LEADING OFF

The Texas A&M Aggies will go after their third consecutive SEC series win this weekend when they kick off a three-game set vs Missouri on Thursday night at Blue Bell Park.

The Aggies dropped a midweek contest on Tuesday to Conference USA leader UTSA, but were winners in each of the last two weekends with series wins over both Ole Miss and Auburn.

Missouri caught the eye of college baseball and jumped into the national rankings earlier this season when it swept Tennessee to open up conference play. However, the Tigers have dropped each of their past three league series and eight of nine SEC games overall with the lone win coming last weekend when they handed Vanderbilt its first SEC loss of the season.

FOLLOW THE ACTION

RADIO: Each game can be heard locally on SportsRadio 1150 AM/93.7 FM The Zone.... Andrew Monaco will be on the call for each of the first two games before handing play-by-play duties off to Tyler Pigg for the series finale... Pigg will be on analysis for the series' middle game with Scott Clendenin bookending the series with commentary... the pregame show begins 15 minutes prior to first pitch.

TV/STREAMING: Thursday's game will be aired on the ESPNU with Derek Jones and Gregg Olson calling the action... the games set for Friday and Saturday will shift to SEC Network+ with Andrew Monaco and Tyler Pigg's radio calls providing the play-by-play.

RIGHT AWAY

The Aggies have relied heavily on left-handed relief pitching this year, but in Tuesday's game vs UTSA they got strong performances from the right side of the pen. Josh Stewart, Jaren Warwick and Carson Lambert combined to throw 4.1 innings of scoreless relief vs the Roadrunners, striking out seven hitters between them. It was the second straight Tuesday that Stewart has shined, also looking strong last week in a win over Texas State. In his last two appearances, Stewart has 6 strikeouts, no walks and only 3 hits allowed in 4.1 scoreless innings.

GOING FOR THREE IN A ROW

Texas A&M won 8 of its 10 conference series a year ago, including each of its final 7 weekends. But such things are a difficult task in the SEC and a series win this weekend for the Aggies be their third straight. It would be the first time since the 2016 and 2017 seasons the Aggies have had consecutive seasons with a streak of at least 3 consecutive series wins in SEC play.

GOLDEN BOY

Aggie shortstop Hunter Haas got a nod of approval from USA Baseball last week when he was named to the Golden Spikes Award Midseason Watch List. He 1 of 45 total players on the list and is among a group of 24 players from across the country who played their way onto the watch list since the Preseason Watch List was announced on February 10. Haas enters Tuesday leading the Aggies in batting average (.383) and a .477 on-base percentage and has been error free in 31 of 32 games in the field.

JACE EARNING FACETIME FROM SEC

Freshman outfielder Jace LaViolette became the first Aggie this season to earn a weekly honor from the SEC, being named the SEC Freshman of the Week on Monday after a strong week against Texas State and Auburn. He led the entire SEC for the week with 10 RBI, 8 of which came in a series win at Auburn. After smacking a 2-run double in the Tuesday win over Texas State, LaViolette stayed hot and crushed 3 homers in the first 2 games of the series vs the Tigers, including his second career multi-homer game in Game 2 of the series. His totals now have his average up to .266 for the year after starting SEC play at just .210, and his home run (8) and RBI (34) totals both lead the team.

HALFWAY HOME

When Ryan Targac walked off Ole Miss on Sunday at Blue Bell Park to clinch the series for the Aggies, it also got Texas A&M to the halfway point of the 2023 regular season. The second half of the season was very good for the Aggies in 2022, going 18-10 in the final 28 games of the regular season. They would reach the finish line in Omaha, winning 27 of their final 40 games overall.

CAREER HIGH FOR DETTMER AT AUBURN

Aggie starter Nathan Dettmer turned in a career night in the series opener at Auburn on Thursday night, striking out 6 of the first 9 Tigers he faced and racking up a career high with 11 strikeouts. The total surpassed his previous career high of 9 vs Georgia last year. It was the most strikeouts for an Aggie pitchers since Dustin Saenz had 11 punchouts on March 26, 2021, against Georgia at Blue Bell Park.

COMING ALL THE WAY BACK

The Aggies spotted Texas State a 5-run first inning on Tuesday, but answered with five runs of their own in the bottom half before holding the Bobcats off for a 10-9 win. That qualifies as a come-from-behind victory and the five-run deficit was the largest overcome by the Aggies this year.

NOT GIVING AWAY OUTS

The sacrifice bunt is a common offensive practice in college baseball, but not so much for the Aggies in 2023. In fact, the Aggies are 1 of 2 teams - along with Washington from the Pac 12 - of the 295 teams in Division 1 baseball who have yet to register a successful sacrifice bunt this season. In total, the Aggies have only attempted 5 bunts all season with 4 going for successful hits.

A year ago in Jim Schlossnagle's first season as head coach, the Aggies put down 7 successful sacrifice bunts with the last coming in the College World Series win over Texas on June 19, 2022. In total the 2022 Aggies tried 26 bunts with 23 of those attempts coming from players no longer on the roster. Only Austin Bost (2 bunt singles) and Jordan Thompson (1 sac bunt) are on the 2023 roster with bunt attempts registered in 2022.

MINNICH MADE

Senior outfielder Brett Minnich hopped on the injury shelf after just one at-bat of the 2023 season, but returned to the lineup against Texas and has made an immediate impact to the offense. Since his return the Aggies are hitting .298 as a team with 15 home runs and 63 total runs scored in 9 games. Minnich himself has been outstanding in that stretch, homering 4 times with 10 RBI and hitting .382, while Jack Moss has been even better at the plate, hitting. 405 with nine runs scored.

OFF TO THE RACES

The Aggies are 49 for 56 in steal attempts this year with the 49 swipes ranking third in the SEC. A&M had been successful in 21 consecutive attempts before being caught Friday at Auburn, its longest such streak since stealing 23 straight bags during a stretch of the 2018 season. The Aggies have stolen at least four bags in a game five times this year with a season high of seven in the series finale vs Seattle U.
