MIZZOU  BASEBALL

Fight, Tigers, fight for Old Mizzou, Right behind you, everyone is with you, Break the line and follow down the field, And you'll be, on the top, upon the top; Fight, Tigers, you will always win, Proudly keep the colors flying skyward,
In the end we'll win the victory, So Tigers, fight for Old Mizzou!

“We’re going to do great things here. I’m not going to put a timetable on it, because all good things take time. We will do it in a timeframe that is necessary for us to be successful. But I assure you, we will be successful. We will be competitive in the SEC, we will return to regional play and it will all be done with the idea of getting to Omaha. That is the ultimate goal.”

2024 MISSOURI BASEBALL

A veteran coach with experience at all levels of baseball, Kerrick Jackson was tabbed as Missouri's 15th head coach in June 2023.

Since that time, Jackson has undertaken the challenge of revitalizing the Tigers' tradition-rich program. These efforts have included hiring a diverse staff, recruiting a new-look roster and providing his pupils an entirely new way of approaching the game—and the way they go about working to achieve their common goal of returning Mizzou to national prominence.

While the work is well underway, Jackson will officially become the first Black Southeastern Conference head baseball coach to lead his team into action when the Tigers open their 2024 campaign in February. Furthermore, he will be just the fourth Black collegiate coach to guide a Power Five baseball program and the first to do so since the 2021 season.

In recognition of these efforts, Baseball America named Jackson its 2023 Trailblazer of the Year in December, capping an already historic year for the new Mizzou coach.

In addition to his success on the diamond as a collegiate coach, including leading Southern University to the 2019 Southwestern Athletic Conference crown and an NCAA Regional berth and guiding the University of Memphis to its first winning season in six years last spring, Jackson continues to serve as a relentless advocate for minorities in college baseball, especially in the coaching ranks. He helped form the American Baseball Coaches Association's Diversity in Baseball Committee and has served as its chairman since its creation in 2018. That body works to improve diversity in the coaching ranks through a professional development program and an increased focus on youth baseball.

After leading Memphis to 29 victories and its first winning season since 2017, Jackson returned to Columbia after having served as a Mizzou assistant from 2011-15. Known as a developer of players, a tireless recruiter, and a strong talent evaluator, Jackson is a well-respected leader in baseball circles, serving on the American Baseball Coaches Association Board of Directors and as chair of their Diversity in Baseball committee.

Prior to his season at Memphis, Jackson was the President of the MLB Draft League from 2020-22, a six-team summer baseball league sponsored by Major League Baseball and featuring a split-season amateur-professional format.

Jackson served as the head coach at Southern University from 2018-20, where he took a nine-win team in 2018 to 32 wins, a conference championship, and the NCAA Tournament the following season, earning SWAC and Louisiana Sports Writers Association Coach of the Year accolades. His 2018 Jaguar team boasted the athletic department's highest men's team GPA and received national recognition for its community service efforts.

Jackson worked for the Boras Corporation as a certified player agent for two years from 2016-17, where he identified prep and college players with the best chance to develop into Major League talent.

He served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Mizzou from 2011-15, working with the Tigers' hitters, outfielders, and infielders. Following that, he played at Bethune-Cookman University in 1996, leading the squad to its first-ever conference championship and regional appearance. Jackson concluded his playing career at Nebraska in 1997, graduating in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

No stranger to the Southeastern Conference, Jabari Brown joined Kerrick Jackson’s Tiger coaching staff in June 2023 after working with one of the league’s—and the nation’s—top programs for two years.

Brown was named the first recipient of Vanderbilt’s Maggie Corbin Minority Baseball Apprenticeship and spent the 2022 and 2023 seasons gaining knowledge in skill and leadership development, practice organization, video analysis, scouting, analytics and program building.

As a member of the Commodores’ staff (2022-23), Brown was a part of Vanderbilt’s 2023 SEC Tournament championship club that garnered the No. 6 national seed in this year’s NCAA Division I Baseball Championship. In two seasons, he helped VU rack up 81 victories, including a 39-win season and another NCAA Regional berth in 2021.

Before his time at Vandy, Brown began his coaching career at his alma mater, Claflin University (2018-20), where he served as assistant coach for three seasons. During Brown’s tenure, the Panthers engineered an eight-win improvement in 2019, hitting .300 as a team and averaging nearly eight runs per contest.

Brown played collegiately for four seasons at Claflin, where helped the Panthers capture the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title and a berth in the NCAA Division II Baseball Championship in 2016.

Missouri baseball head coach Kerrick Jackson turned to a familiar figure for the first selection to his 2024 coaching staff, officially tabbing former Tiger head coach Tim Jamieson as the program's pitching coach. Jamieson, who spent 22 seasons as Mizzou's head coach, will mark his 29th overall season on the MU coaching staff in 2024.

In 22 seasons as Mizzou's head baseball coach, Jamieson led the Tigers to 698 wins, trailing only Gene McArtor (733) on the Tigers' all-time coaching victories chart. He coached eight All-Americans and 10 Freshman All-Americans and saw 75 of his Mizzou players drafted, including four first-rounders.

Jamieson, who was selected for induction into the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in May 2023, returns to Columbia after serving as pitching coach under Jackson in his lone season at Memphis, where the duo helped lead the Tigers to their first winning season since 2017. Prior to his stop at UM, Jamieson spent three seasons (2020-22) as pitching coach at Southern Illinois, helping the Salukis compile a 96-42 record that included a pair of 40-win seasons. During that span, Jamieson's pitching staff led the Missouri Valley Conference in earned run average in 2022, after posting the second-best team ERA in the circuit in 2021.

As head coach of Missouri from 1995-2016, Jamieson's teams topped the 30-win plateau on 15 occasions and captured nine NCAA Regional berths, including seven-straight appearances from 2003-09. He was a two-time conference coach of the year and piloted Mizzou to its last two conference crowns — the 1996 Big 8 regular-season championship and the 2012 Big 12 Tournament title.

A highly-respected developer of talent, Jamieson has helped mentor Major League Baseball All-Stars Max Scherzer, Ian Kinsler, Aaron Crow and Kyle Gibson. Additionally, he has seen a total of 22 of his former pupils play in the big leagues. In addition to Scherzer (Texas) and Gibson (St. Louis), two more of his former Tiger standouts — Tanner Houck (Boston) and Pete Fairbanks (Tampa Bay) — currently hold spots on Major League 40-man rosters. Fellow MU products Josh Lester, Michael Plassmeyer, Bryce Montes De Oca and Rob Zastryzny made big league appearances in recent years as well. In all, Jamieson's big league protégés have totaled 14 MLB All-Star nods, three Cy Young Awards and two Gold Glove Awards.

After completing his own standout playing career at the University of New Orleans, Jamieson spent six seasons (1983-88) on the UNO coaching staff, helping the Privateers to an appearance in the 1984

College World Series. He then returned to Columbia, where he was an assistant coach under McArtor for six years before being elevated to head coach in 1995.

Jamieson garnered 1996 Big 8 Coach of the Year and 2007 Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year honors, as his Missouri teams won 35 games or more nine times during his head coaching career. He was also selected to lead USA Baseball's Collegiate National Team as head coach in 2011.

A Columbia native, Jamieson grew up around the University of Missouri, as his father, Dick Jamieson, served as a Mizzou Football assistant coach on Al Onofrio's staff from 1972-78.

Jamieson received his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from New Orleans. A graduate of Columbia Rock Bridge High School, Jamieson is married to a Mizzou graduate, the former Cindy Thornton. They are the parents of two sons, Mickey and Ty.

CAREER TIMELINE

2012-18	UC Riverside	Assistant Coach
2019-23	UC San Diego	Assistant Coach
2024	Missouri	Assistant Coach

New Mizzou head coach Kerrick Jackson added former Tiger outfielder Bryson LeBlanc to his initial staff of full-time assistants in June 2023. The New Orleans native returned to Columbia after spending five seasons as an assistant coach at UC San Diego, where he served as third base coach, working primarily with the Tritons' hitters.

LeBlanc played on two NCAA Regional-qualifying squads for former Tiger head coach (and current assistant) Tim Jamieson (2005-06) before embarking on his coaching career.

LeBlanc helped guide UC San Diego through its transition to the NCAA Division I level, including a 34-18 campaign this spring that culminated in the program's first Big West Conference title. That success came on the heels of two of the most successful seasons in program history to begin his tenure. In 2019, the Tritons captured a conference title and advanced to the Division II College World Series, before ascending to the top of the national polls to begin the abbreviated 2020 campaign.

Prior to his time in San Diego, LeBlanc coached for seven seasons at UC Riverside (2012-18), where he mentored 31 all-conference performers and 18 players who were selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft. He also spent four seasons in administrative and coaching roles at Oregon (2008-11), where he helped the Ducks return to prominence with a 2010 NCAA Regional berth in just their second season after the reinstatement of the program.

In all, 46 of LeBlanc's former players have been selected in the MLB Draft, including 14 who have been taken in the top 10 rounds. Six of those have advanced to the big leagues.

As a player LeBlanc was a part of MU's 2005 club that won 40 games, as well as the Tigers' 2006 team that captured the Malibu Regional to secure the first Super Regional berth in program history.

LeBlanc is a 2006 Mizzou graduate, having completed his bachelor's degree in biological sciences. He and his wife, Andria, are the parents of two boys, Christian and Camden.

Alex Barton enters his third full season as Mizzou's director of baseball operations after taking over the role during the 2021 campaign. In this role, he oversees all administrative aspects of Tiger Baseball, including team travel, game operations, alumni events and assisting the coaching staff with on-campus recruiting.

Barton also serves as the main contact between the baseball program and the ticket office, communications and marketing departments.

A 2019 graduate of Missouri, Barton has been involved with Mizzou baseball throughout his time as both an undergraduate student and then as a graduate assistant. A mid-Mo native, Barton hails from Jefferson City.

Joseph Dattoli came to Mizzou as director of player development in August 2023, after serving the same role on head coach Kerrick Jackson's Memphis staff in 2022. He also worked with the new Tigers skipper during his tenure at Southern University, overseeing the Jaguars' player development before earning his undergraduate degree from the Baton Rouge institution in 2020.

Originally hailing from St. Louis, Dattoli previously served as a lead analyst for Prep Baseball Report's data operations team and as its West Coast Operations Director.

He completed his master's degree in data analytics from Southern New Hampshire in 2022.

Jose Carballo joined the Tigers' staff as director of player personnel in August 2023, after completing a five-year stint on the coaching staff of his alma mater, Bethune-Cookman University in Daytona Beach, Fla.

Most recently, Carballo served as the Wildcats' hitting coach, working primarily with Bethune-Cookman's infielders and catchers. A four-year standout on the diamond for B-CU, Carballo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant and operations director for the Wildcats in 2018.

The Cataño, Puerto Rico native also filled the role of volunteer assistant before being promoted to assistant coach prior to the 2019 season.

SUPPORT STAFF

Anthony Hansen joined the Tigers' staff this past fall after concluding his collegiate playing career under new Mizzou head coach Kerrick Jackson at Memphis in the spring.

A Columbia native, Hansen returns to mid-Missouri for his initial coaching foray after a standout playing career of his own. As a senior at Memphis, he hit .290 with a club-best 12 home runs, while fielding at a .996 clip to help the Tigers register their first winning season since 2017.

Prior to his successful 2023 season in Memphis, Hansen starred for William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo., hitting .300 or better in all four seasons at the NCAA Division II school. In 2022, he was an ABCA All-American, as well as a CoSIDA Academic All-American after hitting 16 homers and setting a program record with 72 runs scored.

The Hickman High School product graduated from William Jewell in 2022 with a degree in business administration and non-profit leadership. He is currently working toward a graduate degree in positive coaching and athletic leadership at Mizzou.

Former Mizzou pitcher Breckin Williams returns for his third season on the Tigers staff. Williams initially returned to his alma mater as the director of player development prior to the 2022 season, before moving into his current role as director of pitching performance for the 2023 campaign.

Williams played for the Tigers from 2013-15, setting a single-season record for saves in 2015, before being drafted in the fourth round of the 2015 MLB Draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks.

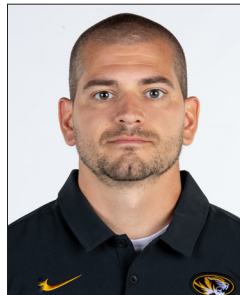

As a player, Williams was a Second-Team All-SEC performer his final season in Black and Gold. The righty turned in a 1.98 earned run average in 25 appearances, while picking up 13 saves – a Mizzou single-season record. He finished his career tied for third on the program's all-time list with 16 saves.

Following his collegiate career, Williams spent five seasons in the minor leagues (2015-21), advancing as far as Class AA Amarillo. He also worked for Driveline Baseball as an online pitching trainer prior to joining the Mizzou staff.

2024 MISSOURI BASEBALL

ADMINISTRATION

Mun Y. Choi is the 24th president of the University of Missouri System and, as of July 2020, now serves in a dual role as chancellor of the University of Missouri.

In this new role, President Choi oversees the academic, business, and financial aspects of the four universities, as well as a health care system and statewide extension program.

In partnership with the University of Missouri Board of Curators and university leadership, President Choi introduced a new collective vision for the system in 2018: to advance the opportunities for success and well-being in Missouri, the nation and the world through transformative teaching, research, innovation, engagement and inclusion.

This effort strengthened collaboration among the four universities and created a more efficient environment. He has worked tirelessly to transform the perception and value of higher education with the university community, alumni, legislators and Missourians.

Since his arrival, MU has celebrated three consecutive years of substantial enrollment growth, the highest graduation rate in the university's history and a record 90 percent retention rate for first-year students returning their sophomore year. This fall, MU also jumped up 15 places in the U.S. News & World Report rankings.

Choi has led efforts to strategically invest in UM System research, particularly through NextGen Precision Health with the anchoring facility set to officially open in Fall 2021 on MU's campus. In addition to attracting top scientists, NextGen Precision Health has the potential to make key discoveries — with treatments for prostate, breast and pancreatic cancers, traumatic brain injuries and rare musculoskeletal diseases — as well as increase health care access for rural Missourians.

Building a climate that promotes diversity and strengthens inclusion, is another key priority for Choi. For the first time ever, the entire university community is required this fall to complete cultural competency training. The American Council of Education recently cited MU as a national example for increasing its capacity to improve campus culture. In 2020, MU had the highest percentage of Black/African American students (7.7%) among all 11 Midwest flagship universities and, over the last four years, has increased its minority tenured-track faculty hires by 26 percent.

Choi strongly and continually advocates for every member of the university community to take personal responsibility for addressing discrimination when witnessing it - no matter how subtle or unintentional. The burden of raising awareness and creating a more inclusive culture falls on everyone's shoulder.

Choi came to Missouri in 2017 after nine years at the University of Connecticut where he served as a provost and executive vice president (2012-2017) and earlier as a dean of engineering (2008-2012). His 25-year career in higher education also includes serving eight years as a department head of engineering at Drexel University and six years as an assistant and associate professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

A product of and passionate champion for public higher education, he earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois. He secured his master's and Ph.D. degrees in mechanical and aerospace engineering from Princeton University. His parents brought their family to the United States from South Korea when Choi was 9 years old. His parents' initial U.S. jobs making uniforms for Taekwondo students and teachers evolved into a highly successful family business. The Choi Brothers in Chicago, where Choi worked as a young man, is now run by his sisters and is one of the country's largest suppliers of martial arts uniforms. Choi is married to Suzanne Choi and they have three children.

Since her appointment in 2021, Desiree Reed-Francois has begun to transform Mizzou Athletics in every way: from department culture to the student-athlete experience; from facility enhancements to fundraising; and from community engagement to the fan experience.

Among her early accomplishments is the construction of the Stephens Indoor Practice Facility for football, the hiring of Dennis Gates as the new Whitten Family Men's Basketball Head Coach and Caroline Westrup in women's golf, dozens of enhancements to the football game-day fan experience, the implementation of Black & Gold Fridays across the state, a retooling of the Tigers' NIL program and the creation of the 24-stop Come HOME Tour which covered more than 7,500 miles.

In 2021-22, success came on the field and in the classroom for the Tigers, with the wrestling team winning the Big 12 Championship and both gymnastics and wrestling earning Top 10 finishes in the NCAA Championships, with wrestler Keegan O'Toole winning the National Championship. Football played in the Armed Forces Bowl and later secured the best recruiting class in program history, men's golf earned its first NCAA Regional bid since 2018 and softball played host to an NCAA Regional for the second-straight season.

Academically, the Tigers posted a school-record department GPA of 3.22 in Fall 2021, along with a 3.20 in Spring 2022. Mizzou posted a combined NCAA Academic Progress Rate mark of 990 with football posting its best-ever score and four programs (women's basketball, women's cross country, women's golf and women's tennis) earning perfect scores of 1,000.

The Tiger Scholarship Fund raised over $41-million, the fourth-most productive year in TSF history and the highest production total in a year which did not contain a capital campaign.

Reed-Francois came to Mizzou after serving four years as the Director of Athletics at the University of Nevada Las Vegas. During her time with the Rebels, she completed or implemented more than $70 million in facility upgrades, hired seven head coaches – three who earned Conference Coach of the Year honors early in their tenures and oversaw the completion and opening of a $35-million on-campus football training complex and successfully negotiated a joint-use agreement with the NFL's Las Vegas Raiders and opened the new $2-billion Allegiant Stadium.

An adept fundraiser, Reed-Francois led a $60-million development drive at UNLV, including an $8-million estate gift, the largest estate gift in the school's history. Football season ticket sales and premium revenue jumped by 200 percent and 70 percent, respectively, and Reed-Francois introduced a new apparel agreement with Nike.

Prior to arriving at UNLV, Reed-Francois served as the deputy athletics director at Virginia Tech, overseeing external relations, the day-to-day operations of the department and football and as a senior associate athletics director at the University of Cincinnati. At the University of Tennessee, she became the first woman to oversee a men's basketball program in the SEC, which followed stints at California State University-Fresno, Santa Clara University, San Jose State University, the University of California Berkeley, and the University of San Francisco.

Reed-Francois earned a Bachelor's Degree from UCLA and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Arizona College of Law. She is a member of the State Bar of California and taught law classes at the University of Tennessee and at Santa Clara University. Prior to her work in college athletics, Reed-Francois worked as a legal associate for the Oakland Raiders and the NFL's Management Council.

She is a board member of the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches, recently served as vice chair of the NCAA Baseball Selection Committee and formerly was a member of the College Football Playoff Committee's operations committee. In addition, Reed-Francois is a member of the LEAD1 Association, the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators and National Association of College Directors of Athletics and has been a presenter at NACDA, NACMA, Women Leaders in College Sports, and Sports Business Journal's annual conventions. She has also participated in the Division I Athletics Directors Leadership Institute and Fellows Program and the Women Leaders in College Sports' Executive Institute.

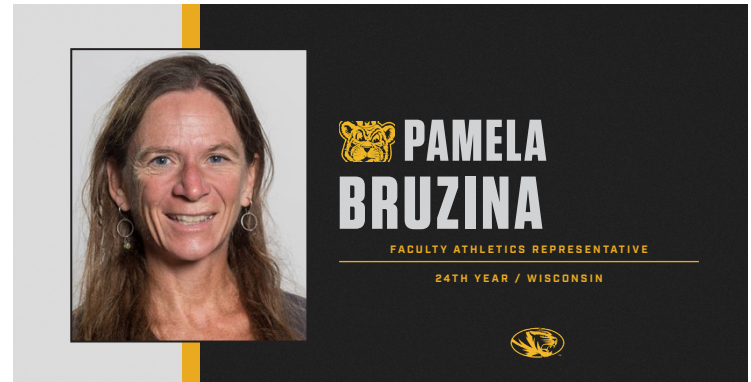

A former rowing student-athlete at UCLA, Reed-Francois is the first female athletic director in Mizzou's history, the first female athletic director in a public institution in the SEC and was the first Hispanic female and woman of color athletics director at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level.

She and her husband, Josh Francois, are the parents of current Mizzou men's basketball student-athlete Jackson Francois.

Dr. Pam (Hinton) Bruzina was appointed Faculty Athletics Representative by Interim Chancellor Hank Foley in May 2017.

Previously, Dr. Bruzina served as an executive member of the Intercollegiate Athletics Committee (IAC) and was the IAC Compliance Subcommittee Chair and the Student-Athlete Welfare Subcommittee Chair. Her dedication to the welfare of our student-athletes was evident during her time on the IAC.

Dr. Bruzina currently serves on the NCAA's Committee on Competitive Safeguards and Medical Aspects of Sport (CSMAS), as well as the Administrative, Practice and Prevention, Drug Testing and Research CSMAS Subcommittees. In addition, she is the Division I FBS representative on the Faculty Athletics Representatives Association Executive Committee.

Dr. Bruzina was a student-athlete at the University of Wisconsin, which provides her with firsthand knowledge of the demands placed on student-athletes. She was a track and cross-country student-athlete, going from walk-on to All-American. She earned a bachelor's degree, with distinction, in molecular biology; she then completed her PhD in Nutritional Sciences at Wisconsin and postdoctoral training in Maternal and Child Nutrition at Cornell University.

Dr. Bruzina joined the Department of Nutrition and Exercise Physiology at Mizzou in 2000. She is a Professor of Nutrition and Exercise Physiology, and her lab investigates the interactive effects of nutrition and physical activity on bone health.

HUBERT PRUETT • 1921Class of 1990*

A pitcher from Malden, Mo., Hubert Pruett lettered just one year at Missouri, in 1921, but made his mark on the Major League Baseball world with his ability to strike out the great Babe Ruth. Pruett compiled a 29-48 record, pitching for the St. Louis Browns, New York Giants, Boston Braves and Philadelphia Phillies. Pruett perfected a "screwball" and used it to strike out Ruth 10 of the first 13 times he faced him. In all, he faced Ruth 30 times. The "Babe" got only four hits in those at bats (including one home run off a curveball), struck out 15 times, walked eight times, sacrificed once, and grounded out twice. He retired from baseball in 1932 and Pruett was a doctor in St. Louis for 40 years.

He was a two-time all-conference, all-district and All-America player. He played in the majors with the 1994 New York Yankees.

KEITH WEBER • 1963-64

Those 11 wins are still tied for the school single-season record, and the strikeout total stood as the record for 26 years. His ERA contributed to a team figure of 0.65 that still stands as the NCAA record, and in this era of the aluminum bat, will probably never be broken. Weber, from Jefferson City, was All-Big Eight, All-District V and All-America in 1964, and signed with the New York Mets. He also was a quarterback in football, but injuries ended his career before he competed on the varsity level.

A first-team All-American third baseman in 1958 who came to Mizzou from nearby Mexico, Mo., Ray Uriarte walked on at MU in 1952, but was cut by legendary Coach John "Hi" Simmons. He later returned to ask "Why?" and Simmons told him he could try again when the team began outdoor workouts. He did, made the team, and went on to play four games as a freshman. He lettered in 1953, but his career was interrupted by military service, and made 18 jumps as a paratrooper in two years. He returned to Mizzou and was elected team captain in 1957. Uriarte led the Tigers to the 1958 Big Seven championship, the District V title and to second place in the College World Series. He led the team with 17 stolen bases, 39 runs scored, 36 walks and an on-base percentage of .662, which still stands as the MU single-season record. In addition to his All-American recognition in 1958, Uriarte also received All-Big Eight and All-District V honors that season. Called by Coach Simmons "the best leadoff man I ever had at the University," Uriarte later served as an assistant coach for Simmons in 1959 and 1960.

A freshman All-American at Mizzou in 1983, Otto earned Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in 1984 and 1985. He signed with the Oakland Athletics in 1985, and spent time in the major leagues with the A's in 1988-90. He earned third-team All-American honors in baseball, as a first baseman in 1958 and was also an All-District V and All-Big Eight selection that season, as he helped lead MU to the championship game of the College World Series, where MU lost in 12 innings to Southern Cal, 8-7. Siebert was named to the all-time College World Series team for the decade of the 1950s. He tied for the team lead in home runs, with eight in 1958 and later signed with the Cleveland Indians in 1958, and played at the major league level with several teams as a pitcher.

RAY THORPE
RAY THORPE • 1965-67
Class of 2004

Ray Thorpe was a two-sport standout who was recruited to play football at Mizzou, but also later excelled in baseball, while also running indoor track for one season. The St. Louis, Mo. native was also the first African-American to play baseball for Mizzou and earned All-American honors in 1967 in baseball, after leading the Tigers in hits, triples, home runs, stolen bases and walks. He was named to the Missouri College Baseball Hall of Fame in 1967 and played on the USA's Pan-American baseball squad in 1966. Harvey was a game-breaker on the gridiron for Coach Dan Devine, playing a big role on the 1965 MU squad that eventually won the 1966 Sugar Bowl. He proved instrumental to the team during the year, as he provided numerous big plays, scoring touchdowns that won a game against Oklahoma State and forced a tie against UCLA. His TD against Oklahoma State was a 42-yard run on a lateral from Gary Kombrink, and accounted for the only score in a 7-0 MU win. Harvey's touchdown against UCLA was a scintillating 79-yard kick return that got MU back into the game after the Bruins had taken a 14-0 lead - the game ended in a 14-14 tie. After graduating from Mizzou in 1967, Thorpe coached high school football in the St. Louis area, and during his teaching and coaching tenure, he was influential in the decision of many students and athletes to attend Mizzou.

DAVE HARVEY

RON COX • 1960-61Class of 2005*

Ron Cox was the first superstar shortstop in Mizzou Baseball history, who earned first-team All-American honors as a sophomore in 1960 after hitting .407 that season (the highest ever at the time by an All-American shortstop) and driving in a then-school record 36 runs. He became the first-ever sophomore in school history to earn first-team All-American honors and was featured on the cover of the 1961 Official NCAA Baseball Guide. Cox earned first-team All-Big Eight honors in 1960, as well as first-team All-District V honors that same year. An outstanding all-around athlete who also lettered on MU's basketball team in 1960, Cox was a part-time starter who was regarded as one of the better defensive players in the conference. He was instrumental in holding Nebraska star Hershel Turner below his scoring average in one game which helped lead to a Tiger victory. He was also offered a scholarship to play quarterback at Mizzou by coaches Frank Broyles and Dan Devine, but declined the offer to focus on baseball. Cox went on to sign with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1962 and played for nine years in the Cardinals and Pittsburgh Pirates organizations.

DAVE HARVEY • 1962-64Class of 2008*

Dave Harvey was a highly-decorated and accomplished third baseman during one of the most successful stretches ever put together by Mizzou baseball. He was a first-team All-American as a third baseman in 1964, after being named a second-team All-American at third in 1963. Harvey was a driving force behind Tiger teams which advanced to three consecutive College World Series and won three straight Big Eight Conference championships in 1962, 1963 and 1964. He hit .312 as a senior in 1964 and tied for the team lead in home runs (3), while he led the team in hitting in 1963, at a .359 clip. Mizzou went 26-5-1 in 1964, winning the Big Eight and finishing as national runners-up at the College World Series, a year after going 25-8 in 1963 when they finished fourth at the CWS. The Tigers had a 22-7 record in 1962 and advanced to the CWS. Harvey was an All-Big Eight performer in both 1963 and 1964 while earning All-District honors in both 1962 and 1964.

He holds MU single-season records in hits (92 in 1996) and home runs (27 in 1998) and hit .387 as a sophomore, when he set the MU single-season record with 92 hits in 1996. Fry is younger brother to former MU All-American wrestler, Shaon Fry, who was a 1999 inductee into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame.

1964 TEAMClass of 2009*

One of the most dominant teams in Mizzou athletics in any sport, finished the year as national runners-up, falling in the national title game to Minnesota. The 1964 team finished the year with a 27-5-1 overall record, including a perfect 19-0 record to claim Mizzou's fourth straight Big Eight title. The team led the nation in pitching, with a team earned run average of a miniscule 0.65 runs per game. This mark set the NCAA record at the time, and it still stands today as a record that might never be broken. The Tiger pitching staff was so dominant, it allowed one or zero runs in 21-of-33 games, including nine shutouts. In two games against Minnesota in the College World Series, Minnesota scored a total of two earned runs (MU won the first meeting, 4-1, but lost the championship game, 5-1). In the College World Series, Mizzou beat Arizona State (7-0), lost a one-run game to USC (3-2), then beat Seton Hall (3-1), Minnesota (4-1) and Maine (2-1) before falling to Minnesota in the title game (5-1). Two members of the team – Dave Harvey and Keith Weber, were first-team All-Americans – both are individual inductees into the MU Hall of Fame. Nine members of the team were All-Big Eight selections, including four on the first team. Eleven members of the team went on to sign professional baseball contracts.

TOM HECKMAN • 1978-81Class of 2011*

A dominant starter for some very good Mizzou baseball teams. He was an honorable-mention All-American pitcher (1981) for the Tigers who set numerous records during his time on the mound. Heckman won 10 games in three consecutive seasons (1979-80-81) and helped lead Mizzou to a Big Eight Conference championship in 1980. He completed his playing days holding Mizzou and Big Eight Conference records for career victories (38), and his 11 complete games in 1981 is also an MU single-season record. He led Mizzou in ERA in 1978 (1.94) and 1979 (2.33) and was an All-Big Eight selection his last two seasons (1980-81), and his 323.2 career innings pitched stood as the school record when he completed play. Heckman was also an outstanding student who was twice selected as an Academic All-American.

See page 109 for bio

IAN KINSLER • 2003Class of 2012*

Although he played only one season at Mizzou, Tiger head coach Tim Jamieson credits him with being a key figure in helping turn the program around, as he was instrumental in leading Mizzou back to the NCAA Tournament in 2003, after a six-year drought. That 2003 NCAA appearance started a string of seven-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances for the Tiger program. After transferring to Mizzou from Arizona State and junior college, Kinsler batted .335 for Mizzou in 2003, and was third on the team with six home runs and 45 RBI. He also went 16-of-17 in stolen bases during the season, and was named Second-Team All-Big 12 for his efforts. Entering his 14th season in Major League Baseball, Kinsler has accumulated four All-Star awards (2008, '10, '12, '14), two Gold Gloves (2016, '18) and recently captured his first World Series title with the Boston Red Sox in 2018.
