Johnson tied the MSU record of four TDs that had stood solo since 1969 by Rick Fisher against Evansville.

The Racers set the program record with 285 yard rushing, breaking the old mark from 1968 also against Evansville.

Fisher, Wolf & Johnson Jerseys Set For Retirement

Teammates at Murray State in the late 1960s and early 1970s, Fisher will see his No. 31 enshrined at Roy Stewart Stadium and Wolf's No. 81, as a big part of MSU's annual Family Weekend.

Additionally, the jersey No. 26 of Danny Lee Johnson in the early 1970s will be retired when the Racers have homecoming Nov. 1 vs Southern Illinois.

Fisher

A regular in the Racer backfield form 1969 through the 1971 season, Fisher was MSU's first 1,000-yard rusher in 1971 which led to him being the Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year. He had 1,078 yards that season and was MSU's all-time rusher with 2,292 yards when he finished his career with the Racers.

Wolf

Wolf, was Fisher's teammate and was an All-OVC selection in 1969. But he is more known for his excellence in world horse racing. Wolf and his wife, Laurie, founded Starlight Racing in Louisville in 2000. Successes on the track have been numerous including developing two Hall of Fame horses, a Triple Crown winner, nine Eclipse Awards, 39 Grade-1 victories,
