OPENING TIP

RACERS LEAD FROM THE FRONT

Murray State was picked first in the Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) 2026-27 preseason poll, the league office announced on October 13. The selection marked the first time the Racers have been picked atop the MVC preseason predictions.

ALLOW US TO (RE)INTRODUCE OURSELVES...

Murray State is coming off of a 20-13 overall record last season with a 12-8 mark in Missouri Valley play and a third-place finish in the league standings, the program's best MVC regular-season finish and most conference wins since joining The Valley.

BACK HERE AGAIN

Murray State opens the season in South Dakota in the Field of 68 Opening Day Marathon for the second-straight year after grabbing an 85-77 victory over Omaha last November in Ryan Miller's first head coaching victory.

HOMETOWN GUY

Head Coach Ryan Miller will coach approximately 75 miles from his hometown of Mitchell, South Dakota on Monday morning in front of family and friends, many of whom now live in Sioux Falls.

FAMILIAR FOES

Separated by just 120 miles, Murray State and Tennessee State have squared off 75 times previously, with the Racers holding a 58-17 edge over the former OVC foe. The first matchup came in November 1983, with the most recent meeting in February 2022.
