NOTING THE HILLTOPPERS

- WKU is in its 96th season of football and second under head coach Jeff Brohm, who became the school's 19th head coach on Jan. 10, 2014.
- WKU is one of the newest members of the FBS, entering just their seventh year of membership in college football's highest classification.
- In sixth-year QB Brandon Doughty, the Hilltoppers returned the nation's leader in passing yards (4,830) and touchdowns (49) from 2014. Doughty, the 2014 C-USA Most Valuable Player, was granted a sixth year of eligibility for injuries suffered across the 2011 and 2012 seasons. More on Doughty on page 16
- Last season, WKU became the first program in NCAA history with a 4,500 yard passer and 1,500 yard rusher. They were also the first program in 17 years to break their league's single-game passing (Doughty, 593, at Middle Tennessee) and rushing record (Allen, 345, vs. Army) in the same season (Kent State, MAC, 1997).
- WKU's eight interceptions through the first five games are the quickest the Hilltoppers have reached that mark in the FBS era and fastest since tallying 16 through five in 2004. Over a two game span in 2004, WKU tallied 12 interceptions. Of the eight picks, five are the first interceptions it the player's career.
- Doughty will be looking to keep his dominance at home alive this week. The sixth-year senior has not thrown an interception at home since October 15, 2013 against Louisiana-Lafayette - a span of 387 pass attempts. Since that interception, Doughty is 280-of-387 (72.4-percent) for 3,775 yards and 34 touchdowns without an pick.
- The Hilltoppers are 7-1 at home under head coach Jeff Brohm and have won six straight, their longest home winning streak since winning 10 between 2003 and 2005. Since 2013, the Tops are 10-3 at Houchens-Smith Stadium.

NOTING THE GAME

- WKU will be seeking to move to 3-0 in conference play for the first time in the FBS era and first since 2005 when WKU began Gateway play 4-1. A 5-1 start would also be WKU's best start to a season since the 2012 team also went 5-1 through their first six games.
- WKU has not defeated Middle Tennessee at home since 1989, and three of the last four games in Bowling Green against the Blue Raiders have been decided by five points or less. The oldest player on the team, QB Brandon Doughty, was born in 1991.
- WKU-Middle Tennessee is Conference USA's most historic rivalry with the two teams, separated by 100 miles, playing 64 games since 1914. The last four games have been decided by a total of 12 points.

NUMBERS TO WATCH

0

The Hilltoppers are 7-1 under Jeff Brohm when they do not commit a turnover. With at least one turnover, they are 5-5.

200

Quarterback Brandon Doughty is 200 passing yards away from eclipsing the 10,000 yard plateau for his career. If Doughty gets 10,000, he would be just the 91st QB in FBS history to do so.

400

Sticking with Doughty, the QB has thrown for at least 400 yards in four consecutive games, the fourth-longest streak in FBS history. Texas Tech's B.J. Symons holds the record with seven.

Media INFORMATION

WORKING CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, contact the Media Relations office. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Working space in the Houchens-Smith Stadium press box is limited and a photo work room is available on the ground level for credentialed photographers.

MEDIA WILL-CALL: If not received by mail, credentials may be picked up at the media "Will Call" table, located next to the press box elevators on the lower level of the east side of the stadium between gates 4 and 5. Please be mindful that parking passes cannot be picked up at will-call and must be received prior to gameday.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Per NCAA rules, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes.

SIDELINE ACCESS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/ videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive on the sideline without proper equipment will be removed from the sideline. Credentials must be worn at all times on the sideline. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

GAMEDAY SERVICES: Members of the media covering WKU will be provided with pregame notes for both teams, a game program and a flipcard. Statistics and a running play-by-play will be handed out after each quarter. Approximately 30 minutes following the completion of the game, a final statistical book, including complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play and postgame quotes from players and coaches, will be available. The first run of books will be given directly to the visiting SID to allow for easy departure with their team.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: For home games, Coach Jeff Brohm and select student-athletes will hold a postgame news conference with the media in the team meeting room of Harbaugh Hall. Athletics Media Relations office representatives will be available to assist in postgame interviews. A member of the AMR staff will accompany members of the press wishing to go to the sidelines, beginning with five minutes remaining in the final quarter.

PRACTICES: WKU will begin practice at 4 p.m. on a normal game week every Tuesday through Friday. WKU football practices are open to media Tuesday and Wednesday for periods 1 through 4. Video is permitted for individual drills only during the open periods, although media may be alerted of other portions that are not available for video. Requests for players and assistants should be made by 11 a.m. on the day of practice.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Jeff Brohm will hold his weekly press conference each Monday during a game week at 11:30 a.m. in the Paul Just Media Room inside Diddle Arena. A pair of players will also be available for interviews.

Both Coach Brohm and the players will be available for out-of-town media during a weekly teleconference which coincides with the press conference. The call-in number for the press conference can be obtained by contacting Kyle Neaves at Kyle.Neaves@wku.edu. This will also serve as Coach Brohm's availability to all non-local media.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Division I football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

LAST MEETING

September 13, 2014 • Johnny Red Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, Tenn.

WKU	47
MIDDLE TENNESSEE	50

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Austin Grammer threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Ed'Marques Batties in the third overtime to give Middle Tennessee a 50-47 win over Western Kentucky in the conference opener for both schools on Saturday night.

Grammer ran for a 1-yard touchdown in the first overtime. The teams traded field goals in the second OT. The Hilltoppers' Garrett Schwettman made his fourth field goal, a 27-yarder, in the third overtime before Grammer's game-winning strike.

Grammer threw for 218 yards, and ran for 125 yards and three touchdowns. His 59-yard touchdown run gave the Blue Raiders (2-1, 1-0 Conference USA) an early 7-0 lead, and he ran for an 11-yard score to tie it at 24 at halftime.

Brandon Doughty was 43 of 66 for a career-best 593 yards and threw four touchdown passes for Western Kentucky (1-2).

12-6 Overall/Second Year

Jeff Brohm, a native Kentuckian and one of the state's most notable football products, enters his second season as the head football coach at WKU.

A 12-year collegiate coaching veteran with experience in the Big 10, Big East, Conference USA and Sun Belt conferences, Brohm came to The Hill as the offensive coordinator in 2013 where he directed a high-flying, high-scoring offensive attack that shattered 18 single-season school records including total offense, individual passing yards and individual rushing yards.

He obliterated those marks once he was given the controls to direct his version of the offense.

In 2014, the Hilltoppers completed their transformation from a ground-and-pound, run-first program to one of the nation's premiere passing offenses with their ability to move the ball seemingly at will against opponents.

In Brohm's first season, WKU broke 50 school and conference records including the school's single-season and single-game records in total yards (season/game), touchdown passes (season/game), points scored in a season, and a host of others.

The head coach's biggest credit, however, may lie in the right arm of senior quarterback Brandon Doughty, the nation's top passer in 2014. In his first season as a starter, Doughty threw 14 touchdowns to 14 interceptions but improved dramatically with Brohm directing the offense.

Doughty's 49 touchdown passes and 4,830 yards were national-best numbers as he earned Conference USA Most Valuable Player honors and the Sammy Baugh Award, given to the nation's top quarterback. Doughty was even more deadly at home where he finished the year without throwing a single interception to 24 touchdowns - the only QB in the country with more than 60 attempts who can make that claim. To put it into perspective, if Doughty had never played a single road game on the year, he would have still broken WKU's single season touchdown passes record, a record that had stood since 1985 with 22).

Under Brohm, the Hilltoppers won their first bowl at the FBS level, a 49-48 thriller against Central Michigan in the inaugural Popeyes Bahamas Bowl. WKU also recorded consecutive eight-win seasons for the first time since 2003-04.

Brohm's quarterbacks have averaged 3,247 passing yards per season, a mark that would have ranked No. 28 nationally in 2014. Known for his development of signal callers, Brohm spent two years at Illinois before making the move to UAB for the 2012 season. Prior to going to Illinois, Brohm spent the 2009 season as the quarterbacks coach at FAU, where he was reunited with his college coach, Howard Schnellenberger.

Brohm served as the quarterbacks coach at Louisville from 2003-06, assistant head coach and passing game coordinator in 2007, and the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in 2008. Under Brohm's direction, the Cardinals' passing attack flourished, including a record-breaking season in 2007 with Brohm's younger brother, Brian, as quarterback.

In his first season as an assistant coach at Louisville, Brohm guided quarterback Stefan Lefors to a No. 1 national ranking in passing efficiency and completion percentage, and watched as the southpaw narrowly missed setting NCAA records in both categories.

Brohm began his NFL career in 1994 with the San Diego Chargers, who played in Super Bowl XXIX. He played for the San Francisco 49ers from 1995-97, where he was the backup quarterback to Hall of Famer and ESPN analyst Steve Young in 1997.

From 1998-2000, Brohm played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Denver Broncos and the Cleveland Browns. In 2001, he played in the XFL for the Orlando Rage and was named first team All-XFL as he owned the league's highest QB rating at 99.9.

Brohm was one of four family members to earn a gridiron letter from Louisville. He wrapped up his four-year collegiate career as one of the most prolific offensive players to wear Louisville's jersey. As a three-year starter for the Cards, Brohm ranks among the all-time leaders for passing yards, touchdown passes, completions, total offense and completion percentage.

As a student-athlete at Louisville, Brohm played two seasons of baseball with the Cleveland Indians' organization while playing football for the Cards. Brohm also was named the Kentucky High School Player of the Decade for the 1980s before attending Louisville, where his number was honored in 2006 for his contributions as a Cardinal quarterback.

Brohm received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Louisville in 1994. He and his wife, Jennifer, have a son, Brady, and daughter, Brooke.

QUICK STARTS

Since shifting to a high-flying offense to start the 2013 season, WKU has proven to be potent on their opening drive. In the past three seasons, WKU has opened with a score 19 times including 16 touchdowns over 30 games.

Additionally, Brandon Doughty is 75-of-90 (83.3) for 883 yards and 10 touchdowns on opening drives, including a perfect 7-of-7 and 6-of-6 drives against BGSU and UAB, respectively, in 2014. Doughty was 4-for-4 for 67 yards against LA Tech and 7-for-7 for 76 yards against Miami this season.

AT OR BEFORE NOON

When the Hilltoppers and Blue Raiders kickoff at 11 a.m. on Saturday, it will be WKU's first of three 11 a.m. games on the 2015 slate. Since 2011, the Hilltoppers have played 12 games at or before Noon local time. WKU is 8-4 in those games, including four straight wins, part of last season's season-ending five-game winning streak.

SINCE 1989

It's been 26 years since the Hilltoppers last defeated the Blue Raiders at home in Bowling Green, a 31-16 victory on Sept. 16, 1989. Granted, there have been only four opportunities to do it and the series took a 15-year hiatus from 1992 to 2006, but a lot has happened in the world since then.

Notebook - TEAM

TOUGH OUT OF CONFERENCE

After going 0-12 against non-conference foes in their first three years as an FBS team (2009-11), WKU has turned it around and has been on a hot streak against teams from outside their conference.

Since 2012, the Hilltoppers are 13-5 against non-conference opponents with their only losses coming at Indiana (2015), at Illinois (2014), at Tennessee (2013), at Alabama (2012) and vs. Central Michigan in the 2012 Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl. WKU is 10-1 over that same span against teams from outside the Power 5 conferences.

BOWLING IS THE NEW STANDARD

Just six completed years into their transition into the FBS, the Hilltoppers are just about ready to shed the label of a newcomer to the FBS.

Of the 27 teams to transition to the FBS since 1987, only eight have reached their second bowl game within that six year window. WKU joins Marshall, Boise State, Idaho, Nevada, South Florida, Troy, and FAU in that very exclusive group.

EXPERIENCED TEAM + EXPERIENCED COACHING STAFF

Contrary to the youth of the 2014 team, the 2015 Hilltoppers return nearly 73-percent of their letterwinners, 87-percent of their total yards, and 73-percent of their total tackles, marks that have the Tops as the No. 16 most experienced team in the country heading into 2015, according to Phil Steele.

To go along with an experienced team in 2015, head coach Jeff Brohm's staff is also the most experienced coaching staff in Conference USA, combining for 206 years of collegiate coaching experience. North Texas is next on the list with 183 years.

GROUP OF FIVE? MORE LIKE GROUP OF EIGHT

WKU is one of eight "Group of Five" programs and one of just 32 teams in the FBS to win seven or more games in four consecutive seasons - the longest active streak in Conference USA.

QUICK HITS

- WKU has held a lead in all but one game that Jeff Brohm has been on the WKU sideline, either as the head coach or assistant coach (29 of 30).
- WKU has also held a lead in 33-of-34 games and in all but three games of the last three seasons. (40-of-41)
- Under Jeff Brohm, the Hilltoppers are 7-1 at home and have won six straight, the longest home winning streak since winning 10 between 2003-05.
- WKU is the first FBS team to have a 2,000-yard all-purpose player in four consecutive seasons when Leon Allen tallied 2,018 yards last season.
- Of the eight wins in 2014, six of them came over bowl-eligible opponents, a program record. Prior to that, WKU's high-water mark was four in 2013. In their first four seasons as a member of the FBS, the Hilltoppers beat just a combined three bowl-eligible teams.
- WKU's three games with at least 750 yards of offense or more trail only Baylor (5) and TCU (4) for the most games with 750 yards of offense or more since 2014.
- Safety Drell Greene became the first true freshman to see game action this season as he played in a reserve role in the Miami game.
- With their win at Vanderbilt, WKU became the first C-USA team to defeat an SEC opponent since UCF's win over Georgia in the 2010 Liberty Bowl. WKU is 3-1 against the SEC since 2012.
- WKU has closed consecutive regular seasons with four-game winning streaks and only defending national champion Florida State and Big 10 division champions Ohio State and Wisconsin have won more games in November over the past two seasons than WKU's eight.
- In the first game on Feix Field following the passing of legendary player and head coach Jimmy Feix, WKU scored 66 points in a victory over Old Dominion. Feix's No. 66 remains one of four retired jerseys for WKU.
- Of the eight rookie head coaches to be hired in 2014, Jeff Brohm was the only one to lead his team to a bowl victory.
- Wonderful Terry was the only defensive back with multiple interceptions last season to return them all for touchdowns. Terry was the first WKU player with three defensive scores in a season since Bobby Sippio had three touchdowns in 2000.

HITTING 1,500 AND BEYOND

WKU has had a running back reach the 1,500 yard mark in each of the last five seasons, becoming just the second program in NCAA history to have a 1,500-yard rusher in five consecutive seasons. Northern Illinois has a runner go for 1,500 from 2002 to 2006. Oregon (2009-12) and USC (1978-81) each had four consecutive seasons with a 1,500 yard rusher.

GROUND AND POUND

Dating back to 2010, WKU has had a 100-yard rusher in 48 of 66 games (72.7 percent), even with a shift to a high-flying passing attack.

Bobby Rainey rushed for 100-yards or more in nine of 12 games in 2010 and 10 of 12 in 2011. Antonio Andrews picked up in 2012 with 10 of 13 games and 11 of 12 in 2013. Leon Allen contributed six 100-yard performances in 2014 while Ace Wales tallied over 100 yards on the ground against UAB. Freshman D'Andre Ferby tallied his first 100-yard performance, and the first of 2015, against Miami (Ohio).

DON'T DOUBT DOUGHTY

In his first season as the starter, WKU quarterback Brandon Doughty lit up the Hilltopper record books and was the only quarterback in the country to lead multiple game-winning drives of 80 yards or longer during the 2013 season.

Both of those game-winning drives came in two of the last three weeks of the season against Army and Arkansas State. Trailing Army 17-14 with 4:16 left in West Point, Doughty completed 5-of-6 passes for 73 yards in leading WKU down the field for the go-ahead touchdown with 32 seconds remaining.

The Hilltoppers trailed Arkansas State 31-27 with 5:30 remaining in their season finale, but Doughty again delivered in the clutch, marching WKU 99 yards in 16 plays before throwing the game-winning touchdown pass to Willie McNeal with 10 seconds remaining.

SPREADING IT AROUND

The WKU passing attack spreads the wealth and has had at least seven different players catch a ball in 16 of 19 games since 2014, with a season-high 11 players catching at least one pass in the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl. In 2015, the Hilltoppers had nine players catch at least one pass against LA Tech, Miami and Rice. Seven players caught a pass at Indiana including five who caught at least three passes.

TAKE YOUR PICK

WKU found the strength in their passing game relied on their depth at the receiver position, forcing opposing defenses to defend each pass catcher - receivers and tight ends - with equal concern instead of keying on just one.

Against both LA Tech and Indiana, tight end Tyler Higbee led WKU in receptions but wide receiver Taywan Taylor was the yardage leader. The pattern repeated itself against Miami as Jared Dangerfield tallied a team-high 11 catches but Taylor led in yardage. The Hilltoppers are the only team in the nation with five receivers with 15 or more receptions: Taywan Taylor (32), Jared Dangerfield (29), Tyler Higbee (28), Antwane Grant (17) and Nicholas Norris (16).

DOWNFIELD BLOCKING

While WKU's offensive attack begins and ends with triggerman Brandon Doughty, over a third of WKU's passing yardage total come AFTER the catch, a credit to the importance of downfield blocking.

Notebook - PLAYERS

TAKE IT TO THE HOUSE

WKU's Red Zone defense ranked No. 17 nationally last season and they had a knack for the big play with their backs to their own end zone.

The Hilltoppers were the only team in the country with four defensive touchdowns of 80 yards or more. In fact, the four plays were WKU's longest plays of the year. Wonderful Terry was also one of three players in the country with three or more defensive touchdowns (Richard Leonard, FIU/Shaq Thompson, Washington).

In all, WKU had five defensive touchdowns on the year, the most since registering five in 2007, and the third-most nationally in 2014.

Player/Game	Play
Juwan Gardner vs. ODU	96 yd INT Return
Wonderful Terry vs. Illinois	95 yd Fumble Return
Wonderful Terry vs. UTEP	90 yd INT Return
Ricardo Singh vs. UAB	85 yd INT Return
Wonderful Terry vs. Navy	43 yd INT Return

NOTE EXPANDED

Wonderful Terry converted all three defensive turnovers he got his hands on into touchdowns.

ALL-PURPOSE UNIVERSITY

WKU could be APU, for All-Purpose University, as the Hilltoppers have had an individual go for 100 or more APY in 59 of its last 61 games, dating back to Oct. 9, 2010 against FIU. WKU was held without a player getting 100 APY for the first time since that game at FAU on Oct. 18, 2014.

WKU is one of just five programs with five or more 2,000 yard all-purpose players in their school's history.

Six: Utah State

Five: Toledo, Tulsa, Northern Illinois, WKU

NEED TO KNOW RULE CHANGES

1. Crew of Eight Officials: The eighth official, the center judge (with the letter "C" on the uniform), is positioned in the offensive backfield opposite the referee.

2. Non-Standard Overbuilt Facemasks Are Illegal: This is a facemask characterized by greater weight and closer spacing between the bars. Use of the facemask is a safety issue as opponents can easily get their fingers caught in the tight space.

3. Illegal Equipment: Player is Out for One Play: Up until now, if the officials noticed that a player was wearing illegal equipment, the team was charged one of its three timeouts. The new rule is that the player must leave the game for at least one play and may not return until the equipment is made legal. His team may burn a timeout to keep him from missing a down, but the equipment must be corrected before he is allowed to play.

4. Pregame Warm-Ups: Teams Guaranteed Access to the Field: By the new rule, the teams are now guaranteed that they may remain on the field for pregame warm-ups until at least 22 minutes before the opening kickoff. The committee was concerned that teams were being forced to leave the field early because of other pregame activities, and thus were having to spend too much time in the locker room before the kickoff.

5. Resetting the Play Clock When the Ball is Not Ready for Play: When the play clock begins its count from 40 seconds, on rare occasions the officials will have difficulty getting a new ball from the sidelines. In such a case after some period of time, the referee will stop the game clock and signal for the play clock to be reset to 25 seconds.

6. Helmet off Defensive Player: Play Clock Set to 40 Seconds: When a player's helmet comes off, the game clock is stopped, and the player must leave the game for one play. Now the play clock is set to 40 seconds when a defensive player loses his helmet, and still to 25 seconds when it is a player on offense.

7. Pushing or Pulling an Opponent off the Pile: Unsportsmanlike Conduct: Starting in 2015, if a player forcibly pulls or pushes an opponent off the pile, he is to be charged with unsportsmanlike conduct. Here's why this is important: if a player is flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct twice in the game, he is automatically disqualified after the second offense.

8. Sideline Warning Returns: For a long time, the first infraction led to a sideline warning, with no yardage penalty. After a few years the rule was changed to assess a five-yard penalty for the first offense. Now, we are returning to the warning for the first infraction. No yardage penalty will result until the second offense.

9. Instant Replay: Blocking During an On-Side Kick May Be Reviewed: A rule that is not so well known is that the kicking team may not block until they are eligible to touch the ball. Starting in 2015, replay may also review whether the kicking team blocks before being eligible to touch the ball; if they do, it is a foul.

ALL-NAME TEAM NOMINEES

Without a doubt, WKU features some of college football's most unique and humorous names - all of which the players and program wear with pride. Below are some of those names and a brief backstory.

- Ge'Monee Brown

Inspired by the 1991 Mario Van Peebles movie, "New Jack City" - Also the roommate of fellow All-Name Teamer Wonderful Terry.

- Nick Holt V/VI

Defensive coordinator Nick Holt and his son, senior middle linebacker Nick Holt, are the fifth and sixth generations of "Nick Holt" in their family. The elder Holt's grandfather was also one of the first actors to play the character Tarzan as well as Flash Gordon, 1932 Olympic gold medalist Buster Crabbe.

- Prince Charles Iworah

Parents always told him he had royal blood and his first name is "Prince Charles", NOT "Prince"

- Dontavian "Lucky" Jackson

Mother had complications during his birth and claimed he was a "lucky" baby

- Wonderful Terry

Father is a pastor and drew on the name from the biblical passage Isaiah 9:6 - "And his name shall be called Wonderful" - Also the roommate of fellow All-Name Teamer Ge'Monee Brown.

IN-SEASON BIRTHDAYS

A number of Hilltoppers will celebrate their birthdays over the course of the season, and two Hilltopper freshmen, Sheldon Goins and Wesley Vollmer, will celebrate a birthday on gameday: Florida Atlantic and Marshall, respectively.

Brandon DOUGHTY

TALK ABOUT CLOSING STRONG

If you're only as good as your last performance, Brandon Doughty left the nation quite an impression. Over his final two games in 2014, Doughty was 65-of-92 (70.6-percent) for 977 yards with 13 touchdowns and two interceptions. During WKU's seven-game winning streak, Doughty was 177-of-254 (69.7-percent) for 2,475 yards, 26 touchdowns and just two interceptions.

Over his last nine games, he is 273-of-379 (72.0-percent) for 3,825 yards, 41 touchdowns and four interceptions.

TD TOSS STREAK

Brandon Doughty has thrown at least one touchdown pass in 19 consecutive games, the second-longest streak in the nation.

Player, Class	School	Streak	Next Opponent
Trevone Boykin, Sr.	TCU	20	at Kansas State, Oct. 10
Brandon Doughty, Sr.	WKU	19	Middle Tennessee, Oct. 10

NOTE EXPANDED

Doughty has thrown a touchdown in 26 of his 34 career appearances.

350 IN A HALF

Against Indiana, Brandon Doughty had 352 yards passing - at halftime. He repeated that performance the following week, going for 375 against Miami at the break. It was the third and fourth time in his career he had thrown for at least 350 yards by halftime, and according to ESPN Stats and Info, that's more than any other FBS quarterback in the last 10 years. Doughty also had 350 yards or more against Bowling Green (359) and Central Michigan (350).

- He also had at least 285 yards at halftime at Middle Tennessee (307) and at Marshall (285) in 2014 and 343 at Rice in 2015.

569 AND ABOVE

Only 10 times has an FBS quarterback thrown for more than 569 yards in a game since the 2004 season and of those 10 - two belong to Doughty. Doughty also added two of the top four single-game C-USA performances, just three games into the league.

Player	Team	Yds.	TD	Opp.

Brandon Doughty	WKU	569	6	Bowling Green, 8/29/14

IT'S GOOD TO BE HOME

Doughty's stat line at home in 2014: 159-of-213 (74.6), 2,107 yards, 24 touchdowns, no interceptions - an average of one touchdown per 8.8 attempts.

Updated for 2015, he has not thrown an INT at home since Oct. 15, 2013, a span of 387 passing attempts, and was the only FBS quarterback in 2014 without an INT at home. For perspective, 83 FBS teams had fewer than 24 TD passes all season while 18 teams did not amass Doughty's home passing yardage total all season.

Doughty's 24 touchdown passes at home were two more than any WKU quarterback had ever thrown IN AN ENTIRE SEASON entering 2014 while his 159 completions and 2,107 yards at home would rank fifth and sixth respectively in WKU single-season history.

HIS PLACE IN HISTORY

With 200 more yards, Brandon Doughty will become just the 91st quarterback in FBS history to eclipse 10,000 career yards. Doughty has already cracked the Top 100 and would be the fourth signal caller from a Kentucky FBS school to make it to 10,000, joining Jared Lorenzen (Kentucky; 10,354; 75th), Brian Brohm (Louisville; 10,775; 63rd) and Chris Redman (Louisville; 12,541; 20th).

According to Sports-Reference.com, Doughty's current 69.5-percent completion percentage and 171.7 passer rating over WKU's two seasons in Conference USA are league-best marks. Houston's Case Keenum finished with 69.4 and 160.6 marks, respectively. Doughty's 6,830 passing yards as a C-USA passer are 26th-most all-time.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) -- Joe Brown stopped Nathan Marcus a yard shy of the goal line on a two-point conversion attempt with 33 seconds left to preserve Western Kentucky's 14-12 victory over Vanderbilt on Thursday night.

Brown made an open-field tackle after Marcus caught Johnny McCrary's pass on the conversion attempt. Vanderbilt had cut the lead to 14-12 when McCrary threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Trent Sherfield on fourth-and-goal.

Leon Allen had a 4-yard touchdown run and Tyler Higbee caught a 9-yard touchdown pass for Western Kentucky. Higbee set up Allen's score with a 65-yard reception. Tommy Openshaw kicked field goals of 49 and 26-yards for Vanderbilt. Vanderbilt had three scoreless trips inside Western Kentucky's 10-yard line. McCrary had two passes intercepted in the end zone, and Openshaw missed a 28-yard field goal after a low snap.

Higbee finally awoke WKU's offense late in the third quarter when he caught a Brandon Doughty pass, headed to the right sideline and broke free before finally getting brought down at the Vanderbilt 4 to set up the Hilltoppers' first touchdown.

GAME NOTES

- The Hilltoppers have now have opened four consecutive seasons with a win, the longest streak since winning five openers from 1996 to 2000.
- The victory was the first for WKU in a true road game in the season opener since winning at UT-Martin in the opener of the 1999 season.
- This is the sixth straight win for the Hilltoppers, which marks the longest winning streak since winning 13 between 2002 and 2003.
- WKU was held scoreless in a half for the first time since playing Army on Nov. 9, 2013.
- The 10 punts in the game were the most by the Hilltoppers since 10 in the Florida Atlantic game in 2010 (Nov. 6).
- WKU's 247 yards of total offense were the fewest in a win in the FBS era.
- Brandon Doughty moved into second in career passing yards as his total of 209 for the game pushed his career mark to 8,009.
- Senior linebackers Nick Holt and Nick Newton each intercepted their first career pass in the endzone, halting a pair of Vanderbilt scoring drives.

WKU	14	13	11	3	-	41
Sept. 10, 2015 • Houchens-Smith Stadium • Bowling Green, Ky. • 17,515

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) -- Brandon Doughty threw for 441 yards, redshirt freshman D'Andre Ferby relieved an injured Leon Allen to add a short touchdown among several key runs to help Western Kentucky survive Louisiana Tech 41-38 for an important - yet costly - Conference USA victory Thursday night.

After a brief lull, the Hilltoppers (2-0, 1-0) regrouped behind Doughty and Ferby, who rushed four times for 13 yards on a drive ending with a 1-yard TD run and two-point conversion catch for a 38-24 lead with 54 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs scored twice (1-1, 0-1) late in the fourth but ran out of time.

Doughty bounced back from a 209-yard effort at Vanderbilt to complete 28 of 38 passes with a 37-yard touchdown and win the statistical battle with Bulldogs counterpart and Florida transfer Jeff Driskel, who was 28 of 48 for 357 yards and two TDs.

Ferby also rushed 14 times for 39 yards to provide the emotional lift the Hilltoppers needed in this early matchup of C-USA divisional favorites.

GAME NOTES

- This is the seventh straight win for the Hilltoppers, which marks the longest winning streak since winning 13 between 2002 and 2003.
- This marks the first time since the 2000 season that WKU won both its home and away openers in a season.
- After only 297 yards of total offense in last season's match up, WKU exploded for 590 yards in the game.
- The 441 passing yards by Brandon Doughty are now the most thrown by a quarterback in the FBS this season.
- Kylen Towner returned a kickoff in the second quarter for a career-long 98-yard touchdown. The return was the sixth-longest in school history and longest since 2001.
- Tyler Higbee leads all FBS tight ends this season in receiving yards with 190 yards in two games, after adding 88 tonight.
- Doughty is now 67-78 (85.9%) for 800 yards and 9 TDs on opening drives. Tonight, Doughty was 4-4 for 67 yards and TD on the first drive.

Sept. 19, 2015 • Memorial Stadium • Bloomington, Ind. • 44,823

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) -- Jordan Howard ran for 203 yards and Nate Sudfeld threw for 355 yards and three touchdowns Saturday to lead Indiana to a 38-35 victory over Western Kentucky before a crowd of 44,823 at Memorial Stadium.

Howard, the Big Ten's leading rusher coming into the game, ran for 203 yards on 31 carries. On the game's final drive with Indiana clinging to a three-point lead and trying to run out the clock, Howard carried the ball seven times for 39 yards. His final carry, an 8-yard run, took the ball to the Western Kentucky 1 and Indiana opted to take a knee on the game's final play.

In the first half alone, the Hilltoppers amassed 395 yards of offense.

Brandon Doughty completed 35 of 46 passes for 484 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions for Western Kentucky. Tyler Higbee had 11 catches for 109 yards and a touchdown and Taywan Taylor had nine catches for 196 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for more than 1,200 yards of total offense. Indiana had 639 and Western Kentucky totaled 568 yards.

GAME NOTES

- The loss for the Hilltoppers snaps a seven-game winning streak, which was the longest winning streak since winning 13 between 2002 and 2003.
- The punt return for a touchdown by the Hoosiers was the first TD given up by the Hilltoppers on a punt return since Randall Cobb did so for Kentucky on Sept. 11, 2010.
- Senior quarterback Brandon Doughty threw for 484 yards in the game to become WKU's all-time leader in career passing yards with 8,934, passing Jeff Cesarone's 8,566 yards from 1984-87.
- Garrett Schwettman has split the uprights on 58 consecutive PATs, the third-longest streak in WKU history. He is the only kicker to post two streaks of 50+ as he held a run of 59 straight from 10/11/12-11/2/13.
- D'Andre Ferby rushed for two touchdowns and 58 yards in his first-career start. The 58 yards for Ferby were more than WKU running backs Leon Allen, Antonio Andrews and Bobby Rainey had in their first career starts.
- Taywan Taylor became the first WKU wide receiver to post a 100-yard receiving game this season as he finished with a career-high 196 yards, the second-most in a single game in school history, on nine catches and added a touchdown.
- Jared Dangerfield caught his 12th-career touchdown, moving into a tie for tenth in WKU history with Mitchell Henry.

Sept. 26, 2015 • Houchens-Smith Stadium • Bowling Green, Ky. • 20,320

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) -- Senior quarterback Brandon Doughty threw for 457 yards and six touchdowns - five in the first half - as Western Kentucky rolled over Miami (Ohio) 56-14 on Saturday.

Doughty, who passed for 381 yards in the first half, had touchdown passes of nine, three, five, four and 59 yards over the first two quarters as WKU built a 49-7 halftime lead.

The 49 points were the most the Hilltoppers (3-1) had scored in a half since scoring 52 in the first half against West Virginia Tech on Sept. 8, 2007.

Western Kentucky junior wide receiver Taywan Taylor made nine catches for 154 yards and two touchdowns. Senior Jared Dangerfield hauled in 11 passes for 148 yards and a score.

Quarterbacks Drew Kummer and Gus Ragland each threw touchdown passes for the RedHawks (1-3).

GAME NOTES

- WKU scored on its opening drive of the game for the 19th time, with 16 touchdowns, in the past 29 games.
- Doughty went 7-for-7 for 76 yards and threw a touchdown on the drive. The perfect drive is the fourth of his career as he is now 74-of-87 (.85) for 880 yards and 10 touchdowns in his career on first drives.
- The 272 yards in the first quarter were the most for WKU in any quarter in school history.
- Brandon Doughty threw for 457 yards in the game to become WKU's all-time leader in career total yards, passing Justin Haddix's 8,890 yards from 2003-06. He also added six touchdown passes, most in a single game by a C-USA quarterback this season.
- Garrett Schwettman became WKU's all-time scoring leader with 304 points, passing Chris James' 298 points from 2004-07. With the eight extra points in the contest, Schwettman has now made more PATs than any player in WKU history with 175.
- The win was the sixth-straight home win for the Hilltoppers, the longest streak since moving to FBS and longest since winning 10 between 2003-05. WKU is now 6-1 at home under Jeff Brohm.
- The attendance of 20,320 was the most in the Brohm era and most since the Morgan State game on Sept. 21, 2013.

Oct. 3, 2015 • Rice Stadium • Houston, Texas • 20,124

HOUSTON, Texas (AP) -- Brandon Doughty threw for 409 yards and four first-half touchdowns to lead Western Kentucky to a 49-10 win over Rice on Saturday.

D'Andre Ferby added two touchdown runs for the Hilltoppers (4-1, 2-0 Conference USA), who piled up 504 yards.

Doughty finished 28 of 38 and moved into the top 100 in NCAA for career passing yards with 9,800. He connected with Taywan Taylor for 10 yards, Jared Dangerfield for 39 and Antwane Grant for 45 in the first quarter. In the second he connected with Tyler Higbee for 30 yards to make it 28-3.

Doughty has thrown for 400-plus yards in six of his last seven games with an average of 356 yards in the first half of the last three after having 343 against Rice.

Western Kentucky turned five Rice (2-3, 0-1) turnovers into touchdowns.

Darmontre Warr also ran for a Western Kentucky touchdown.

GAME NOTES

- WKU is 2-0 in conference play for the second time in the FBS era and first since 2012 when WKU began Sun Belt play 2-1.
- The Hilltoppers' 49-10 win was its largest margin of victory in a conference game since defeating Western Illinois 45-3 in 2005. It also represented the largest margin of victory in a conference game in the FBS era.
- The Hilltoppers posted over 230 yards of total offense in the first quarter for their second consecutive game as WKU had 240 in the opening period.
- With his 409 passing yards, senior quarterback Brandon Doughty moved his season total to 2,000, which is good for the seventh-most in a single season by a WKU quarterback after just five games.
- Wonderful Terry recorded his first interception of the season, which was the fourth forced turnover of his career and first he had not returned for a touchdown.
- Jared Dangerfield caught his 14th-career touchdown, moving into a tie for seventh in WKU history.
- Doughty now has 15 passing touchdowns on the season, which ties for fifth in school history in a single season. Doughty is the only quarterback to be in the Top 10 in the category in three separate seasons.
