LAST TIME OUT...

- After falling down 0-2 and trailing by as many as eight points in the third set, Mizzou rallied in exciting fashion to claim three consecutive sets and complete a thrilling 3-2 (22-25, 20-25, 25-21, 25-19, 15-10) victory in its 2015 SEC opener.
- The exciting win at the Hearnes Center marked Mizzou's third all-time victory against Florida. The Tigers are just one of four SEC teams with at least three wins over the Gators in the Mary Wise era.
- Mizzou is now 3-4 all-time against Florida. That record stands out as the other three SEC teams to record at least three wins against the Gators took at least 40 matches to accomplish the feat. The complete list can be found below: Tennessee (7 wins in 48 matches), Kentucky (4 wins in 51 matches) and LSU (5 wins in 40 matches).

Date:

Attendance: Top Tiger Performers: Carly Kan - 17 Kills, 13 Digs

Ali Kreklow - 25 Assists, 12 Digs

#MIZZOU STORYLINES

- Black and Gold fans were treated to a thrilling match Wednesday as the Tigers completed a 3-2 comeback victory over No. 9 Florida. Mizzou trailed the Gators 2-0 and faced a deficit as large as nine points in the third set. Head Coach Wayne Kreklow gathered the troops and led a thunderous attack en route to three consecutive set victories and an overall match triumph.
- The Tigers are now 4-0 all-time in SEC season openers. Oddly enough, the last time Mizzou came back from a 0-2 disadvantage was in 2012 in that season's SEC opener vs. Tennessee. On Sept. 12, 2012 against the Volunteers, Mizzou reeled off three straight sets and stunned the 17th ranked team in the country.
- Mizzou's 3-2 triumph Wednesday over No. 9 Florida marked its first win over a top-10 opponent since its 3-0 victory at No. 5 Florida on Nov. 15, 2013.
- Three Tigers finished with double-digit kills against the Gators. Junior Carly Kan tallied 17, junior Julia Towler finished with 10 and senior Regan Peltier produced 12. Kan also finished with 13 digs, marking her eighth double-double of the season.
- Sophomore setting duo of Courtney Eckenrode and Ali Kreklow helped key the Tiger comeback with 20 and 25 assists, respectively. Kreklow also chipped in 12 digs for Mizzou, giving her three double-doubles on the year.
- For the sixth time this season, Mizzou finished with double-digit blocks. Wednesday's 11 block performance against Florida played a big role into the team's comeback victory. Freshman Alyssa Munlyn paced the Tigers with six total blocks on the evening.
- Another key stat leading to Mizzou's upset was its season-high nine service aces. Six different Tigers recorded an ace, including a season-high of three from junior Alexa Ethridge. The Lee's Summit, Mo., native also had a team-high 15 digs, marking the 11th time this season that she has led Mizzou in the respective category.

TIGERS KNOCK OFF NO. 9 FLORIDA IN SEC OPENER

- Mizzou fans witnessed one of the more thrilling matches in program history on Wednesday, Sept. 30, as the Tigers knocked off No. 9 Florida Gators, 3-2. Mizzou trailed the Gators 2-0 and faced a deficit as large as nine points in the third set. Coach Kreklow gathered the troops and sparked a thunderous comeback en route to three consecutive set victories and an overall match triumph.
- The Tigers are now 4-0 all-time in SEC season opener. Oddly enough, the last time Mizzou came from a 0-2 match disadvantage was in 2012 in that season's SEC opener vs. Tennessee. On Sept. 12, 2012 against the Volunteers, Mizzou reeled off three straight sets and stunned the 17th ranked team in the country.
- Mizzou's 3-2 win over No. 9 Florida marked its first victory over a top-10 opponent since its 3-0 triumph at No. 5 Florida on Nov. 15, 2013.
- Three Tigers finished with double-digit kills against Florida. Junior Carly Kan tallied 17, junior Julia Towler finished with 10 and senior Regan Peltier produced 12. Kan also finished with 13 digs, marking her eighth double-double of the season.
- For the sixth time this season, Mizzou finished with double-digit blocks. Its 11 block performance against Florida played a big role into the team's comeback victory. Freshman Alyssa Munlyn paced the Tigers with six total blocks on the evening.

MIZZOU 4-FOR-4 IN TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONSHIPS

- The Tigers concluded its early season tournament schedule from Sept. 18-19 in Indianapolis at the 2015 Butler Invitational. For the fourth straight tournament the Tigers produced three consecutive wins and improved its season record to 12-0. Mizzou saved its best performance for last in Indianapolis with a 3-0 sweep over Youngstown State. The Tigers collectively hit .371 against the Penguins, marking their second-highest team hitting percentage of the sesaon (only trailing .411 hitting percentage vs. North Texas on Aug. 29).
- Junior Carly Kan (MVP), redshirt sophomore Kira Larson and junior Alexa Ethridge were all named to the Butler Invitational All-Tournament Team for their outstanding performances. Kan and Larson have been named to all four tournament All-Tournament Teams this season. The honor was Ethridge's first All-Tournament Team nod of the year.
- Larson totaled 28 kills on .348 hitting to increase her team-leading hitting percentage to .377. Ethridge had a team-best 51 digs (4.64 per set) along with 11 assists to lead Mizzou's back row defense.

KAN HONORED BY SEC OFFICE YET AGAIN

- For the second straight week, junior Carly Kan was honored by the Southeastern Conference office. For the week of Sept. 14-20, the Honolulu native was named the SEC Volleyball Co-Offensive Player of the Week. Kan was named the Butler Invitational MVP after recording 55 kills on .307 hitting and two double-doubles. In her last two matches, she recorded 44 kills on .435 hitting to close out another impressive tournament. Kan upped her season double-double total and 20-plus kill outputs to seven each.
- ▶ The award was Kan's second honor from the SEC office this season. She was previously named SEC Player of the Week on Monday, Sept. 14, after tallying 72 kills on .299 hitting at the 2015 Appalachian State Invitational.
- ▶ Kan has been honored by the SEC office three times in her career. Her first came in 2013 when she was named SEC Freshman of the Week on Oct. 14, 2013.

MIZZOU IN THE SEC & NCAA STATISTICS RANKINGS

Mizzou is off to an outstanding start this season, as they possess a 13-1 (1-0 SEC) record, four tournament championships and an upset victory over No. 9 Florida. TIGERS NET THIRD STRAIGHT TOURNAMENT TITLE

- Mizzou improved to 9-0 on the season following its three victories and championship at the 2015 Appalachian State Invitational. It marked the team's third consecutive tournament title to open the season.
- Junior Carly Kan (MVP), redshirt sophomore Kira Larson, and freshman Alyssa Munlyn were all named to the Appalachian State Invitational All-Tournament Team for their outstanding performances. Kan earned her third straight tournament MVP honors this season after tallying 72 kills on .299 hitting in three matches. The Honolulu, Hawaii, native finished with 20-plus kills in each of Mizzou's matches in Boone, North Carolina. She has six 20-plus kill outputs in the Tigers' nine matches so far this season.
- Larson joins Kan as being a three-time All-Tournament honoree this season. The Fargo, North Dakota, native produced 35 kills on .444 hitting and eight total blocks at the invite. Munlyn is now a two-time All-Tournament recipient, as she had 22 kills on .452 hitting and a team-leading 18 total blocks at the Appalachian State Invitational.
- Mizzou saw contributions up-and-down the lineup last weekend, as senior Regan Peltier (28 kills & 35 digs), junior Emily Thater (20 kills on .395 hitting, eight total blocks) and junior Julia Towler (17 kills and 13 total blocks) also turned in strong performances.

KAN NAMED SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Junior Carly Kan was on a mission in Boone, North Carolina, at the 2015 Appalachian State Invitational, as she recorded three consecutive 20-plus kill matches. Overall that weekend, she tallied 72 kills on .299 hitting and twice had a career-high 26 kills in single matches.
- For her outstanding weekend, Kan was named the SEC Volleyball Week Three Player of the Week. (Sept. 7-13, 2015). It marked the second career SEC weekly honor for Kan, as she was also named Freshman of the Week
- Currently, the Honolulu, Hawaii, native ranks first in the SEC in kills (252), kills per set (4.58), and points per set (5.13). Those numbers also rank highly nationally, as she currently stands at T-19th, 11th, and th place, respectively.

KAN REACHES 1,000 CAREER POINTS

- In her 75th career match, junior outside hitter Carly Kan surpassed 1,000 points for her Mizzou Volleyball career. To cap her MVP performance at the USF Invite (Sept. 4-5), Kan tallied 22 kills on .340 hitting and led the Tigers to their second tournament title of the season.
- Kan's quick rise to 1,000 career points ranks her at the top of Mizzou Volleyball history. Former 3x All-American outside hitter Lisa Henning was previously the fastest to reach that mark, as both Kan and Henning tallied the historic number at 75 career matches.
- After her breakout 2013 freshman season where she earned SEC Freshman of the Year honors. Kan has continued to get better and better each season. The Honolulu, Hawaii, native had 383 kills in 2013, 418 kills in 2014, and has already amassed 168 kills through the team's first nine matches.
- The talented Tiger also tallied 1,000 career kills this season and is on the verge of posting 1,000 career digs. Kan would become just one-of-five Tigers to ever record 1,000 career kills / digs / points. Currently on the list is Shen Danru (2002-05), Jessica Vander Kooi (2003-06), Yvette Buhlig (1988-92) and Naaron Branson (1998-01).

MIZZOU WINS SECOND STRAIGHT TOURNAMENT

- Mizzou improved to 6-0 on the young season following its second consecutive tournament victory in many weeks. The Tigers defeated Florida Gulf Coast (3-0), Arkansas State (3-2), and South Florida (3-1) in the two day
- The Tigers continued their impressive combination of effective hitting and defense throughout their trip in Tampa, Florida. After hitting over .300 as a team in two of three matches, the Tigers' .328 hitting percentage for the season ranks second in the SEC. Defensively, Mizzou had double-digit blocks in each match at the USF Invite, adding onto their outstanding block totals for the season. In fact, the Tigers' 2.78 blocks per set through six matches ranks second best in the conference.
- Leading the blocking brigade in Tampa was junior middle blocker Emily Thater. The Springfield, Missouri, native had 12 total blocks in the tournament, including three in the solo fashion. Thater's greatest effort at the net came against Arkansas State, when she finished with six total blocks (two solo).
- In the tournament finale against South Florida, coach Kreklow was welcomed with an outstanding performance off the bench by freshman middle blocker Hao Jin. Heading into that match, Jin had not recorded a kill all season long, but she exploded against the Bulls with nine kills on .600 hitting and six total blocks.

TIGERS IMPRESSIVE AT TIGER INVITATIONAL

- Mizzou Volleyball opened the season (Aug. 28-29) in the friendly confines of the Hearnes Center, recording three consecutive wins en route to a tournament title at the 20th annual Tiger Invitational.
- ▶ In each match of the tournament, the Tigers improved upon their previous team hitting percentage number. Mizzou began with 58 kills on .309 hitting against North Dakota State, followed by 42 kills on .343 hitting against Winthrop, and culminated with an outstanding 43 kills on .411 hitting versus North Texas.
- ▶ The Tigers used a balanced attack throughout the weekend, led by junior outside hitter Carly Kan (50 kills on .430 hitting). Also leading the offense was senior outside hitter Regan Peltier (26 kills, three aces, 12 digs), redshirt sophomore right side/middle blocker Kira Larson (24 kills on .392 hitting), freshman middle blocker Alyssa Munlyn (23 kills on .364 hitting, 16 total blocks), and junior right side/middle blocker Julia Towler (13 kills on .312 hitting, 10 total blocks).
- The Tigers' 6-2 offensive rotation saw consistent performances from sophomore setting duos of Ali Kreklow and Courtney Eckenrode. Both Tigers finished with over 5.00 assists per set, as Kreklow tallied 57 assists and Eckenrode finished with 60 assists in the three matches.

KAN CONTINUES THE DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

- Junior outside hitter Carly Kan had a historical freshman campaign in 2013, where she was named SEC Freshman of the Year and an AVCA All-American. Kan didn't disappoint in her sophomore encore, as she once again earned AVCA All-American honors.
- Along with leading the nation in combined kills and digs a season ago, Kan put up historical double-double numbers on the court. Overall, the Honolulu, Hawaii, native tallied 19 double-doubles in 2014, matching the school record for most double-doubles in a season during the 25-point set era (since 2008). She is now tied at the top with former Tiger All-American setter, Molly Kreklow.
- In 2015, Kan has already racked up eight more double-doubles, totaling 35 for her standout Tiger career.

KAN NAMED TO 2015 PRESEASON ALL-SEC TEAM

- ▶ Junior outside hitter Carly Kan was named to the 2015 Preseason Volleyball All-SEC Team in mid-August by the Southeastern Conference office. She was the lone outside hitter on this year's list.
- Kan was one of nine student-athletes to be named to this season's Preseason All-SEC Team, and it marked the second consecutive preseason recognition for the Honolulu, Hawaii, native.
- ▶ The talented Tiger proved to be one of the nation's top outside hitters in 2014, leading the SEC with 19 double-doubles. That number matched the Mizzou Volleyball program record for double-doubles in a season during the 25-point set era.
- Overall, Kan tallied 418 kills, 394 digs, and 457.5 points in her sophomore campaign for Mizzou. She also led the nation in combined kills and digs in 2014.
- Joining Kan on the 2015 Preseason All-SEC Team were Krystal Rivers (OPP Alabama), Chanell Clark-Biggs (MB Arkansas), Rhamat Alhassan (MB Florida), Mackenzie Dagostino (S Florida), Alex Holston (RS Florida), Morgan Bergren (S Kentucky), Nakeyta Clair (MB Ole Miss) and Shelby Sullivan (MB Texas A&M).

MIZZOU MAKING IMPACT WITH TEAM USA

- A pair of Tigers, former All-American setter Molly Kreklow and current star outside hitter Carly Kan, have enjoyed tremendous success recently with Team USA Volleyball.
- Kreklow played a huge role into the U.S. National Team's FIVB World Grand Prix Championship in July. Team USA finished the World Grand Prix a perfect 5-0, and the former Tiger was named the Grand Prix's Most Outstanding Setter.
- Kreklow started at setter for Team USA in all five matches of the FIVB World Grand Prix, as the team dropped just one set during the entire tournament.
- ▶ More great news for Kreklow came a month later when she was one of 14 players to make the final U.S. roster for the 2015 FIVB World Cup. Beginning in late August, the U.S. National Team will look to finish either first or second at the FIVB World Cup and guarantee qualification into the 2016 Rio Olympic Games.
- Also shining for Team USA this summer was Kan, who was selected to a USA Volleyball roster for the second conseuctive year. In July, Kan made her way to South Korea with Team USA at the World University Games.
- Kan was one of 12 players selected to the team that was part of USA Volleyball's High Performance program's Collegiate National Team.
- The Honolulu native had arguably her best match with Team USA on July 1 when she produced seven points on six kills (.545 hitting percentage).

MIZZOU SET FOR SEVEN NATIONAL TV MATCHES

- The Tigers will be featured in seven nationally-televised broadcasts in 2015, as announced in late June by the Southeastern Conference. Five Mizzou contests are set for SEC Network coverage, while two matches will air on ESPNU.
- Mizzou will be a part of four "Wednesday Night Volleyball" matches this season, beginning with the team's SEC and home opener on Sept. 30 against Florida. The Tigers' first televised road contest is set for Oct. 11 at Alabama on SEC Network.
- Beginning on Oct. 28 vs. Alabama, the Tigers have four consecutive matches set for national television coverage. Following its matchup against the Crimson Tide, Mizzou's contest versus Auburn at the Hearnes Center on Nov. 1 will also be broadcasted on SEC Network.
- The string of four consecutive televised games continues on Nov. 4 with another "Wednesday Night Volleyball" match at Texas A&M on ESPNU. SEC Network coverage returns on Nov. 8 as Mizzou travels to LSU.
- Mizzou's last nationally-televised match in 2015 is its fourth and final "Wednesday Night Volleyball" contest, as it heads to Arkansas on Nov. 18. The Tigers and Razorbacks will be viewable on ESPNU.
- Tigers fans will also have the opportunity to view numerous matches through SEC Network + via WatchESPN. The season opening tournament matches will all be viewable on SEC Network +, in addition to three future conference matchups.

FANS CONTINUE TO FILL THE HEARNES CENTER

- Matchdays at the Hearnes Center have an excitement that is unmatched. Since 2000 and the arrival of Wayne and Susan Kreklow, the Tigers faithful have continued to come through the turnstiles in incredible fashion.
- For the past 13 seasons, Mizzou has finished in the top-25 national attendance rankings. In fact, the Tigers have 11 top-20 national attendance numbers, and three top-10 totals since 2002.
- The program's most highly attended season came in 2013, as the team went 34-0 and claimed Mizzou Athletics' first ever SEC Championship. On Nov. 22, 2013 the SEC Championship clinching match the Tigers took home the crown in front of a school-record 7,879 fans (the first of two 7,000 + crowds that season).
- ▶ Below is a snapshot of Mizzou Volleyball's top attendance seasons since 2000:
 - 2013 (62,717 fans 3,301 average 3rd best in the nation)
 - 2012 (26,767 fans 1,784 average 20th best in the nation)
 - 2011 (25,279 fans 2,298 average 13th best in the nation)
 - 2010 (26,632 fans 2,049 average 16th best in the nation)
 - 2009 (27,302 fans 1,820 average 20th best in the nation)
 - 2008 (17,875 fans 1,625 average 16th best in the nation)
 - 2007 (27,337 fans 2,103 average 11th best in the nation)
 - 2006 (28,216 fans 2,565 average 7th best in the nation)
 - 2005 (40,052 fans 2,670 average 6th best in the nation)

TIGERS HONORED FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Mizzou Volleyball has routinely excelled in the classroom, and the program was honored for its outstanding achievements for the 2014-15 academic year.
- Beginning in late May following the Spring 2015 semester at the University of Missouri, the Tigers finished with a 3.55 cumulative GPA and it was the team's highest GPA in more than a decade. In fact, according to Mizzou's Total Person Program (TPP), the 3.55 Spring 2015 semester GPA was the highest as a program since 2004.
- Individually, the Tigers swept up a slew of impressive academic awards in 2014-15. They included the following:
 - Alexa Armendariz (2014-15 First-Year SEC Academic Honor Roll)
 - Sydney Deeken (2014-15 First-Year SEC Academic Honor Roll)
 - Lydia Ely (Mizzou '39 recipient, Chancellor's Excellence Award)
 - Carly Kan (2014 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year, 2014 CoSIDA Academic All-District Team, 2014 Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll)
 - Ali Kreklow (2014-15 First-Year SEC Academic Honor Roll)
 - Regan Peltier (2014 Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll)
 - Kasey Reuter (2014-15 First-Year SEC Academic Honor Roll)
 - Emily Thater (2014 Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll)
 - Julia Towler (2014 Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll)
- Last but not least, in late July the Tigers received the 2014-15 AVCA Team Academic Award.
- ▶ The AVCA Team Academic Award honors collegiate and high school volleyball teams that displayed excellence in the classroom during the school year by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative team grade-point average on a 4.0 scale or a 4.10 cumulative team GPA on a 5.0 scale.

Mizzou volleyball's rise to national prominence since 2000 can be easily tied to its leadership at the helm of the program as Wayne and Susan Kreklow have built a national power. Heading into the 2013 season, the résumé was impressive enough: 10 NCAA Tournaments, one Elite Eight, two Sweet 16s, 12 winning seasons and an average of 20 wins per season.

But the Kreklows and the 2013 team rewrote the record books with the most successful season in program history. Not only did the Tigers become the first ever team at Mizzou to win a Southeastern Conference Championship and the program's first conference championship, but the team finished the regular season unblemished at 34-0. The team earned the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and saw four players earn AVCA All-America honors, including a pair of first team honorees in senior setter Molly Kreklow and senior right side Lisa Henning. Wayne Kreklow was named SEC Coach of the Year for engineering the whole thing. Below is just a snapshot of the achievements by the 2013 team.

- SEC Champions School's first ever SEC title and program's first ever league championship
- First ever SEC team to finish a regular season unbeaten
- Reset school records in wins, conference wins, consecutive wins, sweeps and team hitting percentage
- Led the nation in hitting, kills, assists, wins and points per set while averaging the fewest errors per set
- Saw four players Molly Kreklow, Lisa Henning, Carly Kan, Whitney Little land on the All-SEC team
- Molly Kreklow was named SEC Player of the Year, Carly Kan was SEC Freshman of the Year and Wayne Kreklow was SEC coach of the Year
- Four Tigers were AVCA All-Americans Molly Kreklow and Lisa Henning (First Team) and Carly Kan and Whitney Little (honorable mention)
- Wayne Kreklow was the SEC Coach of the Year and the AVCA Southeast Region Coach of the Year
- Carly Kan earned AVCA Southeast Region Freshman of the Year

Aside from all of the accomplishments for the 2013 team, Wayne and Susan Kreklow had built a power at Mizzou since arriving in 2000. In fact, now that the Tigers have reached the NCAA Tournament in 11 of the last 15 seasons, Mizzou is one of only 22 teams nationally to qualify for at least 10 NCAA Tournaments in the last 15 seasons. In the Kreklow's first eight seasons at the helm of the program, Mizzou qualified for the NCAA Tournament in each year, joining Nebraska as the only two programs to accomplish that feat during the span.

In their inaugural season as an SEC member, the Kreklows guided Mizzou to a 19-win season while finishing fourth in the SEC East division. They also guided three players - Molly Kreklow, Lisa Henning and Whitney Little - to All-SEC honors. Henning was a unanimous All-SEC First Team pick while Kreklow and Little were second-team honorees. Henning also went on to garner AVCA All-America Third Team honors, becoming the second Tiger to earn AVCA All-America honors in two consecutive seasons.

The 2011 season may have showcased the Kreklow's coaching prowess unlike ever before. With just two seniors on the 2011 squad, the Kreklows took a group comprised primarily of freshmen and sophomores to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in 12 seasons. In fact, the Tigers were the youngest team to qualify for the field of 64 as 11 of its 13 players were underclassmen. The Kreklows also guided Henning to AVCA Third Team All-America honors, becoming the first Tiger underclassman to earn AVCA All-America honors.

In 2010, the Kreklows took the Tigers back to the NCAA Sweet 16, marking the program's second-deepest run into the NCAA Tournament in history. The Tigers also pulled the biggest first-round upset in NCAA Tournament history in 2010, knocking off fifth-seeded Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls in a thrilling five-set match. The Tigers boasted four wins over ranked teams in 2010, including two in the NCAA Tournament, and took home 14 Big 12 Athlete of the Week honors, the most by any team in the league in 2010. The Tigers also ranked 16th nationally in average attendance last season.

Under the Kreklow's guidance in 2010, senior outside hitter Paola Ampudia was named honorable mention All-American by the AVCA was a member of the first team All-Central Region and All-Big 12 teams. She was a unanimous selection to the All-Big 12 team. The Kreklows also saw freshman setter Molly Kreklow garner AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year honors and honorable mention All-Big 12 status as well. She and classmate Lisa Henning also appeared on the All-Big 12 Freshman team.

Under the direction of the Kreklow's, academics and community involvement continue to be a cornerstone of the program. In 2009, six Tigers earned a spot on the Academic All-Big 12 team while senior setter Lei Wang-Francisco became the program's first-ever four-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree.

While the Kreklow's success at Missouri was immediate, the apex of their successes came at the end of the 2005 season. The Tigers were selected to host NCAA First and Second rounds for the second-consecutive year, achieving an overall No. 10 seed in the tournament. After defeating Missouri State in the first round, Mizzou swept Arkansas to advance to the team's first regional in school history. At the Penn State Regional, the Tigers took perennial power Hawaii head-on in the regional semifinal, defeating UH in four games. The Tigers accumulated a 25-5 record in 2005, the winningest season in school history, and were a step away from the Final Four.

Also in 2005, Wayne Kreklow was named College Volleyball Update's honorable mention National Coach of the Year as the team surged to the national top-10 for the first time in school history, sweeping three top-10 teams along the way. In all, the Kreklows have amassed a 200-108 (.649) winning record in their Mizzou tenure with 117 wins coming in Big 12 play, averaging 12 conference wins per season. The Tigers have won 21 matches over Top-25 teams since 2000, toppling five during the magical 2005 season. Mizzou itself has spent 76 weeks in the national top 25 since 2000.

Upon arrival, the Kreklows wasted no time in putting their winning mark on a program that had not experienced success since the early 1980's. In their first three years at Mizzou (2000, 2001 and 2002) they recorded the program's first back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1981-83. In fact, the Tigers won 70 matches in the first three years under the Kreklows, more than the previous seven years combined. Missouri posted the first postseason victory in school history by defeating Northwestern in the first round of the 2002 NCAA Tournament. In 2004, Missouri had the honor of hosting first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

In 2000, the Kreklows' first season at MU, the Tigers finished second in the Big 12 Conference after finishing ninth the previous year. For her efforts, Susan was named as the 2000 Big 12 Coach of the Year by her peers. The Kreklows have made Mizzou Volleyball an exciting marketable entity, and the growth in attendance has been effected, as Missouri has ranked in the nation's top seven in the category in 2005 and 2006, averaging more than 2,600 fans per competition. On Oct. 5, 2005, 7,298 fans packed the Hearnes Center for the Tigers' match against Nebraska. Both teams entered the contest undefeated and ranked in the national top-10.

Before the 2005 season, Wayne and Susan officially switched titles within the University system to allow for more family flexibility. While the official coaching records of both are affected, their coaching philosophy is one built on a co-op instead of a one-headed system.

Before coming to Missouri, the Kreklows were co-head coaches of both the men's and women's volleyball teams at Columbia College. They enjoyed great success, taking their women's team to the NAIA National Tournament six times and winning consecutive national titles in 1998 and 1999.

The Cougars also won five regional championships and seven consecutive American Midwest Conference championships under their guidance. In 1998 and 1999, Columbia College achieved consecutive undefeated seasons with a combined record of 85-0. The Cougars' undefeated record included 78 consecutive wins at home and 227 consecutive game victories.

WAYNE & SUSAN KREKLOW AT MIZZOU

In 1997 and 1998, the Kreklows shared NAIA/AVCA National Coach of the Year and Midwest Region Coach of the Year honors. In 1999, the coaching tandem took home the regional award for the fifth consecutive year. In 1998 and 1999, the Kreklows also received the NAIA National Tournament Coach of the Year award.

Along with the success of the women's program, the Kreklows started the men's volleyball program at Columbia College in 1997. In 1999, the Cougars finished the season with a 19-5 overall record, enjoying their second consecutive undefeated run through the Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association. They also took second place at the inaugural SSI Volleyball National Invitational Tournament in 1999.

Susan Kreklow played volleyball for Central Missouri State University and Missouri State. She received her bachelor's degree in physical education and a Master's of Science degree from Missouri State in 1984 and 1987, respectively. Kreklow began her coaching career at St. Clair (Mo.) High School. She began her collegiate coaching career at Columbia College in 1990. Susan was the founder of Columbia Juniors Volleyball Club and the Columbia Developmental Volleyball Leagues. She has served as a member of the USA Volleyball Board of Directors as the NAIA representative and was president-elect of the NAIA National Coaches Association.

Wayne Kreklow earned a bachelor's degree in social science in 1980 from Drake University. While at Drake, Wayne was a member of the men's basketball team, where he earned All-America, all-conference and all-district awards as a two-time team captain, and is fifth on Drake's career scoring list. He is also a member of Drake's All-Century basketball team and was a member of the NBA World Champion Boston Celtics in 1980-81. Wayne began coaching basketball for Central Decatur (lowa) High School in 1986. He began coaching volleyball as an assistant under Craig Sherman at Missouri. He was with the Tigers from 1989 to 1994 before moving over to Columbia College to join his wife at the helm of the Cougar program.
