BLUE RAIDER NETWORK

Blue Raider football is on the air! The 2015 football season marks the ninth year of the Blue Raider Network under the umbrella of a joint venture between Middle Tennessee athletics and Learfield Sports Marketing.

The Blue Raider Network, which actually debuted in the early 1960s, is blessed with three major outlets for football and men's basketball, including ESPN Nashville 102.5 The Game in Nashville and 97.5 The Game in Murfreesboro, NewsRadio WGNS AM-FM (1450/100.5/101.9), and Middle Tennessee Public Radio WMOT-FM (89.5).

The combination of these three stations provides coverage to Middle Tennessee sports fans in a 100-mile radius of Murfreesboro.

ESPN Nashville The Game and Game 2 provide a strong signal to the northern half of Middle Tennessee and into southern Kentucky.

WGNS and 102.5 The Game will carry all Blue Raider football and men's basketball games along with the Rick Stockstill and Kermit Davis radio shows.

WGNS, which made its return to carrying Blue Raider athletics in 2005, blankets the local area by reaching to McMinnville to the east, Columbia to the west, and Gallatin to the north. The locally-owned station carried its first MT broadcast back in 1947.

Campus station WMOT 89.5 FM will also broadcast football and men's and women's basketball games for Middle Tennessee in 2015-16. WMOT, a 100,000-watt station, reaches beyond Bowling Green, Ky., to the north, Cookeville, Tenn., to the east, the Tennessee River in the west, and Huntsville, Ala. to the south.

All Blue Raider football, men's and women's basketball, and baseball broadcasts can also be heard on the Internet at GoBlueRaiders.com and on the all-new Blue Raider Gameday App.

THE NETWORK

WMOT FM 89.5 (Murfreesboro)
WGNS AM 1450 (Murfreesboro)
WGNS FM 100.5 (Murfreesboro)
WGNS FM 101.9 (Murfreesboro)
WPRT FM 102.5 (Nashville)
WPRT FM 97.5 (Murfreesboro)
WMSR AM 1320 (Manchester)
WATX AM 1600 (Cookeville)
WATX FM 101.9 (Cookeville)

RICK STOCKSTILL RADIO SHOW

The Blue Raider Network carries Rick Stockstill LIVE on WMOT, WPRT, and WGNS AM-FM each Monday night prior to a game from 7:00 to 8:00 PM. The show originates from Sam's All-American Sports Grill in Murfreesboro during the season and is open to the public.

COVERING MT

Weekly Press Conference

Coach Stockstill will conduct a weekly press conference each Monday prior to a Middle Tennessee game. The conference, which will be shown live on GoBlueRaiders.com, will begin at 10:30 AM CST and will take place in the Kennon Sports Hall of Fame building. Following Stockstill's comments there will be selected players available for interviews with the media.

Practice Coverage

During preseason camp in August, the first week of drills will be open to the public and media. After the first week through the first game of the season, practices will be closed to the public and open to the media for the first 30 minutes. Interviews will be conducted after practice and all media, including photographers, must observe drills from the sideline or bleacher area during those 30 minutes.

Practices may be closed at any time subject to the head coach's request.

Stockstill Interviews

All interviews with Coach Stockstill should be directed through the Athletic Communications Office.

Player Interviews

During the week of games, all player interviews must be conducted by the end of practice on Wednesday. Please request interviews at least 24 hours in advance and go through the Athletic Communications Office.

GAMEDAY INFO

Working Credentials

Arrangements for media credentials for the 2015 football season should be directed to the Athletic Communications Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead or via email to Mark Owens. Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Blue Raider football on a regular basis. Student publications will be limited to one working credential and one sideline photo pass. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space-available basis.

Press Parking

Parking space can be reserved with a request received by Middle Tennessee's Athletic Communications Office at least one working day prior to the game. The athletic communications office will send out parking directions in advance of the game. Satellite trucks will park on the north side of the pressbox and will enter off Middle Tennessee Boulevard just before the Faulkinberry Road entrance.

Photographers

Only accredited photographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. In accordance with NCAA rules, no freelance photographers will be admitted to the sidelines or press box camera deck. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines (the team areas). A photographer work room will be set up for each game with directions to the area set up outside Gate 2 of the stadium. The room is inside Murphy Center and internet access will be available.

Media Will-Call

A media will-call window will be operated on game days at Floyd Stadium for the distribution of credentials that have not yet been picked up or mailed out. The designated pickup area is located at Gate 1A (southwest corner of stadium on Faulkinberry Drive).

Radio Coverage

Radio broadcast permission must be obtained in advance, along with Press Box reservations. Middle Tennessee maintains two courtesy lines, an ISDN line and a dry pair line for use by schools who can provide reciprocal arrangements for the Blue Raider Network.

MEDIA SERVICES

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for the conference and each of its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Press Box Services

Complete individual and team statistics, play-by-play, and postgame quotes will be available to the media following each game. One hour prior to kickoff, media packets containing game programs, flipcards, updated stats, and game notes will be distributed in the media working area. Live running statistics will also be available via statbroadcast and on the internet at GoBlueRaiders.com during the game. It is recommended for all media to bring a laptop or tablet if they want to view live statistics. A pregame meal is served in the dining area of the press box 90 minutes before kickoff.

Internet Access

The Floyd Stadium press box is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to utilize the wireless Internet simply need to click on the Internet and use the Guest option located at the bottom of the screen. A number of Ethernet lines are also available, and media members are encouraged to bring their own cable.

Internet Guidelines

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of Middle Tennessee's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and an outlet's agreement to abide by any restrictions Middle Tennessee may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by MT may result in revocation of press credentials.

Middle Tennessee reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real-time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet ("real time" is defined as any online media providing live, continual play-by-play coverage; in-game statistics; digital photographs; or audio or video of an event).

Postgame Interviews

After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and Coach Stockstill will be made available to members of the media. The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, interviews will be conducted in the Green Room located in the southeast corner of Murphy Center. On the road, requested players and Coach Stockstill will be brought to a designated area outside the locker room.

C-USA FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Saturday, December 5

Time: TBA

ESPN or ESPN 2

The event is slated for Saturday, December 5, and will be televised by ESPN or ESPN 2. The team with the highest league winning percentage will serve as host site for the game.

The title game will feature champions from the East and West divisions of the league. Six different schools have hosted the first 10 championship games.

Marshall won its first Conference USA Football Championship last season with a 23-16 win over Louisiana Tech in Huntington, W. Va. In 2013, Rice won its first C-USA Football title with a victory over Marshall at Rice Stadium. Southern Miss won the 2011 C-USA Championship, when the nationally-ranked Golden Eagles defeated previously undefeated Houston on the Cougars home field. Former members East Carolina, Tulsa and UCF each won two championship games, while Houston claimed one crown.

2000	Louisville (6-1)
1999	Southern Miss (6-0)
1998	Tulane (6-0)
1997	Southern Miss (6-0)
1996	Houston (4-1)
	Southern Miss (4-1)

C-USA TIEBREAKER

Home field for the C-USA Championship Game will be awarded to the team that posts the highest regular season winning percentage against conference opposition. The first tiebreaker is the winner of a head-to-head match-up. If still tied, the most recent College Football Playoff Selection Committee poll will be used if one team or both teams are ranked. If they remain tied, highest average computer ranking will be used.

2015 PRIMARY AGREEMENTS

2015 SECONDARY AGREEMENT

C-USA BOWL OVERVIEW 2015-2019

Conference USA will have 11 bowl affiliations through the 2019 season, securing a minimum of five berths annually and offering fans a number of great destinations across America and beyond.

Conference USA has agreements with three bowls in the state of Florida: the Boca Raton Bowl, the Miami Beach Bowl and the St. Petersburg Bowl, along with an agreement with the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl near the coast of the Sunshine State. C-USA maintains longtime relationships with the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl and the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl in the central region as well as the Gildan New Mexico Bowl in the southwest and the Hawaii Bowl in the far West. New this year will be an agreement with the new Arizona Bowl in Tucson, Ariz.

Conference USA has secondary agreements with two bowls also located right within the league's footprint, giving teams the opportunities to participate in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth, Texas and the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La.

In these bowls, Conference USA will have the opportunity to face opponents from the American Athletic, Big 12, Big Ten, Mid-American, Mountain West and Sun Belt Conferences.

C-USA BOWL 2015 SYNOPSIS

Conference USA has secured guaranteed commitments with seven bowl partners for the 2015 season, as well as one secondary agreement: The Arizona, Gildan New Mexico, Miami Beach, Popeyes Bahamas, R+L Carriers New Orleans, St. Petersburg and Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowls are primary agreements. The Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La., is a secondary agreement, should the ACC or SEC not be able to provide a bowl-eligible team. There is no set selection order among C-USA's bowl partners.

As a member of the College Football Playoff, Conference USA will be a part of one of the CFP bowls if it produces the highest rated champion from among the American Athletic, C-USA, Mid-American, Mountain West and Sun Belt Conferences.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

During 2014-15 season, college football entered a new era when postseason playoffs began. The format is simple: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and a national championship game played in a different city each year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

The Selection Committee

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performance during the regular season, including, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

The Rotation

The semifinals will rotate among six different bowls, extending the experience to more fans. In the years when the bowls are not hosting semifinals, the bowls will feature eight other teams in four compelling matchups.

For the 2015-16 season, the Peach Bowl (Dec. 31), Fiesta Bowl (Dec. 31), Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual (Jan. 1) and Allstate Sugar Bowl (Jan. 1) will host its regular bowl games, while the Capital One Orange (Dec. 31) and Goodyear Cotton Bowl (Dec. 31) will host semifinals. The College Football Championship will be held on Monday, Jan. 11 in Glendale, Ariz.

C-USA and the College Football Playoff

As a member of the College Football Playoff, Conference USA will be a part of one of the College Football Playoff bowls if it has the highest rated champion from among the American Athletic, C-USA, Mid-American, Mountain West and Sun Belt Conferences.

COACHES & STAFF

RICK STOCKSTILL

Head Coach | 10th Season | 57-55 Record at MT
Florida State, 1982
2-Time SBC Coach of the Year

@CoachStock

Winning on the field, off the field and having a first-class football program from top to bottom is the goal of any University at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics. That is exactly what Middle Tennessee has as a result of the leadership of Head Coach Rick Stockstill.

Entering his 10th season at the helm of the Blue Raiders, Stockstill has captured a league title, won the 2009 New Orleans Bowl, made four bowl appearances, been bowl eligible six times, earned two public recognition awards from the NCAA for APR success, appeared on television 82 times, produced six of the top eight crowds in Floyd Stadium history, and had back-to-back eight-win seasons for the first time in 21 years.

Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have also produced five all-American's, including one academic all-American, three defensive players of the year, and two bowl game MVP's. Middle Tennessee also became the first Sun Belt team to win 10 games in a season, and set the Floyd Stadium single-game attendance record. He also has four NFL Draft picks with Erik Walden in 2008, Chris McCoy in 2010, Rod Issac in 2011, and Jimmy Staten in 2014.

After winning eight games in 2012 and being left out of a bowl game, Stockstill showed his bounce back ability once again by leading the Raiders to another eight-win season and a trip to the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces bowl. The Blue Raiders were among the national leaders in turnovers gained (5th), turnover margin (T12th), fewest penalties (14th), third down conversions (25th) and rushing (31st).

Some regard the 2012 season as his best coaching job after leading the Blue Raiders to the nation's biggest win improvement from the previous year. His seventh MT squad went 8-4, won an FBS school record five road games, received votes in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll three straight weeks, and upset ACC Coastal Division Champion Georgia Tech. Along the way, he produced a freshman all-American, eight all-conference players, and a national offensive player of the week.

In 2010, Stockstill's team battled back from a tough start to make back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history. The coach also had an Academic All-American in Jeremy Kellem, the SBC Defensive Player of the Year in Jamari Lattimore, and a total of nine players who were recognized on the All-Conference team.

The 2009 season was one for the record books as that squad accomplished what few believed possible with an FBS-record 10 wins, a final ranking of 33rd nationally in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll, a bowl victory, a seven-game winning streak, the most Sun Belt victories in school history, five road victories, and a second straight undefeated month of November. It all resulted in Stockstill being named Sun Belt Conference Co-Coach of the Year and 11 players earning All-Conference honors, including co-Defensive Player of the Year Chris McCoy, who was taken in the 7th round of the NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. To top things off, quarterback Dwight Dasher earned New Orleans Bowl MVP honors and became just the fourth player in NCAA history to pass for more than 2,500 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.

Stockstill, who owns upsets over Maryland (2008 and 2009) and Georgia Tech (2012), has also shown a commitment to academics during his tenure. The Blue Raiders have gone from an APR score of 892 to a very impressive 983, the biggest increase of any program in the country. The Blue Raiders were also crowned with the Sun Belt Conference Academic Award on two occasions (2006-07, 2007-08) and earned two public recognition awards from the NCAA for APR success (2011, 2012). For his efforts, Stockstill was inducted as an honorary member into Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society in April 2010.

After 24 years as an assistant, Stockstill was given the chance to run his own program, and all he did was lead the Blue Raiders to a 2006 Sun Belt Conference championship, help set a new single-season attendance record, and take the program to its first postseason bowl game in the I-A era. Taking a Middle Tennessee team predicted to finish sixth in the Sun Belt during the preseason to a league title, Stockstill ended up as the 2006 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and the Tennessee Sports Writers Association Coach of the Year while also garnering that honor from ESPN.com.

Stockstill's teams have amassed the top four tackles for loss and quarterback sack totals in school history and has produced the conference's top touchdown scorer twice. Individual players have 58 All-Conference honors and two Player of the Year Awards, and there have been four different National Player of the Week winners.

During the 2006 championship run, Stockstill and his staff developed an All-American, 11 All-Conference players, 11 SBC Player of the Week winners, a consensus National Defensive Player of the Week (Damon Nickson won the Walter Camp and the Bronco Nagurski awards), and the school's all-time sacks leader (Erik Walden). Much of the team's success was attributed to their play on the road that year; the Blue Raiders won four conference road games. Only 10 other teams nationally could stake that claim.

Along with his extensive background in collegiate coaching circles, the driven and determined Stockstill has had the advantage of working alongside some of the greatest minds in college football history.

Stockstill, who made his way to Murfreesboro after spending the previous two years at South Carolina, has worked with legendary coaches Lou Holtz, Steve Spurrier, Danny Ford, Tommy Bowden, Ken Hatfield, and Tommy West.

Stockstill demonstrated the ability to develop and coach big-time players throughout his career as an assistant. He joined the Gamecock staff in December 2003 and immediately made an impact in recruiting. Stockstill coached the Gamecock tight ends and served as recruiting coordinator in 2005 and was the wide receivers coach in 2004.

Before joining Holtz's staff at South Carolina, Stockstill was the offensive coordinator at East Carolina in 2003.

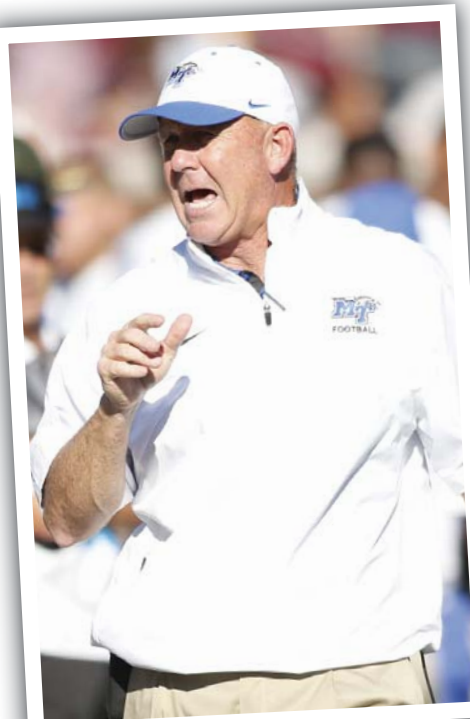

In his first year at South Carolina, Stockstill coached Troy Williamson to one of the best seasons ever for a Gamecock receiver. Williamson made 43 receptions for 835 yards (75.9 per game average) and seven touchdowns. Williamson's 835 receiving yards put him among the single-season leaders at USC, along with his seven touchdowns. Williamson was taken as the seventh pick in the 2005 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

In addition to his on-field coaching at Carolina, Stockstill coordinated the signing of a top-20 recruiting class for the Gamecocks in his first season and was recognized as one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com.

From 1989 to 2002, Stockstill was on the coaching staff at Clemson, where he helped lead the Tigers to some of their most proficient offensive performances in school history. He served in a variety of capacities during his tenure with Clemson, working as recruiting coordinator, wide receivers coach, co-offensive coordinator, passing game coordinator, and quarterbacks coach. One of his prize pupils was All-America wide receiver Rod Gardner, who was the number 15 pick of the 2001 NFL Draft. Stockstill played an integral role in Clemson's offense, which set more than 100 school records from 1998 to 2002.

Stockstill is credited with recruiting Clemson's all-time leading rusher (Raymond Priester), third all-time leading passer (Woodrow Dantzler), and number three and number four all-time leading receivers (Derrick Hamilton and Rod Gardner). As a coach, Stockstill has been a part of 16 bowl games, including four as a head coach.

Stockstill also has coaching experience at the University of Central Florida (1985-88), where he tutored wide receiver Shawn Jefferson, who went on to a 13-year career in the NFL, and at Bethune-Cookman College (1983-84).

Born Dec. 23, 1957 in Sidney, Ohio, Stockstill grew up in Georgetown, Ky., and then moved to Fernandina Beach, Fla., where he was inducted into the Fernandina Beach Hall of Fame in 2006. He was a three-year letterman at Florida State as a quarterback, where he was team captain and earned Honorable Mention All-America honors in 1981 under Coach Bobby Bowden. During his career at FSU, the Seminoles had two top-10 final Associated Press rankings and had wins over powers Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Ohio State, and Nebraska. Stockstill, who received his bachelor's degree from FSU in 1982, made three bowl trips with the Seminoles.

Stockstill and his wife, the former Sara Fleischman, have a son, Brent, and a daughter, Emily.

DAVID BIBEE

Safeties | 8th Season
Tennessee, 1977

David Bibee is in his second stint at Middle Tennessee, having joined Rick Stockstill's staff in 2008 after two years at Chattanooga. Bibee will be in charge of the Blue Raider safeties for the eighth straight season.

Under Bibee's guidance, current safety Kevin Byard has turned into one of the best to don the blue and white. Byard, a first team all-conference pick in 2014 and a two-time Jim Thorpe Award candidate, ranks second all-time at MT with 15 interceptions and owns the career mark in return yards with 327. After a career-high 106 tackles and five interceptions in 2013, Byard came back with six picks in 2014.

Bibee was faced with breaking in two new starters in 2012 so he turned to Byard and Jajuan Harley. The pair registered 74 tackles each, combined for seven interceptions and forced three fumbles. Byard went on to earn FWA Freshman All-American honors and Harley was a two-time Defensive Player of the Week winner.

The 2011 campaign saw the Blue Raiders rank 44th nationally in pass defense thanks to a career year by safety Eric Russell. Russell led the team in tackles and interceptions, while ranking second in tackles for loss.

Bibee's 2010 unit was once again very solid behind the play of All-Conference pick Jeremy Kellem, Kevin Brown, and Derrick Crumpton. The threesome combined for 15 pass breakups and helped the Blue Raiders have the nation's 30th ranked pass defense.

In 2009, his safeties had eight interceptions, nine tackles for loss, 12 breakups, three sacks, and three fumble recoveries in helping the Blue Raiders finish second in the Sun Belt in pass defense. Kellem and Brown were 4th and 6th on the team in tackles, and Kellem earned First Team All-Conference honors.

Bibee, who has 34 years of coaching experience including 27 on the collegiate level, has served as an assistant coach at Ole Miss, North Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Austin Peay State, Appalachian State, South Carolina, Tennessee Tech, Clemson, East Tennessee State, and Chattanooga.

He has coached a Super Bowl Most Valuable Player in former Dallas Cowboys cornerback Larry Brown, seven All-Americans including the Blue Raiders' all-time tackles for loss leader Dennis Mix, and nine NFL draft picks. His list of draft picks coached includes former Blue Raider great James Griffin; Clemson safety Antwan Edwards, a first-round selection by the Green Bay Packers; and former Baylor High School and Virginia kicker Kurt Smith of the San Diego Chargers. Bibee has also had five different safeties at MT earn conference player of the week honors.

Prior to his stint at Chattanooga, Bibee worked in the local high school ranks as head football coach at Baylor School in Chattanooga from 2000 to 2005. He guided the Red Raiders to the Division II state semifinals in 2000 and 2005. After the 2005 season, Baylor defensive lineman Jacques McClendon was elected Division II Class AAA Mr. Football Lineman of the Year and was later drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round.

McClendon received a scholarship to play football at the University of Tennessee, and 24 other players went on to sign scholarship agreements.

Bibee's coaching career began at Tennessee, where he served as a student assistant for Coach Bill Battle. He moved on to the staff at Ole Miss in 1978, where he was placed in charge of the defensive scout teams on Steve Sloan's first Rebels' staff.

He left Ole Miss to coach the defensive secondary and work as recruiting coordinator at North Alabama for one year and held the same positions for one year at Middle Tennessee (1980).

Sparky Woods hired Bibee at Appalachian State in 1984 to be his assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator and secondary coach. Bibee helped the Mountaineers compile a 38-19 overall record during that span, with back-to-back Southern Conference titles in 1986 and 1987. The Mountaineers ranked first, third, and fifth nationally in scoring defense during his tenure.

Bibee joined Woods at South Carolina in 1989 to work as assistant head coach, co-defensive coordinator, and secondary coach.

He was part of Mike Hennigan's first coaching staff at Tennessee Tech in 1996, holding the posts of defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator for the Golden Eagles for one season. He coached alongside former Atlanta Falcon Head Coach Mike Smith.

Prior to heading to the Baylor School, Bibee coached the secondary and outside linebackers at Clemson from 1997 to 1999, where he was on staff with Stockstill. Working for head coach Tommy West, Bibee helped the Tigers to a Peach Bowl berth in 1997.

Bibee is a 1977 graduate of the University of Tennessee, where he earned a bachelor's degree in health education. He played football for the Volunteers from 1973 to 1976 and was a member of the 1973 Gator Bowl team and the 1974 Liberty Bowl squad.

Bibee is married to the former Lisa Carter of Savannah, Tenn. The couple has three daughters, twins Ashlee and Allison, and Lindsay, and five grandchildren.

KODI BURNS

Wide Receivers | 1st Season
Auburn, 2011

 @KodiBurns

Kodi Burns begins his first season on Rick Stockstill's staff as an assistant coach for the Blue Raiders. Burns will coach the Middle Tennessee receivers.

Burns comes to Middle Tennessee after one season as the running backs coach at Samford where the Bulldogs finished 7-4. Burns coached sophomore Denzell Williams to first team all-conference honors after he rushed for 918 yards and 16 touchdowns, and led the SoCon in scoring.

Burns spent the 2013 season as an offensive graduate assistant at Auburn, working under head coach Gus Malzahn and offensive coordinator Rhett Lashlee. Burns was a part of the staff that took Auburn from a 3-9 record in 2012 to a 12-2 mark in 2013. The 2013 Tigers won the Southeastern Conference title, and played in the BCS National Championship game.

In his season on the Auburn staff, Burns helped coach and develop Heisman Trophy finalist Tre Mason, as well as wide receiver Sammie Coates, who ranked third in the nation in yards per catch. He also assisted with the implementation of the offensive system and with game planning while at Auburn.

Prior to coaching at Auburn, Burns spent the 2012 season working as an offensive graduate assistant under Malzahn and Lashlee at Arkansas State. During his only season at ASU, Burns helped lead the program to the Sun Belt Conference championship, posting a record of 10-3 overall and 7-1 in conference play. The team also earned the program's first bowl win, defeating Kent State, 17-13, in the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

While working at Arkansas State, Burns helped coach Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year and all-time leading passer Ryan Aplin. He also helped coach Freshman All-America wide receiver J.D. McKissic.

Burns played both quarterback and wide receiver at Auburn from 2007 to 2010. During the 2010 season, Burns was a wide receiver on Auburn's BCS National Championship team. He also played in the Outback Bowl in 2009 and was the Most Valuable Player of the Chick-fil-A Bowl in 2007.

Burns earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in exercise science from Auburn in 2011. He is also currently pursuing his Master's Degree from Auburn.

STEVE ELLIS

Recruiting Coordinator/Corners | 7th Season
Nicholls State, 2003

Steve Ellis begins his seventh season on Rick Stockstill's staff and his first as recruiting coordinator. Ellis will handle the cornerbacks for the seventh straight year.

Ellis, who spent his first two years as cornerbacks coach and special team's coordinator for the Blue Raiders, took over the role of defensive coordinator in January 2011. Ellis then had the title of co-defensive coordinator/cornerbacks coach from 2012 to 2014.

Under the direction of Tyrone Nix and Ellis, the 2013 unit improved 29 spots in the national rankings for total defense while ranking fifth overall in turnovers gained and 17th in red zone defense. Ellis' cornerback group saw Kenneth Gilstrap and Jared Singletary produce career years while Sammy Seamster was one of the most improved players on the team. Seamster is currently in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins.

Ellis once again teamed with Nix in 2012 to make vast improvements on the Blue Raider defense. The unit improved 48 spots in the national rankings in scoring defense, 29 in rushing defense, and made a jump of 10 in total defense from 2011.

Ellis produced a First Team All-Conference selection in Rod Issac and helped the defense lead the league in pass defense for a second consecutive season in 2010. Starters Issac and Arness Ikner accounted for four interceptions and 10 pass breakups, and Issac scored twice. Issac was also taken in the fifth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Ellis' special teams were solid once again (with six blocked kicks) and produced First Team All-Conference picks in placekicker Alan Gendreau and punter Josh Davis.

In 2009, Ellis' cornerbacks had 152 tackles, nine interceptions, 12 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, and 21 pass breakups on their way to leading the Sun Belt Conference in pass defense and interceptions. Seniors Marcus Udell and Alex Suber were tabbed First Team All-Conference as Udell led the league with seven interceptions and Suber had 12 pass breakups while ranking 28th nationally in passes defended.

His special teams blocked eight kicks, hit 18 of 22 field goal attempts, had 1,119 yards in kick returns, downed 22 punts inside the 20-yard line, and had seven punts of 50 yards or more. Sophomore placekicker Alan Gendreau earned First Team All-Conference honors.

Ellis made his way to Murfreesboro after serving the previous six seasons at Nicholls State, where he was the defensive coordinator his final three years. Ellis, who also served as the team's pro liaison and supervised academic progress, was the team's safeties coach in 2003 before taking over the linebackers in 2004 and 2005.

The Stringer, Miss., native became one of the youngest defensive coordinators in the country when he was named to the position prior to spring drills in 2006. He guided the Colonels to conference best marks in scoring defense and pass defense, and Nicholls finished the 2006 season ranked 19th nationally in total defense.

In 2007, Ellis' unit led the Southland Conference in total defense, pass defense, and interceptions and was second in scoring defense. Overall, NSU ranked 33rd nationally in total defense.

In six seasons at Nicholls State, Ellis' players won seven First Team All-Conference honors, four National Player of the Week awards, three All-American honors, and two conference Newcomer of the Year awards and garnered a defensive player of the year accolade.

During the summer of 2008, Ellis participated in the NFL Coaches Fellowship Program with the Pittsburgh Steelers under Head Coach Mike Tomlin. Ellis worked with the defensive backs under the guidance of legendary defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau. He participated in the same program with the Buffalo Bills in 2010.

He started for three seasons for the Colonels as a defensive back before sitting out his senior season after suffering a knee injury during the fourth game of the 2002 campaign against Southern University. While with the Colonels, Ellis was named to the All-Southland Conference team all three seasons he played and registered over 200 career tackles and five interceptions for the Colonels. Ellis, the team captain in 2001, was second in the Southland Conference with 104 tackles during the 2000 season.

The 35-year old was a four-year letterman as a quarterback and defensive back at Stringer High School before continuing his playing days at Nicholls State. Ellis earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education from Nicholls State in 2003.

Ellis, and his wife Regina, have a daughter Deja and a son Caleb.

BUSTER FAULKNER

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks | 5th Season
Valdosta State, 2005

 @Buster_Faulkner

Buster Faulkner begins his fifth season on Rick Stockstill's staff and fourth as the programs offensive coordinator after being elevated to the post in February 2012. Faulkner also serves as quarterbacks coach for the fifth straight season.

Under his tutelage, the Blue Raiders have amassed more than 5,000 yards of total offense in back-to-back seasons for the first time in school history while averaging 31.5 points a game. The 2014 unit also ranked 30th nationally in rushing, while Austin Grammer became the first signal-caller in MT history to throw for over 200 yards in each of his first seven games and finished 11th nationally in completion percentage.

The 2013 offense had the second most yards in school history, ranked 31st nationally in rushing, and 25th in third down conversion percentage. The offense also registered seven games of 200 or more yards rushing and had five different players top the 100-yard rushing mark. Quarterback Logan Kilgore became the first signal-caller in school history to have three straight 2,000-yard seasons with all three years coming under Faulkner.

In 2012, the unit keyed the Raiders' 8-4 season by re-establishing the running game and protecting the football. Middle Tennessee ranked 46th nationally in rushing and tied for 28th for fewest turnovers lost. The unit also had four games where they rushed for over 200 yards, produced three different 100-yard rushers, and had a Stockstill era best three scoring drives of 97 or more yards. Wide receiver Anthony Amos and center Micah James both earned first team all-conference honors.

In 2011, Faulkner took over the play-calling duties the final seven games of the year. Faulkner's unit went on to record the fifth most yards of total offense, complete a record 299 passes, while becoming just the second offense in school history to amass over 3,000 passing yards.

Faulkner came to Murfreesboro after serving the 2010 season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Murray State.

In his lone season at MSU, Faulkner's offense broke 27 school records and finished first in the FCS in total plays, pass completions, and completion percentage. The Racers offense racked up nearly 5,000 yards and produced the first 500-yard passer, 200-yard rusher, and 200-yard receiver in the same game in FCS history. The Racers ranked fifth in total offense nationally in 2010 and the year prior to Faulkner's arrival MSU had a ranking of 115.

In 2010, the Racers offense ranked first in the OVC and fifth nationally with 36.09 points per game, while also leading the league in passing offense and ranking fourth nationally with 313.5 yards per contest. The MSU quarterbacks led the country in completions and completion percentage.

Under Faulkner's guidance, quarterback Casey Brockman had just six starts in 2010 but earned second team all-conference honors and was twice picked as the National Player of the Week. Brockman also garnered three OVC Player of the Week awards en route to finishing first in the league and eighth nationally in passing yards per game. Brockman accounted for 313 yards of total offense per game.

Prior to joining the Racers staff, Faulkner spent the 2009 season as the quarterbacks coach at Central Arkansas. UCA's offense averaged 26.2 points a game and 215.8 yards a game through the air and was ranked in the Top 25 nationally in every offensive statistic.

Senior quarterback Robbie Park finished the year going 217-for-358 for 2,434 yards and 12 touchdowns. The yardage total was seventh on the school's all-time single-season list.

Faulkner's coaching career began at Valdosta State, where he served as a student assistant helping with the quarterbacks in 2005.

After one season with the Blazers, he served as an offensive graduate assistant at Georgia, working with the offensive line and quarterbacks.

Faulkner returned to Valdosta State in 2007 and served as the quarterbacks coach for two seasons.

In his first season, the Blazers went 13-1 and captured the Division II National Championship as quarterback Willie Copeland passed for 2,903 yards and 27 touchdowns.

Faulkner took over as the offensive coordinator for the Blazers in 2008. VSU averaged 380.8 yards a game in advancing to the quarterfinals as quarterback Chris Hart earned Freshman of the Year honors. Hart accounted for over 3,000 yards and 27 touchdowns.

As a player, Faulkner starred as a quarterback for Valdosta State from 2000 to 2003. In three years with the Blazers, he passed for 7,100 yards and 64 touchdowns while registering a 47-6 record.

As a sophomore, Faulkner earned first-team all-Gulf South Conference honors and honorable mention All-American accolades after going 327-for-503 for 3,941 yards and 44 touchdowns in leading the Blazers to a 14-1 record and a spot in the National Championship game.

He played his senior season at Texas A&M-Commerce, where he passed for 2,861 and 16 touchdowns, while setting 10 school records.

During his prep career, Faulkner started at quarterback as a sophomore and led Parkview High School to the 1997 Georgia state championship.

A native of Lilburn, Ga., Faulkner earned his bachelor's degree in history from Valdosta State in 2005.

Faulkner, and his wife, Tia, have one son, Harrison, and two daughters, Hadley and Haisley.

RICK MALLORY

Offensive Tackles/Tight Ends | 3rd Season
Washington, 1983

@CoachMalloryMT

Rick Mallory, a veteran coach who spent five seasons as a player in the NFL before beginning his coaching career, is in his third year as offensive tackles/tight ends coach at Middle Tennessee as a member of Rick Stockstill's staff.

In 2014 the Blue Raiders ranked 31st nationally in rushing and had seven games of 200 or more yards on the ground, which was keyed by Mallory's tackles. Isaiah Anderson and Darius Johnson both earned second team all-conference honors to lead the offensive line.

The tackles and tight ends played a major role in the Blue Raiders owning the 31st best rushing attack in the country and producing the most rushing yards at MT since 2002. Under Mallory, the group also helped open holes for five different players to record 100-yard rushing games, while tight end Jacob Corbaley turned in a career year.

Mallory, who has 21 years of college coaching experience, joined Stockstill's staff after spending the 2012 season working in the high school ranks and the 2011 campaign as the offensive line coach at UAB.

Prior to his one-year stint at UAB, Mallory was the director of football operations at Wyoming in 2010 before serving 10 years as the offensive line coach at the University of Memphis.

Preceding his time in Memphis, Mallory was the tight ends coach at the University of Washington, his alma mater, from 1993-98.

From 2000-09 when Mallory was on the staff at Memphis, the Tigers earned five bowl berths in those 10 seasons.

In 2009, Mallory's offensive line helped pave the way for senior running back Curtis Steele to earn first-team All-Conference USA honors as Steele finished No. 7 in the NCAA in rushing and scoring. Memphis ranked No. 3 in Conference USA in rushing offense in 2009, gaining an average of 158.8 yards per game on the ground. Mallory's '09 offensive line allowed an average of only 1.42 sacks per game to rank No. 35 in the NCAA.

The 2008 Tiger offense ranked 22nd in the nation in rushing offense and 26th in total offense, while ranking 21st in fewest sacks allowed. The year prior in '07, Memphis ranked No. 13 in the NCAA in passing offense, No. 23 in total offense and No. 10 in fewest sacks given up.

From 2002-05, Mallory's offensive line unit blocked for running back DeAngelo Williams, who earned All-America honors in both 2004 and 2005. The 2005 Tiger offense ranked fifth in the nation in rushing offense, and the 2004 edition ranked ninth in total offense. In four of his last six seasons at Memphis, Mallory's offensive line led Conference USA in fewest sacks allowed.

During his time at Memphis, he coached six first-team All-Conference USA offensive linemen, one second-team selection, four third-team honorees and five Conference USA All-Freshman team choices.

Prior to Memphis, Mallory coached at Washington for seven seasons, beginning as a graduate assistant coach in 1992. He became a full-time assistant in '93, coaching the tight ends and special teams from 1993-98. The Huskies earned five bowl berths over that seven-year period.

Mallory was a three-year letterman at Washington from 1981-83. As a freshman and sophomore, Mallory played tight end. His junior year, Mallory was converted to offensive guard, and he went on to earn All-Pacific 10 Conference honors his senior season of 1983.

Following his college playing career, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected Mallory in the ninth round of the 1984 NFL Draft. He played for the Buccaneers for five seasons from 1984-88.

He and his wife Shannon have three grown sons: Ryan, Adam and Cameron; and three daughters, Naomi, Fiona, and Layla. Mallory earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Washington in 1983.

TYRONE NIX

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers | 4th Season
Southern Miss, 1995

Tyrone Nix, one of the most respected coaches in the country, begins his fourth season at Middle Tennessee. Nix, who became the team's defensive coordinator in 2015, served as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach on Rick Stockstill's staff his first three seasons.

Nix, who coached on the same staff as Stockstill at South Carolina in 2005, made his way to Murfreesboro after four years at Ole Miss.

Under Nix's leadership in 2014, five defensive players were honored in the post-season by Conference USA. Safety Kevin Byard was a first team pick, linebacker T.T. Barber earned second team honors, while defensive end Shubert Bastien and tackle Pat McNeil were on the honorable mention team. Rookie DJ Sanders had a spot on the All-Freshman team.

The Blue Raider defense once again continued an upward trend under Nix in 2013. The group improved 29 spots in the national rankings from 2012 in total defense, ranked fifth overall in turnovers gained, and were 17th in red zone defense. Linebacker T.T. Barber, a first team all-conference pick, ranked 35th nationally in total tackles and ninth in fumble recoveries while safety Kevin Byard became the NCAA's active leader in interception return yards. DT Jimmy Staten was taken in the 5th round of the NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

In his first season at Middle Tennessee, Nix's 2012 defense made huge strides in all areas. The unit improved 48 spots in the national rankings in scoring defense, 29 in rushing defense, and made a jump of 10 in total defense from 2011. He also had a FWAA Freshman All-American in safety Kevin Byard, along with all-conference performer Omar McLendon at defensive end.

In four seasons under Nix, the Ole Miss defense was among the nation's best in tackles for loss and sacks. The unit tied for the nation's lead in TFLs in 2008 and topped the Southeastern Conference again in 2009, and in the sacks category, it finished No. 1 in the SEC in 2008 and No. 2 in 2009. In 2010, the Rebels ranked 20th in the NCAA in both areas.

Nix was promoted to Assistant Head Coach in January 2010.

Nix helped the Rebels show marked improvement since the season before his arrival when the team ranked either 11th of 12th in the SEC in total defense, scoring defense, rush defense and pass efficiency defense.

In 2009, Nix's squad rose to No. 3 in the conference and No. 11 in the nation in pass efficiency defense and No. 15 in the nation in both scoring defense and pass defense. The Rebels were fifth in the SEC in total defense in 2008 and 2009.

Nix's first season with the Rebels provided one of the toughest run-stopping defenses in school history. Ole Miss allowed just 85.5 ypg on the ground, which ranked second in the SEC and fourth in the nation. That season produced a pair of All-Americans in first team tackle Peria Jerry and third team end Greg Hardy.

In 2009, defensive tackle Jerrell Powe and safety Kendrick Lewis earned second team All-SEC honors, linebacker Patrick Trahan was a fourth team selection and linebacker D.T. Shackelford was named to the SEC All-Freshman team. Powe earned second team All-SEC distinction again in 2010 along with linebacker Jonathan Cornell, while linebacker Serderius Bryant was on the SEC All-Freshman team in 2011.

Nix's Ole Miss defense produced four NFL Draft choices, including first-round pick Jerry of the Atlanta Falcons in 2009. Safety Jamarca Sanford was also chosen in 2009 by the Minnesota Vikings, while both Lewis and Hardy were drafted in 2010 by the Kansas City Chiefs and Carolina Panthers, respectively.

In addition, three former Rebel defensive players signed NFL free agent contracts following the 2008 season and four more inked deals after 2009.

Nix has spent the past decade directing defenses for his alma mater, Southern Miss, South Carolina and Ole Miss.

In 2007, he coached inside linebackers in addition to managing a Gamecock unit that topped the SEC and ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 168.8 yards through the air.

The USC defense in 2006 was sixth in the SEC and 29th in the country in scoring defense, surrendering 18.7 points per game, 4.5 fewer than in 2005 despite returning just one starter. Junior college transfer Jasper Brinkley led the team in tackles and earned first team All-SEC accolades at middle linebacker.

In his first year in Columbia, Nix served as co-defensive coordinator and tutored the defensive line. Under his watch, a pair of Gamecocks, cornerback Johnathan Joseph and safety Ko Simpson, were selected in the NFL Draft. In addition, Simpson earned All-America accolades.

During his 10 years on the Southern Miss staff, Nix coached every position on defense and served as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach the last four seasons, when the Golden Eagles' defense was among college football's toughest. From 2001-03, USM was top 15 in the nation in both scoring defense and pass efficiency defense each season.

In 2003, Southern Miss ranked No. 5 in the nation in pass defense, No. 13 in pass efficiency defense, No. 14 in scoring defense and No. 23 in total defense. Nix's coaching efforts were recognized as he was a finalist for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's outstanding assistant coach.

In 2002, Southern Miss ranked No. 4 nationally in pass efficiency defense, No. 10 in pass defense and No. 15 in scoring defense.

Nix entered the 2001 campaign with the distinction of being the youngest coordinator in the country at 29 years of age. Despite losing seven defensive starters from the previous year, Nix's 2001 USM defense finished among the NCAA leaders in scoring defense (8th), total defense (11th), pass efficiency defense (12th), rushing defense (13th) and turnover margin (21st).

In his 10-year period at Southern Miss, he mentored 12 All-Conference USA selections, four C-USA Defensive Players of the Year and six All-America selections. USM also enjoyed team success, winning four C-USA championships and earning seven postseason bowl berths.

As a player, Nix was a standout linebacker for the Golden Eagles from 1990-93 and was selected as team captain in 1993. He was one of only three true freshmen to play on the 1990 All-American Bowl team.

Nix also was named to the All-South team and the National Independent squad in both 1992 and 1993. He was inducted into the Southern Miss M-Club Hall of Fame at the spring 2003 banquet.

A native of Attalla, Ala., Nix received his bachelor's degree in management from Southern Miss in 1995. He is married to the former Toya Phelps of Vicksburg, Miss., who holds both bachelors and master's degrees from Southern Miss. The couple has one son, Tyvari, and one daughter, Tiah.

MIKE POLLY

Running Backs/Special Teams Coord. | 3rd Season
Georgetown College, 2006

@CoachMikePolly

Mike Polly, a former graduate assistant for the Blue Raiders, begins his third season on Rick Stockstill's staff as running backs coach. Polly made his return to Middle Tennessee after spending three years at Murray State overseeing the offensive tackles and tight ends.

In 2014, Polly added the title of Special Teams Coordinator as announced by Stockstill.

Polly's 2014 unit sparked a rushing attack that ranked 31st nationally and second in C-USA as Reggie Whatley and Shane Tucker both came away with career years to earn honorable mention all-league honors. He also had three different backs top the 100-yard mark, while Tucker had the most receptions by a back at MT since 2005.

On the special team's side, Polly engineered three different groups to rank among the top 35 in the country. The Raiders ranked fifth nationally in blocked kicks, were 11th in punt returns and 33rd in kickoff returns.

The 2013 campaign saw Polly produce four different backs that had 100 or more yards rushing in a game while igniting an offense that accounted for 2,591 rushing yards to rank 31st nationally. The top four rushers were all underclassmen and the main reason the offense amassed seven games of 200 or more yards on the ground.

During Polly's three years at MSU, the Racers ranked in the top five nationally in total offense each season while his offensive line helped pave the way for the program's first 1,000-yard rusher in nearly a decade. Polly has added the responsibilities of special team's coordinator in 2011.

In 2012, the Racer offense ranked fifth nationally in total offense, passing offense, and scoring offense. Polly's group also helped all-american signal-caller Casey Brockman rank second nationally in total offense, while all-american receiver Walter Powell was fourth nationally in receptions per game.

The 2011 season saw consistency at the tackle position as Raymond Hopson and Roderick Tomlin combined to start all 11 games. The duo combined to anchor an offensive line that blocked for one of the top offenses in the FCS. Hopson was honored at the end of the season as a second-team all-OVC selection, the first all-conference offensive lineman since 2004.

BOWL EXPERIENCE

2009: New Orleans Bowl (Coach)
2013: Armed Forces Bowl (Coach)

The Racer offense averaged 460.9 yards of offense and went over 5,000 yards of total offense for just the fourth time in school history.

The offensive line also paved the way for the first 1,000-yard rusher in nearly a decade, and just the 10th in the history of the program. As a team, the Racers rushed for over 150 yards in five games, and closed out the season by eclipsing the 200-yard mark in each of the last two games.

Consistency was also the case with the tackles in 2010 as Hopson and Tomlin combined to start all but one game. The duo anchored the line that allowed just 16 sacks in 515 pass attempts. The Racers allowed one sack or fewer in eight games.

The Racer offense was one of the best in the country as it ranked fourth in passing offense, fifth in total offense and fifth in scoring offense. The line also paved the way for one of the league's best rushing attacks over the second half of the season.

Prior to joining the Racers staff, Polly spent three seasons as an offensive graduate assistant on Stockstill's staff at Middle Tennessee from 2007 to 2009.

In 2009, Polly helped guide an offensive line that paved the way for an offense that accumulated 421.7 yards a game, and allowed just 19 sacks in 436 pass attempts.

The Blue Raiders capped off their best season in school history by defeating Southern Miss in the New Orleans Bowl to finish with a record of 10-3.

He joined the coaching profession at Georgetown College during the spring of 2007 with film break down, overseeing the weight room, and assisting the offensive line coach during spring drills.

The Erlanger, Ky., native played at Georgetown College, where he helped the Tigers to four-straight Mid-South Conference championships. As a co-captain, he was selected to the All-MSU team as a senior.

Polly's accolades carried over into the classroom as he was a four-time Academic All-MSU selection, as well as being named a Daktronics NAIA Scholar-Athlete three times.

Polly played his prep ball at Dixie Heights High School, where he was a first-team all-state selection.

Polly, who graduated with a degree in marketing in 2006, was also the recipient of the Georgetown College Scholar Athlete of the Year and the No "1" in Team award, which is selected by faculty, staff and students.

He received his master's in sport management from Middle Tennessee in 2008.

GEEP WADE

Offensive Line | 3rd Season
Chattanooga, 2001

 @GeepWade

Geep Wade is in his third year handling the offensive line on Rick Stockstill's staff. Wade's 2014 group made it possible for the Blue Raiders to put up over 5,000 total yards for a second straight season and rank 30th nationally in rushing. Led by second team all-conference linemen Isaiah Anderson and Darius Johnson, the Blue Raiders had four different players rush for more than 100 yards in a game, while quarterback Austin Grammer became the first quarterback in school history to throw for over 200 yards in each of his first seven games.

In 2013, Wade helped develop all-conference performer Josh Walker while engineering a group that helped five different players rush for over 100 yards in a game. The unit also paved the way for an offense that ranked 31st nationally in rushing and led Conference USA in rushing for league games.

Wade made his way to Murfreesboro from Marshall where he coached the offensive line in 2012. His 2012 unit helped Marshall register 365.0 passing yards per game (first in FBS), 534.2 yards of total offense (sixth in FBS) and 40.9 points a game (seventh in FBS), all C-USA highs. His line also withstood the pounding of an FBS-high 90.6 plays per game, and paved the way for 24 rushing touchdowns. The offense also produced just over 20 plays of 10 yards or longer per game to lead the nation.

Wade spent two seasons leading the offensive line at Tennessee-Chattanooga, his alma mater (2002 graduate), while also serving as the recruiting coordinator. He returned to the sidelines for his second stint as an assistant coach at UTC after serving on the Mocs' staff in 2002 following his graduation.

Wade was in charge of the tackles and tight ends during the 2010 campaign, helping Chris Harr (OT) and Garrett Hughes (TE) to first team All-SoCon honors. The play of the offensive line allowed the Mocs to finish 11th nationally in total offense (430 yards per game), while the unit threw for an average of 277 yards, second in the SoCon and eighth nationally.

Wade spent the previous four seasons as an assistant coach at Tennessee-Martin, serving as the offensive coordinator in 2009. In 2008, the Skyhawks posted an 8-4 overall record, ranking fourth in the nation in scoring offense (37.33).

In 2007, Wade and the Skyhawk offense ranked No. 1 in the Ohio Valley Conference in total offense (433 yards per game) and points scored per game (33.36). The team finished first in rushing offense (218.5) in the OVC, 12th in the nation.

Before coming to UT Martin in 2006 with head coach Jason Simpson, Wade was an offensive line coach at Western Carolina and Midwestern State in Texas. He also enjoyed a stint at Tennessee where he was an offensive line grad assistant for the Volunteers in 2004, the same year the team won the Southeastern Conference East Division title and the Cotton Bowl. In 2003, Wade coached the offensive line and served as the recruiting coordinator at Mars Hill College.

Wade was a team captain and an offensive lineman at UTC from 1999 to 2001, earning his degree in Business Management in 2002. He is married to the former Amy Howell of McKenzie, Tenn. They have one daughter, Emma Kate.

TOMMY WEST

Defensive Line | 2nd Season
Tennessee, 1976

Tommy West, who has 33 years of collegiate coaching experience, including stints as a head coach at three different schools, begins his second year on Rick Stockstill's staff after spending the 2012 campaign at Southern Miss as the school's defensive coordinator. West was out of coaching in 2013 and was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at UAB in 2011.

In his first year guiding the defensive line, West's group combined for 35 TFLs and 20.5 sacks as defensive end Shubert Bastien and defensive tackle Pat McNeil earned honorable mention all-conference honors.

West and Stockstill are no strangers as both were on the same Clemson staff together in 1989 and from 1994 to 1998 the two were together again when West served as the Tigers' head coach.

Prior to joining the staff at UAB, West was the head coach at the University of Memphis (2001-09), where he guided the Tigers to five bowl appearances and a 49-61 record in nine seasons.

While leading the Memphis program, West guided the Tigers to some of their best seasons in program history. He helped snap a 32-year U of M bowl drought in 2003 when he led his squad to a 9-4 record, including a victory over North Texas in the New Orleans Bowl. The last time that the Tigers had been extended a bowl invitation was during the 1971 season when Memphis defeated San Jose State in the Pasadena Bowl.

The bowl victory in 2003 propelled Memphis into the spotlight and was the first year of a three-season stretch when the Tigers registered 24 victories. Also in 2003, West became just the fourth coach in school history to claim nine wins in a single season. He was named the Coach of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Writers Association.

West and his Tigers opened the 2004 campaign with a 5-1 record, marking the best start for a Memphis squad since 1967. During that time, West led the Tigers into the national spotlight as Memphis defeated Ole Miss for the second-straight season and was listed No. 25 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. It was the first time ever that the Tigers were ranked by the national entity.

Prior to becoming the Tigers' head coach, West spent the 2000 season as Memphis' defensive coordinator. The Tigers finished the season ranked No. 1 in the nation in rushing defense (72.7 yards allowed per game) and were fifth in total defense (275.3 yards yielded per contest).

West also spent five seasons (1993 to 1998) as the head coach at Clemson. He coached the Tigers to a win in the Peach Bowl a month after being hired and was a part of four bowl teams during his time at Clemson.

West's first head coaching job came at UT-Chattanooga. He guided the Mocs' program for one season before accepting the head coaching position at Clemson.

West began his coaching career in 1979 when he served as an assistant on the staff at Ole Miss. He then spent two seasons at Appalachian State, elevated to offensive coordinator in 1981.

From 1982-89, West served as an assistant coach at Clemson and was responsible for the outside linebackers. He was part of a coaching staff that led the Tigers to a 69-20-4 record and six Associated Press Top 20 rankings between 1982 and 1989. During that time, Clemson played in five bowl games, winning four, and claimed four ACC Championships.

West left Clemson for his alma mater Tennessee in 1990 and spent one season as the Volunteers' running backs coach. West then traveled to the University of South Carolina, where he was the defensive coordinator in 1991 and 1992. He left the Gamecocks' staff to become the head coach at UT-Chattanooga.

A former multi-sport standout at Gainesville (Ga.) High School, West earned his bachelor's degree from Tennessee in 1976. He was a three-year letterman on the Volunteer football team and twice lettered on the baseball squad. He was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1976.

West, 61, has one son, Turner who is currently an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys.

BRENT BROCK

Director of Player Development | 10th Season
Florida State, 1982

Brent Brock, a head coach in the Georgia high school ranks for 14 years and a former teammate of head coach Rick Stockstill, will be beginning his 10th season at Middle Tennessee with the 2015 campaign.

Brock was elevated in 2013 to director of player development. In his new role, Brock handles life skills events for the program, all community service projects, and serves as summer camp director for Stockstill.

Brock coached the tight ends his first three years before taking over the inside receivers from 2009 to 2011. He spent the last seven games of 2011 and all of 2012 coaching the running backs.

Brock enjoyed a productive first full year leading the running backs in 2012 as Benny Cunningham earned second team all-conference honors and Jordan Parker was voted to the all-freshman team. Cunningham became the first back at MT to record two 200-yard rushing games since 2001 and Parker went on to set the freshman rushing record with 851 yards.

In 2011, Brock helped the receiving corps snag a single-season school record 299 passes while registering the third-most touchdown receptions with 21.

Brock's receivers were part of a fast-paced offense in 2009 that rang up a school record 3,064 yards of passing along with a record setting 25 touchdowns. In all, 17 receivers caught a total of 238 passes, which is the fourth most in Blue Raider history.

Under Brock's leadership in 2006, the tight ends were a key ingredient for the Sun Belt Conference's top scoring offense and the league's number two-rated team in passing efficiency. The group came up with 17 receptions on the season and two of the team's nine touchdown receptions. The unit followed that up with 23 receptions and two scores in 2007.

Brock came to Middle Tennessee after serving the previous four years as head coach and athletic director at Jackson County High School in Jefferson, Ga. Brock had the privilege of coaching in the GHSA North/South All-Star game (1995) and the Georgia/Florida High School All-Star game (1997). He also has 14 years of experience as an athletic director on the high school level.

Brock got his start in coaching as a volunteer assistant at Godby High School in Tallahassee in 1981 and then left the following season to join Jim Hughes' staff at Thomasville High School in 1982.

Brock followed Hughes to Colquitt High School in 1983, where he helped coach the Packers in the 1991 1-AAAA state championship game. During his nine seasons at Colquitt, the Packers made the region playoffs eight times, were region runner-up three times, and received the region's all-sports trophy on three occasions. Brock served as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, offensive line coach, and strength coordinator during his time at Colquitt.

He earned his first head coaching job in 1992, when he took over the Worth County High School program in Sylvester, Ga. He took a struggling program that went 1-9 his first year to an 8-3 mark and back-to-back playoff appearances in his third and fourth seasons.

In 1996, Brock took over head coaching and athletic director duties at Fitzgerald High School in Fitzgerald, Ga., where he had the challenge of rebuilding a program that had just 40 players his first season. With hard work and determination, Brock fielded 70 players and helped turn the program around during his short tenure. Under his reign, FHS took home the sportsmanship trophy for 2-A in 1996 and 1997.

Before taking over at Jackson County, Brock spent two years as offensive coordinator/strength coach at Westside High School under Robert Davis. Westside, only four years old at the time, made it to the semifinals of the state at the Georgia Dome in 2002 and finished with a no. 4 state ranking. In 2001, Westside advanced to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs.

The Albany, Ga., native received his B.S. degree in health/physical education at Florida State in 1982, his master's degree at Albany State, and his Ed.S. degree from FSU.

As a player, Brock played four years for Coach Bobby Bowden at Florida State as an offensive lineman. He was a member of the 1977 Tangerine Bowl team and the 1980 and 1981 Orange Bowl teams.

Brock is married to the former Missie Milton of Albany, Ga.

CHRIS MATUSEK

Director of Football Operations | 13th Season
Middle Tennessee, 2002

Chris Matusek, a four-year letterman in football at Middle Tennessee, is in his 13th year as a full-time employee with the program. Matusek spent the first two years as the program's equipment manager before being elevated to administrative assistant in June 2005, a post he held for two years.

In 2007, Rick Stockstill named Matusek the director of football relations before moving him to his current role as director of football operations in April 2008.

Matusek oversees the daily internal operational functions of the football program while working closely with Coach Rick Stockstill. He is instrumental in team travel, recruiting weekends, the annual team banquet, the lettermen's golf event, the walk-on program, and the "Signing Day Celebration" event held each February. Matusek also serves as the team's liaison for pro scouts, on-campus housing, on-campus dining, and academics during summer school, and oversees all football facilities.

Prior to his duties as director of football operations, Matusek oversaw the equipment operation and the team's practice facility while assisting with the football program's day-to-day operations. Some of those duties included ordering equipment and apparel for players and staff and overseeing the operation of Middle Tennessee's student equipment managers. He also assisted with team travel and various day-to-day responsibilities.

Matusek also acts as the program's former player contact, a responsibility Stockstill says carries great significance because of the importance of developing and maintaining relationships with former players and making sure they are informed of upcoming football-related events and feel welcomed back to campus.

One aspect of Matusek's personality that has earned him respect among coaches and players is the consistency in which he achieves multiple tasks. That trait was evident during his Blue Raider playing career.

A native of Shelbyville, Tennessee, Matusek played and started all 43 games as a deep snapper from 1998 to 2001. Matusek was a member of the 2001 team that went 8-3, won a share of the Sun Belt Conference Championship, and became the first team to ever win a game against a team from the SEC. He also carries the distinction of being on the last I-AA team at MTSU and on the first I-A team.

In 2001, Matusek served as captain for three games during the season.

Matusek, who went his entire career without a bad snap, was originally a walk-on before earning a scholarship for his final two years as a Blue Raider.

At Shelbyville, Matusek played quarterback for the Eagle football team. He earned four letters and tossed 10 touchdown passes as a senior. Matusek also lettered four years in baseball.

Matusek, who earned his degree from Middle Tennessee in industrial technology in 2002, is married to the former Katie Mellen of Green Bay, Wisconsin. The couple has two sons, William Anthony and Andrew Michael.

JASON SPRAY

Head Strength Coach | 11th Season
Middle Tennessee, 2002

Jason Spray has climbed the ladder of success rapidly since his collegiate playing career at Middle Tennessee, and he continues to exemplify the tremendous work ethic that made him a decorated gridiron standout for the Blue Raiders. Spray was elevated to head football strength coach in January 2012.

"I have been around Jason for nine years and I know how hard he works and the knowledge he possesses about the profession," said Head Coach Rick Stockstill. "He is very impressive, not only because of his work ethic, but for the ability to develop our players in all areas of strength and conditioning to speed and quickness to the proper nutritional habits. He has the energy, enthusiasm, and passion I want in the position."

Spray, who was voted the NCSA Assistant Strength Coach of the Year in 2011, is in his 11th season working in the Blue Raider strength and conditioning program. For seven years, Spray served as the head men's basketball strength and conditioning coach and was the primary assistant in football.

Spray is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. He is also certified as a strength and conditioning specialist by the NSCA and the CSCCA, and is certified by the National Association of Speed and Explosion. Spray is also certified by USA Weightlifting as a club performance coach and is certified as a sports nutritionist through the International Fitness Professional Association.

The Murfreesboro native also works with various professional athletes during the offseason. Spray's specialty is in plyometrics, which focuses on movements, explosion and flexibility rather than just muscle mass. The professional players like the emphasis.

Spray, who is also an expert contributor for Stack Magazine and Premier Players Magazine, is a graduate of Middle Tennessee where he was a three-year starter for the Blue Raider football team. He was named the 2000 Lifter of the Year, as voted on by his teammates.

Spray played on the first Division I-A football team at Middle Tennessee in 1999 and was the starting fullback in 2001, when the Blue Raiders posted an 8-3 record and tied for the Sun Belt Conference championship — also a first in the Division I-A era. The durable and hard-working Spray played in 32 career games at MTSU. He was named co-captain of the 2001 Sun Belt Championship team.

Spray earned his bachelor of science in May 2002 and his master of science in 2005. Spray is married to the former Karisse Baker and the couple has two sons, Jason Jr. and Jaxon.

KEITH BUNCH

Head Football Trainer | 2nd Season
College of Charleston, 2002

Keith Bunch is in his second year at Middle Tennessee as the head football trainer for the Blue Raiders. Bunch made his way to Murfreesboro after seven years at Louisiana Tech where he was an assistant athletics director and headed up the University's sports medicine department.

Bunch arrived at Louisiana Tech during the summer of 2007 following a two-year stint as the associate head athletic trainer at Presbyterian College where he worked primarily with the Blue Hose football program. Prior to his time at PC, Bunch worked one year at Carolina SportsCare and Physical Therapy Clinic in Beaufort, S.C., while working with the area high school outreach program.

The 2002 graduate of the College of Charleston ran a sports medicine department that handled all 16 NCAA sanctioned programs at Louisiana Tech.

Bunch was instrumental in spearheading a number of improvements in the Sports Medicine Department at LA Tech. Some of the improvements included renovations and upgrades to the athletic training rooms in both the Charles Wyly Athletic Complex and the Thomas Assembly Center, the creation of additional positions within the sports medicine staff, and the creation of Docs for Dogs -- a team of local specialty doctors that served all of the Bulldog student-athletes.

Bunch earned his undergraduate degree in athletic training at the College of Charleston where he worked with the Cougars' women's soccer and baseball programs. While working on his bachelor's degree, Bunch completed a pair of internships with The Citadel football program in the fall of 2001 and Wando High School during the spring of 2002.

The Lodge, S.C., native earned his master's degree in higher education administration with a minor in sports management from Auburn in May of 2004. Bunch worked closely with the Tigers' football program during that time.

Bunch is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers' Association (LATA).

BRANDON LAWSON

Director of Player Personnel | 2nd Season
Tennessee, 2013

Brandon Lawson joined the Blue Raider football staff in May 2014 and serves as the Director of Player Personnel. His primary responsibilities include player personnel, overseeing and managing recruiting events, developing marketing strategies for recruiting purposes, and managing the recruiting big board.

Lawson received his bachelor's degree in logistics and international business from the University of Tennessee in the spring of 2013. During his time there, he moved up the ladder in UT's recruiting department from student volunteer to ultimately being hired on staff as the football player personnel administrator in 2013. His duties on UT's football staff included managing the recruiting database, developing and managing the prospect film database, executing recruiting events from the ground level, and managing the recruiting needs of the nine assistant coaches.

Prior to Lawson's career with the UT football program, he served six years on active duty in the United States Marine Corps. The former Marine served at the Presidential Helicopter Squadron HMX-1 where his duties included flying on board Marine One Helicopter as the Marine One Crew Chief from 2007 through 2009. He was honorably discharged in April of 2010 and began his academic and athletics journey at the University of Tennessee that summer.

Brandon is a native of Knoxville, Tenn., and is married to the former Kimberly Martin.

KORTNE GOSHA

Assoc. AD/Equipment & Facilities | 4th Season
Jacksonville State, 2011

Kortne Gosha is in his fourth season with the Middle Tennessee football program. After serving 2012 as the program's equipment manager, Gosha was elevated to Assistant Athletic Director for Equipment and Facilities in 2013 then moved to an Associate Athletic Director in 2014.

Gosha oversees equipment ordering for the entire athletic program, while handling all license products and athletic facility capital projects and upgrades.

Gosha made his way to Murfreesboro from Jacksonville State University where he worked three years as an equipment manager. He served as the Gamecocks student manager from 2007 until July 2011 before being hired full-time in August 2011 as the coordinator of operations and facilities.

In his full-time role at JSU, Gosha was the head equipment manager, planned team travel, drafted athletic department apparel contracts, served as camp director for summer camps, and coordinated use of athletic facilities, student staff, and events.

During his time as a student at JSU, Gosha interned with the San Francisco 49ers in summer 2008 while also picking up an internship at the University of Alabama in 2007.

Gosha, who was an operations manager for the Sarrell Dental Center prior to joining the Blue Raiders, is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association, the American Federation of Coaches Association, and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Gosha earned his degree in political science from Jacksonville State in 2011 while also minor-ing in criminal justice.

Gosha, and his wife, Chase were married in 2015.

ERIK BARTLETT

Video Coordinator | 5th Season
Middle Tennessee, 2008

Erik Bartlett, a graduate of Middle Tennessee, is in his fifth year as coordinator of video operations for the Blue Raider football program. Bartlett became just the third full-time coordinator at Middle Tennessee when he was hired in July 2011.

Bartlett is in charge of weekly motivational highlight tapes for the football program, and assists in scoreboard productions for basketball and special events held in the Murphy Center. His other duties with the football program consist of setting up meeting rooms at the hotel during home and away games, making highlight tapes for NFL draft prospects, and handling all video for the coaches' meetings on a daily basis.

His team also makes sure that all practices are filmed and broken down by offense, defense, and kicking game, for the coaches to look at after practice.

Bartlett, who heads up six student assistants, made his way back to Middle Tennessee after three years at nearby Blackman Middle School. At BMS he served as the in-school suspension teacher but when the full-time video job opened at MT, Bartlett jumped at the opportunity.

Prior to working at BMS, Bartlett worked as a video student assistant for the Blue Raider football program for five years beginning in 2003. He later graduated from Middle Tennessee with a degree in physical education in 2008.

Bartlett attended Blackman High School in Murfreesboro where he played football and basketball. One of his basketball teammates was Tampa Bay Ray's standout pitcher David Price, and the son of his quarterback coach at Blackman was a student video assistant who was a senior at Middle Tennessee when Bartlett was a senior at Blackman.

Erik's parents are Ken Bartlett, a former Nashville Banner sportswriter, and Debbie Bartlett, secretary to Blue Raider basketball coach Kermit Davis.

2013 Armed Forces Bowl

Fort Worth, TX (Amon G. Carter Stadium)/Dec. 30, 2013
Navy 24, Middle Tennessee 6

by Adam Sparks, DNU

FORT WORTH, TX - MTSU's resilient season met an awkward end.

Missed opportunities, a deficit from the early minutes and accusations of dirty play on ESPN's national airwaves spoiled the Blue Raiders' first bowl trip in three years in a 24-6 loss to Navy in the Armed Forces Bowl.

MTSU head coach Rick Stockstill made no apologies.

"I thought this was a heck of a game. I thought it was very physical, and I loved the way we played," Stockstill said. "It hurts to lose this game, but I was really proud of how we played."

A tight 10-6 game got out of hand with two late touchdown runs by Navy (9-4). But even before that, the Blue Raiders (8-5) never found their footing in their first-ever meeting with the Midshipmen.

MTSU was off kilter from the start, showing none of the cooperative play-making the offense and defense shared throughout the team's five-game win streak that was snapped.

Navy's triple-option offense drove down the field with ease for a touchdown on its opening score.

After that, the defense dug in and kept Navy out of the end zone until the fourth quarter. But MTSU's offense never held up its end and squandered chances to turn the game its way.

"We needed to score when we got into the red zone," said running back Jeremiah Bryson, a Smyrna graduate. "If we had capitalized on those chances that we got, this would have been a different game and we could have gotten the W."

Countering Navy's clock-milking ground attack, MTSU had only nine possessions and failed to make them count.

The Blue Raiders settled for a field goal on their opening drive after quarterback Logan Kilgore took a costly sack and tossed an incomplete pass into thick coverage.

Another drive stalled at the 7-yard line and led to Cody Clark's second field goal to trim Navy's lead to 10-6.

MTSU's defense recovered two Navy fumbles, both coughed up by quarterback Keenan Reynolds. It marked the Midshipmen's first turnovers in six games, as they entered the day with the fewest giveaways in the nation. MTSU linebacker TT Barber recovered both fumbles, setting an Armed Forces Bowl individual record and earning co-MVP honors. But neither takeaway yielded points for the Blue Raiders.

The back-breaker came on MTSU's opening drive of the second half. Still trailing 10-6, the Blue Raiders' up-tempo attack moved quickly into the red zone. But Corey Carmichael was stuffed for a 1-yard run at the 6-yard line on fourth-and-2, ending MTSU's opportunity to take its first lead.

"We knew going in that there would be a limited number of possessions," Stockstill said. "We weren't going to beat them with field goals. That's why we went for it on the first drive of the third quarter. Give Navy credit. They got it done there in the fourth quarter."

Navy, the nation's No. 2 rushing offense, ran for 366 yards. Reynolds, a former Goodpasture standout, led the way with 86 yards on 20 carries to earn co-MVP honors. He scored twice on runs of 3 yards and 1 yard — extending his single-season count to 31 rushing TDs for an NCAA record for quarterbacks.

Out of opportunities, the game got away from MTSU in the fourth quarter.

Kilgore tossed two interceptions on MTSU's final three drives. The picks were sandwiched between two rushing TDs by Navy — Reynolds' 1-yard run and DeBrandon Sanders' 41-yard scamper on an option pitch.

"You know we said it all week, you can't turn the ball over against these guys," Kilgore said. "We knew possessions were going to be limited. After the turnover, you saw they scored. Obviously, we are in crunch mode and trying to make a play on the second one."

Kilgore was 19-of-33 passing for 218 yards, no TDs and two interceptions. MTSU ran for only 91 yards after rushing for more than 200 yards in all of its previous five games.

Senior wideout Kyle Griswold tied an Armed Forces Bowl record with nine receptions.

MTSU was uncharacteristically flagged for four unsportsmanlike penalties, including two on senior linebacker Rod Blunt that led to his automatic ejection early in the fourth quarter.

Stockstill acknowledged it was a very physical game, but added that he did not think his team crossed the line.

"I am not going to back down one bit," Stockstill said. "We had something to prove, and I thought our defense was very physical and tough. I loved how they played."

2011 GoDaddy.com Bowl

Mobile, AL (Ladd-Peebles Stadium)/Jan. 6, 2011

Miami (Ohio) 35, Middle Tennessee 21

by Adam Sparks, DNU

MOBILE, AL - MTSU stuck to its season-long storyline, losing 35-21 to Miami (Ohio) in the GoDaddy.com Bowl because of some costly turnovers.

MTSU (6-7), which had the nation's worst turnover margin this season, committed four second-half turnovers — including four interceptions tossed by senior quarterback Dwight Dasher.

Miami (10-4), the Mid-American champion, became the first team in Division I history to post double-digit losses one season and double-digit wins the next year.

Typical of his two topsy-turvy season, Dasher showed his best and worst — mostly worst — in front of a crowd of 38,168 at Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

Dasher, the 2009 New Orleans Bowl MVP, had 158 total yards, one TD and no turnovers in the first half. But he tossed four interceptions in a second half in which MTSU was outscored 21-7. It was a season-high number of picks for Miami's defense.

Miami delivered a dagger with an 11-play, 71-yard scoring drive, capped by Austin Boucher's 5-yard TD pass to Nick Harwell with 5:25 remaining.

Dasher then tossed his third interception soon after to seal the outcome.

Miami took a 28-21 lead late in the third quarter on Boucher's 17-yard TD pass to Chris Givens.

Then Dasher tossed an interception to Miami's Evan Harris. After a defensive stand, MTSU's Jarrett Crittenton blocked Miami's 32-yard field goal attempt to keep the RedHawks off the scoreboard.

MTSU wasn't as fortunate after Dasher's first pick.

On MTSU's first possession of the second half, Dasher tossed an ill-advised pass up for grabs into heavy Miami coverage. Dayonne Nunley snagged the easy interception and skipped his way through traffic for a 52-yard return for a touchdown. It put Miami ahead 21-14 early in the third quarter for its first lead of the night.

But MTSU wasted little time tying the score. Caught in a pile-up, running back Phillip Tanner kept his feet, broke free and sprinted 54 yards for a score. It was the longest MTSU run in FBS bowl history.

MTSU squandered a couple of chances to take back the lead early in the third quarter. Kevin Brown intercepted Boucher's pass, but MTSU wideout Malcolm Beyah lost a fumble on the next play.

On MTSU's next possession, it drove to Miami's 42-yard line, but Tanner was stuffed for a 2-yard loss on fourth-and-1.

It was a stark contrast to the first half, when MTSU put up 197 yards and looked efficient on offense.

On their first scoring drive of the night, the Blue Raiders punched the accelerator. Their up-tempo attack marched 89 yards on eight plays in only 2:22.

Dasher connected on passes of 11, 15 and 27 yards, the last one going to Sancho McDonald to Miami's 18-yard line. On the next play, Tanner broke two tackles and galloped into the end zone for the opening score.

Miami answered quickly with a 70-yard pass from Boucher to Armand Robinson to MTSU's 3-yard line, the longest pass play in a bowl in RedHawks' history. Thomas Merriweather scored on a run on the next snap, tying the score 7-7.

Miami's first score took only 2:01 of game clock, but MTSU picked up its speed with a second score in only 1:41. Dasher completed three straight passes and took a quarterback draw for a 49-yard TD run on third-and-5 for a 14-7 lead through one quarter.

Miami countered with Boucher's 40-yard pass to Nick Harwell, which set up Merriweather's second TD run and tied the game 14-14.

Miami had two chances to take a halftime lead, but MTSU got a pair of timely plays from unexpected sources.

Redshirt freshman Dearco Nolan got his first career sack for a 14-yard loss that forced a Miami punt. On their next possession, the RedHawks had an 18-yard TD pass from Boucher to Robinson nullified by an illegal procedure penalty. On the ensuing play, they went to the end zone again, but MTSU cornerback T.L. Edwards picked off the pass at the goal line for his first career interception.

It was Miami's first turnover in four games and Boucher's second thrown interception in seven games this season.

2009 New Orleans Bowl

New Orleans, LA (Superdome)/Dec. 20, 2009
Middle Tennessee 42, Southern Miss 32

by Adam Sparks, DNJ

NEW ORLEANS, LA - The Blue Raiders achieved bowl brilliance.

MTSU beat Southern Mississippi 42-32 in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

It was only MTSU's second bowl appearance in its Football Bowl Subdivision era, but the Blue Raiders' seventh straight win snapped the Golden Eagles' dominance in the New Orleans Bowl. Southern Miss had won three of the last five New Orleans Bowls.

MTSU finished arguably its best season in school history with a 10-3 record after a momentous victory amid a New Orleans Bowl record crowd of 30,228 at the Louisiana Superdome. Southern Miss fell to 7-6.

"It just feels great to win a huge game," said MTSU junior safety Jeremy Kellem. "We're champions tonight. We might not be the Sun Belt champion, but we're the New Orleans Bowl champion."

MTSU quarterback Dwight Dasher earned MVP honors, breaking the New Orleans Bowl rushing record with 201 yards on 26 carries and two touchdowns. He was also 15-of-25 passing for 162 yards, two TDs and no interceptions.

Freshman Ben Cunningham, a former Goodpasture High standout, had a 1-yard TD in the fourth quarter to cap an 80-yard drive to put the stake through the Golden Eagles' heart.

Then MTSU senior linebacker Carmichael picked off a Southern Miss pass with less than three minutes remaining, and Dasher scored on a 1-yard run for the final margin.

"We were down early, but we fought hard," Carmichael said. "We always fight back. You think this is the biggest win in school history? You're darn right it is."

MTSU fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter, but held Southern Miss to only two field goals in the second and third quarters to take its first lead in an FBS bowl by the third quarter.

After the sluggish start, the Blue Raiders, who had only five active players with bowl experience, eventually settled into the national spotlight.

Dasher put on a courageous performance while suffering three separate leg injuries — all of which were awkward turns of his left ankle and knee without contact from a Southern Miss defender.

The injured Dasher was briefly replaced twice by redshirt freshman Brent Burnette, but the junior starter returned to the game both times.

During Dasher's final absence, Burnette came in and tossed a 22-yard bullet to Wes Caldwell. He then connected with Chris McClover on a wide-receiver screen for a 23-yard TD to put MTSU ahead 28-20 through three quarters.

Dasher had a 35-yard TD run earlier in the third quarter for the second-longest run in New Orleans Bowl history.

MTSU trailed 14-0 less than nine minutes into the game, but came back with a pair of second-quarter touchdowns.

Dasher returned from his first leg injury suffered late in the first quarter to lead the Blue Raiders on a 12-play, 70-yard scoring drive early in the second. He hit Garrett Andrews on an 11-yard TD toss on third down to cut the Southern Miss lead to 14-7.

On its next possession, MTSU drove to the 14-yard line, but Alan Gendreau's 31-yard field goal was blocked.

But on the next snap, MTSU cornerback Alex Suber made the play of the night.

Southern Miss set up a wide-receiver screen pass, but Suber eluded a blocking wideout and dove in front of the ball for the interception. It was Southern Miss quarterback Martevious Young's first interception thrown in 166 pass attempts and only his second this season.

Suber's pick gave MTSU the ball at Southern Miss' 12-yard line. Dasher connected with former Oakland High standout Shane Blissard for a 12-yard TD on another third-down play to tie the score 14-14.

Southern Miss made a 20-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to lead 17-14 at halftime.

Southern Miss started strong, scoring on its first two possessions.

The Golden Eagles marched 61 yards in nine plays and 4:18 en route to their first touchdown to open the night.

The key play came when DeAndre Brown caught a 19-yard pass and fumbled as he went to the turf. MTSU defensive back Derrick Crumpton recovered it, but Brown was ruled down at the 19-yard line before the ball popped out.

Tory Harrison capped the drive with a 2-yard run for the score. Harrison's run for the two-point conversion failed, and Southern Miss led 6-0. The Golden Eagles went for two throughout the game because of inconsistencies on its PAT kicking team this season.

After MTSU's second straight three-and-out series, Southern Miss' Brown caught a 24-yard TD pass and a two-point conversion to put the Golden Eagles ahead 14-0 with 6:35 remaining in the first quarter.

2006 Motor City Bowl

Detroit, MI (Ford Field)/Dec. 26, 2006
Central Michigan 31, Middle Tennessee 14

by Adam Sparks, DNU

DETROIT, Mich. - MTSU's season-long spell wore off at Ford Field.

The Blue Raiders' first Division I-A bowl trip was spoiled in a 31-14 loss to Central Michigan in the 10th Annual Motor City Bowl.

A Motor City Bowl record crowd of 54,113 saw MTSU (7-6) stage a late rally, but it couldn't compensate for the early wounds inflicted by the fast-paced CMU (10-4) offense.

"I thought (a comeback) was realistic with five minutes left, and I thought it was realistic with three minutes left," first-year MTSU coach Rick Stockstill said. "They fought to the end, and that's all a coach can ask of his players. There's not a player in that locker room that thought we didn't have a chance."

MTSU recovered from an early 14-point deficit and a CMU offensive burst, but a second wave kept the Blue Raiders at bay.

The Chippewas used only 13 offensive snaps to score two quick touchdowns and three more plays to jump ahead 21-7 in the second quarter. Leading the charge was CMU quarterback Dan LeFevour, the Motor City Bowl most valuable player, who had 218 of his 231 total yards in the first half.

After CMU's starting surge, MTSU struggled to keep pace, as CMU won its first I-A bowl game in the program's third attempt.

Meanwhile, MTSU played its first overall I-A bowl in Stockstill's debut season.

"Our players walk out of here with their heads held high," Stockstill said. "What Middle Tennessee did (Tuesday), you can't put a price tag on. It will help short-term, and it will help this program long-term."

"For what these guys did this season, I will forever be indebted."

MTSU never caught up with CMU, and it took a large leap backward early in the third quarter when Clint Marks was picked off by CMU linebacker Doug Kress, who returned the interception 56 yards for a touchdown.

"Your defense scores in the second half — that really helped," CMU interim coach Jeff Quinn said. "Anytime your kids can step up in that role, you know you're going to have the outcome which we felt and did."

MTSU junior running back DeMarco McNair's 6-yard touchdown cut the Chippewas' advantage to 28-14, but the rest of the Blue Raiders' fourth-quarter possessions finished short of paydirt.

MTSU outgained CMU 320 yards to 311, but the Blue Raiders were stifled by 103 penalty yards.

Marks finished 25-of-37 for 251 yards and two interceptions. MTSU true freshman Desmond Gee had a career-high nine receptions for 63 yards and a key 39-yard punt return.

However, CMU made its mark early on. Each positive for MTSU was met two-fold by the Mid-American Conference champion Chippewas.

MTSU senior running back Eugene Gross scored on a 3-yard run in the second quarter to cut the CMU lead to 14-7. However, MTSU's ensuing outside kick failed, and CMU answered with a four-play, 51-yard drive capped by LeFevour's 9-yard touchdown run to stretch the Chippewas' lead to 21-7 at halftime.

Any other MTSU scoring threats were countered by a costly penalty, turnover, or loss of possession on downs.

CMU was methodic on its opening possession, driving 69 yards on nine plays to paydirt.

Running back Ontario Sneed scored on a 1-yard dive over right guard, but the Chippewas' march was highlighted by two key third-down conversions.

On third-and-seven, LeFevour tossed a 26-yard pass to Justin Gardner, who slipped behind the MTSU secondary. Then following an MTSU tackle for loss by Jonathan Harris, LeFevour scrambled for 12 yards to the 1-yard line. The Chippewas went ahead 7-0 on the next snap.

MTSU was equally impressive on its first drive, but back-to-back sacks by defensive ends Mike Ogle and Daniel Bazuin stalled the Blue Raiders' progress.

Marks connected on all four passes for 60 yards during the first drive. His 17-yard pass to Jonathan Grigsby on third-and-23 set up a 39-yard field goal attempt, but Colby Smith hooked the kick wide left.

It only took CMU 51 seconds to go ahead 14-0, as Sneed pulled down a 29-yard swing pass for a touchdown. It capped a four-play, 78-yard scoring drive to the 5:53 mark of the first quarter.

1956 Refrigerator Bowl

Sam Houston 27, MT 13
(December 1, 1956)

Evansville, IN -

The Blue Raiders carried an OVC championship and a 7-2 record into the first bowl game in the school's history, but the occasion was ruined by a powerful Sam Houston team. Led by Little All-American fullback Terry Sweeney, the Blue Raiders amassed 290 yards of total offense but mistakes killed their hopes for a win. The Blue Raiders lost a total of four fumbles while Sam Houston had just one miscue in the hard-fought contest.

MT 21, Presbyterian 12
(January 1, 1960)

Orlando, FL - Before the bewildering eyes of 12,500 (largest crowd ever at the time), and against a well-balanced Presbyterian team, the Blue Raiders galloped far and wide for a 21-12 win in the 14th annual Tangerine Bowl classic. Called by some as the best played bowl game on the New Year's schedule, the Blue Raiders almost made a rout of it in the first half, but some fancy maneuvering by the Blue Hose kept them in the game.

Bucky Pitts scored two touchdowns, one on a beautiful punt return, to pace the Blue Raiders to their first bowl win in school history. Pitts, the little speedster from Fayetteville, had 59 yards in nine rushes to lead a Blue Raider infantry attack that ground out 240 yards. MT built a 14-6 halftime lead then had to stave off a tremendous rally led by Presbyterian quarterback Bob Waters, later of the San Francisco 49ers.

(December 29, 1961)

Orlando, FL -

Making their second Tangerine Bowl appearance in three seasons, the Blue Raiders fell to another bunch of tough Texans. It was an even battle for nearly the entire game then a freak play decided the issue. A Lamar field goal attempt fell short of the mark but was inadvertently touched by a Blue Raider and a Tech player fell on it in the end zone for a touchdown.

1964 Grantland Rice Bowl

MT 20, Muskingum 0
(December 12, 1964)

NCAA Mid-east College Division Championship

Murfreesboro, TN -

A rugged defense paced the OVC champion Blue Raiders to a 20-0 win in the first Grantland Rice Bowl ever played. The site was MT's own Horace Jones Field. The Blue Raider defense held Muskingum to only 72 yards in total offense and scored a touchdown on a 99-yard fumble return by end Ray Neal with only 44 seconds left in the game. It also marked the final collegiate game as a player for longtime Blue Raider coach Boots Donnelly. Middle Tennessee opened the scoring in the first quarter when David Petty scored on a 1-yard run to make it 7-0. The teams both went scoreless in the second and third quarters before the Blue Raiders broke it open in the fourth. Teddy Morris ran five yards for a touchdown to make it 14-0 before Neal put up the final points with his intercepted fumble return. Morris finished 10 for 18 in the passing department for 142 yards, while Bob Hlodan paced the ground attack with 110 yards on 19 carries. Hlodan went on to be named the game's Most Valuable Player.

RETIRED NUMBER

Teddy Morris was something special from the moment he came to Middle Tennessee as a young freshman in the fall of 1962.

By the time he graduated, his stellar play had helped bring the Blue Raiders 32 wins (against only eight losses and a tie), a record which yielded three Ohio Valley Conference championships.

Total	587	326	34	4799	41	.555

When his playing days were complete, Morris held a number of Middle Tennessee career records: touchdown passes (41), yards per completion (14.7), and points scored by passing (252). Morris still ranks sixth in passing yards with 4,799 while also standing seventh in pass completions with 326.

He was the OVC's Offensive Player of the Year in 1965 after leading the Blue Raiders to an unblemished 10-0 season. In 1970, he was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Decade by the Nashville Banner.

No player has worn number 14 since Morris finished his career in 1965. No player will ever wear that number again. It's a significant tribute to one of the finest athletes in Middle Tennessee football history.

Morris, who was later an assistant coach for Middle Tennessee from 1970 to 1973, joined Horace Jones and Charles Murphy as the first three to be inducted into the Blue Raider Hall of Fame in 1976.

BLUE RAIDER HALL OF FAME FACTS

Started: 1976

First Inductees: Charles M. "Bubber" Murphy, Teddy Morris, Horace Jones

Purpose: To identify and honor in a permanent manner those individuals who have achieved excellence in athletics at Middle Tennessee and those others who have contributed to the advancement of athletics at the University by their support in time or resources or both.

Eligibility: 1) Individuals who shall be designated as eligible for Hall of Fame honors shall be limited to those generally referred to as Alumni Varsity Club members or for others who may have earned at least one letter in organized athletic competition since the establishment of the institution, or those who

2) have achieved excellence in athletics at the University and who have been officially disassociated as a student for a period of at least ten (10) years;
OR

3) have advanced and enhanced the concept of athletics at the University through their talents as coaches;
OR

4) have contributed in a substantial and unusual way to the advancement of athletics at the University, or who may be classed as nonathletes or coaches, and who may or may not have matriculated at the University.

Officially named Johnny "Red" Floyd Stadium/Horace Jones Field in 1968, Floyd Stadium will host its 80th season of Blue Raider football with the 2015 campaign. Set on the northwest end of campus, Johnny "Red" Floyd Stadium has undergone a multimillion dollar renovation over the past few years to make it one of the premier facilities in the region and Conference USA.

During the summer of 2014, a new synthetic surface was installed to replace the turf that was installed in 2006. The surface is by Shaw Sports Turf and the brand used is Legion 46, which combines a high-performance monofilament fiber with a durable slit film fiber to provide a soft and resilient playing surface.

The Blue Raiders are 279-115-13 all-time at Floyd Stadium.

The stadium opened its doors on October 14, 1933, with a scoreless tie against Jacksonville State.

Originally built as two sideline grandstands on either side of an outdoor track, it was enlarged in 1940, 1960, 1968, and most recently in 1998 to bring it to its current configuration as an octagonal bowl.

The move to NCAA Division I-A (FBS) football was the catalyst for the 1998 renovation to Floyd Stadium. On August 24, 1995, the University announced plans for a $25 million renovation, which was approved by the State Building Commission. After a lengthy bid process, ground was officially broken for the stadium in January of 1997 with Turner Construction handling the project.

Upon completion, the stadium featured 30,788 seats with only the east side grandstands remaining from the original structure. The old press box gave way to a five-story tower including luxury suites on the third level, a large press area and suites on the fourth level, and a camera deck on the fifth level. The renovation also included the addition of more chair-back seats as well as a club level.

The stadium is also equipped with 16 indoor suites and 38 outdoor boxes.

In addition to the spectator facilities, the stadium complex includes a team meeting room, position meeting rooms, a 10,000 square foot weight room for all Middle Tennessee teams, an academic center for Blue Raider student-athletes, and access to Murphy Athletic Center from the stadium via a walkway. The stadium also allows for further expansion that would provide an increase of approximately 40,000 seats, putting capacity over the 70,000 mark.

The first game in the renovated stadium took place on Sept. 5, 1998. The game, in which Middle Tennessee hosted local rival Tennessee State, drew a school record at the time 27,568 fans. The attendance helped push Middle Tennessee over the top for its I-A qualifying attendance of 17,000 per game.

The Blue Raiders set a new stadium attendance record with 30,502 seeing the home team face Georgia Tech on Sept. 10, 2011.

The following is a rundown of the other facelifts that have been added during the 79-year history of Floyd Stadium:

1948: Permanent concrete stands added to Horace Jones Field to bring capacity to 6,200.

1960: Horace Jones Field expanded to 10,000 seats and a press area was added.

1968: Facility officially becomes Johnny "Red" Floyd Stadium/Horace Jones Field.

1968: Seating capacity expanded to 14,000. In addition, a larger press box was added.

1971: Artificial turf was installed and natural grass became a thing of the past. First game on the new turf was Oct. 2, 1971, against Chattanooga.

1979: On Nov. 3, stadium is officially dedicated and press box sign unveiled.

1998: $25 million renovation expands seating capacity to 30,788 and the old press box gave way to a five-story facility with a club level, suites, press floor, and a camera deck.

2006: A new synthetic surface was installed to give the Blue Raiders one of the top surfaces in the country.

2007: A new state-of-the-art video board with an 18'x32' display was installed.

2011: A new fence was installed around the perimeter of the stadium.

2012: The Jeff Hendrix Stadium Club debuted on the west side of the stadium.

2014: New synthetic surface was installed, along with a new design.

THE MASCOT

In Greek mythology, the winged horse possessed superior cunning and speed. The thundering horse of the gods was entrusted to carry awesome lightning bolts and could only be harnessed by a noble being with a pure heart. Character, talent, and strength were required to mount and ride the fabled winged horse.

Today, this winged horse is a fitting symbol of a university that has earned its wings and excels in many academic arenas, including historic preservation, teacher training, aerospace, political science, horse science, and recording industry. But the winged horse is more than a symbol of physical accomplishment; it's also a symbol of character and the responsible wielding of power.

The challenge of all great universities and university athletic departments is to help student-athletes build character as well as strength. This winged horse, Lightning, is a symbol to Middle Tennessee students, athletes, and alumni of the soaring school spirit they experience at sporting events.

For its nobility and character, the winged horse was immortalized in the stars. Now, with breathtaking speed and thundering, unbridled power, Lightning strikes, forevermore, fear in the hearts of Blue Raider opponents and leads Middle Tennessee to victory!

BLUE RAIDERS

In the early days of athletics at Middle Tennessee State University, the teams were known by several nicknames. Among these were Teachers, Normalites, and Pedagogues.

In 1934, it was decided that the school needed a specific nickname. During football season that year, the Murfreesboro Daily News Journal held a contest to name the team.

The late Charles Sarver, then a Middle Tennessee football player and later principal at White County High

MT Songs

Alma Mater

We sing thy praises,
faithful guide of youth,
Through all the ages affirmed and strong in truth.
Alma Mater, Middle Tennessee
We proudly offer our hearts in loyalty.

Fight Song

Blue Raiders ride on to vic-t'ry
Never failing in the fight
Upholding honor and tradition
Of the name that's held most high
M-T-S-U marching onward
This will be our battle cry
For the one, true pride of the Blue
M-T-S-U Raiders Ride!

Other Traditions

Kickoff

On EVERY kickoff, the crowd starts to make lots of noise and when the ball is kicked everyone yells "Lightning" and when the ball is caught everyone yells "Strikes".

Blue/White Cheer

With two minutes to go in the 2nd quarter, the Blue/White Cheer will start. The home side starts with BLUE and the student side will respond with WHITE.

First Downs

Every time there is a Blue Raider first down, the Public Address announcer will announce "That's another Blue Raider..." and the crowd will yell "First Down!"

School in Sparta, Tenn., won the $5 prize for his entry of "Blue Raiders." Sarver later indicated he had "borrowed" the nickname of the Colgate Red Raiders but substituted MTSU Blue for Colgate Red. Ever since then, Middle Tennessee athletic teams have been known as the Blue Raiders.

For a time, the "unofficial" mascot for the Blue Raiders was a costumed, cartoon-like dog that debuted in the 1980s. A reasonable facsimile of a bluetick hound, the affable character was dubbed "Ole Blue."

On January 17, 1998, the current mascot, "Lightning," was born. The mascot was unveiled at a basketball game in Murphy Center. The introduction of Lightning gave a new identity to the nickname Blue Raiders.

THE LOGO

The first official athletic logo was unveiled on January 17, 1998 after a committee worked nearly two years on the project. The logo that debuted was a picture of a winged horse which snorts lightning bolts between the nickname Blue Raiders and MTSU.

In time, Chris Brady of the Publications and Graphics Department continued to work on the logo to offer some variations. It was Brady who came up with the concept of the current logo that is recognized as the athletic department's primary logo today - a flying horse with a lightning bolt on top of a blue MT.

THE COLORS

During the early spring of 1912, President Jones appointed two faculty members and a student leader to bring to the faculty recommendations for school colors. The two faculty members were Jeannette Moore King and Tommie Reynolds, and the student leader was Q.M. Smith. They met in the east corner first floor room of the women's dormitory and after considerable discussion reached consensus on the two colors, blue and white. The committee pointed out in its report to the president that blue and white more nearly approximated the wearing apparel colors of the early Normal students and "school affiliation and spirit could be displayed in a more economical and practical manner." The committee further stated that school colors embodied in everyday apparel could be purchased across the counter in any general merchandise store. The 1913 football team carried the first blue and white motif.

RAIDER WALK

One of the newest traditions at MTSU is Raider Walk, which began in 2000. The team walks through Walnut Grove two hours before kickoff as fans, cheerleaders, and members of the band wish the Blue Raiders luck in their upcoming game. Head Coach Rick Stockstill also takes time to show his appreciation to the fans by saying a few words. The Raider Walk is designated by lightning bolts painted on the sidewalk where the players greet the fans.
