GAME NOTES

First At-Bat, First Home Run

In his collegiate debut, redshirt-freshman hit a three-run home run against Oral Roberts. The home run came in his first at-bat on just the second pitch.

New Faces

In addition to a new coaching staff, the Racers will add 13 new players to the 2019 team.

Fresh Lineup

There will be significant changes to the Racer lineup as they will have to replace seven starters. Senior shortstop Jaron Robinson and junior outfielder/first baseman Ryan Perkins are the only returning starters.

Familiar Rotation

Unlike the lineup, the Racers will return a majority of their pitching staff, including their top nine pitchers in innings pitched in 2018, led by junior Trevor McMurray

Freshman 3-Peat?

The Ohio Valley Conference Rookie of the Year has called Murray State home the past two years in Davis Sims (2017) and Grant Wood (2018). However, this is the smallest freshman class (four) since 2009 had only three.

Tournament Trip

MSU advanced to the OVC Tournament last season for the second straight season. The Racers went 1-2 down at Choccolocco Park in Oxford, Ala., defeating Eastern Illinois in the first round.

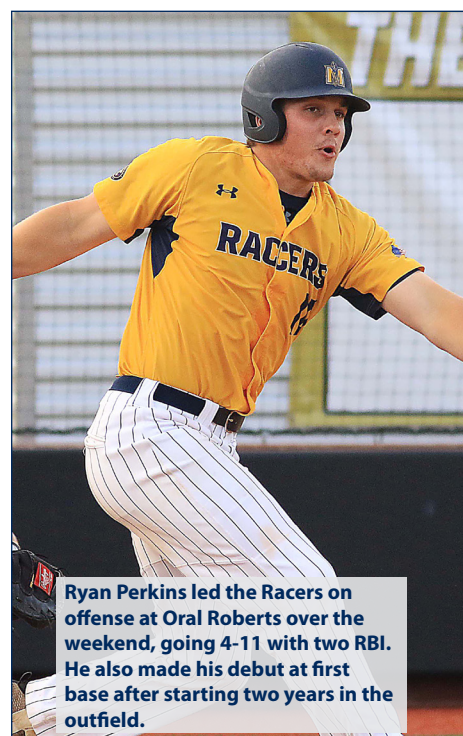

Transfer Destination

Exactly half the team (17) in 2019 have played college baseball at another school before transferring to MSU, including 14 from the junior college ranks and three from four-year division one schools.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Wes Shad made his Racer debut over the weekend at Oral Roberts and smacked a three-run home run in his first at-bat. The third basemen will look to continue to provide pop in the middle of the lineup.

Ryan Perkins led the Racers on offense at Oral Roberts over the weekend, going 4-11 with two RBI. He also made his debut at first base after starting two years in the outfield.

Scouting Memphis

The Tigers went 1-2 in their opening weekend against Indiana, picking up a 6-3 win in game two of a doubleheader, Saturday.

After finishing last in the American Athletic Conference a season ago, the Tigers were once picked to be at the bottom of the standings again. ECU is the top dog in the AAC, sitting at #11 in the country.

Memphis returns four of its top five hitters by average, led by Cale Hennemann, who led the squad with a .299 average last season and hit .377 during league play. Junior Alec Trela seeks to build upon a successful 2018 at the plate after leading the team in RBI (39) and home runs (7).

While the Tigers have not hit any home runs so far this year, they do lead the AAC in doubles, led by Hunter Goodman with three.

Brock Anderson and Jordan Holly each played at Walters State CC the last two years while he was an assistant and have known Skirka since being recruited by him out of high school.

in 2019 and will play 11 of 12 games at home following their four-game road trip to begin the year.
