DUAL DOMINATION

Dual Points:

1. Willie Miklus 34
2. J'den Cox 28
3. Daniel Lewis 24
4. Lavion Mayes 23
5. Matt Manley 21

- Mizzou has outscored its opponents 198-87 in seven duals this season.
- Redshirt sophomore 184-pounder Willie Miklus leads the team with 34 points in duals, tallying three falls, two technical falls, and two decision wins. Miklus beat Joe Ariola (Buffalo) by way of technical fall, 19-4, on Jan. 8.
- Junior 197-pounder J'den Cox has recorded a fall, three technical falls, a major decision, and a decision for 28 points. Cox recorded a fall over Jerald Spohn (Kent State) on Dec. 20, his first fall in regular season dual competition since Jan. 25, 2015 against Alec Brown (Northern Illinois).

MAYES UNDEFEATED

- Redshirt junior 149-pounder Lavion Mayes has yet to drop a match this season, posting a 16-0 this season, 7-0 in duals. Mayes, an NCAA All-American (seventh place) a season ago at 141 pounds, has not had any struggles after being bumped up to 149 pounds at the beginning of the year. Mayes has captured two open championships this year, winning the Joe Parisi Open and the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational. The final three wins at Cliff Keen came over opponents currently ranked in the top-20. The Illinois native has scored bonus points in eight of 15 matches this season, tallying six major decisions and two falls. In Mayes' four dual wins, he has outscored his opponents, 83-39.

MAC WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

• Redshirt junior 133-pounder Zach Synon was named MAC Wrestler of the Week on Dec. 16. Synon provided the most electric moment of #TigerStyle's win over then-No. 3 Ohio State on Dec. 12 when he pinned No. 5 Johnni DiJulius in the third period at 5:59. The Tiger grappler also picked up a 9-4 win against Cameron Kelly of then-No. 21 Ohio on Sunday. Synon is now 12-3 on the season, 4-0 in duals, and ranked as high as No. 11 in the individual rankings (TheOpenMat.com). The Cary, Ill., native has amassed 16 dual points in four matches.

MIKLUS NAMED USA WRESTLING ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

• Redshirt sophomore 184-pounder Willie Miklus was named USA Wrestling Athlete of the week on Dec. 14 following two duals wins against Ohio State and Ohio. Against then-No. 3 Ohio State, Miklus beat then-No. 11 Kenny Courts by way of a 15-0 technical fall. Miklus' five team point's pushed Mizzou ahead for good, helping #TigerStyle knock off the defending NCAA champion Buckeyes, 26-17. Miklus followed up the TF with a 9-3 decision win over Andrew Romanchik the following day.

6 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS // 60 ALL-AMERICANS // 4 CONSECUTIVE CONFERENCE TITLES

ROMERO EARNS FIRST DUAL WIN, PIN

• Freshman heavyweight James Romero earned the first dual victory of his career on Sunday when he defeated James Webb of Ohio by way of a 9-4 decision. The Albuquerque, N.M. native followed up his first career dual win with his first career dual pin against Devin Nye of Kent State on Dec. 20. The pin came in the first period at 0:58, the fatest pin of the dual season for #TigerStyle.

MIZZOU WINS CLIFF KEEN LAS VEGAS INVITAIONAL

• Mizzou Wrestling departed Las Vegas, Nev., as the 2015 Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational Team Champions. The Tigers finished the tournament with 154 team points, 41 points ahead of second place Cornell. #Tigerstyle had seven wrestlers place in the top-four, headlined by individual championships from junior 197-pounder J'den Cox and redshirt junior 149-pounder Lavion Mayes. Redshirt freshman 165-pounder Daniel Lewis and redshirt senior 174-pounder Blaise Butler finished the tournament with third-place finishes. Lewis earned the "Most Falls in the Least Amount of Time" Award after posting five first-period pins. Redshirt sophomore 125-pounder Barlow McGhee, redshirt junior 141-pounder Matt Manley, and redshirt sophomore 184-pounder Willie Miklus all finished in fourth place in the tournament.

BUTLER AND MIKLUS VAULT MIZZOU TO 24-19 WIN OVER UNI

Two falls from redshirt senior 174-pounder Blaise Butler and redshirt sophomore 184-pounder Willie Miklus gave No. 9 Mizzou Wrestling the lead it needed to defeat No. 25 Northern Iowa on Saturday by a score of 24-19. After Northern Iowa tied the score, 9-9, with a fall in the 157-pound matchup and grabbed the lead with a technical fall in the 165-pound matchup, 14-9, Butler regained the lead for the Tigers with his pin in the third period (6:37) over Kyle Lux. In his first match as a Tiger after transferring from Virginia, Butler came away with a massive debut win for #Tigerstyle. Butler led 14-4 in the third period when he put both of Lux's shoulders on the mat for six points. Miklus followed up the Butler pin with one of his own, pinning Cody Caldwell in the first period (1:22). Junior 197-pounder J'den Cox picked up the final win of the night for #Tigerstyle when he beat Jared Bartel by way of decision, 8-3. The win gave Mizzou three points and clinched the victory.

#TIGERSTYLE GRABS 5 CHAMPIONSHIP 5 AT JOE PARISI OPEN

• Among 38 teams competing at the Joe Parisi Open on Nov. 21, no team came away more victorious than Mizzou Wrestling. In all, #TigerStyle walked away with five championships, four in the elite division. Redshirt sophomore 125-pounder Barlow McGhee took home the 125 pound championship after he defeated last year's NCAA runner-up Zeke Moisey of West Virginia with a 14-4 major decision win. The 133 pound final was an All-Mizzou match, pitting redshirt junior 133-pounder Zach Synon against freshman 133-pounder Jaydin Eierman. The younger Tiger, Eierman, got the best of the bout, fending off Synon with a 5-3 decision win to capture the title. At 149, redshirt junior 149-pounder Lavion Mayes picked up four wins on the day, including a pin and two major decisions to win the 149 pound championship. In the 197 pound weight division, junior 197-pounder J'den Cox breezed through his competition, collecting three technical falls and a pin in four matches before reaching the finals. In the finals, Cox outlasted nationally ranked Jacob Smith of West Virginia, 2-0, to win the title. In the freshman/sophomore division, freshman 157-pounder Luke Fortuna won the 157 pound championship.

MIZZOU SELECTED TO WIN MAC

• As voted on by the conference head coaches, Mizzou was picked to win the Mid-American Conference, sitting atop the preseason poll with 20.0 points. #TigerStyle wrestlers were represented in seven of the 10 individual weight class rankings, with junior 133-pounder Zach Synon and junior 197-pounder J'den Cox leading the way at the top of their respective weight classes. Redshirt junior Lavion Mayes and redshirt sophomore 184-pounder Willie Miklus, and redshirt senior Blaise Butler were all ranked second in their respective weight classes. Redshirt freshman 165-pounder Daniel Lewis (Blue Springs, Mo.) was ranked third in his weight class, while redshirt sophomore 125-pounder Barlow McGhee was ranked fourth.

Cox's Technical Fall Propels No. 4 #TigerStyle to Win over No. 14 Cornell

Miklus and Cox bump up weight classes, secure victories to clinch wins

Junior 197-pounder J'den Cox (Columbia, Mo.) provided the magic No. 4 Mizzou Wrestling (7-0) needed to erase a 17-10 deficit to defeat No. 14 Cornell (1-3), 18-17, Sunday, Jan. 10 at Jesse Auditorium. Head Coach Brian Smith bumped redshirt sophomore Willie Miklus (Altoona, Iowa) and Cox up one weight class to 197 pounds and heavyweight, respectively. The strategy paid off, as Miklus won his match by decision, and Cox earned a victory by technical fall over Jeremy Sweany, 24-9, to push Mizzou over the top for the 18-17 win.

Mizzou's dual win-streak improved to 35 duals with the defeat of the No. 14-rated Big Red. 1,224 fans were in attendance Sunday to witness the Tigers' win, the second time in program history Mizzou has wrestled in Jesse Auditorium. The Tigers defeated Ohio, 23-10, on Dec. 6, 2013.

Cornell had a 6-0 lead after two matches when redshirt junior 141-pounder Matt Manley (Perry, Okla.) took to the mat. The Tiger junior earned a 9-1 major decision against Will Koll, scoring four points for the Tigers. Manley scored a near-fall in the closing seconds of the third period, then riding time gave him his ninth point for the 9-1 major decision. Manley improved to 6-0 in dual competition and 20-4 overall with the victory.

Next, redshirt junior Lavion Mayes (Mascoutah, Ill.) continued his undefeated season with a 9-2 decision win over Joey Galasso. Mayes took control early with a takedown in the first period, and never looked back. Mayes is now 16-0 this year and 7-0 in duals. The decision victory gave Mizzou a 7-6 lead after four matches, the first lead of the day for the Tigers.

Redshirt freshman 165-pounder Daniel Lewis (Blue Springs, Mo.) squared up against Duke Pickett in the 165-pound match. Lewis earned a 3-2 victory by decision in overtime. In the third period, Lewis scored an escape with 1:39 left and another escape with 32 seconds left to make the score 2-2. The score remained tied at 2-2 through two overtime periods, despite excellent wrestling by Lewis, who came close to scoring takedowns on two separate occasions. Finally, in the third overtime, Lewis scored an escape with just eight seconds left on the clock to secure the win, 3-2. The victory by decision gave the lead back to Mizzou by the score of 10-9.

Cornell led 17-10 heading into the 197-pound match between W. Miklus and Jake Taylor. Miklus was awarded a stalling point with one minute left in the third period, giving him an 8-7 victory by decision. Miklus improved to 11-2 this year and a perfect 7-0 in duals. The victory cut the Cornell lead to 17-13 going into the final heavyweight match.

Cox took to the mat needing a technical fall against Cornell's Jeremy Sweany for Mizzou to win the dual. Cox used 10 takedowns, including four in the third period to make the score, 23-9. At the end of the match, riding time was in Cox's favor, giving him the victory by technical fall, 24-9, and Mizzou the dual, 18-17.

DUAL RECORD: 0-0
CAREER RECORD: 43-18

2015-16 (RS Sr.):

- In his only time on the mat this season, Johnston went 4-2 at the Reno Tournament of Champions on Dec. 20.

2014-15 (RS Jr.):

- Posted a 15-11 overall record, including a career high 11 dual starts (5-6 record).
- His 11 dual starts this season marked a new career high.
- His season win total marked the third straight year with double digit victories.
- Made nine consecutive starts at 165 pounds for Mizzou early-on, netting four dual wins in that span.
- Tallied one MAC dual triumph, defeating Wally Maziarz (Buffalo) via fall (5:29) on Feb. 6, 2015.
- Kicked off his 2014-15 campaign with a 3rd place finish at 2014 Harold Nichols Cyclone Open.
- Went 6-1 at Cyclone Open with four of those wins resulting in bonus points.
- Of his 10 bonus points wins in '14-15, six resulted in pins over his opponents. His fastest came in 2:29 on Nov. 8, 2014 vs. Vince Dietz (St. Cloud State).

2013-14 (RS So.)

- Competed in three tournaments for the Tigers and made his way onto the starting lineup at 184 pounds.
- Johnston took third place at the Warren Williams/Daktronics Open, his only loss coming against teammate Mikey England, 3-1.
- Won six of his eight matches at the Harold Nichols Cyclone Open for a fourth place finish.
- Was able to have his first dual start for Missouri against Caleb Busson of Northern Illinois. Johnston won the bout by major decision, 13-3.
- Represented Missouri at the 2014 MAC Championships after Johnny Eblen suffered a season ending injury. Johnston placed fifth overall, narrowly missing an automatic bid to Nationals, however, his major decision and technical fall wins helped the Tigers with the edge they needed to claim the conference title.
- With a season record of 20-10, Johnston picked up four wins by technical falls, seven by pin, and two by major decision.

2012-13 (RS Fr.)

- Johnston competed in six tournaments throughout the season, finishing with a season record of 19-6.
 - Took the titles as the Kaufman-Brand, Roger Denker, and Grand View Opens.
 - At the Kaufman-Brand Open, defeated Mizzou's Jordan Gagliano in the finals, 3-1 in sudden victory.
 - Johnston's first two wins at the Roger Denker Open were pins (1:21 and 6:00 respectively) followed by two decision wins.
 - In the finals match at the Grand View Open, Johnston faced Micah Barnes (Nebraska) and won by decision, 4-3.
 - Of his 19 wins, nine were pins, the fastest of which occurred at 1:06.
- Was honored with the Marshall Esteppe Most Outstanding Freshman program award.

2011-12 (Fr.)

- Taking his redshirt, Johnston competed at 174 pounds in five tournaments, placing in four of the five.
- His first collegiate win came against Landon Ketsweter (PCC) at the UCM Open by decision, 11-4. Johnston ended up in fourth place overall at the tournament.
- Finished in fourth at the Kaufman-Brand Open as well; his two losses came by fellow Tiger grapplers Dorian Henderson and Todd Porter.
- Johnston took the titles at both the Roger Denker and MVC Opens with seven straight wins between the two tournaments.
- Overall on the season, Johnston had a record of 21-6 with 10 of those wins coming by technical fall or pin.

PERSONAL

HEAD COACH

Brian Smith

Beginning his career as Missouri's seventh Head Wrestling Coach, Brian Smith sat down with his team and made a list of goals that he hoped would help the 1998 squad and future Tiger teams. Over the past 16 years, Smith and the many men that have come through the varsity program have slowly but surely checked items off that original list. Individual Big 12 and MAC Conference Champions, improved grade-point averages, record-setting attendances, a No. 1 national ranking and MU's first-ever National Champion in wrestling were all on Smith's "to-do" list. His unique "Tiger Style" training program has molded today's team into a national powerhouse that looks to contend for the program's first team NCAA title.

Since being introduced as Missouri's Head Wrestling Coach May 5, 1998, Smith has demanded nothing but the best from himself, his coaches and his wrestlers. Owning 13 consecutive seasons with a dual record at or above .500, beginning with 2001-02, Smith has coached 20 All-Americans to 33 top-eight performances and four Tigers to five national titles.

Additionally, Smith aided in two-time National Champion Ben Askren's run through the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, China. During Askren's Tiger career, Smith guided the 174-pound grappler Askren to the program's first back-to-back National Championship titles (2006 and 2007). On March 21, 2009, Mark Ellis became the second MU wrestler in program history to collect top honors. At heavyweight, Ellis bested his opponent, 3-2, in overtime with Smith coaching from the corner. In March 2010, Max Askren became the third Tiger Style national champion in the history of the program, as he dominated the No. 1 seed in the 184-pound weight class by a 10-3 score. Finally, true freshman J'den Cox claimed the program's fifth national title in 2013-14 after defeating Ohio State's Nick Heflin, 2-1.

The past 2014-15 Mizzou wrestling campaign will arguably go down as the best season in program history. Under Smith's guidance, the Tigers finished with a perfect 24-0 regular season, marking only the second undefeated season in program history (joining 1967-68 Tiger squad). Dating back to the 2013-14 season, the Tigers have reeled off 28 straight dual wins, marking the longest winning streak in program history.

As the only unbeaten program in Division I wrestling this past season, the Tigers also racked up national accolades with a title at the 2015 National Duals Finals, and 2014-15 MAC Regular Season and Postseason Championships. The 8-0 record and first place honors during the MAC regular season was the first ever regular season title in Mizzou wrestling history.

After the team's fourth consecutive conference championship and new all-time MAC Championships team points record of 139.5, all 10 Tiger Style grapplers earned automatic bids to the 2015 NCAA Championships. Led by five All-Americans (Alan Waters, Lavion Mayes, Drake Houdashelt, Willie Miklus and J'den Cox) and the program's sixth all-time individual National Champion, the Tigers finished in fourth place overall. The team trophy finish gave Mizzou their fourth top-10 NCAA finish in the past nine years, and their sixth top-10 NCAA finish in program history.

During the 2014 season, Smith helped the Tigers claim their third consecutive conference championship, while also earning back-to-back MAC Coach of the Year honors. Mizzou sent eight wrestlers to 2014 NAAs, and came away two more All-Americans in Drake Houdashelt and J'den Cox. With the two excellent individual performances in Oklahoma City, Okla., Tiger Style now holds 55 all-time All-Americans.

In 2013, after Mizzou departed from the Big 12 Conference, Smith would do it all again. In the new Mid-American Conference (MAC), he led the Tigers as an affiliate member, and took the conference crown by storm, ending an 11-year dominant reign by the Chippewas from Central Michigan. His squad posted a total of 136.0 team points, which shattered the MAC Championship record for team points. And again, all 10 of his wrestlers qualified for the NAAs. He was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year for his accomplishments.

At least one Tiger grappler has been selected to compete at the NCAA Championship event in each of Smith's 16 seasons at Missouri and his squads have finished among the top-20 programs at the NCAA Championships in 12 of the last 13 years. The Florida native graduated from Michigan State with a degree in education and married the former Denise Dean in 1993. Brian and Denise, have three children, Quinn, Kylie and Braden.
