TIGERS NCAA BOUND FOR 12TH TIME SINCE 2000

- ▶ After being picked seventh in the 2015 SEC Preseason polls, Mizzou surprised everyone and turned in an outstanding 26-5 (14-4 SEC) campaign. Mizzou's 14-4 record in SEC contests gave them a second place finish in the standings as it held the head-to-head tiebreaker over Kentucky.
- ▶ On Sunday, Nov. 29, the Tigers gathered and learned their fate for the 2015 NCAA Tournament. After falling just outside the top-16 NCAA RPI rankings, Mizzou knew they would have to travel for its first and second round matchups.
- ▶ On ESPN's live selection show, it was announced that the Tigers would be a part of the San Diego Regional and travel west to Lawrence, Kan., for their first and second round matchups. Mizzou will face Missouri State in the first round on Thursday, Dec. 3, at 4 p.m. (CT). With a Tigers' win against the Bears, they would then face the winner of No. 9 Kansas and Furman on Friday, Dec. 4, at 6:30 p.m. (CT).
- ▶ This year's NCAA Tournament appearance is the 12th in 16 seasons for Mizzou under the direction of coaches Wayne and Susan Kreklow. The last appearance for Mizzou was in 2013 when Kreklow's team earned the No. 4 overall seed in the tournament.
- ▶ In the Kreklovs' first eight seasons at Mizzou (2000-07), the Tigers made the NCAA Tournament in each of those years. Those eight trips included three second-round visits (2002, 2004, 2006) and a visit to the regional final in 2005. After a two-year hiatus, the Tigers returned to the big dance in 2010 and advanced to the regional semifinal.

MUNLYN NAMED SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK (X3)

- ▶ Tiger middle blocker Alyssa Munlyn was named Southeastern Conference Volleyball Freshman of the Week, as announced Monday (Nov. 30) by the SEC office. Munlyn recorded 21 kills on .531 hitting with 13 total blocks against No. 19 Texas A&M and South Carolina during the week of Nov. 23-29.
- ▶ The award marked Munlyn's third consecutive Freshman of the Week honor from the SEC office (Nov. 9-15, Nov. 16-22 and Nov. 23-29). It's also her fourth total SEC Freshman of the Week recognition this season.
- ▶ Her four Freshman of the Week honors in 2015 are the most since former First-Team All-American and U.S. National Team setter Molly Kreklow tallied five Big 12 Newcomer of the Week awards in 2010.
- ▶ Munlyn kicked off the last week of the regular season with an outstanding match against No. 19 Texas A&M on Wednesday, Nov. 25., with 12 kills on .588 hitting and eight total blocks. It marked her ninth match hitting better than .500 this season.
- ▶ Two days later against South Carolina (Nov. 27), Munlyn added nine kills on .467 hitting and five total blocks to close out her impressive two-match stretch. It marked the 19th time this season that Munlyn led the Tigers in single-match total blocks.
- ▶ Munlyn took her game to another level in SEC play this season, recording 147 kills on .431 hitting with 89 total blocks (1.25 per set) in 18 total conference contests. In SEC matches, Munlyn's .431 hitting percentage ranked third-highest in the conference while her 1.25 blocks per set ranked fourth-best.
- ▶ In her first season in black and gold, Munlyn has already etched her name into Mizzou Volleyball history. Munlyn's 142 total blocks ranks first in a single-season in program history, her 119 block assists are tied for the most in a single season and her 1.17 blocks per set ranks eighth-highest in a single-season. Additionally, Munlyn's .374 season hitting percentage is the sixth-highest in a single-season in Tiger history.

KAN, LARSON & MUNLYN EARN 2015 SEC HONORS

- ▶ Junior Carly Kan, redshirt sophomore Kira Larson and freshman Alyssa Munlyn were honored Wednesday (Nov. 25) by the Southeastern Conference for their exceptional 2015 campaigns. Kan, Larson and Munlyn were each named to the 2015 All-SEC Team. Munlyn was also named to the 2015 All-Freshman Team as well as garnering 2015 SEC Freshman of the Year honors.
- ▶ Wednesday's recognition is Kan's third career honor from the SEC. The Mizzou OH previously claimed All-SEC and Freshman of the Year honors in 2013. Larson and Munlyn both picked up their first career postseason honors by the league office.
- ▶ Munlyn's Freshman of the Year honor is the third individual in program history to garner Freshman of the Year accolades. The Suwanee, Ga., native joins Jessica Vander Kooi (2003 Big 12 Freshman of the Year) and Kan (2013 SEC Freshman of the Year) on the exclusive list.
- ▶ In 2015, Kan has been honored two other times by the SEC office while Munlyn has gained three accolades. Kan was named SEC Player of the Week on Sept. 14 and garnered SEC Co-Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 21. Munlyn has picked up three SEC Freshman of the Week honors (Nov. 2, 16, 23).

KAN REACHES 1,000 CAREER KILLS, DIGS & POINTS

- ▶ In her 75th career match, junior outside hitter Carly Kan surpassed 1,000 points for her Mizzou Volleyball career. To cap her MVP performance at the USF Invite (Sept. 4-5), Kan tallied 22 kills on .340 hitting and led the Tigers to their second tournament title of the season.
- ▶ Kan's quick rise to 1,000 career points ranks her at the top of Mizzou Volleyball history. Former 3x All-American outside hitter Lisa Henning was previously the fastest to reach that mark, as both Kan and Henning tallied the historic number at 75 career matches.
- ▶ The talented Tiger also tallied her 1,000th career kill and 1,000th career dig. Kan becomes just one-of-five Tigers to ever record 1,000 career kills, digs and points. Currently on the list is Shen Danru (2002-05), Jessica Vander Kooi (2003-06), Yvette Buhlig (1988-92) and Naaron Branson (1998-01).

MUNLYN HONORED YET AGAIN BY SEC OFFICE

- ▶ Freshman middle blocker Alyssa Munlyn was named Southeastern Conference Volleyball Freshman of the Week, as announced Monday, Nov. 23, by the SEC office. Munlyn recorded 11 kills on .370 hitting with 11 total blocks against Arkansas and Ole Miss through the week of Nov. 16-22.
- ▶ The award marked Munlyn's second consecutive Freshman of the Week honor from the SEC office. It's also Munlyn's third total SEC Freshman of the Week recognition this season.
- ▶ Her three Freshman of the Week honors in 2015 are the most since former First-Team All-American and U.S. National Team setter Molly Kreklow tallied five Big 12 Newcomer of the Week awards in 2010.
- ▶ Munlyn kicked off her award winning week with an outstanding match at Arkansas (Nov. 18) with eight kills on .500 hitting and four total blocks. It marked her eighth match hitting better than .500 this season.
- ▶ Four days later at Ole Miss (Nov. 22), Munlyn added eight total blocks to conclude her impressive two-match stretch. It marked the 18th time this season that Munlyn led the Tigers in single-match total blocks.

Mizzou volleyball's rise to national prominence since 2000 can be easily tied to its leadership at the helm of the program as Wayne and Susan Kreklow have built a national power. Heading into the 2013 season, the résumé was impressive enough: 10 NCAA Tournaments, one Elite Eight, two Sweet 16s, 12 winning seasons and an average of 20 wins per season.

But the Kreklows and the 2013 team rewrote the record books with the most successful season in program history. Not only did the Tigers become the first ever team at Mizzou to win a Southeastern Conference Championship and the program's first conference championship, but the team finished the regular season unblemished at 34-0. The team earned the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and saw four players earn AVCA All-America honors, including a pair of first team honorees in senior setter Molly Kreklow and senior right side Lisa Henning. Wayne Kreklow was named SEC Coach of the Year for engineering the whole thing. Below is just a snapshot of the achievements by the 2013 team.

- ♦ SEC Champions - School's first ever SEC title and program's first ever league championship
- ♦ First ever SEC team to finish a regular season unbeaten
- ♦ Reset school records in wins, conference wins, consecutive wins, sweeps and team hitting percentage
- ♦ Led the nation in hitting, kills, assists, wins and points per set while averaging the fewest errors per set
- ♦ Saw four players - Molly Kreklow, Lisa Henning, Carly Kan, Whitney Little - land on the All-SEC team
- ♦ Molly Kreklow was named SEC Player of the Year, Carly Kan was SEC Freshman of the Year and Wayne Kreklow was SEC coach of the Year
- ♦ Four Tigers were AVCA All-Americans - Molly Kreklow and Lisa Henning (First Team) and Carly Kan and Whitney Little (honorable mention)
- ♦ Wayne Kreklow was the SEC Coach of the Year and the AVCA Southeast Region Coach of the Year
- ♦ Carly Kan earned AVCA Southeast Region Freshman of the Year

Aside from all of the accomplishments for the 2013 team, Wayne and Susan Kreklow had built a power at Mizzou since arriving in 2000. In fact, now that the Tigers have reached the NCAA Tournament in 11 of the last 15 seasons, Mizzou is one of only 22 teams nationally to qualify for at least 10 NCAA Tournaments in the last 15 seasons. In the Kreklow's first eight seasons at the helm of the program, Mizzou qualified for the NCAA Tournament in each year, joining Nebraska as the only two programs to accomplish that feat during the span.

In their inaugural season as an SEC member, the Kreklows guided Mizzou to a 19-win season while finishing fourth in the SEC East division. They also guided three players - Molly Kreklow, Lisa Henning and Whitney Little - to All-SEC honors. Henning was a unanimous All-SEC First Team pick while Kreklow and Little were second-team honorees. Henning also went on to garner AVCA All-America Third Team honors, becoming the second Tiger to earn AVCA All-America honors in two consecutive seasons.

The 2011 season may have showcased the Kreklow's coaching prowess unlike ever before. With just two seniors on the 2011 squad, the Kreklows took a group comprised primarily of freshmen and sophomores to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in 12 seasons. In fact, the Tigers were the youngest team to qualify for the field of 64 as 11 of its 13 players were underclassmen. The Kreklows also guided Henning to AVCA Third Team All-America honors, becoming the first Tiger underclassman to earn AVCA All-America honors.

In 2010, the Kreklows took the Tigers back to the NCAA Sweet 16, marking the program's second-deepest run into the NCAA Tournament in history. The Tigers also pulled the biggest first-round upset in NCAA Tournament history in 2010, knocking off fifth-seeded Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls in a thrilling five-set match. The Tigers boasted four wins over ranked teams in 2010, including two in the NCAA Tournament, and took home 14 Big 12 Athlete of the Week honors, the most by any team in the league in 2010. The Tigers also ranked 16th nationally in average attendance last season.

Under the Kreklow's guidance in 2010, senior outside hitter Paola Ampudia was named honorable mention All-American by the AVCA was a member of the first team All-Central Region and All-Big 12 teams. She was a unanimous selection to the All-Big 12 team. The Kreklows also saw freshman setter Molly Kreklow garner AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year honors and honorable mention All-Big 12 status as well. She and classmate Lisa Henning also appeared on the All-Big 12 Freshman team.

Under the direction of the Kreklow's, academics and community involvement continue to be a cornerstone of the program. In 2009, six Tigers earned a spot on the Academic All-Big 12 team while senior setter Lei Wang-Francisco became the program's first-ever four-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree.

While the Kreklow's success at Missouri was immediate, the apex of their successes came at the end of the 2005 season. The Tigers were selected to host NCAA First and Second rounds for the second-consecutive year, achieving an overall No. 10 seed in the tournament. After defeating Missouri State in the first round, Mizzou swept Arkansas to advance to the team's first regional in school history. At the Penn State Regional, the Tigers took perennial power Hawaii head-on in the regional semifinal, defeating UH in four games. The Tigers accumulated a 25-5 record in 2005, the winningest season in school history, and were a step away from the Final Four.

Also in 2005, Wayne Kreklow was named College Volleyball Update's honorable mention National Coach of the Year as the team surged to the national top-10 for the first time in school history, sweeping three top-10 teams along the way. In all, the Kreklows have amassed a 200-108 (.649) winning record in their Mizzou tenure with 117 wins coming in Big 12 play, averaging 12 conference wins per season. The Tigers have won 21 matches over Top-25 teams since 2000, toppling five during the magical 2005 season. Mizzou itself has spent 76 weeks in the national top 25 since 2000.

Upon arrival, the Kreklows wasted no time in putting their winning mark on a program that had not experienced success since the early 1980's. In their first three years at Mizzou (2000, 2001 and 2002) they recorded the program's first back-to-back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1981-83. In fact, the Tigers won 70 matches in the first three years under the Kreklows, more than the previous seven years combined. Missouri posted the first postseason victory in school history by defeating Northwestern in the first round of the 2002 NCAA Tournament. In 2004, Missouri had the honor of hosting first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

In 2000, the Kreklows' first season at MU, the Tigers finished second in the Big 12 Conference after finishing ninth the previous year. For her efforts, Susan was named as the 2000 Big 12 Coach of the Year by her peers. The Kreklows have made Mizzou Volleyball an exciting marketable entity, and the growth in attendance has been effected, as Missouri has ranked in the nation's top seven in the category in 2005 and 2006, averaging more than 2,600 fans per competition. On Oct. 5, 2005, 7,298 fans packed the Hearn Center for the Tigers' match against Nebraska. Both teams entered the contest undefeated and ranked in the national top-10.

Before the 2005 season, Wayne and Susan officially switched titles within the University system to allow for more family flexibility. While the official coaching records of both are affected, their coaching philosophy is one built on a co-op instead of a one-headed system.

Before coming to Missouri, the Kreklows were co-head coaches of both the men's and women's volleyball teams at Columbia College. They enjoyed great success, taking their women's team to the NAIA National Tournament six times and winning consecutive national titles in 1998 and 1999.

The Cougars also won five regional championships and seven consecutive American Midwest Conference championships under their guidance. In 1998 and 1999, Columbia College achieved consecutive undefeated seasons with a combined record of 85-0. The Cougars' undefeated record included 78 consecutive wins at home and 227 consecutive game victories.

WAYNE & SUSAN KREKLOW AT MIZZOU

In 1997 and 1998, the Kreklows shared NAIA/AVCA National Coach of the Year and Midwest Region Coach of the Year honors. In 1999, the coaching tandem took home the regional award for the fifth consecutive year. In 1998 and 1999, the Kreklows also received the NAIA National Tournament Coach of the Year award.

Along with the success of the women's program, the Kreklows started the men's volleyball program at Columbia College in 1997. In 1999, the Cougars finished the season with a 19-5 overall record, enjoying their second consecutive undefeated run through the Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association. They also took second place at the inaugural SSI Volleyball National Invitational Tournament in 1999.

Susan Kreklow played volleyball for Central Missouri State University and Missouri State. She received her bachelor's degree in physical education and a Master's of Science degree from Missouri State in 1984 and 1987, respectively. Kreklow began her coaching career at St. Clair (Mo.) High School. She began her collegiate coaching career at Columbia College in 1990. Susan was the founder of Columbia Juniors Volleyball Club and the Columbia Developmental Volleyball Leagues. She has served as a member of the USA Volleyball Board of Directors as the NAIA representative and was president-elect of the NAIA National Coaches Association.

Wayne Kreklow earned a bachelor's degree in social science in 1980 from Drake University. While at Drake, Wayne was a member of the men's basketball team, where he earned All-America, all-conference and all-district awards as a two-time team captain, and is fifth on Drake's career scoring list. He is also a member of Drake's All-Century basketball team and was a member of the NBA World Champion Boston Celtics in 1980-81. Wayne began coaching basketball for Central Decatur (Iowa) High School in 1986. He began coaching volleyball as an assistant under Craig Sherman at Missouri. He was with the Tigers from 1989 to 1994 before moving over to Columbia College to join his wife at the helm of the Cougar program.
