#MIZZOU STORYLINES

- ▶ Entering this weekend, Mizzou's .857 (24-4) overall winning percentage is first in the SEC and 15th in the NCAA.
- ▶ The Tigers have been carried by efficient hitting and strong defense at the net all season long. Currently, their .270 team hitting percentage ranks third in the SEC and 18th in the NCAA, while their 294 total blocks ranks first in the SEC and 10th in the NCAA.
- ▶ Mizzou currently stands with 24 wins this season, marking the 17th 20-plus win campaign in the program's 42-year history. Its .857 overall winning percentage currently ranks second-highest in program history, trailing only the .972 winning percentage accomplished by the 2013 Mizzou Tigers.
- ▶ Under Wayne Kreklow and Susan Kreklow's tenure, Mizzou Volleyball has posted nine 20-plus win campaigns in their 16 seasons. In the 25 years prior to the Kreklows' arrival in mid-Missouri, Mizzou Volleyball tallied just eight 20-plus win campaigns.
- ▶ With one more victory, the Tigers will reach 25 for the season. It would mark the ninth 25-plus win season in program history and the fourth 25-plus win season under the Kreklows' tenure. Before the Kreklows took over in 2000, the Tigers' last 25-plus win season took place in 1983.
- ▶ Junior Carly Kan is having another All-American caliber season for the Tigers. Entering Sunday, Kan's 432 kills, 3.96 kills per set and 493.5 total points all ranks second-best in the SEC. Additionally, her 15 double-doubles in 2015 are second-most in the conference while her eight in conference only play also rank second-best in the SEC.
- ▶ Freshman Alyssa Munlyn is just one of two freshman in the SEC (joining Tennessee's Erica Treiber) to rank in both the top-10 in hitting percentage (sixth / .367) and blocks per set (sixth / 1.11). The Suwanee, Ga., native has been particularly impressive in SEC-only competition, tallying 123 kills on .429 hitting (third-highest in conference) with 1.15 blocks per set (ninth-highest in conference). Munlyn earned her second SEC Freshman of the Week honor on Monday after posting 17 kills on .516 hitting and seven total blocks.

TIGERS IN HUNT FOR SEC CHAMPIONSHIP

- Mizzou picked up a huge road victory on Sunday, Nov. 15, at Kentucky as they tallied a thrilling 3-2 (25-27, 25-19, 23-25, 25-19, 16-14) triumph inside Memorial Coliseum. The Tigers came down from a 2-1 set deficit, including three separate six-point deficits in set five.
- The win moved Mizzou into a tie for second place in the SEC standings as both the Tigers and Wildcats sat with three conference losses. However, three days later on Wednesday, Nov. 18, Mizzou earned a 3-0 sweep at Arkansas while Kentucky fell 3-0 at Texas A&M, moving the Tigers into sole possession of second place (12-3 SEC).
- With only three conference matches remaining, Mizzou is just one game back in the standings to first-place Texas A&M. The Aggies have remaining matches with Florida and the Tigers on its schedule, setting up a potential deciding SEC Championship match at the Hearn Center on Wednesday, Nov. 25.
- Dependent on Mizzou and Texas A&M's matches the weekend of Nov. 20-22, the Tigers' and Aggies' matchup on Nov. 25 could declare the co-champions in the SEC or outright champions in the conference.

MIZZOU POSTS ROAD SWEEP AT ARKANSAS

- The Tigers kicked off its final road trip of the regular season on Wednesday, Nov. 18, at Arkansas. Mizzou made quick work of the Razorbacks with a 3-0 (25-23, 25-18, 25-19) sweep inside Barnhill Arena. It marked the Tigers' third true road sweep of the season, joining their 3-0 triumphs at Georgia (Oct. 18) and at LSU (Nov. 8).
- Mizzou's three true road sweeps in 2015 stands out as the Tigers failed to record a single true road sweep a season ago. The 2013 Mizzou Volleyball squad earned a whopping eight true road sweeps en route to its SEC Championship. Since 2012, the Tigers have recorded 13 true road sweeps.
- The Tigers have 14 wins away from home (eight away, six neutral) on their season resume. Mizzou's 14 away victories is the most since 2013 when that year's squad tallied 16 away wins. The 14 away triumphs also marks the second most wins outside of the Hearn Center since 2000.

KAN REACHES 1,000 CAREER KILLS, DIGS & POINTS

- In her 75th career match, junior outside hitter Carly Kan surpassed 1,000 points for her Mizzou Volleyball career. To cap her MVP performance at the USF Invite (Sept. 4-5), Kan tallied 22 kills on .340 hitting and led the Tigers to their second tournament title of the season.
- Kan's quick rise to 1,000 career points ranks her at the top of Mizzou Volleyball history. Former 3x All-American outside hitter Lisa Henning was previously the fastest to reach that mark, as both Kan and Henning tallied the historic number at 75 career matches.
- The talented Tiger also tallied her 1,000th career kill and 1,000th career dig. Kan becomes just one-of-five Tigers to ever record 1,000 career kills, digs and points. Currently on the list is Shen Danru (2002-05), Jessica Vander Kooi (2003-06), Yvette Buhlig (1988-92) and Naaron Branson (1998-01).

TIGERS TALLY STUNNING COMEBACK AT KENTUCKY

- Mizzou produced one of its most exciting wins of the season on Sunday, Nov. 15, after defeating No. 18 Kentucky 3-2 (25-27, 25-19, 23-25, 25-19, 16-14) in Lexington, Ky.
- Mizzou trailed by six points on three separate occasions in the fifth set (8-2, 12-6, 13-7) before tallying a thrilling 6-0 run to even the score. The Tigers' 14th block of the match wrapped up the afternoon and improved their record to 23-4 (11-3 SEC) at that point of the season.
- Four Tigers recorded double-digit kills against the Wildcats, highlighted by junior Carly Kan's team-leading 16 kills. The Mizzou outside hitter also tacked on 18 digs, marking her team-leading 15th double-double of the season.
- Senior Regan Peltier had one of her top matches this season, producing 14 kills on .357 hitting and 10 digs. It marked her third double-double of the 2015 campaign.
- Sophomore Courtney Eckenrode also recorded her third double-double of the season after recording 35 assists (matching season-high) and 13 digs.

MUNLYN NAMED SEC'S TOP FRESHMAN AGAIN

- ▶ Munlyn tallied 17 kills on .516 hitting with seven total blocks against the Bulldogs and Wildcats. Last Friday vs. Georgia, she finished with nine kills on a career-high .727 hitting percentage. Two days later on the road at Kentucky, the Suwanee, Ga., native posted eight kills on .400 hitting and five total blocks.
- ▶ Following another strong week, Munlyn entered the week of Nov. 16-22 only two total blocks away from cracking the top-10 in Mizzou Volleyball single-season blocks.

ETHRIDGE EARNS FIRST CAREER SEC HONOR

- ▶ First-year Tiger, Alexa Ethridge, has been a consistent force at libero all season long for Mizzou. For the week of Nov. 9-15, the Lee's Summit, Mo., native had banner matches as she posted 36 digs (4.50 per set), eight assists and three service aces in matches vs. Georgia and at No. 18 Kentucky.
- ▶ For the week, Ethridge posted 4.50 digs per set, 1.00 assists per set and 0.38 service aces per set, all of which placing above her season averages in those categories.
- ▶ Ethridge's 17 digs vs. Georgia and 19 digs at No. 18 Kentucky led Mizzou in the category in each match. She has placed the Tigers in digs in 22 of 27 matches up to that point of the season.

MISSOURI MOVES TO 10-0 AT HOME THIS SEASON

- ▶ Five days after sweeping LSU in Baton Rouge, La., Mizzou returned to the Hearn Center on Friday, Nov. 13, for a matchup against Georgia. The Tigers tallied its second consecutive sweep in SEC play after taking care of business over the Bulldogs.
- ▶ The win improved Mizzou's 2015 home record to 10-0. The Tigers have outscored their opponents this season at the Hearn Center by the tune of 30-11.
- ▶ Since 2009, Mizzou Volleyball has recorded double-digit wins at home six times (2015, 2013, 2012, 2011, 2010, 2009). This year's Tiger squad is seeking the program's best home winning percentage since 2013 when that year's squad went 19-1 (.950).

Mizzou volleyball's rise to national prominence since 2000 can be easily tied to its leadership at the helm of the program as Wayne and Susan Kreklow have built a national power. Heading into the 2013 season, the résumé was impressive enough: 10 NCAA Tournaments, one Elite Eight, two Sweet 16s, 12 winning seasons and an average of 20 wins per season.

But the Kreklows and the 2013 team rewrote the record books with the most successful season in program history. Not only did the Tigers become the first ever team at Mizzou to win a Southeastern Conference Championship and the program's first conference championship, but the team finished the regular season unblemished at 34-0. The team earned the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and saw four players earn AVCA All-America honors, including a pair of first team honorees in senior setter Molly Kreklow and senior right side Lisa Henning. Wayne Kreklow was named SEC Coach of the Year for engineering the whole thing. Below is just a snapshot of the achievements by the 2013 team.

- ♦ SEC Champions - School's first ever SEC title and program's first ever league championship
- ♦ First ever SEC team to finish a regular season unbeaten
- ♦ Reset school records in wins, conference wins, consecutive wins, sweeps and team hitting percentage
- ♦ Led the nation in hitting, kills, assists, wins and points per set while averaging the fewest errors per set
- ♦ Saw four players - Molly Kreklow, Lisa Henning, Carly Kan, Whitney Little - land on the All-SEC team
- ♦ Molly Kreklow was named SEC Player of the Year, Carly Kan was SEC Freshman of the Year and Wayne Kreklow was SEC coach of the Year
- ♦ Four Tigers were AVCA All-Americans - Molly Kreklow and Lisa Henning (First Team) and Carly Kan and Whitney Little (honorable mention)
- ♦ Wayne Kreklow was the SEC Coach of the Year and the AVCA Southeast Region Coach of the Year
- ♦ Carly Kan earned AVCA Southeast Region Freshman of the Year

Aside from all of the accomplishments for the 2013 team, Wayne and Susan Kreklow had built a power at Mizzou since arriving in 2000. In fact, now that the Tigers have reached the NCAA Tournament in 11 of the last 15 seasons, Mizzou is one of only 22 teams nationally to qualify for at least 10 NCAA Tournaments in the last 15 seasons. In the Kreklow's first eight seasons at the helm of the program, Mizzou qualified for the NCAA Tournament in each year, joining Nebraska as the only two programs to accomplish that feat during the span.

In their inaugural season as an SEC member, the Kreklows guided Mizzou to a 19-win season while finishing fourth in the SEC East division. They also guided three players - Molly Kreklow, Lisa Henning and Whitney Little - to All-SEC honors. Henning was a unanimous All-SEC First Team pick while Kreklow and Little were second-team honorees. Henning also went on to garner AVCA All-America Third Team honors, becoming the second Tiger to earn AVCA All-America honors in two consecutive seasons.

The 2011 season may have showcased the Kreklow's coaching prowess unlike ever before. With just two seniors on the 2011 squad, the Kreklows took a group comprised primarily of freshmen and sophomores to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in 12 seasons. In fact, the Tigers were the youngest team to qualify for the field of 64 as 11 of its 13 players were underclassmen. The Kreklows also guided Henning to AVCA Third Team All-America honors, becoming the first Tiger underclassman to earn AVCA All-America honors.

In 2010, the Kreklows took the Tigers back to the NCAA Sweet 16, marking the program's second-deepest run into the NCAA Tournament in history. The Tigers also pulled the biggest first-round upset in NCAA Tournament history in 2010, knocking off fifth-seeded Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls in a thrilling five-set match. The Tigers boasted four wins over ranked teams in 2010, including two in the NCAA Tournament, and took home 14 Big 12 Athlete of the Week honors, the most by any team in the league in 2010. The Tigers also ranked 16th nationally in average attendance last season.

Under the Kreklow's guidance in 2010, senior outside hitter Paola Ampudia was named honorable mention All-American by the AVCA was a member of the first team All-Central Region and All-Big 12 teams. She was a unanimous selection to the All-Big 12 team. The Kreklows also saw freshman setter Molly Kreklow garner AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year honors and honorable mention All-Big 12 status as well. She and classmate Lisa Henning also appeared on the All-Big 12 Freshman team.

Under the direction of the Kreklow's, academics and community involvement continue to be a cornerstone of the program. In 2009, six Tigers earned a spot on the Academic All-Big 12 team while senior setter Lei Wang-Francisco became the program's first-ever four-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree.

While the Kreklow's success at Missouri was immediate, the apex of their successes came at the end of the 2005 season. The Tigers were selected to host NCAA First and Second rounds for the second-consecutive year, achieving an overall No. 10 seed in the tournament. After defeating Missouri State in the first round, Mizzou swept Arkansas to advance to the team's first regional in school history. At the Penn State Regional, the Tigers took perennial power Hawaii head-on in the regional semifinal, defeating UH in four games. The Tigers accumulated a 25-5 record in 2005, the winningest season in school history, and were a step away from the Final Four.

Also in 2005, Wayne Kreklow was named College Volleyball Update's honorable mention National Coach of the Year as the team surged to the national top-10 for the first time in school history, sweeping three top-10 teams along the way. In all, the Kreklows have amassed a 200-108 (.649) winning record in their Mizzou tenure with 117 wins coming in Big 12 play, averaging 12 conference wins per season. The Tigers have won 21 matches over Top-25 teams since 2000, toppling five during the magical 2005 season. Mizzou itself has spent 76 weeks in the national top 25 since 2000.

Upon arrival, the Kreklows wasted no time in putting their winning mark on a program that had not experienced success since the early 1980's. In their first three years at Mizzou (2000, 2001 and 2002) they recorded the program's first back-to-back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1981-83. In fact, the Tigers won 70 matches in the first three years under the Kreklows, more than the previous seven years combined. Missouri posted the first postseason victory in school history by defeating Northwestern in the first round of the 2002 NCAA Tournament. In 2004, Missouri had the honor of hosting first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

In 2000, the Kreklows' first season at MU, the Tigers finished second in the Big 12 Conference after finishing ninth the previous year. For her efforts, Susan was named as the 2000 Big 12 Coach of the Year by her peers. The Kreklows have made Mizzou Volleyball an exciting marketable entity, and the growth in attendance has been effected, as Missouri has ranked in the nation's top seven in the category in 2005 and 2006, averaging more than 2,600 fans per competition. On Oct. 5, 2005, 7,298 fans packed the Hearn Center for the Tigers' match against Nebraska. Both teams entered the contest undefeated and ranked in the national top-10.

Before the 2005 season, Wayne and Susan officially switched titles within the University system to allow for more family flexibility. While the official coaching records of both are affected, their coaching philosophy is one built on a co-op instead of a one-headed system.

Before coming to Missouri, the Kreklows were co-head coaches of both the men's and women's volleyball teams at Columbia College. They enjoyed great success, taking their women's team to the NAIA National Tournament six times and winning consecutive national titles in 1998 and 1999.

The Cougars also won five regional championships and seven consecutive American Midwest Conference championships under their guidance. In 1998 and 1999, Columbia College achieved consecutive undefeated seasons with a combined record of 85-0. The Cougars' undefeated record included 78 consecutive wins at home and 227 consecutive game victories.

WAYNE & SUSAN KREKLOW AT MIZZOU

In 1997 and 1998, the Kreklows shared NAIA/AVCA National Coach of the Year and Midwest Region Coach of the Year honors. In 1999, the coaching tandem took home the regional award for the fifth consecutive year. In 1998 and 1999, the Kreklows also received the NAIA National Tournament Coach of the Year award.

Along with the success of the women's program, the Kreklows started the men's volleyball program at Columbia College in 1997. In 1999, the Cougars finished the season with a 19-5 overall record, enjoying their second consecutive undefeated run through the Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association. They also took second place at the inaugural SSI Volleyball National Invitational Tournament in 1999.

Susan Kreklow played volleyball for Central Missouri State University and Missouri State. She received her bachelor's degree in physical education and a Master's of Science degree from Missouri State in 1984 and 1987, respectively. Kreklow began her coaching career at St. Clair (Mo.) High School. She began her collegiate coaching career at Columbia College in 1990. Susan was the founder of Columbia Juniors Volleyball Club and the Columbia Developmental Volleyball Leagues. She has served as a member of the USA Volleyball Board of Directors as the NAIA representative and was president-elect of the NAIA National Coaches Association.

Wayne Kreklow earned a bachelor's degree in social science in 1980 from Drake University. While at Drake, Wayne was a member of the men's basketball team, where he earned All-America, all-conference and all-district awards as a two-time team captain, and is fifth on Drake's career scoring list. He is also a member of Drake's All-Century basketball team and was a member of the NBA World Champion Boston Celtics in 1980-81. Wayne began coaching basketball for Central Decatur (Iowa) High School in 1986. He began coaching volleyball as an assistant under Craig Sherman at Missouri. He was with the Tigers from 1989 to 1994 before moving over to Columbia College to join his wife at the helm of the Cougar program.
