THE ASSOCIATED PRESS RANKINGS

Beginning in 1936, the Associated Press polled a group of broadcasters and sports writers from around the nation, asking them to rank the various college football teams. Although other polls have come and gone, the AP's is the only one that has run in the nation's newspapers every year since 1936. From this point forward, AP rankings for Missouri and its opponents are listed. A number in parenthesis appearing before an opponent's name indicates Missouri's ranking. A number in parenthesis appearing after an opponent's name is its ranking. "R" indicates a team was receiving votes.

Danario Alexander, WR // 2009 All-American
Overcoming huge odds against him, Danario Alexander turned in a record-smashing senior season in 2009 to become the nation's leading receiver and took home All-America honors in the process. Coming into his senior year, Alexander hadn't even earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 status, thanks mostly to the fact that his first three years were impacted by a string of unfortunate knee injuries. He was resolute in his determination to prove he belonged among the nation's elite receivers, and he did just that in 2009, as he burst onto the scene with an NCAA-best 137.0 yards per game average, which included an MU-record 1,781 yards, 14 touchdowns and 113 receptions. His yardage total was some 500 yards more than the previous record of 1,260 established in 2008 by Jeremy Maclin (in one fewer game, nonetheless), and it propelled Alexander to the top of the Mizzou career receiving yardage charts, with 2,778 (previous record was 2,704 by Justin Gage). He became only the fifth Tiger in history to lead the NCAA in an individual statistical category, and the first receiver since Hank Burnine led the country in 1955 with 44 receptions. Alexander had an MU-record nine 100-yard receiving games, including six straight to close the season. Included in that string were three 200-yard performances in a four-game stretch (214 vs. Baylor, 200 at Kansas State, 173 vs. Iowa State and 233 vs. Kansas). For his career, Alexander finished with 191 receptions for 2,778 yards and 22 touchdowns.

Scott Anderson, C // 1973 All-American
A standout center on Missouri teams that played in the 1972 Fiesta and 1973 Sun Bowls, Anderson lettered for Coach Al Onofrio from 1971-73. An All-Big Eight and All-America selection as a senior in 1973, Anderson played in the Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Games in 1974. He recovered a fumble that set up a touchdown that led to MU's 13-12 victory over Nebraska in Columbia in 1973. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Minnesota Vikings from 1974-77.

Ed Blaine, T // 1961 All-American
One of the greatest offensive linemen in Missouri history, Blaine lettered in 1959-60-61. He received All-Big Eight and All-America honors in 1961 and was an honorable mention selection on the Missouri All-Century Team. A native of Farmington, Mo., Blaine played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Senior Bowl and the College All-Star Game after his senior season, en route to an NFL career with the Green Bay Packers (1962-63) and Philadelphia Eagles (1963-66). In his post-playing days, Blaine established himself as one of the nation's foremost pharmaceutical researchers and spoke at Mizzou's commencement exercises.

Kentrell Brothers, LB // 2015 All-American
A student of the game who parlayed his penchant for video study – along with his relentless work ethic and outstanding instincts for the game – into first-team All-America status as a senior in 2015 when he led the nation in tackles (12.67 per game) for a Tiger defense that was ranked among the nation's best in several categories (fifth in points allowed [16.2 ppg]; fifth in passing defense [169.3 ypg]; sixth in total defense [302.0 ypg]). Finished his final season as a Tiger by racking up 152 tackles in just 12 games, while he also led the nation with three blocked kicks during the season. He tallied 12.0 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks in 2015, while adding a pair of interceptions as well. Finished his career with 358 total tackles, which ranks eighth on the all-time Mizzou tackles chart.

Harold Burnine, E // 1955 All-American
An All-American receiver for Coach Don Faurot in 1955, he led the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 594 yards. The native of Richmond, Mo., was also All-Big Seven that year, and played in four all-star games – the Blue-Gray, North-South, Senior Bowl and College All-Star game. For his three-year MU career, Burnine caught 75 passes for 1,145 yards, figures that kept him in the Tiger top 10 until the l990s. He played professionally with the New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles. Burnine was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

Mike Carroll, OG // 1969 All-American
A powerful blocker who was selected a first-team All-American offensive lineman as a senior after helping lead Missouri to the 1970 Orange Bowl. That Tiger squad featured one of the nation's most high-powered offensive attacks, and the team finished the 1969 season as the Big Eight Conference Co-Champions with a 9-2 record and No. 6 national ranking. The 1969 team set school records at the time for points per game (36.2), total yards (4,507), passing yards (2,048) and touchdown passes (20). Carroll helped pave the way for running back Joe Moore to gain 1,312 yards rushing (third nationally) and for quarterback Terry McMillan to rank 12th nationally in 1969 with 2,157 total yards. The Ste. Genevieve, Mo., native, played in the prestigious Senior Bowl following his senior season.

Paul Christman, QB // National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (1956), #44 Retired Number, 1939, 1940 All-American
The legendary "Pitchin' Paul" Christman came to Mizzou from Maplewood, Mo., and lettered in football in 1938-39-40, and in baseball in 1938-39-41. He was a three-time All-Big Six Conference quarterback, and twice earned first-team All-America honors. Christman finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1939, and fifth in 1940. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Chicago Cardinals (1945-49) and Green Bay Packers (1950) and led the Cardinals to division titles in 1947-48 and the league championship in 1947. In 1940, he led the nation with 1,131 yards passing and 13 TD passes. During his career, MU had a 20-8 record, with a Big Six title in '39, and its first bowl game – the 1940 Orange Bowl. The first Tiger player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (in 1956), his jersey (44) number is retired.

John Clay, OT // 1986 All-American
An earth-moving offensive tackle, John Clay was a St. Louis, Mo., native who earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 1986. He lettered four years for Mizzou, from 1983-86, and was a first-team All-Big Eight selection in 1984-85-86, joining former standouts Johnny Roland, Gary Lane and Phil Bradley as MU's only three-time all-league honorees in the Big Eight era. A team co-captain in 1986, Clay ended his collegiate career by playing in the prestigious Blue-Gray Game and East-West Shrine Game. He went on to become a first-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Raiders of the National Football League in 1987. He was later traded to the San Diego Chargers in 1988, but a back injury prematurely ended his promising career.

Chase Coffman, TE // 2008 All-American
Despite missing two games late in the year with a foot injury, Coffman established himself as the top tight end in all of college football, and earned consensus first-team All-America honors, marking the second straight year MU tight ends earned that distinction. Coffman surpassed former teammate Martin Rucker as MU's top pass-catching tight end of all-time, as he had 90 receptions in 2008 for 987 yards and 10 touchdowns. His play in 2008 not only earned him All-America honors, but earned him the John Mackey Award, which annually goes to the nation's top tight end. That made Coffman the first Tiger in history to win a national individual award given to a specific position group. Coffman ended his career holding Mizzou records for receptions (247) and touchdowns (30) and was second all-time in receiving yards (2,659). He went on to become a third-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Brad Edelman, C // 1981 All-American
A native of St. Louis, Mo., Brad Edelman lettered as a standout center at Mizzou from 1978-81 and played on MU teams that appeared in four bowl games (1978 Liberty, 1979 Hall of Fame, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). He was named All-America as a senior co-captain in 1981, in addition to earning All-Big Eight honors as a junior in 1980. A member of the Missouri All-Century Team, Edelman played in the Hula Bowl and Olympia Gold Bowl following the 1981 season. He went on to a solid professional football career, playing in the National Football League with the New Orleans Saints from 1982-90 as an offensive guard. He was a Pro Bowl starter in 1987 and was a Pro Bowl alternate in 1982-83-84-88. Edelman worked as an actor in Hollywood for a period of time after finishing his pro football career.

Michael Egnew, TE // 2010 All-American
After catching a grand total of seven balls combined in his first two years in the program, junior TE Michael Egnew burst onto the national scene in 2010 when he won consensus first-team All-America honors, thanks to a 90-reception season that included 762 yards and five touchdowns. His 90 catches were the most in the nation among all tight ends, and it tied former Tiger standout Chase Coffman (a 2008 consensus All-American tight end) for the MU single-season receptions record among tight ends. Egnew, who was a finalist for the John Mackey Award, became the third Tiger tight end to win consensus first-team All-America honors in four years (2007-10).

Jeff Gaylord, DT // 1981 All-American
A rugged defender who hailed from Overland Park, Kan., and lettered three years for Mizzou (1978-80-81), playing on MU teams that went to bowl games each year (1978 Liberty, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). Named Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year as a senior in 1981, making him to this day the only Tiger to win a conference defensive player of the year award. Was named All-Big Eight in 1981 and earned player of the game honors in MU's 1981 Tangerine Bowl victory over Southern Mississippi. Following his senior season, Gaylord played in the Blue-Gray Game, East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. He played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams, Toronto Argonauts and in the USFL, from 1982-85. He also was a professional wrestler for several years following his retirement from football.

Conrad Goode, OT // 1983 All-American
An offensive tackle with good Tiger bloodlines, whose father, Conrad Hitchler, was an All-American end at MU in 1962. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Goode lettered at MU from 1980-83 and played on Missouri teams that appeared in three bowl games (1980 Liberty, 1981 Tangerine, 1983 Holiday). As a senior co-captain, earned All-America honors, in addition to being named All-Big Eight. He played in the prestigious East-West Shrine Game following his senior season and went on to play in the National Football League with the New York Giants (1984-85) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-89). Following his football playing days, became a successful actor in Hollywood, where he still works today.

Conrad Hitchler, E // 1962 All-American
A standout two-way end for Coach Dan Devine, who lettered at Mizzou from 1960-62. Hitchler led Mizzou in receiving in 1961 and was an All-Big Eight selection in both 1961 and '62. He earned All-America status as a senior, then went on to play in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl and the Coaches All-America Game. He played three years in the Canadian Football League as a member of the Calgary Stampeders. His son, Conrad Goode, was also an All-American offensive tackle for the Tigers in 1983.

Darold Jenkins, C // National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (1976), #42 Retired Number, 1941 All-American
A faultless ball-handler, Missouri's Darold Jenkins was a mid-line magician during the early 1940s. He played the unheralded role of center, making coach Don Faurot's split-T formation click through a 22-7 record. On defense he played middle linebacker. In 1941, Jenkins captained the Tigers and led them to one of their most exciting seasons. They lost to Ohio State, 12-7, in the season opener, then ran off eight victories before bowing to Fordham, 2-0, in the Sugar Bowl. Missouri won the Big Six championship that year and Jenkins was named all-conference and All-America. Jenkins was the leading center of his day and Faurot considered him a "play- maker" because of his ability to get the offense moving. After college, Jenkins served six years in the U.S. Army Air Corps logging 27 combat missions over Germany. He spent 16 months as a prisoner of war. When he retired from the military, Jenkins held the rank of lieutenant colonel. He returned to study law and, in 1952, became a practicing attorney, eventually joining the Missouri State Highway Commission. He died September 16, 1986.

Danny LaRose, E // 1960 All-American
One of the greatest two-way talents in Missouri history, LaRose starred from 1958-60, as an end who could dominate the line of scrimmage and was also MU's leading receiver as a sophomore and senior. He also punted for MU in 1960. A native of Crystal City, Mo., LaRose won all-conference honors in 1958 and '60, and was a consensus All-America selection in 1960 (making 13 teams), when Missouri beat Navy and Heisman winner Joe Bellino in the Orange Bowl. LaRose played in the College All-Star Game and Hula Bowl in 1961, then went on to a pro career with the Detroit Lions, Pittsburgh Steelers and Miami Dolphins. He was also an accomplished thrower in track, who held Missouri's indoor shot put record for many years.

Ed Lindenmeyer, T // 1925 All-American
Mizzou's very first All-American, as he won the designation for the 1925 season. A native of Lake Forest, Ill., Lindenmeyer came to Mizzou and starred at both tackle and end, lettering in 1924-25-26. He earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 1925 and blocked a punt for a safety in a 9-6 upset win over Nebraska that season. Lindenmeyer lettered on Gwinn Henry's teams that had a stellar three-year record of 18-4-3. He later went on to coach at Lake Forest (Ill.) College.

Jeremy Maclin, All-Purpose // 2007, 2008 All-American
After missing the 2006 season due to a knee injury, redshirt freshman Jeremy Maclin burst onto the scene in record-setting fashion and became MU's first-ever freshman to earn first-team All-America honors in 2007. He earned consensus first-team status by breaking the NCAA single-season freshman record for all-purpose yards, as he amassed a whopping 2,776 yards – including 1,055 receiving, 1,039 kickoff return, 375 rushing and 307 punt return. Maclin scored 16 touchdowns in all to become one of the most dynamic players in all of college football, with nine scores coming on receptions, four on the ground, two via punt returns and one on a kickoff return – the latter was an historic 99-yard kickoff return for score at Kansas State that was MU's first since 1982. He was the only player in Division I in 2007 to score touchdowns in all four all-purpose categories. He repeated with consensus first-team All-America honors in 2008 as he led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage (202.36 ypg) and broke MU single-season receiving records with 102 receptions, 1,260 yards and 13 TDs. In just two years, he broke the MU record for career all-purpose yardage, with 5,609 yards. He closed his career with Offensive MVP honors in the 2008 Alamo Bowl, as he returned a punt for TD and caught the game-winning TD pass from Chase Daniel in MU's 30-23 overtime win. Maclin chose to bypass his final two years of collegiate eligibility and entered the 2009 NFL Draft, where he was taken with the No. 19 overall selection in the first round by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Henry Marshall, WR // 1975 All-American
One of Mizzou's greatest receivers, Henry Marshall was an All-Big Eight and All-America choice in 1975, when he caught 44 passes for 945 yards and nine touchdowns. A native of Salina, Kan., he was a tight end when he lettered as a freshman in 1972 but moved to wideout while lettering in 1974 and '75. He played in the Blue-Gray Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Game following his senior year, then was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs, for whom he played from 1976-87, and in the process, unseated Otis Taylor as Kansas City's all-time leading receiver. He held the MU records for receiving yards in a game (207) and season (945) for 15 years, before both were eventually broken. A first-team choice on the Missouri All-Century Team, Marshall was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

Harrison Mevis, K // 2021 All-American
In 2021, Harrison Mevis earned first-team All-America honors from four publications (Sporting News, PFF, The Athletic, Action Network) while garnering second-team honors from the FWAA following a dazzling sophomore campaign where the kicker hit 23-of-25 field goal attempts and finished a perfect 41-of-41 on PATs. His 110 points on the season rank ninth all-time at Mizzou. Mevis finished a perfect 3-for-3 from beyond 50 yards, including a career-long, 56-yard boot at Boston College to force overtime. The 23 made field goals rank third in a single season at Mizzou and his six career makes through two seasons are tied for the most in program history. His 40 made field goals through two years rank seventh all-time at Mizzou.

Marcus Murphy, Special Teams // 2014 All-American
One of the most electrifying all-purpose men to ever play for Mizzou, Murphy became a first-team All-American as a senior in 2014 as he ranked sixth nationally in kickoff returns (29.6 avg.) and 11th in punt returns (10.4 avg.) while he also took home the Southeastern Conference Special Teams Player of the Year award. Murphy, a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award as a senior, led the SEC with his 1,921 all-purpose yards and was the only player in FBS in 2014 to score a touchdown via a kickoff return, punt return, rush and pass reception. He broke the Mizzou career record for combined kick return yardage and had a game to remember at Florida in 2014, when he took the opening kickoff back 96 yards for a touchdown, and later in the same game returned a punt 82 yards for a score. Finished the season with 924 rushing yards, 212 receiving yards, 281 punt return yards and 504 kick return yards, and was instrumental in MU's 33-17 Citrus Bowl victory over Minnesota, as he ran for a career-high 157 yards.

John Moseley, DB // 1973 All-American
One of the most exciting players ever to play at MU, Moseley holds the distinction of being the only MU football player ever to go from walk-on to All-American. A defensive back from 1971-73, Moseley was a daring kick return man. He ranked sixth nationally in punt returns in 1973, with an average of 16.5 yards per return. For his career, he averaged 13.3 yards, which stood as the school record until recently. The Columbia, Mo., native was named All-American as a senior in 1973.

Brock Olivo // #27 Retired Number
Brock Olivo came to Mizzou with modest fanfare, but thanks to his legendary work ethic, he became one of the great inspirational players in school history. A native of Washington, Mo., Olivo helped restore pride to his home state program that had fallen on hard times when he led the Tigers to the 1997 Holiday Bowl – MU's first bowl appearance since 1983. Olivo made his mark at tailback and on special teams during a career that spanned from 1994-97. He left as the school's all-time leading rusher, with 3,026 yards, and his 188 points ranked him fourth on the career scoring list. Olivo became the first Tiger to rush for 200 yards in a game twice, doing so during his sophomore season with a 222-yard outing against Northeast Louisiana and following with a 201-yard day against Iowa State later in the year. The Big Eight Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year in 1994, Olivo went on to ensure his spot in Tiger Football history when he won the Mosi Tatupu National Special Teams Player of the Year Award in 1997 – making him the first Tiger to ever win a national individual award.

Francis Peay, OT // 1965 All-American
A Pittsburgh, Pa., native, Francis Peay was a standout tackle at Mizzou in 1964-65, and won All-Big Eight and All-America honors as a senior when Missouri ranked third nationally in rushing offense and won the Sugar Bowl over Florida and Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier. He was the Big Eight's lineman of the week following MU's 17-6 win over Minnesota that season, and later played in the Senior Bowl, Coaches All-American Game and College All-Star Game. He was a first-round choice of the New York Giants in the 1966 NFL Draft, and later played with the Green Bay Packers (1968-72) and Kansas City Chiefs (1973-75). Named to the Missouri All-Century Team, he was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

Shane Ray, DE // 2014 All-American
Shane Ray kept the #DLineZou bus rolling, as he made it two consecutive SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors and won consensus first-team All-America status for an eye-opening 2014 season as he helped lead the Tigers to an 11-3 mark and a second-straight SEC Eastern Division title. Ray made play after play in opposing offenses' backfield, as he broke the Mizzou single-season quarterback sacks record, with 14.5 (breaking the old mark of 11.5 from former standouts Aldon Smith and Michael Sam). He also led the team with 22.5 tackles for loss, finishing third in the NCAA in sacks and fifth in TFLs, while he led the SEC in both categories. Ray ended his junior campaign with 65 tackles, a team-best three forced fumbles and five pass break-ups. Ray chose to bypass his final year of eligibility to enter the 2015 NFL Draft, and that decision paid off when he was taken with the No. 23 overall selection in the first round by the Denver Broncos.

Grant Ressel, PK // 2009 All-American
One of the more amazing stories to come out of college football during the 2009 season had to do with the previously unheralded sophomore walk-on kicker Grant Ressel, who rose from unknown status to become one of the nation's top kickers. Ressel began fall camp second on the depth chart as the Tigers looked to replace Jeff Wolfert, who left after the 2008 season holding the NCAA career record for combined kick accuracy. With those rather large shoes to fill, Ressel was named the starting kicker the week of the 2009 season opener and proceeded to put together an amazing season which earned him All-America status. All he did was set an NCAA single-season combined kick accuracy record, as he connected on a combined 98.5% (65-of-66) of his kicks, including 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 on extra points. He also led the NCAA in field goal percentage among those with 13 or more attempts (96.3%) and finished third nationally with 2.00 field goals made per game. He also etched his name firmly forever into the hearts of Tiger fans young and old, thanks to his game-winning 27-yard field goal as time expired to beat rival Kansas, 41-39, in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium to end the 2009 regular season and give Mizzou its eighth win of the year.

Rob Riti, C // 1999 All-American
One of the best centers to ever play the game for Mizzou, Riti won first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1999 and became one of only seven Tigers to earn consensus All-America first-team honors. He was a key figure in MU rushing attacks that ranked among the nation's top 10 statistically three times. Started a then-MU-record 44 consecutive games from 1996-99 and helped pave the way for tailback Devin West to an All-America year in 1998 as the Tigers won their first bowl game since 1981, with a victory over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl. Was one of the strongest Tigers to ever don the Black and Gold, as he was the first MU player to record a 900-lb. squat lift in 1998, then topped that with a school-record 1,000-lb. lift in 1999. He made the Rams practice squad as an undrafted free agent in 2000.

Johnny Roland, DB // National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (1998), #23 Retired Number, 1965 All-American
Johnny Roland's career at Missouri had two dimensions. As a sophomore in 1962 he was a running back. He rushed for 830 yards, seventh-best total nationally, and scored 78 points, ninth in the nation. He rushed for 155 yards against Oklahoma State, 104 against Iowa State. When he returned for his junior year in 1964, Coach Dan Devine moved him to defensive back. He made All-America at this position in 1965. Roland stood 6-2, weighed 198, and was a power runner. Even in the years he was a defensive back, Devine occasionally moved him into the game on offense. He always picked times when Missouri had the ball inside the opponent's 20-yard line. In 1965, Roland also returned 42 punts and kickoffs for 690 yards, averaging 16.4 yards on each. He was Missouri's co-captain in 1965, and helped the team to an 8-2-1 record, including a 20-18 victory over Florida in the 1966 Sugar Bowl. Missouri retired his jersey, No. 23, and he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1998. He made All-Big Eight as a running back in 1962 and as a defensive back in 1964 and 1965. In 1965, he had six pass interceptions. He had an eight-year pro playing career with St. Louis and the New York Giants, winning NFL Rookie of the Year honors with the Cardinals. He went on to a nearly 30-year career as a coach in the NFL.

Martin Rucker, TE // 2007 All-American
The top pass-catching tight end in Mizzou history, Rucker won consensus first-team All-America honors as a senior in 2007 when he caught 84 passes for 834 yards and eight touchdowns, helping Mizzou to a 12-2 season and its first-ever Big 12 North Division title and a final No. 4 Associated Press ranking. Rucker was a vital part of the rebuilding of the Tiger program and served as a leader and visual aid of the hard work and dedication needed to get the program back in the national scene. Rucker ended his Tiger career with a then-MU-record 203 receptions, 2,175 yards and 18 TDs, as he started in an MU-record 50 consecutive games from 2004-07. His 84 catches in 2007 broke the MU single-season record, as well.

Michael Sam, DE // 2013 All-American
After beginning his career at Mizzou by earning freshman All-America honors, rush end Michael Sam finished with a flurry, as he became only the second Tiger in history to win unanimous All-America honors during a magical senior season. Sam was a disruptive force rarely seen – even for a program like Mizzou that produces standout defensive linemen on a regular basis – as he led the Southeastern Conference and ranked 19th nationally in tackles for loss (19.0), while he was second in the league and 14th nationally with an MU single-season record-tying 11.5 QB sacks. Sam had a trio of three-sack games (Arkansas State, Vanderbilt and Florida), to get his name in the national conversation, and he capped his career with a bang as he got a trademark sack/fumble in the final minute of the 2014 AT&T Cotton Bowl that was picked up and returned by teammate Shane Ray for a game-clinching touchdown in the 41-31 win over former conference rival Oklahoma State. Sam would finish his Tiger career ranked fourth all-time on the sacks list, with 21.0.

Justin Smith, DE // 2000 All-American
A first-team All-American as a junior who was virtually unstoppable, despite constant double- and even triple-teaming efforts by Tiger opponents. A fierce competitor with a tireless motor who left holding the MU career quarterback sack record, with 22.5 in just three years (now ranks second). Broke the MU single-season sack record in his junior year, recording 11 on his own. A native of Holts Summit, Mo., Smith declared for the NFL Draft after his stellar junior season and became the fourth overall pick of the 2001 NFL Draft, by the Cincinnati Bengals, who he led in sacks each of his first two seasons in the league. Made an instant impression, as he became the first true freshman to start every game since 1986, when he started all 12 contests in 1998. Was a key factor for MU's defense that year that saw the Tigers earn their first bowl win since 1981, as they defeated West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl.

Bob Steuber, HB // National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (1971), #37 Retired Number, 1942 All-American
A star halfback out of CBC High School in St. Louis, Mo., Steuber lettered at MU in 1940-41-42. He was a two-time All-Big Six selection, won All-America honors in 1942, and is one of seven Tigers to have his jersey (37) retired. He still holds the MU single-season scoring record for a non-kicker (121 points in 1942) and ranks ninth in career scoring and 17th in rushing yards in school history. His 2,030 rushing yards stood as the MU record for 28 years. He posted MU's first 1,000-yard rushing campaign in 1942, ranking second in the nation with 1,098 yards. When MU led the nation in rushing in 1941, he was third in the nation with 855 yards. Steuber played in the East-West Shrine and College All-Star Games following graduation, then played professionally with the Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Los Angeles Dons and Buffalo Bills. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1971.

Ed 'Brick' Travis // National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (1974), Retired Number
From St. Charles, Mo., Travis starred for the Tigers as a tackle in 1919-20 earning All-Missouri Valley Conference honors both years. He went on to play professional football with Rock Island (Ill.) in 1921, and the St. Louis All-Stars in 1923. He was inducted into the State of Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1972, and the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1974. He was a member of the University's first Intercollegiate Athletic Committee. Players did not have numbers when Brick played, but he was added to Mizzou's Wall of Honor in 2019. He was inducted into the Mizzou Athletics Hall of Fame as part of its inaugural class in 1990.

Roger Wehrli, DB // National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (2004), #23 Retired Number, 1968 All-American
When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career. Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set an MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes. A consensus All-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial All-Pro selection. Wehrli was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004, and later was also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

Devin West, TB // 1998 All-American
He might have come to Mizzou from nearby Moberly, Mo., without much fanfare, but Devin West became one of the top running backs in school history before his playing days were done. Lettering for four years (1995-98), West ended his career as MU's No. 2 all-time career rusher, with 2,954 yards, and now stands number five. He would rank as MU's all-time leader if bowl games were counted in career totals during his day. Was a first-team All-American running back (MU's first since Bob Steuber in 1942) as a senior in 1998, who helped lead Mizzou to an 8-4 season and a win over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl – MU's first bowl win since 1981. He rushed for 125 yards in the game. Rushed for a then-MU single-season record 1,578 yards in 1998, which ranked him fifth in the nation. Included in that total was a dominant 319-yard, two-touchdown rushing day against Kansas for Homecoming in 1998. Played in the Senior Bowl following the 1998 season, and was a semifinalist for the prestigious Doak Walker Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top running back.

Bill Whitaker, DB // 1980 All-American
A ball-hawking defensive back who had a nose for big plays in the secondary. Earned first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1980 after leading the Big Eight Conference with six interceptions, including three in a single game against San Diego State. Oddly enough, he also had three pass interceptions as a junior in a game versus San Diego State. His 14 career interceptions tied him for the MU career record at the time of his graduation, and still ranks second on the school charts. Also served double-duty as a punt returner, and was MU's top return man in 1980, as the Tigers went 8-4 and played in the Liberty Bowl. Went on to become a seventh-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in the 1981 NFL Draft, and played six years in the league, three each with the Packers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Kellen Winslow, TE // National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (2003), #83 Retired Number, 1978 All-American
A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Kellen Winslow redefined the tight end position at the collegiate and professional levels during his playing career. Before Winslow, most tight ends ran short-to medium-length pass patterns. Kellen was one of the first tight ends to run deeper routes due to his unique combination of size and speed. As a freshman, he only played in three games and caught one pass. The next year new coach Warren Powers installed an expanded passing offense in which Winslow and the Tigers flourished. That year Mizzou upset Notre Dame and Nebraska, two teams which were rated among the nation's top five teams, while Winslow's number of catches improved to 16. In his junior year, he earned the first of back-to-back all-conference selections. As a senior, he added consensus All-America to his list of accomplishments. Winslow went on to have a Pro Football Hall of Fame career in nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers, where he caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and nine touchdowns. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 2003.

NOTE — The passing efficiency formula has been used by the NCAA since 1979 to rate quarterbacks. The formula assumes that touchdowns are as good as interceptions are bad; therefore, these two figures offset each other for the average player. To determine Efficiency Rating Points, multiply a passer's yards per attempt by 8.4, add his completion percentage, add his touchdown percentage times 3.3, then subtract his interception percentage times two. 100 points is considered average.
