive Player of the Year Larry Dean. Dean, who had 122 tackles, became the first player in school history to earn the player of the year award.

Cauthen molded a solid group in 2009 despite losing seven starters off the 2008 squad and seeing two more suffer season-ending injuries over the course of the first three games. Under his direction, the Blazers still managed to register 68 TFLs, 18 sacks, and force 19 turnovers while giving up just 112.9 yards per game on the ground.

Cauthen's defense was dominant during the 2008 season as it finished 31st nationally in total defense and 24th in scoring defense. The Blazers allowed opponents just 304.6 yards per game during his second season with the school while surrendering just 18.6 points per outing. On the rushing side, the Blazers only allowed 108.3 yards per game to rank 31st in the nation while opponents found throwing the ball even tougher as they were held to a 104.91 efficiency rating, a number that ranked VSU 20th nationally.

In 2007, Cauthen directed a unit that finished 14th in the nation in scoring defense at 17.6 points per game as VSU won its second national title. Cauthen's knowledge of the defensive side of the ball was no more evident than in the 2007 NCAA Championship game, where his scheme held Northwest Missouri State running back Xavier Omon, who had averaged 236 yards a game in three previous playoff contests, to just 63 yards on 27 carries, an average of 2.3 yards per carry.

Cauthen's aggressive, ball-hawking defensive approach helped VSU lead the nation in passes intercepted with 27 in 2007 while finishing second in turnovers gained with 40. Additionally, Valdosta State was 25th in passing efficiency defense (105.9) and 33rd in rushing defense (120.9 yards per game).

Cauthen's ability to teach the game of football helped several Blazers earn individual honors during his tenure. He had two players earn three All-America honors, five named All-Region, and 13 make All-Conference. Cauthen's tutelage also helped Sherard Reynolds earn GSC All-Decade Team honors after the 2009 season, the only VSU defensive player to earn first team honors on that list.

Cauthen joined the Blazers after eight seasons with Texas A&M-Commerce, during which the Lions consistently ranked among the top defenses in the nation. A&M-Commerce led the Lone Star Conference and was ranked 23rd nationally in total defense in 2006 as the Lions compiled a 5-5 mark. Cauthen's defense surrendered just 258.3 yards per game, including 95.3 on the ground and 163.0 through the air. The Lions allowed just 15.1 points per game, 19th-best nationally, and were 24th in rushing defense.

The Lions were equally as impressive in 2005 as they again led the Lone Star Conference in total defense (318.9 yards a game), rushing defense (127.4 yards per game) and scoring defense (18.3 points an outing). A&M-Commerce was 47th nationally in total defense and 42nd in rushing defense while finishing 22nd in scoring defense. Additionally, under Cauthen's leadership, Lion linebacker J.D. Hearn led the nation in tackles in 2005 and earned eight national post-season awards.

During his seven seasons with the Lions, Cauthen coached six All-Americans, four Lone Star Conference linebackers of the year, three defensive lineman of the year, a defensive back of the year and 34 defensive players that earned All-Lone Star Conference at least once during their career.

Cauthen spent little time in establishing his mark on the Texas A&M-Commerce defense as in just his third year he directed a defense that ranked second in the league in total defense, first against the run, second against the pass and third in scoring defense. Two years later, his 2003 defense was fourth in the 15-team league and 41st nationally in total defense.

Cauthen joined the Lion staff in 1999 after two seasons at I-AA Stephen F. Austin. He began his tenure with SFA as a restricted earnings coach in 1997 before becoming full-time in 1998. He worked with the defensive line during his two seasons and aided the Lumberjacks to an 11-11 overall record. Cauthen's line was instrumental in Stephen F. Austin finishing the 1997 season ranked 21st in the nation in the final national poll.

Cauthen earned his Bachelor's in Health and Kinesiology with a minor in Biology from Stephen F. Austin in 1990. He also obtained a Master's in Sports Administration from the University of Texas-Tyler in 1997.

Cauthen is married to the former Karen Belson of Houston, Texas. The couple has three children, Brooklyn, Dakota and Jackson.

STEVE ELLIS

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Corners | 5th Season
Nicholls State, 2003

Steve Ellis, who spent his first two years as cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator for the Blue Raiders, was elevated to defensive coordinator in January 2011. Ellis, who will have the title of co-defensive coordinator for the second straight year in 2013, also serves as the cornerbacks coach for the defense.

Ellis teamed with Tyrone Nix in 2012 to make vast improvements on the Blue Raider defense. The unit improved 48 spots in the national rankings in scoring defense, 29 in rushing defense, and made a jump of 10 in total defense from 2011.

Ellis produced a First Team All-Conference selection in Rod Issac and helped the defense lead the league in pass defense for a second consecutive season in 2010. Starters Issac and Arness Ikner accounted for four interceptions and 10 pass breakups, and Issac scored twice. Issac was also taken in the fifth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Ellis' special teams were solid once again (with six blocked kicks) and produced First Team All-Conference picks in placekicker Alan Gendreau and punter Josh Davis.

In 2009, Ellis' cornerbacks had 152 tackles, nine interceptions, 12 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, and 21 pass breakups on their way to leading the Sun Belt Conference in pass defense and interceptions. Seniors Marcus Udell and Alex Suber were tabbed First Team All-Conference as Udell led the league with seven interceptions and Suber had 12 pass breakups while ranking 28th nationally in passes defended.

His special teams blocked eight kicks, hit 18 of 22 field goal attempts, had 1,119 yards in kick returns, downed 22 punts inside the 20-yard line, and had seven punts of 50 yards or more. Sophomore placekicker Alan Gendreau earned First Team All-Conference honors.

Ellis made his way to Murfreesboro after serving the previous six seasons at Nicholls State, where he was the defensive coordinator his final three years. Ellis, who also served as the team's pro liaison and supervised academic progress, was the team's safeties coach in 2003 before taking over the linebackers in 2004 and 2005.

BUSTER FAULKNER

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks | 3rd Season
Valdosta State, 2005

@Buster_Faulkner

Buster Faulkner begins his third season on Rick Stockstill's staff and second as the programs offensive coordinator after being elevated to the post in February 2012. Faulkner also serves as quarterbacks coach for the third straight season.

Under his leadership, the 2012 unit keyed the Raiders' 8-4 season by re-establishing the running game and protecting the football. Middle Tennessee ranked 46th nationally in rushing and tied for 28th for fewest turnovers lost. The unit also had four games where they rushed for over 200 yards, produced three different 100-yard rushers, and had a Stockstill era best three scoring drives of 97 or more yards. Quarterback Logan Kilgore became just the second signal-caller in school history to have back-to-back 2,000-yard seasons and wide receiver Anthony Amos and center Micah James both earned first team all-conference honors.

In 2011, Faulkner took over the play-calling duties the final seven games of the year after the resignation of Willie Simmons. Faulkner's unit went on to record the fifth most yards of total offense, complete a record 299 passes, while becoming just the second offense in school history to amass over 3,000 passing yards.

Faulkner came to Murfreesboro after serving the 2010 season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Murray State.

In his lone season at MSU, Faulkner's offense broke 27 school records and finished first in the FCS in total plays, pass completions, and completion percentage. The Racer offense racked up nearly 5,000 yards and produced the first 500-yard passer, 200-yard rusher, and 200-yard receiver in the same game in FCS history. The Racers ranked fifth in total offense nationally in 2010 and the year prior to Faulkner's arrival MSU had a ranking of 115.

In 2010, the Racers offense ranked first in the OVC and fifth nationally with 36.09 points per game, while also leading the league in passing offense and ranking fourth nationally with 313.5 yards per contest. The MSU quarterbacks led the country in completions and completion percentage.

Under Faulkner's guidance, quarterback Casey Brockman had just six starts in 2010 but earned second team all-conference honors and was twice picked as the National Player of the Week. Brockman also garnered three OVC Player of the Week awards en route to finishing first in the league and eighth nationally in passing yards per game. Brockman accounted for 313 yards of total offense per game.

Prior to joining the Racers staff, Faulkner spent the 2009 season as the quarterbacks coach at Central Arkansas. UCA's offense averaged 26.2 points a game and 215.8 yards a game through the air and was ranked in the Top 25 nationally in every offensive statistic.

Senior quarterback Robbie Park finished the year going 217-for-358 for 2,434 yards and 12 touchdowns. The yardage total was seventh on the school's all-time single-season list.

Faulkner's coaching career began at Valdosta State, where he served as a student assistant helping with the quarterbacks in 2005.

After one season with the Blazers, he served as an offensive graduate assistant at Georgia, working with the offensive line and quarterbacks.

Faulkner returned to Valdosta State in 2007 and served as the quarterbacks coach for two seasons.

In his first season, the Blazers went 13-1 and captured the Division II National Championship as quarterback Willie Copeland passed for 2,903 yards and 27 touchdowns.

Faulkner took over as the offensive coordinator for the Blazers in 2008. VSU averaged 380.8 yards a game in advancing to the quarterfinals as quarterback Chris Hart earned Freshman of the Year honors. Hart accounted for over 3,000 yards and 27 touchdowns.

As a player, Faulkner starred as a quarterback for Valdosta State from 2000 to 2003. In three years with the Blazers, he passed for 7,100 yards and 64 touchdowns while registering a 47-6 record.

As a sophomore, Faulkner earned first-team all-Gulf South Conference honors and honorable mention All-American accolades after going 327-for-503 for 3,941 yards and 44 touchdowns in leading the Blazers to a 14-1 record and a spot in the National Championship game.

He played his senior season at Texas A&M-Commerce, where he passed for 2,861 and 16 touchdowns, while setting 10 school records.

During his prep career, Faulkner started at quarterback as a sophomore and led Parkview High School to the 1997 Georgia state championship.

A native of Lilburn, Ga., Faulkner earned his bachelor's degree in history from Valdosta State in 2005.

Faulkner, and his wife, Tia, have one son, Harrison, and two daughters, Hadley and Haisley.

Rick MALLORY

Offensive Tackles/Tight Ends | 1st Season
Washington, 1983

@CoachMalloryMT

Rick Mallory, a veteran coach who spent five seasons as a player in the NFL before beginning his coaching career, is in his first year as offensive tackles/tight ends coach at Middle Tennessee as a member of Rick Stockstill's staff.

Mallory, 52, brings 19 years of college coaching experience with him to the Blue Raiders program.

Mallory joins Stockstill's staff after spending the 2012 season working in the high school ranks and the 2011 campaign as the offensive line coach at UAB.

Prior to his one-year stint at UAB, Mallory was the director of football operations at Wyoming in 2010 before serving 10 years as the offensive line coach at the University of Memphis.

Preceding his time in Memphis, Mallory was the tight ends coach at the University of Washington, his alma mater, from 1993-98.

From 2000-09 when Mallory was on the staff at Memphis, the Tigers earned five bowl berths in those 10 seasons.

In 2009, Mallory's offensive line helped pave the way for senior running back Curtis Steele to earn first-team All-Conference USA honors as Steele finished No. 7 in the NCAA in rushing and scoring. Memphis ranked No. 3 in Conference USA in rushing offense in 2009, gaining an average of 158.8 yards per game on the ground. Mallory's '09 offensive line allowed an average of only 1.42 sacks per game to rank No. 35 in the NCAA.

The 2008 Tiger offense ranked 22nd in the nation in rushing offense and 26th in total offense, while ranking 21st in fewest sacks allowed. The year prior in '07, Memphis ranked No. 13 in the NCAA in passing offense, No. 23 in total offense and No. 10 in fewest sacks given up.

From 2002-05, Mallory's offensive line unit blocked for running back DeAngelo Williams, who earned All-America honors in both 2004 and 2005. The 2005 Tiger offense ranked fifth in the nation in rushing offense, and the 2004 edition ranked ninth in total offense. In four of his last six seasons at Memphis, Mallory's offensive line led Conference USA in fewest sacks allowed.

During his time at Memphis, he coached six first-team All-Conference USA offensive linemen, one second-team selection, four third-team honorees and five Conference USA All-Freshman team choices.

Prior to Memphis, Mallory coached at Washington for seven seasons, beginning as a graduate assistant coach in 1992. He became a full-time assistant in `93, coaching the tight ends and special teams from 1993-98. The Huskies earned five bowl berths over that seven-year period

Mallory was a three-year letterman at Washington from 1981-83. As a freshman and sophomore, Mallory played tight end. His junior year, Mallory was converted to offensive guard, and he went on to earn All-Pacific 10 Conference honors his senior season of 1983.

Following his college playing career, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected Mallory in the ninth round of the 1984 NFL Draft. He played for the Buccaneers for five seasons from 1984-88.

He and his wife Shannon have three grown sons: Ryan, Adam and Cameron; and three daughters, Naomi, Fiona, and Layla. Mallory earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Washington in 1983.

TYRONE NIX

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers | 2nd Season
Southern Miss, 1995

Tyrone Nix, one of the most respected coaches in the country, begins his second season at Middle Tennessee. Nix serves as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach on Rick Stockstill's staff.

Nix, who coached on the same staff as Stockstill at South Carolina in 2005, made his way to Murfreesboro after four years at Ole Miss.

In his first season at Middle Tennessee, Nix 2012 defense made huge strides in all areas. The unit improved 48 spots in the national rankings in scoring defense, 29 in rushing defense, and made a jump of 10 in total defense from 2011. He also had a FWAA Freshman All-American in safety Kevin Byard, along with all-conference performer Omar McLendon at defensive end.

In four seasons under Nix, the Ole Miss defense was among the nation's best in tackles for loss and sacks. The unit tied for the nation's lead in TFLs in 2008 and topped the Southeastern Conference again in 2009, and in the sacks category, it finished No. 1 in the SEC in 2008 and No. 2 in 2009. The Rebels ranked 20th in the NCAA in both areas in 20 10.

Nix was promoted to Assistant Head Coach in January 2010.

Nix helped the Rebels show marked improvement since the season before his arrival when the team ranked either 11th of 12th in the SEC in total defense, scoring defense, rush defense and pass efficiency defense.

In 2009, Nix's squad rose to No. 3 in the conference and No. 11 in the nation in pass efficiency defense and No. 15 in the nation in both scoring defense and pass defense. The Rebels were fifth in the SEC in total defense in 2009 and 2008.

Nix's first season with the Rebels provided one of the toughest run-stopping defenses in school history. Ole Miss allowed just 85.5 ypg on the ground, which ranked second in the SEC and fourth in the nation. That season produced a pair of All-Americans in first team tackle Peria Jerry and third team end Greg Hardy.

In 2009, defensive tackle Jerrell Powe and safety Kendrick Lewis earned second team All-SEC honors, linebacker Patrick Trahan was a fourth team selection and linebacker D.T. Shackelford was named to the SEC All-Freshman team. Powe earned second team All-SEC distinction again in 2010 along with linebacker Jonathan Cornell, while linebacker Serderius Bryant was on the SEC All-Freshman team in 2011.

Nix's Ole Miss defense produced four NFL Draft choices, including first-round pick Jerry of the Atlanta Falcons in 2009. Safety Jamarca Sanford was also chosen in 2009 by the Minnesota Vikings, while both Lewis and Hardy were drafted in 2010 by the Kansas City Chiefs and Carolina Panthers, respectively.

In 2007, he coached inside linebackers in addition to managing a Gamecock unit that topped the SEC and ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 168.8 yards through the air.

The USC defense in 2006 was sixth in the SEC and 29th in the country in scoring defense, surrendering 18.7 points per game, 4.5 fewer than in 2005 despite returning just one starter. Junior college transfer Jasper Brinkley led the team in tackles and earned first team All-SEC accolades at linebacker.

In his first year in Columbia, Nix served as co-defensive coordinator and tutored the defensive line. Under his watch, a pair of Gamecocks, cornerback Johnathan Joseph and safety Ko Simpson, were selected in the NFL Draft. In addition, Simpson earned All-America accolades.

During his 10 years on the Southern Miss staff, Nix coached every position on defense and served as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach the last four seasons, when the Golden Eagles' defense was among college football's toughest. From 2001-03, USM was top 15 in the nation in both scoring defense and pass efficiency defense each season.

In 2003, Southern Miss ranked No. 5 in the nation in pass defense, No. 13 in pass efficiency defense, No. 14 in scoring defense and No. 23 in total defense. Nix's coaching efforts were recognized as he was a finalist for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's outstanding assistant coach.

In his 10-year period at Southern Miss, he mentored 12 All-Conference USA selections, four C-USA Defensive Players of the Year and six All-America selections. USM also enjoyed team success, winning four C-USA championships and earning seven postseason bowl berths.

As a player, Nix was a standout linebacker for the Golden Eagles from 1990-93 and was selected as team captain in 1993. He was one of only three true freshmen to play on the 1990 All-American Bowl team.

A native of Attalla, Ala., Nix received his bachelor's degree in management from Southern Miss in 1995. He is married to the former Toya Phelps of Vicksburg, Miss., who holds both bachelors and master's degrees from Southern Miss. The couple has one son, Tyvari, and one daughter, Tiah.

MIKE POLLY

Running Backs | 1st Season
Georgetown College, 2006

@CoachMikePolly

Mike Polly, a former graduate assistant for the Blue Raiders, begins his first season on Rick Stockstill's staff as running backs coach. Polly makes his return to Middle Tennessee after spending three years at Murray State overseeing the offensive tackles and tight ends.

During Polly's three years at MSU, the Racers ranked in the top five nationally in total offense each season while his offensive line helped pave the way for the program's first 1,000-yard rusher in nearly a decade. Polly has added the responsibilities of special team's coordinator in 2011.

In 2012, the Racer offense ranked fifth nationally in total offense, passing offense, and scoring offense. Polly's group also helped all-american signal-caller Casey Brockman rank second nationally in total offense, while all-american receiver Walter Powell was fourth nationally in receptions per game.

The 2011 season saw consistency at the tackle position as Raymond Hopson and Roderick Tomlin combined to start all 11 games. The duo combined to anchor an offensive line that blocked for one of the top offenses in the FCS. Hopson was honored at the end of the season as a second-team all-OVC selection, the first all-conference offensive lineman since 2004.

The Racer offense averaged 460.9 yards of offense and went over 5,000 yards of total offense for just the fourth time in school history.

The offensive line also paved the way for the first 1,000-yard rusher in nearly a decade, and just the 10th in the history of the program. As a team, the Racers rushed for over 150 yards in five games, and closed out the season by eclipsing the 200-yard mark in each of the last two games.

Consistency was also the case with the tackles in 2010 as Hopson and Tomlin combined to start all but one game. The duo anchored the line that allowed just 16 sacks in 515 pass attempts. The Racers allowed one sack or fewer in eight games.

The Racer offense was one of the best in the country as it ranked fourth in passing offense, fifth in total offense and fifth in scoring offense. The line also paved the way for one of the league's best rushing attacks over the second half of the season.

Prior to joining the Racers staff, Polly spent three seasons as an offensive graduate assistant on Stockstill's staff at Middle Tennessee from 2007 to 2009.

In 2009, Polly helped guide an offensive line that paved the way for an offense that accumulated 421.7 yards a game, and allowed just 19 sacks in 436 pass attempts.

The Blue Raiders capped off their best season in school history by defeating Southern Miss in the New Orleans Bowl to finish with a record of 10-3.

He joined the coaching profession at Georgetown College during the Spring of 2007 with film break down, overseeing the weight room, and assisting the offensive line coach during spring drills.

The Erlanger, Ky., native played at Georgetown College, where he helped the Tigers to four-straight Mid-South Conference championships. As a co-captain, he was selected to the All-MSC team as a senior.

Polly's accolades carried over into the classroom as he was a four-time Academic All-MSC selection, as well as being named a Daktronics NAIA Scholar-Athlete three times.

Polly played his prep ball at Dixie Heights High School, where he was a first-team all-state selection.

Polly, who graduated with a degree in marketing in 2006, was also the recipient of the Georgetown College Scholar Athlete of the Year and the No "1" in Team award, which is selected by faculty, staff and students.

He received his master's in sport management from Middle Tennessee in 2008.

GEEP WADE

Offensive Line | 1st Season
Chattanooga, 2001

@GeepWade

Geep Wade is in his first year as a member of Rick Stockstill's staff. Wade will handle the offensive line.

Wade makes his way to Murfreesboro from Marshall where he coached the offensive line in 2012. His 2012 unit helped Marshall register 365.0 passing yards per game (first in FBS), 534.2 yards of total offense (sixth in FBS) and 40.9 points a game (seventh in FBS), all C-USA highs. His line also withstood the pounding of an FBS-high 90.6 plays per game, and paved the way for 24 rushing touchdowns. The offense also produced just over 20 plays of 10 yards or longer per game to lead the nation.

Wade spent two seasons leading the offensive line at Tennessee-Chattanooga, his alma mater (2002 graduate), while also serving as the recruiting coordinator. He returned to the sidelines for his second stint as an assistant coach at UTC after serving on the Mocs' staff in 2002 following his graduation.

Wade was in charge of the tackles and tight ends during the 2010 campaign, helping Chris Harr (OT) and Garrett Hughes (TE) to first team All-SoCon honors. The play of the offensive line allowed the Mocs to finish 11th nationally in total offense (430 yards per game), while the unit threw for an average of 277 yards, second in the SoCon and eighth nationally.

Wade spent the previous four seasons as an assistant coach at Tennessee-Martin, serving as the offensive coordinator in 2009. In 2008, the Skyhawks posted an 8-4 overall record, ranking fourth in the nation in scoring offense (37.33).

In 2007, Wade and the Skyhawk offense ranked No. 1 in the Ohio Valley Conference in total offense (433 yards per game) and points scored per game (33.36). The team finished first in rushing offense (218.5) in the OVC, 12th in the nation.

Before coming to UT Martin in 2006 with head coach Jason Simpson, Wade was an offensive line coach at Western Carolina and Midwestern State in Texas. He also enjoyed a stint at Tennessee where he was an offensive line grad assistant for the Volunteers in 2004, the same year the team won the Southeastern Conference East Division title and the Cotton Bowl. In 2003, Wade coached the offensive line and served as the recruiting coordinator at Mars Hill College.

Wade was a team captain and an offensive lineman at UTC from 1999 to 2001, earning his degree in Business Management in 2002. He is married to the former Amy Howell of McKenzie, Tenn. They have one daughter, Emma Kate.

JUSTIN WATTS

Wide Receivers & Recruiting Coord. | 8th Season
Clemson, 2000

@MT_CoachWatts

A former player under head coach Rick Stockstill, Justin Watts is coaching his eighth season at Middle Tennessee as the program's wide receivers coach. Watts, who also serves as the recruiting coordinator, came to Murfreesboro after spending three years at Chattanooga.

The top three pass catchers in 2012 all turned in their best seasons under the direction of Watts. Anthony Amos, a first team all-conference player, led the way with 72 grabs for 992 yards and nine touchdowns. Amos fell just short of becoming the second receiver in school history to top the 1,000-yard mark. Kyle Griswould had his best season as a Blue Raider with 45 receptions while freshman Christian Collis had 18 catches.

In 2011, Watts had four receivers with 30 or more catches including a career year by Tavarres Jefferson (team-best 51 catches). He has guided Malcolm Beyah and Sancho McDonald who ended their careers ranked in the top ten all-time at MT in receptions and receiving yards.

Watts' 2010 group was young but balanced as 15 different players caught passes with nine having at least 15 receptions. Four of his top five pass catchers were underclassmen.

Taking advantage of the Blue Raiders fast-paced, wide open offense in 2009, Watts had nine different receivers catch at least 11 passes and 17 who caught at least one. The passing game was good for a school record 3,064 yards to go along with a record 25 touchdowns. The group also had six different players catch at least two touchdown passes.

In 2008, Watts' pass catchers had a breakout year as six players set personal highs in receptions while two topped the 50-catch mark for the first time since 2004. Newcomer Eldred King and Patrick Honeycutt both turned in an 11-catch game while freshman Malcolm Beyah turned in a number of highlight-reel receptions, including one that made ESPN's Plays of the Year. Beyah, in front of a nationally televised audience on ESPN2, pulled down a Hail Mary on the game's final play to give the Blue Raiders a 14-13 win over Florida Atlantic.

Watts inherited the youngest group of receivers in the I-A era in 2006, and for the first time since 1999 the pass-catching corps did not include an all-conference player. Although Watts had his work cut out for him, the young coach proved his ability to develop talent by producing six receivers who turned in career years. Under Watts' guidance, the Blue Raiders had five different receivers with double-digit receptions.

Perhaps the best indicator of Watts' ability to harness talent and develop players was the emergence of heralded freshman Desmond Gee during the 2006 season. One of the top impact players in the conference, Gee led the Blue Raiders with a 16.0 per catch average and three touchdowns, including a 73-yarder against South Carolina.

In 2005, Watts helped lead Chattanooga to its first winning season since 1997 by coaching the Southern Conference's leading receiver. Watts tutored Emanuel Hassell to first team All-Southern Conference honors after he paced the league with 52 receptions. In his first two seasons at UTC, Watts coached All-American and All-Southern Conference receiver Alonzo Nix. Nix set the school and Southern Conference single-season receptions record in 2003 with 90 catches and the single-game record of 18 receptions. He signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Tennessee Titans in 2005.

Prior to joining the staff at Chattanooga, Watts served two years as a graduate assistant at Clemson. During that time he was a part of Clemson's 2001 Humanitarian Bowl team and the 2002 Tangerine Bowl squad.

Watts, a former receiver at Clemson, has the rare distinction (one of only two players) of winning five football letters at the South Carolina school. He began his career in 1996, and saw action in three games as a sophomore before suffering a season-ending injury against Florida State. He was able to use a medical redshirt for that season.

He finished his career with 51 catches for 561 yards. He was a member of the 1999 Peach Bowl team that played Mississippi State and the 2000 Gator Bowl squad that faced Virginia Tech. He was also a member of the team when Clemson competed in the 1996 and 1997 Peach Bowls.

The Florence, S.C., native was honored as one of Clemson's scholar-athletes at the 1999 Peach Bowl Awards Luncheon and was selected as a BB&T Student-Athlete of the Week by the Clemson Sports Network.

An outstanding quarterback at South Florence High School, he was ranked as the 17th best quarterback in the nation by SuperPrep and the sixth-ranked player in the state. Watts completed 132 of 238 pass attempts for 1,746 yards his senior season. That year, he played in the North Carolina-South Carolina Shrine Bowl and was nominated for the state's Mr. Football Award. He finished his career with 7,979 total yards and 74 touchdowns.

Watts was born Oct. 1, 1977, in Florence, S.C. He earned a degree in sports management from Clemson in 2000.

Watts is married to the former Lauren Remillard of Southington, CT, and they have a son, Chase, and a daughter, Kendall.

BRENT BROCK

Director of Player Development | 8th Season
Florida State, 1982

Brent Brock, a head coach in the Georgia high school ranks for 14 years and a former teammate of head coach Rick Stockstill, will be beginning his eighth season at Middle Tennessee with the 2013 campaign. Brock was elevated in the offseason to director of player development.

Brock coached the tight ends his first three years at MT before taking over the inside receivers from 2009 to 2011. He spent the last seven games of 2011 and all of 2012 coaching the running backs.

Brock enjoyed a productive first full year leading the running backs in 2012 as Benny Cunningham earned second team all-conference honors and Jordan Parker was voted to the all-freshman team. Cunningham became the first back at MT to record two 200-yard rushing games since 2001 and Parker went on to set the freshman rushing record with 851 yards.

In 2011, Brock helped the receiving corps snag a single-season school record 299 passes while registering the third-most touchdown receptions with 21.

Brock's receivers were part of a fast-paced offense in 2009 that rang up a school record 3,064 yards of passing along with a record setting 25 touchdowns. In all, 17 receivers caught a total of 238 passes, which is the fourth most in Blue Raider history.

Under Brock's leadership in 2006, the tight ends were a key ingredient for the Sun Belt Conference's top scoring offense and the league's number two-rated team in passing efficiency. The group came up with 17 receptions on the season and two of the team's nine touchdown receptions. The unit followed that up with 23 receptions and two scores in 2007.

Brock came to Middle Tennessee after serving the previous four years as head coach and athletic director at Jackson County High School in Jefferson, Ga. Brock had the privilege of coaching in the GHSA North/South All-Star game (1995) and the Georgia/Florida High School All-Star game (1997). He also has 14 years of experience as an athletic director on the high school level.

Brock got his start in coaching as a volunteer assistant at Godby High School in Tallahassee in 1981 and then left the following season to join Jim Hughes' staff at Thomasville High School in 1982.

Brock followed Hughes to Colquitt High School in 1983, where he helped coach the Packers in the 1991 1-AAAA state championship game. During his nine seasons at Colquitt, the Packers made the region playoffs eight times, were region runner-up three times, and received the region's all-sports trophy on three occasions.

He earned his first head coaching job in 1992, when he took over the Worth County High School program in Sylvester, Ga. He took a struggling program that went 1-9 his first year to an 8-3 mark and back-to-back playoff appearances in his third and fourth seasons.

In 1996, Brock took over head coaching and athletic director duties at Fitzgerald High School in Fitzgerald, Ga., where he had the challenge of rebuilding a program that had just 40 players his first season.

Before taking over at Jackson County, Brock spent two years as offensive coordinator/strength coach at Westside High School under Robert Davis. Westside, only four years old at the time, made it to the semifinals of the state at the Georgia Dome in 2002 and finished with a no. 4 state ranking.

The Albany, Ga., native received his B.S. degree in health/physical education at Florida State in 1982, his master's degree at Albany State, and his Ed.S. degree from FSU.

As a player, Brock played four years for Coach Bobby Bowden at Florida State as an offensive lineman. He was a member of the 1977 Tangerine Bowl team and the 1980 and 1981 Orange Bowl teams.

Brock is married to the former Missie Milton of Albany, Ga.

CHRIS MATUSEK

Director of Football Operations | 11th Season
Middle Tennessee, 2002

Chris Matusek, a four-year letterman in football at Middle Tennessee, is in his 11th year as a full-time employee with the program. Matusek spent the first two years as the program's equipment manager before being elevated to administrative assistant in June 2005, a post he held for two years.

In 2007, Rick Stockstill named Matusek the director of football relations before moving him to his current role as director of football operations in April 2008.

Matusek oversees the daily internal operational functions of the football program while working closely with Coach Rick Stockstill. He is instrumental in team travel, recruiting weekends, the annual team banquet, the lettermen's golf event, the walk-on program, and the "Recruiting Roundup" event held each February. Matusek also serves as the team's liaison for pro scouts, on-campus housing, on-campus dining, and academics during summer school, and oversees all football facilities.

Prior to his duties as director of football operations, Matusek oversaw the equipment operation and the team's practice facility while assisting with the football program's day-to-day operations. Some of those duties included ordering equipment and apparel for players and staff and overseeing the operation of Middle Tennessee's student equipment managers. He also assisted with team travel and various day-to-day responsibilities.

Matusek also acts as the program's former player contact, a responsibility Stockstill says carries great significance because of the importance of developing and maintaining relationships with former players and making sure they are informed of upcoming football-related events and feel welcomed back to campus.

One aspect of Matusek's personality that has earned him respect among coaches and players is the consistency in which he achieves multiple tasks. That trait was evident during his Blue Raider playing career.

A native of Shelbyville, Tennessee, Matusek played and started all 43 games as a deep snapper from 1998 to 2001. Matusek was a member of the 2001 team that went 8-3, won a share of the Sun Belt Conference Championship, and became the first team to ever win a game against a team from the SEC. He also carries the distinction of being on the last I-AA team at MTSU and on the first I-A team.

In 2001, Matusek served as captain for three games during the season.

Matusek, who went his entire career without a bad snap, was originally a walk-on before earning a scholarship for his final two years as a Blue Raider.

At Shelbyville, Matusek played quarterback for the Eagle football team. He earned four letters and tossed 10 touchdown passes as a senior. Matusek also lettered four years in baseball.

Matusek, who earned his degree from Middle Tennessee in industrial technology in 2002, is married to the former Katie Mellen of Green Bay, Wisconsin. The couple welcomed their first child, William Anthony, in April 2012.

JASON SPRAY

Head Strength Coach | 9th Season
Middle Tennessee, 2002

Jason Spray has climbed the ladder of success rapidly since his collegiate playing career at Middle Tennessee, and he continues to exemplify the tremendous work ethic that made him a decorated gridiron standout for the Blue Raiders. Spray was elevated to head football strength coach in January 2012.

"I have been around Jason for seven years and I know how hard he works and the knowledge he possesses about the profession," said Head Coach Rick Stockstill. "He is very impressive, not only because of his work ethic, but for the ability to develop our players in all areas of strength and conditioning to speed and quickness to the proper nutritional habits. He has the energy, enthusiasm, and passion I want in the position."

Spray, who was voted the NCSA Assistant Strength Coach of the Year in 2011, is in his ninth season working in the Blue Raider strength and conditioning program. For seven years, Spray served as the head men's basketball strength and conditioning coach and was the primary assistant in football.

Spray is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. He is also certified as a strength and conditioning specialist by the NSCA and the CSCCA, and is certified by the National Association of Speed and Explosion. Spray is also certified by USA Weightlifting as a club performance coach and is certified as a sports nutritionist through the International Fitness Professional Association.

The Murfreesboro native also works with various professional athletes during the offseason. Spray's specialty is in plyometrics, which focuses on movements, explosion and flexibility rather than just muscle mass. The professional players like the emphasis.

Spray, who is also an expert contributor for Stack Magazine and Premier Players Magazine, is a graduate of Middle Tennessee where he was a three-year starter for the Blue Raider football team. He was named the 2000 Lifter of the Year, as voted on by his teammates.

Spray played on the first Division I-A football team at Middle Tennessee in 1999 and was the starting fullback in 2001, when the Blue Raiders posted an 8-3 record and tied for the Sun Belt Conference championship – also a first in the Division I-A era. The durable and hard-working Spray played in 32 career games at MTSU. He was named co-captain of the 2001 Sun Belt Championship team.

Spray earned his bachelor of science in May 2002 and his master of science in 2005. Spray is married to the former Karisse Baker and the couple has a son Jason Jr.

Stewart was nominated for his role in identifying the splenic rupture of Blue Raider senior wide receiver Shane Blissard during a spring football scrimmage in March 2011. In addition to identifying the injury, Stewart assisted in promptly getting Blissard to the hospital where doctors performed emergency surgery to take out the injured spleen. Stewart's awareness and quick thinking led Blissard to a full recovery as he competed in all 12 Blue Raider games in 2012.

BOUNCE BACK

■ Middle Tennessee responded like champions from a tough 2011 season to go 8-4 overall in 2012 and tie for second in the Sun Belt Conference. The Raiders opened and closed the campaign with a loss but in between went 8-2, including a four-game win streak late in the year that involved an undefeated November.

NATION'S BEST TURNAROUND

■ Following a 2-10 season, Middle Tennessee bounced back with vengeance and owned the nation's best turnaround. The Raiders' +6 win total from 2011 joins Ohio State and Kent State for the biggest win increase in the country in 2012.

ROAD WARRIORS

■ The Raiders carried an impressive road record of 5-2 in 2012, which ranked as the most road wins under Rick Stockstill and in the FBS era. The biggest victory away from Murfreesboro came in late September when the Raiders upset eventual ACC Coastal Division Champion Georgia Tech.

BOWL ELIGIBLE ... AGAIN

■ For the third time in four years, Middle Tennessee became bowl eligible following the win at WKU on Nov. 1. MT joins ULL as the only SBC members to be bowl eligible three times during this period. It's also the fourth time in seven years MT has been bowl eligible under Rick Stockstill (2006, 2009, 2010, 2012).

TEAM NOTES

■ Middle Tennessee received 2 votes in the USA Today Coaches Poll for Nov. 5 and Nov. 12, then 3 votes Nov. 18. MT had 7 votes in the Nov. 25 poll.

■ MT was +10 in turnover margin this season in conference play.

■ MT had 18 plays this year of 45 or more yards.

■ The 49 points at Georgia Tech went down as the most on the road for MT since putting up 66 in a win at Connecticut on Nov. 4, 2000.

■ MT ranked 2nd nationally in fewest sacks allowed in 2011 at .67 per game and gave up 7 sacks (.58) in 2012 to rank 2nd nationally.

Middle Tennessee 21, McNeese State 27

Game 1 ● Aug. 30, 2012 ● Floyd Stadium ● Murfreesboro, TN

MURFREESBORO, TN - A furious fourth quarter comeback by Middle Tennessee fell short as the McNeese State Cowboys escaped Floyd Stadium with a 27-21 victory.

The Blue Raiders (0-1) outscored the Cowboys (1-0) 15-to-3 in the final quarter. In the fourth quarter, Middle Tennessee completed a 97-yard drive to make it a 24-14 contest. With less than five minutes remaining, MT used an 85-yard kick return by Reggie Whatley to put the Blue Raider offense in prime scoring position. Just one play later, Logan Kilgore connected with Kyle Griswould for 15 yards to put the Raiders within six.

On the next offensive possession, McNeese State used the clock to its advantage before punting back to MT. An attempted lateral play did not work for the Blue Raiders, as Middle Tennessee fell short in the season opener.

Kilgore completed 27 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. The redshirt junior finished just a completion short of his career-best 28 set last season against Florida Atlantic and Troy. Anthony Amos grabbed eight passes for a team-best 70 yards and a touchdown. Griswould added five catches for 63 yards and a touchdown grab in the loss.

Defensively, three Blue Raiders reached double-digit tackles. Jajuan Harley, Christian Henry and Kevin Byard all totaled 11 tackles.

Game 2 ● Sept. 8, 2012 ● Floyd Stadium ● Murfreesboro, TN

MURFREESBORO, TN - Middle Tennessee compiled 480 yards en route to a 31-17 victory over Florida Atlantic in the Blue Raiders' Sun Belt conference opener.

MT (1-1, 1-0 Sun Belt) used an extensive rushing attack to amass 302 yards. The rushing yards were the most by the Raiders since totaling 353 against Austin Peay in 2010.

The tandem of Jordan Parker and Drayton Calhoun combined for 221 yards, becoming the first MT duo to reach 100 yards each in a game since Nov. 7, 2009 against FIU. Parker, a freshman from Lawrenceville, Ga., carried the pigskin 17 times for 117 yards, while Calhoun picked up 104 yards on 14 carries with a touchdown.

A stout Blue Raider defense held FAU (1-1, 0-1 Sun Belt) without a touchdown for three quarters. In total, the Owls were outgained 480-to-356 yards by MT. The Blue Raiders held FAU to just 96 yards rushing, while forcing two fumbles.

Middle Tennessee 49, Georgia Tech 28

Game 4 ● Sept. 29, 2012 ● Bobby Dodd Stadium ● Atlanta, GA

ATLANTA, GA - Middle Tennessee put together a blistering 510 yards of offense and used five Benny Cunningham touchdowns to upend the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets, 49-28, in front of 39,270 at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

The tough Georgia Tech (2-3) option was no match for the Raiders (3-1), who used a balanced attack of 264 yards rushing and 246 yards passing.

Cunningham, a Nashville native, blistered the Yellow Jacket offense with 27 carries for 217 yards and five touchdowns. The performance was 10th all-time in a game by a Blue Raider tailback. He set career highs in carries, yardage and touchdowns. The five touchdowns was the second all-time performance, tied with Phillip Tanner's mark set against North Texas on Nov. 22, 2008.

Logan Kilgore earned his 10th 200-yard passing game, connecting on 17-of-23 for 246 yards and two touchdowns. Kyle Griswould led the receivers with six grabs for 59 yards, while Anthony Amos had three receptions for 36 yards.

The MT defense held its own, allowing just 238 Georgia Tech rushing yards for 425 total yards.

ULM 31

Game 5 ● Oct. 6, 2012 ● Floyd Stadium ● Murfreesboro, TN

MURFREESBORO, TN - ULM's strong offensive attack combined with some missed Blue Raider opportunities lifted the Warhawks past Middle Tennessee 31-17 on Homecoming.

The Warhawks (3-2, 1-0 Sun Belt) used 500 offensive yards, while holding the Raiders (3-2, 1-1 SBC) to 307. Despite trailing 24-3 early in the third, Middle Tennessee fought back to a 31-17 deficit. However, an interception in the fourth quarter sealed the victory for ULM.

ULM controlled the time of possession, nearly doubling the Blue Raiders with 39:54 minutes compared to 20:06. The Raiders lost the crucial turnover battle, giving up two fumbles and an interception compared to just one Warhawk interception.

Quarterback Logan Kilgore completed 23-of-34 for 238 yards and one interception. Anthony Amos led all Raider receivers with seven catches for 96 yards.

Senior Benny Cunningham totaled 62 rushing yards on 14 attempts. The Nashville native registered two touchdowns, making it nine touchdowns in the last 10 quarters for the tailback.

Defensively, Craig Allen led the Raiders with a career-best 15 tackles. The senior bested his previous high of 10 set against Georgia Tech a week ago.

MIAMI, FL - A game that saw two lead changes in the final minute went in Middle Tennessee's favor as the Raiders held off a last second FIU comeback to knock off the Panthers, 34-30.

Trailing by 17 in the second quarter, the Blue Raiders (4-2, 2-1 Sun Belt) came from behind to take a 27-23 lead with under seven minutes left in the contest. From there, FIU (1-6, 0-3 SBC) took advantage of stopping Middle Tennessee on third down and drove 80 yards in 1:21. Jake Medlock threw a 30-yard bullet to Willis Wright, as the Panthers retook a 30-27 lead with just a minute left.

The Raiders took advantage of a FIU excessive celebration call, as Reggie Whatley returned the ball 43 yards. On the first play, Logan Kilgore fired a 28-yard pass to Christian Collis. Two plays later, Whatley broke through the Panther defense to give the Raiders a 34-30 lead.

Just 36 seconds remained as FIU regained possession. The Panthers threw completions of 21, 13 and seven yards to get down to the Middle Tennessee 31. With just one second left, Medlock threw a 30-yard pass to Willis Wright at the one yard line. Jajuan Harley and Kevin Byard pushed Wright away from the end zone as time expired and MT clinched the victory.

Game 8 ● Oct. 27, 2012 ● Floyd Stadium ● Murfreesboro, TN

MURFREESBORO, TN - An explosive offensive performance coupled with stout defensive play helped Middle Tennessee to a 38-21 rout of North Texas at Floyd Stadium.

The Blue Raiders (5-3, 3-1 Sun Belt) played sharp offensively in their black helmets and uniforms, totaling 448 yards on the day. MT forced four Mean Green (3-5, 2-2 SBC) turnovers to secure its third conference win.

For the third time under head coach Rick Stockstill, the Raiders reached five wins in eight contests. The other two times occurred when MT reached bowl games in 2006 and 2009.

Offensively, the Blue Raiders relied on the arm of Logan Kilgore and the hands of his play making receivers. Kilgore reached 300-plus yards for the third time in his career when he completed 20 of 30 passes for 349 yards and three touchdowns. Kilgore threw four passes of 34 yards or more in the contest. He also ran a career-high 45 yards for a touchdown.

The Raiders had two wide receivers catch 100-plus yards for the first time since playing WKU on Oct. 24, 2009. Anthony Amos and Kyle Griswould caught 11 passes for a combined 261 yards and three touchdowns. Amos moved into 10th all-time in a single season with 794 yards, while Griswould set a personal-best in yardage and touchdowns.

Middle Tennessee's defense collected three interceptions, two sacks and a fumble. The bruisers were led by Jiajuan Harley with a season-high 14 tackles and an interception.

Game 9 ● Nov. 1, 2012 ● Houchens Stadium ● Bowling Green, KY

BOWLING GREEN, KY - Late game heroics on special teams and defense spurred Middle Tennessee to a 34-29 win over archrival Western Kentucky at Houchens-Smith Stadium. The winning effort also helped MT reach bowl eligibility status.

MT (6-3, 4-1) moved into second place in the Sun Belt as the Raiders came out victorious in a game that saw three ties and remained close until the very end. WKU (6-3, 3-2) fought back three times, but never held a lead during the contest.

Redshirt sophomore Reggie Whatley found the gamewinner for Middle Tennessee with his 96-yard kickoff return for a TD at the six minute mark in the fourth quarter. Whatley broke through to give the Blue Raiders a 34-27 advantage.

With one of the best offenses in the Sun Belt, WKU drove down the field. Kawaun Jakes' pass inside the Blue Raider 21-yard line was deflected by Reggie Farmer and intercepted by speedster Kenneth Gilstrap with 1:39 left in the game. The Blue Raiders kept possession for the final time as Logan Kilgore ran in the endzone for a safety to give Middle Tennessee its sixth victory.

The Blue Raiders became bowl eligible for the third time in four seasons.

Middle Tennessee 24, Troy 21

Game 11 ● Nov. 24, 2012 ● Floyd Stadium ● Murfreesboro, TN

MURFREESBORO, TN - Kevin Byard's 77-yard interception return for a touchdown with 5:48 remaining proved to be the difference in the annual Battle of the Palladium, as the Middle Tennessee football team snapped its six-game losing streak to Troy with a 24-21 win over the Trojans at Floyd Stadium.

The Blue Raiders forced a season-high five turnovers in the game. Byard was in on three of them, forcing a fumble and picking off two passes while also recording six tackles. Offensively, Middle Tennessee racked up 328 yards on the day. Freshman running back Jordan Parker ran for 141 yards on 19 carries. In the first quarter Parker scored on a 98-yard run, the longest in Middle Tennessee and Sun Belt history. He also broke the school record for single-season rushing yards by a freshman in Saturday's game. Parker now has 778 yards rushing on the season, passing the previous record of 735 set by Eugene Gross in 2003.

Middle Tennessee's (8-3, 6-1) defense was stout early. The Blue Raiders forced Troy (5-7, 3-5) into a 3-and-out on their first possession. On the Trojans second possession, Byard intercepted a pass from Deon Anthony to give Middle Tennessee the ball at the Troy 40-yard line with 10:55 to go in the opening quarter. The Blue Raiders then drove 20 yards, converting a 3rd-and-7 in the process, and got a 37 yard field goal by Carlos Lopez to take a 3-0 lead with 8:41 to play in the first quarter.

2011 GoDaddy.com Bowl

Mobile, AL (Ladd-Peebles Stadium)
Miami (Ohio) 35, Middle Tennessee 21

by Adam Sparks, DNJ

MOBILE, AL - MTSU stuck to its season-long storyline, losing 35-21 to Miami (Ohio) in the GoDaddy.com Bowl because of some costly turnovers.

MTSU (6-7), which had the nation's worst turnover margin this season, committed four second-half turnovers — including four interceptions tossed by senior quarterback Dwight Dasher.

Miami (10-4), the Mid-American champion, became the first team in Division I history to post double-digit losses one season and double-digit wins the next year.

Typical of his two topsy-turvy season, Dasher showed his best and worst — mostly worst — in front of a crowd of 38,168 at Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

Dasher, the 2009 New Orleans Bowl MVP, had 158 total yards, one TD and no turnovers in the first half. But he tossed four interceptions in a second half in which MTSU was outscored 21-7. It was a season-high number of picks for Miami's defense.

Miami delivered a dagger with an 11-play, 71-yard scoring drive, capped by Austin Boucher's 5-yard TD pass to Nick Harwell with 5:25 remaining.

Dasher then tossed his third interception soon after to seal the outcome.

Miami took a 28-21 lead late in the third quarter on Boucher's 17-yard TD pass to Chris Givens.

Then Dasher tossed an interception to Miami's Evan Harris. After a defensive stand, MTSU's Jarrett Crittenton blocked Miami's 32-yard field goal attempt to keep the RedHawks off the scoreboard.

MTSU wasn't as fortunate after Dasher's first pick.

On MTSU's first possession of the second half, Dasher tossed an ill-advised pass up for grabs into heavy Miami coverage. Dayonne Nunley snagged the easy interception and skipped his way through traffic for a 52-yard return for a touchdown. It put Miami ahead 21-14 early in the third quarter for its first lead of the night.

But MTSU wasted little time tying the score. Caught in a pile-up, running back Phillip Tanner kept his feet, broke free and sprinted 54 yards for a score. It was the longest MTSU run in FBS bowl history.

MTSU squandered a couple of chances to take back the lead early in the third quarter. Kevin Brown intercepted Boucher's pass, but MTSU wideout Malcolm Beyah lost a fumble on the next play.

On MTSU's next possession, it drove to Miami's 42-yard line, but Tanner was stuffed for a 2-yard loss on fourth-and-1.

It was a stark contrast to the first half, when MTSU put up 197 yards and looked efficient on offense.

On their first scoring drive of the night, the Blue Raiders punched the accelerator. Their up-tempo attack marched 89 yards on eight plays in only 2:22.

Dasher connected on passes of 11, 15 and 27 yards, the last one going to Sancho McDonald to Miami's 18-yard line. On the next play, Tanner broke two tackles and galloped into the end zone for the opening score.

Miami answered quickly with a 70-yard pass from Boucher to Armand Robinson to MTSU's 3-yard line, the longest pass play in a bowl in RedHawks' history. Thomas Merriweather scored on a run on the next snap, tying the score 7-7.

Miami's first score took only 2:01 of game clock, but MTSU picked up its speed with a second score in only 1:41. Dasher completed three straight passes and took a quarterback draw for a 49-yard TD run on third-and-5 for a 14-7 lead through one quarter.

Miami countered with Boucher's 40-yard pass to Nick Harwell, which set up Merriweather's second TD run and tied the game 14-14.

Miami had two chances to take a halftime lead, but MTSU got a pair of timely plays from unexpected sources.

Redshirt freshman Dearco Nolan got his first career sack for a 14-yard loss that forced a Miami punt. On their next possession, the RedHawks had an 18-yard TD pass from Boucher to Robinson nullified by an illegal procedure penalty. On the ensuing play, they went to the end zone again, but MTSU cornerback T.L. Edwards picked off the pass at the goal line for his first career interception.

It was Miami's first turnover in four games and Boucher's second thrown interception in seven games this season.

2009 New Orleans Bowl

New Orleans, LA (Superdome)
Middle Tennessee 42, Southern Miss 32

by Adam Sparks, DNJ

NEW ORLEANS, LA - The Blue Raiders achieved bowl brilliance.

MTSU beat Southern Mississippi 42-32 in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

It was only MTSU's second bowl appearance in its Football Bowl Subdivision era, but the Blue Raiders' seventh straight win snapped the Golden Eagles' dominance in the New Orleans Bowl. Southern Miss had won three of the last five New Orleans Bowls.

MTSU finished arguably its best season in school history with a 10-3 record after a momentous victory amid a New Orleans Bowl record crowd of 30,228 at the Louisiana Superdome. Southern Miss fell to 7-6.

"It just feels great to win a huge game," said MTSU junior safety Jeremy Kellem. "We're champions tonight. We might not be the Sun Belt champion, but we're the New Orleans Bowl champion."

MTSU quarterback Dwight Dasher earned MVP honors, breaking the New Orleans Bowl rushing record with 201 yards on 26 carries and two touchdowns. He was also 15-of-25 passing for 162 yards, two TDs and no interceptions.

Freshman Ben Cunningham, a former Goodpasture High standout, had a 1-yard TD in the fourth quarter to cap an 80-yard drive to put the stake through the Golden Eagles' heart.

Then MTSU senior linebacker Carmichael picked off a Southern Miss pass with less then three minutes remaining, and Dasher scored on a 1-yard run for the final margin.

"We were down early, but we fought hard," Carmichael said. "We always fight back. You think this is the biggest win in school history? You're darn right it is."

MTSU fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter, but held Southern Miss to only two field goals in the second and third quarters to take its first lead in an FBS bowl by the third quarter.

After the sluggish start, the Blue Raiders, who had only five active players with bowl experience, eventually settled into the national spotlight.

Dasher put on a courageous performance while suffering three separate leg injuries — all of which were awkward turns of his left ankle and knee without contact from a Southern Miss defender.

The injured Dasher was briefly replaced twice by redshirt freshman Brent Burnette, but the junior starter returned to the game both times.

During Dasher's final absence, Burnette came in and tossed a 22-yard bullet to Wes Caldwell. He then connected with Chris McClover on a wide-receiver screen for a 23-yard TD to put MTSU ahead 28-20 through three quarters.

Dasher had a 35-yard TD run earlier in the third quarter for the second-longest run in New Orleans Bowl history.

MTSU trailed 14-0 less than nine minutes into the game, but came back with a pair of second-quarter touchdowns.

Dasher returned from his first leg injury suffered late in the first quarter to lead the Blue Raiders on a 12-play, 70-yard scoring drive early in the second. He hit Garrett Andrews on an 11-yard TD toss on third down to cut the Southern Miss lead to 14-7.

On its next possession, MTSU drove to the 14-yard line, but Alan Gendreau's 31-yard field goal was blocked.

But on the next snap, MTSU cornerback Alex Suber made the play of the night.

Southern Miss set up a wide-receiver screen pass, but Suber eluded a blocking wideout and dove in front of the ball for the interception. It was Southern Miss quarterback Martevious Young's first interception thrown in 166 pass attempts and only his second this season.

Suber's pick gave MTSU the ball at Southern Miss' 12-yard line. Dasher connected with former Oakland High standout Shane Blissard for a 12-yard TD on another third-down play to tie the score 14-14.

Southern Miss made a 20-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to lead 17-14 at halftime.

Southern Miss started strong, scoring on its first two possessions.

The Golden Eagles marched 61 yards in nine plays and 4:18 en route to their first touchdown to open the night.

The key play came when DeAndre Brown caught a 19-yard pass and fumbled as he went to the turf. MTSU defensive back Derrick Crumpton recovered it, but Brown was ruled down at the 19-yard line before the ball popped out.

Tory Harrison capped the drive with a 2-yard run for the score. Harrison's run for the two-point conversion failed, and Southern Miss led 6-0. The Golden Eagles went for two throughout the game because of inconsistencies on its PAT kicking team this season.

After MTSU's second straight three-and-out series, Southern Miss' Brown caught a 24-yard TD pass and a two-point conversion to put the Golden Eagles ahead 14-0 with 6:35 remaining in the first quarter.

2006 Motor City Bowl

Detroit, MI (Ford Field)

Central Michigan 31, Middle Tennessee 14

by Adam Sparks, DNJ

DETROIT, Mich. - MTSU's season-long spell wore off at Ford Field.

The Blue Raiders' first Division I-A bowl trip was spoiled in a 31-14 loss to Central Michigan in the 10th Annual Motor City Bowl.

A Motor City Bowl record crowd of 54,113 saw MTSU (7-6) stage a late rally, but it couldn't compensate for the early wounds inflicted by the fast-paced CMU (10-4) offense.

"I thought (a comeback) was realistic with five minutes left, and I thought it was realistic with three minutes left," first-year MTSU coach Rick Stockstill said. "They fought to the end, and that's all a coach can ask of his players. There's not a player in that locker room that thought we didn't have a chance."

MTSU recovered from an early 14-point deficit and a CMU offensive burst, but a second wave kept the Blue Raiders at bay.

The Chippewas used only 13 offensive snaps to score two quick touchdowns and three more plays to jump ahead 21-7 in the second quarter. Leading the charge was CMU quarterback Dan LeFevour, the Motor City Bowl most valuable player, who had 218 of his 231 total yards in the first half.

After CMU's starting surge, MTSU struggled to keep pace, as CMU won its first I-A bowl game in the program's third attempt.

Meanwhile, MTSU played its first overall I-A bowl in Stockstill's debut season.

"Our players walk out of here with their heads held high," Stockstill said. "What Middle Tennessee did (Tuesday), you can't put a price tag on. It will help short-term, and it will help this program long-term.

"For what these guys did this season, I will forever be indebted."

MTSU never caught up with CMU, and it took a large leap backward early in the third quarter when Clint Marks was picked off by CMU linebacker Doug Kress, who returned the interception 56 yards for a touchdown.

"Your defense scores in the second half — that really helped," CMU interim coach Jeff Quinn said. "Anytime your kids can step up in that role, you know you're going to have the outcome which we felt and did."

MTSU junior running back DeMarco McNair's 6-yard touchdown cut the Chippewas' advantage to 28-14, but the rest of the Blue Raiders' fourth-quarter possessions finished short of paydirt.

MTSU outgained CMU 320 yards to 311, but the Blue Raiders were stifled by 103 penalty yards.

Marks finished 25-of-37 for 251 yards and two interceptions. MTSU true freshman Desmond Gee had a career-high nine receptions for 63 yards and a key 39-yard punt return.

However, CMU made its mark early on. Each positive for MTSU was met two-fold by the Mid-American Conference champion Chippewas.

MTSU senior running back Eugene Gross scored on a 3-yard run in the second quarter to cut the CMU lead to 14-7. However, MTSU's ensuing onside kick failed, and CMU answered with a four-play, 51-yard drive capped by LeFevour's 9-yard touchdown run to stretch the Chippewas' lead to 21-7 at halftime.

Any other MTSU scoring threats were countered by a costly penalty, turnover, or loss of possession on downs.

CMU was methodic on its opening possession, driving 69 yards on nine plays to paydirt.

Running back Ontario Sneed scored on a 1-yard dive over right guard, but the Chippewas' march was highlighted by two key third-down conversions.

On third-and-seven, LeFevour tossed a 26-yard pass to Justin Gardner, who slipped behind the MTSU secondary. Then following an MTSU tackle for loss by Jonathan Harris, LeFevour scrambled for 12 yards to the 1-yard line. The Chippewas went ahead 7-0 on the next snap.

MTSU was equally impressive on its first drive, but back-to-back sacks by defensive ends Mike Ogle and Daniel Bazuin stalled the Blue Raiders' progress.

Marks connected on all four passes for 60 yards during the first drive. His 17-yard pass to Jonathan Grigsby on third-and-23 set up a 39-yard field goal attempt, but Colby Smith hooked the kick wide left.

It only took CMU 51 seconds to go ahead 14-0, as Sneed pulled down a 29-yard swing pass for a touchdown. It capped a four-play, 78-yard scoring drive to the 5:53 mark of the first quarter.

Sam Houston 27, MT 13
(December 1, 1956)

Evansville, IN - The Blue Raiders carried an OVC championship and a 7-2 record into the first bowl game in the school's history, but the occasion was ruined by a powerful Sam Houston team. Led by Little All-American fullback Terry Sweeney, the Blue Raiders amassed 290 yards of total offense but mistakes killed their hopes for a win. The Blue Raiders lost a total of four fumbles while Sam Houston had just one miscue in the hard-fought contest.

MT 21, Presbyterian 12
(January 1, 1960)

Orlando, FL - Before the bewildering eyes of 12,500 (largest crowd ever at the time), and against a well-balanced Presbyterian team, the Blue Raiders galloped far and wide for a 21-12 win in the 14th annual Tangerine Bowl classic. Called by some as the best played bowl game on the New Year's schedule, the Blue Raiders almost made a rout of it in the first half, but some fancy manuvering by the Blue Hose kept them in the game. Bucky Pitts scored two touchdowns, one on a beautiful punt return, to pace the Blue Raiders to their first bowl win in school history. Pitts, the little speedster from Fayetteville, had 59 yards in nine rushes to lead a Blue Raider infantry attack that ground out 240 yards. MT built a 14-6 halftime lead then had to stave off a tremendous rally led by Presbyterian quarterback Bob Waters, later of the San Francisco 49ers.

Lamar Tech 21, MT 14
(December 29, 1961)

Orlando, FL - Making their second Tangerine Bowl appearance in three seasons, the Blue Raiders fell to another bunch of tough Texans. It was an even battle for nearly the entire game then a freak play decided the issue. A Lamar field goal attempt fell short of the mark but was inadvertently touched by a Blue Raider and a Tech player fell on it in the end zone for a touchdown.

1964 Grantland Rice Bowl

MT 20, Muskingum 0
(December 12, 1964)
NCAA Mideast College Division Championship

Murfreesboro, TN - A rugged defense paced the OVC champion Blue Raiders to a 20-0 win in the first Grantland Rice Bowl ever played. The site was MT's own Horace Jones Field. The Blue Raider defense held Muskingum to only 72 yards in total offense and scored a touchdown on a 99-yard fumble return by end Ray Neal with only 44 seconds left in the game. It also marked the final collegiate game as a player for longtime Blue Raider coach Boots Donnelly. Middle Tennessee opened the scoring in the first quarter when David Petty scored on a 1-yard run to make it 7-0. The teams both went scoreless in the second and third quarters before the Blue Raiders broke it open in the fourth. Teddy Morris ran five yards for a touchdown to make it 14-0 before Neal put up the final points with his intercepted fumble return. Morris finished 10 for 18 in the passing department for 142 yards, while Bob Hlodan paced the ground attack with 110 yards on 19 carries. Hlodan went on to be named the game's Most Valuable Player.

RETIRED NUMBER

Teddy Morris was something special from the moment he came to Middle Tennessee as a young freshman in the fall of 1962.

By the time he graduated, his stellar play had helped bring the Blue Raiders 32 wins (against only eight losses and a tie), a record which yielded three Ohio Valley Conference championships.

When his playing days were complete, Morris held a number of Middle Tennessee career records: touchdown passes (41), yards per completion (14.7), and points scored by passing (252). Morris still ranks sixth in passing yards with 4,799 while also standing seventh in pass completions with 326.

He was the OVC's Offensive Player of the Year in 1965 after leading the Blue Raiders to an unblemished 10-0 season. In 1970, he was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Decade by the Nashville Banner.

No player has worn number 14 since Morris finished his career in 1965. No player will ever wear that number again. It's a significant tribute to one of the finest athletes in Middle Tennessee football history.

Morris, who was later an assistant coach for Middle Tennessee from 1970 to 1973, joined Horace Jones and Charles Murphy as the first three to be inducted into the Blue Raider Hall of Fame in 1976.

THE MASCOT

In Greek mythology, the winged horse possessed superior cunning and speed. The thundering horse of the gods was entrusted to carry awesome lightning bolts and could only be harnessed by a noble being with a pure heart. Character, talent, and strength were required to mount and ride the fabled winged horse.

Today, this winged horse is a fitting symbol of a university that has earned its wings and excels in many academic arenas, including historic preservation, teacher training, aerospace, political science, horse science, and recording industry. But the winged horse is more than a symbol of physical accomplishment; it's also a symbol of character and the responsible wielding of power.

The challenge of all great universities and university athletic departments is to help student-athletes build character as well as strength. This winged horse, Lightning, is a symbol to Middle Tennessee students, athletes, and alumni of the soaring school spirit they experience at sporting events.

For its nobility and character, the winged horse was immortalized in the stars. Now, with breathtaking speed and thundering, unbridled power, Lightning strikes, forevermore, fear in the hearts of Blue Raider opponents and leads Middle Tennessee to victory!

MT Songs

Alma Mater
We sing thy praises,
faithful guide of youth,
Through all the ages affirmed and strong in truth.
Alma Mater, Middle Tennessee
We proudly offer our hearts in loyalty.

Fight Song
Blue Raiders ride on to vic-t'ry
Never failing in the fight
Upholding honor and tradition
Of the name that's held most high
M-T-S-U marching onward
This will be our battle cry
For the one, true pride of the Blue
M-T-S-U Raiders Ride!

Other Traditions

Kickoff
On EVERY kickoff, the crowd starts to make lots of noise and when the ball is kicked everyone yells "Lightning" and when the ball is caught everyone yells "Strikes".

Blue/White Cheer
With two minutes to go in the 2nd quarter, the Blue/White Cheer will start. The home side starts with BLUE and the student side will respond with WHITE.

First Downs
Every time there is a Blue Raider first down, the Public Address announcer will announce "That's another Blue Raider ... and the crowd will yell 'First Down!'"

BLUE RAIDERS

In the early days of athletics at Middle Tennessee State University, the teams were known by several nicknames. Among these were Teachers, Normalites, and Pedagogues.

In 1934, it was decided that the school needed a specific nickname. During football season that year, the Murfreesboro Daily News Journal held a contest to name the team.

The late Charles Sarver, then a Middle Tennessee football player and later principal at White County High School in Sparta, Tenn., won the $5 prize for his entry of "Blue Raiders." Sarver later indicated he had "borrowed" the nickname of the Colgate Red Raiders but substituted MTSU Blue for Colgate Red. Ever since then, Middle Tennessee athletic teams have been known as the Blue Raiders.

For a time, the "unofficial" mascot for the Blue Raiders was a costumed, cartoon-like dog that debuted in the 1980s. A reasonable facsimile of a bluetick hound, the affable character was dubbed "Ole Blue."

On January 17, 1998, the current mascot, "Lightning," was born. The mascot was unveiled at a basketball game in Murphy Center. The introduction of Lightning gave a new identity to the nickname Blue Raiders.

THE LOGO

The first official athletic logo was unveiled on January 17, 1998 after a committee worked nearly two years on the project. The logo that debuted was a picture of a winged horse which snorts lightning bolts between the nickname Blue Raiders and MTSU.

In time, Chris Brady of the Publications and Graphics Department continued to work on the logo to offer some variations. It was Brady who came up with the concept of the current logo that is recognized as the athletic department's primary logo today - a flying horse with a lightning bolt on top of a blue MT.

THE COLORS

During the early spring of 1912, President Jones appointed two faculty members and a student leader to bring to the faculty recommendations for school colors. The two faculty members were Jeannette Moore King and Tommie Reynolds, and the student leader was Q.M. Smith. They met in the east corner first floor room of the women's dormitory and after considerable discussion reached consensus on the two colors, blue and white. The committee pointed out in its report to the president that blue and white more nearly approximated the wearing apparel colors of the early Normal students and "school affiliation and spirit could be displayed in a more economical and practical manner." The committee further stated that school colors embodied in everyday apparel could be purchased across the counter in any general merchandise store. The 1913 football team carried the first blue and white motif.

RAIDER WALK

One of the newest traditions at MTSU is Raider Walk, which began in 2000. The team walks through Walnut Grove two hours before kickoff as fans, cheerleaders, and members of the band wish the Blue Raiders luck in their upcoming game. Head Coach Rick Stockstill also takes time to show his appreciation to the fans by saying a few words. The Raider Walk is designated by lightning bolts painted on the sidewalk where the players greet the fans.
