MEDIA CREDENTIALING CRITERIA

The University of Missouri's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a Mizzou Athletics event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

• Space availability;
• Distribution/size of outlet: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.;
• Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s);
• Radio or TV station program format and audience size;
• Amount of coverage given to Mizzou through the season;
• Intention/ability to cover all 20 sports at Mizzou;
• Attendance at Mizzou media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities;
• Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.;
• Compliance with SEC media policy.

The University of Missouri has the right to deny or revoke credentials under its own discretion.

CREDENTIAL REQUEST PROCEDURE

For those who meet the criteria, season credentials will be issued as a "combo" credential for football and men's/women's basketball. When applicable, this season pass may also be used for admittance to home events for Mizzou Olympic Sport programs, please check with the sport contact to verify.

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible.

• For football and men's basketball single-game credentials, requests must be made five days prior to game day online at Sports Systems.
• For all other sports, please contact the Communications staff member in charge of media operations of that sport (see staff directory) at least 24 hours prior to game day.
• Media covering all Mizzou sports are subject to the SEC credential policy https://clients.sportssystems.com/clients/seccredentials/

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with University of Missouri student-athletes or staff members must be arranged through the Athletics Communications office. Media are asked to never contact a player or coach directly.

In general, athlete and staff interviews are conducted prior to or after practices, after contests or by phone.

All pre-contest and telephone interviews must be made at least 24 hours in advance through the Communications office. Interviews will be scheduled when student-athlete and staff schedules allow.

For post-event interviews, there is generally a 20-minute cooling off period. Interviews will either be conducted on the playing field, outside the team locker room area, or at a formal press conference setting, depending on the sport and facility.

Playing fields, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate Athletics personnel.

PHOTOS/LOGOS/VIDEO REQUESTS

Media members wishing to obtain photos and logos related to Mizzou Athletics should contact the Athletics Communications contact for the sport (see staff directory for sport assignments). Special photo galleries for media access are available following many events.

In certain instances, Mizzou Network can provide video highlight footage of Mizzou games or events. Contact Ben Arnet at 573-884-6736 or via e-mail at arnetb@missouri.edu for assistance.

NCAA Infractions Information

On January 31, 2019, the NCAA Committee on Infractions ("COI") released an Infractions Decision outlining unethical conduct (NCAA Bylaw 10.1), honesty and sportsmanship (NCAA Bylaw 10.01.1) and academic extra benefit (NCAA Bylaw 16.11.2.1) violations committed by a former part-time tutor at Mizzou in 2015-16. Upon learning of the issue in November, 2016, the University took immediate action by self-reporting the violations and partnering with the NCAA Enforcement staff in a joint investigation, and was cited for "exemplary cooperation" by the NCAA Enforcement Staff and COI. Students who received impermissible academic assistance from the tutor were declared ineligible and withheld from competition, per NCAA rules. The NCAA Enforcement Staff and the University of Missouri identified 12 former student-athletes who received impermissible academic assistance. Nine former student-athletes competed while ineligible; seven in football, one in baseball, and one in softball. The COI confirmed these facts. Missouri is on probation in those sports until January 31, 2022.

DR. MUN Y. CHOI

PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
Third Year
Illinois, '87

Mun Y. Choi was named the 24th president in the history of the University of Missouri System in November 2016, and began his service in March 2017. As president, Dr. Choi serves as the chief executive and academic officer of the UM System, a land-grant institution that provides centralized administration for four universities, a health care system, and extension program, and 10 research and technology parks. Dr. Choi oversees all academic, public, business, financial and related affairs of the UM System under the policies and general supervision of the University of Missouri Board of Curators.

As a product of and passionate champion for public higher education, Dr. Choi advocates tirelessly on behalf of the four universities of the UM System with state and national business, political and civic leaders to achieve excellence. In partnership with the board and university leadership, Dr. Choi introduced a new collective vision for the UM System in September 2018: to advance the opportunities for success and well-being in Missouri, the nation and the world through transformative teaching, research, innovation, engagement and inclusion.

To fulfill this vision, Dr. Choi announced the Missouri Compacts for Achieving Excellence, a plan that includes $260 million in strategic investments. The Missouri Compacts are a promise to achieve excellence through student success; research and creative works; engagement and outreach; inclusive excellence; and planning, operations and stewardship to best serve our students and Missourians. Supported by one-time investments from the UM System, the Missouri Compacts support the universities' five-year strategic plans.

Dr. Choi's leadership has been instrumental in moving the University of Missouri System forward and strengthening the collaboration between the four universities in the system. Since he took office, the university has changed dramatically, including the reversal of significant student enrollment declines at the flagship campus, administrative and budget transformations that support a more efficient and collaborative environment and the restoration of public funding through a dramatically improved relationship with the Missouri legislature. Most importantly, Dr. Choi is widely recognized to have regained the trust of the university community, alumni, legislators, and Missourians by changing the attitude of the entire state towards higher education.

Before serving as the UM System president, Dr. Choi's 26-year career in higher education included serving as assistant and associate professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago (1994-2000), department head of mechanical engineering and mechanics at Drexel University (2000-2008), then dean of engineering at the University of Connecticut (UConn) (2008-2012). Later, he took on the role of provost and executive vice president at UConn (2012-2017).

Dr. Choi is married with three children and resides in Columbia.

DR. ALEXANDER N. CARTWRIGHT

CHANCELLOR, UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

Third Year

Iowa, '89

Chancellor Alexander N. Cartwright joined Missouri's flagship, land grant university in August 2017, and immediately noticed what makes MU so special: the people.

Since joining as the campus' CEO, he has worked with faculty, staff, students and the institution's more than 300,000 living alumni to let the world know the many impacts of MU. That commitment to collective impact is underscored by several major initiatives started during the past two years to benefit and honor the university's education, research and outreach missions.

Shortly after arriving on campus, Dr. Cartwright announced the Missouri Land Grant program, an institutional commitment to helping Pell Grant eligible students by covering their tuition and fees. The university has since launched new programs designed to improve retention and graduation rates, as well as post-graduation outcomes for students. Dr. Cartwright wants to see the workforce filled with talented people who are #MizzouMade and who share our values of respect, responsibility, discovery and excellence.

The Missouri Method plays an integral part of MU's success in 92% – and counting! – of graduates having successful outcomes within six months after graduation. Since joining MU, Dr. Cartwright has advocated for the campus' numerous hands-on learning efforts – from dairy farming, to textile and apparel management, to working in a laboratory. The hands-on learning emphasis of the Missouri Method has long been used by the School of Journalism and ensures Tigers are prepared for whatever's next.

As one of America's leading research universities, MU engages in preeminent scholarship for the greater good. Dr. Cartwright continues to highlight the positive societal impacts of the broad ranging scholarship at the university on the lives of Missourians and beyond. With that vision in mind, Dr. Cartwright announced a number of strategies to increase innovation, creative works and research, such as the Artist and Residence Program. He also announced a bold goal to double research expenditures by 2023 by growing scholarship across all disciplines. By the end of his second year in office, research awards increased by 20 percent.

These efforts have an effect on the communities MU serves, including a $3.9 billion economic impact on Missouri alone. That impact is further magnified by the continued support of MU alumni and supporters who believe, like Dr. Cartwright, in the power of Missouri's flagship institution. In summer 2019, the institution announced a record fundraising year with more than $200 million of philanthropic support for scholarships, academic programs and more.

Dr. Cartwright came to MU from the State University of New York (SUNY) where he served as provost and executive vice chancellor from September 2014 to July 2017. At SUNY Dr. Cartwright oversaw a broad portfolio, including academic policy, enrollment management, and more.

Dr. Cartwright came to the role of SUNY's provost from the University at Buffalo, State University of New York (UB), where he served on faculty since 1995. At UB, he held several senior administrative positions, including vice president for research and economic development and acting executive director of the New York State Center of Excellence in Bioinformatics and Life Sciences. In these roles, he was responsible for campus/industry relations, research funding and compliance, and research support for UB and the Center.

An internationally recognized researcher and scholar in the area of optical sensors, he is a fellow of three professional societies: the American Association for the Advancement of Science, SPIE. the international society for optics and photonics, and the National Academy of Inventors. Dr. Cartwright is a prior winner of both the National Science Foundation CAREER Award and the Office of Naval Research Young Investigator Award. In addition, he earned the 2002 SUNY Chancellor's award for excellence in teaching.

A native of the Bahamas, Dr. Cartwright holds a Ph.D. in electrical and computer engineering from the University of Iowa. He and his wife Melinda have two children, Andrew and Alyssa.

PAMELA HINTON

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

19th Year

Wisconsin, '91

Dr. Pam Hinton was appointed Faculty Athletics Representative in May, 2017, for a five-year term. Previously, Dr. Hinton served as an executive member of the Intercollegiate Athletics Committee (IAC) and was the IAC Compliance Subcommittee Chair and the Student-Athlete Welfare Subcommittee Chair. Her dedication to the welfare of our student athletes was evident during her time on the IAC.

Dr. Hinton has served in the Department of Nutrition and Exercise Phisiology since 2000. She has been an Associate Professor of Nutritional Sciences at MU since 2006, and has served as the department's Director of Graduate Studies, Nutritional Sciences, since 2010.

Dr. Hinton's lab investigates the interactive effects of nutrition and physical activity on bone health. In particular, Dr. Hinton's lab is studying the effects of energy balance on bone turnover during weight loss and weight maintenance in overweight individuals. In addition, Dr. Hinton is studying the efficacy of exercise-based interventions to increase bone mineral density in osteopenic males.

She was a student-athlete at the University of Wisconsin, competing in track and cross country. She earned a bachelor's degree, with, distinction, in molecular biology, which provides her with firsthand knowledge of the demands placed on student athletes.

JIM STERK
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
Fourth Year
Western Washington, '80

Jim Sterk was named Mizzou's 20th Director of Athletics on Aug., 9, 2016, following highly successful tenures leading athletics programs at San Diego State, Washington State and Portland State.

"This is a wonderful day for Mizzou and Tiger fans everywhere," said then-University of Missouri Interim Chancellor Hank Foley, who selected Sterk following a nationwide search. "Jim's leadership in intercollegiate athletics is unparalleled, and we are thrilled he is going to bring his talents, energy and passion for working with student-athletes to Columbia. He is just what Mizzou needs at this time."

Sterk's Win It Right vision for Mizzou Athletics is built upon the core values of Respect, Integrity, Gratitude, Humility and Together, and his first three years in Columbia have produced unprecedented academic and athletic success under his leadership.

The classroom achievements of Mizzou's student-athletes continued in 2018-19, as they produced the top two semester grade-point averages in school history with an overall record 3.125 for the Fall 2018 semester and a record Spring term 3.11 mark. All-told, more than 60 percent of MU's nearly 550 student-athletes achieved a 3.00 mark in the classroom each semester. Some 357 student-athletes earned University Dean's List honors for at least one semester, 265 were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll, including 69 selected to the SEC First-Year Freshman Honor Roll, and 101 completed their Mizzou Made journey by earning their degrees.

Mizzou's NCAA academic metrics remain strong, as it produced a school-record tying Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 91 for the second-straight year to rank third in the SEC behind Vanderbilt (97) and South Carolina (94), as no other league school produced a mark higher than an 89. It marked the 12th-straight year Mizzou equaled or improved its GSR score as five teams produced SEC-leading marks of 100--Baseball, Women's Basketball, Women's Golf, Women's Tennis and Soccer.

After finishing a school-record 33rd in the Learfield IMG Directors' Cup standings in Sterk's first two years, Mizzou placed 51st in 2018-19, which was still a five-place improvement over its average finish of 56th in the award's first 25 years, and 15 of 20 programs were represented in the postseason either as teams or individuals. Mizzou Football, which played in back-to-back bowl games for the first time since the 2013 and 2014 seasons, was one of six Tiger programs to finish among the nation's Top 25 as it was 23rd in the final College Football Playoff rankings to join Wrestling (sixth-place NCAAs), Men's Swimming & Diving (11th-place, NCAAs), Women's Gymnastics (17th), Women's Swimming & Diving (23rd, NCAAs) and Volleyball (23rd). Mizzou Wrestling also swept the Mid-American Conference regular-season and tournament titles for the second-straight year.

Administratively, Sterk and his team continued to position Mizzou Athletics for future successes. Ground was broken in March 2018 on the largest campus construction project in school history, the $98M South End Zone Facility, Mizzou Football's new den that will open ahead of the 2019 season. The Tiger Scholarship Fund (TSF) saw a $17M increase over the previous year's productivity en route to its third-highest year ever in total cash and pledges of $40.7M, which included a second-straight record-setting year in student-athlete scholarship support of $11.4M. It marked the first time TSF produced top three marks in the same year for annual fund dollars raised (No. 1), cash donations (No. 3) and productivity (No. 3). A new 10-year multi-media rights agreement with Learfield was signed, and the department entered into a partnership with the City of Columbia to build a new championship cross country course that will open in August 2019. Mizzou Athletics also continued to build upon its successful partnership with MU Extension in outreach to the state's citizens.

Sterk's second year in Columbia saw Mizzou student-athletes post an overall then-record grade-point average of 3.04 for the 2017-18 academic year. In the 2017 Federal Graduation Rates survey, Mizzou ranked second in the SEC with its 72 percent mark, a performance which also matched the highest mark in program history (72 percent in 2014-15) and was three points higher than the University's average for all students during that same span.

Mizzou equaled its best finish ever in the 2017-18 Learfield Directors' Cup standings, as it totaled 660.75 points to finish 33rd nationally for the second-straight year. A record 17 of the Tigers' 20 programs were represented in postseason competition with a school-record 15 earning Directors' Cup points. Mizzou captured a pair of conference titles (Mizzou Wrestling won the MAC regular season and tournament crowns) while 11 teams ranked in the nation's Top 25 at some point in 2017-18.

The Tigers produced Top 25 2017-18 NCAA Championship finishes in Wrestling (sixth), Women's Indoor Track & Field (ninth), Women's Outdoor Track & Field (11th), Women's Swimming & Diving (15th), Volleyball (Sweet 16) and Men's Swimming & Diving (23rd). It also marked the first time since 1981-82 that Mizzou Football played in a bowl game and both Tiger Basketball teams reached the NCAA Tournament in the same academic year. Track & Field standout Karissa Schweizer (3,000m and 5,000m at the NCAA Indoor Championships; 5,000m at NCAA Outdoor Championships) captured three more NCAA individual titles as a senior to cap her fabulous collegiate career with six national championships.

Mizzou Athletics enjoyed academic, athletic and administrative success in Sterk's first year, too.

Academically, 269 Mizzou student-athletes received 2016-17 SEC Honor Roll recognition, 14 teams registered a 3.00 grade-point average for the Spring 2017 semester and four teams recorded perfect NCAA Academic Progress Rate marks of 1,000—Women's Golf, Women's Tennis, Soccer and Volleyball. Tiger student-athletes also spent over 4,800 hours volunteering with more than 50 organizations in Columbia and the surrounding communities.

Fueled by Top 16 NCAA Championship finishes in Wrestling (fifth), Women's Indoor Track & Field (eighth), Men's Swimming & Diving (ninth), Women's Swimming & Diving (13th), Women's Cross Country (16th) and Volleyball (Sweet 16), Mizzou ranked a program-best 33rd in the 2016-17 Learfield Directors' Cup standings with a school-record 662.75 points. The Tigers had not finished better than 36th prior to 2016-17.

Sixteen Mizzou teams were represented in 2016-17 NCAA postseason play, two teams won conference titles (Volleyball and Wrestling) and 10 squads ranked among the nation's Top 25 in their respective sports at season's end. In addition, two Tigers combined to win four NCAA individual titles as wrestler J'den Cox won his third national title at 197 lbs., and Schweizer became just the fourth runner in NCAA history to win the women's distance triple crown (cross country, indoor 5,000m and outdoor 5,000m national titles), and first since 2008.

The generosity, loyalty and passion of more than 7,000 donors allowed the Tiger Scholarship Fund (TSF) to raise a school-record $50.4 million during the 2016-17 fiscal year, shattering the previous record by more than $4.7 million. TSF's record-breaking total, which included new pledges and cash gifts, was aided by a school-record 11 gifts of $1 million or more.

Sterk joined the Mizzou family from San Diego State, where he enjoyed a highly-successful six-year tenure that included arguably the most successful five-year run in Aztec history with 32 team conference championships from 2011-12 thru 2015-16, including a Mountain West Conference-leading 28 titles in that span, and the nation's fourth-highest combined winning percentage in football and men's basketball. In addition, SDSU was one of only four schools nationally to have appeared in six-consecutive NCAA Men's Basketball Tournaments and have its football team play in five-straight bowl games over that stretch.

"Jim elevated SDSU to a respectable level both athletically and academically," said Marshall Faulk, a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame and former St. Louis Ram and SDSU Aztec. "His leadership was instrumental in the rise of SDSU success. How we cared for our student-athletes was his No. 1 concern. While I'm sad to see him go, I am equally happy for Jim and his family, and I told him he is going to love the people of Missouri. Mizzou, you hired a man with impeccable integrity."

SDSU set a school-record with 13 programs setting multi-year highs in the NCAA's 2016 Academic Progress Report with 313 student-athletes honored for their academic achievements. The athletic department also enjoyed a record fund-raising year for scholarships and a new basketball facility.

Sterk was named the 2015-2016 Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, which highlights the efforts of athletic directors for their commitment and positive contributions to student-athletes, campuses and their surrounding communities. He was also appointed to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee as the Mountain West Conference's representative, however, he had to relinquish that prestigious position when he took over at Mizzou.

"My passion is building upon the successes of good athletic programs and helping to make them great," Sterk said. "Whether it is guiding and mentoring student-athletes, working with coaches to ensure they have the resources they need or cheering with the fans, I realize that athletics is one of the most visible programs at a university, and I am excited to lead it on the national stage."

Sterk went to SDSU from Washington State, where he served as athletics director from 2000-10. Prior to his hiring at WSU, he was athletics director at Portland State from 1995 to 2000.

The NCAA recognized WSU and Sterk in 2006 as the Division IA Athletic Directors' "Program of Excellence." He oversaw a period of unparalleled success at WSU with historic academic and athletic accomplishments during his Pullman tenure.

In his last three years at WSU, 13 Cougar teams competed in NCAA Tournaments, including back-to-back trips by the Men's b=Basketball team (2007 and 2008), while Women's Rowing earned five NCAA championship bids, including a fourth-place finish in 2006, the highest finish ever by a WSU women's team in NCAA competition.

A 1980 graduate of Western Washington University, Sterk earned four letters for the Vikings in football and one in basketball. He was credited with a school-record 164 tackles during the 1977 season, garnering first-team NAIA District I all-star accolades. He was named team captain and MVP, helping the Vikings to the district championship game. In 2010, Sterk was inducted into Western Washington's Athletics Hall of Fame for his gridiron success.

He received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. In addition to SDSU, Washington State and Portland State, he has served in athletic administrative positions at North Carolina, Maine, Seattle Pacific and Tulane.

Sterk and his wife Debi have three daughters: Ashley, Amy and Abby, and an infant granddaughter Kinsley Jane.

• 2018 Second-Team All-SEC (Coaches)

2018 SEASON

Earned second-team All-SEC honors by league coaches for an outstanding season that saw him become one of the league's top corners ... Led the team and ranked seventh in the SEC with three interceptions on the year, including one he ran back 76 yards at Tennessee (11/17) that set up a Tiger score ... Finished the year with 30 tackles in his 13 starts, including one tackle for loss, while ranking second on the team with 10 pass break-ups ... Had two picks in Mizzou's big road win at Tennessee, becoming the first Tiger since John Gibson in 2016 to grab two interceptions in a game ... Made a season-best five tackles (all solo) in the bowl game against Oklahoma State (12/31), and added four stops earlier in the year against No. 2 Georgia (9/22) ... His long INT return at Tennessee was perhaps the pivotal play in the game, as it came right before halftime, and ended a UT scoring threat, while setting up a crucial Tiger touchdown in the final minute of the second quarter ... Also added a fourth-quarter interception in that game to help seal the win ... Had a career-high three pass break-ups at South Carolina (10/6), while breaking up a pair of passes against No. 16 Kentucky (10/27).

• 2018 SEC All-Freshman Team (Coaches)

2018 SEASON

A dynamic talent who made big impressions in his first year as a Tiger ... Named to the SEC All-Freshman team by league coaches ... Ranked third on the team with his 809 all-purpose yards in 12 games, including 437 rushing yards and two touchdowns (averaged 4.9 yards per carry) ... Also led all Tiger running backs with 130 receiving yards on 12 receptions, and served as MU's primary kickoff return man, averaging 22.0 yards on 11 attempts .. Posted a career-high 142 all-purpose yards against Georgia (9/22), averaging 9.5 yards per touch with a rushing TD … Followed that with 103 all-purpose yards at South Carolina (10/6) … Rushed for a season-high 61 yards and had 99 all-purpose yards at Purdue (9/15) in what was a breakout game for the true freshman … Against Purdue, he accounted for 46 of Mizzou's 68 total yards on its game-winning drive in the fourth quarter, including a big 20-yard catch on second-and-long with Mizzou backed up deep in its own territory to start the drive ... Had 45 yards at South Carolina, averaging 7.5 yards per carry in that game ... Had 41 rushing yards on six carries at No. 1 Alabama (10/13), and also had 41 yards on the ground in MU's Homecoming win over Memphis (10/20) ... Had one rush at Florida (11/3) that went for 18 yards early in the game, but he injured an ankle while being tackled, and could not play the rest of the game ... That injury kept him out the next week versus Vanderbilt as well, but he returned to rush for 42 yards on five carries (8.4 average) in the regular-season finale against Arkansas (11/23).

2018 SEASON

A true field general at the middle linebacker position who emerged as one of the top linebackers in the defensive-minded SEC ... Won first-team All-SEC acclaim by Pro Football Focus, while taking home second-team All-SEC honors from the league coaches, thanks to his outstanding season that saw him lead Mizzou and rank seventh in the league with a career-best 112 tackles ... Added 6.5 tackles for loss on the season and had a quarterback sack, to go with six quarterback pressures and one pass break-up ... Had an impressive stretch where he recorded double-digit tackles in four-straight games, doing so with 12 stops at No. 1 Alabama (10/13), 11 against Memphis (10/20), followed by a season-best 14 stops against No. 16 Kentucky (10/27) and 12 more in Mizzou's big 38-17 road win at No. 13 Florida (11/3) ... Was the first Tiger to have four-straight games of at least 10 tackles since Kentrell Brothers did so in 2015 when he led the nation in tackles ... Was all over the field at South Carolina (10/6), when he posted eight tackles to go with four quarterback pressures in Mizzou's narrow defeat ... Had six tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss in the Tigers' big road win at Tennessee (11/17) ... Had a pair of tackles for loss in an early-season road win at Purdue (9/15) and led the team with eight stops in the Liberty Bowl against Oklahoma State (12/31).

2018 SEASON

Turned in a breakout sophomore season that saw him lead Mizzou and rank fourth in the vaunted SEC with 1,216 yards, as he averaged a solid 5.4 yards per carry and tallied 11 touchdowns on the ground ... His 1,919 rushing yards through his first two seasons are the most ever by a Mizzou running back, surpassing the previous best of 1,647 by former great Tony Galbreath (1974-75) ... Closed his season in prime fashion as he ran for 204 yards and a touchdown in the Liberty Bowl against Oklahoma State (12/31), averaging a salty 7.6 yards per attempt ... Got to the edge and broke off a 55-yard touchdown run in the bowl game early in the fourth quarter that gave life to the Tigers and helped get them back in the game ... That gave him five games of 100 yards or more on the season, including the last three of the year ... Closed the regular season with a 119-yard performance against Arkansas (11/23) and the week before went for 135 and a score in Mizzou's big road win at Tennessee (11/17) ... Also reached the 100-yard mark in wins at Purdue (168 yards) and at home against Memphis (10/20) (118) when he had a career-best three rushing touchdowns ... Ran for 58 yards and a score among 14 carries in the season-opener vs. UT Martin (9/1) … Rushed 10 times for 34 yards vs. Wyoming (9/8) before exploding for a then-season-high 168 yards on 23 attempts (7.3 avg.) at Purdue (9/15) … Rushed eight times for 33 yards and a score vs. No. 2 Georgia (9/22) … Had 90 yards on 13 carries (9.6 average) with two touchdowns at South Carolina (10/6) ... Was honored for his outstanding work in the classroom by being named to the 2018 SEC Academic Honor Roll.

- 2017 Team Big M Iron Man Award

2018 SEASON

Developed into one of the top linemen in the vaunted SEC, earning first-team All-SEC honors by the Associated Press, making him the first Tiger offensive lineman to earn first-team all-league honors since 2013 (Justin Britt) ... Played more than 1,000 snaps on the year, and was not docked with allowing a quarterback sack nor committing a penalty in 13 games at right guard ... Helped the offense end the 2018 season ranked 13th nationally (third in the SEC) in total offense (481.8 avg.), 18th nationally (third in the SEC) in scoring (36.6 avg.) and 18th nationally (third in the SEC) in third down conversions (46.4%) ... The Tiger front five was especially stout once again at preventing negative plays -- Mizzou ranked sixth nationally (first in the SEC) in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.00 avg.) and eighth nationally (first in the SEC) in fewest quarterback sacks allowed (1.00 avg.) ... Perhaps most impressive was the fact that Mizzou was one of only three Power Five offenses to throw for at least 279 yards per game, while rushing for at least 200 yards per game ... The other two were national champion Clemson (279 passing/248 rushing) and CFP semi-finalist Oklahoma (322 passing/247 rushing).

BARRY ODOM

HEAD COACH
Fourth Season
Maysville, Okla.
Missouri, '99

In three years directing his alma mater's football program, Head Coach Barry Odom has led the Mizzou Football program to impressive achievements. In 2018, Odom's Tigers finished an exciting regular-season ranked No. 23 in the College Football Playoff poll (No. 24 in the Associated Press poll) with eight wins, reached a second-straight bowl game thanks to yet another strong closing month, and turned heads nationally with one of the year's most impressive road wins.

Thanks to the building momentum, and a significant amount of returning talent, excitement is high in and around the Mizzou program heading into 2019. Outside prognosticators think highly of Mizzou's chances to be among the nation's best this coming season, as several national outlets have the Tigers ranked in their pre-season Top 25 polls – with one slotting MU as high as number 13.

Much of the excitement heading into the new season revolves around the lifeblood of any college football program – recruiting. Odom and his staff worked hard to assemble a 2019 signing class that ranked 31st (Rivals.com), a standing that's among the highest-ranked classes ever assembled at Mizzou. That ranking doesn't even include what created the most buzz nationally in recruiting circles, when Odom convinced transfer quarterback Kelly Bryant to become a Tiger. The former Clemson starter, who led them to the College Football Playoff in 2017 and had a starting record of 16-2, will bring his significant talents to the program for one year in 2019.

On the field, Odom guided his troops to an 8-5 record in 2018 and to the school's third all-time appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. After increasing his win total each year since taking over in 2016, Odom's three-year on-field career mark stands at 19-19 (due to NCAA action in 2016, his adjusted record is 15-19). He is only the fourth coach in Mizzou history to reach bowl games in two of his first three seasons at MU, joining College Football Hall of Fame Coach Dan Devine in that category, as well as former coaches Al Onofrio and Warren Powers.

In the classroom, Odom's program achieved at a record level in 2018. The team turned in a grade point average of 2.90 that fall, which smashed the previous program record of 2.69 set in the fall of 2015. Additionally, 58 team members – more than half of the 115-man roster – earned a fall GPA of at least 3.0. The squad followed that with another outstanding 2.89 team PGA this past spring.

For the second-straight season, Odom's team finished the regular season in impressive fashion, going a perfect 4-0 in the month of November. That run was highlighted with a dominant 38-17 win at No. 11 Florida on Nov. 3 that marked Mizzou's largest road win over a ranked opponent since 2008. Odom's teams have now won nine-straight games in the month of November, and are 10-2 overall in the penultimate month of the calendar in his three years at the helm. His 19 wins are the most through three seasons by a Tiger coach since Powers won 23 from 1978-80.

In 2017, Odom put together one of the more remarkable seasons in school history, when his Tigers achieved a seven-win season and earned the program's first bowl game since 2014. Mizzou closed the regular season as one of the nation's hottest teams, thanks to a six-game win streak that culminated in a thrilling road win at Arkansas. That win moved Mizzou to 7-5 marking an amazing in-season turnaround that saw MU rebound from a 1-5 start on the year.

Odom's team earned an invitation to the 2017 Academy Sports + Outdoor Texas Bowl for its effort, and while the end result of the bowl game didn't go Mizzou's way, the appearance certainly represented an important step in the right direction for the program. Coming off a 4-8 season in 2016 (adjusted to 0-8 by NCAA action), Mizzou was picked to finish dead last in the seven-team Southeastern Conference Eastern Division by the pre-season pundits, but the Tigers defied the prognosticators as they ended tied for third at 4-4 in league play – becoming the first SEC team to ever start 0-4 in conference play and finish 4-4.

Odom became the first Mizzou coach to make a bowl game in his second year at MU since Powers did so in each of his first two seasons in 1978 and 1979.

A longtime presence at Mizzou, Odom, 42, is guiding a program he has been immersed in at every level for some 17 years – including seven as a coach (2009-11, 2015-18), six in an administrative capacity (2003-08), and four as a highly-successful student-athlete (1996-99).

The 2016 season was Odom's first as Mizzou's head coach, and came after he had spent the previous four seasons as a defensive coordinator, including three at Memphis (2012-14) and one at Missouri (2015), where his units were considered among the nation's best.

Highly-respected among his coaching peers for his integrity and for his championship vision, Odom worked through a rebuilding year in 2016 that saw Mizzou win four games. The Tigers closed the season out in strong fashion, with wins in two of their final three games - with both coming against bowl teams in Arkansas and Vanderbilt.

Odom was named the 32nd head football coach in program history on December 3, 2015, and his undeniable passion for Mizzou, coupled with his strong track record of success at each level of his career, pointed to him being the right man to lead the Tigers into the future in the nation's toughest conference.

In 2015, Odom turned in an outstanding season as Mizzou's first-year defensive coordinator under coach Gary Pinkel (who retired after that season), as his Tigers ranked ninth nationally in total defense, allowing just 302.0 yards per game. Since the NCAA began tracking defensive statistics in 1978, that marked the first time in MU history that Mizzou had produced a Top 10 defense. Odom's defense was also ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2 avg.), seventh in pass defense (169.2 avg.) and second in tackles for loss (8.8 avg.).

Prior to that, Odom became one of the more highly sought-after coordinators in the country due to three stellar years directing Memphis' defense from 2012-14. His 2014 defense was a key component of Memphis' 10-3 season, as his unit finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 avg.) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 avg.). That marked an impressive incremental improvement under Odom's watch, as Memphis ranked 117th nationally in total defense the season prior to his arrival. In his first season at Memphis, the defense improved to 50th nationally (383.6 avg.), followed by a jump to 39th in 2013 (370.7 avg.). Memphis earned a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference title, giving them a conference championship for the first time since 1971.

Odom, a Maysville, Okla., native played at Mizzou and starred as a linebacker from 1996-99. He ended his playing career with 362 tackles, which still ranks as seventh-most in school history. Odom was a captain for his senior year of 1999, and was a key figure on the Missouri teams which reached bowl games in 1997 and 1998, ending a 14-year postseason drought for Tiger fans.

Success followed Odom's career path at each future stop after his playing days. After earning his undergraduate degree in December of 1999, he served as an intern with Mizzou's Tiger Scholarship Fund while he worked on his Master's in Education from the University of Missouri (which he would earn in May of 2004). He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in July of that year to serve as an assistant football coach for his alma mater Ada High School, which finished that season as runners-up for a state title.

Odom was quickly back in his adopted hometown of Columbia, Mo., the next spring, as he took over as head coach at Rock Bridge High School. He quickly built the Bruins into a power, as they went 6-4 in 2001, and won a conference championship. He followed with an 8-4 campaign in 2002 that saw Rock Bridge reach the semifinals of the state championship playoffs.

Running a college program became a focal point next, and Odom began that path by joining the Mizzou football staff, first as an administrative graduate assistant for Pinkel in 2003. He spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons as Pinkel's director of recruiting as the staff assembled a core group which would help lead Mizzou to consecutive Big 12 Conference North Division titles in 2007 and 2008 which consisted of 12-win and 10-win seasons, respectively.

From 2006-08, Odom helped run Pinkel's program administratively as his director of operations. In that role, Odom oversaw coordination of the team's budget, travel plans (including bowl trips to the Sun, Cotton and Alamo bowls during that stretch), compliance issues, facilities operations and scheduling, as well as assisting with recruiting operations and managing the program's day-to-day overall operations.

As director of football operations, he coordinated all public relations activities and community service events that required the presence of Mizzou's football student-athletes, and also played a key role as part of the design and planning team that oversaw the expansion and renovation of the Mizzou Athletics Training Complex, which opened in February of 2008.

Born Nov. 26, 1976, in Lawton, Okla., Odom and his wife Tritia (Tia) were married in July of 2000. Tia is a native of Kahoka, Mo., and is a graduate of MU's College of Human Environmental Sciences. The couple has three children – sons James Trump and Garyt Robert, and daughter Anna Lockwood.

BRICK HALEY

SR. ASSOC. HEAD COACH/DEF. LINE
Third Season
Gadsden, Ala.
Alabama A&M, '88

Beginning his third year coaching the Mizzou defensive line is Senior Associate Head Coach Brick Haley, who has provided a huge impact both on and off the field for the Tiger program.

Haley's defensive line developed into one of the more disruptive forces in the vaunted Southeastern Conference in 2018. Mizzou's defense finished the regular season ranked 22nd in the nation against the run (fourth in the SEC), allowing just 122.9 yards per game to opponents. That per-game total was the lowest allowed by a Mizzou defense since 2009, when the Tigers allowed 118.6 rushing yards per game playing in the pass-heavy Big 12.

Senior DT Terry Beckner Jr. came back to play his senior season in 2018, after having the opportunity to leave early for the NFL, and one of the major reasons he cited in his desire to return for one last year, was the chance to continue learning his craft under Haley. The decision paid benefits for all involved, as Beckner turned in an outstanding season where he led the team in tackles for loss (11.0), and earned second-team All-SEC acclaim by both the league media and coaches. Sophomore DT Jordan Elliott also developed nicely in his first year playing for the Tigers, and was named second-team All-SEC by Pro Football Focus.

Haley's arrival at Mizzou paid immediate dividends in 2017 as the defense - led largely by the big guys in the trenches - ranked in the Top 25 nationally in both tackles for loss (13th in NCAA/1st in SEC - 7.7 avg.) and quarterback sacks (24th in NCAA/4th in SEC - 2.6 avg.). Haley oversaw the continuing development of several high-impact linemen, including senior DE Marcell Frazier, who earned second-team All-SEC honors after leading the SEC with 13.5 tackles for loss.

Also blossoming under Haley's direction was Beckner Jr., who had 10.5 tackles for loss and tied Frazier for the team lead with 7.0 sacks. In addition, redshirt freshman DE Tre Williams earned SEC All-Freshman Team honors for his play in 2017, which featured 4.0 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks and four quarterback pressures.

Haley came to Mizzou after enjoying great success for 19 years overall at numerous stops. In all, Haley – an outstanding recruiter and developer of talent – has logged 28 years as a full-time defensive coach, including three as defensive coordinator, and two as an assistant in the National Football League.

Haley came to Mizzou after spending the previous two seasons at Texas, where he coached the Longhorn defensive line. Texas' 2016 defense led the Big 12 Conference in both quarterback sacks (3.42 per game) and tackles for loss (7.6 per game), while ranking fifth and 16th nationally in those categories, respectively. In 2015, Texas ranked fifth in the NCAA in sacks. Prior to his time in Austin, Haley was at LSU for six seasons (2009-14), where he perennially directed one of the nation's most disruptive defensive fronts. At LSU, he coached 10 defensive linemen who were selected in the NFL Draft, including a pair of first-round picks in DT Michael Brockers (No. 12 overall in 2012) and DE Barkevious Mingo (No. 6 overall in 2013). Haley's line was key reason why the Tigers went 13-0 in the 2011 regular season and reached the 2012 BCS Championship Game.

Haley joined LSU in the spring of 2009 after spending two years as defensive line coach with the NFL's Chicago Bears. In Chicago, Haley coached a line that helped the Bears rank fifth in the league in fewest rushing yards allowed in 2008. The Bears finished sixth in the NFL in sacks in 2007, with DE Tommie Harris earning a spot in the Pro Bowl.

Prior to his stop in the NFL, Haley spent three years (2004-06) as the defensive line coach at Mississippi State. He helped improve a Bulldogs defense that finished 41st in the nation in 2006 after finishing 113th a year before his arrival. Defensive end Titus Brown developed into a second-team All-SEC selection after leading the team and ranking fifth in the conference in sacks in 2006.

Before arriving at Mississippi State, Haley coached linebackers for two years (2002-2003) at Georgia Tech, where he helped the Yellow Jackets to a pair of bowl games. In 2003, he coached a first-team All-ACC performer after Tech's trio of starting linebackers finished the 2002 season as the team's top three tacklers.

Previously, Haley was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Baylor (1999-2001) after coaching outside linebackers for one season each at Clemson (1998) and Houston (1997). The defensive line coach at Troy State from 1994-96, he was promoted to defensive coordinator following the 1996 campaign before leaving for Houston. Haley coached the defensive line at Austin Peay from 1991-93 after starting his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1990. His first coaching job was at Enterprise (Ala.) High School in 1989.

A native of Gadsden, Ala., Haley attended Alabama A&M, where he was a standout linebacker from 1984-88. He received Alabama A&M's Inspiration Award in 1987 and was named the team's Most Valuable Player in 1988. In 2005, Haley was inducted into A&M's Athletic Hall of Fame.

Off the field, Haley is passionate about raising awareness for autism, and he hosts a golf tournament each year with proceeds going to his foundation: Brick Road to Success. He and his wife, Tina, have three sons: Adrian, A.J. and Jeremy.

ANDY HILL

ASSOC. HEAD COACH/SPEC. TEAMS COORD.
24th Season
Trenton, Mo.
Missouri, '85

Andy Hill has now coached 23 seasons at the University of Missouri, making him the longest-tenured coach on the Tiger football staff. In fact, only one other assistant coach in MU football history ever enjoyed a longer tenure at Mizzou: Clay Cooper (29 seasons). Mizzou's 2018 Liberty Bowl appearance marked the 17th bowl game he has been part of as a player or coach with the Tigers – meaning Hill has had a hand in more than half of MU's 33 bowl games. In 2018, Hill began an exciting new area of emphasis as he became Mizzou's first-ever Special Teams Coordinator, after he'd coached MU receivers for 19 of the previous 22 years.

Mizzou's special teams turned in some key moments that helped the Tigers to their 8-5 record in 2018, including three blocked kicks on the season, which ranked as 19th-best nationally, and third-best in the Southeastern Conference. The punt team's net punting average of 39.43 yards per kick ranked 27th in the NCAA in 2018, and senior P Corey Fatony ranked 16th nationally in the individual punting stats with his 44.4 average per attempt.

Additionally, junior PK Tucker McCann continued his development into one of the SEC's more dependable kickers, as he connected on 24-of-33 field goals on the season, and ranked in the Top 10 nationally in two major categories: field goals per game (4th in NCAA with a 1.85 per game average) and points scored (9th in NCAA with 123 points). McCann nailed a game-winning field goal on the last play of the game on Sept. 15 to give Mizzou a 40-37 victory at Purdue, and he later nailed a 57-yard bomb in the final minute at South Carolina that would have stood as the game-winner, prior to Carolina's ensuing walk-off field goal. That 57-yarder was the second-longest field goal in Mizzou history, trailing only a 62-yarder by Tom Whelihan in 1986.

As receivers coach, Hill's wideouts made history as part of Mizzou's potent aerial attack in 2017 which ranked 14th nationally in passing yards per game (308.6) and sixth nationally in yards per completion (16.2). His star pupil was senior WR J'Mon Moore, who led Mizzou for the second-straight year with 65 catches for 1,082 yards and 10 touchdowns – making him only the second Tiger in history to post two 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Moore earned consensus second-team All-SEC honors in 2017, and was later drafted by the NFL's Green Bay Packers.

Fellow starters Emanuel Hall and Johnathon Johnson combined to form one of the nation's more potent receiving trios in 2017 for Hill and the Tiger offense. Hall emerged as one of the biggest deep threats in the country, as the junior caught 33 passes for 817 yards and eight touchdowns. His per-catch average of 24.8 yards ranked second-best in the nation, while his eight scores covered an eye-popping 49.5 yards on average, including 6-of-8 which went for 50 yards or more.

Johnson was no slouch himself in his sophomore season, as he caught 41 passes for 724 yards and six scores – averaging 56.5 yards on touchdown catches with four of the six coming from 65 yards out or longer.

In 2016, Hill transitioned back to coaching the wide receivers, a role that gained him some well-deserved recognition from 1996-2012, coaching some of the best players in Mizzou history. He has spent 2013-15 coaching Mizzou's quarterbacks, including mentoring true freshman starter Drew Lock in 2015.

In his second season as quarterbacks coach, Hill oversaw the development in 2014 of first-year starter Maty Mauk, as he learned the ropes of life in the SEC. Mauk helped guide the Tigers to an 11-3 record and an Eastern Division championship, despite losing some 73 percent of Mizzou's receiving production from 2013. Mauk still turned in solid numbers, throwing for 2,648 yards with a 25-to-13 touchdown-to-interception ratio. His stellar play in the fourth quarter of games down the stretch was a key to Mizzou's six-game win streak that ultimately clinched the division title.

Hill's work with the Tiger signal callers was outstanding in 2013, as he helped guide senior James Franklin and redshirt freshman Mauk to stellar play which keyed MU's run to the SEC Eastern Division championship.

Franklin was one of the top producers in the country as he averaged just under 300 yards of total offense in his 10 starts which saw him post a 9-1 record. Mauk took over the reins for a crucial four-game stretch in the heart of SEC play when Franklin went out with a shoulder injury sustained in a win at seventh-ranked Georgia in October. Despite his inexperience, Mauk helped navigate Florida, South Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky to the tune of a 3-1 record in those starts. Mauk earned SEC All-Freshman honors for his inaugural season, which included an 11-to-2 TD-to-INT ratio.

Regarded as one of the top recruiters in the country, Hill also has a long-standing track record of coaching success at Mizzou, as he helped develop three First-Team All-Americans in a span from 2007-2010 -- WR Jeremy Maclin, WR Danario Alexander and TE Michael Egnew.

Seven of Hill's receivers caught double-digit passes in 2012, and they were led by junior wideout Marcus Lucas, who had a team-high 46 catches for 509 yards, while adding three touchdowns. Freshman WR Dorial Green-Beckham showed flashes of why he was considered one of the top recruits in the entire nation in 2012, as he ended with 28 receptions for 395 yards and a team-best five TDs.

Hill coached several of the most prolific pass catchers in the nation, as well as in Mizzou history. In 2010, Egnew emerged as the nation's most productive receiving tight end, as he won consensus first-team All-American honors, and was a Mackey Award finalist, for a year that saw him catch 90 passes for 762 yards and five touchdowns. That was an astounding progression for Egnew, who caught a combined seven passes in his first two years as a Tiger.

Danario Alexander's 2009 season saw him lead the NCAA in receiving (137.0 yards per game), as he shattered school records for receptions (113), receiving yards (1,781) and receiving touchdowns (14). Alexander twice won Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week honors during his incredible 2009 season – making him the first receiver in the talent-rich tradition of the Big 12 Conference to win the honor twice in the same season. Alexander won first-team All-American honors for his efforts in 2009, and he ended his career holding the MU career record for receiving yards (2,778).

The 2008 season saw Hill work to develop sophomore Maclin into arguably the most dynamic player in the nation. Maclin set an MU single-season record with 102 catches, 1,260 yards and 13 touchdowns receiving, and he also led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage, with his per-game average of 202.4 yards. The game-changer won consensus first-team All-American honors for his play, as well as being named a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the nation's top receiver. Maclin chose to bypass his final two years of eligibility at Mizzou, and was taken with the 19th overall selection in the 2009 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Hill's group produced in record numbers during the Tigers' 10-4 season in 2008. As a team, Mizzou's passing attack shattered school records for receptions (404), receiving yards (4,625) and receiving touchdowns (41). Mizzou's passing attack ranked fourth in the NCAA in 2008, with a per-game average of 330.36 yards.

Thanks in no small part to Hill's work with the receivers, Mizzou's offense set myriad records in 2007, as the passing attack ranked ninth in the NCAA, averaging 314.07 yards per game. Two of his pupils, senior Will Franklin and freshman Maclin, earned all-league honors for their outstanding play in 2007, including Maclin, who was a consensus first-team All-American for his exploits as both a receiver and return man, in addition to being named first team All-Big 12 and Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year.

Hill helped develop WR Justin Gage into one of the top receivers in the in the country. After converting from quarterback in the spring of 2000, Gage caught 200 passes for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns in three seasons – all MU career receiving records. Gage left after 2002 holding virtually every game, season and career receiving mark on the Mizzou books, and made an impact professionally, where he was the Tennessee Titans' leading receiver in 2007 and 2008.

Hill is a Mizzou grad who walked on the Tiger football team in 1980 and eventually earned a scholarship. He lettered in 1980, '81, '83 and '84 and played on Missouri teams that earned trips to the Liberty, Tangerine and Holiday Bowls. In his career, Hill caught 51 passes for 946 yards and scored seven touchdowns. As a senior, he caught 25 passes for 445 yards and three scores. Following his playing days at Missouri, he spent time in the training camps of the Kansas City Chiefs and Calgary Stampeders in 1985 and '86.

Andy and his wife Sarah are the parents of a daughter, Patricia Ryan, and son Andrew. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from MU in 1985.

CORNELL FORD

ASST. HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS
19th Season
Gary, Ind.
Toledo, '91

Cornell Ford has coached 18 seasons at Mizzou and the 2019 campaign will be his fourth with the title of assistant head coach and working with the Tiger running backs. Ford's backfield continued to shine for the Tiger offense in 2018, as his top trio of backs combined to rush for 2,362 yards and 20 touchdowns, while averaging a healthy 5.1 yards per carry. The three-headed monster which included sophomore Larry Rountree III, junior Damarea Crockett and true freshman Tyler Badie was the second-most productive trio in the run-heavy Southeastern Conference, trailing only the top three backs from Georgia. Perhaps most impressive was the fact that no Tiger running back lost a fumble during the 2018 season, an impressive feat which includes a grand total of 499 offensive touches.

Rountree followed his outstanding freshman season by reaching the 1,000-yard mark in 2018. He led the Tigers and ranked fourth in the SEC (22nd in the nation) with his 1,216 yards, while his 11 rushing scores were seventh-best in the league. Rountree closed the year by rushing for 204 yards and a touchdown (averaging 7.6 yards a carry) in the 2018 Liberty Bowl against Oklahoma State. That total marked only the second time in MU history a Tiger has broke the 200-yard barrier in post-season play, and his season rushing total was the third-best ever by a Mizzou running back.

Entering 2019, Rountree's 1,919 career rushing yards are the most-ever in Mizzou history by a Tiger running back through his first two seasons.

Joining in on the fun in 2018 was true freshman Tyler Badie, who impressed immediately during fall training camp, and earned playing time right away. Badie came through with 809 all-purpose yards on the season, which was third-best on the team, thanks to his 437 rushing yards (two rushing TDs), 242 kickoff return yards (averaging 22.0 yards per attempt) and 130 receiving yards out of the backfield (most among Tiger running backs). Badie was named to the SEC Coaches Freshman All-SEC team, marking the third-straight year that Ford has put a freshman on that squad.

The 2017 season also saw outstanding production for Ford's backfield, with his top three backs combining to rush for 2,233 yards and 14 touchdowns, averaging 5.7 yards a carry. But it didn't all quite go according to plan, as sophomore Crockett – a 1,000-yard rusher as a true freshman in 2016 – was lost for the regular season in game six due to a shoulder injury at Georgia that required arthroscopic repair.

Ford adjusted nicely, however, and got veteran Ish Witter ready to carry the load, and the senior turned in the best results of his career. Witter ran for 1,049 yards and six touchdowns, averaging 5.6 yards per carry to lead the way. His play down the stretch was crucial in wins over Tennessee (216 yards, 1 touchdown), Vanderbilt (102) and Arkansas (170, 1 TD) as he turned in three-straight outings of 100 yards or more for the first time in his career.

Another exciting freshman came to the front under Ford's direction, in the way of Rountree, who ran for 703 yards and six scores while averaging 5.6 yards per carry. Rountree gained more reps as the season went on, and he contributed some highlight reel plays, highlighted by a career-best 155 yards against Tennessee, as the Tigers rolled up 433 yards on the ground in MU's 50-17 win.

The 2016 season saw Ford switch to the offensive staff, and his first season mentoring the backfield was a success, as his backs were a key reason why Mizzou's offense was one of the nation's most improved.

True freshman Crockett burst onto the scene and broke Mizzou freshman records for rushing yards in a season (1,062), and in a game (225 vs. Tennessee) while also setting MU frosh records for season touchdowns (10) and single-game touchdowns (4). Crockett's 96.5 yards-per-game average led the nation's freshmen in the regular season. He was joined by Witter, who continued his steady improvement by rushing for a solid 750 yards and six touchdowns.

Before working with the running backs, Ford spent 12 years coaching the Tiger cornerbacks, after he focused on MU's outside safeties his first three years.

Mizzou's defense was a key to its 2014 SEC Eastern Division title run, and the pass defense supplied by Ford's secondary played a big role. His corners contributed to a defense which ranked second in the SEC in pass defense (185.8 yds/game) in league games. Led by sophomore Aarion Penton, who had three interceptions, Ford's corners accounted for 23 pass break-ups combined, including a team-best 10 from Penton and nine from JUCO transfer Kenya Dennis in his first year with the Tigers.

Mizzou's secondary was one of the nation's most impactful in 2013, as the Tigers led the SEC and ranked fifth nationally with 20 interceptions. Ford's corners tallied nine of those picks, including five by senior E.J. Gaines, who won first-team All-SEC honors. Fellow senior Randy Ponder had a pair of interceptions, and freshmen Aarion Penton and John Gibson both grabbed one apiece, and gained valuable experience that bodes well for the future when Gaines was lost for two games to a leg injury sustained in a win at seventh-ranked Georgia that October.

Gaines became the highest drafted Mizzou cornerback since 1983 when he was selected in the sixth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams.

In 2011, Ford oversaw the development of Gaines into one of the nation's top young cover men. Gaines set a Mizzou record with 16 pass break-ups in his first year as a starter, and tied for fifth nationally with 18 passes defended overall (including two interceptions).

Both of Ford's starting cornerbacks earned All-Big 12 status for three-straight seasons (2008-10), including Carl Gettis and Kevin Rutland both in 2009 and 2010. The Tiger pass defense was a large reason for Mizzou's much-improved play in 2010, as MU led the Big 12 and ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 16.08 points per game. The Tigers also ranked 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense, with an opponent passer rating of 108.45.

In 2009, Gettis and Rutland were named honorable mention all-league by Big 12 coaches. Gettis ranked sixth on the team in 2009 with 61 tackles, and led the team with five pass break-ups, to go with having a hand in four turnovers in his third year as a starter. Rutland, in his first year as a starter, developed into MU's top corner, as he won honorable-mention all-league status and was named the team's cornerback of the year for his season, which included 47 tackles and a team-high two interceptions.

Both of Ford's starting cornerbacks earned All-Big 12 mention in 2008, with senior Castine Bridges and sophomore Gettis winning honorable mention all-league acclaim for their play on the Tigers' 10-4 squad.

Mizzou's cornerbacks turned in a solid 2007 season overall, and were a definite reason that the Tiger defense was one of the best in the Big 12 Conference. True freshman Gettis blossomed under Ford's coaching, as he became a starter early in the year and eventually won second-team Freshman All-American honors for his play.

In 2006 junior Darnell Terrell earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from league coaches, as the Tigers ranked second in the Big 12 Conference, and 37th nationally, in pass defense, permitting 185.69 yards per game on average.

Senior Marcus King blossomed into a big-play performer for the Tiger secondary in 2005, as he led the team with a career-high 13 passes broken up – including a record-breaking 99-yard interception return for a TD in the Independence Bowl win. King earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors by both league coaches and media for his efforts, and later went on to earn a free agent contract with the Dallas Cowboys in 2006.

Just about every one of Ford's cornerbacks had career years under his coaching in 2004, and that performance was instrumental in Mizzou's substantial improvement in defense. Thanks in large part to his cornerbacks, Mizzou led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked third nationally in pass defense in 2004, allowing an average of just 149.27 yards per game. His corners grabbed eight of MU's 15 interceptions in 2004, which was a nice team improvement from a total of nine in 2003 (including three from cornerbacks that year).

In addition to his coaching duties, Ford has worked hard to earn a reputation as one of the most well-trusted recruiting presences in his area of St. Louis. His hard work and straightforward approach has paid off, as he has successfully attracted stars such as Will Franklin, Jeremy Maclin and 2008 signees Blaine Gabbert and Wes Kemp to Mizzou. In 2009, he landed Gateway Tech superstar Sheldon Richardson, who was one of the nation's top overall prospects, and in 2010, MU signed a class which ranked 21st-best in the nation according to Rivals.com, and that was the highest ranking ever for a Tiger recruiting class. Ford was also successful in getting Missouri's foot in the door in other St. Louis schools where there hadn't been much Tiger success in recent years.

Ford holds a bachelor's degree (1991) in physical education and a master's degree (1993) in sports administration from Toledo. He and his wife, Dawn, are the parents of a son, Devin, and a daughter, Taylor.

RYAN WALTERS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES
Fifth Season
Los Angeles, Calif.
Colorado, '08

The 2018 season marked Assistant Coach Ryan Walters' fourth year at Mizzou, and his first full season as MU's defensive coordinator. During the course of the season, Walters got improved play from his defense, and that production played a big role in Mizzou's 4-0 romp through November on the way to an eight-win season and a bid to the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

In 2019, Walters will shift his position duties to take over the Tiger safeties, in addition to his defensive coordinator responsibilities.

Walters' defense made huge strides from a year ago in a handful of significant statistical categories in 2018. His squad ranked 22nd nationally in rushing defense (126.5 avg.), up from 58th in 2017 (159.6), and also improved to 50th in scoring defense in 2018 (25.5 avg.), up from 97th in 2017 (31.8 avg.), while also making a big jump in total defense, ranking 62nd nationally in 2018 (388.5 avg.), up from 82nd in 2017 (414.1 avg.).

As the Tiger secondary coach, Walters oversaw a unit that made big strides through the course of the season, emerging as a dependable unit. Junior CB DeMarkus Acy led the charge as he earned second-team All-SEC honors by league coaches for his stellar play down the stretch. Acy led Mizzou and ranked fourth in the SEC with three interceptions (including one he returned 76 yards at Tennessee late in the first half that helped spur the Tigers to a 50-17 road win), while he was second on the team with 10 pass break-ups. Senior safety Cam Hilton closed his Tiger career in fine fashion, as he picked off a pair of Oklahoma State passes in the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl that helped set the stage for a late Tiger rally that nearly led to a thrilling come-from-behind win.

The development of sophomore CB Christian Holmes over the second half of the 2018 season coincided nicely with the defense's improvement late in the year, as Holmes led the team with 12 pass break-ups, while nabbing a pair of interceptions - including one he returned 42 yards for his first career touchdown during an important Homecoming win over Memphis.

In December of 2017, Walters was promoted to the position of defensive coordinator prior to Mizzou's 2017 Texas Bowl appearance. Prior to the 2017 season, Walters assumed control of the entire secondary, after focusing on the safeties in his first two years with the program.

Walters oversaw a secondary that developed nicely during the stretch run of the 2017 season, as his group played a key role in Mizzou's defensive resurgence that helped lead to its six-game winning streak which led to Mizzou receiving a bid to play in the Academy Sports + Outdoor Texas Bowl against Texas.

Eight of Mizzou's 12 interceptions gained in 2017 came during the final five games, with six of those going to Walters' secondary. Senior safety Anthony Sherrils had a pair of pick-offs during that stretch, as did true freshman corner Adam Sparks, who emerged late in the year as a solid contributor despite his youth.

Walters came to MU from Memphis along with Barry Odom in February of 2015 when Odom took over as Mizzou's defensive coordinator, and he was retained when Odom was named head coach in December of that year.

Walters was a key factor in Mizzou's 2015 defense that finished in the top 10 nationally in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense. He came to Mizzou after spending the 2014 season as cornerbacks coach at Memphis, where he worked with Odom. At Memphis, the pair oversaw a defense that was among the nation's most improved. Memphis went 10-3 in 2014, thanks in large part to its defense that ranked fifth nationally in points allowed (17.1 avg.) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 avg.) in the regular season.

Walters, a Los Angeles, Calif., native, played collegiately at Colorado, where he was a standout safety for the Buffaloes (2004-08). He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Colorado working with the secondary in 2009, and then spent two years on staff at Arizona, where he was a graduate assistant in 2010, before being promoted to defensive backs coach for the 2011 season.

From there, Walters moved to the Oklahoma staff as a graduate assistant cornerbacks coach in 2012, as the Sooners went 10-3 and played in the 2013 Cotton Bowl. He moved to North Texas for the 2013 season, where he coached corners and helped lead UNT to a 9-4 record in its first year in Conference USA and a win in the 2013 Heart of Dallas Bowl. The Mean Green defense that season ranked fourth nationally in turnovers gained (34), eighth in points allowed (17.8 ppg), 13th in interceptions (18) and 17th in total defense (348.3 ypg).

As a player, Walters had a standout career at Colorado as a safety. He started in 33 games and played in 46 contests for the Buffaloes. He earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from the Associated Press and first-team All-Colorado honors from the state's National Football Foundation his senior year.

A team captain for the Buffaloes in 2008, Walters was also picked by his teammates as the team's MVP. He had 87 tackles, two sacks, seven pass deflections, three fumble recoveries and two interceptions his senior year. His 20 career passes defended rate No. 15 in Colorado history and his 223 career tackles were No. 45 all-time.

Walters earned his degree in history from Colorado in December, 2008 with dual majors in History and Ethnic Studies. Walters and his wife Tara have two sons, Aaron and Cason.

DEREK DOOLEY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QBs
Second Season
Athens, Ga.
Virginia, '90

In his first year with Mizzou, veteran coach Derek Dooley did a masterful job as the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Dooley's offense - which scored the second-most points in Mizzou history in a 13-game season (fifth-most overall) - was a major reason behind the team's success that led to an eight-win season and a berth in the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

When Dooley joined Head Coach Barry Odom's staff in January of 2018, he was charged with the task of changing the mindset of the offense from that of a quick-strike, all-or-nothing attack to one that was more ball-control oriented and more complementary to the Tiger defense. Look no further than the time of possession category to see the wildly positive results - in 2018 Mizzou ranked 40th nationally (sixth in the SEC) averaging 30:53 of clock time. That was a massive improvement from 2017, when the Tigers ranked next-to-last in the country (128th out of 129 teams) in time of possession, averaging just 25:01 per game.

While the Tigers became less of a lightning-quick attack, Dooley's offense still put up impressive numbers that kept Mizzou's offense as one of the nation's most potent. Mizzou ended the 2018 season ranked 13th nationally (third in the SEC) in total offense (481.8 avg.), 18th nationally (third in the SEC) in scoring (36.6 avg.) and 18th nationally (third in the SEC) in third down conversions (46.4%).

Perhaps most impressive was the fact that Mizzou was one of only three Power Five offenses to throw for at least 279 yards per game, while rushing for at least 200 yards per game. The other two were national champion Clemson (279 passing/248 rushing) and CFP semi-finalist Oklahoma (322 passing/247 rushing).

Dooley inherited senior QB Drew Lock as his star pupil, and much like the offense in general, Dooley's task with the nation's touchdown passes leader in 2017 was to help develop him into a more well-rounded quarterback and not just a gunslinger. While Lock's statistics went down ever so slightly in 2018, it was a huge net positive for him and for the team, as he became a better quarterback who helped lead the team to eight wins. Lock was a finalist for three major national awards (Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Lowe's Senior CLASS Award) and earned second-team All-SEC honors for his outstanding play, which included 3,498 yards and 28 passing touchdowns, to go with a career-best six rushing scores.

Dooley's offense was on point in the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl, as his Tigers broke a school bowl-game record with 637 yards of total offense in the narrow defeat. In the game, Mizzou threw for 373 yards (including a program bowl-game record three passing touchdowns by Lock) while running for 264 more.

Prior to joining Mizzou, Dooley was part of record-setting offenses all throughout his 20-year coaching career – including six years of collegiate head coaching experience.

For the previous five seasons, Dooley was with the National Football League's Dallas Cowboys as wide receivers coach, where he coached wideout Dez Bryant to three Pro Bowl selections. In Dooley's Dallas tenure, the Cowboys twice reached the NFL Playoffs.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Dooley served as head coach for the Tennessee Volunteers for three seasons (2010-12), earning a bowl berth in his first year at the helm. In 2012, Dooley's offense broke multiple records, including the second-most yards in a season (5,711), a school-record combined 1,303 yards in consecutive games (2012) and the fourth-most points in UT history (2012). Dooley was named Tennessee's 22nd football coach in 2010, and his first two recruiting classes included the SEC's leading receiver in 2011 and a first-team All-SEC selection, six Freshman All-Americans, and nine players who were named Freshman All-SEC.

Before his arrival in Knoxville, Dooley served as the head coach at Louisiana Tech from 2007-09 and also doubled as the school's athletic director for the last two years of his tenure in Ruston. As the head coach of the football team, Dooley led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 mark in 2008, including the school's first postseason victory in 30 years at the Independence Bowl. Tech finished second in the Western Athletic Conference that season and played in a bowl game for only the third time since joining the major college ranks in 1989. For his efforts, the Louisiana Sports Writers' Association named him 2008 Coach of the Year.

Dooley first joined the professional ranks as the tight ends coach for the NFL's Miami Dolphins from 2005-06 under Head Coach Nick Saban. During his two years in Miami, Dooley oversaw the continued development of tight end Randy McMichael, who ended his Dolphins career as the team's all-time leader in receptions by a tight end.

Dooley served on Saban's LSU staff as the recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach from 2000-02 and then running backs coach and special teams coordinator from 2003-04. He helped the Tigers land No. 1 classes in 2001 and 2003. The Tigers won SEC championships both of those seasons, claimed the 2003 BCS National Championship, and Saban promoted Dooley to assistant head coach for the 2004 campaign.

He began his coaching career in 1996 as a graduate assistant at Georgia under defensive coordinator Joe Kines. He then served from 1997-99 as wide receivers coach and co-recruiting coordinator at SMU, where Dooley helped the Mustangs to the school's only winning season over a 20-year stretch.

The youngest son of Georgia legend Vince Dooley, who coached the Bulldogs for 25 seasons and claimed six SEC titles and the 1980 national championship, Dooley never accepted the predetermined path to success. He played his college football at Virginia, turning down scholarship offers elsewhere to walk on and later earn his own scholarship from Cavaliers Hall of Fame Head Coach George Welsh.

He graduated with a bachelor's degree in government and foreign affairs, and then went on to earn his law degree from the University of Georgia in 1994. Before embarking on his coaching career, Dooley practiced law at a private firm in Atlanta for two years.

In Dallas, Dooley's receivers played a big role in rookie quarterback Dak Prescott's transition to the NFL in 2016. With the new signal caller adjusting to the Cowboys offense, he was able to spread the ball around among his new receivers. Leading the way was a breakout campaign from Cole Beasley, who led the team in receptions (75) and receiving yards (833) - both career-highs - and was second with a career-high tying five touchdowns. Bryant rebounded in 2016 to lead the team with eight touchdowns - which also included surpassing Michael Irvin (65) for the second-most career receiving touchdowns in franchise history - and was second with 796 receiving yards and third with 50 receptions to earn his third trip to the Pro Bowl. Overall, the unit tallied 20-of-25 receiving touch- downs on the year.

The 2015 season got off to a difficult start, with All-Pro receiver Bryant fracturing his foot in the second game - missing seven games - and Dallas starting four different quarterbacks after Tony Romo twice fractured his clavicle. Bryant finished with 31 catches and three touchdowns - including the 50th touchdown connection between he and Romo, breaking the all-time franchise record of 49 set by Troy Aikman and Irvin. Dooley coaxed big seasons from Terrance Williams and Beasley. Williams continued to be a big play threat, averaging 16.2 yards-per-catch on 52 catches with a team-leading 840 yards. Beasley set then career-bests with 52 catches for 536 yards and a team-leading five touchdown receptions. Under Dooley's watch, the receiving group accounted for 12 of Dallas' 16 touchdowns through the air.

In 2014 - Dooley's second season in Dallas - Bryant established a club single-season record with a league-best 16 touchdown catches while tallying his third consecutive 1,000-yard season with 1,320 yards (second in his career and tied for seventh in team history) on a team-best 88 catches en route to his second straight Pro Bowl nod. Bryant also became the third Cowboy (Bob Hayes, 4, and Terrell Owens, 3,) with at least three straight 10-touchdown seasons. Dooley continued the mentorship of second-year receiver Williams, helping the wideout finish second on the team in touchdown catches (eight), third in yards (621) and tied for fourth in receptions (37). In the postseason, Williams' three touchdown catches averaged 40.7 yards. Beasley also emerged as a clutch receiver, especially on third down, as 26 (fourth on the team) of his 37 catches went for first downs, including 11 (third) on third or fourth down.

Dooley's first season with the Cowboys coincided with the mercurial rise of Dallas' top receiver, Bryant. Under Dooley's guidance, Bryant built a successful campaign in his third season, leading the team with a career-high in receptions (93) along with 13 touchdowns (13) and 1,233 receiving yards - his second consecutive 1,000-yard season - en route to being named to his first career Pro Bowl. Bryant's 13 touchdowns marked his second straight 10-touchdown season, be- coming only one-of-four players in team history to do so.

Dooley was also responsible for teaching the pro game to rookie Williams who finished third on the team with 736 yards and five touchdowns and fourth with 44 receptions. Williams' totals tied for fourth in a season in club rookie annals in receptions and touchdowns and ranked fourth in receiving yards. As a whole, the receiving group was responsible for 22 of the team's 33 receiving touchdowns.

Dooley and his wife, Dr. Allison Jeffers Dooley, are the parents of sons John Taylor (a sophomore receiver currently at Georgia) and Peyton, and daughter, Julianna.

VERNON HARGREAVES

LINEBACKERS
Second Season
New Haven, Conn.
Connecticut, '86

Vernon Hargreaves is in his second season with Mizzou, after he joined the Mizzou Football coaching staff as inside linebackers coach in December of 2017. A well-respected veteran of the coaching industry, Hargreaves now has 35 years of collegiate coaching experience under his belt, including 28 as linebackers coach for some very successful programs. He will coach all Tiger linebackers in 2019.

In Hargreaves' first year with Mizzou, junior LB Cale Garrett blossomed into the undisputed glue of a Tiger defense that improved significantly during the course of the year, one that played a big role in MU's eight-win season and berth in the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Garrett was one of the main forces on the defense, as he led Mizzou and ranked seventh in the Southeastern Conference with 112 tackles, including 6.5 tackles for loss and six quarterback pressures. Garrett was named second-team All-SEC by league coaches, and also earned first-team All-SEC acclaim from Pro Football Focus for his efforts.

Mizzou's defense made huge strides from a year ago in a handful of significant statistical categories in 2018. The Tigers ranked 22nd nationally in rushing defense (126.5 avg.), up from 58th in 2017 (159.6), and also improved to 50th in scoring defense in 2018 (25.5 avg.), up from 97th in 2017 (31.8 avg.), while also making a big jump in total defense, ranking 62nd nationally in 2018 (388.5 avg.), up from 82nd in 2017 (414.1 avg.).

Hargreaves came to Mizzou after spending three seasons as linebackers coach (2015-17) at Arkansas. In 21 seasons coaching at the FBS level, Hargreaves' teams have now advanced to 17 bowl games, including a pair of appearances in the Bowl Championship Series National Championship while at Miami, Fla., where he coached linebackers from 1998-2005. At Miami, Hargreaves was the position coach for National Football League stars Jonathan Vilma, Dan Morgan and D.J. Williams, and he helped the Hurricanes claim the 2001 BCS title.

He helped lead the Hurricanes to a BCS National Championship title in 2001 and another BCS title game appearance in 2002. At Miami, Hargreaves helped mold Vilma, Morgan, Williams, Rocky McIntosh and Nate Webster into NFL linebackers. Seven of his linebackers at Miami were selected in the NFL Draft, including Morgan who won the Butkus Award, Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award in 2000.

The 2001 Hurricanes were one of the best defensive units in college football history, allowing just 9.4 points per game and only 138.2 passing yards per contest. Hargreaves helped Miami to a perfect 12-0 season, culminating in the 2002 BCS title game win over Nebraska.

During his three seasons at Arkansas, Hargreaves coached several award winners, including sophomore MLB De'Jon Harris, who was named second-team All-SEC by the Associated Press in 2017 after he finished second in the league with 115 tackles, a year after he earned SEC All-Freshman team honors. In his first two years at Arkansas, Hargreaves mentored Brooks Ellis into one of Arkansas' top producers on and off the field. Ellis, the team leader in tackles in 2015 and 2016, closed out his career with 290 tackles, was a four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member and became the first Arkansas football student-athlete to earn Academic All-America honors twice. Ellis was also named the 2016 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year and was honored as one of 12 finalists for the 2016 William V. Campbell Trophy, also known as the "Academic Heisman."

Prior to Arkansas, Hargreaves spent two seasons at Houston where he coached linebackers. In 2014, he helped the Cougars finish 8-5, including a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Pittsburgh in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl. The Cougars ranked second in the American Conference and 11th nationally with 30 forced turnovers and were 15th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 20.6 points per game.

In 2013, Hargreaves helped Houston rank as the third-most improved defense nationally after allowing just 21.8 points per game, 14.2 points per game lower than the previous season. Houston led the nation with 43 turnovers created and also led the country in turnover margin.

Hargreaves served as special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach at South Florida from 2010-12. The Bulls finished second nationally in tackles for loss and fourth nationally in sacks during the 2011 season, in large part due to the outstanding play of Hargreaves' defensive ends. He helped South Florida claim its fourth bowl victory in school history with a win in the 2010 Meineke Car Care Bowl over Clemson.

Hargreaves also spent three seasons as the special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach at East Carolina from 2007 to 2009. He helped defensive end C.J. Wilson earn back-to-back Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year awards in 2008 and 2009. Wilson was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 2010 NFL Draft and started at defensive end for the Packers in Super Bowl XLV. The Pirates played in a bowl game in all three seasons Hargreaves was on the coaching staff.

Hargreaves finished his playing career at Connecticut in 1983 where he was a two-time All-American. He earned all-conference honors twice during his career and was selected a team captain as a senior. His 393 career tackles still ranks sixth all-time in school history. Hargreaves was named a member of UConn's 100th anniversary team. The New Haven, Conn., native earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Connecticut in 1986.

He and his wife, Jackie, have three children: Carina, Vernon III and Chanelle. Vernon III played cornerback at Florida from 2013-15 and was selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the 11th pick in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

BRAD DAVIS

OFFENSIVE LINE
Second Season
Baton Rouge, La.
Oklahoma, '03

In his first year at Mizzou in 2018, assistant coach Brad Davis made a lasting impact with the Tiger offensive line, and helped transform the unit into one of the SEC's more physical lines. After being known as more of a finesse-rooted line in previous years prior to his arrival, Davis got to work right away to turn his group into a hard-nosed one that could take a game over in crunch time and control the ball when called for.

His group responded well, as the offensive line was a major reason behind Mizzou's eight-win season and berth in the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Look no further than the time of possession category to see the results - in 2018 Mizzou ranked 40th nationally (sixth in the SEC) averaging 30:53 of clock time. That was a massive improvement from 2017, when the Tigers ranked next-to-last in the country (128th out of 129 teams) in time of possession, averaging just 25:01 per game.

While the Tigers became less of a quick-strike, all-or-nothing attack, and more of a balanced, ball-control outfit, Davis' line still paved the way for impressive numbers that made Mizzou's offense one of the nation's most potent. Mizzou ended the 2018 regular season ranked 13th nationally (third in the SEC) in total offense (481.8 avg.), 18th nationally (third in the SEC) in scoring (36.6 avg.) and 18th nationally (third in the SEC) in third down conversions (46.4%). His line was especially stout once again at preventing negative plays -- Mizzou ranked sixth nationally (first in the SEC) in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.00 avg.) and eighth nationally (first in the SEC) in fewest quarterback sacks allowed (1.00 avg.).

Individually, Davis' group was led by junior RG Tre'Vour Wallace-Simms, who made enough of an impression on league media to win first-team All-SEC honors by the Associated Press, becoming Mizzou's first offensive lineman to win first-team All-SEC honors since 2013 (Justin Britt).

Davis joined Head Coach Barry Odom's coaching staff in December of 2017. He came to Mizzou after spending the 2017 season at Florida as o-line coach, and he brought with him 15 years of coaching experience, including the previous nine seasons running the offensive line at a variety of stops, during which time he coached 13 linemen to all-conference honors.

At Florida, the Gator offense was beset with injuries throughout the 2017 season, and Davis' offensive line was extremely young, as there wasn't a single senior in the two-deep by the end of the season. Despite the challenges, Florida still managed to rush for at least 165 yards in six consecutive games at one stretch, which was the longest streak for the program since 2009. In addition, Florida ran for more than 200 yards in three contests, while the Gator offense ranked second nationally in red zone scoring – converting at a 96.8 percent clip (30-of-31).

At East Carolina, Davis' line helped pave the way for the duo of running back Chris Hairston and quarterback James Summers to combine for 1,200 yards rushing and 16 touchdowns.

Prior to ECU, Davis played a key role in guiding prolific offenses at James Madison and Portland State. He was the JMU co-offensive coordinator and line coach during the 2014 campaign, and helped the Dukes to a 9-4 overall mark and the school's first Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoff appearance since 2011 after a third-place finish in the Colonial Athletic Association.

Davis and James Madison stood 10th nationally in total offense with a 484.6 yards-per-game average that year, and ranked 17th in scoring with a 35.7 points-per-game clip and 21st in both rushing and passing. Behind the play of Associated Press third-team All-America quarterback Vad Lee, the Dukes established numerous school records, including passing completions, attempts, yards and touchdowns. In addition to Lee and receiver Daniel Brown, Davis also had a direct impact on the development of another All-CAA performer, offensive lineman Mitchell Kirsch.

Before joining JMU in 2014, Davis spent five years at Portland State, serving as the run-game coordinator and offensive line coach as part of the program's pistol package. Under Davis, the Vikings had 10 players earn All-Big Sky Conference honors while ranking among the nation's leaders in fewest sacks allowed.

In 2013, senior tackle Mitchell Van Dyk was named first-team All-Big Sky and also earned third-team All-America honors by The Sports Network. The 2013 season was a record-breaking one for PSU. Davis helped lead Portland State to the Big Sky's total offense crown, second in rushing offense and third in scoring offense, while ranking third at the FCS level in rushing offense and total offense. The Vikings also set school records with 6,486 total yards, 3,330 rushing yards, a 277.7 rushing average, 540.5 total offense average and 36 rushing touchdowns. While there, he worked with standout center Cornelius Edison, and tight end Julius Thomas. Edison later won the Rimington Award for the best center in the FCS in 2014, and is now with the NFL's Minnesota Vikings, while Thomas is now with the Miami Dolphins.

In his last two years at PSU, his line surrendered only a combined 19 sacks to rank ninth (2013) and fifth (2012) nationally, respectively.

Davis was an offensive line staff assistant at North Carolina in 2008 and also spent two years as a defensive line graduate assistant at Texas A&M, as well as a coaching stint at Doane (Neb.) College in 2005 and 2006.

Additionally, he has been credited for developing five players who earned roster positions in the National Football League in the same time frame. Davis has also served two separate NFL summer internships, working with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2011 and Seattle Seahawks in 2012.

Davis, a Baton Rouge, La., native, is a 2003 graduate of the University of Oklahoma where he was a starting offensive lineman for the Sooners. He competed on two Big 12 championship teams, the 2000 National Championship squad and played in the Independence Bowl (1999), Orange Bowl (2001), Cotton Bowl (2002) and Rose Bowl (2003). Davis was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Lineman in 2002. Davis, 37, and his wife, Anecia, have two sons, Bradley and Brayden.

A.J. OFODILE

TIGHT ENDS
Fourth Season
Detroit, Mich.
Missouri, '01

In his first year as an assistant with his alma mater, assistant coach A.J. Ofodile transitioned nicely in 2018 into his new coaching duties guiding a very productive corps of wide receivers who played a crucial part in Mizzou's eight-win season and berth in the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Ofodile, who was an all-conference tight end at Mizzou and a six-year NFL veteran, will shift over to coach the Tiger tight ends in 2019.

Eight different wide receivers caught multiple passes under his guidance in 2018, and that group accounted for 170 receptions for 2,624 yards and 18 touchdowns, averaging a healthy 15.4 yards per reception in 13 games. Ofodile did a masterful job of navigating injuries throughout the course of the year, as his group opened the 2018 season expecting to be a veteran-led unit, only to have starting seniors Emanuel Hall and Nate Brown and junior Richaud Floyd miss 18 games combined due to injury. Those losses made for a big challenge, but the development of youngsters such as true freshmen Jalen Knox (27 catches, 419 yards, three touchdowns), Dominic Gicinto (15-171, 2 TDs), Kam Scott (8-214, 2 TDs) and Barrett Banister (8-88) gave hope that the future is indeed bright at the wideout spot.

When healthy, Hall showed that he was one of the nation's most dangerous receiving threats. Despite playing just nine games, Hall earned second-team All-SEC honors from league coaches after catching 37 passes for 828 yards and six touchdowns while averaging 22.4 yards per reception. He was also named first-team All-SEC by Pro Football Focus. Junior slot receiver Johnathon Johnson turned in a career-high and team-best 59 receptions, while racking up 737 yards and five scores on the year. Johnson closed the season in explosive fashion, as he caught nine passes for a career-best 185 yards and one touchdown while playing his hometown of Memphis, Tenn. in the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Head Coach Barry Odom promoted Ofodile (owe-FAH-delay) to the position of assistant coach in January of 2018. Ofodile, who served during the 2016-17 seasons on Odom's staff in the crucial role of director of recruiting operations, shifted to an on-field coaching role with the Tiger wide receivers as the program's 10th assistant.

The two recruiting cycles under Ofodile's direction produced outstanding results for Mizzou. The class of 2018 ranked 39th nationally according to Rivals.com, and produced 11 different true freshmen who provided immediate impact for the team throughout the course of the season. Prior to that, the 2017 class ranked 49th nationally according to Rivals.com, but immediately paid big dividends with several instant-impact performers who helped Mizzou to a seven-win season and first bowl game since 2014 in 2017. Fifteen members of the 25-man 2017 class saw the field in their first year with the program, including four who started during the course of the season, including DT Rashad Brandon, OL Yasir Durant, DB Adam Sparks and DB Jordan Ulmer.

Ofodile, 45, joined Odom's staff at MU in May of 2016, following a successful stint as head football coach at Columbia's Rock Bridge High School, from 2003-2015. Prior to that, he was an assistant coach and offensive coordinator for Odom at Rock Bridge during Odom's head coaching stint there from 2001-02. After Odom joined Mizzou's coaching staff prior to the 2003 season, Ofodile took over as head coach. In 2013, his Bruins were state runners up, reaching the state championship game for the first time since 1993.

A first-team All-Big Eight selection as a tight end in 1993 for Mizzou, Ofodile was a three-year letterwinner (1991-93), and finished his Tiger career with 73 receptions for 851 yards and six touchdowns. After an outstanding 1993 season which included 55 catches for 589 yards and four scores, he was drafted in the fifth round of the 1994 NFL Draft by Buffalo, and went on to spend six years in the league with Buffalo, Pittsburgh and Baltimore through 1999.

A Detroit, Mich., native, Ofodile earned his bachelor's degree in General Studies from Mizzou in August of 2001. His family includes wife Dianna, daughter Jasmyn and son Alex. Alex joined the Mizzou team as a wide receiver for the 2018 season, after transferring from Oregon.

GARRICK MCGEE

WIDE RECEIVERS
Second Season
Tulsa, Okla.
Oklahoma, '96

University of Missouri Head Football Coach Barry Odom promoted Garrick McGee to the position of full-time assistant coach, on Jan. 17, 2019. McGee, who will work in 2019 with the Tiger wide receivers, served the 2018 season on Odom's staff as a senior offensive analyst, and later took over coaching the Tiger tight end group on an interim basis for Mizzou's appearance in the 2018 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

McGee joined the Mizzou staff prior to the 2018 season as senior offensive analyst. In that role, McGee aided Mizzou's potent offensive attack with advance scouting of opposing defenses, where he helped break down video and provided initial direction for the coaches to design game plans and strategies. His work helped the Tiger offense develop into one of the nation's top units, as Mizzou finished the 2018 ranked 13th nationally (third in the SEC) in total offense (481.8 yards per game) and 18th nationally (third in the SEC) in scoring (36.6 points per game).

Prior to Mizzou's bowl game, McGee was named interim position coach for the Tiger tight ends, and senior TE Kendall Blanton (Blue Springs, Mo.) had a productive day, catching a career-high four passes for 35 yards and a touchdown.

McGee came to Mizzou with a wealth of experience at all levels of the game, as he previously had stops as a college head coach, as well as an offensive coordinator at four different Power 5 schools. He joined Mizzou after spending the 2016-17 seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Illinois. He previously served as an offensive coordinator for Northwestern, Arkansas and Louisville, and was the head coach at UAB for two years (2012-13). He also spent two years in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he was a quality control assistant under Tom Coughlin from 2000-01.

McGee's Louisville offense averaged 28.7 points per game and 416.1 yards per game in 2015, a year after the Cardinals scored 30+ points eight times and passed for 3,276 yards with McGee as offensive coordinator. He joined Bobby Petrino's staff at Louisville after spending two seasons at UAB and four at Arkansas, where he also worked under Petrino.

McGee helped Arkansas to final rankings of No. 12 in 2010 and No. 5 in 2011 during his two years as offensive coordinator for the Razorbacks. A year after leading Arkansas to a 10-3 record and the school's first BCS appearance in program history in 2010, McGee turned the Razorbacks into one of the most efficient offenses in the country in 2011. Arkansas led the Southeastern Conference in total offense and ranked No. 29 nationally at 438.1 yards per game, while scoring 40+ points on six occasions. The Razorbacks finished the year with a 29-16 win over No. 11 Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl, before having three offensive players selected in the NFL Draft.

McGee was influential in the development of quarterback Ryan Mallet at Arkansas. The former Michigan transfer broke 45 school records and was just the third SEC quarterback to surpass 3,500 yards passing in consecutive seasons.

Before departing Arkansas for the UAB head job, McGee was a finalist for the 2011 Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

Prior to his time at Arkansas, McGee spent four seasons (2004-07) at Northwestern, including the final two as offensive coordinator. Using the spread offense, McGee's 2007 offense led the Big Ten and was No. 11 in the nation in passing (307.9 yards per game), while leading the Big Ten and ranking No. 31 in total offense (427.7 yards per game).

McGee attended Booker T. Washington High in Tulsa and played for his father, the late Larry McGee. He played at Arizona State in 1991 and 1992 and went to Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in 1993 before transferring to Oklahoma.

McGee earned a bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in 1996, where he played two seasons and ended his career fourth on OU's career passing yards list (2,449 yards). He was voted the Big Eight Newcomer of the Year by the league's coaches in 1994.

McGee and his wife, Tiffany, have two sons, Cameron, and Grant.

DAVID GIBBS

DEFENSIVE BACKS
First Season
Auburn, Ala.
Colorado, '90

David Gibbs joined the Mizzou Football coaching staff on Jan. 17, 2019 and will coach the Tiger defensive backs in 2019. Gibbs is a 25-year veteran of the coaching industry, including 11 seasons as a defensive coordinator in the college ranks, and nine seasons as a defensive backs coach for three different NFL teams.

Gibbs came to Mizzou after spending the last four seasons as defensive coordinator (2015-18) at Texas Tech, where his defenses became known as one of the top turnover-creating units in the country. In 2017, Tech led the Big 12 Conference and ranked sixth nationally with 29 forced turnovers on the year, including four defensive scores, which was the most by a Texas Tech defense since 2001. From 2013-17, Gibbs' defenses at Tech and Houston forced a combined 140 turnovers, which was tied for most in the nation among any defensive coordinator during that five-year span.

Gibbs has previously served as defensive coordinator at Minnesota (1997-2000), Auburn (2005) and Houston (2013-14), and also took over as interim Head Coach for the Cougars' appearance in the 2015 Armed Forces Bowl. In that game, Gibbs' team posted the biggest fourth quarter comeback win in bowl game history, overcoming a 31-6 deficit with just 11 minutes remaining in the game to notch a thrilling 35-34 victory.

Gibbs was on staff at Houston for the '13 and '14 seasons with current Mizzou inside linebackers coach Vernon Hargreaves.

In his first season at the helm of the Red Raider defense, Gibbs preached the importance of forcing turnovers and the effects showed as Tech went from a minus-13 turnover margin in 2014 to plus-2 in 2015. The Red Raiders picked off 15 passes and recovered 10 fumbles in 2015, a year after forcing just 15 turnovers altogether.

Gibbs quickly changed the defensive culture at Houston shortly after his arrival prior to the 2013 season. The Cougars ranked as the third-most improved scoring defense nationally and ranked 20th in the country after allowing 21.8 points per game, a significant improvement from the 36 points per game Houston surrendered in 2012.

The 2013 Houston defense led the nation with 43 turnovers forced to help lead the Cougars to a nation's best plus-25 turnover margin. Trevon Stewart led the nation and set a UH record with six fumble recoveries while Adrian McDonald led The American Athletic Conference with six interceptions.

The dramatic defensive overhaul under Gibbs continued in 2014 as Houston finished the regular season ranked 11th nationally in scoring defense at 19.5 points per game and 19th nationally in total defense at 334.6 yards per game. The Houston defense was fifth nationally with 30 takeaways, including 19 interceptions, a number that ranked sixth nationally.

Prior to Houston, Gibbs' last collegiate coaching stop was in 2005 when he served as defensive coordinator at Auburn. The Tiger defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 15.5 points per game that season, while ranking 11th in sacks (39) and 16th in third-down defense.

On the professional level, Gibbs spent a combined nine seasons in Denver, Kansas City and Houston as a defensive backs coach. Teams sporting Gibbs on staff finished in the top 12 of total defense five times and advanced to the NFL Playoffs on three occasions. Three players under Gibbs earned NFL Pro Bowl selections in Champ Bailey, John Lynch and Deltha O'Neal.

Gibbs received his NFL start in 2001 with Denver where in his first year, the Broncos defense ranked sixth in the league for interceptions and ninth in total defense. In 2002, the defense improved to sixth in total defense and third in passing touchdowns allowed. The following two years saw Denver advance to the playoffs as the Broncos ranked fourth in the NFL in total defense both seasons. Both years also saw the squad finish sixth in passing defense and in the top 10 of scoring defense.

Following his one season at Auburn, Gibbs returned to the NFL in 2006 as a defensive backs coach with the Kansas City Chiefs. Gibbs spent three seasons with the Chiefs, assisting with a Kansas City defense that improved from 25th in total defense the year prior to his arrival to 12th overall. In 2007, the Chiefs improved to fifth in the league in passing defense while ranking fourth in passing touchdowns allowed.

The Chiefs allowed just one 300-yard passer in each of his first two seasons in Kansas City. After helping the 2008 Kansas City defense to finish ninth in turnovers forced, Gibbs moved to Houston where the Texans' pass defense improved seven spots to 10th in the league in passing defense in his first year.

Prior to joining the professional ranks, Gibbs became the youngest coordinator on the FBS level at the time as the then 29-year old took over as a defensive coordinator at Minnesota in 1997. Gibbs improved a Minnesota defense that had ranked last in the Big Ten in 1996 to one that was ranked eighth in the nation in pass efficiency defense and scoring defense by 1999. His defense helped lead the Golden Gophers to back-to-back bowl games in 1999 and 2000.

Under Gibbs' tutelage, Tyrone Carter won the 1999 Jim Thorpe Award and back-to-back All-America honors in 1998 and 1999. Defensive end Lamanzer Williams earned All-American honors in 1997 as Gibbs' defense produced an All-American in three-straight seasons for the first time at Minnesota since 1961-63. In addition, defensive end Karon Riley was named the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year in 2000.

Gibbs earned his first full-time coaching position in 1995 at the University of Kansas, where he coached the program's defensive backs. The Jayhawks advanced to just their eighth bowl game in program history in Gibbs' first year where they defeated UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Defensive back Dorian Brew earned All-Big Eight honors in Gibbs' first season while Tony Blevins and Jason Harris each earned All-Big 12 honors under Gibbs.

The Auburn, Ala., native was a four-year letterman at the University of Colorado from 1987-90. He started at defensive back for the 1990 national-title winning Colorado team and the 11-1 1989 team that finished fourth nationally in the final polls. Gibbs graduated from Colorado in 1990, earning Academic All-Big Eight honors as a senior.

Gibbs and his wife, Debbie, are the parents of two children – a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Charlie Grace.

ROHRK CUTCHLOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE
Fourth Season
Littleport, Iowa
Memphis, '98

One of the most vital staff hires early in Head Coach Barry Odom's tenure was that of Rohrk Cutchlow (pronounced ROAR-k) to join his new staff at Mizzou as Director of Athletic Performance. Now entering his fourth year at Mizzou, Cutchlow oversees all aspects of the Mizzou Football strength and conditioning program.

Cutchlow is a 20-year veteran of the athletic performance industry, and he's regarded as one of the top coaches in the trade. For the past 15 years, he's directed athletic performance for football programs, including four at his alma mater Memphis, where he played a big role in Memphis developing into one of the top programs in the American Conference. The Tigers won the AAC and finished 10-3 overall in 2014, and followed up with another strong 9-4 season in 2015, spending much of the season ranked in the top-25. During his time with Memphis, Cutchlow aided in the development of Memphis quarterback Paxton Lynch, a Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award finalist and a first-round NFL draft pick.

Prior to Memphis, Cutchlow served the 2011 football season as the director of strength and conditioning at Tulsa, where he oversaw a program that won eight games and played in the Armed Forces Bowl. Before that, Cutchlow directed football strength and conditioning at Illinois State for seven seasons (Nov. 2003-Feb. 2011). He served as the Redbirds' strength and conditioning coordinator his first three football seasons (2004-06), before being promoted to assistant athletic director for sports performance (July 2007). During his career, Cutchlow has worked with over 50 players who have gone on to sign NFL contracts, multiple Big 12 championship teams, 15 All-Americans and an Olympic Gold Medalist. He was one of five finalists for the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) College Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 2006.

From 2001-03, Cutchlow was the head strength and conditioning coach for Olympic sports at Iowa State, where he directed programs for 17 sports, including men's basketball and wrestling. In 2001, Cutchlow earned his master's degree in higher education administration from Iowa State.

A native of Littleport, Iowa, Cutchlow attended and played baseball at Memphis, where he was a three-year letter winner and a two-year starter at catcher for the Tigers from 1996-98. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in education, with an emphasis on exercise and sports science. He then pursued a professional baseball career, where he started at catcher for two years, one each for the Dubois County Dragons (1998) and the Evansville Otters (1999) of the Frontier League. He later would go on to serve two seasons (2002-03) as the strength and conditioning coach for the Chicago Cubs Triple-A affiliate, the Iowa Cubs.

A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the NSCA, Cutchlow holds additional Level 1 certification from USA Weightlifting and Functional Movement Systems (FMS). He is also a member of the National Association for Coaching Equity and Development.

Cutchlow and his family reside in Columbia.

MIKE KUROWSKI

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT
Third Season
Dallas, Texas
Oklahoma State, '00

Mike Kurowski is in his third season handling the vast and varied needs of the Mizzou Football program as its Director of Equipment Operations. Kurowski, who also oversees equipment operations for the entire Mizzou Athletics organization, came to MU prior to the 2017 season after spending the previous eight years in a similar role at Louisville, where he was the equipment manager for 2016 Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson. Kurowski oversees Mizzou's multi-million dollar partnership with Nike for all sports, and is the day-to-day manager of football equipment operations. One important aspect of his role will be to work with the coaching staff to develop new uniform and helmet concepts to the program in the future.

Prior to Louisville, he spent eight years in the National Football League as an assistant equipment manager with the Dallas Cowboys, and one season with the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL. With the Cowboys, he served the equipment needs of NFL greats such as Emmitt Smith, Terrell Owens, Tony Romo and Jason Witten, among many others.

Kurowski spent the 1998 season as an intern for the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He began his career in the equipment industry while serving for three years as a student assistant at Oklahoma State.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Kurowski graduated from Oklahoma State with a degree in marketing. He and his wife, Valerie, have two sons, Garyt and Madden.

BRITTANY BOEHM JONES

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
Third Season
San Ramon, Calif.
San Jose State, '11

Brittany Boehm serves the Mizzou Football program as Director of Operations, a role she earned after spending the previous two seasons as the program's Assistant Director of Operations. In this vital role, Boehm is involved in a wide variety of important administrative duties which support Mizzou Football. Some of the many duties are related to overseeing the coordination of all team travel, oversight of the football budget, handling compliance and academic issues, facilities scheduling and planning, assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day functions of the program.

The 2019 season will be her third with the Tiger Football staff, and fifth overall at Mizzou, as she previously spent two seasons as Director of Operations for the Mizzou Soccer program (2015-17).

Boehm came to Columbia from San José State, where she was the Administrative Assistant for the Deputy Director of Internal Operations (Marie Tuite), who oversaw the football program. Along with her football responsibilities, she handled other day-to-day operations within the athletic department.

Boehm was a four-year member (2006-09) of the San José State Spartans soccer team and in 2009 concluded her collegiate playing career as part of the regular season Western Athletic Conference champions. She was also a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) at San José State during her collegiate career and served as President in 2009-10.

A native of San Ramon, Calif., Boehm earned a bachelor's degree in liberal arts and sciences/liberal studies from San José State in 2011 and her masters of education from the School of Counseling and Psychology with an emphasis in positive coaching from Mizzou in 2017.

KYLE BLECHA

INTERIM HEAD FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER
1st Season
Ridgecrest, Calif.
Fresno State, '93

Kyle Blecha begins his first year with the Mizzou Football program in the role of Interim Head Football Athletic Trainer. While in his first year working directly with the team, Blecha is no stranger to Mizzou and Columbia. He begins this new role after spending the last five years as Sports Medicine Coordinator at the Missouri Orthopedic Institute, and working with Mizzou team physicians Dr. Pat Smith and Dr. Jim Stannard. Blecha has come full circle, as he previously served as a graduate assistant trainer at Mizzou in the mid-1990s while working on his master's degree.

From July 2000-January 2014, he was the Director of Medical Services at Western Michigan University, where he also served as the Broncos' head football trainer.

Prior to arriving at WMU, he served over three years as head athletic trainer at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Mo. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association.

He received his Master's Degree in Health & Exercise Science from Mizzou in 1995, and worked as a graduate assistant trainer with the Mizzou Sports Medicine team during that time.

As an undergraduate, Blecha was an athletic training student with the Fresno State Bulldogs, completing a bachelor's degree in physical education-athletic training in 1993.

A native of Ridgecrest, Calif., Kyle and his wife, Kelley, have two daughters, Alyssa and Sydney. Sydney is currently a student at Mizzou.

JAKE BRESKE

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING
Fourth Season
Webster, S.D.
South Dakota, '09

Jake Breske is in his fourth year on staff at Mizzou, and 2018 was his first in his current role of director of recruiting operations for the Tiger program. It was a very successful debut in the director's role, as Mizzou's staff put together a highly-acclaimed 2019 signing class which ranked 31st nationally by one outlet, and a ranking that has been surpassed at MU only twice in the last 10 years.

Breske joined the Tiger staff prior to the 2016 season as a recruiting assistant, and served in that role for two seasons before stepping into the lead role. He came to Mizzou after spending three seasons at Valley City State University (North Dakota), working with the quarterbacks in 2013 and picking up offensive coordinator duties in 2014 and 2015. The Vikings went a combined 21-10 in those three seasons, claiming a conference title with a 9-2 season in 2014.

Before that, Breske spent 2012 in an assistant coaching role with Webster (South Dakota) High School - his alma mater in his hometown of Webster. He began his coaching career with a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at his collegiate alma mater - the University of South Dakota, where he played quarterback and graduated with a Psychology undergraduate (2009) and a Masters in Kinesiology and Sports Science (2011).

Breske comes from a football family, as his father was a high school coach for 33 years and is a member of the South Dakota Football Coaches' Association Hall of Fame. Additionally, both of his older brothers played college football.

AUSTYN CARTA-SAMUELS

DIR. OF CHARACTER & CULTURE DEVELOPMENT
Fifth Season
San Jose, Calif.
Vanderbilt, '13

Beginning his fifth season on staff at Mizzou is Austyn Carta-Samuels, who was named as the program's first-ever director of character and culture development this past off-season. It's an important behind the scenes role that Carta-Samuels throws all of his passion into, after he'd spent the previous four years at MU in various roles, including recruiting graduate assistant (2015), recruiting coordinator (2016-17), and offensive quality control assistant (2018).

In 2018, 247Sports.com named Carta-Samuels, 27, one of its 30-under-30 assistant coaches on the rise.

Carta-Samuels was instrumental in recruiting record-setting QB Drew Lock to play at Mizzou, and as a former standout quarterback himself, he helped guide Lock on and off the field to his stellar Tiger career which culminated in 2018 as a second-round NFL Draft pick by the Denver Broncos.

Carta-Samuels began his collegiate playing career at Wyoming, where he became a starter four games into his freshman season of 2009, and led the Cowboys to a 7-6 record and a New Mexico Bowl victory over Fresno State in double overtime. It was UW's first bowl appearance and bowl win since 2004. He won Mountain West freshman of the year honors that season.

He later transferred to Vanderbilt in 2011, eventually becoming the starting quarterback and team captain as a senior in 2013, when he helped lead the Commodores to the BBVA Compass Bowl. He was forced to miss the bowl game, however, due to a knee injury. Before that, he amassed 2,383 yards of total offense, which was the 10th-most in Vandy history at the time. He was also named to the 2013 SEC Academic Honor Roll.

(NOTE — The passing efficiency formula has been used by the NCAA since 1979 to rate quarterbacks. The formula assumes that touchdowns are as good as interceptions are bad; therefore, these two figures offset each other for the average player. To determine Efficiency Rating Points, multiply a passer's yards per attempt by 8.4, add his completion percentage, add his touchdown percentage times 3.3, then subtract his interception percentage times two. 100 points is considered average.)

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS RANKINGS

Beginning in 1936, the Associated Press polled a group of broadcasters and sports writers from around the nation, asking them to rank the various college football teams. Although other polls have come and gone, the AP's is the only one that has run in the nation's newspapers every year since 1936.

From this point forward, AP rankings for Missouri and its opponents are listed. A number in parenthesis appearing before an opponent's name indicates Missouri's ranking. A number in parenthesis appearing after an opponent's name is its ranking. "R" indicates a team was receiving votes.

'THE 5th DOWN' — A GAME TO REMEMBER; A GAME TO FORGET

One of college football's most historic games took place on Faurot Field on Oct. 6, 1990, when the eventual national champion Colorado Buffaloes pulled out a 33-31 victory, scoring the winning touchdown on what turned out to be a fifth down on the game's last play.

With MU leading 31-27, Colorado embarked on a frantic march down the field in the final minute of play. Gaining a first down at the MU three-yard line, with 31 seconds to play, CU quarterback Charles Johnson spiked the ball to stop the clock. After regrouping, Eric Bieniemy charged up the middle to the one-yard line and Colorado called its final time out. Eighteen seconds remained.

It was here that the officials failed to notify the chain crew to flip the down marker from 2nd to 3rd down. When play resumed, Bieniemy tried to go over the top but was thrust backward by Tom Reiner, Mike Ringgenberg and Maurice Benson. The clock reached eight seconds, and officials ordered it stopped momentarily to clear the pileup.

Then, on what was fourth down, Johnson spiked the ball again. With two seconds to play, Johnson squirted over right tackle Mark VanderPoel. Hit by Reiner and Ringgenberg, he rolled over and extended the ball into the endzone and the officials signalled touchdown.

Pandemonium reigned for more than 20 minutes as those in attendance tried to determine just what had happened. But, with time expired, there was no avenue for appeal. What had appeared to be a major upset victory for the Tigers went into the record books as a bitter pill to swallow.

Colorado went on to win the Big Eight Conference championship, and with a victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, claimed a share of the national championship.

Here's how the play-by-play read of the game's final five plays:

1-G-MU 3	Charles Johnson pass incomplete
2-G-MU 3	Eric Bieniemy runs middle, gain of 2 (Tom Reiner)
3-G-MU 1	Bieniemy runs middle, no gain (Reiner, Maurice Benson)
4-G-MU 1	Johnson pass incomplete
5-G-MU 1	Johnson runs middle. TOUCHDOWN (PAT run failed)

The storied history of Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field combines the best of old and new. Opened in 1926, the stadium has seen tremendous growth throughout the years, but Tiger fans are proud of the traditional feel and atmosphere the stadium lends itself to on game day.

Debuting in 2019 will be perhaps the most significant addition ever added to the stadium's skyline – the new South End Zone complex. The facility, which houses the every-day operations of the football program, is a state-of-the-art operations facility which will also provide numerous new amenities for fans – the most visible which is a massive scoreboard/videoboard spanning the width of the building.

Multiple private club levels and 16 luxury suites are available for donors, as well as improved seating, concessions and restrooms for the public. The structure will have a price tag of $98 million, and capacity at the stadium will increase to approximately 61,000 when it opens in September.

Debuting in 2014 was a spacious new upper deck (called the Tiger Deck) and a beautiful lounge/club level just below (called the Walsworth Family Columns Club), which features 1,200 luxury seats and top-notch amenities. The Tiger Deck provides 4,200 seats, and with improved new public facilities.

Eye-catching ribbon boards, providing real-time stats, out-of-town scores and other information, were installed on the facades of both the east and west structures prior to the 2014 season.

Fans saw many changes for 2013, including a newly-renovated west press box/luxury suite tower, as well as a change to the historical hill beyond the north end zone.

The hill was moved closer to the field to allow for an expansion of the north concourse area – providing much more space for fans to congregate during games. The historic Rock M was broken down and stored away safely during the summer and brought back with the same rocks to maintain the important historical landmark that Tiger fans have grown to love.

Prior to the 2012 season, a sparkling brand-new FieldTurf field was installed on Faurot Field, to commemorate Mizzou's first year in the Southeastern Conference, as well as to reflect a new graphic identity partnership with Nike.

An exciting new addition to the game-day atmosphere was unveiled prior to the 2009 home opener, when a high-definition video board debuted. With a video display spanning 80-feet by 31 1/2 feet, the new display, to go along with an improved sound system throughout the stadium.

Among the features installed prior to the 2003 season was a state-of-the-art artificial playing surface, FieldTurf. The project to convert the old natural grass surface (on which Mizzou played from 1995-2002) began in April of 2003 and was completed on June 26th. The Tigers enjoyed great success on the surface in 2003, as Mizzou went a perfect 6-0 at Faurot Field, setting a school record for most home wins in a season.

The original stadium, built at a cost of $350,000, was the product of Coach Gwinn Henry's championship seasons of 1924-25, and a vision of athletic director Chester L. Brewer. It was carved out of "a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the University," chronicled Bob Broeg, longtime sports editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and unofficial historian of Missouri football.

MEMORIAL STADIUM/FAUROT FIELD HISTORY

Though the seating capacity is now at approximately 61,000, crowds in excess of 75,000 have seen the Tigers play in Columbia—against Texas in 1979, and a record 75,298 against Penn State in 1980.

Mizzou packed in a then-modern-day record crowd of 71,004 on Oct. 24, 2009 against Texas – marking the largest crowd to see a game at Faurot Field since 1983. That was matched in 2010 against Oklahoma during Mizzou's memorable Homecoming win over the top-ranked Sooners, and matched again in 2011 against Iowa State, and in 2012 versus Georgia, Arizona State and Alabama. Capacity dropped temporarily to 67,124 for the 2013 season, due to construction of the east side, and the reconfiguration of the Rock M hill.

Coach Don Faurot's powerhouse Split "T" teams in the late '30's and '40's helped pay off the stadium bonds—along the Faurot's brave scheduling of Ohio State for nine straight years at Columbus, and big paydays from games with NYU and Fordham back east.

Peak attendance in the Tigers' single-tiered football arena was 30,832, who crammed into temporary bleachers and sat on the hillside to watch Faurot's team upset No. 4 SMU, 20-14 in 1948.

A year later, the stadium underwent its first facelift with the addition of sections in the center of the west side, boosting the number of rows from 40 to 78. Those piece-meal additions continued sporadically until the summer of 1965, when the final two sections on the southeast corner were completed in the two-tired horseshoe.

The playing field adopted a new name in 1972 – Faurot Field—in honor of the legendary Mizzou football coach and athletic director whose teams and administrative leadership helped mightily to pay off the mortgage. As a matter of fact, Faurot, a graduate student in 1926, helped lay the stadium's sod. He made one last symbolic contribution to the field, dropping in the last square of turf in June 1995, when Mizzou converted its previous artificial surface to natural grass. Faurot died later that year, during Homecoming week.

The traditional block "M," carved from stone by the freshman class in 1927, guards the stadium's north endzone and gives Memorial Stadium one of the nation's more unique landmarks.

The "M," formed by whitewashed rocks, is 90-feet wide and 95-feet high. Mizzou's yearbook, the Savitar, recounted the debut of the Missouri landmark on Oct. 1, 1927, when the Tigers defeated Kansas State, 13-6:

"Five-hundred freshmen joined hands and encircled the cinder track in a single line while the bland played 'Old Missouri' in the center of the field. The pennants of all the Missouri Valley fluttered and danced above the stadium on the long line at the open end of the gridiron. A huge stone M – the work of the Frosh the night before – loomed up white and threatening against the bankment."

The "M" has weathered the good and bad times. In 1957, a group of pranksters changed the "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But, the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to its proper form before kickoff.

In 1995, Mizzou converted Faurot Field from an artificial surface known as OmniTurf (which graced the field from 1985-1994) to natural grass. The field was not the only cosmetic change made to Faurot Field in 1995. Grass-covered terraces now extend upward from field level to the grandstands, where they meet a brick wall that adds a traditional collegiate ambiance to the stadium. The hill on the north end of the field was re-graded to provide a consistent "bowl" and was framed at the time by nearly 600 bushes.

Over the last 40 years, upgrades to the stadium's superstructure have been made, giving the natural bowl the tender loving care it needs to remain as the home of the Tigers for many years to come.

In 1991, all of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum. Work in the stadium in 1995 also addressed accessibility issues. Seating sections and vomitories were modified to allow wheelchair access on both the east and west sides. Restrooms and concessions stands were replaced, as were the concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands in the next phase of the project, which was completed in 1997. The $12 million effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field leve in 1995, and parking lot improvements. A portion of the project was completed in 1996, installing four light towers for night games.

Faurot Field had an artificial surface once before 1985 – for its very first game in 1926. Construction of the sunken stadium seating 25,000 spectators went down to the wire in the fall of '26 with the heaviest September rainfall in 35 years contributing to the delay.

Time ran out before the playing surface could be sodded for the Oct. 2 opener with Tulane. Constant rains washed out a bridge east of Columbia, and though repaired in time, slightly more than 10,000 drenched fans showed up for the opening ceremonies.

Without sod, sawdust and tanbark were spread on the field as an alternative, and the Tigers and the Green Wave played to a "scoreless, mudpie tie," Bob Broeg wrote in his two historical books on Mizzou football.

- December, 1925 – Ground broken for future site of Memorial Stadium. It was carved out of a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the campus.

- Oct. 2, 1926 – Stadium dedicated in memory of the 112 Missouri graduates and students who died in World War I. Mizzou and Tulane played to a scoreless tie on a field that was a muddy disaster due to torrential rains that drenched the Columbia area prior to the game. The field was built with a 440-yard track encircling it.

- Oct. 1, 1927 – The landmark rock 'M' debuts at Memorial Stadium after members of the freshman class construct it with leftover rocks from the stadium project. The monument stood 90 feet wide by 95 feet high and has watched over the field ever since that day, when Mizzou defeated Kansas State, 13-7. The Tigers were a perfect 4-0 at home during the 1927 season, which helped boost MU to its third Missouri Valley Conference championship since 1924 under Coach Gwinn Henry.

- Oct. 13, 1928 – Coach Gwinn Henry's Tigers open the 1928 season by pasting visiting Centre (Ky.) College, 60-0. It remained as Mizzou's largest margin of victory at Memorial Stadium until a 77-0 win over Delaware State in 2016.

- Sept. 28, 1935 – Don Faurot makes his debut as Missouri Head Coach with a 39-0 whitewashing of William Jewell College. Faurot's first Tiger squad would go on to post a 3-3-3 record.

- Nov. 5, 1938 – Missouri blanks visiting Michigan State, 6-0. The win started a 20-game winning streak for the Tigers at Memorial Stadium, a record that still stands today. Mizzou would not lose at home again until a 20-13 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 13, 1943.

- Nov. 4, 1939 – Unranked Missouri defeats 10th-ranked Nebraska, 27-13, at Memorial Stadium to mark MU's first-ever win over a ranked team. Two weeks later, the Tigers, now ranked 12th, upset No. 5 Oklahoma, 7-6, at Memorial Stadium, and went on to win the Big Six title – the first of three league championships to be won under Faurot from 1939-42.

- Oct. 9, 1948 – One of the biggest upsets in Memorial Stadium history occurs, as the unranked Tigers ambush 4th-ranked SMU, 20-14.

- Summer, 1949 – Stadium undergoes first expansion as 5,000 seats are added to the center section of west stands, increasing the number of rows from 40 to 78. Also built was a new press box that included seating for 50 writers and featured eight radio booths.

- Dec. 1, 1956 – Don Faurot is carried off the field on the shoulders of his players after his Tigers post a stirring last-minute 15-13 win over rival Kansas in Faurot's final game as a coach.

- Oct. 25, 1957 – A group of pranksters changed the rock "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to its proper form before kickoff. The next day, Missouri used a last-minute touchdown to post a come-from-behind 14-13 win over the Huskers.

- Sept. 20, 1958 – Coach Dan Devine, the third Tiger coach in three years, makes his Missouri debut against Vanderbilt, but the visiting Commodores spoil the day by leaving Columbia with a 12-8 victory.

- Nov. 19, 1960 – One of the more infamous events in the history of Memorial Stadium took place, as the No. 1-ranked and undefeated Tigers were upset, 23-7, in the regular-season finale by unranked rival Kansas. The loss spoiled any national championship hopes for the Tigers, who would go on to beat Navy in the Orange Bowl and finish ranked as high as No. 4 in the UPI poll. It was later discovered that Kansas had used an ineligible player, and the game was officially forfeited by the Jayhawks, giving Mizzou a bittersweet administrative victory.

MEMORIAL STADIUM/FAUROT FIELD TIMELINE

- Summer, 1965 – Final expansion of original horseshoe completed on southeast corner that added 3,595 seats bringing capacity at the time to 44,344 permanent seats.
- 1968 – New press box and VIP lounge constructed by private subscription.
- Nov. 21, 1970 – Dan Devine coaches his last game at Mizzou, and fittingly, goes out a winner against Kansas, 28-17.
- 1972 – Playing surface named Faurot Field in honor of legendary coach and athletic director Don Faurot.
- Oct. 28, 1972 – Coach Al Onofrio's unranked Tigers upset No. 7 Colorado, 20-17. Five more times over the next four years, Onofrio's squads would upset ranked teams on the newly christened Faurot Field.
- Oct. 13, 1973 – Mizzou got one of its biggest wins ever at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field when the 12th-ranked Tigers defeated No. 2 Nebraska, 13-12, when a last-minute Husker two-point conversion pass was intercepted by MU's Tony Gillick. Nebraska had beaten Mizzou by a combined score of 98-0 the two previous years. It remains as the highest-ranked foe any Tiger team has ever beaten.
- Summer, 1978 – South endzone was enclosed with 10,800 permanent seats.
- Oct. 4, 1980 – Largest crowd to ever see a game at Faurot Field witnesses a 29-21 upset win by 19th-ranked Penn State over No. 7-ranked Mizzou. A record crowd of 75,298 saw the game.
- Oct. 15, 1983 – Musco Mobile Lighting brings in portable lights to illuminate a mid-afternoon game vs. Nebraska. Mizzou's defense holds Nebraska's "Scoring Explosion" offense somewhat in check, but still falls to the top-ranked Huskers, 34-13.
- Summer, 1984 – Glass-enclosed Tiger Lounge constructed in lower level of press box facility.
- May 18, 1985 – Project began to convert Faurot Field natural grass surface to new artificial surface called Omniturf. Project was completed on Aug. 30th.
- Sept. 14, 1985 – First game on Omniturf is an ominous 27-23 loss to Northwestern. Mizzou would finish the year 0-7 at home, with five of the games decided by a touchdown or less.
- Oct. 11, 1986 – Kicker Tom Whelihan kicks school-record 62-yard field goal in a 17-12 loss to Colorado.
- Oct. 6, 1990 – 12th-ranked Colorado escapes Faurot Field with a 33-31 win over Mizzou after benefiting from an officiating oversight that gave the Buffaloes five downs to score the winning TD on 5th-and-goal in the closing seconds. The "Fifth Down Game" helped propel the Buffaloes to a share of the national title that year.
- Summer, 1991 – All of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum.
- June 1, 1992 – Big Eight Conference coaches approve a statement that read, in part: "Big Eight Conference football coaches wanted to report that the football field at the University of Missouri is a detriment to the home and visiting teams and takes away from the integrity of the game played on such a field."
- Summer, 1992 – Facilities completed underneath south stands that give the Tigers a spacious game-day locker room, improved medical facilities including X-ray equipment, and a large interview room with enables 65 reporters to comfortably execute post-game duties.
- Oct. 8, 1992 – Musco brings in portable lights to illuminate the first-ever night game at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field vs. Colorado. In brutally cold and wet weather, the No. 9-ranked Buffaloes escape with a 6-0 win.
- Nov. 11, 1992 – Coach Bob Stull's Tigers close the 1992 season out with a 22-17 upset win over 22nd-ranked Kansas. Kicker Jeff Jacke set an MU single-game record by making five field goals in the game.

- Sept. 18, 1994 – Rock and Roll legends The Rolling Stones perform an open-air concert at Memorial Stadium before 45,000 fans. The concert helped provide nearly $100,000 toward the eventual project that converted the Omniturf surface to natural grass the next year.

- Nov. 19, 1994 – Mizzou loses its home finale to Kansas, 31-14. The game would mark the last played on the now infamous Omniturf surface. In its 10 seasons on the surface, Mizzou's record was just 20-38-3.

- June, 1995 – Project begins to convert Faurot Field from Omniturf back to natural grass. The grass, a blend of five Kentucky bluegrass varieties, was donated for the project by Gene Sandner and Darrell Seltsam of S&S Seed Farms/Evergreen Sod in Rocheport, Mo. Legendary Coach Don Faurot, who helped lay sod for the original field in 1926 at Memorial Stadium, put down the last piece of sod to finalize the newest version as a symbolic gesture. Faurot later died in October of that year, during Homecoming Week.

- June, 1995 – Grass-covered terraces were extended upward from field level to the grandstands, where they met a new brick wall, to give the stadium a traditional collegiate ambiance. The red brick eventually became a central unifying theme throughout the Sports Park at MU the evolved in the years to follow.

- Sept. 2, 1995 – Mizzou defeats North Texas, 28-7, on first game back on natural grass at Memorial Stadium.

- Summer, 1996 – Four light towers were permanently installed, giving Missouri the opportunity to play night games on a regular basis.

- Sept. 14, 1996 – First-ever night game at Faurot Field with permanent light system goes awry, as Memphis leaves with a 19-16 upset win over the Tigers.
- Oct. 26, 1996 – The first overtime game in Mizzou history results in a 35-28 Tiger Homecoming win over Oklahoma State.

- Summer, 1997 — $12 million renovation of Faurot Field was completed that replaced restrooms, concession stands and concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands. The effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field level in 1995, and parking lot improvements. Diamond Vision video replay scoreboard is installed as part of this project above the rock 'M', with a screen measuring 21-feet tall by 27-feet wide.

- Nov. 8, 1997 – Top-ranked Nebraska escaped Faurot Field with a 45-38 overtime win after a miracle TD on a 4th down in the closing seconds of regulation forced the extra period. The win helped propel Nebraska to a share of the national championship that year. The Huskers' miracle TD took place in the same North end zone where Colorado scored to win seven years earlier in the "5th-Down Game," prompting MU fans to believe there is a curse of sorts in the North end zone.

- Sept. 12, 1998 – Senior tailback Devin West rushes for a school-record 319 yards on 33 carries in leading the 25th-ranked Tigers to a 41-23 win over rival Kansas.

- April, 2003 – Faurot Field sod torn up to make way for switch to artificial surface and salvageable amounts given free to Tiger fans.

- June 25, 2003 – FieldTurf installation project is completed.

- Sept. 13, 2003 – The first game ever on FieldTurf is a success, as Mizzou crushes Eastern Illinois, 37-0, giving the Tigers their first shutout win since 1998.

- Oct. 11, 2003 – Mizzou, stinging from its previous game, an unexpected 35-14 loss at Kansas, rebounds to earn one of the biggest wins in recent memory, as the Tigers upset 10th-ranked Nebraska, 41-24 on a wet night that was televised nationally by TBS. The win, which came before a sellout crowd of 68,349, broke a 25-game Husker winning streak over MU, and it marked Mizzou's first win in Columbia over Nebraska since 1973.

- Oct. 25, 2003 – Mizzou becomes bowl eligible by getting its sixth win of the season in fine fashion, as it outdistanced Texas Tech and its Heisman Trophy candidate quarterback B.J. Symons, 62-31. Mizzou's QB extraordinaire Brad Smith broke a school record by scoring five touchdowns, as he rushed for 291 yards.

- Nov. 29, 2003 – On the Saturday of Thanksgiving week, Mizzou closed out a perfect 6-0 home record with a 45-7 win over Iowa State to earn its eighth win of the year. Senior tailback Zack Abron became MU's all-time rushing leader on a first quarter run.

- Sept. 10, 2005 – In a 45-35 loss to New Mexico, senior quarterback Brad Smith became Mizzou's career rushing AND passing leader on consecutive drives in the game's 3rd quarter.

- Nov. 12, 2005 – Record-setting quarterback Brad Smith closed out his Faurot Field career by leading Mizzou to a hardfought 31-16 win over Baylor. Smith, who would end his career holding as many as 69 different MU, Big 12 and NCAA game, season and career records, closed his brilliant home career by rushing for 161 yards and 3 TDs.

- Sept. 2, 2006 – Sophomore QB Chase Daniel makes his first career start, and promptly breaks the MU single-game passing touchdown record by throwing five scoring strikes in the 2006 season opener against Murray State.

- Oct. 6, 2007 – The 17th-ranked Tigers blitzed 25th-ranked Nebraska, 41-6, before a modern-day record crowd of 70,049. The win was MU's most lopsided over Nebraska since 1947, and Chase Daniel's 473 all-purpose yards was only seven shy of the MU record of 480 set by Brad Smith in 2005, also against Nebraska.

- Spring, 2009 – Work began on a new video board display to replace the aging board located on the top of the grass hill beyond the north endzone. The project was completed prior to MU's 2009 home opener on Sept. 12 against Bowling Green.

- Oct. 23, 2010 – Mizzou earned its first-ever win over a No. 1-ranked opponent as the Tigers posted a scintillating 36-27 comeback win over Oklahoma on Homecoming. The win was seen nationally on ABC and was also supplemented by the first-ever Columbia appearance by the ESPN College GameDay set.

- Sept. 8, 2012 – Mizzou played its first-ever Southeastern Conference game at Faurot Field, with SEC Commissioner Mike Slive on hand for the ceremonial coin toss to open the historic night. Mizzou played toe-to-toe with the No. 7-ranked Georgia Bulldogs, and held a 20-17 lead late in the third quarter before the Bulldogs scored 24 unanswered points the rest of the way to pull away for a 41-24 win.

- March, 2018 - South endzone structure demolished to make way for new football training facility and premium seating section, to debut prior to 2019 season.

#23 JOHNNY ROLAND

Johnny Roland undoubtedly was the biggest recruiting catch by Dan Devine during his 13 years as football coach at the University of Missouri.

Roland, of Corpus Christi, Texas, was Ol' Mizzou's leading rusher and scorer as a sophomore in 1962 with 830 yards and 78 points, respectively. However, he specialized primarily as a defensive back in his junior and senior seasons.

Capping MU's 1965 Sugar Bowl season, Roland was a consensus first-team All-American on defense. Yet, Devine utilized the 6-2, 207-pound athlete's talents to the fullest — often inserting Roland as a ball-carrier and a blocking back whenever the Tigers penetrated their opponent's 20-yard line. He also returned punts.

Roland shared the captaincy of the '65 team and became Mizzou's first back to win All-America laurels in 23 years. He went on to win NFL Rookie-of-the-Year with the St. Louis Cardinals, and went on to a long career as a backfield coach in the NFL. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

#23 ROGER WEHRLI

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career.

Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes.

A consensus All-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial All-Pro selection. Wehrli was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004, and later was also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

#27 BROCK OLIVO

Brock Olivo came to Mizzou with modest fanfare, but thanks to his legendary work ethic, he became one of the great inspirational players in school history.

A native of Washington, Mo., Olivo helped restore pride to his home state program that had fallen on hard times when he led the Tigers to the 1997 Holiday Bowl – MU's first bowl appearance since 1983.

Olivo made his mark at tailback and on special teams during a career that spanned from 1994-97. He left as the school's all-time leading rusher, with 3,026 yards, and his 188 points ranked him fourth on the career scoring list. Olivo became the first Tiger to rush for 200 yards in a game twice, doing so during his sophomore season with a 222-yard outing against Northeast Louisiana and following with a 201-yard day against Iowa State later in the year.

The Big Eight Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year in 1994, Olivo went on to ensure his spot in Tiger Football history when he won the Mosi Tatupu National Special Teams Player of the Year Award in 1997 – making him the first Tiger to ever win a national individual award.

#37 BOB STEUBER

More than 50 years after hanging up his competitive cleats at Missouri, Bob Steuber still ranks as the Tigers' 16th-best ground-gainer of all time.

Steuber was the big, fast back — a 210-pounder who could turn the 100 in 10-flat — who made Don Faurot's new-fangled Split-T formation such a rousing success in 1941 and '42. Switched from end to halfback as a junior and finished as the nation's number-three rusher in 1941, and the rushing runner-up in 1942. His career total was 2,030 yards, which stood as the Mizzou record for 28 years, until surpassed by Joe Moore in 1970.

He still holds the Missouri record for highest average per carry in a career (7.4), while his record of most career points (222) stood until 1992.

All-America in 1942, Steuber was drafted by the Chicago Bears, but entered the service, and later played professionally with the Cleveland Browns, L.A. Dons and Buffalo Bills.

#42 DAROLD JENKINS

A center-linebacker for Don Faurot's 1940 and '41 Tiger teams, Darold Jenkins was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1976. He captained the '41 Tiger club that was considered to be the best of Faurot's 19 Missouri teams, and went to the Sugar Bowl.

A native of Higginsville, Mo., Jenkins was named to 17 All-America teams in 1941. He later was a bomber pilot in World War II, and on his 27th mission was shot down. He spent 17 months in a German POW camp.

After discharge from the service, he served as trial counsel for the State Highway Commission. He died in 1986.

#44 PAUL CHRISTMAN

"Pitchin" Paul Christman set virtually all of the passing records at Mizzou, most of which stood intact for nearly 40 years.

Christman won All-America honors in 1939 and '40 and was MU's first player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. He is the only Mizzou player (until 2007) to finish among the top-five in Heisman Trophy voting, as he finished third in 1939 and fifth in 1940.

Following his career, during which he led the Tigers to their first conference championship and bowl appearance under Don Faurot, Christman served in the U.S. Navy from 1941-45.

He played four years of pro football with the Chicago Cardinals ('46-49) and finished with the Green Bay Packers in 1950. He was an accomplished network television analyst and commentator, teaming with Curt Gowdy on early AFL telecasts. A native of St. Louis, he died suddenly at the age of 51, in 1970.

#83 KELLEN WINSLOW

An All-American on and off the field, Kellen Winslow may be the greatest tight end ever to play the game. At MU, he was a two-time all-league choice and a consensus All-American as a senior. But the 28 passes he caught for 479 yards and six TDs in 1978 were just the tip of the iceberg.

During a nine-year career with San Diego, Winslow starred with Dan Fouts and Charlie Joiner in the most prolific passing attack ever unleashed on NFL gridirons. He caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and scored 45 TDs.

He's best remembered for a '81 playoff game against the Miami Dolphins, when he caught 13 passes and blocked a FG with :04 remaining to send the game into OT. San Diego went on to win, 41-38.

Winslow was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 1995, and was a 2003 inductee into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, and was honored in 2004 as an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award Winner. An attorney, Winslow previously worked as part of the Mizzou Radio team, and later served as the athletic director at Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wis., and then at Florida A&M.

Missouri has had 36 first-team All-Americans, 13 of whom have been consensus choices— center Darold Jenkins ('41), end Danny LaRose ('60), defensive back Johnny Roland ('65), defensive back Roger Wehrli ('68), tight end Kellen Winslow ('78), offensive tackle John Clay ('86), center Rob Riti ('99), tight end Martin Rucker (2007), all-purpose man Jeremy Maclin (2007 and 2008), tight end Chase Coffman (2008), tight end Michael Egnew (2010), defensive end Michael Sam (2013) and defensive end Shane Ray (2014).

1925 Ed Lindenmeyer, T

Mizzou's very first All-American, as he won the designation for the 1925 season. A native of Lake Forest, Ill., Lindenmeyer came to Mizzou and starred at both tackle and end, lettering in 1924-25-26. He earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 1925, and blocked a punt for a safety in a 9-6 upset win over Nebraska that season. Lindenmeyer lettered on Gwinn Henry's teams that had a stellar three-year record of 18-4-3. He later went on to coach at Lake Forest (Ill.) College.

1939 Paul Christman, QB

The legendary "Pitchin Paul" Christman came to Mizzou from Maplewood, Mo., and lettered in football in 1938-39-40, and in baseball in 1938-39-41. He was a three-time All-Big Six Conference quarterback, and twice won All-America honors. Christman finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1939, and fifth in 1940. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Chicago Cardinals (1945-49) and Green Bay Packers (1950), and led the Cardinals to division titles in 1947-48 and the league championship in 1947. In 1940, he led the nation with 1,131 yards passing and 13 TD passes. During his career, MU had a 20-8 record, with a Big Six title in '39, and its first bonafide bowl game – the 1940 Orange Bowl. The first Tiger player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (in 1956), his jersey (44) number is retired.

1941 Darold Jenkins, C

A faultless ball-handler, Missouri's Darold Jenkins was a mid- line magician during the early 1940s. He played the unheralded role of center, making coach Don Faurot's split-T formation click through a 22-7 record. On defense he played middle linebacker. In 1941, Jenkins captained the Tigers and led them to one of their most exciting seasons. They lost to Ohio State, 12-7, in the season opener, then ran off eight victories before bowing to Fordham, 2-0, in the Sugar Bowl. Missouri won the Big Six championship that year and Jenkins was named All-Conference and All-America. Jenkins was the leading center of his day and Faurot considered him a "play- maker" because of his ability to get the offense moving. After college, Jenkins served six years in the U.S. Army Air Corps logging 27 combat missions over Germany. He spent 16 months as a prisoner of war. When he retired from the military, Jenkins held the rank of lieutenant colonel. He returned to study law and, in 1952, became a practicing attorney, eventually joining the Missouri State Highway Commission. He died September 16, 1986.

1942 Bob Steuber, HB

A star halfback out of CBC High School in St. Louis, Mo., Steuber lettered at MU in 1940-41-42. He was a two-time All-Big Six selection, who won All-America honors in 1942, and is one of seven Tigers to have his jersey (37) retired. He still holds the MU single-season scoring record for a non-kicker (121 points in 1942) and ranks eighth in career scoring and 16th in rushing yards in school history. His 2,030 rushing yards stood as the MU record for 28 years. He posted MU's first 1,000-yard rushing campaign in 1942, ranking second in the nation with 1,098 yards. When MU led the nation in rushing in 1941, he was third in the nation with 855 yards. Steuber played in the East-West Shrine and College All-Star Games following graduation, then played professionally with the Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Los Angeles Dons and Buffalo Bills. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1971.

1955 Harold Burnine, E

An All-America receiver for Coach Don Faurot in 1955, when he led the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 594 yards. He led the conference in receiving in 1954, as well. The native of Richmond, Mo., was also All-Big Seven that year, and played in four all-star games – the Blue-Gray, North-South, Senior Bowl and College All-Star game. For his three-year MU career, Burnine caught 75 passes for 1,145 yards, figures that kept him in the Tiger top-10 until the l990s. He played professionally with the New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles. Burnine was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

1960 Danny LaRose, E

One of the greatest two-way talents in Missouri history, LaRose starred from 1958-60, as an end who could dominate the line of scrimmage, and was also MU's leading receiver as a sophomore and senior. He also punted for MU in 1960. A native of Crystal City, Mo., LaRose won all-conference honors in 1958 and '60, and was a consensus All-America selection in 1960 (making 13 teams), when Missouri beat Navy and Heisman winner Joe Bellino in the Orange Bowl. LaRose played in the College All-Star Game and Hula Bowl in 1961, then went on to a pro career with the Detroit Lions, Pittsburgh Steelers and Miami Dolphins. He was also an accomplished thrower in track, who held Missouri's indoor shot put record for many years.

1961 Ed Blaine, T

One of the greatest offensive linemen in Missouri history, Blaine lettered as a Tiger in 1959-60-61. He received All-Big Eight and All-America honors in 1961, and was an honorable mention selection on the Missouri All-Century Team. A native of Farmington, Mo., Blaine played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Senior Bowl and the College All-Star Game, after his senior season, on the way to a career in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers (1962-63) and Philadelphia Eagles (1963-66). In his post-playing days, Blaine established himself as one of the nation's foremost pharmaceutical researchers, and spoke at Mizzou's commencement exercises.

1962 Conrad Hitchler, E

A standout two-way end for Coach Dan Devine, who lettered at Mizzou from 1960-62. Hitchler led Mizzou in receiving in 1961, and was an All-Big Eight selection in both 1961 and '62. He earned All-America status as a senior, then went on to play in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl and the Coaches All-America Game. He played three years in the Canadian Football League as a member of the Calgary Stampeders. His son, Conrad Goode, was also an All-American offensive tackle for the Tigers in 1983.

1965 Johnny Roland, DB

Johnny Roland's career at Missouri had two dimensions. As a sophomore in 1962 he was a running back. He rushed for 830 yards, seventh best total in the nation, and scored 78 points, ninth in the nation. He rushed for 155 yards against Oklahoma State, 104 against Iowa State. When he returned for his junior year in 1964, Coach Dan Devine moved him to defensive back. He made All-America at this position in 1965. Roland stood 6-2, weighed 198, and was a power runner. Even in the years he was a defensive back, Devine occasionally moved him into the game on offense. He always picked times when Missouri had the ball inside the opponent's 20-yard line. In 1965 Roland also returned 42 punts and kickoffs for 690 yards, averaging 16.4 yards on each. He was Missouri's co-captain in 1965, and helped the team to an 8-2-1 record, including a 20-18 victory over Florida in the 1966 Sugar Bowl. Missouri retired his jersey, No. 23, and he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1998. He made All-Big Eight as a runner in 1962 and as a defensive back in 1964 and 1965. In 1965 he had six pass interceptions. He had an eight-year pro playing career with St. Louis and the New York Giants, winning NFL Rookie-of-the-Year honors with the Cardinals. He has gone on to a nearly 30-year career as a coach in the NFL.

1965 Francis Peay, OT

A Pittsburgh, Pa., native, Peay was a standout tackle at Mizzou in 1964-65, and won All-Big Eight and All-America honors as a senior when Missouri ranked third in the nation in rushing offense and won the Sugar Bowl over Florida and Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier. He was the Big Eight's lineman of the week following MU's 17-6 win over Minnesota that season, and later played in the Senior Bowl, Coaches All-American Game and College All-Star Game. He was a first-round choice of the New York Giants in the 1966 NFL Draft, and later played with the Green Bay Packers (1968-72) and Kansas City Chiefs (1973-75). Named to the Missouri All-Century Team, he was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1967 Russ Washington, OT

One of the most dominant linemen in MU history, Russ Washington was the Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-American in 1967. He was twice named All-Big Eight and played in four all-star games following his senior season. Washington starred in the NFL for the San Diego Chargers from 1968-83, and had two brothers, Wayne and David, who later played on the offensive line for Mizzou.

1968 Roger Wehrli, DB

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career. Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes. A consensus All-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial All-Pro selection. Wehrli will be enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

1969 Mike Carroll, OG

A powerful blocker who was selected a first-team All-American offensive lineman as a senior after helping lead Missouri to the 1970 Orange Bowl. That Tiger squad featured one of the nation's most high-powered offensive attacks, and the team finished the 1969 season as the Big Eight Conference Co-Champions with a 9-2 record and No. 6 national ranking. The 1969 team set school records at the time for points per game (36.2), total yards (4,507), passing yards (2,048) and touchdown passes (20). Carroll helped pave the way for running back Joe Moore to gain 1,312 yards rushing (3rd in the nation) and for quarterback Terry McMillan to rank 12th nationally in 1969 with 2,157 total yards. The Ste. Genevieve, Mo., native, played in the prestigious Senior Bowl following his senior season.

1973 Scott Anderson, C

A standout center on Missouri teams that played in the 1972 Fiesta and 1973 Sun Bowls, Anderson lettered for Coach Al Onofrio from 1971-73. An All-Big Eight and All-America selection as a senior in 1973, Anderson played in the Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American all-star games in 1974. He recovered a fumble that set up a touchdown that led to MU's 13-12 victory over Nebraska in Columbia in 1973. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Minnesota Vikings from 1974-77.

1973 John Moseley, DB

One of the most exciting players ever to play at MU, Moseley holds the distinction of being the only MU football player ever to go from walk-on to All-American. A defensive back from 1971-73, Moseley was a daring kick return man. He ranked sixth nationally in punt returns in 1973, with an average of 16.5 yards per return. For his career, he averaged 13.3 yards, which stood as the school record until recently. The Columbia, Mo., native was named All-American as a senior in 1973.

1975 Henry Marshall, WR

One of Mizzou's greatest receivers, Henry Marshall was an All-Big Eight and All-America choice in 1975, when he caught 44 passes for 945 yards and nine touchdowns. A native of Salina, Kan., he was a tight end when he lettered as a freshman in 1972, but moved to wideout while lettering in 1974 and '75. He played in the Blue-Gray Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Game following his senior year, then was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs, for whom he played from 1976-87, and in the process, unseated Otis Taylor as Kansas City's all-time leading receiver. He held the MU records for receiving yards in a game (207) and season (945) for 15 years, before both were eventually broken. A first-team choice on the Missouri All-Century Team, Marshall was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1976 Morris Towns, OT

Earned first-team All-American honors as a senior tackle in 1976, a year that saw Mizzou pull huge upset wins on the road against four top-15 teams: No. 2 Ohio State, No. 3 Nebraska, No. 8 USC and No. 14 Colorado. Was known as being equally adept at providing crushing run blocks as he was providing excellent pass protection. A St. Louis, Mo., native who was a three-year starter for the Tigers. He won first-team All-Big Eight honors as a senior, and went on to play in prestigious college all-star games such as the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl and the Japan Bowl. He went on to become the 11th overall pick of the 1977 NFL Draft, to the Houston Oilers, and enjoyed a fine nine-year professional career, playing with the Oilers for six years, and the Washington Redskins for three more.

1978 Kellen Winslow, TE

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Kellen Winslow redefined the tight end position at the collegiate and professional levels during his playing career. Before Winslow, most tight ends ran short- to medium-length pass patterns. Kellen was one of the first tight ends to run deeper routes due to his unique combination of size and speed. As a freshman, he only played in three games and caught one pass. The next year new coach Warren Powers installed an expanded passing offense in which Winslow and the Tigers flourished. That year Mizzou upset Notre Dame and Nebraska, two teams which were rated among the nation's top five teams, while Winslow's number of catches improved to 16. In his junior year, he won the first of back-to-back All-Conference selections. As a senior, he added consensus All-America honors to his list of accomplishments. Winslow went on to have a Pro Football Hall of Fame career in nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers, where he caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and nine touchdowns. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 2003.

1980 Bill Whitaker, DB

A ballhawking defensive back who had a nose for big plays in the secondary. Earned first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1980 after leading the Big Eight Conference with six interceptions, including three in a single game against San Diego State. Oddly enough, he also had three pass interceptions as a junior in a game versus San Diego State. His 14 career interceptions tied him for the MU career record at the time of his graduation, and still ranks second on the school charts. Also served double-duty as a punt returner, and was MU's top return man in 1980, as the Tigers went 8-4 and played in the Liberty Bowl. Went on to become a seventh-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in the 1981 NFL Draft, and played six years in the league, three each with the Packers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

1981 Brad Edelman, C

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Brad Edelman lettered as a standout center at Mizzou from 1978-81, and played on MU teams that appeared in four bowl games (1978 Liberty, 1979 Hall of Fame, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). He earned All-American status in as a senior co-captain in 1981, in addition to earning All-Big Eight honors as a junior in 1980. A member of the Missouri All-Century Team, Edelman played in the Hula Bowl and Olympia Gold Bowl all-star games following the 1981 season. He went on to a solid professional football career, playing in the National Football League with the New Orleans Saints from 1982-90 as an offensive guard. He was a Pro-Bowl starter in 1987, and was a Pro-Bowl alternate in 1982-83-84-88. Edelman worked as an actor in Hollywood for a period of time after finishing his pro football career.

1981 Jeff Gaylord, DT

A rugged defender who hailed from Overland Park, Kan., and lettered three years for Mizzou (1978-80-81), playing on MU teams that went to bowl games each year (1978 Liberty, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). Won Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors as a senior in 1981, making him to this day the only Tiger to win a conference defensive player of the year award. Was named All-Big Eight in 1981, and earned player of the game honors in MU's 1981 Tangerine Bowl victory over Southern Mississippi. Following his senior season, Gaylord played in the Blue-Gray Game, East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. He played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams, Toronto Argonauts and in the USFL, from 1982-85. He also was a professional wrestler for several years following his retirement from football.

1983 Conrad Goode, OT

An offensive tackle with good Tiger bloodlines, whose father, Conrad Hitchler, was an All-American end at MU in 1962. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Goode lettered at MU from 1980-83 and played on Missouri teams that appeared in three bowl games (1980 Liberty, 1981 Tangerine, 1983 Holiday). As a senior co-captain, earned All-America honors, in addition to being named All-Big Eight Conference. He played in the prestigious East-West Shrine all-star game following his senior season, and went on to play in the National Football League with the New York Giants (1984-85) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-89). Following his football playing days, became a successful actor in Hollywood, where he still works today.

1986 John Clay, OT

An earth-moving offensive tackle, John Clay was a St. Louis, Mo., native who earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 1986. He lettered four years for Mizzou, from 1983-86, and was a first-team All-Big Eight selection in 1984-85-86, joining former standouts Johnny Roland, Gary Lane and Phil Bradley as MU's only three-time all-league honorees in the Big Eight era. A team co-captain in 1986, Clay ended his collegiate career by playing in the prestigious Blue-Gray Game and East-West Shrine Game. He went on to become a first-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Raiders of the National Football League in 1987. He was later traded to the San Diego Chargers in 1988, but a back injury prematurely ended his promising career.

1998 Devin West, TB

He might have come to Mizzou from nearby Moberly, Mo., without much fanfare, but Devin West became one of the top running backs in school history before his playing days were done. Lettering for four years (1995-98), West ended his career as MU's No. 2 all-time career rusher, with 2,954 yards, and now stands number four. He would rank as MU's all-time leader if bowl games were counted in career totals during his day. Still holds MU record for all-purpose yardage in a season (1,621 in 1998) and game (333 vs. Kansas in 1998), and is fourth in career yardage (3,824). Was a first-team All-American running back (MU's first since Bob Steuber in 1942) as a senior in 1998, who helped lead Mizzou to an 8-4 season and a win over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl – MU's first bowl win since 1981. He rushed for 125 yards in the game. Rushed for an MU single-season record 1,578 yards in 1998, which ranked him fifth in the nation. Included in that total was a dominant 319-yard, two-touchdown rushing day against arch rival Kansas for Homecoming in 1998. Played in the Senior Bowl following the 1998 season, and was a semi-finalist for the prestigious Doak Walker Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top running back.

1999 Rob Riti, C

One of the best centers to ever play the game for Mizzou, Riti won first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1999, and became one of only seven Tigers to earn consensus All-American first-team honors. He was a key figure in MU rushing attacks that ranked among the nation's top-10 statistically three times. Started an MU-record 44 consecutive games from 1996-99, and helped pave the way for tailback Devin West to an All-American year in 1998 as the Tigers won their first bowl game since 1981, with a victory over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl. Was one of the strongest Tigers to ever don the Black and Gold, as he was the first MU player to record a 900-lb. squat lift in 1998, then topped that with a school-record 1,000-lb. lift in 1999.

2000 Justin Smith, DE

A first-team All-American as a junior who was virtually unstoppable, despite constant double-and even triple-teaming efforts by Tiger opponents. A fierce competitor with a tireless motor who left holding the MU career quarterback sack record, with 22.5 in just three years (now ranks second). Broke the MU single-season sack record in his junior year, recording 11 on his own. A native of Holts Summit, Mo., Smith declared for the NFL Draft after his stellar junior season, and became the fourth overall pick of the 2001 NFL Draft, by the Cincinnati Bengals, who he led in sacks each of his first two seasons in the league. Made an instant impression, as he became the first true freshman to start every game since 1986, when he started all 12 contests in 1998. Was a key factor for MU's defense that year that saw the Tigers earn their first bowl win since 1981, as they defeated West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl.

2007 Martin Rucker, TE

The top pass-catching tight end in Mizzou hsitory, Rucker won consensus first-team All-America honors as a senior in 2007 when he caught 84 passes for 834 yards and eight touchdowns in helping lead Mizzou to a 12-2 season and its first-ever Big 12 North Division title and a final No. 4 Associated Press ranking. Rucker was a vital part of the rebuilding of the Tiger program, and served as a leader and visual aid of the hard work and dedication needed to get the program back in the national scene. Rucker ended his Tiger career with a then MU-record 203 receptions, 2,175 yards and 18 TDs, as he started in an MU-record 50 consecutive games from 2004-07. His 84 catches in 2007 broke the MU single-season record, as well.

2007, 2008 Jeremy Maclin, All-Purpose

After missing the 2006 season due to a knee injury, redshirt freshman Jeremy Maclin burst onto the scene in record-setting fashion, and became MU's first-ever freshman to earn first-team All-American honors in 2007. He earned consensus first-team status by breaking the NCAA single-season freshman record for all-purpose yards, as he amassed a whopping 2,776 yards – including 1,055 receiving, 1,039 kickoff return, 375 rushing and 307 punt return. Maclin scored 16 touchdowns in all to become one of the most dynamic players in all of college football, with nine scores coming on receptions, four on the ground, two via punt returns and one on a kickoff return – the latter was an historic 99-yard kickoff return for score at Kansas State that was MU's first since 1982. He was the only player in Division I in 2007 to score touchdowns in all four all-purpose categories. He repeated with consensus first-team All-American honors in 2008 as he led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage (202.36 ypg) and broke MU single-season receiving records with 102 receptions, 1,260 yards and 13 TDs. In just two years, he broke the MU record for career all-purpose yardage, with 5,609 yards. He closed his career with Offensive MVP honors in the 2008 Alamo Bowl, as he returned a punt for TD and caught the game-winning TD pass from Chase Daniel in MU's 30-23 overtime win. Maclin chose to bypass his final two years of collegiate eligibility and entered the 2009 NFL Draft, where he was taken with the No. 19 overall selection in the first round by the Philadelphia Eagles.

2008 Chase Coffman, TE

Despite missing two games late in the year with a foot injury, Coffman established himself as the top tight end in all of college football, and won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors, marking the second straight year MU tight ends earned that distinction. Coffman surpassed former teammate Martin Rucker as MU's top pass-catching tight end of all-time, as he had 90 receptions in 2008 for 987 yards and 10 touchdowns. His play in 2008 not only earned him All-American honors, but won him the John Mackey Award, which goes annually to the nation's top tight end. That made Coffman the first Tiger in history to win a national individual award given to a specific position group. Coffman ended his career holding Mizzou records for receptions (247) and touchdowns (30), and was second all-time in receiving yards (2,659). He went on to become a third-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2009 NFL Draft.

2009 Danario Alexander, WR

Overcoming huge odds against him, Danario Alexander turned in a record-smashing senior season in 2009 to become the nation's leading receiver, and took home All-American honors in the process. Coming into his senior year, Alexander hadn't even earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 status, thanks mostly to the fact that his first three years were impacted by a string of unfortunate knee injuries. He was resolute in his determination to prove he belonged among the nation's elite receivers, and he did just that in 2009, as he burst onto the scene with an NCAA-best 137.0 yards per game average, which included an MU-record 1,781 yards, 14 touchdowns and 113 receptions. His yardage total was some 500 yards more than the previous record of 1,260 established in 2008 by Jeremy Maclin (in one fewer game, nonetheless), and it propelled Alexander to the top of the Mizzou career receiving yardage charts, with 2,778 (previous record was 2,704 by Justin Gage). He became only the fifth Tiger in history to lead the NCAA in an individual statistical category, and the first receiver since Hank Burnine led the country in 1955 with 44 receptions. Alexander had an MU-record nine 100-yard receiving games, including six straight to close the season. Included in that string were three 200-yard performances in a four-game stretch (214 vs. Baylor, 200 at Kansas State, 173 vs. Iowa State and 233 vs. Kansas). For his career, Alexander finished with 191 receptions for 2,778 yards and 22 touchdowns.

2009 Grant Ressel, PK

One of the more amazing stories to come out of college football during the 2009 season had to do with the previously unheralded sophomore walk-on kicker Grant Ressel, who rose from unknown status to become one of the nation's top kickers. Ressel began fall camp second on the depth chart as the Tigers looked to replace Jeff Wolfert, who left after the 2008 season holding the NCAA career record for combined kick accuracy. With those rather large shoes to fill, Ressel was named the starting kicker the week of the 2009 season opener, and proceeded to put together an amazing season which earned him All-American status. All he did was set an NCAA single-season combined kick accuracy record, as he connected on a combined 98.5% (65-of-66) of his kicks, including 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 on extra points. He also led the NCAA in field goal percentage among those with 13 or more attempts (96.3%) and finished third nationally with 2.00 field goals made per game. Also etched his name firmly forever into the hearts of Tiger fans young and old, thanks to his game-winning 27-yard field goal as time expired to beat rival Kansas, 41-39, in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium to end the regular season and give Mizzou its eighth win of the year.

2010 Michael Egnew, TE

After catching a grand total of seven balls combined in his first two years in the program, junior TE Michael Egnew burst onto the national scene in 2010 when he won consensus first-team All-American honors, thanks to a 90-reception season that included 762 yards and five touchdowns. His 90 catches were most in the nation among all tight ends, and it tied former Tiger standout Chase Coffman (a 2008 consensus All-American tight end) for the MU single-season receptions record among tight ends. Egnew, who was a finalist for the John Mackey Tight End Award, became the third Tiger tight end to win consensus first-team All-American honors in four years (2007-10).

2013 Michael Sam, DE

After beginning his career at Mizzou by earning freshman All-American honors, rush end Michael Sam finished with a flurry, as he became only the second Tiger in history to win unanimous All-American honors during a magical senior season. Sam was a disruptive force rarely seen – even for a program like Mizzou that produces standout defensive linemen on a regular basis – as he led the Southeastern Conference and ranked 19th nationally in tackles for loss (19.0), while he was 2nd in the league and 14th nationally with an MU single-season record-tying 11.5 QB sacks. Sam had a trio of three-sack games (Arkansas State, Vanderbilt and Florida), to get his name in the national conversation, and he capped his career with a bang as he got a trademark sack/fumble in the final minute of the 2014 AT&T Cotton Bowl that was picked up and returned by teammate Shane Ray for a game-clinching touchdown in the 41-31 win over former conference rival Oklahoma State. Sam would finish his Tiger career ranked fourth all-time on the sacks list, with 21.0.

2014 Shane Ray, DE

Shane Ray kept the #DLineZou bus rolling, as he made it two consecutive SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors, and won consensus first-team All-American status for an eye-opening 2014 season as he helped lead the Tigers to an 11-3 mark and a second-straight SEC Eastern Division title. Ray made play after play in opposing offenses' backfield, as he broke the Mizzou single-season quarterback sacks record, with 14.5 (breaking the old mark of 11.5 from former standouts Aldon Smith and Michael Sam). He also led the team with 22.5 tackles for loss and ranked all season long among the national leaders in both categories, finishing third in the NCAA in sacks and fifth in TFLs, while he led the SEC in both categories. Ray finished his junior campaign with 65 tackles, a team-best three forced fumbles and five pass break ups. Ray chose to bypass his final year of eligibility to enter the 2015 NFL Draft, and that decision paid off when he was taken with the #23 overall selection in the first round by the Denver Broncos.

2014 Marcus Murphy, Special Teams

One of the most electrifying all-purpose men to ever play for Mizzou, Murphy became a first-team All-American in his senior season of 2014 as he ranked sixth nationally in kickoff returns (29.6 avg.) and 11th in punt returns (10.4 avg.) while he also took home the Southeastern Conference Special Teams Player of the Year award. Murphy, who was a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award as a senior, led the SEC with his 1,921 all-purpose yards and was the only player in FBS in 2014 to score a touchdown via a kickoff return, punt return, rush and pass reception. He broke the Mizzou career record for combined kick return yardage, and had a game to remember at Florida in 2014, when he took the opening kickoff back 96 yards for a touchdown, and later in the same game returned a punt 82 yards for a score. Finished the season with 924 rushing yards, 212 receiving yards, 281 punt return yards and 504 kick return yards, and was instrumental in MU's 33-17 Citrus Bowl victory over Minnesota, as he ran for a career-high 157 yards.

2015 Kentrell Brothers, LB

A student of the game who parlayed his penchant for video study – along with his relentless work ethic and outstanding instincts for the game – into first-team All-American status as a senior in 2015 when he led the nation in tackles (12.67 per game) for a Tiger defense that was ranked among the nation's best in several categories (5th in points allowed [16.2 ppg]; fifth in passing defense [169.3 ypg]; sixth in total defense [302.0 ypg]). Finished his final season as a Tiger by racking up 152 tackles in just 12 games, while he also led the nation with three blocked kicks during the season. He tallied 12.0 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks in 2015, while adding a pair of interceptions as well. Finished his career with 358 total tackles, which ranks eighth on the all-time Mizzou tackles chart.

1974 Ed "Brick" Travis, T

Hailing from Tarkio, Mo., Ed "Brick" Travis starred as a high school player, dreaming of the day when he could play for the University of Missouri. But the promising young lineman decided to stay at home and play for tiny Tarkio College as a freshman in 1916. The next season, Ed Travis was summoned to Missouri and fitted for a Tiger uniform. World War I suspended football competition at Mizzou and sent Ed packing for military duty. The interruption didn't slow him up, however. He was back in Black and Gold gear for the 1919 season, anchoring the Tiger line with his bone-shattering performances. During his final two campaigns at Missouri, the Tigers won 12, lost 2 and tied 2. They were 7-1-0 in Ed's final season, losing only to Oklahoma. After his Missouri days – where he earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 1919 and 1920, Travis entered a three-year professional football career with teams in Rock Island and St. Louis. He was a stone-hard lineman, an immovable mass of muscle and bone. It was not unusual for "Brick" to clear out an entire side of an opposing line in a single play. He was inducted into the Mizzou Athletics Hall of Fame as part of its inaugural class in 1990. Prior to that, he was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1972, and later in the National Football Foundation/ College Football Hall of Fame in 1974.

COACHING LEGEND DON FAUROT

Don Faurot is widely recognized as the man who had the greatest impact on intercollegiate athletics at the University of Missouri.

Faurot's association with MU started when he was a young boy who'd sneak into old Rollins Field to watch the football Tigers play and practice. Later, he was a three-sport letterman at Missouri from 1922-24.

But it was as football coach and director of athletics that Faurot left his legacy on the University, and the sport. Even when he terminated his employment with the MU Athletic Department nearly 40 years ago, he never really found a way to retire, maintaining an office at the Tom Taylor Building where he spent several hours nearly every day. He was a regular attendee at football practice until his passing in 1995.

Faurot served as football coach from 1935 through 1956 — with three years out for Navy service during World War II. Aside from leading the Tigers out of debt and into football's big time, Faurot's tenure as football coach and director of athletics — a job he relinquished in 1967 — left MU athletics with its greatest legacy, the imprint of his integrity.

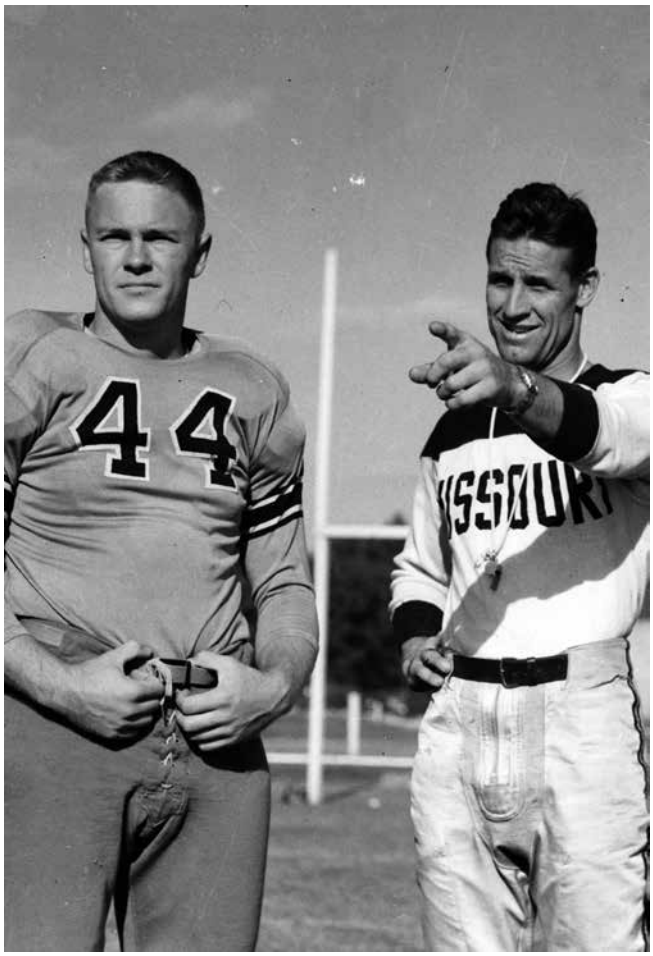

His prime contribution to football was his innovation of the Split-T formation at Mizzou in 1941. In the post-World War II era countless universities adopted the Faurot formation — and more than 60 years later, it is still in vogue today at all levels of football. Several of football's most notable formations — the Wishbone, Wingbone, Veer or I-attack and others — utilize Faurot's option play as their basic concept.

In 19 years as Tiger football coach, the Faurot record was 101 wins, 79 losses and 10 ties. His 1939 team, featuring All-American Paul Christman, won Faurot's first Big Six title and the Tigers' first modern-day bowl bid (Orange).

Though he inherited an insolvent department and a downtrodden football program at MU in 1935, Faurot left the department 32 years later virtually debt-free despite continual expansion and improvements. On a national level, his football teams of the late 1930s and early '40s projected the University of Missouri into the upper strata of collegiate competition.

He also accumulated a staff of coaches and administrators who spent long tenures at the University, and were honored by induction into their respective halls of fame — baseball coach John "Hi" Simmons, track coach Tom Botts, football coaches Dan Devine and Frank Broyles, sports information director Bill Callahan, and former head trainer Fred Wappel, among others.

Faurot was a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame, the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor, the Blue-Gray Game Hall of Fame, past president of the American Football Coaches Association, and recipient of the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his distinguished service in the advancement of the best interests of football.

COACHING LEGEND DON FAUROT

In 1972, the Tigers' football playing surface was officially named for him — something he said probably rated as his greatest personal honor. As a graduate student in agriculture in 1926, Faurot helped lay the sod on the field, prior to the opening of Memorial Stadium, that fall. In '95, he placed the final square of sod as MU successfully converted the stadium's floor back to natural grass.

Right up through 1994, Faurot was active as a talent procurer and coach for the annual Blue-Gray football game in Montgomery, Ala. He was secretary of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for many years, and was also the executive secretary of the Missouri Senior Golf Association. He spent a term after his retirement as assistant director in charge of special events for the MU Alumni Association.

Faurot's entire collegiate coaching experience, including nine years at Kirksville State Teachers College (now Truman State University) was spent within the state's borders. His career record was 169-92-13.

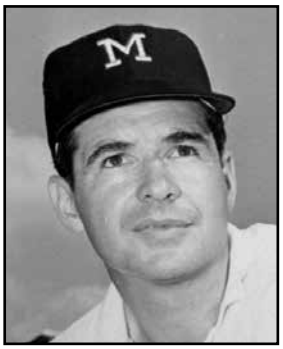

One of four brothers to win a football letter at MU, Don — the eldest — was a three-sport letterman in the early twenties. A lightweight fullback in football, he captained the basketball team, and was an infielder in baseball. He was born in Mountain Grove, Mo., on June 23, 1902. He passed away Oct. 19, 1995 in Columbia, the week of Homecoming. He was 93 years old.

COACHING LEGEND DAN DEVINE

If it's true that one must examine the past to appreciate the future, then there is no question that the legendary Dan Devine will always occupy a special place in the history of intercollegiate athletics at the University of Missouri.

For Devine is a part of both … football coach, and athletic director, during the 1960s when the Tigers were one of the most dominant teams in the nation; and athletic director for two separate terms during which he was involved in many decisions that will impact Mizzou's athletic future for many years to come.

Devine coached the Tiger football team during its most successful period. During the decade of the 1960s, Devine's winning percentage of .767 at Mizzou was the best of any college coach. He took the Tigers to six bowl games (winning four). In 13 seasons at Mizzou, he compiled a stellar 93-37-7 record. Throughout the '60s, Devine-coached Missouri teams ranked consistently among the nation's top-20 teams. Eight of his players were first-team All-America selections. When he left Mizzou after the 1970 season to coach the NFL's Green Bay Packers, Devine was the dean of Big Eight Conference coaches.

In the national polls, the 1960 Tiger team – Orange Bowl winners over Navy – achieved the highest niche, fifth in the final ratings, after having held the only number-one ranking in school history earlier in the season. The 1965 Tigers were ranked sixth nationally – and so was the '69 team. The 1969 Tigers were acclaimed by the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Ohio) as "the best major college football team playing the toughest schedule."

During his first term as MU's director of athletics (1967-70), Devine put into place plans for what resulted in the construction of the Hearnes Center, saw the construction of a new press box at Memorial Stadium, and hired Norm Stewart to resurrect what was then a sagging men's basketball program.

During Devine's second term as athletic director at MU (1992-94), his challenge was different – to increase fundraising for the athletic department, to improve MU athletic facilities, and to raise the spirits of the Tiger faithful.

The results will show that Devine was successful in every endeavor. Between 1992-94, he raised the funds necessary to enlarge the Tom Taylor Athletic Training Complex, a project that took less than one year to complete. He spearheaded the search committee that identified Joe Castiglione as his successor in the athletic director's chair, and hired Larry Smith to lead the MU football program – announcements that were made on the same day in December, 1993.

He took special pride in the accomplishments of the MU basketball team, often occupying a special seat on the Tiger bench during games.

In 1971, Devine became coach and general manager of the Green Bay Packers, where he was the NFL "Coach of the Year" after winning a Central Division championship in 1972 – Green Bay's only title for many years in the post-Vince Lombardi era.

He moved on as head coach at Notre Dame in 1975, and took the Fighting Irish to the national championship in 1977. During six years at NDU, he had a record of 53-16.

Devine returned to Arizona State in 1981, where he had begun as a college coach in 1955, to become executive director of the Sun Angel Foundation. Later, he served as director of community education and substance abuse prevention at ASU. In 1990, he received the Distinguished Arizonian Award, ASU's centennial medal, and was placed in the Arizona State Hall of Distinction.

With a 172-57-9 record overall, Devine was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1985. He was inducted into the State of Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1973, was a charter member of the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990, and also that year was selected by Tiger fans as the coach of MU's all-century team. He was later posthumously honored at Mizzou when the Tigers' indoor practice facility was permanently named the Daniel J. Devine Pavilion, in 1998.

In 1978, Devine's service as an Irish-American "to God and Country" was recognized with the prestigious John F. Kennedy Award. He served on the National Council on Alcoholism, and in 1987, was appointed by President Ronald Reagan to the White House Conference for a Drug-Free America.

Devine was first hired at Mizzou by Athletic Director Don Faurot in 1958, to replace Frank Broyles, who spent one year as MU's football coach. That was after Devine had compiled a 27-3-1 record in three sparkling seasons at Arizona State.

A Wisconsin native, Devine played football, basketball and baseball at Duluth State (now the University of Minnesota-Duluth), captaining the football and basketball teams. He enrolled there in 1941, but a tour of Army Air Force duty in World War II as a first lieutenant bombardier extended his graduation date until 1948.

Then followed two seasons of high school coaching at East Jordan, Mich., with a couple of unbeaten teams there undoubtedly providing a springboard for his jump to Michigan State, in 1950. There, he formulated much of his coaching philosophy during five years on the staffs of Clarence "Biggie" Munn and Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. He earned a master's degree in guidance and counseling at Michigan State in 1952.

Devine was born Dec. 23, 1924, in Augusta, Wis., and married the former Joanne Brookhart, with whom he parented seven children. Devine passed away in May of 2002 at the age of 77 in Phoenix, Ariz., after a year-long illness.

COACHING LEGEND GARY PINKEL

When Mizzou was looking for its newest head coach to lead its football program after a coaching change following the 2000 season, Gary Pinkel was the choice. And what a choice it was.

Pinkel used his disciplined approach and focus on a family environment and transformed Mizzou into a national program after taking over on Nov. 30, 2000, and concluded his career as the winningest coach in school history. He amassed a 118-73 record at Mizzou in 15 seasons, and his 191 career wins stood as the 19th-most all-time in NCAA FBS history at the time of his retirement following the 2015 season.

Prior to Mizzou, Pinkel also became the winningest coach in history at Toledo, where he won 73 games from 1991-2000 – making him one of only three coaches who are currently the winningest for two different Division I programs. The other two include Paul "Bear" Bryant (Kentucky, Alabama) and Steve Spurrier (Florida, South Carolina).

Under his guidance, Mizzou won five conference divisional titles (2007, 2008, 2010, 2013, 2014), reached 10 bowl games (winning six) and had five teams post a final top-20 national ranking (including two top-five finishes). His Tigers posted winning seasons in 10-of-15 years, following a stretch where Mizzou had only two winning seasons in the 17 seasons (1984-2000) prior to his arrival. He was named the National Coach of the Year in 2007 by FieldTurf, and won conference coach of the year honors in 2007 (Big 12) and 2014 (SEC).

Two times, Pinkel had his Tigers one win away from playing for a national championship, as wins in the 2007 and 2013 conference championship games likely would have propelled MU into national title game appearances.

In 2007, Mizzou surged to the school's first number one national ranking since 1960 after a watershed win over rival Kansas at Arrowhead Stadium on Nov. 24, 2007, when the Tigers were ranked fourth and the Jayhawks second coming into the game. That team would eventually end the season with a school-record 12 wins that included a Cotton Bowl title and final national ranking of fourth.

Pinkel worked perhaps his finest coaching job in 2013, one year after Mizzou joined the vaunted Southeastern Conference and suffered an injury-plagued 5-7 season in 2012. Picked to finish sixth out of seven teams in the SEC Eastern Division by pre-season pundits, the Tigers jumped out to a 7-0 record and finished 11-1 and East Division champs. They would go on to a 12-win season, with another Cotton Bowl title, and final national ranking of fifth.

Off the field, Pinkel's transformation of the Mizzou program into a national player played a crucial role in the University of Missouri being in position to join the Southeastern Conference in 2012. Had MU not realized the success it did under Pinkel and staff, the school very likely would not have been granted membership into the vaunted league.

A testament to the consistency that Pinkel and his staff have developed at Mizzou is the fact that MU was one of only six schools in BCS-AQ conferences to have posted at least eight wins each season from 2006-11. The others in that very select group included: LSU, Oklahoma, USC, Virginia Tech and West Virginia.

In 2010, Mizzou posted its third 10-win season in four years under Pinkel, as MU went 10-3 overall, including a 6-2 mark in Big 12 Conference play that earned it a spot atop the North Division rankings for the third time since 2007. Included among those 10 wins was a watershed moment for the program, and for Tiger Nation overall – a 36-27 win over top-ranked Oklahoma on Homecoming, which marked the first-ever win by Mizzou over a #1-ranked team.

A sign of growing respect for the work that Pinkel and his staff did to build the program came along with that win over Oklahoma. That week, Mizzou was the focal point of the entire college football universe, as ESPN sent its wildly popular traveling show, "ESPN GameDay," to the MU campus. A record crowd of an estimated 18,000 Tiger fans packed the picturesque Francis Quadrangle for the Saturday morning show, and made everyone associated with the school glow with pride. A national audience watched the GameDay program, and then the nation promptly watched the Tigers pull away in the fourth quarter against the Sooners to move to 7-0 on a season for only the third time in school history.

Long considered a "sleeping giant" of a program, Mizzou had a breakthrough 2003 season under Pinkel's guidance. The eight regular-season wins marked the first time since 1980 – and only the fourth time since 1960 – that MU had amassed that many wins in the regular season. The team became only the ninth in MU's history to accomplish the feat.

Mizzou's 41-24 win over #10 Nebraska on Oct. 11th was one for the history books, as it broke a 24-game losing streak to the Huskers for MU, making Pinkel the first Tiger coach to beat Nebraska since Warren Powers in 1978.

The Nebraska win also marked MU's first victory over a top-10 opponent since 1981, breaking a string of 45-straight losses to top-10 foes for the school.

Pinkel's emphasis on molding young men into successful student-athletes was evidenced by the great achievements they had in the classroom. Mizzou improved its NCAA Graduation Success Rate for nine-straight years, and graduated 97 percent of its seniors in Pinkel's final five seasons.

Getting athletes to the next level was another mark of success for Pinkel and his program. In his time at Mizzou, 35 Tigers were selected in the NFL Draft, including seven in the first round. Mizzou had 12 players taken in the first round of the NFL Draft in the previous 64 years combined (1937-2001) prior to Pinkel taking over.

Pinkel came to Missouri after spending 10 very successful years as head coach at Toledo (1991-2000), where he amassed an impressive 73-37-3 record and left as UT's all-time winningest coach. Prior to becoming a head coach, Pinkel learned the trade from one of the all-time great coaches, the legendary Don James. For 12 years as an assistant under James at Washington (1979-90), Pinkel helped guide the Huskies to a combined record of 104-37-2 (73.4%) and three Pac-10 Conference titles. He served as UW's offensive coordinator for seven seasons (1984-90), and helped mold one of the nation's most potent offensive attacks.

Pinkel played under James at Kent State University, where he was an all-conference and honorable mention All-American tight end. He received his bachelor of science degree in education from Kent in 1973, and did post-graduate studies at Kent and Bowling Green.

THE TIGER NICKNAME

The nickname "Tigers," given to Mizzou's athletic teams, traces its origin to the Civil War period. At that time, plundering guerilla bands habitually raided small towns, and Columbia people constantly feared an attack. Such organizations as temporary "home guards" and vigilance companies banded together to fight off any possible forays.

The town's preparedness discouraged any guerilla activity and the protecting organization began to disband in 1854. However, it was rumored that a guerilla band, led by the notorious Bill Anderson, intended to sack the town. Quickly organized was an armed guard of Columbia citizens, who built a blockhouse and fortified the old courthouse in the center of town. This company was called "The Missouri Tigers."

The marauders never came. The reputation of the intrepid "Tigers" presumably traveled abroad, and Anderson's gang detoured around Columbia.

Soon after Missouri's first football team was organized in 1890, the athletic committee adopted the nickname "Tiger" in official recognition of those Civil War defenders.

Their spirit is now embodied in the MU mascot — "Truman the Tiger." Named for the Missouri-bred President of the United States — Harry S. Truman — the mascot performs at all MU football and basketball games, and many other athletic events. Truman also makes numerous civic appearances, at schools, hospitals, county fairs, etc.

Truman has been acclaimed "Best Mascot in the Nation" in national competition twice in recent years. In the fall of 2012, Truman was one of 16 mascots in the running for the popular Capital One Mascot Challenge, and Truman reached the round of eight before being eliminated in the fan voting contest.

MU'S FIRST HOMECOMING GAME

Legend says that the Homecoming tradition got its start at the University of Missouri in 1911, thanks to the vision and efforts of Chester L. Brewer, MU's Director of Athletics. Although other schools make similar claims to being the originators of the tradition, Missouri certainly was among the first to hold a Homecoming football game.

That year, the Missouri-Kansas game was to be played on a college campus for the first time. Previously, the game had been played in either Kansas City or St. Joseph, and Missouri trailed in the series by a 12-5-3 count.

Brewer wanted to add some spice to the season-ending game in Columbia, so he issued a plea to Mizzou alumni and especially to former Tiger football players to "Come Home" for the game. They did, with a record crowd of 9,000 overflowing Rollins Field.

With four minutes to play, and MU trailing by three, Tiger captain Glen Shuck booted a tying field goal from a difficult angle. Then, little Billy Blees caught a rampaging KU fullback in the open field in the final seconds to preserve the tie, and was carried off the field.

Hence, "Homecoming" was born. MU has a 62-40-5 record in Homecoming games. Not surprisingly, Kansas has been the most common Homecoming opponent 27 times — with MU leading in those games, 18-7-2, although the two clubs did not meet on Homecoming from 1960 until 2000.
