Racers Pick Up First Wins of Season at Troy Invitational Sept. 7, 2019

Troy, Ala. - The Racers picked up their first wins of the season last weekend at the Troy Invitational, defeating Chattanooga and Jacksonville, coming from behind in both matches after dropping the first set.

Becca Fernandez and Rachel Holthaus were named to the All-Tournament team as Fernandez led the team with 4.67 digs per set while Holthaus hit .253 with 30 kills over three matches. Rachel Giustino also had a strong weekend as she averaged a team-high 4.58 kills per set while Ashley McBee dished out 10.91 assists per set, earning her OVC Setter of the Week honors.

THIS WEEK'S OPPONENTS:

vs. Sacramento State Sept. 13, 2019 4 p.m. Flames Athletic Center

SERIES HISTORY: Sacramento State leads 2-0

SCOUTING REPORT: Sacramento State comes into the weekend with a 3-4 overall record after going 1-2 in Hawaii last week, defeating Army but falling to Denver and Hawaii. Returning this season for the Hornets is standout sophomore setter, Ashtin Olin. Olin was named All-Big Sky Conference Second Team as a freshman. The sophomore setter averaged 10.32 assists per set and 2.21 digs per set. She was also responsible for 180.5 points last year and totaled 90 blocks. Also returning for Sacramento State is the second leading scorer from a season ago in Sarah Davis. The OH averaged 3.1 points per set on 1,103 total attacks and 313 kills in 2018. Paige Swinney is currently eighth in the nation with 6.33 digs per set.

Flames Athletic Center

SERIES HISTORY: Series tied 1-1

SCOUTING REPORT: The Braves picked up their first two wins of the season at the CEFCU Invitational, defeating Belmont and Oakland. After ranking second on the team in both kills and digs last year, sophomore Hannah Thompson leads Bradley in both categories through six matches and owns a team-best four double-doubles. Thompson is one of 11 players (with MSU's Rachel Giustino) in the nation to lead their squad in both kills and digs through matches of Sept. 8. Bradley has improved its record in each of the last four seasons, culminating with the program's first 20-win season since 2001 along with the first postseason appearance in program history.
