RACER ARENA CELEBRATED - NOV. 1, 2023

Celebrating Racer Arena - Nov. 1, 2023

The Murray State Racers took an 90-69 victory over the Brescia Bearcats in front of a sellout crowd of 5,557 in a long-anticipated return to Racer Arena for the first time in 25 years.

Playing in the old home of Racer Basketball for the first time since 1998, the build up to the contest was much discussed and many memories dusted off. Several former MSU coaches and players attended and were honored at halftime. In 44 seasons from 1954-98, Racer Arena is the place that saw Murray State Basketball set a tradition of excellence.

MSU led the Bearcats 39-36 at halftime and made the game-deciding run in the mid-second half. The Racers put the game away with a 13-0 run that included three-straight 3-point shots from JaCobi Wood, Quincy Anderson and Rob Perry, for a 74-57 advantage with 7:29 remaining. Brian Moore, Jr., led the Racers with 18 points, while MSU got 17 points from Perry, 13 each from Quincy Anderson and Jacobi Wood and 10 from Justin Morgan.

The home of Murray State men's basketball for 44 seasons (1954-98), Racer Arena provided friendly confines that saw the program win 503 games and 16 Ohio Valley Conference regular season championships. The original name of the venue was the Murray State Sports Arena before becoming Racer Arena. Later, MSU coaching legend Carlisle Cutchin was honored with the facility being renamed Racer Arena/Carlisle Cutchin Fieldhouse.

Eight different coaches led the program in Racer Arena including Harlan Hodges, Rex Alexander, Cal Luther, Fred Overton, Ron Greene, Steve Newton, Scott Edgar and Mark Gottfried.

When the Racers played their final regular season game at Racer Arena against the Tennessee State Tigers (Feb. 21, 1998), the Racers scored the game's final eight points to claim victory 81-76 in front of a standing room crowd of 6,154. A large group of MSU basketball alumni attended as the Racers completed a run of winning their final 30 games at Racer Arena.

The Racers continued at the CFSB Center in winning their first 17 games to give the program the nation's longest home win streak of 47 when it ended in 2000..

(7) Murray State 62 (2) Drake 74
Quarterfinals
March 3, 2023 • St. Louis, Mo. - Enterprise Center

The Murray State Racers ended their first try at State Farm Arch Madness with a 74-62 loss to the Drake Bulldogs.

Rob Perry scored 22 to lead the MSU offensive attack while Jamari Smith added 12 points. Perry also hauled in a career-high 12 rebounds to make his fifth career double-double.

Playing Drake for a third time this season, after two losses, the Racers played a spirited first half that ended with MSU trailing 33-31. This after the Bulldogs ended the first half on a 14-4 run.

In the second half, the Racers tied it 37-37 at the 16:40 mark. The game changed with 13:28 remaining when the Bulldogs went on a 12-2 run to lead by 13 points with 9:17 left. The Racers were never able to recover.

When the history book records what happened when the Racers joined the MVC and played their first season in 2022-23, there are several items that speak to MSU's competitiveness and hope for the future. They had an overall winning season (17-15) and went 11-9 in league play. The Racers were the only rookie team in the Valley that won a game at Arch Madness and one of three teams that had a win this season over a ranked team as the Racers defeated Texas A&M in November at the Myrtle Beach Invitational.

Game Notes

- Rob Perry had 12 rebounds, his second of 10 or more this season. It matches his career-high game in which he had 12 rebounds vs North Florida in 2020.
- Perry's 22 points gives him nine games this season of 20 or more and 28 for his career.
- Quincy Anderson's 11-game run of making a 3-point basket ended tonight (0-4). His streak is the best for the Racers this season. The Murray State standard is still held by Hall of Famer Isaiah Canaan, who had a run of 40 consecutive games from 2012-13.
- The 2023 MVC Tournament marks the 47th season of the event, the 33rd consecutive year to be held in St. Louis and the 27th in the Enterprise Center.

MVC TOURNAMENT - GAME BOX SCORES

(8) Murray State 35 (9) Missouri State 65
1st Round
March 7, 2024 • St. Louis, Mo. - Enterprise Center

The Murray State Racers ended the 2023-24 season on a sour note Thursday in a 60-35 loss to the Missouri State Bears in the first round of State Farm Arch Madness at Enterprise Center in St. Louis, Missouri.

The Racers finished the season 12-20 after suffering their poorest shooting game of the season when they hit just 21 percent from the field on 12-of-57.

JaCobi Wood led the Racers with 12 points, while Nick Ellington hauled in nine rebounds.

Trailing 41-21 with 12:03 left, the Racers cut the Bears lead to 11 with 8:13 remaining, but couldn't get any closer.

Game Notes

- The Racers are 2-2 in MVC Tournament.
- MSU was the No. 7 seed a year ago and were No. 8 today.

- The last time MSU suffered a shooting game of 30 percent or less was a one they actually won at home 71-65 over Tennessee Tech in 2016 (01-07-16). In that game, the Racers shot only 28 percent (18-of-64) from the field.
- The 14-point first half for the Racers was their lowest first half output since scoring 18 at Eastern Kentucky in 2008.

- That make means Anderson made a 3-pointer in his final 11 games as a Racer.
- Anderson ends his collegiate career with 1,519 points in 137 games (64 with MSU and 73 with Minnesota State).
- Nick Ellington and JaCobi Wood started all 32 games this season for the Racers in 2023-24.

Western Kentucky 47 Murray State 45
February 23, 1952 • Louisville, Ky.

No boxscore is available. The following is an excerpt from the Murray Ledger & Times about the game.

"Western Kentucky sneaked out a 47-45 win over a dogged and clever Murray State squad in the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship game.

MSU coach Harlan Hodges gave his team strict orders not to run with WKU and not shoot unless they were able to work the ball under the basket to Garrett Beshear and Mel Deweese.

The game total score is the lowest in the history of the OVC Tournament as 7,000 witnessed.

WKU scored the winning hoop with a minute and 47 seconds remaining on a basket by Art Spoetstra.

Murray's flashy little Bennie Purcell was shadowed by WKU's veteran Gene Rhodes so that he only took four shots and made one point. This was partly because Purcell was holding the ball to slow the game down."

At this time, the OVC was only in it's fifth season of existence. The article also mentioned that WKU was hopeful of getting a coveted shot in the National Invitation Tournament and would certainly participate if asked to.

March 18, 1988 • Lincoln, Neb.
Devaney Center

In the 1988 NCAA Tournament the Murray State Racers became a national story when they upset Jim Valvano's North Carolina State team in Lincoln, Neb., by a 78-75 score. How did the Racers do it? Part of the story was MSU's 14 made free throws which was more than the 13 NCSU attempted. MSU also played an oustanding defensive game in holding NCSU to 42 percent from the field, while matching it when they had the ball. This magical moment stands as the first win for the Racers in the NCAA Tournament.

The Racers came back two days later in Lincoln, Neb. and took eventual National Champion Kansas to the brink before bowing out in a 61-58 loss. Jeff Martin's basket with :50 remaining gave MSU a 58-57 lead and the inside track on a trip to the Sweet-16, but Danny Manning had other ideas. The Kansas All-American hit a hook shot in the lane for a one-point Jayhawks lead, before Don Mann of Murray State missed a three-pointer for the win with :03 left. The M&M Boys left their mark on Murray State Basketball. Martin finished with 22 points, while Mann added 16.

March 15, 1990 • Knoxville, Tenn.
Thompson-Bolling Arena

In the 1990 NCAA Tournament the Racers came up with magic in Knoxville, Tenn., when they nearly became the first 16-seed to upset a 1-seed, but fell short to Michigan State 75-71 in overtime. Late in the second half the Racers trailed by six points with 2:22 remaining when Greg Coble went to work. The MSU guard hit a layup and free throw to cut the lead to three. Then with time running out he hit a three-pointer at the buzzer to send the game into overtime at 65-65. In the extra time, Frank Allen hit another three to tie the game at 71-71 with 1:06 left, but Michigan State got back-to-back baskets in the final :43 to escape with the win. Sophomore Popeye Jones burst onto the national scene with 37 points and 11 rebounds.

Murray State 69 Arkansas 80
March 19, 1992 • Milwaukee, Wisc.
Bradley Center

The Racers 1992 NCAA appearance was filled with intriguing story lines when Murray State was paired with the powerful Arkansas Razorbacks in Milwaukee, Wisc. MSU's big man, Popeye Jones, went head-to-head with Arkansas' Oliver Miller. Plus MSU Coach Scott Edgar was a former assistant to Nolan Richardson. The Racers fell behind 18-9 early on, but rallied to take the lead at 36-35 on a basket by Jones at 4:23 before half. Popeye was only one rebound from a double-double by half with the Racers trailing 43-39. MSU's final lead came with 12:28 remaining when Arkansas built an 11-point lead at 4:02 and won the game 80-69. Frank Allen led the Racers with 25 points including 6-9 from three-point range, while Popeye had 17 points to go with 15 rebounds.

NCAA TOURNAMENT GAMES

Murray State 70 North Carolina 80
March 17, 1995 • Tallahassee, Fla.
Leon County Civic Center

Murray State's appearance in the 1995 NCAA Tournament took the Racers to Tallahassee, Fla., where they ran into North Carolina and their great lineup that featured Jerry Stackhouse and Rashed Wallace. With Wallace limited because of an ankle injury, the Racers figured to benefit. However, little used center Serge Zwikker was thrown into the fire and responded with a career-high 19 points. Even so, the Racers battled to a 42-41 lead at the half and remained in the game late into the second trailing only 69-65 with only 3:05 remaining. The Tar Heels hit 8-of-10 free throws down the stretch to advance with an 80-70 final. MSU's dynamic duo of Marcus Brown and Vincent Rainey helped the Racer cause scoring 26 and 21 points. Rainey also added eight rebounds and six steals.

The Murray State Racers again had their sights set on upsetting one of college basketball's big guns when they took Duke to the wire before bowing out of the 1997 NCAA Tournament in Charlotte, N.C. by a 71-68 score. In a game that was tied 35-35 at the half, the Racers held brief leads throughout the second half before falling behind by double-digits with eight minutes left. The Racers battled back but never regained the lead. MSU held Duke to 37 percent shooting, but could only manage the same percentage in hitting 29 field goals in the game. Vincent Rainey led the Racers with 23 points to go along with 10 rebounds. DT Mayes added 17 with 11 coming from Arnell Hamilton and 10 from Chad Townsend. Mayes also had a double-double with 10 rebounds.

March 13, 1998 • Oklahoma City, Okla.
Myriad Center

The Murray State Racers went into the 1998 NCAA Tournament with their first national ranking in 27 years (25th by the Associated Press) and a ninth seed the best in program history. The Racers' high hopes were dashed early when Rhode Island jumped on MSU and led 44-24 at the half. MSU could never get the Rams solved defensively and even though they shot better than 50 percent in the second half, they could never make a game of it. Isacc Spencer led the way for MSU with 18 points, while DT Mayes tossed in 16. Chad Townsend, Duane Virgil and Michael Floyd also scored in double-figures as MSU finished the season with a program record 29 wins.

The Racers NCAA run to the Sweet 16 ended with a bitter two-point loss to eventual national runner-up Butler. MSU had the ball and were down by two points with :17 remaining, but were unable to get a shot off and possibly tie or win the game like they did two days before against Vanderbilt. The Racers were plagued by turnovers and finished the day on 18 which was only one more than their field goal total of 19. MSU only hit 5-of-12 from the free throw line. MSU owned the boards against the Bulldogs and ended with a 39-22 advantage. MSU led at half in both of their games in San Jose.

The Racers scored their second NCAA Tournament win in the last three years 58-41 over Colorado State. MSU wore the home white uniforms for the first time in their 15 NCAA apeparances after getting their highest seed of No. 6. Trailing by a point at the half, used their rugged defense and transition offense to start the second half on a 18-2 run. The defensive intensity in the second half limited the Rams to just 17 points on just 7-of-25 shooting, including going 0-for-7 from behind the arc. MSU's 31st win tied the program record that was set in the 2009-10 season, MSU Head Coach Steve Prohm was the first rookie coach in program history to win his first game in the NCAA Tournament.

KFC Yum! Center - NCAA Tournament

The Murray State Racers fell short of their first trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 when they dropped a 62-53 loss to Marquette. The Racers were shooting to become the first team from the Ohio Valley Conference to win two games in the tournament since 1971. This was the third time in school history that the Racers had gotten to one win from advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16. Trailing by four with 13:01 remaining, the Racers dug in for a fight to the finish. The Racers built a lead on the shoulders of rebounding machine Ed Daniel and back-to-back threes from Donte Poole and Isaiah Canaan. MSU's 12-3 run put them in front 46-41 with 7:36 remaining. The Golden Eagles held the Racers in check and answered with a game-changing 13-2 run over the 3:14 to lead 55-48 with 3:07 remaining. MSU never got the game back to a one possession game and drew as close as four points twice with the last time at :42 remaining. Marquette made 7-of-8 free throws to seal the win. Before the game against Marquette, Steve Prohm was honored by Basketball Times as its National Coach of the Year.

Joe Fulks played at Murray State from 1941-43, but it was his post-collegiate career that earned him a place in the Basketball Hall of Fame. Fulks was the MVP of the Basketball Association of America, the forerunner of today's NBA, and also the first to reach 1,000 points. Playing with the Philadelphia Warriors, Fulks was considered the best player of his era. He first began using the jump shot and is widely recognized as the player who introduced it. The 63 points Fulks scored Feb. 10, 1949, was the most in a game until Elgin Baylor scored 64 in 1959.
