For the first time in the 63-year history of the Missouri wrestling program, five Tigers were awarded All-American honors at the 2009 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships held at the Scottrade Center in St. Louis, Mo. In prior years, the most All-Americans Missouri had ever secured in a single campaign was three. In 2010, senior Maxwell Askren closed out his illustrious career by claiming his first-ever national championship, the fourth individual title in program history.

Missouri's 100 Win Club

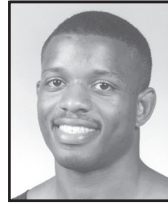

1923-1937 :: 1959-2012

Ben Askren

Record: 153-8-0, 2004-2007
Win 100: Feb. 5, 2006-Wes Roberts (Oklahoma) Decision, 8-6

Ben Askren became the first Missouri wrestler to reach 100 wins prior to his senior campaign. As a junior, Askren recorded a perfect 45-0 season, during which he earned his 100th career victory, at home in the Hearnes Center against Wes Roberts of Oklahoma. After becoming Missouri's first wrestling National Champion in 2006, the four-time All-American and three-time Big 12 Champion capped off his collegiate wrestling career with another individual National Championship title in 2007. Finishing a perfect 42-0, the Hartland, Wis., native sealed his career at Missouri riding an 87-match winning streak. Askren became only the second wrestler in NCAA history to win the coveted Dan Hodge Trophy multiple times (2006, 2007). Missouri's most outstanding wrestler in 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007, Askren also earned the Marshall Esteppe Most Outstanding Freshman award and Big 12 Championship Most Outstanding Wrestler honor in 2004. Askren finished second at the NCAA Championships as a freshman (2004) and sophomore (2005) before earning the 174 pound titles in 2006 and 2007.

Kenny Liddell

Record: 127-44-0, 1990-1995
Win 100: Nov. 19, 1994-(first name unknown) Miller (William Penn) Fall, 6:00

Kenny Liddell is one of 12 MU wrestlers to earn multiple All-America honors. Liddell finished fourth at the 1992 NCAA Championships, then took sixth at the 1995 National Tournament. He was one win away from earning All-America honors in 1994. Tied for third with Shaon Fry on the all-time wins list at Missouri with 127 career victories, he was a Big Eight Champion in 1995. Liddell was named Missouri's Most Outstanding Wrestler twice (1992, 1995) and holds the record for most wins by a Tiger sophomore with 39 in 1991-92.

Wes Roper

Record: 131-37-0, 1978-1982
Win 100: Dec. 4, 1981- Craig Cox (N.C. State) Default

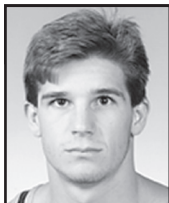

Wes Roper is Missouri's second-highest winningest wrestler with 131 career wins. Twice named Mizzou's Most Outstanding Wrestler (1980, 1982), Roper was selected as team co-captain three times. Roper received All-America honors in 1982 after finishing fourth at the NCAA Championships in the 150-pound weight class. He held the Missouri record for wins in a season by a junior with 40 victories during the 1980-81 campaign and set a MU record that stood for 25 years for most points in a career 461 points. Roper served as the Tiger head coach for 12 years and compiled a record of 73-94-4 from 1986-94. In 2006, Roper became the sixth wrestler inducted into the Missouri Hall of Fame.

Raymond Jordan

Record: 123-29, 2005-2009
Win 100: Dec. 13, 2008- Todd Noel (Cal-Fullerton) Fall, 1:56

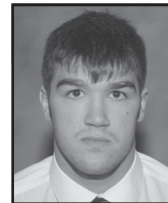

Raymond Jordan was the sixth wrestler in the Missouri century club to earn win No. 100 by way of fall, doing so in 1:56, the fastest of the Tiger's 100-win club members. A two-time All-American, Jordan was the fourth Missouri wrestler to earn All-America honors in two different weight classes, doing so first in 2008 (fifth) at 184 pounds and again in 2009 at 174 pounds (third). Jordan was named Missouri's Most Outstanding Freshman in 2006 and was recognized as the Ed Lampitt Total Tiger honoree in 2008. As a senior, Jordan was awarded the Hap Whitney Coaches Award.

Shaon Fry

Record: 127-36-0, 1990-1994
Win 100: Dec. 29, 1993-J. Koss (West Virginia) Decision, 8-5

Shaon Fry won 127 matches as a Tiger, and stands tied for third on the all-time wins list at Missouri with Kenny Liddell. Fry won two Big Eight Championships (1993, 1994) and reached the final match at the NCAA Championships in 1993. In 1994, he was 38-3 and placed third at nationals. Fry was selected as the Tigers' Most Outstanding Wrestler in 1993 and 1994. Inducted into the MU Hall of Fame in 1999, Fry was a three-time Academic All-Big Eight and two-time Academic All-American.

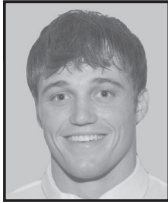

Matt Pell

Record: 122-35-0, 2004-2007
Win 100: Nov. 16, 2006-Chris Vondruska (Ohio St.) Major Decision, 15-5

A two-time All-American in two different weight classes, Matt Pell earned his 100th career win in the opening match of his senior campaign. Besting Chris Vondruska of Ohio State, 15-5, in St. John Arena, Pell went on to finish his career with 122 wins, his final victory coming March 17, 2007, when he pinned Michigan's Eric Tannenbaum in 3:15 for third place All-America honors. Recording four wins by fall during the three-day NCAA tournament, Pell was awarded the Gorarrian Award and returned home to receive Missouri's Most Outstanding Wrestler honor alongside teammate Ben Askren. Pell earned his first All-America nod as a sophomore at 184 pounds. Pell's third-place finish at the 2007 NCAA Championships helped propel Missouri to its highest team finish ever, third.

Kenny Burleson

Record: 119-34-0, 1999-2004
Win 100: Jan. 4, 2004-Matt Lebe (West Virginia) Decision, 7-4

One of several in-state wrestlers to go through the program, Neosho native Kenny Burleson is seventh in the Missouri wins chart, totaling 119 victories throughout his four years of college. Only the ninth Missouri wrestler to hit the century mark, Burleson did so against Matt Lebe of West Virginia in his senior campaign. Burleson was a three-time recipient of the Ed Lampitt Total Tiger Award and was named the Most Improved Wrestler in 2001. A captain in 2004, the two-time NCAA qualifier finished seventh at the 2004 NCAA Championships at 157 pounds after finishing first at the Big 12 Championships earlier in March. Burleson held the most technical falls of the team in 2004 with four and had the most wins of the team during the 2002-03 (31) and 2003-04 (35) season.

Brad Ciesleski

Record: 109-30-0, 2001-2005
Win 100: Jan. 2, 2005-Tanner Cowan (Utah Valley State) Major Decision, 11-1

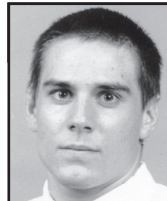

A four-time NCAA qualifier, Brad Ciesleski spent his senior season of eligibility in Columbia, Mo., after earning 84-career wins for Slippery Rock University in Pennsylvania. Reaching the 100-win mark at the Missouri Duals on Jan. 2, 2005, Ciesleski beat Tanner Cowan of Utah Valley State in impressive fashion with an 11-1 major decision. In three years at Slippery Rock, Ciesleski earned two NCAA Division I East Regional Championships as well as two Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) titles.

Nick Marable

Record: 116-25-0, 2006-2010
Win 100: Dec. 29, 2009-Mike Finch (Iowa State) Major Decision, 10-2

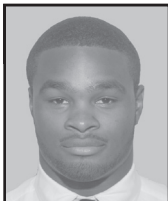

Two-time All-American and three-time Big 12 Champion, Nick Marable became the 16th member of Missouri's 100-win club after a 10-2 major decision over Iowa State's Mike Finch at the 2009 Midlands on Dec. 29. Marable wrestled to a third place finish at the 2008 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, the highest finish amongst Tigers. As a senior, the Tiger grappler posted a 35-5 record, which included a 13-1 dual mark, and became the 17th Missouri wrestler in program history to join the elite 100-win club. Marable finished his career with 116 wins, the eighth-most in Missouri history, and was awarded Missouri's Hap Whitney Coaches Award honor in 2007 as well as Most Improved Wrestler accolades in 2008.

John Kopnisky

Record: 106-37-0, 1997-2002
Win 100: Feb. 13, 2002-Lee Gatlin (Central Missouri State) Fall, 2:22

John Kopnisky reached the 100-win mark during the 2001-02 season after pinning Lee Gatlin of Central Missouri State. Kopnisky is 11th on Missouri's all-time wins list after finishing his career at Missouri with a 106-37 record. He was a three-time NCAA qualifier and won Missouri's Marshall Esteppe Award for the Most Outstanding Freshman on the squad in 1997. Kopnisky was selected as Missouri's Most Outstanding Wrestler for the 2000-01 season. He was also the recipient of the Ed Lampitt Total Tiger Award following the 2001-02 campaign.

Tyron Woodley

Record: 110-38-0, 2001-2005
Win 100: Jan. 15, 2005-Christian Arellano (Cal-State Bakersfield) Decision, 7-4

The first Missouri wrestler to claim a Big 12 Conference title (2003), Tyron Woodley was a two-time All-American and three-time NCAA qualifier. After qualifying for the NCAA championships as a true freshman, the 165-pounder was named the 2001 Marshall Esteppe Most Outstanding Freshman, and Woodley went on to captain the team three times under Head Coach Brian Smith. Woodley picked up his 100th win on Jan. 15, 2005, against Christian Arellano of Cal-State Bakersfield in a 7-4 decision, later earning recognition as the recipient of the 2005 Ed Lampitt Total Tiger Award.

Jeremy Spates

Record: 106-38-0, 1999-2004
Win 100: Feb. 18, 2004-Josh Wooten (Northern Illinois) Decision, 12-6

All-American, three-time captain and three-time NCAA qualifier, Jeremy Spates became the 10th Missouri wrestler to reach 100-wins on Feb. 18, 2004, against Northern Illinois' Josh Wooten. The 2000 Marshall Esteppe Most Outstanding Freshman honoree, Spates closed his career by earning the Hap Whitney Coaches Award in 2004. Wrestling at 149 pounds, Spates finished fifth at the 2004 NCAA Championships in St. Louis. Totalling 106 wins, Spates stands tied for 11th in the Missouri 100-wins list.

Missouri's 100 Win Club

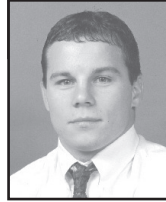

1923-1937 :: 1959-2012

Max Askren

Record: 104-16-0, 2006-10
Win 100: March 6, 2010-Clayton Foster (Oklahoma State) Decision, 10-6

Max Askren put together a record of 104-16 during his four years at Mizzou, good enough for the second-highest winning percentage in program history, behind only his older brother Ben. He picked up his 100th career win at the 2010 Big 12 Championship, earning the 10-6 decision over Oklahoma's Clayton Foster. A three-time All-American, Askren capped off his career by claiming the national championship in the 184-pound class after beating Boise State's Kirk Smith 10-3, becoming the fourth Tiger to be crowned national champion.

Jeff Urban

Record: 101-49-0, 1996-2000
Win 100: March 16, 2000-Dennis Whitby (Old Dominion) Fall, 2:01

Jeff Urban was a two-time NCAA Tournament qualifier and had three consecutive 20-wins seasons at Missouri. Missouri's lone qualifier for the 1999 National Tournament, Urban returned the following season going 2-2 at Nationals in 2000. Urban finished with a 101-49-0 record as a Tiger. He picked up win number 100 at the 2000 NCAA Championships, pinning Old Dominion's Dennis Whitby in the second round of the tournament. His 101 wins places him 16th on the all time wins list at Missouri. Urban was twice named the Tigers' Most Outstanding Wrestler (1999, 2000) and was the recipient of the Ed Lampitt Total Tiger Award in 2000.

Joe Spinazzola

Record: 102-31-6, 1979-84
Win 100: March 9, 1984-Wayne Jackson (Michigan State) Fall, 5:38

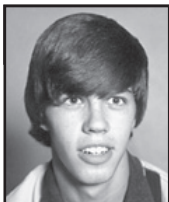

Joe Spinazzola compiled a record of 102-31-6 as a Tiger and became the third Missouri wrestler to reach the century mark in wins in 1984. Selected as Missouri's Most Outstanding Freshman in 1980, Spinazzola was an All-American as a senior, finishing fourth at the 1984 NCAA Championships. Spinazzola held the record for 23 years for most points earned in a season by a sophomore after compiling 139 points in the 1980-81 season. He is currently tied with Dave Young for 14th on the all-time wins list at Missouri.

Rick Romeo

Record: 100-47-0, 1979-1982
Win 100: March 11, 1982-Bill Paxton (Indiana) Fall, 3:30

Rick Romeo was the second Tiger to reach the 100-career win mark, finishing with exactly 100 victories. Dominant at heavyweight, Romeo holds the record for the quickest pin in Missouri history, 13 seconds, and held the record for most career falls by a Tiger with 36 pins until a new record was set in 2004 and reset in 2006. Romeo led his team in pins at the close of the 1981-82 season with 16 and in 1982-83 with 14.

Dave Young

Record: 102-39-0, 1978-1982
Win 100: March 12, 1982-Keith Foxx (Michigan State) Decision, 2-1

Dave Young was a two-time NCAA All-American and finished with a record of 102-39-0 while at Mizzou. He finished fifth in the 1981 and 1982 NCAA Championships and was chosen as the Tigers' Most Outstanding Wrestler twice (1981, 1982). Young is tied with Joe Spinazzola for 14th on Missouri's all-time wins list with his 102 victories.

Michael Chandler

Record: 100-40, 2005-2009
Win 100: March 21, 2009-Matt Moley (Bloomsburg) Decision, 2-1

Michael Chandler wrapped up his college wrestling career by earning win No. 100 as well as All-America honors at the 2009 NCAA Championships. The 157-pound starter was a four-time NCAA qualifier and earned his first top-eight finish at the National Tournament after defeating Matt Moley of Bloomsburg, 2-1, in the fifth place match. Chandler was a two-time team captain and was awarded both the Most Improved Wrestler and Hap Whitney Coaches award in 2006.

The University of Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame was made possible by the 1989 bequest of $100,000 from the estate of the late A.C. (Ace) and Mary Stotler. Located just off the main entrance of Mizzou Arena, there are 155 individuals and two teams in the Hall of Fame, including seven former members of the MU wrestling program. The first class was enshrined in 1990. Former Wrestling Head Coach John Kopnisky pictured below. Two-time National Champion Ben Askren is the most recent inductee, getting recognized in 2012.

Missouri's Hall of Fame

Tiger Wrestlers Earn Hall of Fame Honors

The first wrestler to earn a letter at the University of Missouri, Guy Sappington was also the first Tiger to win a conference championship when he took the 135-pound title at the Missouri Valley Conference meet in 1928. Sappington later won a Big Six Conference crown at 145-pounds in 1932. In 1933, prior to the institution of the NCAA wrestling championships, he won the national Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) title at 145 pounds. Sappington was the first recipient of the Schutte Award, donated by a Kansas City lumberman and wrestling enthusiast, in honor of Missouri's Most Valuable Wrestler in 1932. Sappington passed away Jan. 20, 1994, in Fresno, Calif.

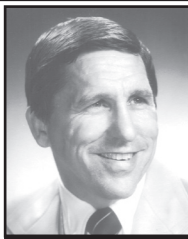

Guy Sappington
Class of 1995

Bob Kopnisky
Class of 2000

An NCAA champion wrestler at the University of Maryland (1965), Bob Kopnisky came to Missouri as head coach in 1974, and led the Tigers to national prominence. From 1974 to 1986, Kopnisky amassed a wrestling record of 125-72-3. During his 12 years at Mizzou, his teams placed nine times at the NCAA Championships. Kopnisky's 1984 squad finished 10th at the NCAA meet, representing MU's best finish at the time. Prior to his arrival, MU had never had an All-American wrestler, but Kopnisky coached 11, including MU's first-ever Big Eight Conference Champion, John Sonderegger (1984). Currently, Kopnisky resides in Carmel, Ind. His son, John, was a standout on the Missouri wrestling team from 1999-2002. Bob is currently a teacher and wrestling coach in Carmel, Ind.

A charter member of the Missouri Wrestling Hall of Fame, Hap Whitney coached the Tigers from 1964-74, managing an 88-55-3 record. The St. Louis native became the first wrestler in Missouri high school history to win four state wrestling championships. Whitney went to Purdue University, winning a Big Ten Conference title in 1956, later placing third at the NCAA Championships. An alternate to the 1956 U.S. Olympic team, his MU squads accomplished a number of notable firsts: the first to place in the Big Eight Championships (1966), the first finalist at the Big Eight Championships (Steve Cavanaugh, 1967), the first and only undefeated season (1967-68) and the first nationally ranked team (1968). After his tenure as wrestling coach, Whitney became assistant athletic director at Missouri, serving until 1981, when he became director of physical education and athletics for Columbia Public Schools. In 1993, he was the Missouri Athletic Director of the Year and the Kiwanis Club's choice for Columbia Sports Person of the Year.

Hap Whitney
Class of 1997

Wes Roper
Class of 2006

A Missouri standout, 2006 inductee Wes Roper was both a student-athlete and head coach with the Tiger wrestling program. Competing at 150 pounds, the three-time co-captain earned Missouri's sixth All-America honor at the 1982 NCAA Championships after finishing fourth in his class. The winningest wrestler in Missouri history for 25 years, Roper now stands second in the Missouri 100-win club with 131 victories collected throughout his career. Between 1978 and 1982, the William Chrisman High School graduate was 131-37 and set a new high for most points in a career (461) and most victories by a junior (40). Both records stood for 25 years and were broken in 2006 by NCAA Champion Ben Askren (174).

Ed Lampitt became the first Tiger to place at the Big Eight Conference Tournament doing so in 1966, (finishing second in 1968). Lampitt captained the only undefeated wrestling team at MU in 1968, and set school records that stood for many years. Graduating with honors in civil engineering, Lampitt became a dentist in 1977, later suffering from a debilitating brain tumor. Two surgeries rendered him unable to speak and totally paralyzed. Through rehabilitation, he recovered but is still paralyzed on one side of his body. Lampitt returned to private practice after learning to perform his duties with one hand. On June 7, 2003, Lampitt received the Wrestling Medal of Courage for overcoming seemingly insurmountable challenges. He resides in Piedmont, Mo., where he has become a private pilot, taken up golf and snow skiing and is a dynamic motivational speaker. The cardio equipment in the wrestling room is named for him.

Ed Lampitt
Class of 1998

Ben Askren
Class of 2011

Roper began his 12-year Missouri coaching career in 1986 and finished with a 73-94-4 record that included eight All-Americans, two Big Eight Champions (with Shaon Fry earning honors in both 1993 and 1994), and five Academic All-Americans. Roper now lives in Kirksville, Mo., and serves as an investment broker.

The only MU wrestler to win two Big Eight Conference Championships (1993, 1994), Shaon Fry placed second at the NCAA Championships in 1993 and third in 1994. Fry had a career record of 127-36, tying for the third most wins in MU history. As a senior, he went 38-3. Fry was a three-time Academic All-Big Eight and two-time Academic All-American selection. With a 3.80 cumulative grade-point average, Fry graduated with honors from MU's physical therapy department. Fry is now the site coordinator for Peak Performance in Jefferson City and his wife Shannon, a former MU Golden Girl, now coaches the Golden Girls for the athletic department.

Shaon Fry
Class of 1999

Arguably the most dominant athlete to ever compete in an individual sport in Mizzou history, as he owned his weight class on a national basis for his last two seasons. He went a combined 87-0 in his junior and senior seasons (42-0 and 45-0, respectively) and won NCAA Championships at 174 pounds in 2006 and 2007 after finishing as NCAA runner up in his first two years (2004-05). Askren finished his career with a sterling 153-8 record, and is the winningest and most decorated wrestler in MU history. He was also a three-time Big 12 champion, and became Mizzou's first-ever four-time All-American. In 2006 and 2007, Askren won the Dan Hodge Trophy - given to the nation's top wrestler - becoming just the second wrestler in NCAA history to win the award twice. Ended his MU career holding numerous records, including 91 falls (44 more than the old record), and 15 technical falls, among many others. Also a top-notch student who was a four-time NWCA Academic All-American, as well as a four-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 selection. He became the first Tiger wrestler to qualify for the Olympics (Beijing, 2008), and he served for two years as a volunteer assistant on the Mizzou staff before beginning a career in Mixed Martial Arts fighting, where he quickly ascended to the Bellator Welterweight Championship with a 9-0 record.
