BLUE RAIDER NETWORK

Middle Tennessee's excellent women's basketball radio coverage took a significant stride in 2007-08 and will continue this season, with the flagship station for the Blue Raiders on WMOT 89.5 FM in Murfreesboro. The 100,000-watt station reaches beyond Bowling Green, Ky., to the north, Cookeville, Tenn., to the east, the Tennessee River to the west and to Fayetteville, Tenn., in the south.

All Blue Raider women's basketball games may also be heard on the Internet at GoBlueRaiders.com. Video streaming has been added for all Middle Tennessee home games at GoBlueRaiders.com.

Dick Palmer begins his 33rd season of calling the play-by-play action for Middle Tennessee basketball and his 11th as the lead announcer for the women's basketball team. Palmer, a 1960 graduate of Middle Tennessee, has been broadcasting sporting events for the past 50 years. Palmer is the brother of current team Chaplin B. E. Palmer.

From 1971 until his return to Murfreesboro, he was the voice of the Memphis Blues Class AA baseball team, the Memphis Pros (later the Tams) in the American Basketball Association and the Memphis Grizzlies in the World Football League. Earlier, he worked in Jackson, Tenn., for nine years, broadcasting a wide range of high school sports and Union University's basketball games.

Palmer, who co-hosted the first sports call-in show in Nashville in the mid-1970s, was the studio host for Vol Network football broadcasts for five years and has called the TSSAA Basketball State Tournament on the Tennessee Sports Radio Network every year since 1982. He has also served as a Little League baseball coach for over 40 years and in many other capacities in the Optimist Club Little League, including as president of the entire league.

Palmer and his wife, DeLois, have three sons, Richard, Mike and Jon, and two granddaughters, Kaitlyn and Abigail.

Dick Palmer and Duane Hickey will call the action of Blue Raider women's basketball for the 2015-16 season.

RICK INSELL RADIO SHOW

The Blue Raider Network carries Rick Insell LIVE on WMOT and WGNS AM-FM each Monday night from 6:00 to 7:00 PM. The show originates from Sam's All-American Sports Grill in Murfreesboro starting in January and is open to the public.

COVERING MT

Credentials

Arrangements for media credentials for the 2015-16 basketball season should be directed to the Athletic Communications office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in an email to Tony Stinnett (stinnett@goblueraiders.com). Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily publications and television stations that cover Middle Tennessee basketball on a regular basis. Student publications will be limited to one working credential and one photo pass, if needed. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space-available basis.

Email Service

Basketball releases can be obtained electronically by contacting Tony Stinnett. The release will be sent as an HTML file. This is a media service ONLY.

Practice Coverage

Practices are open to the media. Media wishing to attend practice are encouraged to contact Tony Stinnett in advance. Team meetings before, during, and after practice are private. Check with the Athletic Communications office for practice times.

Media Parking

Parking space can be reserved with a request received by Middle Tennessee's Athletics Communications office at least one working day prior to the game. Media parking is located in the Greenland Drive parking lot. Satellite trucks will park on the north side of the Floyd Stadium pressbox and will enter off Middle Tennessee Boulevard just before the Faulkinberry Road entrance.

Postgame Interviews

After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Rick Insell will be made available to members of the media. The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, interviews will be conducted in the media room. On the road, requested players and Coach Insell will be brought to a designated area outside the locker room or to the visiting media room.

Postgame Services

Complete individual and team statistics, play-by-play, and postgame quotes will be available to the media following each game. One hour prior to tipoff, media packets containing game programs, flipcards, updated stats, and game notes will be distributed in the media working area. A fax service is also available upon request. A pregame meal is served in the media area 90 minutes before tipoff.

Telephones

There are a limited number of telephones available along press row. They are for first-come, first-serve use only. It is suggested that media members wishing to have a private line contact Steve Prichard, director of telecommunications, at 615-898-2991. For specific line location, please list Tony Stinnett as the contact from the athletic department. Telephone lines for visiting radio networks have been installed by Middle Tennessee. Reciprocating trade agreements for these lines can be made by contacting Tony Stinnett at 615-898-5270.

Radio Coverage

Radio broadcast permission must be obtained in advance, along with press row reservations. Middle Tennessee maintains a courtesy line for use by schools who can provide reciprocal arrangements for the Blue Raider Network. A radio station wishing to obtain an ISDN line must contact Steve Prichard, director of telecommunications, at 615-898-2991.

Media Will-Call

For members of the media wishing to pick their credential up at media will call, it is located at the second level of the Murphy Center near the Northeast corner next to the elevator.

Coach and Student-Athlete Interviews

All interviews with head coach Rick Insell and student-athletes should be directed through the Middle Tennessee Athletic Communications office. Contact Tony Stinnett at stinnett@goblueraiders.com or 615-898-5270.

Internet Guidelines

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of Middle Tennessee's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and an outlet's agreement to abide by any restrictions Middle Tennessee may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by MT may result in revocation of press credentials.

Middle Tennessee reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real-time play-by-play, game-related statistics, and information through the Internet. ("real time" is defined as any online media providing live, continual play-by-play coverage, in-game statistics, digital photographs, or audio or video of an event.)

Internet Access

Press row in Murphy Center is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to utilize the wireless Internet simply need to click on the Internet and use the Guest option located at the bottom of the screen. Ethernet lines are also available in the Athletic Communications office.

Website

All of Middle Tennessee's news releases and statistics, as well as other information pertaining to the Athletic Department, can be accessed at GoBlueRaiders.com. For more in-depth updates during the game, follow @MTAthletics and @MT_WBB on Twitter.

INSELL

HEAD COACH
11TH SEASON
MIDDLE TENNESSEE, 1977

There has been no other coach in Middle Tennessee women's basketball history that produced the success that Rick Insell has in 10 seasons. Since his arrival to Middle Tennessee in 2005, he has led the Raiders to eight NCAA Tournament appearances, two WNITs, coached five All-Americans and grew four WNBA Draft picks.

In his 10 years, the five-time hall of fame inductee has established a track record unlike any other in the Blue Raiders' rich women's basketball history, while also creating lofty expectations. Entering his 11th season leading his alma mater's women's basketball program, Insell has also positioned Middle Tennessee as one of the winningest programs nationally.

Insell, the program's all-time winningest coach with 252 victories, is among the nation's leaders in his profession. Middle Tennessee's .770 winning percentage over the last five years is 15th nationally, and the program's .687 ledger is 17th best all-time.

Insell is listed ninth on the Division I all-time winningest coach list (by percentage) with a .766 ledger. His is listed seventh on the Division I winningest active coaches list.

Under Insell's watch, Middle Tennessee is the only program nationally to have the NCAA Division I scoring champion three consecutive years (Amber Holt, 2008, Alysha Clark, 2009, Alysha Clark, 2010). Clark's back-to-back reign made her just the third women's basketball player in NCAA history to accomplish the feat and the first in almost a decade.

Middle Tennessee has also participated in a national postseason tournament in each of Insell's 10 previous seasons, playing in eight NCAA Regionals and two WNITs. The 2014-15 Blue Raiders won three postseason games and reached the quarterfinals of the WNIT.

Attendance has also spiked during Insell's tenure. Middle Tennessee has ranked among the Top 25 nationally in attendance in each of the last three seasons, and the Blue Raiders have been ranked in the Top 30 nationally in eight of Insell's 10 seasons. The top 26 crowds in program history all have occurred during Insell's tenure.

Insell enters his 11th season at Middle Tennessee with a remarkable 252-77 (.766) ledger. He surpassed Lewis Bivens as the program's all-time winningest coach with a 60-39 win at South Alabama (1/5/13), which was his 183rd victory at that time. On March 5, 2014, Insell secured his 1,000th career win, which includes his 775 victories at nearby Shelbyville Central High School.

His 100th victory came in the 2009 Sun Belt Tournament Championship game, as the Blue Raiders clinched the title over UALR. Insell also amassed an impressive Sun Belt ledger, posting a 142-18 (.888) mark during his tenure, including the league's last undefeated marks of 16-0 in 2011-12 and an 18-0 mark during the 2006-07 campaign. In eight Sun Belt Tournament appearances, he has lost just three times in 22 tries.

During the regular season against conference opponents, Middle Tennessee has won the last 60 out of the last 64 inside the historic Murphy Center.

Insell has collected seven regular-season championships (six in the Sun Belt, one in Conference USA) and six tournament titles (five in the SBC, one in C-USA) to his mantle. The six tournament titles also carried automatic berths into the NCAA Regionals. Insell's teams have also warranted two at-large NCAA Regional berths (2011, 2012). His 2008 and 2015 teams participated in the WNIT. Middle Tennessee has participated in the postseason in each of Insell's 10 seasons.

Middle Tennessee also has won at least 20 contests in each of Insell's 10 seasons, including a school-record 30 victories during the 2006-07 campaign. The Blue Raiders also owned the nation's longest winning streak at 27 games and didn't lose for more than 100 days during the season.

Middle Tennessee also had a 20-game win streak in 2011-12, which was the second-longest in program history. The top four longest-win streaks in school history have occurred under Insell and each has been at least 16 games. In 2013-14 his team strung together a 17-game win streak and finished the year with 29 victories, ranking second-most in program history.

Insell has also been the coach for four WNBA selections during his 10 seasons, including Alysha Clark, who was chosen 17th overall by the San Antonio Silver Stars in the 2010 Draft. She joined Amber Holt, selected ninth overall by the Connecticut Sun in 2008; Chrissy Givens, picked 31st overall by the Phoenix Mercury in 2007; and Cheyenne Parker, selected fifth overall by the Chicago Sky in 2015.

The Blue Raiders were one of just 13 programs nationally to produce at least one player in three of the four WNBA Drafts from 2007-10, joining Connecticut, Stanford, Oklahoma, North Carolina, Baylor, Texas A&M, Duke, Maryland, Virginia, Georgia, Purdue and Vanderbilt.

All of Middle Tennessee's All-American selections also have been developed by Insell, starting with Givens in 2007, and Holt in 2008. Clark became the first player in the MT record books to garner All-America accolades in more than one season when she collected honors in 2009 and 2010.

Most recently, Ebony Rowe was tabbed a Freshman All-American, becoming the first player in school history to receive the nod, in 2011. Rowe was named Honorable Mention All-American by the Associated Press and the WBCA in 2012-13 and 2013-14.

Through the conclusion of the 2009-10 campaign, Insell had tutored a player in the nation's top 10 in scoring during the last 99 NCAA reporting periods, dating back to January 18, 2007. Since taking the reins of the program through 2009-10, Insell placed a player in the top 10 114 times in 121 reporting dates, with 85 of the 114 among the top five. Clark (935 points in 2009) and Holt (930 points in 2008) currently rank fifth and sixth, respectively, on the NCAA's single-season scoring list.

As a team, Middle Tennessee has ranked among the national leaders in scoring offense and steals per game in each of Insell's 10 seasons. The Blue Raiders have placed as high as second in the country for 3-pointers made per game, while Kortni Jones earned the same ranking two years after hitting a single-season school and Sun Belt record 115 from behind the arc. Her total placed her in the top 10 all-time in NCAA history. Jones' 257 triples made her the best three-point shooter in program history and second all-time in the Sun Belt.

Middle Tennessee has earned a national reputation for not being afraid to play any opponent. Anyone. Anywhere. Anytime. That is the mantra Insell and his program employ and may be one of his biggest impacts on the program. His program has played many top programs including Tennessee, Penn State, Virginia, Minnesota, Arizona, Arizona State, Indiana, Alabama, Kentucky, Arkansas, Ole Miss, Georgia Tech, Xavier, USF, James Madison, Kansas State, St. Bonaventure, UNC Wilmington, South Dakota State, Clemson, Miami (FL) and Mississippi State.

In 2013-14, the Blue Raiders picked up the most wins over power-six schools, knocking off Miami, Mississippi State, UCF, USF and Clemson. The Raiders welcomed Tennessee in front of the second largest crowd of 11,227. MT then hosted Kennesaw State for Education Day, welcoming 10,028 fans to the Glass house.

Middle Tennessee made its first trip to Baton Rouge, La., to face LSU in 2008-09 and defeated the Tigers for the second-straight campaign. On Dec. 28, 2007, the Blue Raiders pulled off one of the biggest upsets in the nation, defeating then-No. 8 LSU inside the Murphy Center, 67-56, in front of the third-largest crowd in school history (7,858).

The squad has also knocked off then-No. 8 Georgia on the road, 70-62, during the 2006-07 season and welcomed defending national champion and preseason No. 1 Maryland to the historic Murphy Center for the 2006-07 season opener.

Middle Tennessee won the Sun Belt Tournament five times in Insell's first eight seasons, advancing to the NCAA Tournament each time. In 2007, the Blue Raiders earned their first NCAA Tournament victory under his guidance with a First Round triumph over Gonzaga.

In 2006, MT faced Utah. In 2009, Middle Tennessee battled Michigan State before they faced Mississippi State in 2010. In 2011, MT garnered the second at-large bid in program history and faced Georgia during the First Round. The team was fortunate enough to collect a second-straight at-large berth in 2012 and remained close to home, playing in Nashville at Vanderbilt. MT played at Louisville in 2012 and this past season took on Oregon State in Seattle.

The 2007-08 campaign saw the Blue Raiders playing in the Postseason WNIT, defeating Western Carolina in the opening round before falling in overtime at Kentucky.

Middle Tennessee has reached the top 25 rankings four times under his watch, including the first preseason ranking in school history with a No. 24 listing by the Associated Press prior to 2009-10. His team remained steady in the polls in 2013-14, reaching as high as 20th in the USA Today

Coaches poll and 21st in the Associated Press Poll.

The highest ranking in school history came during the 2006-07 campaign, when the Lady Raiders reached an unprecedented height of No. 16 in both the Associated Press and coaches polls. No other program in Sun Belt history won more regular-season conference games over a four-year span than Insell's Blue Raiders. MT captured 66 wins during the four-year stretch from 2006-07 to 2009-10, setting a new conference mark and bettering its own league mark and topping the Louisiana Tech teams from 1997-98 to 2000-01.

In 2013-14, the Blue Raiders produced a 29-5 record and a 15-1 mark in their first year in Conference USA. The Raiders won the regular season and conference titles en route to the schools' 17th NCAA Tournament appearance. Ebony Rowe finished her illustrious career as the school's all-time leading scorer. She set numerous school records en route to C-USA Player of the Year honors. Meanwhile, Murfreesboro native Olivia Jones grabbed C-USA Freshman of the Year accolades for her outstanding rookie campaign. The Blue Raiders made a school-record sixth straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

In 2012-13, Insell guided his team to a 25-8 record and a 17-3 mark in SBC action as the Raiders clinched another Sun Belt regular season title. MT also won its seventh Sun Belt Tournament title.

In 2011-12, he molded a squad that had lost just one senior into a 16-0 Sun Belt regular-season mark, and was awarded as the Sun Belt Coach of the Year by his peers for the third time in his tenure. Only two programs in the last 20 years of the conference have earned undefeated league records: Middle Tennessee and Louisiana Tech. And the Blue Raiders own the last two to set the standard. Highlighting the year was a 70-58 home win over No. 6 Kentucky, arguably the biggest triumph in school history.

The 2010-11 campaign may have been one of his more impressive coaching jobs, as he guided a squad featuring 11 sophomores and freshmen to the Sun Belt East Division title for the third-

The 2009-10 Middle Tennessee squad, led by a veteran core of five seniors, four of whom each scored at least 1,000 points in their Blue Raider careers, finished 25-6 and reached the NCAA Tournament after Clark netted the game-winning basket against UALR in overtime with 1.8 seconds left in the SBC final. The four players scoring their 1,000th point in the same season made Middle Tennessee just the sixth team in NCAA women's basketball history to accomplish the feat.

Insell led his team to a 28-6 record in 2008-09, and he captured his second Sun Belt Coach of the Year award along the way. He previously was named the league's best following the 2006-07 campaign.

The Blue Raiders participated in the 2008 Preseason WNIT and matched a school record with a 15-1 (.938) mark inside the Murphy Center. The Blue Raiders won 18 in a row at one point, with all but one of the conference wins being by double-digit margins.

In 2007-08, the Holt-led team finished 22-12, including 14-4 in the Sun Belt. The previous season, Insell guided the Blue Raiders to a 30-4 record and their fourth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance and Sun Belt Tournament title, tying school records for both achievements. During Insell's first year on the bench, 2005-06, MT posted a 20-11 (10-4 SBC) mark.

Insell's system churns out top scorers, including the top-four single-season leaders in school history: Clark, 935 (2008-09); Holt, 930 (2007-08); Clark, 824 (2009-10) and Givens, 768 (2006-07). With the addition of Clark, Brandi Brown, Chelsia Lymon and Jackie Pickel to the 1,000-point club in 2009-10, the group now includes 28 former Middle Tennessee greats.

His mark has also been noticed on the recruiting trail. His first class ranked No. 10 nationally and included 2010 graduates Brown, Lymon and Pickel. The 2009-10 five-player class, all hailing from Tennessee, was rated as high as No. 27 by ESPN HoopGurlz and No. 38 by Blue Star Basketball's Chris Mennig. He also paired with former Riverdale High School coach Micheal Burt in co-authoring The Anatomy of Winning - How to REWIRE People to Win. The book was released March 1, 2009, as the Blue Raiders closed the regular season with a home victory against Western Kentucky on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS).

A 1977 Middle Tennessee graduate, Insell built a high school girls' basketball dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, just a 30-minute drive from the MT campus. He guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 Tennessee Secondary Schools Athletic Association (TSSAA) Class 3A state championships and two USA Today national championships (1989, 1991), compiling a sparkling 775-148 (84.0 percent) ledger during his 28-year tenure.

He was named the USA Today National High School Coach of the Year following both national titles and was also tabbed the Converse National High School Coach of the Year in 1990 and 1992.

A name synonymous with high school girl's basketball in the state, Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins (110), consecutive state titles with four (1989-92) and most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986-89-90-91-92-95-2000-01-03-04). The 110 straight triumphs are seventh in the national record books.

His 1991 Golden Eaglette squad was selected as the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year, the first high school team to be recognized.

Insell was elected to the National High School Hall of Fame in February 2007 and was one of 12 members of the 2007 class. He is one of only six Tennesseans, including just the fourth coach, elected to the hall of fame.

He was voted the 2010 recipient of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame's Morgan Wootten Award for Lifetime Achievement for High School Girls' Basketball, an award he was presented with by Wootten personally at the McDonald's All-American Game festivities in late March 2010 in Columbus, Ohio.

A fourth career hall of fame honor was bestowed upon him this past year, as it was announced in December 2011 he would be one of 10 inductees of the 2012 class into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame. The annual banquet and reception was held in May 2012 in Nashville. Shelbyville Central won 23 district championships, 16 regional titles and appeared in the Class 3A state championship game a remarkable 15 times during his career at the school. He developed six Tennessee Class 3A Miss Basketball award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players either received athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Insell earned his fifth hall of fame induction on May 9, 2013. He was enshrined into the Cannon Courier Hall of Fame which honors former athletes and individuals that have lived in Cannon County and made a significant contribution to the area.

The Woodbury, Tenn., native's first hall of fame honor came in 2003 when he was elected to the TSSAA Hall of Fame. His 775 career victories at Shelbyville Central ranks him 20th in the nation and sixth in the state in the all-time high school charts.

Additionally, Insell's Shelbyville Central team received a special invitation to the Oval Office from President George H. W. Bush for its academic and athletic achievement. His teams have also been honored in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, the Tennessee State Senate and House of Representatives and by two Tennessee governors.

On the court success is not the only concern of Insell, as he has made sure his players get the job done in the classroom as well. His Shelbyville Central teams received the TSSAA Distinguished Award for Academic Success from 1989-to-2000, an award based on team grade point average. The lowest cumulative GPA during that timeframe was 3.4 and the highest was 3.98.

Insell's success during his time at Shelbyville Central was not limited to high school. He won three AAU national championships (1988, 1998 and 2004). He was the first coach of the Kodak High School All-American Game in 1992 and served as coach of the South Team at the 2002 Olympic Festival, the first Youth Development Festival by USA Basketball.

Insell is married to the former Deborah Spry of Woodbury, Tenn. The couple has three sons - Tom, Kyle and Matt. Tom is married to the former Sarah Stewart of Shelbyville and they have two daughters, Carter and Caroline and one son Charley. Kyle is married to the former Megan Parsons, and Matt is currently the head women's basketball coach at the University of Mississippi.

BREWTON

ASSISTANT COACH
SIXTH SEASON
LIBERTY, 2000

Veteran collegiate assistant women's basketball coach Kim Brewton begins her sixth season with the Blue Raiders in 2015-16. Brewton joined Head Coach Rick Insell's coaching staff in July 2010.

Brewton has helped transform the Blue Raider backcourt during her tenure, including helping Kortni Jones successfully move from the point guard to shooting guard position. In her first year playing primarily at the '2', Jones became an All-Sun Belt First Team honoree and finished as the team's leading scorer.

Jones also set single-season school and conference records for 3-pointers made (115) and attempted (329), placing second nationally and tying for 10th on the all-time NCAA list for conversions. Jones also became the first MT women's basketball player to earn an invitation to the State Farm 3-Point Championships.

Shanice Cason stepped into the starting role for 30 games in 2011-12 as the team's point guard and led the squad in assist/turnover ratio. Meanwhile, walk-on Caroline Warden became a go-to player during the Blue Raiders' successful run to the Sun Belt Conference regular season and tournament titles.

In 2013-14, Brewton helped combo forward/guard Olivia Jones garner 2014 Conference USA Freshman of the Year honors. The newcomer pulled in a league-leading 7.4 rebounds per game among freshmen.

Olivia Jones went on to earn first-team All-Conference honors in 2014-15, and she is the C-USA Preseason Player of the Year in 2015-16. Jones broke seven sophomore records at Middle Tennessee in 2014-15.

Middle Tennessee has enjoyed its top shooting performances from beyond the perimeter during Brewton's tenure. The Blue Raiders have connected on 200-plus 3-pointers eight times in program history, and four of those have taken place during Brewton's tenure.

In her first season with the MT program, Brewton was instrumental in the development of the perimeter players, which included senior Anne Marie Lanning netting her 1,000th career point and being selected to the All-Sun Belt First Team. Kortni Jones also moved into second place on the school's single-season list for assists under Brewton's watch.

Prior to arriving in Murfreesboro, Brewton spent six seasons, 2004-05 through 2009-10, as an assistant for her father, Rick Reeves, at Gardner-Webb in Boiling Springs, N.C.

While with the Runnin' Bulldogs, she was the team's recruiting coordinator and helped bring in a nationally-ranked class in 2007-08. The program tallied just five wins in the year before she was hired but registered a school-record 28 in 2009-10, including 16 consecutive, on its way to the first Big South regular-season crown in school history and a WNIT berth. She coached Margaret Roundtree to Big South Player of the Year accolades, while three others made the all-conference teams during her tenure.

The Lynchburg, Va., native spent the 2002-03 and 2003-04 seasons as the administrative assistant and radio color analyst at Southern Miss. She completed her master's degree in sports administration at Southern Miss in 2002.

Brewton was a three-year letterwinner at Liberty in Lynchburg, Va., where she played for her father for two years. The Flames won three-straight Big South titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament three times, including the 1998 campaign, in which they were 28-0 entering the field only to be stopped in the opening round by top seed and eventual national champion Tennessee.

She graduated Summa Cum Laude from Liberty in 2000, earning her bachelor's degree in sports management.

Brewton is the mother of two daughters, Grace (12) and Kaly (8). She was married in August 2011 to Eric Brewton. The couple welcomed a son, Gabriel, in September, 2015.

HODGES*ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON
TENNESSEE TECH, 2004

Middle Tennessee head women's basketball coach Rick Insell announced the return of former Blue Raider assistant Tom Hodges to his coaching staff on April 16, 2014.

Hodges coaches the post players and assists with recruiting duties at Middle Tennessee.

"It is exciting to have an opportunity to come back and work at Middle Tennessee with Coach Insell," said Hodges. "The strides and development the University and the Athletic Department have made since I left is amazing under the leadership of Dr. Sidney A. McPhee and Chris Massaro. I have admired from afar the advancements that have taken place and the accomplishments that have been achieved under Coach Insell. It is overwhelming to think that we now have the privilege to be at the center of a Top 25 program once again."

A native of Shelbyville, Tenn., Hodges was previously a member of Coach Insell's staff from 2005-10. During his time in Murfreesboro, the Blue Raiders won four Sun Belt Conference championships and set numerous records in that five-year period. With an overall record of 126-38, Hodges was a part of wins over teams such as Georgia, LSU, Kentucky, Louisville, Indiana, Penn State, Minnesota, Arizona, and Old Dominion. Middle Tennessee also saw its home attendance grow from 600 fans per game to well more than 4,000 by the 2009-10 season.

Hodges has been a part of seven conference championships, four trips to the NCAA Tournament, and two trips the Women's NIT in just 12 years. Hodges has coached six conference players of the year (Janet Holt and Emily Chrisian, Tennessee Tech; Katasha Brown, Chattanooga; Chrissy Givens and Alysha Clark, Middle Tennessee; Chynna Bozeman, Morehead State) and three All-Americans (Givens, Clark and Amber Holt, Middle Tennessee).

He has also had three players drafted by the WNBA (Givens - 31st to the Phoenix Mercury; Amber Holt - Ninth to Connecticut Sun; and Clark - 17th to San Antonio Silver Stars). Also at Middle Tennessee, Hodges saw Holt lead the nation in scoring (28.3 ppg) in 2007-2008, while Clark also led the nation in scoring in 2008-2009 (28.5 ppg) and 2009-2010 (29.2 ppg).

Hodges was an assistant for the 2004-05 Chattanooga team that went 25-5, won the Southern Conference regular-season championship, and earned a berth to the Postseason WNIT. While at Chattanooga, he mentored two first-team All-Southern Conference players in Tiffani Roberson and Katasha Brown.

Hodges rejoined Coach Insell's staff after four years as the head coach at Morehead State, where he was the youngest head coach in Division I upon his hiring. In his first year with the Eagles, Hodges immediately continued the success the program had seen over the last few years, leading the Eagles to a 21-10 record in his first collegiate season as a head coach while guiding MSU to a third-place finish in the league race.

The 21 wins set a single-season school record for victories by a first year head coach. During his tenure at Morehead State, Hodges developed four All-Ohio Valley Conference honorees, including OVC Player of the Year Chynna Bozeman in 2010-11.

He began his coaching career at Tennessee Tech as an undergraduate assistant for coach legendary coach Bill Worrell. The Golden Eagles won two Ohio Valley Conference regular-season titles during Hodges' time, amassing a 78-42 record, including 26-4 in 2000-01 (which included the nation's longest winning streak of 19 games) and 22-8 in 2001-02.

Hodges received his bachelor's degree in extended education with a concentration in health and history in 2004 from Tennessee Tech. In the summer of 2011, Hodges was in the inaugural graduation class of the Center for Coaching Excellence held at Columbia University.

He was married in June of 2009, to the former Hillary Maxwell, who was previously head girls' basketball coach at Riverdale High School in Murfreesboro, Tenn. where she won a state title in 2010. The couple has two children, Cooper, 3, and Isabelle, who was born March, 2015.

Shalon
PILLOW*ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON
TENNESSEE, 2002

Shalon Pillow begins her second season on the Blue Raider coaching staff after five seasons at the University of Kentucky.

The Addyston, Ohio native assists with coaching duties as assigned, as well as help with the Blue Raiders recruiting efforts.

"We feel very fortunate to hire someone with the experience that Shalon has," said Insell. "She has played for Coach Pat Summitt and most recently served as an assistant at Kentucky the past five years. I am very happy to have someone of her caliber. She is classy individual and her presence will only help our staff."

In her first season at Middle Tennessee, Pillow assisted with post players and helped guide the Blue Raiders to 24 wins and the WNIT quarterfinals.

Kentucky posted a 137-39 record during Pillow's five-year tenure there. The Wildcats made three Elite Eight appearances and were SEC regular season champions in 2012.

In her first season in the Bluegrass, Pillow's tireless and consistent work ethic blended in perfectly with the UK Hoops staff. She coached and mentored the Wildcat post players, which included forward Victoria Dunlap, UK's first SEC Player of the Year and first State Farm/WBCA All-American since 1983. The Wildcats won a program-best 28 wins, were second in the SEC and reached the NCAA Elite Eight.

In her second year, Pillow once again helped lead the Cats to an impressive season as UK advanced to its second straight NCAA Tournament and finished ranked in the top 25 of the AP poll. The Wildcats finished second in the SEC race with a school-record-tying 11 league wins.

Dunlap was again named SEC Player of the Year by the AP and she ended her illustrious career ranked No. 2 in career scoring and rebounding.

Pillow came to Kentucky after one season as an assistant coach at Hofstra University in Long Island, N.Y., and three seasons at the University of South Florida in Tampa, Fla.

At Hofstra, Pillow coached the post players and helped the Pride compile a 16-14 record, which ranked as one of the top turnarounds in women's college basketball. Hofstra's 11-game improvement ranked fourth-best nationally. At USF, Pillow was the director of basketball operations for one season before being promoted to assistant coach during the 2006-07 and 2007-08 seasons.

Prior to her coaching stints at Hofstra and USF, Pillow was Camp Director and Event Operator for the Ohio Girls Basketball Report (OGBR), where she was responsible for directing the largest 8-10th grade summer camp in the Midwest. She also directed the Top 64 Showcase, and handled pre- and post-camp evaluations.

In addition to her position with the OGBR, Pillow served as a guest services representative at the Argosy Hotel in Lawrenceburg, Indiana, from 2003-05, where she assisted in the facility's marketing and promotions.

Pillow, a 6-foot-3 center, was a four-year letterwinner (1998-2002) at Tennessee under legendary coach Pat Summitt. She played in 108 career games and helped the Lady Vols advance to four NCAA Tournaments, including two Final Four appearances. In her collegiate career, the Lady Vols recorded a remarkable 124-5 record and a 53-3 slate in the SEC. She graduated from UT in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in general psychology and a minor in communications.

Following graduation, Pillow played for the Tennessee Fury of the National Women's Basketball League during its inaugural season, and appeared in 20 games. She also served as an assistant coach with the varsity team at Taylor High School in North Bend, Ohio, from 2003-04 and worked the Lady Vols' summer camps from 1998-2001.

She was a highly-decorated player coming out of Taylor High School, earning Nike and Parade Magazine All-America honors after averaging 22.4 points, 11.2 rebounds, 4.1 blocks and 3.0 steals per game as a senior. She also was tabbed by USA Today as one of the top 20 scholastic players in America and was a finalist for the Naismith High School Player of the Year Award.

Richard
LOWE

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
THIRD SEASON
MIDDLE TENNESSEE, 2011

Blue Raider alum Richard Lowe was named Director of Operations in July 2013.

Lowe, a 2011 alum, completed his degree in Electronic Media Journalism at Middle Tennessee. As Director of Operations, Lowe will coordinate all student-athletes academic schedules, team travel and assist with promotional efforts for MT women's basketball.

Most recently, Lowe served as head football coach of the Riverwood Junior Raiders in Sandy Springs, Ga. He also spent time as substitute teacher at Douglas County Schools (GA) and served as a youth basketball coach. Additionally, Lowe served as PA announcer for Spelman College.

During his time as a student at Middle Tennessee, the Atlanta native worked in a variety of capacities. Lowe spent time as the sports editor of the student newspaper Sidelines and served as sports director and producer for WMTS 88.3

In addition to his radio and journalism experience, Lowe was general manager and sports director for Middle Tennessee Television. During his tenure, he created and produced the Rick Insell Coaches' Show.

While earning a degree in Electronic Media Journalism, Lowe earned minors in speech & theater and athletic coaching.

Matt

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH
NINTH SEASON
MIDDLE TENNESSEE, 1993

Matt Riley is an assistant athletic director who oversees the strength and conditioning program for more than 300 student-athletes at Middle Tennessee. He has served as the head strength and conditioning coach for the women's basketball team the past nine years. Riley, in his 20th year at Middle Tennessee, was also instrumental in the design of the current weight room located adjacent to the football stadium.

A former offensive lineman under former athletics director and football coach Boots Donnelly, Riley returned to his alma mater to head up the weight and conditioning program and serve as strength coach in 1993 after heading two other programs following his graduation from Middle Tennessee.

Riley, a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MACC), is certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA), the National Association of Speed and Explosion (NASE) and the International Sports Science Association (ISSA). He is a member of each association as well as the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). As a player at Middle Tennessee in the mid-1980s, Riley started on the offensive line on two of the most successful teams in program history. The Blue Raiders advanced into the Division I-AA national semifinals in 1984 and were undefeated and the No. 1-ranked team nationally in 1985.

Riley was an assistant to strength coach Doc Kreis at Middle Tennessee in 1988 before being hired as the head strength and conditioning coach at Tennessee Tech in 1989. He served in that capacity for two years before being named the strength and conditioning coach at Southern Miss in 1991, where he worked for two years before returning to his alma mater.

Riley and his wife, Rajayna, have two children: daughter, Madison Cate, and son, Jackson Rhoad.

MALLETT

ATHLETIC TRAINER
FOURTH SEASON
SOUTH DAKOTA STATE, 2007

Michelle Mallett joined the Middle Tennessee Sports Medicine staff in August of 2012 after spending three years at Mount St. Mary's University as the Associate Athletic Trainer.

Mallett works directly with the women's basketball program, as well as supervising the athletic training graduate assistants. Other responsibilities include education of graduate and undergraduate athletic training curriculum in the classroom and training room, in addition to supply ordering and other administrative duties.

While at MSMU, Mallett provided athletic training services for 19 teams, specifically serving the women's basketball, women's lacrosse and men's and women's track and field teams.

Prior to MSMU, Mallett served as a graduate assistant at LA Tech University from 2007-2009, where she earned her Master's degree in Kinesiology.

The Watertown, S.D. native received her Bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from South Dakota State University in 2007.
